Contracting powers.

Les soussignés, plénipotentiaires des Gouvernements des pays ci-dessus énumérés, s'étant réunis en Congrès à Rome, en vertu de l'article 25 de la Convention postale universelle conclue à Washington le 15 juin 1897, ont, d'un commun accord et sous réserve de ratification, révisé ladite Convention conformément aux dispositions suivantes :

ARTICLE 1<sup>er</sup>.

Définition de l'Union postale.

Les pays entre lesquels est conclue la présente Convention, ainsi que ceux qui y adhéreront ultérieurement, forment, sous la dénomination d'Union postale universelle, un seul territoire postal pour l'échange réciproque des correspondances entre leurs bureaux de poste.

The undersigned, plenipotentiaries of the Governments of the above-named countries, being assembled in Congress at Rome, by virtue of Article 25 of the Universal Postal Convention concluded at Washington on the 15th of June, 1897, have, by common consent and subject to ratification, revised the said Convention in conformity with the following stipulations:

ARTICLE 1.

Vol. 30, p. 1646.

Object of convention.

ARTICLE 2.

Envois auxquels s'applique la Convention.

Scope of convention.

Les dispositions de cette Convention s'étendent aux lettres, aux cartes postales simples et avec réponse payée, aux imprimés de toute nature, aux papiers d'affaires et aux échantillons de marchandises originaires de l'un des pays de l'Union et à destination d'un autre de ces pays. Elles s'appliquent également à l'échange postal des objets ci-dessus entre les pays de l'Union et les pays étrangers à l'Union, toutes les fois que cet échange emprunte les services de deux des parties contractantes au moins.

ARTICLE 3.

Transport des dépêches entre pays limitrophes; services tiers.

Special agreements by contiguous countries.

1. Les Administrations des postes des pays limitrophes ou aptes à correspondre directement entre eux sans emprunter l'intermédiaire des services d'une tierce Administration, déterminent, d'un commun accord, les conditions du transport de leurs dépêches réciproques à travers la frontière ou d'une frontière à l'autre.

Maritime conveyance.

2. A moins d'arrangement contraire, on considère comme services tiers les transports maritimes effectués directement entre deux pays, au moyen de paquebots ou bâtiments dépendant de l'un d'eux, et ces transports, de même que ceux effectués entre deux bureaux d'un même pays, par l'intermédiaire de services maritimes ou territoriaux dépendant d'un autre pays, sont régis par les dispositions de l'article suivant.

ARTICLE 4.

Frais de transit.

Rates.

Transit guaranteed.

1. La liberté du transit est garantie dans le territoire entier de l'Union.

ARTICLE 2.

Articles to which the Convention applies.

The stipulations of this Convention extend to letters, post cards, both single and with reply paid, printed papers of every kind, commercial papers, and samples of merchandise originating in one of the countries of the Union and intended for another of those countries. They also apply to the exchange by mail of the articles above-mentioned between the countries of the Union and countries foreign to the Union, whenever the services of two of the contracting parties at least are used for that exchange.

ARTICLE 3.

Conveyance of mails between contiguous countries; third services.

1. The Postal Administrations of contiguous countries or countries able to correspond directly with each other without availing themselves of the services of a third Administration determine, by common consent, the conditions of the conveyance of the mails which they exchange across the frontier or from one frontier to the other.

2. In the absence of any contrary arrangement, the direct sea conveyance between two countries by means of Packets or vessels depending upon one of them is considered as a third service; and this conveyance, as well as any performed between two Offices of the same country, by the medium of sea or territorial services maintained by another country, is regulated by the stipulations of the following Article.

ARTICLE 4.

Transit rates.

1. The right of transit is guaranteed throughout the entire territory of the Union.

2. En conséquence, les diverses Administrations postales de l'Union peuvent s'expédier réciproquement par l'intermédiaire d'une ou de plusieurs d'entre elles, tant des dépêches closes que des correspondances à découvert, suivant les besoins du trafic et les convenances du service postal.

3. Les correspondances échangées en dépêches closes entre deux Administrations de l'Union, au moyen des services d'une ou de plusieurs autres Administrations de l'Union, sont soumises, au profit de chacun des pays traversés ou dont les services participent au transport, aux frais de transit suivants, savoir :

1° pour les parcours territoriaux :

- a. à 1 franc 50 centimes par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et à 20 centimes par kilogramme d'autres objets, si la distance parcourue n'excède pas 3,000 kilomètres;

- d. à 6 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes pos-

2. Consequently, the several Postal Administrations of the Union may send reciprocally through the medium of one or of several of them, either closed mails or articles in open-mail, according to the needs of the traffic and the convenience of the postal service.

3. Articles exchanged in closed mails between two Administrations of the Union, by means of the services of one or of several other Administrations of the Union are subject to the following transit charges to be paid to each of the countries traversed or whose services participate in the conveyance, viz.:

En cas de transport maritime effectué par deux ou plusieurs Administrations, les frais du parcours total ne peuvent pas dépasser 8 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et 1 franc par kilogramme d'autres objets; ces frais sont, le cas échéant, répartis entre les Administrations participant au transport, au prorata des distances parcourues, sans préjudice des arrangements différents qui peuvent intervenir entre les parties intéressées.

4. Les correspondances échangées à découvert entre deux Administrations de l'Union sont soumises, par article et sans égard au poids ou à la destination, aux frais de transit suivants, savoir:

lettres..... 6 centimes pièce;
cartes postales... 2½ centimes pièce;

5. Les prix de transit spécifiés au présent article ne s'appliquent pas aux transports dans l'Union au moyen de services extraordinaires spécialement créés ou entretenus par une Administration sur la demande d'une ou de plusieurs autres Administrations. Les conditions de cette catégorie de transports sont réglées de gré à gré entre les Administrations intéressées.

En outre, partout où le transit, tant territorial que maritime, est actuellement gratuit ou soumis à ports of two States served by the same line of Packets when the sea transit involved does not exceed 1,500 nautical miles;

c. 8 francs per kilogramme of letters and post cards and 1 franc per kilogramme of other articles, for all transits not included in the categories given above in paragraphs a and b.

In the case of sea conveyance effected by two or more Administrations, the charges paid for the entire transit cannot exceed 8 francs per kilogramme of letters and post cards, and 1 franc per kilogramme of other articles; these charges are, when occasion arises, shared between the Administrations participating in the service, in proportion to the distances traversed, without prejudice to any other arrangement which may be made between the parties interested.

4. Correspondence exchanged in open-mail between two Administrations of the Union are subject to the following transit charges per article, and irrespective of weight or destination, namely:

5. The transit rates specified in the present article do not apply to conveyance within the Union by means of extraordinary services specially established or maintained by one Administration at the request of one or several other Administrations. The conditions of this category of conveyance are regulated by mutual consent between the Administrations concerned.

Collections. 1. Les correspondances recommandées peuvent être expédiées grevées de remboursement dans les relations entre les pays dont les Administrations conviennent d'assurer ce service.

1. Registered articles may be sent marked with trade charges to be collected on delivery between countries of which the Administrations agree to provide this service.

Regulations, etc. Les objets contre remboursement sont soumis aux formalités et aux taxes des envois recommandés.

These articles are subject to the same regulations and rates as registered articles.

Maximum trade charges. Le maximum du remboursement est fixé, par envoi, à 1,000 francs ou à l'équivalent de cette somme.

The maximum trade charge which may be collected on any one registered article is fixed at 1,000 francs or at the equivalent of that sum.

Collections transmitted by money order. 2. A moins d'arrangement contraire entre les Administrations des pays intéressés, le montant encaissé du destinataire doit être transmis à l'expéditeur au moyen d'un mandat de poste, après déduction d'un droit d'encaissement de 10 centimes et de la taxe ordinaire des mandats calculée sur le montant du reliquat.

2. In the absence of any contrary arrangement between the Administrations of the countries concerned, the amount collected from the addressee is to be transmitted to the sender by means of a money order, after deducting a commission of 10 centimes for the service of collection and the ordinary rate chargeable for money orders calculated on the amount of the balance.

Undeliverable money orders. Le montant d'un mandat de remboursement tombé en rebut reste à la disposition de l'Administration du pays d'origine de l'envoi grevé de remboursement.

The amount of an undeliverable money order of this kind remains at the disposal of the Administration of the country in which the article marked with a trade charge originated.

3. For the loss of a registered article marked with a trade charge the responsibility of the postal service is fixed under the conditions laid down in Article 8 hereafter for registered articles not marked with trade charges.

ARTICLE 8.

Responsibility for registered Articles.

1. En cas de perte d'un envoi recommandé et sauf le cas de force majeure, l'expéditeur ou sur sa demande, le destinataire a droit à une indemnité de 50 francs.

2. Les pays disposés à se charger des risques pouvant dériver du cas de force majeure sont autorisés à percevoir de ce chef sur l'expéditeur une surtaxe de 25 centimes au maximum pour chaque envoi recommandé.

2. Countries prepared to undertake risks arising from causes beyond control are authorised to collect from the sender on this account a supplementary rate of not more than 25 centimes for each registered article.

Collection of supplementary rates.

3. L'obligation de payer l'indemnité incombe à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur. Est réservé à cette Administration le recours contre l'Administration responsable, c'est-à-dire contre l'Administration sur le territoire ou dans le service de laquelle la perte a eu lieu.

3. The obligation of paying the indemnity rests with the Administration to which the despatching office is subordinate. To that Administration is reserved a remedy against the Administration responsible, that is to say, against the Administration on the territory or in the service of which the loss took place.

Obligation to pay indemnity.

En cas de perte, dans des circonstances de force majeure, sur le territoire ou dans le service d'un pays se chargeant des risques mentionnés au paragraphe précédent, d'un objet recommandé provenant d'un autre pays, le pays où la perte a eu lieu en est responsable devant l'Office expéditeur, si ce dernier se charge, de son côté, des risques en cas de force majeure à l'égard de ses expéditeurs.

In case of the loss, under circumstances beyond control, on the territory or in the service of a country undertaking the risks mentioned in the preceding paragraph, of a registered article sent from another country, the country where the loss occurred is responsible for it to the despatching Office, if the latter undertake risks in cases beyond control in dealing with its own public.

Force majeure risks. Responsibility for losses.

4. Jusqu'à preuve du contraire, la responsabilité incombe à l'Administration qui, ayant reçu l'objet sans faire d'observation, ne peut établir ni la délivrance au destinataire, ni, s'il y a lieu, la transmission régulière à l'Administration suivante. Pour les envois adressés poste restante, ou conservés en instance à la disposition des destinataires, la responsabilité cesse par la délivrance à une personne qui a justifié de son identité suivant les règles en vigueur dans le pays de destination,

4. Until the contrary be proved, the responsibility rests with the Administration which, having received the article without making any observation, cannot establish the delivery to the addressee or the regular transfer to the following Administration, as the case may be. For articles addressed "Poste Restante," or held at the disposition of the addressees, the responsibility ceases on delivery to a person who has proved his identity according to the rules in force in the country of destina-et dont les noms et qualité sont conformes aux indications de l'adresse.

Payment of indemnity.

5. Le paiement de l'indemnité par l'Office expéditeur doit avoir lieu le plus tôt possible et, au plus tard, dans le délai d'un an à partir du jour de la réclamation. L'Office responsable est tenu de rembourser sans retard, à l'Office expéditeur, le montant de l'indemnité payée par celui-ci.

Office of origin to pay.

L'Office d'origine est autorisé à désintéresser l'expéditeur pour le compte de l'Office intermédiaire ou destinataire qui, régulièrement saisi, a laissé une année s'écouler sans donner suite à l'affaire. En outre, dans le cas où un Office dont la responsabilité est dûment établie, a tout d'abord décliné le paiement de l'indemnité, il doit prendre à sa charge, en plus de l'indemnité, les frais accessoires résultant du retard non justifié apporté au paiement.

Time limit.

6. Il est entendu que la réclamation n'est admise que dans le délai d'un an, à partir du dépôt à la poste de l'envoi recommandé; passé ce terme, le réclamant n'a droit à aucune indemnité.

Sharing liability

7. Si la perte a eu lieu en cours de transport sans qu'il soit possible d'établir sur le territoire ou dans le service de quel pays le fait s'est accompli, les Administrations en cause supportent le dommage par parts égales.

tion, and whose name and description correspond to those indicated in the address.

5. The payment of the indemnity by the despatching Office ought to take place as soon as possible, and at the latest within a year of the date of the application. The responsible Office is bound to refund to the despatching Office, without delay, the amount of the indemnity paid by the latter.

The Office of origin is authorized to make payment to the sender on account of the Office, whether intermediate or of destination, which, after application has been made in due course, has let a year pass without settling the matter. Moreover, in cases where an Office whose responsibility is duly established has at the outset declined to pay the indemnity such Office must take upon itself, in addition to the indemnity, the subsidiary expenses resulting from the unwarranted delay in payment.

6. It is understood that the application for an indemnity is only entertained if made within a year of the posting of the registered article; after this term the applicant has no right to any indemnity.

7. If the loss has occurred in course of conveyance without its being possible to ascertain on the territory or in the service of what country the loss took place, the Administrations concerned bear the loss in equal shares.

8. Administrations cease to be responsible for registered articles for which the owners have given a receipt and accepted delivery.

1. The sender of a letter or other article can have it withdrawn from the post or have its address altered, so long as such article has not been delivered to the addressee.

2. La demande à formuler à cet effet est transmise par voie postale ou par voie télégraphique aux frais de l'expéditeur, qui doit payer, savoir :

2° For every request by telegraph, the charge for a telegram according to the ordinary tariff.

3. L'expéditeur d'un envoi recommandé grevé de remboursement peut, aux conditions fixées pour les demandes de modification de l'adresse, demander le dégrèvement total ou partiel du montant du remboursement.

3. The sender of a registered article marked with a trade charge can, under the conditions laid down for requests for alteration of address, demand the total or partial cancelling of the amount of the trade charge.

Cancellation of trade charges.

4. Les dispositions du présent article ne sont pas obligatoires pour les pays dont la législation ne permet pas à l'expéditeur de disposer d'un envoi en cours de transport.

4. The stipulations of this Article are not obligatory for countries of which the legislation does not permit the sender to dispose of an article in its course through the post.

The Administrations which maintain post offices forming part of the Union in non-Union countries fix their rates in the local currency, in the same manner. When two or several Administrations maintain such offices in the same non-Union country, the local equivalents to be adopted by all such offices are fixed by mutual arrangement between the Administrations concerned.

1. Les Offices de l'Union qui ont des relations avec des pays situés en dehors de l'Union, doivent prêter leur concours à tous les autres Offices de l'Union :

1° pour la transmission, par leur intermédiaire, soit à découvert, soit en dépêches closes, si ce mode de transmission est admis d'un commun accord par les Offices d'origine et de destination des dépêches, des correspondances à destination ou provenant des pays en dehors de l'Union ;

2° pour l'échange des correspondances, soit à découvert, soit en dépêches closes, à travers les territoires ou par l'intermédiaire de services dépendant desdits pays en dehors de l'Union ;

3° pour que les correspondances soient soumises en dehors de l'Union, comme dans le ressort de l'Union, aux frais de transit déterminés par l'article 4.

2. Les frais totaux de transit maritime dans l'Union et en dehors de l'Union ne peuvent pas excéder 15 francs par kilogramme de lettres et de cartes postales et 1 franc par kilogramme d'autres objets. Le cas échéant, ces frais sont répartis au prorata des distances, entre les Offices intervenant dans le transport.

Ascertainment of charges.

3. Les frais de transit, territorial ou maritime, en dehors des limites de l'Union comme dans le ressort de l'Union, des correspondances auxquelles s'applique le présent article, sont constatés dans la même forme que les frais de transit afférents aux correspondances échangées entre pays de l'Union au moyen des services d'autres pays de l'Union.

ARTICLE 17.

Relations with Countries outside the Union.

1. Offices of the Union which have relations with countries situate outside the Union are to lend their assistance to all the other Offices of the Union :

1° For the transmission, by their services, either in open-mail or in closed mails, if this method of transmission is admitted by mutual agreement between the Offices of origin and destination of the mails, of articles addressed to or originating in Countries outside the Union ;

2° For the exchange of articles either in open-mail or in closed mails across the territories or by means of services maintained by the said Countries outside the Union ;

3° That the articles conveyed may be subject outside the Union, as within the Union, to the transit rates determined by Article 4.

2. The charges for the total sea transit, within and without the Union, may not exceed 15 francs per kilogramme of letters and post cards and 1 franc per kilogramme of other articles. If occasion arise these charges are divided, in the ratio of distances, between the Offices taking part in the sea conveyance.

3. The charges for transit, by land or sea, without as well as within the limits of the Union, on the articles to which the present Article applies are established in the same manner as the transit charges relating to articles exchanged between Union countries by means of the services of other countries of the Union.

4. Les frais de transit des correspondances à destination des pays en dehors de l'Union postale sont à la charge de l'Office du pays d'origine, qui fixe les taxes d'affranchissement dans son service desdites correspondances, sans que ces taxes puissent être inférieures au tarif normal de l'Union.

4. The transit charges on articles for countries outside the Postal Union are payable by the Office of the country of origin, which fixes the postage rates in its services for the said articles, but these rates may not be lower than the normal Union tariff.

5. Les frais de transit des correspondances originaires des pays en dehors de l'Union ne sont pas à la charge de l'Office du pays de destination. Cet Office distribue sans taxe les correspondances qui lui sont livrées comme complètement affranchies; il taxe les correspondances non affranchies au double du tarif d'affranchissement applicable dans son propre service aux envois similaires à destination du pays d'où proviennent lesdites correspondances, et les correspondances insuffisamment affranchies au double de l'insuffisance, sans que la taxe puisse dépasser celle qui est perçue sur les correspondances non affranchies de mêmes nature, poids et origine.

5. The transit charges on articles originating in countries outside the Union are not payable by the Office of the country of destination. That Office delivers without charge articles transmitted to it as fully prepaid; it charges unpaid articles double the prepaid rate applicable in its own service to similar articles addressed to the country where the said articles originate, and insufficiently prepaid articles double the deficiency; but the charge may not exceed that which is levied on unpaid articles of the same nature, weight, and origin.

FINAL PROTOCOL.

Final protocol.

Au moment de procéder à la signature des Conventions arrêtées par le Congrès postal universel de Rome, les plénipotentiaires soussignés sont convenus de ce qui suit:

At the moment of proceeding to sign the Conventions settled by the Universal Postal Congress of Rome, the undersigned plenipotentiaries have agreed as follows:

I.

I.

Vote of British South African Colonies.

Il est pris acte de la déclaration faite par la délégation britannique au nom de son Gouvernement et portant qu'il a cédé à la Nouvelle-Zélande avec les îles Cook et autres îles dépendantes, la voix que l'article 27, 7°, de la Convention attribue à "l'ensemble de toutes les autres colonies britanniques."

Note is taken of the declaration made by the British delegates in the name of their Government to the effect that it has assigned to New Zealand, with the Cook Islands and other island dependencies, the vote which Article 27, 7°, of the Convention attributes to "the whole of the other British colonies."

II.

Netherlands Colonies.

En dérogation à l'article 27 de la Convention principale, une is accorded to the Netherlands Colonies, in favour of the Netherlands East Indies.

III.

En dérogation aux dispositions du § 1 de l'article 5, il est entendu que, par mesure de transition, les Administrations postales qui, en raison de l'organisation de leur service intérieur, ou pour d'autres causes, ne pourraient adopter le principe de l'élévation du poids unitaire des lettres de 15 à 20 grammes et celui de l'abaissement de la taxe au-dessus de la première unité de poids à 15 centimes par port supplémentaire au lieu de 25 centimes, sont autorisées à ajourner l'application de ces deux dispositions ou de l'une ou l'autre, en ce qui concerne les lettres originaires de leur service, jusqu'au jour où elles seront en mesure de le faire, et à se conformer entre temps, aux prescriptions établies à ce sujet par le Congrès de Washington.

In modification of the stipulations of paragraph 1 of Article 5, it is agreed that, as a temporary measure, Postal Administrations, which in consequence of the organisation of their internal service, or for other causes, cannot adopt the principle of the increase of the unit of weight for letters from 15 to 20 grammes, and that of the reduction of the charge above the first unit of weight to 15 centimes for each supplementary rate instead of 25 centimes, are authorised to postpone the application of these two stipulations or of one or other of them, so far as regards letters originating in their service, until the day when they are in a position to apply them, and to conform in the meantime to the measures prescribed on this subject by the Congress of Washington.

Modification of stipulations.
Ante, p. 1644.

IV.

En dérogation à l'article 6 de la Convention, qui fixe à 25 centimes au maximum le droit de recommandation, il est convenu que les Etats hors d'Europe sont autorisés à maintenir ce maximum à 50 centimes, y compris la délivrance d'un bulletin de dépôt à l'expéditeur.

In modification of Article 6 of the Convention, which fixes at 25 centimes the maximum charge for registration, it is agreed that countries out of Europe are authorised to maintain this maximum at 50 centimes, inclusive of the delivery of a registry receipt to the sender.

Registration fee outside of Europe.
Ante, p. 1647.

V.

Par exception aux dispositions du § 3 de l'article 12 de la Convention, la Perse a la faculté de percevoir sur les destinataires des imprimés de toute sorte arrivant de l'étranger une taxe de 5 centimes par envoi distribué. Cette faculté lui est accordée à titre provisoire.

By way of exception to the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article 12 of the Convention, Persia has the right of collecting from the addressees of printed papers of all kinds received from foreign countries a tax of 5 centimes per article distributed. This right is accorded to it provisionally.

Provisional right accorded Persia, etc.
Ante, p. 1654.

V.

La même faculté est accordée à la Chine pour le cas où elle adhérerait à la Convention principale.

The same right is accorded to China in the event of its adhering to the principal Conventions.

Transit rates, Siberian Railway.
Ante, p. 1640.

Par exception aux dispositions de l'article 4 de la Convention principale et des paragraphes correspondants du Règlement relatif à cette Convention, il est convenu ce qui suit en ce qui concerne les frais de transit à payer à l'Administration russe du chef des correspondances échangées par la voie du chemin de fer sibérien:

By way of exception to the provisions of Article 4 of the Convention and to the corresponding paragraphs of the Regulations relative thereto, it is agreed as follows in regard to the transit rates to be paid to the Russian Administration on account of correspondence exchanged by way of the Siberian Railway:

Accounts.

1° Le décompte des frais de transit concernant les correspondances susmentionnées aura lieu, à partir de la date de l'ouverture du chemin de fer précité, sur la base de relevés spéciaux établis tous les trois ans pendant les vingt-huit premiers jours du mois de mai ou du mois de novembre (alternativement) de la deuxième année de chaque période triennale, pour sortir leurs effets rétroactivement à partir de la première année.

1° The accounting for transit charges in respect of the articles mentioned above shall be based, from the date of the opening of the aforesaid railway, on special returns taken every three years during the first 28 days of the month of May or of the month of November (alternately) of the second year of each triennial period, such returns to take effect retrospectively from the first year.

Payments.

2° La statistique de mai 1908 réglera les paiements à faire depuis la date du commencement éventuel du trafic dont il s'agit jusqu'à la fin de l'année 1909. La statistique de novembre 1911 s'appliquera aux années 1910, 1911 et 1912, et ainsi de suite.

2° The statistics of May 1908 shall regulate the payments to be made from the date of the commencement of the traffic in question until the end of the year 1909. The statistics of November 1911 shall apply to the years 1910, 1911, and 1912, and so on.

Separate statistics.

3° Si un pays de l'Union commence l'expédition de ses correspondances en transit par le chemin de fer sibérien, pendant l'application de la statistique susmentionnée, la Russie a la faculté de réclamer une statistique à part se rapportant exclusivement à cette correspondance.

3° If a country of the Union commences the despatch of its articles by way of the Siberian Railway during the period covered by the above-mentioned statistics, Russia has the right to demand the taking of separate statistics relating exclusively to such articles.

Provisional payments.

4° Les paiements des frais de transit dus à la Russie pour la première et, au besoin, pour la seconde

5° Le transit à découvert n'est pas admis par le chemin de fer précité.

Le Japon a la faculté d'appliquer les dispositions de chaque paragraphe du présent article en ce qui concerne le décompte des frais de transit dus au Japon pour le transit territorial ou maritime des correspondances échangées par la voie du chemin de fer japonais en Chine (Mandchourie) et en ce qui concerne la non-admission du transit à découvert.

VII.

Il reste aussi ouvert dans le même but :

- a. Au Nicaragua et au Pérou dont les délégués au Congrès n'étaient pas munis de pleins pouvoirs;

Les soussignés, vu l'article 20 de la Convention postale universelle, conclue à Rome le 26 mai 1906 ont, au nom de leurs Administrations respectives, arrêté d'un commun accord les mesures suivantes, pour assurer l'exécution de ladite Convention.

The undersigned, having regard to Article 20 of the Universal Postal Convention concluded at Rome on the 26th of May, 1906, have, in the name of their respective Administrations, settled by common consent the following measures for ensuring the execution of the said Convention.

Measures adopted. Ante, p. 1660.

I.

I.

1. Chaque Administration est obligée d'expédier, par les voies les plus rapides dont elle peut disposer pour ses propres envois, les dépêches closes et les correspondances à découvert qui lui sont livrées par une autre Administration.

1. Each Administration is bound to forward, by the most rapid routes at its disposal for its own mails, the closed mails and the articles in open-mail which are delivered to it by another Administration.

Forwarding by most rapid route.

Dans le cas où une Administration, par des circonstances extraordinaires, se voit obligée de suspendre temporairement l'expédition des dépêches closes et des correspondances à découvert qui lui sont livrées par une autre Administration, elle est tenue d'en donner immédiatement avis, au besoin par télégraphe, à l'Administration ou aux Administrations intéressées.

Supplemental charges.

2. Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté de percevoir des taxes supplémentaires, en représentation des frais extraordinaires afférents à certaines voies, sont libres de ne pas diriger par ces voies, lorsqu'il existe d'autres moyens de communication, celles des correspondances insuffisamment affranchies pour lesquelles l'emploi desdites voies n'a pas été réclamé expressément par les envoyeurs.

it by another Administration, it is bound at once to notify the fact, if necessary by telegraph, to the Administration or Administrations concerned.

2. Administrations which avail themselves of the option to levy supplementary charges, as representing the extraordinary expenses pertaining to certain routes, are free not to forward by those routes, when other means of communication exist, any insufficiently paid articles for which the employment of the said routes has not been expressly prescribed by the senders.

II.

Echange en dépêches closes.

Arrangement of exchanges in closed mails.

1. L'échange des correspondances en dépêches closes, entre les Administrations de l'Union, est réglé d'un commun accord et selon les nécessités du service entre les Administrations en cause.

Notice of exchange.

2. S'il s'agit d'un échange à faire par l'entremise d'un ou de plusieurs pays tiers, les Administrations de ces pays doivent en être prévenues en temps opportun.

When closed mails are obligatory.

3. Il est, d'ailleurs, obligatoire, dans ce dernier cas, de former des dépêches closes toutes les fois qu'une des Administrations intermédiaires en fait la demande, se basant sur le fait que le nombre des correspondances à découvrir est de nature à entraver ses opérations.

Notice of changes in routes.

4. En cas de changement dans un service d'échange en dépêches closes établi entre deux Administrations par l'entremise d'un ou de plusieurs pays tiers, l'Administration qui a provoqué le changement en donne connaissance aux Administrations des pays par l'entremise desquels cet échange s'effectue.

II.

Exchange in Closed Mails.

1. The exchange of articles in closed mails between the Administrations of the Union is regulated by common consent between the Administrations concerned, and according to the necessities of the service.

2. If an exchange is to take place through the medium of one or more countries, timely notice must be given to the Administrations of those countries.

3. It is, moreover, obligatory, in this latter case, to make up closed mails whenever a request to that effect is made by one of the intermediate Administrations on the ground that the number of articles sent in open-mail is such as to hinder its work.

4. In case of alteration in a service of closed mails established between two Administrations through the medium of one or several other countries the Administration which has originated the alteration gives notice thereof to the Administrations of the countries through the medium of which this exchange is effected.

III.

Les services extraordinaires de l'Union donnant lieu à des frais spéciaux dont la fixation est réservée, par l'article 4 de la Convention, à des arrangements entre les Administrations intéressées, sont exclusivement:—

- 1° ceux qui sont entretenus pour le transport territorial accéléré de la Malle dit des Indes;
- 2° celui qui est établi pour le transport des dépêches par chemin de fer entre Colon et Panama.

IV.

Fixation des taxes.

1. En exécution de l'article 10 de la Convention, les Administrations des pays de l'Union qui n'ont pas le franc pour unité monétaire ou qui entretiennent des agences postales en dehors de l'Union perçoivent leurs taxes d'après les équivalents ci-dessous:—

III.

2. En cas de changement du système monétaire dans l'un des pays susmentionnés ou de modification importante dans la valeur de sa monnaie, l'Administration de ce pays doit s'entendre avec l'Administration des postes suisses pour modifier les équivalents ci-dessus; il appartient à cette dernière Administration de faire notifier la modification à tous les autres Offices de l'Union par l'intermédiaire du Bureau international.

2. In case of alteration in the monetary system of any one of the countries above-mentioned or of an important modification in the value of its money, the Administration of that country must come to an understanding with the Swiss Postal Administration in order to modify the above equivalents; it devolves upon this latter Administration to notify the change to all the other Offices of the Union through the medium of the International Bureau.

Notice of monetary changes.

3. Les fractions monétaires résultant, soit du complément de taxe applicable aux correspondances insuffisamment affranchies, soit de la fixation des taxes des correspondances échangées avec les pays étrangers à l'Union ou de la combinaison des taxes de l'Union avec les surtaxes prévues par l'article 5 de la Convention, peuvent être arrondies par les Administrations qui en effectuent la perception. Mais la somme à ajouter de ce chef ne peut, dans aucun cas, excéder la valeur d'un vingtième de franc (cinq centimes).

3. The monetary fractions resulting either from the complement of the charge applicable to insufficiently paid articles, or from the fixing of the charges for articles exchanged with countries foreign to the Union, or from the combination of the Union charges with the surcharges contemplated by Article 5 of the Convention, may be rounded by the Administrations which levy the payments. But the sum to be added on this account must in no case exceed the value of one-twentieth of a franc (five centimes).

Exceptions en matière de poids.

Exceptions in the matter of weight.

Il est admis, par mesure d'exception, que les États qui, à cause de leur régime intérieur, ne peuvent adopter le type de poids décimal métrique, ont la faculté d'y substituer l'once avoir-dupois (28,3465 grammes) en assimilant une once à 20 grammes pour les lettres et deux onces à 50 grammes pour les autres objets, et d'élever, au besoin, la limite du port simple des journaux à quatre onces, mais sous la condition expresse que, dans ce dernier cas, le port des journaux ne soit pas inférieur à 10 centimes et qu'il soit perçu un port entier par numéro de journal, alors même que plusieurs journaux se trouveraient groupés dans un même envoi.

As an exceptional measure, it is agreed that States which, by reason of their internal regulations, are unable to adopt the decimal metrical system of weight, have the option of substituting for it the ounce avoir-dupois (28.3465 grammes) assimilating one ounce to 20 grammes for letters, and two ounces to 50 grammes for other articles and of raising, if needful, the limit of the single rate of postage of newspapers to four ounces, but under the express condition that, in the latter case, the postage on newspapers be not less than 10 centimes, and that an entire rate of postage be charged for each copy of the newspaper, even though several newspapers be included in the same packet.

L'indication du nombre d'unités ou de fraction de l'unité monétaire, servant à exprimer cette valeur, est faite en chiffres arabes.

3. Les timbres-poste peuvent être marqués à l'emporte-pièce de perforations distinctives (initiales ou autres) dans les conditions fixées par l'Administration qui les a émis.

2. The International Bureau furnishes the coupons at the cost of printing, &c., to the Administrations which apply for them.

4. Les coupons présentés par le public sont échangés contre un timbre-poste ou des timbres-poste d'une valeur nominale de 25 centimes dans les pays qui adhèrent à ce service.

5. Les coupons ainsi échangés sont envoyés trimestriellement ou annuellement au Bureau international, après avoir été classés par pays d'origine; ils sont accompagnés d'un bordereau indiquant leur nombre pour chacun de ces pays.

(b) Au crédit. La valeur en francs et centimes des coupons émis par d'autres Offices et échangés contre des timbres-poste par ladite Administration pendant la même période;

(c) Le solde créditeur ou débiteur.

Pour l'établissement de ce compte, la valeur du coupon est calculée à 28 centimes par unité.

7. Après vérification, un des doubles du compte est renvoyé dûment accepté au Bureau international. Tout compte non renvoyé à ce Bureau au moment fixé pour la liquidation est considéré comme régulier.

8. Six mois après l'envoi des comptes, le Bureau international en règle la liquidation de manière

5. The coupons so exchanged are sent quarterly or annually to the International Bureau, after classification according to the countries of origin; they are accompanied by a list showing the number for each of those countries.

6. At the end of the year the International Bureau sends to each Administration concerned an account in duplicate showing—

(a) On the debit side, the value in francs and centimes of the coupons issued by that Administration and exchanged for postage stamps of other Administrations in the course of the year. The coupons are attached as vouchers;

- 2° désignation des correspondances admises ;
- 3° affranchissement obligatoire ou facultatif ;

Rate stamps.

2. A l'arrivée, le bureau de destination applique son timbre à date au verso des lettres et au recto des cartes postales.

Correspondence with Countries foreign to the Union.

Offices of the Union which have relations with countries foreign to the Union furnish to the other Offices of the Union a list of those countries, indicating :

- 1° Rates for sea or land transit applicable to conveyance outside the limits of the Union ;
- 2° The kind of articles admitted ;

- 5° Extent of pecuniary responsibility as regards registered articles ;
- 6° Whether advices of delivery are obtainable or not ; and
- 7° As far as possible, the rates of postage from the country outside the Union to the countries of the Union.

IX.

1. Articles despatched from countries of the Union are impressed with a stamp indicating as far as possible in Roman characters the place of origin and the date of posting.

Moreover, all the valid postage stamps should be obliterated.

2. On arrival, the Office of destination impresses its date-stamp on the back of the letters and on the front of post cards.

Le bureau de la première destination peut, en outre, marquer une empreinte de son timbre à date au recto de la seconde partie des cartes postales avec réponse payée.

3. Les objets de correspondance mal dirigés doivent être frappés de l'empreinte du timbre à date du bureau auquel ils sont parvenus par erreur. Cette obligation incombe non seulement aux bureaux sédentaires, mais aussi aux bureaux ambulants autant que possible.

4. Le timbrage des correspondances déposées sur les paquebots dans les boîtes mobiles ou entre les mains des agents des postes embarqués ou des commandants incombe, dans les cas prévus par le paragraphe 5 de l'article 11 de la Convention, à l'agent des postes embarqué ou, s'il n'y en a pas, au bureau de poste auquel ces correspondances sont livrées en main. Le cas échéant, celui-ci les frappe de son timbre à date ordinaire et y appose la mention "Paquebot" soit à la main, soit au moyen d'une griffe ou d'un timbre.

5. Les correspondances originaires des pays étrangers à l'Union sont frappées, par l'Office de l'Union qui les a recueillies, d'un timbre indiquant le point et la date d'entrée dans le service de cet Office.

6. Les correspondances non affranchies ou insuffisamment affranchies sont, en outre, frappées du timbre T (taxe à payer), dont l'application incombe à l'Office du pays d'origine s'il s'agit de correspondances originaires de l'Union, et à l'Office du pays d'entrée s'il s'agit de correspondances originaires de pays étrangers à l'Union.

7. Les envois à remettre par exprès sont frappés d'un timbre portant en gros caractères le mot "Express." Les Administrations sont toutefois autorisées à remplacer ce timbre par une étiquette imprimée ou par une inscription manuscrite et soulignée en crayon de couleur.

The first Office of destination can, moreover, impress its date-stamp on the front of the second half of reply-paid post-cards.

3. Missent articles must be date-stamped by the Office to which they are sent in error. This obligation is imposed, not only on stationary Offices, but also on traveling Post Offices as far as possible.

Missent articles.

4. The stamping of articles deposited on board vessels in the movable boxes or in the hands of the postal agents on board or of the commanders devolves, in the cases contemplated by paragraph 5 of Article 11 of the Convention, upon the postal agent on board, or, if there be none, on the Post Office to which the articles are handed over for disposal. In the latter case this Office marks the articles with its ordinary date stamp, and with the word "Paquebot," either in manuscript or by means of an autograph stamp or an ordinary stamp.

Articles deposited on shipboard.

5. Articles originating in countries foreign to the Union are marked, by the Office of the Union which first received them, with a stamp indicating the place and date of entry into the service of that Office.

Articles from non-Union countries.

6. Unpaid or insufficiently paid articles are, in addition, impressed with the stamp T (tax to be paid), the application of which devolves upon the Office of the country of origin in the case of articles originating in the Union, and upon the Office of the country of entry in the case of articles originating in countries foreign to the Union.

Insufficient postage, etc.

7. Articles to be delivered by special delivery are impressed with a stamp bearing in large letters the word "Express." Administrations are, however, authorized to substitute for that stamp a printed label or a written inscription underlined with a colored pencil.

Special delivery articles.

Report of irregularity.

Les envois qui ont été munis de la mention "Exprès" par le bureau d'origine sont remis à domicile par porteur spécial, même en cas d'omission ou d'insuffisance de l'affranchissement. Le cas échéant, le bureau d'échange du pays de destination est tenu de signaler l'irrégularité par bulletin de vérification à l'Administration centrale dont relève le bureau d'origine. Ce bulletin doit relater très exactement l'origine et la date du dépôt de l'envoi.

Articles which have been marked "Express" by the Office of origin are delivered by special messenger, even when prepayment has been omitted or is insufficient. In such cases the Office of Exchange of the country of destination is bound to report the irregularity by Verification Note to the Central Administration to which the Office of origin is subordinate. This Verification Note must state very precisely the origin and date of mailing of the article.

Articles considered prepaid.

8. Tout objet de correspondance ne portant pas le timbre T est considéré comme affranchi et traité en conséquence, sauf erreur évidente.

8. Every article which does not bear the stamp T is considered to be paid and treated accordingly, unless there be an obvious error.

Uncanceled stamps.

9. Les timbres-poste non oblitérés ensuite d'erreur ou d'omission dans le service d'origine doivent l'être de la manière usuelle par le bureau qui constate l'irrégularité.

9. Postage stamps not cancelled in consequence of error or omission on the part of the Office of origin must be cancelled in the usual way by the Office which detects the irregularity.

X.

X.

Indication of the Number of Rates.

Rates due to be indicated.

Lorsqu'une lettre ou tout autre objet de correspondance non affranchi ou insuffisamment affranchi est passible, en raison de son poids, de plus d'un port simple, l'Office d'origine ou d'entrée dans l'Union, suivant le cas, indique, à l'angle gauche supérieur de la suscription, en chiffres ordinaires, le nombre des ports de l'objet.

When a letter or other article of correspondence, unpaid or insufficiently prepaid, is liable, by reason of its weight, to more than a single rate of postage, the Office of origin, or of entry into the Union, as the case may be, indicates in the upper left-hand corner of the address, in ordinary figures, the number of rates.

XI.

Affranchissement insuffisant.

XI.

Marking insufficient payments.

1. Lorsqu'un objet est insuffisamment affranchi au moyen de timbres-poste, l'Office expéditeur indique, au moyen d'un timbre ou d'un autre procédé, en chiffres bien lisibles apposés à côté des timbres-poste, le double du montant de l'insuffisance en l'exprimant en francs et centimes.

1. When an article is insufficiently prepaid by means of postage stamps, the despatching Office indicates by means of a stamp or other process in easily read figures placed by the side of the postage stamps, double the amount of the deficiency, expressing it in francs and centimes.

Exception.

Il est fait exception, toutefois, pour les correspondances qui sont devenues insuffisamment affranchies par suite de leur réexpédi-

An exception is made, however, in the case of articles which have become insufficiently prepaid in consequence of redirection tion et auxquelles sont applicables les dispositions de l'article XXVII du présent Règlement.

2. D'après cette indication, le bureau d'échange du pays de destination frappe l'objet du montant de la taxe annotée, conformément aux dispositions du § 3 de l'article 5 de la Convention.

3. Dans le cas où il a été fait usage de timbres-poste non valables pour l'affranchissement, il n'en est tenu aucun compte. Cette circonstance est indiquée par le chiffre zéro (0), placé à côté des timbres-poste.

XII.

Conditionnement des objets recommandés.

1. Les objets de correspondance adressés sous des initiales et ceux qui portent une adresse écrite au crayon ne sont pas admis à la recommandation.

2. Aucune condition spéciale de forme ou de fermeture n'est exigée pour les objets recommandés. Chaque Office a la faculté d'appliquer à ces envois les règles établies dans son service intérieur.

3. Les objets recommandés doivent porter à l'angle gauche supérieur de la suscription une étiquette conforme ou analogue au modèle B annexé au présent Règlement, avec l'indication en caractères latins, du nom du bureau d'origine et du numéro d'ordre sous lequel l'envoi est inscrit dans le registre de ce bureau.

Toutefois, il est permis aux Administrations dont le régime intérieur s'oppose actuellement à l'emploi des étiquettes, d'ajourner la mise à exécution de cette mesure et de continuer à employer des timbres pour la désignation des objets recommandés.

Il est cependant de rigueur, pour les Offices qui n'ont pas adopté l'étiquette modèle B, de désigner chaque envoi recommandé par un numéro d'ordre. Ce numéro doit être inscrit à l'angle gauche supérieur de la and to which the stipulations of Article XXVII of the present Regulations are applicable.

2. According to this indication, the office of exchange of the country of the destination taxes the article with the amount marked, in conformity with the provisions of paragraph 3 of Article 5 of the Convention.

3. If postage stamps not available for prepayment have been employed, no account is taken of them. This circumstance is indicated by the figure naught (0) placed by the side of the postage stamps.

XII.

Conditions applicable to Registered Articles.

1. Articles addressed to initials or in pencil are not admitted to registration.

2. No special conditions as to form or fastening are prescribed for registered articles. Each Office has the right to apply to such articles the regulations in force in its inland service.

3. Registered articles should bear in the upper left-hand corner of the address labels in conformity with or analogous to the Form B annexed to the present Regulations, indicating in Roman characters the name of the Office of origin and the number under which the article is entered in the records of that Office.

Nevertheless, Administrations whose inland regulations do not at present admit the use of labels may postpone the introduction of this arrangement, and continue the use of stamps to distinguish registered articles.

It is, however, compulsory for Offices which have not adopted the label Form B to designate each registered article by a number. This number must be written in the upper left-hand corner of the address. It is obligatory

4. Les envois recommandés non affranchis ou insuffisamment affranchis sont transmis aux destinataires sans taxe, mais le bureau qui reçoit un envoi dans ces conditions est tenu de signaler le cas par bulletin de vérification à l'Administration dont relève le bureau d'origine. Le bulletin doit relater très exactement l'origine, la date du dépôt, le poids, la nature et le numéro de l'envoi, ainsi que la valeur des timbres-poste apposés sur l'objet recommandé si l'affranchissement est insuffisant.

Cette prescription ne s'applique pas aux envois recommandés qui, par suite de réexpédition, deviennent passibles d'une taxe supérieure. Ces derniers envois sont traités en conformité des dispositions du § 2 de l'article XXVII du présent Règlement.

XIII.

Indemnité pour la perte d'un envoi recommandé.

Reimbursement of losses.

Lorsque l'indemnité due pour la perte d'un envoi recommandé a été payée par une Administration pour le compte d'une autre Administration, rendue responsable, celle-ci est tenue d'en rembourser le montant dans le délai de trois mois après avis du payement. Ce remboursement s'effectue, soit au moyen d'un mandat de poste ou d'une traite, soit en espèces ayant cours dans le pays créditeur. Lorsque le remboursement des frais, ils sont toujours à la charge de l'Office débiteur.

Avis de réception des objets recommandés.

Return receipts for registered articles.

1. Les envois dont l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception doivent porter l'annotation très for forwarding Offices to designate the article by the original number.

4. Unpaid or insufficiently paid registered articles are forwarded to the addressees without charge, but the Office which receives an article in these conditions is bound to report the case by Bulletin of verification to the Administration to which the Office of origin is subordinate. The Bulletin must make precise mention of the origin, the date of mailing, the weight, the nature, and the number of the article, as well as the value of the postage stamps affixed to the registered article in the case of insufficient prepayment.

This rule does not apply to registered articles which, in consequence of redirection, became liable to higher postage. Such articles are treated in conformity with the provisions of § 2 of Article XXVII of the present Regulations.

XIII.

Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Article.

When the indemnity due for the loss of a registered article has been paid by one Administration, on behalf of another Administration which is responsible for the loss, the latter is bound to repay the amount within three months after receiving notice of the payment. This repayment is effected either by means of a postal money order or a draft, or in specie current in the country to which payment is due. When the repayment of the indemnity involves expenses, they are always borne by the indebted Office.

XIV.

Return-receipts for Registered Articles.

1. Articles for which the sender requests a return-receipt must be marked very clearly with the in-apparente "Avis de réception" ou l'empreinte d'un timbre portant: A. R.

2. Ils sont accompagnés d'une formule conforme ou analogue au modèle C ci-annexé; cette formule est établie par le bureau d'origine ou par tout autre bureau à désigner par l'Office expéditeur et réunie, au moyen d'un croisé de ficelle, à l'objet auquel elle se rapporte. Si elle ne parvient pas au bureau de destination, celui-ci dresse d'office un nouvel avis de réception.

Les avis de réception doivent être formulés en français ou porter une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue.

3. Le bureau de destination, après avoir dûment rempli la formule C, la renvoie sous enveloppe au bureau d'origine.

4. Lorsque l'expéditeur demande un avis de réception d'un objet recommandé postérieurement au dépôt de cet objet, le bureau d'origine reproduit sur une formule C, préalablement revêtue d'un timbre-poste représentant la taxe d'avis de réception, la description très exacte de l'objet recommandé (nature de l'objet, bureau d'origine, date de dépôt, numéro, adresse complète du destinataire).

Cette formule est attachée à une réclamation modèle H et traitée selon les prescriptions de l'article XXX du présent Règlement, à cette exception près, que, en cas de distribution régulière de l'envoi auquel l'avis de réception se rapporte, le bureau de destination retire la formule H et renvoie la formule C, dûment remplie, au bureau d'origine de la manière prescrite au § 3 précédent.

Chaque Administration a la faculté, le cas échéant, de réunir la formule C et la formule H en une seule formule.

5. Si un avis de réception régulièrement demandé par l'expéditeur au moment du dépôt, n'est pas parvenu dans les délais voulus au bureau d'origine, on procède, pour réclamer l'avis manquant, conformément aux règles scription, "Avis de réception," or be stamped with the letters A. R.

2. They are accompanied by a form in accordance with or analogous to the Form C annexed; this form is made out by the office of origin or by any other office which the despatching office may appoint, and is attached by string tied crosswise to the article to which it relates. If it does not reach the office of destination, the latter makes one out for itself.

Return-receipts must be drawn up in French or must bear a sublineary translation in that language.

3. The office of destination, after having duly filled up form C returns it under cover to the Office of origin.

4. When the sender requests a return-receipt for a registered article after the article has been posted, the office of origin enters in a form C, after affixing to it a postage stamp representing the fee for an advice of delivery, an exact description of the registered article (its nature, office of origin, date of posting, number, complete address of the addressee).

This form is attached to a form H and treated according to the provisions of Article XXX. of the present Regulations, with the exception that, in case of the regular delivery of the article to which the advice of delivery relates, the office of destination withdraws the form H and returns form C duly completed, to the office of origin in the manner prescribed by the preceding paragraph 3.

Each Administration has the option, if it desires to combine form C and form H in one form.

5. If a return-receipt duly applied for by the sender at the time of posting is not received back after a proper interval in the office of origin, enquiry for the missing return-receipt is instituted in accordance with the pro-

Registered Articles marked with Trade Charges.

1. Registered articles marked with trade charges must bear on the address side the heading "Remboursement," written or printed in a prominent manner, and followed by the indication of the amount of the trade charge in the money of the country of destination, unless there are arrangements to the contrary between the Administrations interested. This amount is expressed in Roman characters, in words and in figures, without erasure or correction, even if certified. The sender must indicate on the front or on the back his name and address likewise in Roman characters.

2. Registered articles marked with trade charges must bear on the address side an orange-coloured label similar to Form D, annexed to the present Regulations.

3. If the addressee does not pay the amount of the trade charges within an interval of seven days, in relations between European countries, and within an interval of 15 days in relations between countries of Europe and countries outside of Europe, or between these last mentioned countries themselves, reckoning from the day after that of arrival at the office of destination, the article is sent back to the office of origin.

4. In the absence of any other arrangement, the sum recovered, du droit d'encaissement prévu à l'article 7, § 2, de la Convention et de la taxe ordinaire des mandats de poste, est convertie en un mandat de poste portant en tête du recto la mention " Remb." et établi pour le surplus en conformité du Règlement d'exécution de l'Arrangement concernant le service des mandats de poste. Il doit être fait mention, sur le coupon du mandat, du nom et de l'adresse du destinataire de l'envoi contre remboursement, ainsi que du lieu et de la date du dépôt de cet envoi.

5. Sauf arrangement contraire, les envois grevés de remboursement peuvent être réexpédiés d'un des pays participant à ce service sur un autre de ces pays. En cas de réexpédition, l'envoi conserve intacte la demande de remboursement originale, telle que l'expéditeur lui-même l'a formulée. L'Office de la destination définitive doit seul procéder à la conversion dans sa monnaie du montant du remboursement, d'après le taux en vigueur pour les mandats de poste dans le cas où il n'aurait pas le même système monétaire que celui dans lequel le remboursement est exprimé; il lui appartient aussi de transformer le remboursement en un mandat sur le pays d'origine.

1. Les cartes postales doivent porter, en tête du recto, le titre " Carte postale " en français ou l'équivalent de ce titre dans une autre langue. Toutefois, ce titre n'est pas obligatoire pour les cartes postales simples émanant de l'industrie privée.

Les dimensions des cartes ne peuvent dépasser 14 centimètres en longueur et 9 centimètres en largeur, ni être inférieures à 10 centimètres en longueur et à 7 centimètres en largeur. Les cartes postales doivent être expédiées à découvert, c'est-à-dire sans bande ni enveloppe.

On the coupon of the order the name and address of the addressee of the article marked with a trade charge must be entered, as well as the date and place of posting of the article.

5. In the absence of any arrangement to the contrary articles marked with trade charges may be re-forwarded from one of the countries participating in this service to another of those countries. In case of redirection, the sender's marking of the trade charge is preserved intact. Upon the Office of final destination alone devolves the conversion into its currency of the amount of the trade charges, in accordance with the rate of exchange in force for money orders, in cases where its monetary system is not that in which the trade charges are expressed; it also devolves upon that Office to draw a money order for the amount of the trade charges on the country of origin.

L'expéditeur dispose du verso et de la partie gauche du recto, sous réserve des dispositions du paragraphe suivant.

The address of the recipient as well as indications relating to the postal service (registered, advice of delivery, &c.) must likewise appear on the face, of which the right hand half at least is reserved for these indications. The sender may dispose of the back and of the left hand half of the face, subject to the stipulations of the following paragraph.

1. Les feuilles d'avis accompagnant les dépêches échangées entre deux Administrations de l'Union sont conformes au modèle E joint au présent Règlement. Elles sont placées sous des enveloppes de couleur portant distinctement l'indication "Feuille d'avis".

2. On indique, le cas échéant, à l'angle droit supérieur le nombre des sacs ou paquets détachés composant l'envoi auquel la feuille d'avis se rapporte.

Sauf arrangement contraire, dans les relations par mer, les bureaux expéditeurs doivent numéroter les feuilles d'avis à l'angle gauche supérieur, d'après une série annuelle par chaque bureau d'origine et pour chaque bureau de destination, en mentionnant autant que possible, au-dessus du numéro, le nom du paquebot ou du bâtiment qui emporte la dépêche.

3. On doit mentionner, en tête de la feuille d'avis, le nombre total des objets recommandés, des paquets ou sacs renfermant lesdits objets, et, au moyen d'une griffe, d'une étiquette ou d'une annotation manuscrite, la présence d'envois à faire remettre par exprès.

4. Les objets recommandés sont inscrits individuellement au tableau n<sup>o</sup>. 1 de la feuille d'avis, avec les détails suivants: le nom du bureau d'origine, le numéro d'inscription de l'objet à ce bureau et le lieu de destination, ou: le nom du bureau d'origine, le nom du destinataire et le lieu de destination.

Letter Bills.

1. The letter bills which accompany the mails exchanged between two Administrations of the Union are in conformity with the Form E appended to the present Regulations. They are placed in coloured envelopes marked distinctly "Feuille d'avis" ("Letter Bill").

2. If occasion arises the number of separate bags or packets composing the mail to which the letter bill relates is indicated in the upper right-hand corner.

If there be no arrangement to the contrary, in cases of exchanges by sea the despatching offices must number the letter bills in the upper left-hand corner, in an annual series for each Office of origin and for each Office of destination, mentioning as far as possible, above the number, the name of the steamer or vessel which carries the mail.

3. At the head of the letter bill there is to be an entry of the total number of registered articles, of the packets or bags containing those articles, and by means of a stamp, of a label, or of a manuscript note, of the presence of articles intended for Express delivery.

4. The registered articles are entered individually in Table No. 1 of the letter bill with the following details: the name of the Office of origin and the number given to the article at that Office and the place of destination; or the name of the Office of origin, the name of the addressee, and the place of destination.

In the column headed "Observations" the letters A. R. are inscribed against the entry of registered articles for which an advice of delivery is required. In the same column the note "Remb.", followed by the indication in figures of the amount of the trade charge, is added against the entry of articles marked with trade charges.

5. Lorsque le nombre des objets recommandés expédiés habituellement d'un bureau d'échange à un autre le comporte, il doit être fait usage d'une ou de plusieurs listes spéciales et détachées pour remplacer le tableau n<sup>o</sup>. 1 de la feuille d'avis.

Quand il est fait usage de plusieurs listes, le nombre des objets recommandés qui peuvent être inscrits sur une seule et même liste est limité à 30.

Le nombre des objets recommandés inscrits sur ces listes, le nombre des listes et le nombre des paquets ou des sacs qui renferment ces objets doivent être portés sur la feuille d'avis.

6. Au tableau n<sup>o</sup>. 2 on inscrit, avec les détails que ce tableau comporte, les dépêches closes insérées dans l'envoi direct auquel la feuille d'avis se rapporte.

7. Sous la rubrique "Recommandations d'office," on mentionne les lettres de service ouvertes, les communications ou recommandations diverses du bureau expéditeur ayant trait au service d'échange, ainsi que le nombre des sacs vides en retour.

8. Lorsqu'il est jugé nécessaire, pour certaines relations, de créer d'autres tableaux ou rubriques sur la feuille d'avis, la mesure peut être réalisée d'un commun accord entre les Administrations intéressées.

9. Lorsqu'un bureau d'échange n'a aucun objet à livrer à un bureau correspondant, il n'en doit pas moins envoyer, dans la forme ordinaire, une dépêche qui se compose uniquement d'une feuille d'avis négative.

10. Quand des dépêches closes sont confiées par une Administration à une autre, pour être transmises au moyen de bâtiments de commerce, le nombre ou le poids des lettres et autres objets doit être indiqué à la feuille d'avis et sur l'adresse de ces dépêches lorsque l'Office chargé d'assurer l'embarquement desdites dépêches le demande.

5. When the number of registered articles habitually sent from one office of exchange to another requires it, use must be made of one or more special and separate lists to take the place of Table No. 1 of the letter bill.

When use is made of several lists, the number of registered articles which can be entered on one and the same list is limited to 30.

The number of registered articles inscribed on the lists, the number of lists, and the number of packets or sacks containing those articles must be entered on the letter bill.

6. In Table No. 2 are to be entered, with such details as the Table requires, the closed mails contained in the direct mail to which the letter bill relates.

7. Under the heading "Recommandations d'office" ("Official Registrations") are entered open letters on official business, the various communications or registered articles sent by the office of despatch in connection with the service, as well as the number of returned empty sacks.

8. When it is deemed necessary, for certain exchanges, to make new tables or headings in the letter bill, such a measure may be adopted by common consent between the Administrations concerned.

9. When an office of exchange has no letters, &c., to forward to a corresponding office, it must, nevertheless, make up in the usual form a mail consisting simply of a blank letter bill.

10. When closed mails are sent by one Administration to another, to be conveyed by means of private ships, the number or weight of the letters and other articles must be indicated in the letter bill and on the address of the mails if the office of embarkation requires it.

Transmission des objets recommandés.

Transmission of registered articles.

1. Les objets recommandés, et, s'il y a lieu, les listes spéciales prévues au § 5 de l'article XXI, sont réunis en un ou plusieurs paquets ou sacs distincts, qui doivent être convenablement enveloppés ou fermés et cachetés de manière à en préserver le contenu. Les objets recommandés sont classés dans chaque paquet d'après leur ordre d'inscription. Quand on emploie plusieurs listes détachées, chacune d'elles est enliassée avec les objets recommandés auxquels elle se rapporte.

Restriction.

Dans aucun cas, les objets recommandés ne peuvent être confondus avec les correspondances ordinaires.

2. Au paquet d'objets recommandés est attachée extérieurement, par un croisé de ficelle, l'enveloppe spécial contenant la feuille d'avis; lorsque les objets recommandés sont renfermés dans un sac, ladite enveloppe est fixée au col de ce sac.

Labels.

S'il y a plus d'un paquet ou sac d'objets recommandés, chacun des paquets ou sacs supplémentaires est muni d'une étiquette indiquant la nature du contenu.

Position of packages.

Les paquets ou sacs d'objets recommandés sont placés au centre de la dépêche et de manière à attirer l'attention de l'agent qui procède à l'ouverture.

Packing, etc., ordinary exchanges.

3. Le mode d'emballage et de transmission des objets recommandés, prescrit ci-dessus, s'applique seulement aux relations ordinaires. Pour les relations importantes, il appartient aux Administrations intéressés de prescrire, d'un commun accord, des dispositions particulières, sous réserve, dans l'un comme dans l'autre cas, des mesures exceptionnelles à prendre par les chefs des bureaux d'échange lorsqu'ils ont à assurer la transmission d'objets recommandés qui, par leur nature, leur forme ou leur volume, ne seraient pas susceptibles d'être insérés dans la dépêche.

Transmission of registered articles.

1. Registered articles, and, if there be any, the special lists contemplated in § 5 of Article XXI are collected in one or more separate packets or sacks, which are to be suitably made up or closed and sealed so as to preserve the contents. The registered articles are arranged in each packet in the order of their entry in the list. When several separate lists are used, each of them is tied up with the registered articles to which it relates.

In no case must the registered articles be mixed with ordinary correspondence.

2. To the outside of the packet of registered articles the special envelope containing the letter bill is attached by a string tied cross-wise, when the registered articles are enclosed in a sack the envelope in question is attached to the neck of the bag.

If there is more than one packet or sack of registered articles, each of the additional packets or sacks is supplied with a label, indicating the nature of the contents.

The packets or sacks of registered articles are placed in the centre of the mail in such a manner as to attract the attention of the officer who opens it.

3. The mode of packing and forwarding registered articles, prescribed above, applies only to ordinary exchanges. For important exchanges it is for the offices concerned to prescribe by common consent special arrangements, subject in the one case as in the other to exceptional measures to be taken by the heads of the offices of exchange, when they have to ensure the transmission of registered articles which, from their nature, form, or size, would not be capable of being enclosed in the principal mail.

Transmission of special delivery articles.

1. Les correspondances ordinaires à faire remettre par exprès sont réunies en une liasse spéciale et insérées, par les bureaux déchange, dans l'enveloppe contenant la feuille d'avis qui accompagne la dépêche.

1. Ordinary articles intended for special delivery are combined in a special bundle and inserted, by the offices of exchange, in the envelope containing the letter bill which accompanies the mail.

Une fiche placée dans cette liasse indique, le cas échéant, la présence, dans la dépêche, des correspondances de l'espèce, qui, en raison de leur forme ou de leurs dimensions, n'ont pu être jointes à la feuille d'avis.

Making up mails.

1. En règle générale, les objets qui composent les dépêches doivent être classés et enliassés par nature de correspondances, en séparant les objets affranchis des objets non ou insuffisamment affranchis.

1. As a general rule, the articles of which the mails consist must be classified and tied up in bundles according to the nature of the articles, the prepaid articles being separated from the unpaid and insufficiently prepaid.

Classification and separation.

Les lettres portant des traces d'ouverture ou d'avarie doivent être munies d'une mention du fait et frappées du timbre à date du bureau qui a constaté ce fait.

Letters bearing traces of violation or damage must have the fact noted on them and be marked with the date stamp of the office making the note.

Damaged, etc., letters.

Les mandats de poste expédiés à découvert sont réunis en un paquet distinct, après subdivision, s'il y a lieu, en autant de liasses qu'il y a de pays destinataires. Ce paquet est inséré autant que faire se peut, par les bureaux déchange, dans l'enveloppe contenant la feuille d'avis qui accompagne la dépêche.

3. Pour les dépêches renfermées dans des sacs, les étiquettes doivent être en toile, cuir ou parchemin ou en papier collé sur une planchette. L'étiquette doit indiquer d'une façon lisible le bureau d'origine et celui de destination.

Use of separate

4. Lorsque le nombre ou le volume des envois exige l'emploi de plus d'un sac, des sacs distincts doivent, autant que possible, être utilisés:

(a) pour les lettres et cartes postales;

(b) pour les autres objets.

Chaque sac doit porter l'indication de son contenu.

Le paquet ou sac des objets recommandés est placé dans un des sacs de lettres.

Ce sac est désigné par la lettre F tracée d'une manière apparente sur l'étiquette.

Le renvoi des sacs vides doit être effectué entre les bureaux d'échange des pays correspondants, qui sont respectivement désignés à cet effet par les Administrations intéressées, après entente préalable.

Les sacs vides doivent être enroulés et attachés ensemble en paquets convenables; le cas échéant, les planchettes à étiquettes doivent être placées à l'intérieur des sacs. Les paquets doivent

Mails sent by sea are enclosed in sacks properly closed, sealed with wax or with lead and labelled. The same rule applies in the case of Mails sent by land when their size requires it.

3. The labels used for mails sent in sacks must be of linen, leather or parchment, or of paper affixed to blocks. The label should indicate in a legible manner the office of origin and that of destination.

4. When the number or bulk of the mails necessitates the use of more than one sack, separate sacks must as far as possible be utilised:

(a) For letters and post cards;

(b) For other articles.

Each sack must bear the indication of its contents.

The packet or sack of registered articles is placed in one of the sacks of letters.

This sack is distinguished by the letter F marked plainly on the label.

5. No sack must exceed 40 kilogrammes in weight.

6. The sacks must be returned empty to the country of origin by the next mail, in the absence of other arrangements between the corresponding Offices.

The return of empty sacks must be effected by such offices of exchange of the corresponding countries as are respectively appointed for the purpose by the Administrations interested, after previous understanding.

The empty sacks must be rolled up and tied together in suitable bundles; the label blocks, if any, being placed in the inside of the sacks. The bundles must be supplied with a label showing the Si les sacs vides à renvoyer ne sont pas trop nombreux, ils peuvent être placés dans les sacs contenant la correspondance; dans le cas contraire, ils doivent être placés à part dans des sacs cachetés, étiquetés au nom des bureaux d'échange respectifs. Les étiquettes doivent porter la mention "Sacs vides."

XXV.

1. Le bureau d'échange qui reçoit une dépêche constate si les inscriptions sur la feuille d'avis et, s'il y a lieu, sur la liste des objets recommandés, sont exactes.

Les dépêches doivent être livrées en bon état. Cependant, la réception d'une dépêche ne peut pas être refusée à cause de son mauvais état. S'il s'agit d'une dépêche pour un autre bureau que celui qui en a pris livraison, elle doit être emballée de nouveau, tout en conservant, autant que possible, l'emballage original. Le remballage est précédé de la vérification du contenu s'il est à présumer que celui-ci n'est pas resté intact.

2. Lorsque le bureau d'échange reconnaît des erreurs ou des omissions, il opère immédiatement les rectifications nécessaires sur les feuilles ou listes, en ayant soin de biffer, d'un trait de plume, les indications erronées de manière à laisser reconnaître les inscriptions primitives.

3. Ces rectifications s'effectuent par le concours de deux agents. A moins d'une erreur évidente, elles prévalent sur la déclaration originale.

4. Un bulletin de vérification, conforme au modèle F annexé au présent Règlement, est dressé par le bureau destinataire et envoyé sans délai, sous recommandation d'office, au bureau expéditeur.

name of the office of exchange whence the sacks have been received on every occasion when they are returned through another office of exchange.

If the sacks to be returned are not too numerous they may be placed in the sacks containing correspondence. In the contrary case, they must be placed separately in sealed sacks, labelled with the name of the respective offices of exchange. The labels must be marked "Sacs vides" (empty sacks).

XXV.

1. The office of exchange which receives a mail ascertains whether the entries in the letter bill and in the registered letter list, if there be one, are correct.

The mails must be delivered in good condition. Nevertheless, the receipt of a mail cannot be refused on account of its bad condition. In the case of a mail for an office other than that which has received it, it must be packed up afresh, but the original packing should be preserved as far as possible. The repacking is preceded by a verification of the contents, if there is reason to suppose that they are not intact.

2. When the office of exchange detects errors or omissions, it immediately makes the necessary corrections on the letter bills or lists, taking care to erase by a stroke of the pen the erroneous entries in such a manner as to leave the original entries legible.

3. These corrections are made by two officers. Except in the case of an obvious error, they are accepted in preference to the original statement.

4. A Bulletin of Verification, in conformity with the Form F annexed to the present Regulations, is prepared by the receiving office, and sent without delay, officially registered, to the despatching office.

5. Le bureau expéditeur, après examen, renvoie le bulletin, avec ses observations, s'il y a lieu.

Report of Irregularities, etc.

6. En cas de manque d'une dépêche, d'un ou de plusieurs objets recommandés de la feuille d'avis ou de la liste spéciale, le fait est constaté immédiatement, dans la forme voulue, par deux agents du bureau d'échange destinataire et porté à la connaissance du bureau d'échange expéditeur, au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification recommandé d'office. Toutefois, lorsque l'absence d'une dépêche est le résultat d'un défaut de coïncidence des courriers, le bulletin de vérification n'est pas soumis à la formalité de la recommandation. Si le cas le comporte, le bureau d'échange expéditeur peut, en outre, être avisé par télégramme, aux frais de l'Office expéditeur du télégramme. En même temps, un duplicata du bulletin de vérification est envoyé, par le bureau destinataire, dans les mêmes conditions que le primata, à l'Administration dont relève le bureau expéditeur et, lorsqu'il s'agit du manque d'un ou de plusieurs objets recommandés, de la feuille d'avis ou de la liste spéciale des objets recommandés, ce duplicata doit être accompagné du sac ou de l'enveloppe et du cachet du paquet desdits objets ou du sac, de la ficelle, de l'étiquette et du cachet de la dépêche, si ce paquet lui-même n'a pas été trouvé.

Receipt of missing mail to be reported.

Dès la rentrée d'une dépêche dont l'absence avait été signalée au bureau d'origine ou à un bureau intermédiaire, il y a lieu d'adresser au même bureau un second bulletin de vérification annonçant la réception de cette dépêche.

Lorsque le manque d'une dépêche est dûment expliqué sur le bordereau de remise et si cette dépêche parvient au bureau destinataire par le plus prochain

In the case contemplated in paragraph 1 of the present Article, a copy of the Bulletin of verification is inserted in the re-packed mail.

5. The despatching office, after examination, returns the Bulletin with any observations to which it may give rise.

6. In case of the failure of a mail, of one or more registered articles, of the letter bill, or of the special list, the fact is immediately verified in the prescribed manner by two officers of the Exchange office of destination, and notified to the despatching office by means of a Bulletin of verification officially registered. Nevertheless, when the absence of a mail is the result of a failure of connections the verification note is not sent registered. If circumstances require, the despatching office of exchange may also be advised by telegram, at the expense of the Office which sends the telegram. At the same time a duplicate of the Bulletin of verification is sent by the office of destination in the same conditions as the original to the Administration to which the despatching office is subordinate, and when it is a case of the non-receipt of one or more registered articles, of the letter bill, or of the special list of registered articles, this duplicate must be accompanied by the sack or envelope, and by the seal of the packet of the articles in question, or of the sack and by the string, the label, and the seal of the mail, if the packet itself has not been found.

As soon as a mail which had been reported to the office of origin or an intermediate office as missing comes to hand, a second Bulletin of verification is to be addressed to such office announcing the receipt of the mail.

When the failure of a mail is duly explained on the way bill, and if this mail reaches the office of destination by the next opportunity, the preparation of a Bulcourrier, l'établissement d'un bulletin de vérification n'est pas nécessaire.

7. En cas de perte d'une dépêche close, les offices intermédiaires sont rendus responsables des objets recommandés que renfermait la dépêche, dans les limites de l'art. 8 de la Convention, à condition que la non-réception de cette dépêche leur ait été signalée aussitôt que possible.

8. Lorsque le bureau destinataire n'a pas fait parvenir au bureau expéditeur, par le premier courrier après la vérification, un bulletin constatant des erreurs ou des irrégularités quelconques, l'absence de ce document vaut comme accusé de réception de la dépêche et de son contenu, jusqu'à preuve du contraire.

7. In the event of the loss of a closed mail, intermediate offices become responsible for the registered articles contained in the mail, within the limits of Article 8 of the Convention, provided that the non-receipt of such mail shall have been notified to them as soon as possible.

8. Where the office of destination has not forwarded to the despatching office by the first mail after verification, a Bulletin reporting errors or irregularities of any kind, the absence of that document is to be regarded as evidence of the due receipt of the mail and its contents, until the contrary be proved.

Forwarding.

3. Les dépêches à destination ou provenant de divisions navales ou de bâtiments de guerre sont acheminées, sauf indication d'une voie spéciale sur l'adresse, par les voies les plus rapides et dans les mêmes conditions que les dépêches échangées entre bureaux de poste.

Disposal of unenclosed mails.

Quand les dépêches à destination d'une division navale ou d'un bâtiment de guerre sont expédiées en dehors, le capitaine du paquebot postal qui les transporte les tient à la disposition du commandant de la division ou du bâtiment destinataire pour le cas où celui-ci viendrait demander au paquebot en route la livraison de ces dépêches.

Reforwarding.

4. Si les bâtiments ne se trouvent pas au lieu de destination quand les dépêches à leur adresse y arrivent, ces dépêches sont conservées au bureau de poste, en attendant leur retrait par le destinataire ou leur réexpédition sur un autre point. La réexpédition peut être demandée, soit par l'Office postal d'origine, soit par le commandant de la division navale ou du bâtiment destinataire, soit enfin par un Consul de même nationalité.

5. Celles des dépêches dont il s'agit qui portent la mention "Aux soins du Consul de _____" sont consignés au Consulat du pays d'origine. Elles peuvent être ultérieurement, à la demande du Consul, réintégrées dans le service postal et réexpédiées sur le lieu d'origine ou sur une autre destination.

When mails for a naval division or ship of war are sent unenclosed, the captain of the steamer conveying them holds them at the disposal of the commanding officer of the naval division or ship addressed, in case the latter should require delivery of the mails while the steamer is on her way.

4. If the ships are not at the place of destination when mails addressed to them arrive there, the mails are kept at the Post Office until taken away by the addressee or forwarded to another place. Reforewarding may be demanded, either by the Post Office of origin, or by the commanding officer of the naval division or the ship addressed, or, lastly, by a Consul of the same nationality.

5. Such of the mails in question as bear the inscription "To the care of the Consul at _____" are delivered at the Consulate of the country of origin. At the request of the Consul they may afterwards be received back into the postal service and reforwarded to the place of origin or to another address.

Correspondances réexpédiées.

Reforwarding articles.

Ante, p. 1655.

1. En exécution de l'article 14 de la Convention, et sauf les exceptions prévues au paragraphe 2 suivant, les correspondances de toute nature adressées, dans l'Union, à des destinataires ayant changé de résidence, sont traitées par l'Office distributeur comme si elles avaient été adressées directement du lieu d'origine au lieu de la nouvelle destination.

1. In execution of Article 14 of the Convention, and subject to the exceptions specified in paragraph 2 following, articles of every kind circulating in the Union, addressed to persons who have changed their residence, are treated by the delivering Office as if they had been addressed directly from the place of origin to the place of the new destination.

2. A l'égard, soit des envois du service interne de l'un des pays de l'Union qui entrent par suite de réexpédition dans le service d'un autre pays de l'Union, soit des envois échangés entre deux pays de l'Union qui ont adopté dans leurs relations réciproques une taxe inférieure à la taxe ordinaire de l'Union, mais entrant, par suite de réexpédition, dans le service d'un troisième pays de l'Union vis-à-vis duquel la taxe est la taxe ordinaire de l'Union, soit, enfin, des envois échangés pour leur premier parcours entre localités de deux services limitrophes pour lesquels il existe une taxe réduite, mais réexpédiés sur d'autres localités de ces pays de l'Union ou sur un autre pays de l'Union, on observe les règles suivantes:

2. With regard to articles in the domestic service of one country of the Union, which enter, in consequence of reforwarding, into the service of another country of the Union, or to articles exchanged between two countries of the Union, which have adopted in their reciprocal relations a lower rate than the ordinary Union postage, but entering, in consequence of reforwarding, into the service of a third country of the Union as regards which the rate is the ordinary Union postage, or, lastly, to letters or packets exchanged, so far as their first transmission is concerned, between places in two neighbouring countries of the Union within a radius for which there exists a reduced rate, but redirected to other places in these countries or to another country of the Union, the following rules are observed:

Domestic service.

Insufficiently prepaid articles.

1° Les envois non affranchis ou insuffisamment affranchis pour leur premier parcours sont frappés, par l'Office distributeur, de la taxe applicable aux envois de même nature directement adressés du point d'origine au lieu de la destination nouvelle.

1° Articles unpaid or insufficiently paid for their first transmission are subjected by the delivering Office to the charge applicable to articles of the same nature addressed directly from the place of origin to that of the new destination.

Paid for first transmission.

2° Les envois régulièrement affranchis pour leur premier parcours et dont le complément de taxe afférent au parcours ultérieur n'a pas été acquitté avant leur réexpédition, sont frappés, suivant leur nature, par l'Office distributeur, d'une taxe égale à la différence entre le prix d'affranchissement déjà acquitté et celui qui aurait été perçu si les envois avaient été expédiés primitivement sur leur nouvelle destination. Le montant de cette différence doit être exprimé en francs et centimes, à côté des timbresposte, par l'Office réexpéditeur.

2° Articles regularly prepaid for their first transmission, on which the complementary postage pertaining to the further transmission has not been paid before their second despatch, are subjected, according to their nature, by the delivering Office to a charge equal to the difference between the amount of postage already prepaid and that which would have been chargeable if the articles had been despatched in the first instance to the new destination. The amount of this difference must be expressed in francs and centimes, by the side of the postage stamps, by the reforwarding Office.

Charges paid by addressees.

Dans l'un et l'autre cas, les taxes prévues ci-dessus restent exigibles du destinataire alors même que, par suite de réexpéditions successives, les envois reviennent dans le pays d'origine.

In both cases the charges provided for above are leviable from the addressees, even if, owing to successive redirections, the articles should return to the country of origin.

Reforwarding to another country.

3. Lorsque des objets primitivement adressés à l'intérieur d'un pays de l'Union et affranchis en numéraire sont réexpédiés à un autre pays, l'Office réexpéditeur doit indiquer, sur l'objet, le montant, en monnaie de franc, de la différence entre la taxe perçue et la taxe internationale.

3. When articles originally addressed from one part to another of a country of the Union, and prepaid in money, are reforwarded to another country, the reforwarding Office must indicate on each article the amount, expressed in francs and centimes, of the difference between the amount paid and the international rate.

Missent articles.

4. Les objets de toute nature mal dirigés sont, sans aucun délai, réexpédiés par la voie la plus prompte sur leur destination.

4. Mis-sent articles of all kinds are reforwarded without delay, by the quickest route, to destination.

Insufficient address.

5. Les correspondances de toute nature ordinaires ou recommandées, qui, portant une adresse incomplète ou erronée, sont renvoyées aux expéditeurs pour qu'ils la complètent ou la rectifient, ne sont pas, quand elles sont remises dans le service avec une suscription complétée ou rectifiée, considérées comme des correspondances réexpédiées, mais bien comme de nouveaux envois, et deviennent, par suite, passibles d'une nouvelle taxe.

5. Articles of all kinds, ordinary or registered, which, being wrongly or insufficiently addressed, are returned to the senders in order that they may rectify or complete the address, are not, when posted with the direction rectified or completed, regarded as reforwarded articles, but as being really fresh articles; and they are consequently liable to fresh postage.

Correspondances tombées en rebut.Undelivered articles.

Undelivered articles.

1. Les correspondances de toute nature qui sont tombées en rebut pour quelque cause que ce soit, doivent être renvoyées, aussitôt après les délais de conservation voulus par les règlements du pays destinataire, et au plus tard dans un délai de six mois dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer et de deux mois pour les autres relations, par l'intermédiaire des bureaux d'échange respectifs et en une liasse spéciale étiquetée: "Rebuts" et portant l'indication du pays d'origine des correspondances. Les termes de deux mois et de six mois comptent à partir de la fin du mois dans lequel les correspondances sont parvenues au bureau de destination.

2. Toutefois, les correspondances recommandées tombées en rebut sont renvoyés au bureau d'échange du pays d'origine comme s'il s'agissait de correspondance recommandées à destination de ce pays, sauf qu'en regard de l'inscription nominative au tableau n<sup>o</sup>. 1 de la feuille d'avis ou sur la liste détachée, la mention "Rebuts" est consignée dans la colonne "Observations" par le bureau réexpéditeur.

3. Par exception, deux Offices correspondants peuvent, d'un commun accord, adopter un autre mode de renvoi de rebuts. Ils peuvent aussi s'entendre pour se dispenser de se renvoyer réciproquement certains imprimés considérés comme dénués de valeur, ainsi que les "chain-letters" (lettres dites boules de neige) insuffisamment affranchies qui ont été refusées par le destinataire, lorsque l'Office de destination a constaté, après avoir consulté le destinataire, que les envois en cause sont en effet des "chain-letters."

4. Avant de renvoyer à l'Office d'origine les correspondances non distribuées pour un motif quelconque, l'Office destinataire doit indiquer d'une manière claire et

1. Articles of all kinds which are not delivered, from whatever cause, must be returned, as soon as possible after the period for keeping them required by the regulations of the country of destination, and at latest at the expiration of six months in relations with countries beyond sea, and of two months in other relations, through the medium of the respective offices of exchange, and in a special bundle labelled "Rebuts" and bearing indication of the country where the articles originated. The periods of two months and six months are reckoned from the end of the month in which the articles have reached the office of destination.

2. Nevertheless, undelivered registered articles are returned to the office of exchange of the country of origin, as if they were registered correspondence addressed to that country, except that opposite the detailed advice in Table No. 1 of the letter bill, or in the separate list, the word "Rebuts" is entered in the column of observations by the returning office.

3. As an exception, two corresponding Offices may, by mutual consent, adopt a different mode of returning undelivered articles. They may also come to an understanding to dispense with the reciprocal return of certain printed papers considered as destitute of value, as well as insufficiently prepaid "chain letters" (known as snowball letters) which have been refused by the addressee, when the Office of destination has ascertained after consultation with the addressee, that the letters in question are actually "chain letters."

4. Before returning to the Office of origin articles which for any reason have not been delivered, the Office of destination must indicate in a clear and concise man-concise, en langue française, sur ces objets, la cause de la non remise sous la forme suivante: inconnu, refusé, en voyage, parti, non réclamé, décédé, etc. Cette indication est fournie par l'application d'un timbre ou l'apposition d'une étiquette. Chaque Office a la faculté d'ajouter la traduction, dans sa propre langue, de la cause de non-remise et les autres indications qui lui conviennent.

Return of articles to foreign senders.

5. Si les correspondances mises à la poste dans un pays de l'Union et adressées à l'intérieur de ce même pays ont pour expéditeurs des personnes habitant un autre pays et doivent, par suite de non-distribution et de mise en rebut, être renvoyées à l'étranger pour être rendues à leurs auteurs, elles deviennent des envois de l'échange international. En pareil cas, l'Office réexpéditeur et l'Office distributeur font application aux dites correspondances des dispositions des §§ 2 et 3 de l'article XXVII précédent.

Articles in care of consuls returned unclaimed.

6. Les correspondances pour les marins et autres personnes adressées aux soins d'un Consul et rendues par celui-ci au bureau de poste local comme non-réclamées doivent être traitées de la manière prescrite par le § 1 ou le § 2, suivant le cas, pour les rebuts en général. Le montant des taxes perçues à la charge du Consul sur ces correspondances doit en même temps lui être rendu par le bureau de poste local.

1. Toute réclamation relative à un objet de correspondance ordinaire non parvenu à destination donne lieu au procédé suivant:

This indication is made by the application of a stamp or by affixing a label. Each Office has the option of adding a translation, in its own language, of the cause of non-delivery, and any other useful particulars.

5. If articles mailed in one country of the Union to an address within that country are sent by persons resident in another country, and have, in consequence of non-delivery, to be returned to the senders abroad, they enter into the international system. In such a case, the re-directing Office and the delivering Office apply to the said articles the provisions of §§ 2 and 3 of the preceding Article XXVII.

6. Articles for seamen and others addressed to the care of a Consul, and returned by him to the local Post Office as unclaimed, are to be treated in the manner prescribed by § 1 or § 2 as the case may be, for returned articles in general. The amount of the charges paid by the Consul on these articles is at the same time to be refunded to him by the local Post Office.

Applications for ordinary articles not received.

1. Every application respecting an ordinary article which has failed to reach its destination gives rise to the following procedure:

1° A form in conformity with the Form G annexed hereto is handed to the applicant, who is requested to fill up as exactly as possible the portion which concerns him.

2° Le bureau où la réclamation s'est produite transmet la formule directement au bureau correspondant. La transmission s'effectue d'office et sans aucun écrit.

3° Le bureau correspondant fait présenter la formule au destinataire ou à l'expéditeur, selon le cas, avec prière de fournir des renseignements à ce sujet.

4° Munie de ces renseignements, la formule est renvoyée d'office au bureau qui l'a dressée.

5° Dans le cas où la réclamation est reconnue fondée, elle est transmise à l'Administration centrale pour servir de base aux investigations ultérieures.

6° A moins d'entente contraire, la formule est rédigée en français ou porte une traduction française.

2° The office at which the application originates transmits the form directly to the corresponding office. It is transmitted officially without any written communication.

3° The corresponding office causes the form to be handed to the addressee or sender, as the case may be, with the request that particulars on the subject may be furnished.

4° With these particulars added, the form is sent back officially to the office which prepared it.

5° When the application proves to be well founded, it is transmitted to the central Administration in order to serve as a basis for further investigations.

6° In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, the form is drawn up in French or bears a French translation.

2. Toute Administration peut exiger, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que les réclamations qui concernent son service soient transmises à son Administration centrale à un bureau spécialement désigné par elle.

2. Any Administration can demand, by notification addressed to the International Bureau, that applications which concern its service shall be transmitted to its central Administration or to an office specially designated by it.

Réclamation d'objets recommandés.

Registered articles.

1. Pour les réclamations d'objets recommandés, il est fait usage d'une formule conforme ou analogue au modèle H annexé au présent Règlement. L'Office du pays d'origine, après avoir établi les dates de transmission des envois en question au service suivant, transmet cette formule directement à l'Office de destination.

Transmission of application.

2. Toutefois, dans les relations avec les pays d'outre-mer et de ces pays entre eux, la réclamation est transmise de bureau à bureau en suivant la même voie d'acheminement que l'envoi qui fait l'objet de la réclamation.

2. Nevertheless, in relations with countries beyond sea and of those countries between each other, the application is sent from office to office, following the same route as the article under inquiry.

Location of article by office of destination.

3. Dans le cas prévu au § 1 ci-dessus, lorsque l'Office destinataire est en état de fournir les renseignements sur le sort définitif de l'envoi réclamé, il renvoie cette formule, revêtue des renseignements que le cas comporte, à l'Office d'origine.

3. In the case contemplated in § 1 above, when the Office of destination is in a position to furnish information as to the ultimate fate of the article under inquiry, it returns the form, filled in with the proper information, to the Office of origin.

Ascertaining ultimate fate of missing article.

Lorsque le sort d'un envoi qui a passé à découvert par plusieurs services ne peut être immédiatement constaté dans le service du pays de destination, l'Office destinataire transmet la formule au premier Office intermédiaire, qui, après avoir établi les données de la transmission de l'objet au service suivant, transmet la réclamation à l'Office suivant et ainsi de suite, jusqu'à ce que le sort définitif de l'objet réclamé soit établi. L'Office qui a effectué la remise au destinataire, ou qui, le cas échéant, ne peut établir, ni la remise, ni la transmission régulière à une autre Administration, constate le fait sur la formule et la renvoie à l'Office d'origine.

When the fate of an article which has passed in open-mail through several services cannot be immediately ascertained in the service of the country of destination, the Office of destination sends the form to the first intermediate Office, which, after having entered the particulars of the transmissions of the article to the next service, forwards the application to the next Office, and so on, until the ultimate fate of the article under inquiry is ascertained. The Office which has effected delivery to the addressee, or which, should it so happen, is unable to furnish proof either of delivery or of regular transmission to another Administration, records the fact on the form and returns it to the Office of origin.

Prosecuting inquiries.

4. Dans le cas prévu au § 2 ci-dessus, les recherches se poursuivent depuis l'Office d'origine jusqu'à l'Office de destination. Chaque Office établit sur la formule les données de la transmission à l'Office suivant et l'envoi ensuite à celui-ci. L'Office qui a effectué la remise au destinataire, ou qui, le cas échéant, ne peut établir ni la remise ni la transmission régulière à une autre Administration, constate le fait sur la formule et la renvoie à l'Office d'origine.

4. In the case contemplated in § 2 above, the inquiries are prosecuted from the Office of origin to the Office of destination. Each Office enters on the form the particulars of the transmission to the next Office, and sends it forward to that Office. Chaque Administration est libre de demander, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que les réclamations qui concernent son service soient transmises, soit à son Administration centrale, soit à un bureau spécialement désigné, soit enfin directement au bureau de destination ou, si elle est seulement intéressée à titre d'intermédiaire, au bureau d'échange auquel l'envoi a été expédié.

1. Pour les demandes de renvoi ou de réexpédition de correspondances, ainsi que pour les demandes de rectification d'adresses, l'expéditeur doit faire usage d'une formule conforme au modèle I annexé au présent Règlement. En remettant cette réclamation au bureau de poste, l'expéditeur doit y justifier de son identité et produire s'il y a lieu, le bulletin du dépôt. Après la justification, dont l'Administration du pays d'origine assume la responsabilité, il est procédé de la manière suivante :

1° Si la demande est destinée à être transmise par voie postale, la formule, accompagnée d'un facsimilé parfait de l'enveloppe ou suscription de l'envoi, est expédiée directement, sous pli recommandé, au bureau de poste destinataire.

2° Si la demande doit être faite par voie télégraphique, la formule est déposée au service télégraphique chargé d'en transmettre les termes au bureau de poste destinataire.

They are transmitted without covering letter in a closed envelope. Each Administration is free to require, by notification addressed to the International Bureau, that applications concerning its service shall be transmitted either to its central Administration, or to an office specially designated, or, lastly, directly to the office of destination, or, if the Administration in question is only concerned as an intermediary, to the office of exchange to which the article was sent.

6. The foregoing provisions do not apply to cases of violation of mails, loss of mails, &c., which require a fuller correspondence between Administrations.

Exceptions.

XXXI.

Withdrawal of articles and correction of addresses.

Withdrawing articles or correcting addresses.

1. For requests to have articles returned or reforwarded, as well as for requests to have addresses corrected, the sender must use a form in accordance with the Form I. annexed to the present regulations. In handing this application to the post-office, the sender must establish his identity and produce the certificate of posting, if there be one. The Administration of the country of origin assumes the responsibility in regard to identity, and, after its establishment, the course is as follows:—

1° If the request is meant to be sent by post, the form, together with a perfect facsimile of the envelope or address of the missive, is despatched in a registered cover directly to the office of destination.

Post, p. 1756.

Request by mail.

2° If the request is to be made by telegraph, the form is handed over to the telegraph service, charged with the transmission of its terms to the office of destination.

Compliance.
Post. p. 1756.

2. A la réception de la formule I ou du télégramme en tenant lieu, le bureau de poste destinataire recherche la correspondance signalée et donne à la demande la suite nécessaire.

Toutefois, s'il s'agit d'un changement d'adresse demandé par voie télégraphique, le bureau destinataire se borne à retenir la lettre et attend, pour faire droit à la demande, l'arrivée du fac-similé nécessaire.

Si la recherche est infructueuse, si l'objet a déjà été remis au destinataire, ou si la demande par voie télégraphique n'est pas assez explicite pour permettre de reconnaître sûrement l'objet de correspondance indiqué, le fait est signalé immédiatement au bureau d'origine, qui en prévient le réclamant.

3. A moins d'entente contraire, la formule I est rédigée en français ou porte une traduction sublinéaire en cette langue, et, dans le cas d'emploi de la voie télégraphique, le télégramme est formulé en langue française.

4. Une simple correction d'adresse (sans modification du nom ou de la qualité du destinataire) peut aussi être demandée directement au bureau destinataire, c'est-à-dire, sans l'accomplissement des formalités prescrites pour le changement d'adresse proprement dit.

5. Toute Administration peut exiger, par une notification adressée au Bureau international, que l'échange des réclamations, en ce qui la concerne, soit effectué par l'entremise de son Administration centrale ou d'un bureau spécialement désigné.

Dans le cas où l'échange des réclamations s'effectue par l'entremise des Administrations centrales, il doit être tenu compte des demandes expédiées directement par les bureaux d'origine aux bureaux de destination, dans ce sens que les correspondances y relatives sont exclues de la distribution jusqu'à l'arrivée de la réclamation de l'Administration centrale.

2. On receipt of the form I or of the telegram taking its place, the office of destination searches for the articles in question and takes such steps as may be necessary.

If, however, the case be one of an alteration of address requested by telegraph, the office of destination only retains the letter and awaits the arrival of the necessary fac-simile before complying with the request.

If the search is fruitless, or if the article has already been delivered to the addressee, or if the request by telegraph is not sufficiently explicit to admit of the identification of the article in question with certainty, the fact is at once communicated to the office of origin, which informs the applicant accordingly.

3. In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, form I is drawn up in French, or bears a sublineary translation in that language, and, in cases where the telegraph is resorted to, the telegram is sent in French.

4. A simple correction of address (without modification of the name or description of the addressee) can also be claimed directly from the delivering office, that is to say, without fulfilling the formalities prescribed for the alteration of address properly so called.

5. Any Administration can require, by notification addressed to the International Bureau, that the exchange of applications, so far as such Administration is concerned, shall be effected through the medium of its central Administration, or of an office specially designated.

In cases where the exchange of applications is effected through the medium of the central Administrations, requests sent directly by the offices of origin to the offices of destination must be taken into account to the extent that the articles concerned shall be withheld from delivery until the arrival of the application from the central Administration.

Articles withheld from delivery.

Les Administrations qui usent de la faculté prévue par le premier alinéa du présent paragraphe prennent à leur charge les frais que peut entraîner la transmission, dans leur service intérieur, par voie postale ou télégraphique, des communications à échanger avec le bureau destinataire.

Le recours à la voie télégraphique est obligatoire lorsque l'expéditeur a lui-même fait usage de cette voie et que le bureau destinataire ne peut pas être prévenu en temps utile par la voie postale.

Administrations which avail themselves of the option accorded by the first paragraph of the present clause bear the charges involved by the transmission, in their inland service, by post or by telegraph, of the communications to be exchanged with the delivering office.

Recourse must be had to the telegraph when the sender has himself used it, and the office of destination cannot be advised in time by post.

Subject to the regulations laid down by the laws of each country, even in cases where the provisions of the present Article do not expressly stipulate for this reservation, the undermentioned procedure is followed for reporting the use of fraudulent postage stamps for the prepayment of postage:—

Statistiques des frais de transit.Transit Statistics.

1. Les statistiques à effectuer en exécution des articles 4 et 17 de la Convention pour le décompte des frais de transit dans l'Union et en dehors des limites de l'Union, sont établies une fois tous les six ans d'après les dispositions des articles suivants, pendant les vingt-huit premiers jours du mois de novembre ou de mai alternativement.

1. The statistics to be taken in execution of Articles 4 and 17 of the Convention for the settlement of transit charges within and outside the limits of the Union, are prepared once in every six years according to the stipulations of the following Articles, during the first twenty-eight days of the month of November or of May alternately.

La statistique de novembre 1907 s'appliquera aux années 1908 à 1913 inclusivement; la statistique de mai 1913 s'appliquera aux années 1914 à 1919 inclusivement et ainsi de suite.

The statistics of November 1907 will apply to the years 1908 to 1913 inclusive; the statistics of May 1913 will apply to the years 1914 to 1919 inclusive, and so on.

2. Dans le cas d'accession à l'Union d'un pays ayant des relations importantes, les pays de l'Union dont la situation pourrait, par suite de cette circonstance, se trouver modifiée sous le rapport du paiement des frais de transit, ont la faculté de réclamer une statistique spéciale se rapportant exclusivement au pays nouvellement entré.

2. In the event of the accession to the Union of a country having important relations, countries of the Union who might, by reason of that circumstance, find their position modified as regards the payment of transit charges, have the right of demanding special statistics relating exclusively to the country which has lately entered.

3. Lorsqu'il se produit une modification importante dans le mouvement des correspondances et pour autant que cette modification affecte une période ou des périodes s'élevant à un total d'au moins douze mois, les Offices intéressés s'entendent pour régler entre eux, au besoin par la voie d'une nouvelle statistique, le partage des frais de transit proportionnellement à la part d'intervention desdits Offices dans le transport des correspondances auxquelles ces frais se rapportent.

3. When an important modification takes place in the movement of correspondence, and, provided that such modification affects a period or periods amounting to a total of twelve months at least, the Offices concerned come to an understanding for settling among themselves—if necessary, by means of new statistics—the division of the transit charges in proportion to the part taken by the said Offices in the conveyance of the correspondence to which these charges relate.

the Union and an Office foreign to the Union, across the territory or by means of the services of one or several other Offices, form the subject of a statement in conformity with the form M, attached to the present Regulations, which is filled up in accordance with the following stipulations:—

Making up sacks, etc.

Pendant chaque période de statistique des sacs ou des paquets distincts doivent être employés pour les "lettres et les cartes postales" et pour les "autres objets." Ces sacs ou paquets doivent respectivement être munis d'une étiquette "L. C." et "A. O."

During each statistical period separate sacks or packets must be made up of "letters and post-cards" and "other articles." These bags or packets must be provided with a label "L. C." and "A. O." respectively.

Registered articles excepted.

Ante, p. 1707.

Par dérogation aux dispositions de l'article XXIV du présent Règlement, chaque Administration a la faculté, pendant la période de statistique, de comprendre les objets recommandés autres que les lettres et les cartes postales dans un des sacs ou paquets destinés aux autres objets, en faisant mention de ce fait sur la feuille d'avis; mais si, conformément audit article XXIV, ces objets recommandés sont compris dans un sac ou paquet à lettres, ils sont traités, en ce qui concerne la statistique de poids, comme faisant partie de l'envoi de lettres.

By way of exception to the stipulations of Article XXIV. of the present Regulations, each Administration has the option, during the statistical period, of enclosing registered articles other than letters or post cards in one of the sacks or packets intended for other articles, mentioning this fact on the letter bill; but if, in conformity with the said Article XXIV., these registered articles are enclosed in a sack or packet of letters, they are treated, so far as the weight statistics are concerned, as forming part of the letter correspondence.

Gross weight.

2. En ce qui concerne les dépêches d'un pays de l'Union pour un autre pays de l'Union, le bureau d'échange expéditeur inscrit, à la feuille d'avis pour le bureau d'échange destinataire de la dépêche, le poids brut des lettres et des cartes postales et celui des autres objets, sans distinction de l'origine ni de la destination des correspondances. Le poids brut comprend le poids de l'emballage, mais non pas celui des sacs vides emballés dans des sacs distincts. Ces indications sont vérifiées par le bureau destinataire, lequel signale immédiatement au bureau expéditeur, au moyen d'un bulletin de vérification, toute erreur dans la déclaration de ce bureau ayant pour objet une différence de poids supérieure à 50 grammes.

2. As regards mails from one Union country for another Union country, the despatching office of Exchange enters, on the letter bill for the Exchange office of destination the gross weight of the letters and post-cards and that of the other articles, without distinction of the origin or destination of the correspondence. The gross weight includes the weight of the packing, but not that of empty sacks packed in separate sacks. These entries are checked by the office of destination, which immediately informs the office of origin, by means of a Bulletin of verification, of any error in the statement of that office, amounting to a difference in weight of more than 50 grammes.

3. Aussitôt que possible après la clôture des opérations de statistique, les bureaux destinataires dressent les relevés (modèle M) en autant d'expéditions qu'il y a d'Offices intéressés, y compris celui du lieu de départ. Ces relevés sont transmis par les bureaux d'échange qui les ont établi aux bureaux d'échange de l'Office débiteur pour être revêtus de leur acceptation. Ceux-ci, après avoir accepté ces relevés, les transmettent à l'Administration centrale dont ils relèvent, chargée de les répartir entre les Offices intéressés.

4. En ce qui concerne les dépêches closes échangées entre un pays de l'Union et un pays étranger à l'Union, par l'intermédiaire d'un ou de plusieurs Offices de l'Union, les bureaux d'échange du pays de l'Union dressent, pour les dépêches expédiées ou reçues, un relevé (modèle M) qu'ils transmettent à l'Office de sortie ou d'entrée, lequel établit, à la fin de la période de statistique, un relevé général en autant d'expéditions qu'il y a d'Offices intéressés, y compris lui-même et l'Office de l'Union débiteur. Une expédition de ce relevé est transmise à l'Office débiteur, ainsi qu'à chacun des Offices qui ont pris part au transport des dépêches.

5. Après chaque période de statistique, les Administrations qui ont expédié des dépêches en transit envoient la liste de ces dépêches aux différentes Administrations dont elles ont emprunté l'intermédiaire.

6. Le simple entrepôt, dans un port, de dépêches closes apportées par un paquebot et destinées à être reprises par un autre paquebot, ne donne pas lieu au paiement de frais de transit territorial au profit de l'Office des postes du lieu d'entrepôt.

7. Il incombe aux Administrations des pays dont relèvent les bâtiments de guerre de dresser les relevés (modèle M) relatifs aux dépêches expédiées ou reçues par

3. As soon as possible after the conclusion of the statistical operations, the offices of destination prepare the statements (Form M) making out as many copies as there are Offices concerned, including that of the place of despatch. These statements are forwarded by the offices of Exchange which have prepared them to the offices of Exchange of the debtor Office for acceptance by signature. These offices, after having accepted the statements forward them to the central Administration to which they are subordinate for distribution among the Offices concerned.

4. As regards closed mails exchanged between a Union country and a country outside the Union, through the medium of one or several Union Offices, the offices of exchange of the Union country prepare, in respect of the mails sent or received, a statement (Form M) which they forward to the Office of exit or entry, and that Office prepares, at the end of the statistical period, a general statement in as many copies as there are Offices concerned, including itself and the debtor Union Office. A copy of this statement is forwarded to the debtor Office, as well as to each of the Offices which have taken part in the conveyance of the mails.

5. After each statistical period, the Administrations which have despatched mails in transit send the list of such mails to the different Administrations whose services they have made use of.

6. The mere warehousing at a port of closed mails brought by one vessel and intended to go on by another does not give rise to the payment of territorial transit charges to the Post Office of the place where the mails are warehoused.

7. It is incumbent on the Administrations of countries to which ships of war belong, to prepare statements (Form M), relative to the mails sent or received

1. Les nombres des correspondances transmises à découvert et les poids des dépêches closes multipliés tous deux par 13 servant de base à des comptes particuliers établissant en francs et centimes les prix annuels de transit revenant à chaque Office. Dans le cas où ce multiplicateur ne se rapporte pas à la périodicité du service, ou lorsqu'il s'agit d'expéditions extraordinaires faites pendant la période de statistique, les Administrations intéressées s'entendent pour l'adoption d'un autre multiplicateur. Le soin d'établir les comptes incombe à l'Office créditeur, qui les transmet à l'Office débiteur. Le multiplicateur admis fait chaque fois règle pour les 6 années d'une même période de statistique.

2. Afin de tenir compte du poids des sacs et de l'emballage et des catégories de correspondances exemptes de tous frais de transit en conformité des dispositions du § 8 de l'article 4 de la Convention, le montant total du compte des dépêches closes est réduit de 10 pour cent.

3. Les comptes particuliers sont dressés, en double expédition, autant que possible en conformité des modèles N, O, et P annexés au présent Règlement.

4. L'établissement et l'envoi des comptes particuliers doivent être effectués dans le plus bref délai possible et, au plus tard, avant l'expiration de l'année qui suit l'année de la statistique.

En tous cas si l'Office qui a envoyé le compte n'a reçu aucune observation rectificative dans un intervalle de 6 mois à compter de l'envoi, ce compte est considéré comme admis de plein droit.

XXXVI.

Account of transit expenses.

1. The number of articles forwarded in open-mail and the weight of the closed mails, both multiplied by 13, serve as the basis of special accounts determining in francs and centimes the yearly transit payments due to each Office. In cases where this multiplier does not correspond to the periodicity of the service, or when it is a question of extraordinary despatches made during the statistical period, the Administrations concerned come to an agreement for the adoption of another multiplier. The duty of preparing the account devolves on the creditor Office, which forwards them to the debtor Office. The multiplier agreed on holds good in each case for the 6 years of the same statistical period.

2. In order to take into account the weight of the sacks and packing and of the classes of articles exempt from all transit charges in conformity with the stipulations of § 8 of Article 4 of the Convention, the total amount of the account for closed mails is reduced by 10 per cent.

3. The detailed accounts are prepared, in duplicate, as nearly as possible in conformity with Forms N, O, and P attached to the present regulations.

4. The preparation and despatch of the detailed accounts should be effected with as little delay as possible, and, at the latest, before the expiration of the year following the statistical year.

In any case, if the Office which has sent the account has received no notice of amendments within an interval of 6 months, reckoning from the date of despatch, the account is regarded as fully accepted.

Statement of total amounts.

6. Dans ce but, aussitôt que les comptes particuliers réciproques entre deux Administrations auront été établis, un relevé (modèle Q) indiquant les montants totaux de ces comptes est dressé par chacune des deux Administrations et transmis par celles-ci sans aucun retard, et au plus tard avant l'expiration de la deuxième année qui suit l'année de la statistique, au Bureau international.

6. With this object, as soon as the reciprocal detailed accounts between two Administrations have been prepared, a statement (Form Q), showing the total amounts of these accounts is prepared by each of the two Administrations and forwarded by them without delay, and at the latest before the expiration of the second year following the statistical year, to the International Bureau.

In the event of one of the Administrations not having furnished items in the time fixed above, the items of the other Administration hold good.

Dans le cas où deux Administrations se seraient mises d'accord pour faire un règlement spécial, le relevé portera la mention "Compte réglé à part—à titre d'information", et ne sera pas compris dans le décompte général.

In case of difference between the corresponding items of two Administrations, the International Bureau invites them to come to an agreement, and to communicate to it the sums definitely fixed.

Dans le cas du § 4, 2<sup>e</sup> alinéa du présent article, les relevés doivent porter la mention "Aucune observation de l'Office débiteur n'est parvenue dans le délai réglementaire."

- (a) Le total du Doit et de l'Avoir de chaque Administration;
- (b) Le solde débiteur ou le solde créditeur de chaque Administration représentant la différence entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir;
- (c) Les sommes à payer par les Administrations débitrices;
- (d) Les sommes à recevoir par les Administrations créditrices.

Les totaux des deux catégories des soldes sous les lettres (a) à (d) doivent nécessairement être égaux.

Le Bureau international pourvoira à ce que le nombre des paiements à effectuer par les Administrations débitrices soit restreint dans la mesure du possible.

9. Les décomptes annuels doivent être transmis aux Administrations de l'Union par le Bureau international, dans le plus bref délai possible.

Si l'Office créditeur a le franc pour unité monétaire, les traites sont tirées en francs effectifs sur une place du pays créditeur au gré de l'Office débiteur. Si l'Office créditeur n'a pas le franc pour unité monétaire, les traites sont tirées au gré de l'Office débiteur soit en francs effectifs sur Paris ou sur une place du pays créditeur, soit dans la monnaie du pays créditeur et sur une place de ce pays; dans ce dernier cas, les Offices intéressés s'entendent sur la manière de procéder et, le cas échéant, sur le taux de conversion du solde dû en monnaie

Répartition des frais du Bureau international.

Maximum, ordinary expenses.

1. Les frais communs du Bureau international ne doivent pas dépasser, par année, la somme de 125,000 francs, non compris les frais spéciaux auxquels donne lieu la réunion d'un Congrès ou d'une Conférence.

Division of the expenses of the International Bureau.

1. The ordinary expenses of the International Bureau must not exceed the sum of 125,000 francs annually, irrespective of the special expenses to which the meeting of a Congress or of a Conference gives rise.

2. The Swiss Postal Administration supervises the expenses of the International Bureau, makes the necessary advances, and prepares the annual account, which is communicated to all the other Administrations.

3. For the apportionment of the expenses, the countries of the Union are divided into seven classes, each contributing in the proportion of a certain number of units, viz. :—

1st class	-----	25 units.
2nd " "	-----	20 " "
3rd " "	-----	15 " "
4th " "	-----	10 " "
5th " "	-----	5 " "
6th " "	-----	3 " "

4. These co-efficients are multiplied by the number of countries of each class, and the total of the products thus obtained furnishes the number of units by which the whole expense is to be divided. The quotient gives the amount of the unit of expense.

5. Les pays de l'Union sont classés ainsi qu'il suit, en vue de la répartition des frais :

1<sup>re</sup> classe: Allemagne, Autriche, Etats-Unis d'Amérique, France, Grande-Bretagne, Hongrie, Inde britannique, Confédération australienne (Commonwealth of Australia), Canada, colonies et protectorats britanniques de l'Afrique du Sud, ensemble des autres colonies et protectorats britanniques, Italie, Japon, Russie, Turquie;

Liquidation, etc.

1. Le Bureau international de l'Union postale universelle est chargé d'opérer la balance et la liquidation des décomptes de toute nature relatifs au service international des postes entre les Administrations des pays de l'Union qui ont le franc pour unité monétaire ou qui se sont mises d'accord sur le taux de conversion de leur monnaie en francs et centimes métalliques.

Les Administrations qui ont l'intention de réclamer, pour ce service de liquidation, le concours du Bureau international, se concertent, à cet effet, entre elles et avec ce Bureau.

Malgré son adhésion, chaque Administration conserve le droit d'établir à son choix des décomptes spéciaux pour diverses branches du service et d'en opérer à sa convenance le règlement avec ses correspondants, sans employer l'intermédiaire du Bureau international, auquel, à teneur de l'alinéa qui précède, elle se borne à indiquer pour quelles branches de service et pour quels pays elle réclame ses offices.

Sur la demande des Administrations intéressées, les décomptes télégraphiques peuvent aussi être indiqués au Bureau international pour entrer dans la compensation des soldes.

Les Administrations qui auront emprunté l'intermédiaire du Bureau international pour la balance et la liquidation des décomptes peuvent cesser d'user de cet intermédiaire trois mois après qu'elles en auront averti ledit Bureau.

2. Après que les comptes particuliers ont été débattus et arrêtés d'un commun accord, les Administrations débitrices transmettent aux Administrations créditrices, pour chaque nature d'opérations, une reconnaissance, établie en francs et centimes, du montant de la balance des deux comptes particuliers, avec l'indication de l'objet de la créance et de la période à laquelle elle se rapporte.

Toutefois, en ce qui concerne l'échange des mandats, la reconand liquidation of accounts of every description relative to the international postal service between Administrations of countries of the Union which have the franc for their monetary unit, or which are agreed on the rate of conversion of their money into francs and centimes (specie).

The Administrations which intend to claim for this service of liquidation the assistance of the International Bureau, arrange accordingly with each other and with the Bureau.

Notwithstanding its adhesion, each Administration retains the right of preparing at will special accounts for different branches of the service, and of effecting the settlement of them at its own convenience with the corresponding Administrations, without employing the medium of the International Bureau, to which, according to the tenor of the preceding paragraph, it merely indicates for what branches of the service and in respect of what countries it applies for the help of the Bureau.

At the request of the Administrations concerned, telegraph accounts can also be notified to the International Bureau to be included in the setting-off of balances.

Administrations which have used the medium of the International Bureau for the balancing and liquidation of accounts may cease to use that medium three months after giving notice to the said Bureau to that effect.

2. After the detailed accounts have been checked and agreed upon, the Debtor Administrations transmit to the Creditor Administrations, for each class of operations, an acknowledgment made out in francs and centimes, of the amount of the balance of the two detailed accounts, indicating the object of the credit and the period to which it relates.

naissance doit être transmise par l'Office débiteur dès l'établissement de son propre compte particulier et la réception du compte particulier de l'Office correspondant, sans attendre qu'il ait été procédé à la vérification de détail. Les différences ultérieurement constatées sont reprises dans le premier compte à intervenir.

General accounts.

Sauf entente contraire, l'Administration qui désirerait, pour sa comptabilité intérieure, avoir des comptes généraux, aurait à les établir elle-même et à les soumettre à l'acceptation de l'Administration correspondante.

Other systems.

Les Administrations peuvent s'entendre pour pratiquer un autre système dans leurs relations.

Monthly and quarterly accounts.

3. Chaque Administration adresse mensuellement ou trimestriellement, si des circonstances spéciales le rendent désirable, au Bureau international, un tableau indiquant son Avoir du chef des décomptes particuliers, ainsi que le total des sommes dont elle est créditrice envers chacune des Administrations contractantes; chaque créance figurant dans ce tableau doit être justifiée par une reconnaissance de l'Office débiteur.

Time limit.

Ce tableau doit parvenir au Bureau international le 19 de chaque mois ou du premier mois de chaque trimestre au plus tard, sous peine de n'être compris que dans la liquidation du mois ou du trimestre suivant.

Comparisons.

4. Le Bureau international constate, en rapprochant les reconnaissances, si les tableaux sont exacts. Toute rectification nécessaire est notifiée aux Offices intéressés.

Summary of debits.

Le Doit de chaque Administration envers une autre est reporté dans un tableau récapitulatif; afin d'établir le total dont chaque Administration est débitrice, il suffit d'additionner les diverses colonnes de ce tableau récapitulatif.

General balance sheet.

5. Le Bureau international réunit les tableaux et les récapitulament must be transmitted by the Debtor Office as soon as it has prepared its own detailed account, and has received the detailed account of the corresponding Office, without waiting for verification of details. The discrepancies subsequently brought to light are adjusted in the first account which offers.

In the absence of any understanding to the contrary, an Administration desiring for its own accounting purposes, to have general accounts, has to prepare them itself and to submit them to the corresponding Administration for acceptance.

Administrations may come to an understanding for the adoption of another system in their relations.

3. Each Administration addresses monthly or quarterly, if special circumstances render it desirable, to the International Bureau a table showing the total Credit due to it on the individual accounts, as well as the total of the sums which are due to it from each of the contracting Administrations; each credit appearing in this table must be substantiated by an acknowledgment from the indebted Office.

This table should reach the International Bureau not later than the 19th of each month or of the first month of each quarter, otherwise its liquidation is liable to be deferred until the month or the quarter following.

4. The International Bureau ascertains, by comparing the acknowledgments, if the tables are correct. Every correction that is necessary is notified to the Offices concerned.

The Debit of each Administration to another is carried forward into a summary; and in order to arrive at the total amount owing by each Administration, it suffices to add up the different columns of this summary.

5. The International Bureau combines the tables and the sum-tions en une balance générale indiquant :

maries in one general balance sheet showing:

- (a) le total du Doit et de l'Avoir de chaque Administration;
- (b) le solde débiteur ou le solde créditeur de chaque Administration, représentant la différence entre le total du Doit et le total l'Avoir;
- (c) les sommes à payer par une partie des membres de l'Union à une Administration, ou réciproquement les sommes à payer par cette dernière à l'autre partie.

- (a) The total of the Debit and of the Credit of each Administration;
- (b) The balance against or in favour of each Administration, representing the difference between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit;
- (c) The sums to be paid by some of the members of the Union to a single Administration, or, reciprocally, the sums to be paid by the latter to the former.

Les totaux des deux catégories de soldes sous (a) et (b) doivent nécessairement être égaux.

The totals of the two categories of balances under a and b must of necessity be equal.

Total of balances.

On pourvoira autant que possible à ce que chaque Administration n'ait à effectuer, pour se libérer, qu'un ou deux paiements distincts.

It shall be arranged, as far as possible, that each Administration, in order to liquidate its debts, shall have to make only one or two distinct payments.

Payments.

Toutefois, l'Administration qui se trouve habituellement à découvert vis-à-vis d'une autre Administration pour une somme supérieure à 50,000 francs a le droit de réclamer des acomptes.

Nevertheless, an Administration which habitually finds a sum exceeding 50,000 francs due to it from another Administration has the right to claim remittances on account.

Remittances on account.

Ces acomptes sont inscrits, tant par l'Administration créditrice que par l'Administration débitrice, au bas des tableaux à adresser au Bureau International (voir § 3).

These remittances on account are entered, both by the creditor Administration and by the debtor Administration, at the foot of the tables to be forwarded to the International Bureau (see § 3).

6. Les reconnaissances (voir § 3) transmises au Bureau international avec les tableaux sont classées par Administration.

6. The acknowledgments (see § 3) transmitted to the International Bureau with the tables are classified according to the different Administrations.

Classification of acknowledgments, etc.

Elles servent de base pour l'établissement de la liquidation de chacune des Administrations intéressées. Dans cette liquidation doivent figurer :

They serve as the basis for settling the accounts of each of the Administrations concerned. In this settlement there should appear:

Settlements.

- (a) les sommes afférentes aux décomptes spéciaux portant sur les divers échanges;
- (b) le total des sommes résultant de tous les décomptes spéciaux par rapport à chacune des Administrations intéressées;

- (a) The sums relating to the special accounts concerning the different exchanges;
- (b) The total of the sums resulting from all the special accounts with respect to each of the Administrations concerned;

(c) les totaux des sommes dues à toutes les Administrations créditrices pour chaque branche du service, ainsi que leur total général.

Ce total doit être égal au total du Doit qui figure dans la récapitulation.

Au bas de la liquidation, la balance est établie entre le total du Doit et le total de l'Avoir résultant des tableaux adressés par les Administrations au Bureau international (voir § 3). Le montant net du Doit ou de l'Avoir doit être égal au solde débiteur ou au solde créditeur porté dans la balance générale. En outre, la liquidation statue sur le mode de liquidation, c'est-à-dire qu'elle indique les Administrations en faveur desquelles le paiement doit être effectué par l'Administration débitrice.

Transmission of accounts.

Les liquidations doivent être transmises aux Administrations intéressées, par le Bureau international, au plus tard le 22 de chaque mois.

Payments.

7. Le paiement des sommes dues, en vertu d'une liquidation, par une Administration à une autre Administration, doit être effectué aussitôt que possible et au plus tard quinze jours après réception de la liquidation par l'Administration débitrice. Quant aux autres conditions de paiement, les dispositions du § 1 de l'article XXXVII précédent font loi. Les dispositions du § 2 dudit article sont, le cas échéant, applicables en cas de non-paiement du solde dans le délai fixé.

Ante, p. 1729.

Account of balances.

Les soldes débiteurs ou créditeurs n'excédant pas 500 francs peuvent être reportés à la liquidation du mois suivant, à la condition toutefois que les Administrations intéressées soient en rapport mensuel avec le Bureau international. Il est fait mention de ce report dans les récapitulations et dans les liquidations pour les Administrations créditrices et débitrices. L'Administration débitrice fait parvenir,

(c) The totals of the sums due to all the Creditor Administrations on account of each branch of the service, as well as their general total.

This total should be equal to the total of the Debit which appears in the summary.

At the foot of the account, the balance is prepared between the total of the Debit and the total of the Credit resulting from the tables forwarded by the Administrations to the International Bureau (see § 3). The net amount of the Debit or of the Credit should be equal to the debit balance or to the credit balance carried into the general balance sheet. Moreover, the account determines the manner of settlement, that is to say, it indicates the Administrations to which payment must be made by the Administration indebted.

The accounts must be transmitted to the Administrations interested by the International Bureau not later than the 22nd of each month.

7. Payment of the sums due, in virtue of an account, from one Administration to another, must be effected as soon as possible and at the latest a fortnight after receipt of the account by the debtor Administration. As regards other conditions of payment the stipulations of § 1 of the preceding Article XXXVII hold good. The stipulations of § 2 of the said Article are, if the case arise, applicable in case of non-payment of the balance within the fixed period.

Debit or credit balances not exceeding 500 francs can be carried forward to the settlement of the following month, provided, however, that the Administrations concerned are in monthly communication with the International Bureau. The amount brought forward is entered in the summaries and in the accounts for the Creditor and Debtor Administrations. The Debtor Administration furnishes, in such

TITRE I.—DISPOSITIONS GÉNÉRALES.

CHAPITRE I.—Prescriptions à observer par les pays signataires de la Convention dès que la peste ou le choléra apparaît sur leur territoire.

SECTION I.—Notification et communications ultérieures aux autres pays.

ARTICLE PREMIER.—Chaque Gouvernement doit notifier immédiatement aux autres Gouvernements la première apparition sur son territoire de cas avérés de peste ou de choléra.

TITLE I.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

CHAPTER I.—Rules to be observed by the countries signing the convention as soon as plague or cholera appears in their territory.

SECTION I.—Notification and subsequent communications to the other countries.

ARTICLE 1. Each government shall immediately notify the other governments of the first appearance in its territory of authentic cases of plague or cholera.

General provisions.

Rules to be observed upon appearance of plague, etc.

Notification, etc., to other countries.

Detailed information.

ART. 2.—Cette notification est accompagnée ou très promptement suivie de renseignements circonstanciés sur :

1° l'endroit où la maladie est apparue ;

2° la date de son apparition, son origine et sa forme ;

3° le nombre des cas constatés et celui des décès ;

4° pour la peste : l'existence, parmi les rats ou les souris, de la peste ou d'une mortalité insolite ;

5° les mesures immédiatement prises à la suite de cette première apparition.

Notice to diplomatic, etc., officers.

ART. 3.—La notification et les renseignements prévus aux articles 1 et 2 sont adressés aux agences diplomatiques ou consulaires dans la capitale du pays contaminé.

Pour les pays qui n'y sont pas représentés, ils sont transmis directement par télégraphe aux Gouvernements de ces pays.

Information concerning progress of epidemic.

ART. 4.—La notification et les renseignements prévus aux articles 1 et 2 sont suivis de communications ultérieures données d'une façon régulière, de manière à tenir les Gouvernements au courant de la marche de l'épidémie.

Ces communications, qui se font au moins une fois par semaine et qui sont aussi complètes que possible, indiquent plus particulièrement les précautions prises en vue de combattre l'extension de la maladie.

Elles doivent préciser : 1° les mesures prophylactiques appliquées relativement à l'inspection sanitaire ou à la visite médicale, à l'isolement et à la désinfection ; 2° les mesures exécutées au départ des navires pour empêcher l'exportation du mal et spécialement, dans le cas prévu par le 4° de l'article 2 ci-dessus, les mesures prises contre les rats.

Prompt notification recommended.

ART. 5.—Le prompt et sincère accomplissement des prescriptions qui précèdent est d'une importance primordiale.

Les notifications n'ont de valeur réelle que si chaque Gouvernement est prévenu lui-même, à temps, des cas de peste, de choléra et des cas douteux sur-

ARTICLE 2. This notification shall be accompanied, or very promptly followed, by particulars regarding :

1. The neighborhood in which the disease has appeared.

2. The date of its appearance, its origin, and its form.

3. The number of established cases and the number of deaths.

4. In case of plague : The existence of plague or of an unusual mortality among rats and mice.

5. The measures immediately taken following this first appearance.

ARTICLE 3. The notification and particulars contemplated in Articles 1 and 2 shall be sent to the diplomatic or consular offices in the capital of the infected country.

In the case of countries not represented there, they shall be transmitted directly by telegraph to the governments of such countries.

ARTICLE 4. The notification and particulars contemplated in Articles 1 and 2 shall be followed by further communications sent regularly so as to keep the governments informed of the progress of the epidemic.

These communications, which shall be sent at least once a week and shall be as complete as possible, shall indicate more particularly the precautions taken to prevent the spread of the disease.

They shall specify : 1 The prophylactic measures applied with regard to sanitary or medical inspection, to isolation, and to disinfection ; 2 the measures enforced upon the departure of vessels to prevent the exportation of the disease, and especially, in the case contemplated under No. 4 of Article 2 above, the measures taken against rats.

ARTICLE 5. The prompt and faithful execution of the foregoing provisions is of prime importance.

The notifications are of no real value unless each government is itself opportunely informed of cases of plague and cholera and of doubtful cases occurring in its venus sur son territoire. On ne saurait donc trop recommander aux divers Gouvernements de rendre obligatoire la déclaration des cas de peste et des cas de choléra, et de se tenir renseignés sur toute mortalité insolite des rats ou des souris, notamment dans les ports.

ART. 6. Il est entendu que les pays voisins se réservent de faire des arrangements spéciaux en vue d'organiser un service d'informations directes entre les chefs des administrations des frontières.

SECTION II.—Conditions qui permettent de considérer une circonscription territoriale comme contaminée ou redevenue saine.

ART. 7.—La notification d'un premier cas de peste ou de choléra n'entraîne pas contre la circonscription territoriale où il s'est produit, l'application des mesures prévues au chapitre II ci-après.

Mais, lorsque plusieurs cas de peste non importés se sont manifestés ou que les cas de choléra forment foyer, la circonscription est déclarée contaminée.

ART. 8.—Pour restreindre les mesures aux seules régions atteintes, les Gouvernements ne doivent les appliquer qu'aux provenances des circonscriptions contaminées.

On entend par le mot circonscription une partie de territoire bien déterminée dans les renseignements qui accompagnent ou suivent la notification, ainsi : une province, un "gouvernement," un district, un département, un canton, une île, une commune, une ville, un quartier de ville, un village, un port, un polder, une agglomération, etc., quelles que soient l'étendue et la population de ces portions de territoire.

Mais cette restriction limitée à la circonscription contaminée ne doit être acceptée qu'à la condition formelle que le Gouvernement du pays contaminé prenne les mesures nécessaires : 1° pour prévenir, à moins de désinfection préalable, l'exportation des ob-territory. It can not therefore be too strongly recommended to the various governments that they make compulsory the announcement of cases of plague and cholera and that they keep themselves informed of any unusual mortality among rats and mice, especially in ports.

ARTICLE 6. It is understood that neighboring countries reserve the right to make special arrangements with a view to organizing a service of direct information among the heads of frontier departments.

SECTION II.—Conditions which warrant the consideration of a territorial area as being contaminated or as having again become healthy.

ARTICLE 7. The notification of a single case of plague or cholera shall not involve the application, against the territorial area in which it has occurred, of the measures prescribed in Chapter II hereinbelow.

However, when several unimported cases of plague have appeared or when the cholera cases become localized, the area shall be declared contaminated.

ARTICLE 8. In order to limit the measures to the stricken regions alone, the governments shall only apply them to arrivals from the contaminated areas.

By the word area is meant a portion of territory definitely specified in the particulars which accompany or follow the notification; for instance, a province, a government, a district, a department, a canton, an island, a commune, a city, a quarter of a city, a village, a port, a polder, a hamlet, etc., whatever be the area and population of these portions of territory.

However, this restriction to the contaminated area shall only be accepted upon the formal condition that the government of the contaminated country take the necessary measures 1 to prevent the exportation of the articles enumerated under Nos. 1 and 2 jets visés aux 1° et 2° de l'article 12, provenant de la circonscription contaminée, et 2° pour combattre l'extension de l'épidémie.

Quand une circonscription est contaminée, aucune mesure restrictive n'est prise contre les provenances de cette circonscription, si ces provenances l'ont quittée cinq jours au moins avant le début de l'épidémie.

Areas no longer contaminated.

ART. 9.—Pour qu'une circonscription ne soit plus considérée comme contaminée il faut la constatation officielle:

1° qu'il n'y a eu ni décès ni cas nouveau de peste ou de choléra depuis cinq jours soit après l'isolement (*), soit après la mort ou la guérison du dernier pesteux ou cholérique;

2° que toutes les mesures de désinfection ont été appliquées, et, s'il s'agit de cas de peste, que les mesures contre les rats ont été exécutées.

Defensive measures by noncontaminated countries.

CHAPITRE II.—Mesures de défense par les autres pays contre les territoires déclarés contaminés.

SECTION I.—Publication des mesures prescrites.

Prescribed measures to be published.

ART. 10.—Le Gouvernement de chaque pays est tenu de publier immédiatement les mesures qu'il croit devoir prescrire au sujet des provenances d'un pays ou d'une circonscription territoriale contaminés.

Il communique aussitôt cette publication à l'agent diplomatique ou consulaire du pays contaminé, résidant dans sa capitale, ainsi qu'aux Conseils sanitaires internationaux.

Il est également tenu de faire connaître, par les mêmes voies, le retrait de ces mesures ou les modifications dont elles seraient l'objet.

A défaut d'agence diplomatique ou consulaire dans la capitale, les of Article 12 and coming from the contaminated area, unless they are previously disinfected, and 2 to combat the spread of the epidemic.

When an area is contaminated, no restrictive measure shall be taken against arrivals from such area if such arrivals have left it at least five days before the beginning of the epidemic.

ARTICLE 9. In order that an area may be considered as being no longer contaminated, it must be officially ascertained:

1. That there has been neither a death nor a new case of plague or cholera within five days after the isolation,<sup>a</sup> death, or cure of the last plague or cholera patient.

2. That all the measures of disinfection have been applied, and, in the case of plague, that the measures against rats have been executed.

CHAPTER II.—Measures of defense by other countries against territories declared to be contaminated.

SECTION I.—Publication of the prescribed measures.

ARTICLE 10. The government of each country is obliged to immediately publish the measures which it believes necessary to prescribe with regard to arrivals from a contaminated country or territorial area.

It shall at once communicate this publication to the diplomatic or consular officer of the contaminated country residing in its capital, as well as to the international boards of health.

It shall likewise be obliged to make known through the same channels the revocation of these measures or any modifications which may be made therein.

In default of a diplomatic or consular office in the capital, the SECTION II. — Marchandises. — Désinfection. — Importation et transit. — Bagages.

SECTION II. — Merchandise — Disinfection — Importation and Transit — Baggage.

Disinfection, etc.

ART. 11. — Il n'existe pas de marchandises qui soient par elles-mêmes capables de transmettre la peste ou le choléra. Elles ne deviennent dangereuses qu'au cas où elles ont été souillées par des produits pesteux ou cholériques.

ARTICLE 11. No merchandise is capable by itself of transmitting plague or cholera. It only becomes dangerous when contaminated by plague or cholera products.

ART. 12. — La désinfection ne peut être appliquée qu'aux marchandises et objets que l'autorité sanitaire locale considère comme contaminés.

ARTICLE 12. Disinfection shall only be applied to merchandise and articles which the local health authority considers to be contaminated.

Disinfecting contaminated articles, etc.

Toutefois, les marchandises ou objets énumérés ci-après peuvent être soumis à la désinfection ou même prohibés à l'entrée, indépendamment de toute constatation qu'ils seraient ou non contaminés:

However, the merchandise or articles enumerated below may be subjected to disinfection or even prohibited entry independently of any proof that they are or are not contaminated.

1° Les linges de corps, hardes et vêtements portés (effets à usage), les literies ayant servi.

1. Body linen, clothing worn (wearing apparel), and bedding which has been used.

Body linen, etc.

Lorsque ces objets sont transportés comme bagages ou à la suite d'un changement de domicile (effets d'installation), ils ne peuvent être prohibés et sont soumis au régime de l'article 19.

When these articles are being transported as baggage or as a result of a change of residence (household goods), they shall not be prohibited and are subject to the provisions of Article 19.

Post, p. 1781.

Les paquets laissés par les soldats et les matelots et renvoyés dans leur patrie après décès, sont assimilés aux objets compris dans le premier alinéa du 1°.

Packages left by soldiers and sailors and returned to their country after death are treated the same as the articles comprised in the first paragraph of No. 1.

2° Les chiffons et drilles, à l'exception, quant au choléra, des chiffons comprimés qui sont transportés comme marchandises en gros par ballots cerclés.

2. Rags (including those for making paper), with the exception, as to cholera, of compressed rags transported as wholesale merchandise in hooped bales.

Rags, etc.

Ne peuvent être interdits les déchets neufs provenant directement d'ateliers de filature, de tissage, de confection ou de blanchiment; les laines artificielles (Kunstwolle, Shoddy) et les rognures de papier neuf.

Fresh waste coming directly from spinning mills, weaving mills, manufactories, or bleacheries; artificial wools (shoddy), and fresh paper trimmings shall not be forbidden.

ART. 13. — Il n'y a pas lieu d'interdire le transit des marchandises et objets spécifiés aux 1° et 2° de l'article qui précède, s'ils sont emballés de telle sorte qu'ils ne puissent être manipulés en route.

ARTICLE 13. The transit of the merchandise and articles specified under Nos. 1 and 2 of the preceding article shall not be prohibited if they are so packed that they can not be manipulated en route.

Merchandise, etc., in transit.

De même, lorsque les marchandises ou objets sont transportés de telle façon qu'en cours de route ils n'aient pu être en contact avec les objets souillés, leur transit à travers une circonscription territoriale contaminée ne doit pas être un obstacle à leur entrée dans le pays de destination.

Merchandise, etc., shipped five days before beginning of epidemic.

ART. 14.—Les marchandises et objets spécifiés aux 1° et 2° de l'article 12 ne tombent pas sous l'application des mesures de prohibition à l'entrée, s'il est démontré à l'autorité du pays de destination qu'ils ont été expédiés cinq jours au moins avant le début de l'épidémie.

Mode, etc., of disinfecting.

ART. 15.—Le mode et l'endroit de la désinfection, ainsi que les procédés à employer pour assurer la destruction des rats, sont fixés par l'autorité du pays de destination. Ces opérations doivent être faites de manière à ne détériorer les objets que le moins possible.

Payment of damages.

Il appartient à chaque État de régler la question relative au paiement éventuel de dommages-intérêts résultant de la désinfection ou de la destruction des rats.

Destruction of rats on vessels.

Si, à l'occasion des mesures prises pour assurer la destruction des rats à bord des navires, des taxes sont perçues par l'autorité sanitaire, soit directement, soit par l'intermédiaire d'une société ou d'un particulier, le taux de ces taxes doit être fixé par un tarif publié d'avance et établi de façon qu'il ne puisse résulter de l'ensemble de son application une source de bénéfice pour l'État ou pour l'Administration sanitaire.

Letters, etc., not subject to disinfection.

ART. 16.—Les lettres et correspondances, imprimés, livres, journaux, papiers d'affaires, etc. (non compris les colis postaux), ne sont soumis à aucune restriction ni désinfection.

Merchandise not to be detained at frontiers, etc.

ART. 17.—Les marchandises, arrivant par terre ou par mer, ne peuvent être retenues aux frontières ou dans les ports.

Les seules mesures qu'il soit permis de prescrire à leur égard sont spécifiées dans l'article 12 ci-dessus.

sible for them to have been in contact with contaminated articles en route, their transit across an infected territorial area shall not constitute an obstacle to their entry into the country of destination.

ARTICLE 14. The merchandise and articles specified under Nos. 1 and 2 of Article 12 shall not be subject to the application of the measures prohibiting entry if it is proven to the authorities of the country of destination that they were shipped at least five days before the beginning of the epidemic.

ARTICLE 15. The mode and place of disinfection, as well as the methods to be employed for the destruction of rats, shall be determined by the authorities of the country of destination. These operations should be performed in such a manner as to cause the least possible injury to the articles.

It shall devolve upon each Nation to determine the question as to the possible payment of damages as a result of disinfection or of the destruction of rats.

If, on the occasion of the taking of measures for the destruction of rats on board vessels, the health authorities should levy a tax either directly or through a society or private individual, the rate of such tax must be fixed by a tariff published in advance and so calculated that no profit shall be derived by the Nation or the Health Department from its application as a whole.

ARTICLE 16. Letters and correspondence, printed matter, books, newspapers, business papers, etc. (parcels post not included) shall not be subjected to any restriction or disinfection.

ARTICLE 17. Merchandise, arriving by land or by sea, shall not be detained at frontiers or in ports.

The only measures which it is permissible to prescribe with regard to them are specified in Article 12 hereinabove.

Toutefois, si des marchandises, arrivant par mer en vrac ou dans des emballages défectueux, ont été, pendant la traversée, contaminées par des rats reconnus pesteux et si elles ne peuvent être désinfectées, la destruction des germes peut être assurée par leur mise en dépôt pendant une durée maxima de deux semaines.

Il est entendu que l'application de cette dernière mesure ne doit entraîner aucun délai pour le navire ni des frais extraordinaires résultant du défaut d'entrepôts dans les ports.

ART. 18.—Lorsque des marchandises ont été désinfectées, par application des prescriptions de l'article 12, ou mises en dépôt temporaire, en vertu du 3<sup>e</sup> alinéa de l'article 17, le propriétaire ou son représentant a le droit de réclamer, de l'autorité sanitaire qui a ordonné la désinfection ou le dépôt, un certificat indiquant les mesures prises.

ART. 19.—Bagages.—La désinfection du linge sale, des hardes, vêtements et objets qui font partie de bagages ou de mobiliers (effets d'installation) provenant d'une circonscription territoriale déclarée contaminée, n'est effectuée que dans les cas où l'autorité sanitaire les considère comme contaminés.

SECTION III.—Mesures dans les ports et aux frontières de mer.

ART. 20.—Classification des navires.—Est considéré comme infecté le navire qui a la peste ou le choléra à bord ou qui a présenté un ou plusieurs cas de peste ou de choléra depuis sept jours.

Est considéré comme suspect le navire à bord duquel il y a eu des cas de peste ou de choléra au moment du départ ou pendant la traversée, mais aucun cas nouveau depuis sept jours.

Est considéré comme indemne, bien que venant d'un port contaminé, le navire qui n'a eu ni décès ni cas de peste ou de choléra

However, if merchandise arriving by sea in bulk or in defective bales has been contaminated during the passage by rats known to be stricken with plague, and if it can not be disinfected, the destruction of the germs may be insured by storing it in a warehouse for a maximum period of two weeks.

It is understood that the application of this last measure shall not entail any delay upon the vessel or any extra expense as a result of the lack of warehouses in the ports.

ARTICLE 18. When merchandise has been disinfected by applying the provisions of Article 12, or temporarily warehoused in accordance with the third paragraph of Article 17, the owner or his representative shall be entitled to demand from the health authority who has ordered the disinfection or storage, a certificate setting forth the measures taken.

ARTICLE 19. Baggage.—The disinfection of the soiled linen, wearing apparel, and articles of baggage or furniture (household goods) coming from a territorial area declared to be contaminated shall only take place in cases when the health authority considers them to be contaminated.

SECTION III.—Measures in ports and at maritime frontiers.

ARTICLE 20. Classification of vessels.—A vessel is considered as infected which has plague or cholera on board, or which has presented one or more cases of plague or cholera within seven days.

A vessel is considered as suspectious on board of which there were cases of plague or cholera at the time of departure or have been during the voyage, but on which there have been no new cases within seven days.

A vessel is considered as uninfected which, although coming from an infected port, has had neither death nor any case of Restrictions concerning plague-infected ships.

ARR. 21.—Les navires infectés de peste sont soumis au régime suivant:

- 1° visite médicale;
- 2° les malades sont immédiatement débarqués et isolés;
- 3° les autres personnes doivent être également débarqués, si possible, et soumises à dater de l'arrivée, soit à une observation<sup>(1)</sup> qui ne dépassera pas cinq jours et pourra être suivie ou non d'une surveillance<sup>(2)</sup> de cinq jours au plus, soit simplement à une surveillance qui ne pourra excéder dix jours.

Il appartient à l'autorité sanitaire du port d'appliquer celle de ces mesures qui lui paraît préférable selon la date du dernier cas, l'état du navire et les possibilités locales;

Disinfecting soiled linen, etc.

4° le linge sale, les effets à usage et les objets de l'équipage<sup>(3)</sup> et des passagers qui, de l'avis de l'autorité sanitaire, sont considérés comme contaminés seront désinfectés;

5° les parties du navire qui ont été habitées par des pesteux ou qui, de l'avis de l'autorité sanitaire, sont considérés comme contaminés, doivent être désinfectés;

Destroying rats.

6° la destruction des rats du navire doit être effectuée avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison, le plus rapidement plague or cholera on board either before departure, during the voyage, or at the time of arrival.

ARTICLE 21. Ships infected with plague shall be subjected to the following measures:

1. Medical inspection.
2. The patients shall be immediately landed and isolated.
3. The other persons shall also be landed, if possible, and subjected, from the date of their arrival, either to an observation<sup>a</sup> which shall not exceed five days and may be followed or not by a surveillance<sup>b</sup> of five days at most, or simply to a surveillance not to exceed ten days.

It is within the discretion of the health authority of the port to apply whichever of these measures appears preferable to him according to the date of the last case, the condition of the vessel, and the local possibilities.

4. The soiled linen, wearing apparel, and other articles of the crew<sup>a</sup> and passengers which are considered by the health authority as being contaminated shall be disinfected.

5. The parts of the vessel which have been occupied by persons stricken with plague or which are considered by the health authority as being contaminated shall be disinfected.

6. The destruction of the rats on the vessel shall take place before or after the discharge of the cargo as rapidly as possible, and

(1) Le mot "observation" signifie : isolement des voyageurs soit à bord d'un navire, soit dans une station sanitaire, avant qu'ils n'obtiennent la libre pratique.

(2) Le mot "surveillance" signifie que les voyageurs ne sont pas isolés, qu'ils obtiennent tout de suite la libre pratique, mais sont signalés à l'autorité dans les diverses localités où ils se rendent et soumis à un examen médical constatant leur état de santé.

(3) Le mot "équipage" s'applique aux personnes qui font ou ont fait partie de l'équipage ou du personnel de service du bord, y compris les maîtres d'hôtel, garçons, cafedji, etc. C'est dans ce sens qu'il faut comprendre ce mot chaque fois qu'il est employé dans la présente Convention.

<sup>a</sup>By "observation" is meant the isolation of the passengers, either on board a vessel or at a sanitary station, before they are granted pratique.

<sup>b</sup>By "surveillance" is meant that the passengers are not isolated and that they immediately obtain pratique, but that the attention of the authorities is called to them wherever they go and that they are subjected to a medical examination to ascertain the state of their health.

<sup>c</sup>The term "crew" is applied to all persons who form or have formed part of the crew or of the servants on board the vessel, including stewards, waiters, "cafedji," etc. The term is to be construed in this sense wherever employed in the present Convention.

possible et, en tout cas, dans un délai maximum de quarante-huit heures, en évitant de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines.

Pour les navires sur lest, cette opération doit se faire le plus tôt possible avant le chargement.

ART. 22.—Les navires suspects de peste sont soumis aux mesures qui sont indiquées sous les n<sup>os</sup> 1, 4 et 5 de l'article 21.

En outre, l'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne dépassera pas cinq jours à dater de l'arrivée du navire. On peut, pendant le même temps, empêcher le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

Il est recommandé de détruire les rats du navire. Cette destruction est effectuée, avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison, le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, dans un délai maximum de quarante-huit heures, en évitant de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines.

Pour les navires sur lest, cette opération se fera, s'il y a lieu, le plus tôt possible et, en tout cas, avant le chargement.

ART. 23.—Les navires indemnes de peste sont admis à la libre pratique immédiate, quelle que soit la nature de leur patente.

Le seul régime que peut prescrire à leur sujet l'autorité du port d'arrivée consiste dans les mesures suivantes:

1<sup>o</sup> visite médicale;

2<sup>o</sup> désinfection du linge sale, des effets à usage et des autres objets de l'équipage et des passagers, mais seulement dans les cas exceptionnels, lorsque l'autorité sanitaire a des raisons spéciales de croire à leur contamination;

3<sup>o</sup> sans que la mesure puisse être érigée en règle générale, l'autorité sanitaire peut soumettre les navires venant d'un port contaminé à une opération destinée à détruire les rats à bord, avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison. Cette opération doit être faite aussitôt que possible et, en at all events within a maximum period of forty-eight hours, avoiding injury to the cargo, the plating, and the engines.

In the case of vessels in ballast, this operation shall be performed as soon as possible before taking on cargo.

ARTICLE 22. Vessels suspected of plague shall be subjected to the measures indicated under Nos. 1, 4, and 5 of Article 21.

Moreover, the crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the arrival of the vessel. The landing of the crew may be forbidden during the same period except in connection with the service.

It is recommended that the rats on the vessel be destroyed. This destruction should be effected before or after the discharge of cargo as rapidly as possible, and at all events within a maximum period of forty-eight hours, avoiding injury to the merchandise, plating, and engines.

In case of vessels in ballast, this operation shall be performed, if there is occasion for it, as soon as possible and at all events before taking on cargo.

ARTICLE 23. Vessels uninfected with plague shall be granted pratique immediately, whatever be the nature of their bill of health.

The only measures which the authority of the port of arrival may prescribe with regard to them shall be the following:

1. Medical inspection.

2. Disinfection of the soiled linen, wearing apparel, and other articles of the crew and passengers, but only in exceptional cases when the health authority has special reason to believe that they are contaminated.

3. Although not to be adopted as a general rule, the health authority may subject vessels coming from a contaminated port to an operation designed to destroy the rats on board, either before or after the discharge of the cargo. This operation should take place as soon as possible and should not tout cas, ne doit pas durer plus de vingt-quatre heures en évitant de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines et d'entraver la circulation des passagers et de l'équipage entre le navire et la terre ferme. Pour les navires sur lest, il sera procédé, s'il y a lieu, à cette opération le plus tôt possible et en tout cas avant le chargement.

Lorsqu'un navire venant d'un port contaminé a été soumis à la destruction des rats, celle-ci ne peut être renouvelée que si le navire a fait relâche dans un port contaminé en s'y amarrant à quai, ou si la présence de rats morts ou malades est constatée à bord.

L'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne dépassera pas cinq jours à compter de la date où le navire est parti du port contaminé. On peut également, pendant le même temps, empêcher le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

L'autorité compétente du port d'arrivée peut toujours réclamer sous serment un certificat du médecin du bord, ou, à son défaut, du capitaine, attestant qu'il n'y a pas eu de cas de peste sur le navire depuis le départ et qu'une mortalité insolite des rats n'a pas été constatée.

Vessels with plague-stricken rats.

ART. 24.—Lorsque, sur un navire indemne, des rats ont été reconnus pesteux après examen bactériologique, ou bien que l'on constate parmi ces rongeurs une mortalité insolite, il y a lieu de faire application des mesures suivantes:

I. Navires avec rats pesteux:

a) visite médicale;
b) les rats doivent être détruits, avant ou après le déchargement de la cargaison, le plus rapidement possible et, en tout cas, dans un délai maximum de quarante-huit heures, en évitant de détériorer les marchandises, les tôles et les machines. Les navires sur lest subissent cette opération in any event last more than twenty-four hours, avoiding injury to the cargo, plating, and engines, and avoiding hindrance to the movement of the passengers and crew between the vessel and the shore. In case of vessels in ballast, this operation, if there is occasion for it, should take place as soon as possible and at all events before taking on cargo.

When a vessel hailing from a contaminated port has been subjected to an operation for the destruction of rats, this operation shall not be repeated unless the vessel has stopped and moored at a wharf in a contaminated port, or unless the presence of dead or diseased rats is discovered on board.

The crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the date on which the vessel left the contaminated port. The landing of the crew may also be forbidden during the same time except in connection with the service.

The competent authority of the port of arrival may always demand an affidavit from the ship's physician, or in default of such physician, from the captain, to the effect that there has not been a case of plague on the vessel since its departure and that no unusual mortality among the rats has been observed.

ARTICLE 24. When rats have been recognized as plague-stricken on board an uninfected vessel as a result of a bacteriological examination, or when an unusual mortality has been discovered among these rodents, the following measures shall be applied:

I. Vessels with plague-stricken rats:

a) Medical inspection.
b) The rats shall be destroyed either before or after the discharge of the cargo as rapidly as possible and at all events within a maximum period of forty-eight hours, avoiding injury to the cargo, plating, and engines. On vessels in ballast this operation shall be performed as soon as pos-le plus tôt possible et, en tout cas, avant le chargement;

c) les parties du navire et les objets que l'autorité sanitaire locale juge être contaminés sont désinfectés;

d) les passagers et l'équipage peuvent être soumis à une surveillance dont la durée ne doit pas dépasser cinq jours comptés à partir de la date d'arrivée, sauf des cas exceptionnels où l'autorité sanitaire peut prolonger la surveillance jusqu'à un maximum de  $x$  jours.

II. Navires où est constatée une mortalité insolite des rats:

a) visite médicale;

b) l'examen des rats au point de vue de la peste sera fait autant et aussi vite que possible;

c) si la destruction des rats est jugée nécessaire, elle aura lieu, dans les conditions indiquées ci-dessus relativement aux navires avec rats pesteux;

d) jusqu'à ce que tout soupçon soit écarté, les passagers et l'équipage peuvent être soumis à une surveillance dont la durée ne dépassera pas cinq jours comptés à partir de la date d'arrivée, sauf dans des cas exceptionnels où l'autorité sanitaire peut prolonger la surveillance jusqu'à un maximum de dix jours.

ART. 25.—L'autorité sanitaire du port délivre au capitaine, à l'armateur ou à son agent, toutes les fois que la demande en est faite, un certificat constatant que les mesures de destruction des rats ont été effectuées et indiquant les raisons pour lesquelles ces mesures ont été appliquées.

ART. 26.—Les navires infectés de choléra sont soumis au régime suivant:

1° visite médicale;

2° les malades sont immédiatement débarqués et isolés;

3° les autres personnes doivent être également débarquées, si possible, et soumises à dater de l'arrivée du navire à une observation ou à une surveillance dont la durée variera, selon l'état sanitaire du navire et selon la date du dernier sible and at all events before taking on cargo.

c) The parts of the vessel and the articles which the health authority considers to be contaminated shall be disinfected.

d) The passengers and crew may be subjected to a surveillance whose duration shall not exceed five days from the date of arrival, save exceptional cases, in which the health authority may prolong the surveillance to a maximum of ten days.

II. Vessels on which an unusual mortality among rats is discovered:

a) Medical inspection.

b) An examination of the rats with regard to the plague shall be made as far and as quickly as possible.

c) If the destruction of the rats is deemed necessary, it shall take place under the conditions indicated above for vessels with plague-stricken rats.

d) Until all suspicion is removed, the passengers and the crew may be subjected to a surveillance whose duration shall not exceed five days from the date of arrival, save exceptional cases, in which the health authority may prolong the surveillance to a maximum of ten days.

ARTICLE 25. The health authority of the port shall deliver to the captain or to the shipowner or his agent, whenever demanded, a certificate to the effect that the measures for the destruction of rats have been applied and stating the reasons for their application.

ARTICLE 26. Vessels *infecté*d with cholera shall be subjected to the following measures:

1. Medical inspection.

2. The patients shall be immediately landed and isolated.

3. The other persons shall likewise be landed, if possible, and subjected, from the date of arrival of the vessel, to an observation or a surveillance whose duration shall vary according to the sanitary condition of the vessel and the date of

4° le linge sale, les effets à usage et les objets de l'équipage et des passagers qui, de l'avis de l'autorité sanitaire du port, sont considérés comme contaminés, sont désinfectés.

5° les parties du navire qui ont été habitées par les malades atteints de choléra ou qui sont considérées par l'autorité sanitaire comme contaminées, sont désinfectées.

6° l'eau de la cale est évacuée après désinfection.

L'autorité sanitaire peut ordonner la substitution d'une bonne eau potable à celle qui est emmagasinée à bord.

Il peut être interdit de laisser s'écouler ou de jeter dans les eaux du port les déjections humaines, à moins de désinfection préalable.

Suspected vessels.

ART. 27.—Les navires suspects de choléra sont soumis aux mesures qui sont prescrites sous les numéros 1°, 4°, 5° et 6° de l'article 26.

L'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis à une surveillance qui ne doit pas dépasser cinq jours à dater de l'arrivée du navire. Il est recommandé d'empêcher, pendant le même temps, le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

Uninfected ships.

ART. 28.—Les navires indemnes de choléra sont admis à la libre pratique immédiate, quelle que soit la nature de leur patente.

Le seul régime que puisse prescrire à leur sujet l'autorité du port d'arrivée consiste dans les mesures prévues aux n°s 1°, 4° et 6° de l'article 26.

L'équipage et les passagers peuvent être soumis, au point de vue de leur état de santé, à une surveillance qui ne doit pas dépasser cinq jours à compter de la date où le navire est parti du port contaminé.

Il est recommandé d'empêcher pendant le même temps, le débarquement de l'équipage, sauf pour raisons de service.

the last case, without, however, exceeding five days.

4. The soiled linen, wearing apparel, and other articles of the crew and passengers which are considered by the health authority of the port as being contaminated shall be disinfected.

5. The parts of the vessel which have been occupied by cholera patients or which are considered by the health authority as being contaminated shall be disinfected.

6. The bilge-water shall be discharged after disinfection.

The health authority may order the substitution of good drinking water for that stored on board.

It may be forbidden to throw human excrements or allow them to run into the water of a port unless they are previously disinfected.

ARTICLE 27. Vessels suspected of cholera shall be subjected to the measures prescribed under Nos. 1, 4, 5, and 6 of Article 26.

The crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the arrival of the vessel. It is recommended that the landing of the crew be prevented during the same period except for purposes connected with the service.

ARTICLE 28. Vessels uninfected with cholera shall be granted pratique immediately, whatever be the nature of their bill of health.

The only measures to which they may be subjected by the health authority of the port of arrival shall be those provided under Nos. 1, 4, and 6 of Article 26.

With regard to the state of their health, the crew and passengers may be subjected to a surveillance not to exceed five days from the date on which the vessel left the contaminated port.

It is recommended that the landing of the crew be forbidden during the same period except for purposes connected with the service.

L'autorité compétente du port d'arrivée peut toujours réclamer sous serment un certificat du médecin du bord ou, à son défaut, du capitaine, attestant qu'il n'y a pas eu de cas de choléra sur le navire depuis le départ.

ART. 29.—L'autorité compétente tiendra compte, pour l'application des mesures indiquées dans les articles 21 à 28, de la présence d'un médecin et d'appareils de désinfection (étuves) à bord des navires des trois catégories susmentionnées.

En ce qui concerne la peste, elle aura égard également à l'installation à bord d'appareils de destruction des rats.

Les autorités sanitaires des États auxquels il conviendrait de s'entendre sur ce point, pourront dispenser de la visite médicale et d'autres mesures les navires indemnes qui auraient bord un médecin spécialement commissionné par leur pays.

ART. 30.—Des mesures spéciales peuvent être prescrites à l'égard des navires encombrés, notamment des navires d'émigrants ou de tout autre navire offrant de mauvaises conditions d'hygiène.

ART. 31.—Tout navire qui ne veut pas se soumettre aux obligations imposées par l'autorité du port en vertu des stipulations de la présente Convention est libre de reprendre la mer.

Il peut être autorisé à débarquer ses marchandises après que les précautions nécessaires auront été prises, à savoir:

1° isolement du navire, de l'équipage et des passagers;

2° en ce qui concerne la peste, demande de renseignements relatifs à l'existence d'une mortalité insolite parmi les rats;

3° en ce qui concerne le choléra, évacuation de l'eau de cale après désinfection et substitution d'une bonne eau potable à celle qui est emmagasinée à bord.

Il peut également être autorisé à débarquer des passagers qui en font la demande, à la condition que ceux-ci se soumettent aux mesures prescrites par l'autorité locale.

The competent authority of the port of arrival may always demand an affidavit from the ship's physician or, in the absence of such, from the captain, to the effect that there has not been a case of cholera on board since the vessel sailed.

ARTICLE 29. In order to apply the measures indicated in articles 21 to 28, the competent authority shall take account of the presence of a physician and of disinfecting apparatuses (chambers) on board the vessels of the three categories mentioned above.

In regard to plague, he shall likewise take account of the installation on board of apparatus for the destruction of rats.

The health authorities of nations which may deem it suitable to reach an understanding on this point may excuse from the medical inspection and other measures those uninfected vessels which have on board a physician specially commissioned by their country.

ARTICLE 30. Special measures may be prescribed in regard to crowded vessels, especially emigrant vessels or any others presenting bad hygienic conditions.

ARTICLE 31. Any vessel not desiring to submit to the obligations imposed by the authority of the port by virtue of the stipulations of the present convention shall be free to put to sea again.

It may be permitted to land its cargo after the necessary precautions have been taken, viz:

1. Isolation of the vessel, crew, and passengers.

2. In regard to plague, inquiry as to the existence of an unusual mortality among the rats.

3. In regard to cholera, the discharge of the bilge-water after disinfection and the substitution of good drinking water for that stored on board the vessel.

It may also be permitted to land passengers who so request, upon condition that they submit to the measures prescribed by the local authority.

Uninfected ships may be relieved from inspection.

Disinfected vessels from contaminated ports.

ART. 32.—Les navires d'une provenance contaminée qui ont été désinfectés et ont été l'objet de mesures sanitaires appliquées d'une façon suffisante, ne subiront pas une seconde fois ces mesures à leur arrivée dans un port nouveau, à la condition qu'il ne se soit produit aucun cas depuis que la désinfection a été pratiquée, et qu'ils n'aient pas fait escale dans un port contaminé.

Quand un navire débarque seulement des passagers et leurs bagages ou la malle postale, sans avoir été en communication avec la terre ferme, il n'est pas considéré comme ayant touché le port.

ART. 35.—Sans préjudice du droit qu'ont les Gouvernements de se mettre d'accord pour organiser des stations sanitaires communes, chaque pays doit pourvoir au moins un des ports du littoral de chacune de ses mers d'une organisation et d'un outillage suffisants pour recevoir un navire, quel que soit son état sanitaire.

Treatment of uninfected ships from contaminated ports.

Lorsqu'un navire indemne, venant d'un port contaminé, arrive dans un grand port de navigation maritime, il est recommandé de ne pas le renvoyer à un autre port en vue de l'exécution des mesures sanitaires prescrites.

Dans chaque pays, les ports ouverts aux provenances de ports contaminés de peste ou de choléra doivent être outillés de telle façon que les navires indemnes puissent y subir, dès leur arrivée, les mesures prescrites, et ne soient pas envoyés, à cet effet, dans un autre port.

Les Gouvernements feront connaître les ports qui sont ouverts

ARTICLE 32. Vessels hailing from a contaminated port which have been disinfected and subjected to sanitary measures applied in an efficient manner shall not undergo the same measures a second time upon their arrival in a new port provided that no case has appeared since the disinfection took place and that they have not touched at a contaminated port in the meantime.

When a vessel lands only passengers and their baggage, or the mails, without having been in communication with the mainland, it is not to be considered as having touched at the port.

ARTICLE 33. Passengers arriving on an infected vessel shall have the right to demand a certificate of the health authority of the port showing the date of their arrival and the measures to which they and their baggage have been subjected.

ARTICLE 34. Coasting vessels shall be subjected to special measures to be established by mutual agreement among the countries concerned.

ARTICLE 35. Without prejudice to the right which governments possess to agree upon the organization of common sanitary stations, each country shall provide at least one port upon each of its seaboard with an organization and equipment sufficient to receive a vessel, whatever may be its sanitary condition.

When an uninfected vessel hailing from a contaminated port arrives in a large maritime port, it is recommended that she be not sent back to another port for the purpose of having the prescribed sanitary measures executed.

In every country, ports open to the arrival of vessels from ports infected with plague or cholera shall be equipped in such a manner that uninfected vessels may, immediately upon their arrival, undergo the prescribed measures and not be sent for this purpose to another port.

The governments shall make known the ports which are open chez eux aux provenances de ports contaminés de peste ou de choléra.

ART. 36.—Il est recommandé que, dans les grands ports de navigation maritime, il soit établi:

a) un service médical régulier du port et une surveillance médicale permanente de l'état sanitaire des équipages et de la population du port;

b) des locaux appropriés à l'isolement des malades et à l'observation des personnes suspectes;

c) les installations nécessaires à une désinfection efficace et des laboratoires bactériologiques;

d) un service d'eau potable non suspecte à l'usage du port et l'application d'un système présentant toute la sécurité possible pour l'enlèvement des déchets et ordures.

b) Places set apart for the isolation of the sick and the observation of suspected persons.

c) The necessary plants for efficient disinfection, and bacteriological laboratories.

d) A supply of drinking water beyond suspicion for the use of the port, and a system affording all possible security for the carrying off of refuse and sewage.

ART. 37.—Il ne doit plus être établi de quarantaines terrestres.

Seules, les personnes présentant des symptômes de peste ou de choléra peuvent être retenues aux frontières.

Ce principe n'exclut pas le droit, pour chaque État, de fermer au besoin une partie de ses frontières.

ART. 38.—Il importe que les voyageurs soient soumis, au point de vue de leur état de santé, à une surveillance de la part du personnel des chemins de fer.

ART. 39.—L'intervention médicale se borne à une visite des voyageurs et aux soins à donner aux malades. Si cette visite se fait, elle est combinée, autant que possible, avec la visite douanière, de manière que les voyageurs soient retenus le moins longtemps possible. Les personnes visiblement indisposées sont seules soumises à un examen médical approfondi.

ART. 40. Dès que les voyageurs venant d'un endroit contaminé seront arrivés à destination, il serait de la plus haute utilité de les soumettre à une surveillance ARTICLE 37. Land quarantines shall no longer be established.

Persons showing symptoms of plague or cholera shall alone be detained at frontiers.

This principle shall not bar the right of each Nation to close a part of its frontier in case of necessity.

ARTICLE 38. It is important that travelers be subjected to a surveillance on the part of railroad employees with a view to determining the state of their health.

ARTICLE 39. Medical interference is limited to an examination of the passengers and the care to be given to the sick. If such an examination is made, it should be combined as far as possible with the custom house inspection to the end that travelers may be detained as short a time as possible. Only persons who are obviously ill shall be subjected to a thorough medical examination.

Contaminated cars to be disinfected.

S'il arrive qu'une de ces voitures soit contaminée ou ait été occupée par un malade atteint de peste ou de choléra, elle sera détachée du train pour être désinfectée le plus tôt possible.

If it should happen that one of these cars is contaminated or has been occupied by a plague or cholera patient, it shall be detached from the train and disinfected as soon as possible.

Il en sera de même pour les wagons à marchandises.

SECTION III.—Measures in the Red Sea.

A. MEASURES WITH RESPECT TO ORDINARY VESSELS HAILING FROM THE SOUTH AND APPEARING IN PORTS OF THE RED SEA OR BOUND TOWARD THE MEDITERRANEAN.

ARTICLE 51. Independently of the general provisions contained in Section III, Chapter 2, Title I, concerning the classification of and the measures applicable to infected, suspected, or uninfected vessels, the special provisions contained in the ensuing articles are applicable to ordinary vessels coming from the south and entering the Red Sea.

ART. 53.—Les navires suspects sont traités d'une façon différente suivant qu'ils ont ou qu'ils n'ont pas à bord un médecin et un appareil de désinfection (étuve).

a) Les navires, ayant un médecin et un appareil de désinfection (étuve), remplissant les conditions voulues, sont admis à passer le Canal de Suez en quarantaine dans les conditions du règlement pour le transit.

b) Les autres navires suspects, n'ayant ni médecin ni appareil de désinfection (étuve), sont, avant d'être admis à transiter en quarantaine, retenus à Suez ou aux Sources de Moïse pendant le temps nécessaire pour exécuter les mesures de désinfection prescrites et s'assurer de l'état sanitaire du navire.

S'il s'agit de navires postaux ou de paquebots spécialement affectés au transport des voyageurs, sans appareil de désinfection (étuve), mais ayant un médecin à bord, si l'autorité locale a l'assurance, par une constatation officielle, que les mesures d'assainissement et de désinfection ont été convenablement pratiquées, soit au point de départ, soit pendant la traversée, le passage en quarantaine est accordé.

S'il s'agit de navires postaux ou de paquebots spécialement affectés au transport des voyageurs, sans appareil de désinfection (étuve), mais ayant un médecin à bord, si le dernier cas de peste ou de choléra remonte à plus de sept jours et si l'état sanitaire du navire est satisfaisant, la libre pratique peut être donnée à Suez, lorsque les opérations réglementaires sont terminées.

In the case of mail vessels or of packets specially utilized for the transportation of passengers and having no disinfecting apparatus (chamber) but having a physician on board, if the last case of plague or cholera dates back longer than seven days and if the sanitary condition of the vessel is satisfactory, pratique may be granted at Suez when the operations prescribed by the regulations are completed.

a) Les navires sans médecin et sans appareil de désinfection (étuve) sont arrêtés aux Sources de Moïse; (1) les personnes présentant des symptômes de peste ou de choléra sont débarquées et isolées dans un hôpital. La désinfection est pratiquée d'une façon complète. Les autres passagers sont débarqués et isolés par groupes composés de personnes aussi peu nombreuses que possible, de manière que l'ensemble ne soit pas solidaire d'un groupe particulier si la peste ou le choléra venait à se développer. Le linge sale, les objets à usage, les vêtements de l'équipage et des passagers sont désinfectés ainsi que le navire.

for Egypt shall be landed at an establishment designated by the Board of Health of Alexandria and isolated a sufficient length of time to complete the observation period of five days. Their soiled linen and wearing apparel shall be disinfected. They shall then receive pratique.

Vessels having had a run of less than seven days without infection and desiring to obtain pratique in Egypt shall be detained in an establishment designated by the Board of Health of Alexandria for a sufficient length of time to complete the observation period of five days. They shall undergo the measures prescribed for suspected vessels.

When plague or cholera has appeared exclusively among the crew, only the soiled linen of the latter shall be disinfected, but it shall all be disinfected, including that in the living quarters of the crew.

ARTICLE 54. Infected vessels are divided into vessels with a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) on board, and vessels without a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber).

a) Vessels without a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) shall be stopped at Moses Spring; persons showing symptoms of plague or cholera shall be landed and isolated in a hospital. The disinfection shall be carried out in a thorough manner. The other passengers shall be landed and isolated in groups composed of as few persons as possible, so that the whole number may not be infected by a particular group if the plague or cholera should develop. The soiled linen, wearing apparel, and clothing of the crew and passengers, as well as the vessel, shall be disinfected.

"The patients shall as far as possible be landed at Moses Spring. The other persons may undergo the observation in a sanitary station designated by the Sanitary, Maritime, and Quarantine Board of Egypt (pilots' lazaretto).

Il est bien entendu qu'il ne s'agit pas du déchargement des marchandises, mais seulement de la désinfection de la partie du navire qui a été infectée.

Les passagers resteront pendant cinq jours dans un établissement désigné par le Conseil sanitaire maritime et quarantenaire d'Égypte. Lorsque les cas de peste ou de choléra remonteront à plusieurs jours, la durée de l'isolement sera diminuée. Cette durée variera selon l'époque de la guérison, de la mort ou de l'isolement du dernier malade. Ainsi lorsque le dernier cas de peste ou de choléra se sera terminé depuis six jours par la guérison ou la mort, ou que le dernier malade aura été isolé depuis six jours, l'observation durera un jour; s'il ne s'est écoulé qu'un laps de cinq jours, l'observation sera de deux jours; s'il ne s'est écoulé qu'un laps de quatre jours, l'observation sera de trois jours; s'il ne s'est écoulé qu'un laps de trois jours, l'observation sera de quatre jours; s'il ne s'est écoulé qu'un laps de deux jours ou d'un jour, l'observation sera de cinq jours.

Après le débarquement de ces malades, le linge sale du reste des passagers, que l'autorité sanitaire considérera comme dangereux, et de l'équipage subira la désinfection à bord.

Lorsque la peste ou le choléra se sera montré exclusivement dans l'équipage, la désinfection du linge ne portera que sur le linge sale de l'équipage et le linge des postes de l'équipage.

Le médecin du bord doit indiquer aussi, sous serment, la partie ou le compartiment du navire et la section de l'hôpital dans lesquels le ou les malades ont été transportés. Il doit déclarer éga-

It is to be distinctly understood that there shall be no discharge of cargo but simply a disinfection of the part of the vessel which has been infected.

The passengers shall remain for five days in an establishment designated by the Sanitary, Maritime, and Quarantine Board of Egypt. When the cases of plague or cholera date back several days, the length of the isolation shall be diminished. This length shall vary according to the date of the cure, death, or isolation of the last patient. Thus, when the last case of plague or cholera has terminated six days before by a cure or death, or when the last patient has been isolated for six days, the observation shall last one day; if only five days have elapsed, the observation period shall be two days; if only four days have elapsed, the observation period shall be three days; if only three days have elapsed, the observation period shall be four days; if only two days or one day have elapsed, the observation period shall be five days.

b) Vessels with a physician and a disinfecting apparatus (chamber) on board shall be stopped at Moses Spring. The ship's physician must declare, under oath, what persons on board show symptoms of plague or cholera. These patients shall be landed and isolated.

After the landing of these patients the soiled linen of the rest of the passengers which the health authority may consider as dangerous, as well as that of the crew, shall undergo disinfection on board.

When plague or cholera shall have appeared exclusively among the crew, the disinfection of the linen shall be limited to the soiled linen of the crew and the linen of the living apartments of the crew.

The ship's physician shall indicate also, under oath, the part or compartment of the vessel and the section of the hospital in which the patient or patients have been transported. He shall also Ces seules personnes seront considérées comme suspects.

Places to be disinfected.

La partie ou le compartiment du navire et la section de l'hôpital dans lesquels le ou les malades auront été transportés, seront complètement désinfectés. On entend par "partie du navire" la cabine du malade, les cabines attenantes, le couloir de ces cabines, le pont, les parties du pont sur lesquelles le ou les malades auraient séjourné.

Treatment of suspects.

S'il est impossible de désinfecter la partie ou le compartiment du navire qui a été occupé par les personnes atteintes de peste ou de choléra, sans débarquer les personnes déclarées suspectes, ces personnes seront ou placées sur un autre navire spécialement affecté à cet usage, ou débarquées et logées dans l'établissement sanitaire, sans contact avec les malades, lesquels doivent être placés dans l'hôpital.

La durée de ce séjour sur le navire ou à terre pour la désinfection sera aussi courte que possible et n'excédera pas vingt-quatre heures.

Les suspects subiront, soit sur leur bâtiment, soit sur le navire affecté à cet usage, une observation dont la durée variera suivant les cas et dans les termes prévus au 3<sup>e</sup> alinéa du paragraphe a).

Le temps pris par les opérations réglementaires est compris dans la durée de l'observation.

By the "part of the ship" shall be understood the cabin of the patient, the neighboring cabins, the corridor upon which these cabins are located, the deck, and the parts of the deck where the patients may have stayed.

If it is impossible to disinfect the part or compartment of the vessel which has been occupied by the persons stricken with plague or cholera without landing the persons declared as suspects, these persons shall be either placed in another vessel specially designated for this purpose or landed and lodged in the sanitary establishment without coming in contact with the patients, who should be placed in the hospital.

The duration of this stay on the vessel or on shore for disinfection shall be as short as possible and shall not exceed twenty-four hours.

The suspects shall undergo, either on their vessel or on the vessel designated for this purpose, an observation period whose duration shall vary according to the cases and under the conditions provided in the third paragraph of subdivision a).

The time taken up by the prescribed operations shall be comprised in the duration of the observation period.

The passage through in quarantine may be allowed before the expiration of the periods indicated above if the health authority deems it possible. It shall at all events be granted when the disinfection has been completed, if Une étuve placée sur ponton peut venir accoster le navire pour rendre plus rapides les opérations de désinfection.
