with respect to the taxes for taxable years prior to the taxable year in which such application is filed which are to be computed as required by paragraph (4) of subsection (d) as the result of such election. Such application shall be verified in the manner prescribed by section 51 or section 52 in the case of a return of such taxpayer and shall be made in such manner and form as shall be required by regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, and shall set forth, in such detail and with such supporting data and explanation as such regulations shall require, the recomputation of such taxes required by paragraph (4) of subsection (d) except that the tax for each taxable year to be recomputed shall be the tax for such year previously determined, ascertained in accordance with the method prescribed in section 3801 (d). If an application under section 3780 (a) for tentative carry-back adjustment has been previously filed, but such adjustment has not been previously determined, then for the purpose of subsection (j) and (k), the assessments, applications, credits, and refunds provided in section 3780 (b) shall be considered as having been previously made upon the basis of such application under section 3780 (a). Such application shall also set forth the unpaid amount of each tax recomputed and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of subsections (j) and (k) as may be required by such regulations. An application under this subsection shall not constitute a claim for credit or refund.

“(k) ALLOWANCE OF ADJUSTMENT.—Within a period of ninety days from the filing of an application under subsection (j), the Commissioner shall make, to the extent he deems practical in such period, a limited examination of the application for omissions and errors of computation, and shall determine the amount of the increase or decrease in each tax to which such application relates, on the basis of the application and the examination, except that the Commissioner may disallow, without further action, any application which he finds contains material omissions, or errors of computation which he deems cannot be corrected by him within such ninety-day period. Each increase shall be deemed determined as a deficiency and assessed, without regard to the restrictions on assessment in section 272. Each decrease shall be applied against any unpaid amount of the tax decreased, and any remainder shall be credited against the deficiencies (and interest or additions to the tax) assessed under this subsection, and any remainder shall, within such ninety-day period, be either credited against any other income, war profits, or excess profits tax, or instalment thereof, due from the taxpayer, or refunded to the taxpayer. The application, credit, or refund of a decrease determined under this subsection shall be deemed a credit or refund of an overpayment within the meaning of section 781 (b).”

(b) If a resolution of the first House with respect to such plan has been referred to committee—

(1) the procedure with respect to that or other resolutions of such House with respect to such plan which have been referred to committee shall be the same as if no resolution from the other House with respect to such plan had been received; but

FREE ENTRY OF JEWS INTO PALESTINE

42 Stat. 1012.

Whereas the Sixty-seventh Congress of the United States on June 30, 1922, unanimously resolved "That the United States of America favors the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, it being clearly understood that nothing shall be done which may prejudice the civil and religious rights of Christian and all other non-Jewish communities in Palestine, and that the holy places and religious buildings and sites in Palestine shall be adequately protected"; and

Whereas the ruthless persecution of the Jewish people in Europe has clearly demonstrated the need for a Jewish homeland as a haven for the large numbers who have become homeless as a result of this persecution; and

Whereas these urgent necessities are evidenced by the President's request for the immediate right of entry into Palestine of one hundred thousand additional Jewish refugees; and

Whereas the influx of Jewish immigration into Palestine is resulting in its improvement in agricultural, financial, hygienic, and general economic conditions; and

Whereas the President and the British Prime Minister have agreed upon the appointment of a "Joint Anglo-American Committee of Enquiry" to examine conditions in Palestine as they bear upon the problem of Jewish immigration and the Jewish situation in Europe and have requested a report within one hundred and twenty days: Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the interest shown by the President in the solution of this problem is hereby commended and that the United States shall use its good offices with the mandatory power to the end that Palestine shall be opened for free entry of Jews into that country to the maximum of its agricultural and economic potentialities, and that there shall be full opportunity for colonization and development, so that they may freely proceed with the upbuilding of Palestine as the Jewish national home and, in association with all elements of the population, establish Palestine as a democratic commonwealth in which all men, regardless of race or creed, shall have equal rights.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

To the People of the United States:

It has pleased God in His infinite wisdom to take from us the immortal spirit of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, the 32nd President of the United States.

The leader of his people in a great war, he lived to see the assurance of the victory but not to share it. He lived to see the first foundations of the free and peaceful world to which his life was dedicated, but not to enter on that world himself.

His fellow countrymen will sorely miss his fortitude and faith and courage in the time to come.

The peoples of the earth who love the ways of freedom and of hope will mourn for him.

But though his voice is silent, his courage is not spent, his faith is not extinguished. The courage of great men outlives them to become the courage of their people and the peoples of the world. It lives beyond them and upholds their purposes and brings their hopes to pass.

Now, therefore, I, Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, do appoint Saturday next, April 14th, the day of the funeral service for the dead President, as a day of mourning and prayer throughout the United States. I earnestly recommend the people to assemble on that day in their respective places of divine worship, there to bow down in submission to the will of Almighty God, and to pay out of full hearts their homage of love and reverence to the memory of the great and good man whose death they mourn.

NATIONAL REHABILITATION WEEK

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

With the attention of the Nation rightly focused on the welfare of men and women returning from service in the armed forces and the emphasis placed on benefits provided for them through Congressional action, we must not let our interest flag in discharging our obligations to the increasing thousands among our civilian population who through accident, disease, or congenital conditions are unable to hold a place in the ranks of the American working force. Even in the midst of war their condition calls to us for renewed effort to bring about their restoration that they, too, may maintain their self-respect through self-supporting work.

On June 2, our Nation-wide program for the vocational rehabilitation of such disabled men and women will have been in operation a quarter of a century. Less than two years ago, the Congress expanded this program by amending the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1920. The new law—the Barden-LaFollette Act, passed in 1943—makes it possible for the Federal and State Governments, working as a team, to bring to the mentally disabled and the blind and all other groups of the disabled, the many services necessary to make them employable, including physical restoration, vocational training and placement in suitable employment.

Over the past twenty-five years it has been demonstrated that this program for the restoration of disabled men and women is paying dividends, not only in humanitarian terms but in dollars and cents. Thousands of men and women annually apply to the rehabilitation service for help. Because of disabilities they are able to contribute little to the national income. Many of them are forced to accept public aid. Refitted for work, they begin to pay their own way. No longer then are they tax consumers; they are taxpayers.

That we may not fail to discharge our obligation to help every man and woman who needs vocational rehabilitation services in order to become self-supporting, it appears appropriate at this time that I should urge the able-bodied citizenry of the United States to unite in a concerted effort to bring about wider knowledge and use of the services for physical and mental restoration of the handicapped provided under the Barden-LaFollette Act, which applies to all civilian disabled.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare the week beginning June 2, 1945, as National Rehabilitation Week.

And I urge all churches, educational institutions, health and welfare services, civic organizations, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, industry, labor, public-spirited citizens, and the radio and press throughout the United States to observe National Rehabilitation Week, to the end that handicapped men and women throughout our Nation may be located and advised of the benefits to which they may be entitled.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

May 8, 1945
[No. 2651]

A PROCLAMATION

The Allied armies, through sacrifice and devotion and with God's help, have wrung from Germany a final and unconditional surrender. The western world has been freed of the evil forces which for five years and longer have imprisoned the bodies and broken the lives of millions upon millions of free-born men. They have violated their churches, destroyed their homes, corrupted their children, and murdered their loved ones. Our Armies of Liberation have restored freedom to these suffering peoples, whose spirit and will the oppressors could never enslave.

Surrender by Germany.

Much remains to be done. The victory won in the West must now be won in the East. The whole world must be cleansed of the evil from which half the world has been freed. United, the peace-loving nations have demonstrated in the West that their arms are stronger by far than the might of dictators or the tyranny of military cliques that once called us soft and weak. The power of our peoples to defend themselves against all enemies will be proved in the Pacific war as it has been proved in Europe.

For the triumph of spirit and of arms which we have won, and for its promise to peoples everywhere who join us in the love of freedom, it is fitting that we, as a nation, give thanks to Almighty God, who has strengthened us and given us the victory.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Sunday, May 13, 1945, to be a day of prayer.

Appointment of Sunday, May 13, 1945, as a day of prayer.

I call upon the people of the United States, whatever their faith, to unite in offering joyful thanks to God for the victory we have won and to pray that He will support us to the end of our present struggle and guide us into the way of peace.

I also call upon my countrymen to dedicate this day of prayer to the memory of those who have given their lives to make possible our victory.

WHEREAS the inevitable decrease in available farm labor this year creates an especially urgent need for conserving farm manpower to meet production goals in 1945; and

WHEREAS the accidents which cause some fourteen hundred farm residents to lose their lives each month, and one hundred and twenty-five thousand others to suffer injuries, constitute an unnecessary waste of human life as well as of time and material:

Observance of week commencing July 22, 1945, as National Farm-Safety Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the Nation to observe the week commencing July 22, 1945, as National Farm-Safety Week. And I request all persons and organizations concerned with agriculture and farm life to do everything in their power to educate farm people in the proper precautions by which they may eliminate farm hazards, and to stimulate a nationwide determination to stop the needless waste of irreplaceable farm manpower and property.  FLAG DAY, 1945

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

 May 28, 1945

[No. 2654]

A PROCLAMATION

It is our custom each year to set aside a day on which to render special honor to our Flag.

We celebrate Flag Day this year with a fresh sense of our strength as a nation. Solemnly, we accept the responsibilities placed upon us by our power.

We honor the men and women in the armed services and in the factories and homes who, with God's help, have given us our victories. We face the battle ahead with solemn gratitude for the triumphs of the past.

Our Flag has accompanied our fighting men on a hundred battlefields. It flies beyond the seas over the friendly lands our arms have freed, and over the hostile countries our arms have conquered. Our Flag will be planted in the heart of the empire of our last remaining enemy.

As we press forward to final victory, we are strengthened with the knowledge that for millions of people in other lands as well as in our own our Flag is a living token of human integrity and freedom.

Let us observe this Flag Day by raising our Flag and beside it the flags of the United Nations. It is especially fitting that we thus honor our Allies at a time when we are working with them to lay a firm foundation for world peace. Let this display of the flags of the United Nations symbolize our unity with our Allies both upon the battlefields of war and under the skies of peace. Let us again dedicate ourselves and our Republic, under God, to the united cause of peace and justice and the brotherhood of all men everywhere.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate June 14, 1945, as Flag Day, and ask that the people of our nation on that day do especially honor our Flag, and the men and women of the armed services who have served under it, and that they also pay honor to our Allies of the United Nations.

Designation of June 14, 1945, as Flag Day.

I direct the officials of the Federal Government and I request the officials of the State and local governments to display the Flag of our Republic on all public buildings on Flag Day; and I urge the people of the United States on that day to fly the American Flag from their homes, and also to arrange wherever possible for joint displays of the flags of the freedom-loving United Nations, whose staunch collaboration has aided us to achieve the victories of war and will aid us to realize our hope for an enduring peace.

A PROCLAMATION

Surrender by Japan.

The war lords of Japan and the Japanese armed forces have surrendered. They have surrendered unconditionally. Three months after victory in Europe victory has come in the East.

The cruel war of aggression which Japan started eight years ago to spread the forces of evil over the Pacific has resulted in her total defeat.

This is the end of the grandiose schemes of the dictators to enslave the peoples of the world, destroy their civilization, and institute a new era of darkness and degradation. This day is a new beginning in the history of freedom on this earth.

Our global victory has come from the courage and stamina and spirit of free men and women united in determination to fight.

It has come from the massive strength of arms and materials created by peace-loving peoples who knew that unless they won decency in the world would end.

It has come from millions of peaceful citizens all over the world—turned soldiers almost overnight—who showed a ruthless enemy that they were not afraid to fight and to die, and that they knew how to win.

It has come with the help of God, Who was with us in the early days of adversity and disaster, and Who has now brought us to this glorious day of triumph.

Let us give thanks to Him, and remember that we have now dedicated ourselves to follow in His ways to a lasting and just peace and to a better world.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby appoint Sunday, August 19, 1945, to be a day of prayer.

I call upon the people of the United States, of all faiths, to unite in offering their thanks to God for the victory we have won, and in praying that He will support and guide us into the paths of peace.

I also call upon my countrymen to dedicate this day of prayer to the memory of those who have given their lives to make possible our victory.

Appointment of Sunday, August 19, 1945, as a day of prayer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning October 7, 1945, as Fire Prevention Week.

Designation of week beginning October 7, 1945, as Fire Prevention Week.

I earnestly desire that every citizen assume a personal responsibility for detecting and eliminating fire hazards under his control and take all possible precautions to safeguard both lives and property from the ravages of fire. I also request that the State and local governments, the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, the National Fire Waste Council, business and labor organizations, the churches and schools, civic groups, and the various agencies of the press, radio, and motion-picture industry throughout the country bend every effort to the attainment of the objectives of Fire Prevention Week; and I direct that the appropriate agencies of the Federal Government likewise assist in every practicable way the enlightenment of the public with respect to the purposes of a sound fire-prevention program.

POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES WITH RESPECT TO THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF THE SUBSOIL AND SEA BED OF THE CONTINENTAL SHELF

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS the Government of the United States of America, aware of the long range world-wide need for new sources of petroleum and other minerals, holds the view that efforts to discover and make available new supplies of these resources should be encouraged; and

WHEREAS its competent experts are of the opinion that such resources underlie many parts of the continental shelf off the coasts of the United States of America, and that with modern technological progress their utilization is already practicable or will become so at an early date; and

WHEREAS recognized jurisdiction over these resources is required in the interest of their conservation and prudent utilization when and as development is undertaken; and

WHEREAS it is the view of the Government of the United States that the exercise of jurisdiction over the natural resources of the subsoil and sea bed of the continental shelf by the contiguous nation is reasonable and just, since the effectiveness of measures to utilize or conserve these resources would be contingent upon cooperation and protection from the shore, since the continental shelf may be regarded as an extension of the land-mass of the coastal nation and thus naturally appurtenant to it, since these resources frequently form a seaward extension of a pool or deposit lying within the territory, and since self-protection compels the coastal nation to keep close watch over activities off its shores which are of the nature necessary for utilization of these resources;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the following policy of the United States of America with respect to the natural resources of the subsoil and sea bed of the continental shelf.

Having concern for the urgency of conserving and prudently utilizing its natural resources, the Government of the United States regards the natural resources of the subsoil and sea bed of the continental shelf beneath the high seas but contiguous to the coasts of the United States as appertaining to the United States, subject to its jurisdiction and control. In cases where the continental shelf extends to the shores of another State, or is shared with an adjacent State, the boundary shall be determined by the United States and the State concerned in accordance with equitable principles. POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES WITH RESPECT TO COASTAL FISHERIES
IN CERTAIN AREAS OF THE HIGH SEAS

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

September 28, 1945
[No. 2668]

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS for some years the Government of the United States of America has viewed with concern the inadequacy of present arrangements for the protection and perpetuation of the fishery resources contiguous to its coasts, and in view of the potentially disturbing effect of this situation, has carefully studied the possibility of improving the jurisdictional basis for conservation measures and international cooperation in this field; and

WHEREAS such fishery resources have a special importance to coastal communities as a source of livelihood and to the nation as a food and industrial resource; and

WHEREAS the progressive development of new methods and techniques contributes to intensified fishing over wide sea areas and in certain cases seriously threatens fisheries with depletion; and

WHEREAS there is an urgent need to protect coastal fishery resources from destructive exploitation, having due regard to conditions peculiar to each region and situation and to the special rights and equities of the coastal State and of any other State which may have established a legitimate interest therein;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the following policy of the United States of America with respect to coastal fisheries in certain areas of the high seas:

Policy with respect to coastal fisheries.

In view of the pressing need for conservation and protection of fishery resources, the Government of the United States regards it as proper to establish conservation zones in those areas of the high seas contiguous to the coasts of the United States wherein fishing activities have been or in the future may be developed and maintained on a substantial scale. Where such activities have been or shall hereafter be developed and maintained by its nationals alone, the United States regards it as proper to establish explicitly bounded conservation zones in which fishing activities shall be subject to the regulation and control of the United States. Where such activities have been or shall hereafter be legitimately developed and maintained jointly by nationals of the United States and nationals of other States, explicitly bounded conservation zones may be established under agreements between the United States and such other States; and all fishing activities in such zones shall be subject to regulation and control as provided in such agreements. The right of any State to establish conservation zones off its shores in accordance with the above principles is conceded, provided that corresponding recognition is given to any fishing interests of nationals of the United States which may exist in such areas. The character as high seas of the areas in which such conservation zones are established and the right to their free and unimpeded navigation are in no way thus affected.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

THANKSGIVING DAY, 1945

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

In this year of our victory, absolute and final, over German fascism and Japanese militarism; in this time of peace so long awaited, which we are determined with all the United Nations to make permanent;

November 12, 1945

on this day of our abundance, strength, and achievement; let us give thanks to Almighty Providence for these exceeding blessings.

We have won them with the courage and the blood of our soldiers, sailors, and airmen. We have won them by the sweat and ingenuity of our workers, farmers, engineers, and industrialists. We have won them with the devotion of our women and children. We have bought them with the treasure of our rich land. But above all we have won them because we cherish freedom beyond riches and even more than life itself.

We give thanks with the humility of free men, each knowing it was the might of no one arm but of all together by which we were saved. Liberty knows no race, creed, or class in our country or in the world. In unity we found our first weapon, for without it, both here and abroad, we were doomed. None have known this better than our very gallant dead, none better than their comrade, Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Our thanksgiving has the humility of our deep mourning for them, our vast gratitude to them.

Triumph over the enemy has not dispelled every difficulty. Many vital and far-reaching decisions await us as we strive for a just and enduring peace. We will not fail if we preserve, in our own land and throughout the world, that same devotion to the essential freedoms and rights of mankind which sustained us throughout the war and brought us final victory.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, HARRY S. TRUMAN, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved December 26, 1941, do hereby proclaim Thursday November 22, 1945, as a day of national thanksgiving. May we on that day, in our homes and in our places of worship, individually and as groups, express our humble thanks to Almighty God for the abundance of our blessings and may we on that occasion rededicate ourselves to those high principles of citizenship for which so many splendid Americans have recently given all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

B - As regards France:

a) Schedular taxes.

Income from securities, debts and trusts having its source in the United States of America shall be subject in France to the tax on income from securities; but this tax shall be reduced by the amount of the tax already paid in the United States of America on the same income. In consideration of the fiscal regime to which the legislation of the United States of America subjects the income of non-resident aliens and foreign corporations or other entities, the deduction of the tax paid in the United States of America shall be effected in a lump sum through a reduction of 12 in the rate of the tax established by the French law.

The income other than that indicated in the preceding paragraph shall not be subject to any schedular tax in France when, according to this Convention, it is taxable in the United States of America.

b) General tax on revenue.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the present Convention, the general income tax can be determined according to all the elements of taxable income as imposed by French fiscal legislation.

However, the provisions of the first paragraph of Article 114 of

B - En ce qui concerne la France:

a) Impôts cédulaires.

Les revenus des valeurs mobilières, des créances et des trusts ayant leur source aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique demeureront passibles en France de l'impôt sur le revenu des valeurs mobilières; mais, cet impôt sera diminué du montant de l'impôt déjà acquitté aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique pour les mêmes revenus. Eu égard au régime fiscal auquel la législation des Etats-Unis d'Amérique soumet les revenus perçus par des étrangers non résidents et par des sociétés ou autres collectivités étrangères, la déduction de l'impôt acquitté aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique sera effectuée à forfait au moyen d'une diminution de 12 du taux de l'impôt fixé par la loi française.

Les revenus autres que ceux visés à l'alinéa précédent ne seront soumis en France à aucun impôt cédulaire lorsque, d'après la Convention, ils seront imposables aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique.

b) Impôt général sur le revenu.

Nonobstant toute autre disposition de la présente Convention, l'impôt général sur le revenu pourra être déterminé d'après tous les éléments de revenu imposable selon la législation fiscale française.

Toutefois, les dispositions du 1er alinéa de l'article 114 du Code

ARTICLE 15.

In derogation of Article 3 of the Decree of December 6, 1872, American corporations which maintain in France permanent establishments shall be liable to the tax on income from securities on three-fourths of the profits actually derived from such establishments, the industrial and commercial profits being determined in accordance with Articles 3 and 4 of this Convention.

American corporations in France.

Ante, pp. 895-896.

The remaining one-fourth shall, in all cases, be taken as the basis of the annual tax on undistributed profits applicable to the same corporations.

ARTICLE 15.

Par dérogation à l'article 3 du décret du 6 décembre 1872, les sociétés américaines qui possèdent en France des établissements stables acquitteront l'impôt sur le revenu des valeurs mobilières sur les trois quarts des bénéfices effectivement retirés de ces établissements, les bénéfices industriels et commerciaux étant déterminés en conformité des dispositions des articles 3 et 4 de la présente Convention.

Le quart restant sera, dans tous les cas, pris pour base de la taxe annuelle sur les bénéfices non distribués applicables aux mêmes sociétés.

ARTICLE 16.

An American corporation shall not be subject to the obligations prescribed by Article 3 of the Decree of December 6, 1872, by reason of any participation in the management or in the capital of, or any other relations with, a French corporation. In such case, the tax on income from securities continues to be levied, in conformity with French legislation, on the dividends, interest and all other distributions made by the French enterprise; but it is moreover collectible, if the occasion arises, and subject to the measures of appeal applicable in the case of the tax on income from securities, with respect to the profits which the American corporation derives from the French corporation under the conditions prescribed in Article 5.

ARTICLE 16.

Une Société américaine ne sera pas assujettie aux prescriptions de l'article 3 du décret du 6 décembre 1872 en raison d'une participation dans la gestion ou dans le capital ou à cause de toute autre relation avec une société française. Dans ce cas, l'impôt sur le revenu des valeurs mobilières continue à être perçu conformément à la législation française sur les dividendes, intérêts et tous autres produits distribués par l'entreprise française, mais il est, en outre, exigible, le cas échéant, et sous réserve des recours applicables en matière d'impôt sur le revenu des valeurs mobilières, sur les bénéfices que l'entreprise américaine retire de l'entreprise française dans les conditions prévues par l'article 5.

ARTICLE 17.

The American corporations subject to the provisions of Article 3 of the Decree of December 6, 1872 who were not placed under the special regime established by Articles 5 and 6 of the Convention for the avoidance of double income taxation between the United States of America and France, signed April 27, 1932, may, during a new period of six months from the date of the entry into force of the present Convention, exercise with reference to past years, the option provided in those two articles under the conditions which they prescribe.

Moreover, the American corporations contemplated in the third paragraph of Article 10 of the Convention of April 27, 1932, may be admitted to benefit from the provisions of that paragraph, when the tax has not yet been paid, if the latter was not found to be payable, prior to May 1, 1930, by a definitive judicial decision or if such decision has been the subject of an appeal in cassation.

ARTICLE 18.

Any United States income tax liability remaining unpaid as at the effective date of this Convention for years beginning prior to January 1, 1936 of any individual resident of France (other than a citizen of the United States of America) or of a French corporation may be adjusted by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States of America, on the basis of the provisions of the United States Revenue Act of 1936. However, no adjustment will be made more than two years subsequent to the effective date of this Convention unless the taxpayer files a

Les sociétés américaines qui sont restées assujetties aux prescriptions de l'article 3 du décret du 6 décembre 1872 pourront, pendant un nouveau délai de six mois à compter de l'entrée en vigueur de la présente Convention, être autorisées à exercer, pour le passé, l'option prévue par les articles 5 et 6 de la Convention pour éviter les doubles impositions entre la France et les Etats-Unis d'Amérique, signée le 27 avril 1932, dans les conditions stipulées par ces dispositions.

49 Stat. 3145.

D'autre part, les sociétés américaines visées au 3ème alinéa de l'article 10 de la Convention du 27 avril 1932 pourront être admises à bénéficier des dispositions de cet alinéa, lorsque l'impôt n'aura pas encore été acquitté, si l'exigibilité de ce dernier n'a pas été constatée, avant le 1er mai 1930, par une décision de justice définitive ou si cette décision a fait l'objet d'un recours en cassation.

49 Stat. 3149.

ARTICLE 18.

Toute dette d'impôt sur le revenu américain relative aux années antérieures au 1er janvier 1936, non payée à la date d'entrée en vigueur de la présente Convention par une personne (autre qu'un citoyen des Etats-Unis d'Amérique) résidant en France ou par une société ou autre collectivité française peut être ajustée par le "Commissioner of Internal Revenue" des Etats-Unis d'Amérique sur la base des dispositions du "United States Revenue Act" de 1936. Toutefois, aucun ajustement ne sera fait au delà d'un délai de deux ans à compter de la date d'entrée en vigueur de la présente Convention à moins que l'intéressé n'en ait fait la demande au "Commissioner of Internal Revenue" avant l'expiration de ce délai.

ARTICLE 19.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Convention, in order to avoid double taxation on public servants, employees of one of the contracting States being citizens of that State and remunerated by it, who have been received by the other State to perform services in such State shall be exempt in their principal place of residence from direct and personal taxes whether national, state or local.

Such employees who own real property in the State in which they perform services shall not benefit from the above exemptions with respect to the taxes levied on such real property. Employees who engage in any private gainful occupation in such State shall not be entitled to any exemption under this Article.

Government salaries, etc.

ARTICLE 19.

Nonobstant toute autre stipulation de la présente Convention et pour éviter la double imposition des agents des Services publics, les fonctionnaires de l'un des Etats contractants, citoyens de cet Etat et rémunérés par lui, qui ont été agréés par l'autre Etat pour y remplir leurs fonctions seront exemptés dans ce dernier Etat de tous impôts directs et personnels (nationaux, d'Etat ou locaux) au siège de leur résidence principale.

Ceux de ces fonctionnaires qui possèdent des immeubles dans l'Etat où ils remplissent leurs fonctions ne bénéficieront pas de l'exemption susvisée en ce qui concerne les impôts afférents à ces immeubles. Ceux qui exercent dans ce même Etat une occupation lucrative privée n'auront pas droit à l'exemption prévue par le présent article.

TITLE II

Fiscal Assistance.

Exchange of information.

TITRE II

Assistance Fiscale

ARTICLE 20

En vue d'assurer une meilleure application des impôts visés dans la présente Convention, les Etats contractants s'engagent, sous réserve de réciprocité, à échanger les renseignements d'ordre fiscal que l'Administration d'un des Etats détient ou peut obtenir d'après les règles de sa propre législation et qui seraient utiles à l'autre

Such information shall be exchanged between the competent authorities of the contracting States in the ordinary course or on request.

ARTICLE 21.

In accordance with the preceding Article, the competent authorities of the United States of America will transmit to the competent authorities of France, as regards any person, corporation or other entity (other than a citizen, corporation or other entity of the United States of America) having an address in France and deriving from sources within the United States of America rents, dividends, interest, royalties, income from trusts, wages, salaries, pensions, annuities, or other fixed or determinable periodical income, the name and address of such person, corporation or other entity as well as the amount of such income.

Ces renseignements seront échangés d'office ou sur demande entre les autorités compétentes des deux Etats contractants.

ARTICLE 21.

Conformément à l'article qui précède, les autorités compétentes des Etats-Unis d'Amérique transmettront aux autorités compétentes de la France, en ce qui concerne toute personne, société ou collectivité (autre qu'un citoyen, société ou collectivité des Etats-Unis d'Amérique) ayant une adresse en France et bénéficiant de revenus immobiliers, dividendes, intérêts, "royalties", produits de trusts, traitements, salaires, pensions, rentes viagères ou autres revenus périodiques, fixes ou variables (determinable) ayant leur source aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique, les nom et adresse de cette personne ainsi que le montant desdits revenus.

Les autorités compétentes de la France transmettront aux autorités compétentes des Etats-Unis d'Amérique, en ce qui concerne toute personne, société ou collectivité (autre qu'un citoyen français, société ou collectivité française) ayant une adresse aux Etats-Unis d'Amérique et bénéficiant de revenus immobiliers, dividendes, intérêts, redevances, traitements, salaires, pensions, rentes viagères ou autres revenus périodiques, fixes ou variables ayant leur source en France, les nom et adresse de cette personne, ainsi que le montant desdits revenus.

The information relating to each year will be transmitted as soon as possible after December 31.

Les renseignements se rapportant à chaque année seront transmis dans le plus bref délai possible après le 31 décembre.

ARTICLE 22.

The competent authorities of each of the contracting States shall be entitled to obtain, through diplomatic channels, from the competent authorities of the other contracting State, except with respect to citizens, corporations or other entities of the State to which application is made, particulars in concrete cases necessary for the establishment of the taxes to which the present Convention relates.

However, the competent authorities of each State shall not be prevented from transmitting to the competent authorities of the other State information relating to their own nationals (citizens, corporations or other entities) if they deem it opportune for the prevention of fiscal evasion.

ARTICLE 22.

Les autorités compétentes de chaque Etat contractant auront le droit dans des cas concrets et sauf en ce qui concerne les citoyens, sociétés ou collectivités de l'Etat auquel la demande est faite, d'obtenir des autorités compétentes de l'autre Etat, par la voie diplomatique, des renseignements nécessaires à l'établissement des impôts visés par la présente Convention.

Toutefois, les autorités compétentes de chaque Etat ne s'interdisent pas de transmettre aux autorités compétentes de l'autre Etat des renseignements relatifs à leurs propres nationaux (personnes, sociétés ou collectivités) si elles le jugent opportun pour éviter la fraude fiscale.

ARTICLE 23.

Each contracting State undertakes to lend assistance and support in the collection of the taxes to which the present Convention relates, together with interest, costs, and additions to the taxes and fines not being of a penal character according to the laws of the State requested, in the cases where the taxes are definitively due according to the laws of the State making the application.

In the case of an application for enforcement of taxes, revenue claims of each of the contracting States which have been finally determined shall be accepted for enforcement by the State to which application is made and collected in that State in accordance with

ARTICLE 23.

Les Etats contractants s'engagent à se prêter concours et assistance aux fins de recouvrer les impôts visés par la présente Convention ainsi que les intérêts, frais et suppléments de taxes et les amendes n'ayant pas un caractère pénal d'après les lois de l'Etat requis, dans les cas où les impôts sont définitivement dus conformément aux règles de l'Etat requérant.

Dans le cas d'une demande de recouvrement d'impôt, les créances fiscales de chacun des Etats contractants ayant un caractère définitif seront considérées comme devant être mises en recouvrement par l'Etat requis et seront recouvrées par cet Etat conformé-the laws applicable to the enforcement and collection of its own taxes.

The application shall be accompanied by such documents as are required by the laws of the State making the application, to establish that the taxes have been finally determined.

If the revenue claim has not been finally determined, the State to which application is made may, at the request of the State making the application, take such measures of conservancy as are authorized by the laws of the former State for the enforcement of its own taxes.

The assistance provided for in this Article shall not be accorded with respect to the citizens, corporations or other entities of the State to which application is made.

ARTICLE 24.

In no case shall the provisions of Article 22 relating to particulars in concrete cases, or of Article 23 relating to mutual assistance in the collection of taxes, be construed so as to impose upon either of the contracting States the obligation to carry out administrative measures at variance with the regulations and practice of either contracting State, or to supply particulars which are not procurable under the law of the State to which application is made, or that of the State making application.

The State to which application is made for information or assistance shall comply as soon as possible with the request addressed to it. Nevertheless, such State may refuse to comply with the request for reasons of public ment aux lois applicables au recouvrement de ses propres créances fiscales.

Il sera joint à la demande de recouvrement susvisée une copie de tous les documents qui sont exigés par les lois de l'Etat qui a adressé la demande pour certifier que les créances fiscales ont un caractère définitif.

Si la créance fiscale n'a pas un caractère définitif, l'Etat requis peut, à la demande de l'Etat requérant, prendre les mesures conservatoires qui sont autorisées par la législation du premier Etat pour le recouvrement de ses propres impôts.

L'assistance prévue au présent Article ne sera pas accordée en ce qui concerne les citoyens, sociétés ou autres collectivités de l'Etat requis.

ARTICLE 24.

Les stipulations de l'article 22 se rapportant aux informations visant des cas concrets, et celles de l'article 23 se rapportant au concours et à l'assistance aux fins de recouvrer les impôts, ne devront, en aucun cas, être interprétées comme imposant à l'un des Etats contractants l'obligation d'appliquer des mesures administratives contraires aux règlements et à l'usage de l'un ou de l'autre Etat, ou de fournir des renseignements qui ne peuvent être obtenus en vertu de la législation soit de l'Etat requis, soit de l'Etat requérant.

L'Etat, auquel la demande de renseignements ou d'assistance sera adressée, y répondra avec toute la promptitude possible. Cependant, l'Etat requis pourra signifier son refus pour des raisons de politique intérieure ou si la policy or if compliance would involve violation of a business, industrial or trade secret. In such case it shall inform, as soon as possible, the State making the application.

demande ne peut être satisfaite que par la violation d'un secret relatif à un commerce, à une exploitation ou à une industrie. Dans ce cas, l'Etat requérant en sera informé aussitôt que possible.

ARTICLE 25.

Claim in case of double taxation.

Any taxpayer who shows proof that the action of the revenue authorities of the contracting States has resulted in double taxation in his case in respect of any of the taxes to which the present Convention relates, shall be entitled to lodge a claim with the State of which he is a citizen or, if the taxpayer is a corporation or other entity, with the State in which it is created or organized. Should the claim be upheld, the competent authority of such State may come to an agreement with the competent authority of the other State with a view to equitable avoidance of the double taxation in question.

ARTICLE 25.

Tout contribuable qui prouve que les mesures prises par les Autorités fiscales des Etats contractants ont entraîné pour lui une double imposition en ce qui concerne les impôts visés par la présente Convention, peut adresser une demande à l'Etat dont il est ressortissant ou, si le contribuable est une société ou autre collectivité, à l'Etat où celle-ci a été créée ou organisée. Si le bien-fondé de la demande est reconnu, l'Autorité compétente de cet Etat peut s'entendre avec l'autorité compétente de l'autre Etat pour éviter, de façon équitable, une double imposition.

ARTICLE 26.

Regulations.

The competent authorities of the two contracting States may prescribe regulations necessary to interpret and carry out the provisions of this Convention. With respect to the provisions of this Convention relating to exchange of information and mutual assistance in the collection of taxes, such authorities may, by common agreement, prescribe rules concerning matters of procedure, forms of application and replies thereto, rates of conversion of currencies, transfer of sums collected, minimum amounts subject to collection, payment of costs of collection, and related matters.

ARTICLE 26.

Les autorités compétentes des deux Etats contractants pourront édicter les règlements nécessaires à l'interprétation et à l'exécution de la présente Convention. En ce qui concerne les stipulations de cette Convention relative à l'échange des renseignements, et à l'assistance mutuelle pour le recouvrement des impôts, ces autorités pourront s'entendre au sujet des questions de procédure, de la forme des demandes et des réponses à ces demandes, des taux de conversion des monnaies, du transfert des sommes recouvrées, de la détermination du minimum des sommes recouvrables, du paiement des frais de recouvrement et d'autres questions s'y rapportant.

Policy.

ARTICLE 3.

The Contracting Governments shall take all the legislative or administrative measures necessary for the execution of the present Agreement. The texts of such measures shall be communicated to the Secretariat of the Council.

ARTICLE 4.

While recognising that all Government measures relating to agrarian policy and to state assistance to the sugar industry are governed by the internal conditions of each country and in many cases require the approval of Parliament, the Contracting Governments agree that it is desirable that—

Avoidance of excessive production.

(a) If and when prices on the free market rise, all necessary steps should be taken to prevent the rise in world prices from leading on the one hand to an increase of internal prices for consumers such as would be likely to check consumption, and on the other hand to a rise of wholesale prices (beyond the level required to secure a fair return for growers and producers) to such a point as to stimulate excess production not justified by the requirements of the market, thus defeating the object of the present Agreement;

(b) In sugar exporting countries whose internal prices are not directly affected by a rise in the world price of sugar, all necessary steps should be taken to prevent the increase in the returns received from sugar production for export from causing the same difficulty by stimulating excessive and unjustified production.

ARTICLE 5.

Encouragement of increased consumption.

The Contracting Governments agree that, as far as possible, favourable consideration should be given to all proposals having for their object:—

- (a) the reduction of disproportionate fiscal burdens on sugar;
- (b) the encouragement and support of all efforts to promote increased consumption of sugar in countries in which consumption is low by means of suitable publicity campaigns or by other effective means both on the national and, where considered appropriate, on the international plane;
- (c) appropriate action to check the abuses resulting from the substitution for sugar of substances having no comparable food value;
- (d) the search for new and alternative uses for sugar, within the framework of national activities.

ARTICLE 6.

The Council shall—

Studies by Council.

- (a) make a full study, acting if it considers it desirable in conjunction with appropriate international organisations such as the International Institute of Agriculture, of the various forms of state assistance in order in particular to formulate proposals for carrying out the principle laid down in Article 4, taking into account the varying conditions under which sugar production is carried on, and, in particular, the conditions of agricultural production;
- (b) enquire into the effect on the free market of direct or indirect premiums granted to sugar-producing industries in general;
- (c) examine the possibility of promoting between white sugar exporting countries reciprocal agreements to respect their national markets;
- (d) collect available information in regard to the matters dealt with in Article 5;
- (e) submit the results of enquiries made in regard to the matters dealt with in this Article for the consideration of Contracting Governments.

ARTICLE 7.

Statistics and information.

The Contracting Governments undertake to supply all available statistics and information requested by the Council or the Executive Committee and to comply with any other reasonable request made by those bodies within the scope and provisions of the present Agreement.

Chapter III.—Obligations of Countries not exporting to the Free Market.

ARTICLE 8.

Obligations.

In order to contribute, so far as they are each concerned, to the maintenance and if possible the expansion of the free market for sugar the Governments hereinafter specified accept for the period of the present Agreement the specific obligations set forth in the succeeding Articles of this Chapter.

ARTICLE 9.

(a) The Government of the United States undertakes, with respect to the United States, its territories and possessions, except the Commonwealth of the Philippines, to permit during each calendar year a net importation from foreign countries not enjoying preferential duty rates (i. e., the quantity by which imports from such countries exceed total exports to the world market, it being understood that supplies from the Commonwealth of the Philippines and re-exports of Cuban sugar from the United States are not to be included in reckoning net importation) of a quantity of sugar which shall be a proportion of the quantity needed to meet the requirements of consumers in continental United States at least equal to the proportion allotted to such foreign countries during the calendar year 1937 in accordance with General Sugar Quota Regulations, Series 4, No. 1, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture on the 12th December, 1936. If the quota of the Commonwealth of the Philippines should be reduced below an amount equal to 800,000 long tons of unrefined sugar plus 50,000 long tons of refined sugar, the Government of the United States further undertakes to permit a net importation (as defined above) from foreign countries of a net quantity of sugar equal to the amount of such reduction.

Undertakings of
U. S. Government.

(b) Furthermore, in the allocation of import quotas to foreign countries as provided above, the Government of the United States undertakes that the percentage so allotted to countries parties to the present Agreement shall not in the aggregate be less than the percentage allotted to those countries at the time of the signature of the Agreement.

(c) The Government of the United States reserves the right to increase the net imports of sugar (as defined above) from foreign countries not enjoying preferential duty rates over and above the minimum import quotas to be allocated to them under the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) above, such excess not to be chargeable to the export quotas of such foreign countries and not to be included in reckoning the net importation for the purposes of paragraph (a).

ARTICLE 10.

(a) The Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines undertakes, so long as the United States maintains a quota for Philippine sugar of not less than an amount equal to 800,000 long tons of unrefined sugar plus 50,000 long tons of refined sugar per calendar year, not to export sugar to countries other than the United States, its territories and possessions, until additional export quotas are allotted under Article 20 of the present Agreement. In the event of such additional quotas being allotted, the Commonwealth of the Philippines will be entitled to export to the free market during the period for which such additional quotas are in force an amount equal to 4 per cent. of the aggregate of such additional quotas.

Undertakings by Government of Commonwealth of the Philippines.

Post, p. 931.

(b) In the event of a reduction in the quota for Philippine sugar for importation into the United States below a quantity equal to 800,000 long tons of unrefined sugar plus 50,000 long tons of refined sugar per calendar year, the Commonwealth of the Philippines shall be allotted a basic export quota for the free market equal to the quantity by which such quota in the United States is reduced plus the 4 per cent. above mentioned.

(c) The Government of the Commonwealth of the Philippines will not claim any quota for export to the free market because of any change which may take place during the period of the present Agreement in the tariff conditions under which Philippine sugar is admitted into the United States, and in return the Contracting Governments agree not to claim, in virtue of any most-favoured-nation rights granted to them by the Government of the United States, the benefit of any advantages with respect to sugar which may be accorded to, or agreed upon with, the Philippines by the Government of the United States during the period of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 11.

The Government of the United Kingdom undertakes, subject to the provisions of Article 14 below—

- (a) To maintain in operation during the period of the present Agreement those provisions of the Sugar Industry (Reorganization) Act, 1936, designed to limit the annual production of sugar in Great Britain to a standard quantity of 560,000 long tons of white sugar (i. e., approximately 618,000 metric tons raw value).
- (b) That during the period of the present Agreement the total exports from the British Colonial Empire shall be limited to a basic figure of 965,254 metric tons per quota year.

ARTICLE 12.

The Government of the Commonwealth of Australia undertakes, subject to the provisions of Article 14 below, to limit exports from Australia to a basic figure of 406,423 metric tons per quota year during the period of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 13.

The Government of the Union of South Africa undertakes, subject to the provisions of Article 14 below, to limit exports from the Union to a basic figure of 209,000 metric tons per quota year during the period of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 14.

(a) The Government of the United Kingdom, the Government of the Commonwealth of Australia and the Government of the Union of South Africa reserve the right respectively to increase the standard quantity for production in Great Britain and the basic quotas for exports of the Colonial Empire, Australia and South Africa, specified above, proportionately to any increase in requirements over and above the consumption requirements for the year ending the 31st August, Undertakings by Government of the United Kingdom.

Undertakings by Government of the Commonwealth of Australia.

Undertakings by Government of the Union of South Africa.

Right reserved

1937, of the United Kingdom plus the aggregate of the net import requirements for that year of each of the other parts of the British Empire.

Provided that there shall be reserved for exporters to the free market a percentage of the increase so calculated not less than the percentage of the aforesaid requirements supplied by the exporters to the free market in the year ending on the 31st August, 1937.

(b) The Governments of the United Kingdom, the Commonwealth of Australia and the Union of South Africa, in consultation with the Council, shall determine before the commencement of each quota year the estimated amount of the increase in requirements as aforesaid for that year, and the said Governments will thereupon notify the Council what amount of such estimated increase will be added to the standard quantity referred to in Article 11 (a) above or the export quotas referred to in Articles 11 (b), 12 and 13 as the case may be, and what amount will be available for exporters to the free market.

Estimates.

(c) The Governments of the Commonwealth of Australia and of the Union of South Africa agree not to claim any increase of their basic quotas, as fixed in Articles 12 and 13 respectively, in the year commencing the 1st September, 1937, without prejudice to their rights to their full share in the increase in future years of the aforesaid requirements as compared with the year ending the 31st August, 1937, and their shares of the increase of requirements in the year commencing the 1st September, 1937, shall be made available for exporters to the free market.

(d) If in any year the actual increase of requirements calculated as aforesaid exceeds or falls short of the estimate made as provided in paragraph (b) of this Article, a correction shall if necessary be made by deduction from or addition to the quotas for the next succeeding year.

ARTICLE 15.

The provisions of Articles 22, 23 and 25 shall apply to the export quotas fixed by Articles 11, 12 and 13 above, and these quotas shall also be subject to the rules of paragraph (a) of Article 24 regarding notification of inability to utilise quotas, in the same way as if the said quotas were quotas for export to the free market. In the event of such notification of inability to utilise quotas the parts not to be utilised may be redistributed among the other territories referred to in Articles 11, 12 and 13.

Export quotas.

ARTICLE 16.

(a) The Government of India undertakes to prohibit exports of sugar by sea elsewhere than to Burma during the period of the present Agreement.

Exports by India.

(b) In the event of re-export of Indian sugar by sea from Burma rendering the Government of India's contribution to the present Agreement ineffective, the Government of India will take up the matter with the Government of Burma with a view to reaching arrangements which will render the Government of India's contribution effective.

ARTICLE 17.

Import requirements of China.

The Government of China will use its best endeavours, so far as circumstances permit, to the end that the sugar import requirements of the Chinese market shall not decrease during the period of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 18.

Exports by Netherlands.

The Government of the Netherlands, in respect of its territory in Europe, undertakes to refrain from net exports of sugar; it reserves the right to cover the requirements of its home market by its home production and imports from other parts of the Kingdom.

The Government of the Netherlands, in respect of Netherlands Guiana, undertakes to refrain from net exports of sugar to countries outside the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Chapter IV.—Export Quotas for the Free Market.

ARTICLE 19.

(a) The Contracting Governments shall have the basic export quotas for the free market which are set out below:—

Country.	Basic Quota (metric tons).
Belgium (including Belgian Congo)	20, 000
Brazil	60, 000
Cuba	940, 000
Czechoslovakia	250, 000*
Dominican Republic	400, 000
Germany	120, 000
Haiti	32, 500
Hungary	40, 000
Netherlands (including overseas territories) . .	1, 050, 000
Portugal (including overseas possessions) . . .	30, 000
Peru	330, 000
Poland	120, 000
Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (excluding exports to Mongolia, Tannu Tuva and Sin- Kiang)	230, 000
Total	3, 622, 500

*Czechoslovakia will receive the following extra allotments:—

Year beginning—

September 1, 1937: 90,000 metric tons.

September 1, 1938: 60,000 " "

September 1, 1939: 25,000 " "

it being understood that Czechoslovakia will take steps to reduce its acreage to correspond to those figures.

(b) It is further provided that 47,500 tons for the free market shall be placed in reserve. This reserve quota, if needed, will be at the disposal of those Governments which, while they have no separate quotas, have before signing the present Agreement, taken measures to balance their production and consumption, and have not been habitual exporters, in order that they may be able in any particular year to export an unexpected surplus of output.

Yugoslavia shall in any case have a claim on the reserve up to 12,500 tons during each year of the Agreement.

France will be entitled to place upon the free market a possible surplus of production, whether home or colonial, up to the balance of the reserve after deducting any amount utilised by Yugoslavia.

If in any year France does not utilise the balance of the reserve after deducting the amount of 12,500 tons available for Yugoslavia, the exports of Yugoslavia may be increased up to a maximum of 15,000 tons.

(c) If there shall be allotted to the Commonwealth of the Philippines, under the provisions of Article 10, a basic export quota, that quota shall be subject in all respects to the same provisions as the export quotas set out in paragraph (a) of this Article.

Ante, p. 927.

(d) In the event of a non-signatory Government acceding to the present Agreement in accordance with Article 49 a basic export quota may be assigned to it in agreement with the said Government by the Council acting by unanimity of the votes cast.

Post, p. 940.

ARTICLE 20.

If the Council shall at any time decide by three-fifths of the votes cast that, having regard to the requirements of the market, additional supplies are desirable, it shall allot additional quotas to all the countries concerned for such period (not exceeding one year) as it may decide, the additional quotas for each country being proportional to the basic quota of that country. The Council shall at the same time make a corresponding proportionate increase in the reserve quota. Yugoslavia shall have a claim on such increase in the reserve quota proportionate to its claim on the original amount of the reserve. Furthermore, the Council shall, in accordance with Article 10, allot to the Commonwealth of the Philippines an export quota equal to 4 per cent. of the aggregate of the additional quotas allotted, including the increase in the reserve quota.

Additional quotas.

ARTICLE 21.

(a) The Council shall be empowered for the year beginning the 1st September, 1937, and/or the year beginning the 1st September, 1938, to reduce export quotas by a uniform percentage not exceeding 5 per cent. if, after a survey of the probable requirements of the market for the year in question, it decides that such reduction is necessary. For this purpose export quotas shall be deemed to be the basic quotas after deducting any part of such quotas released under Article 24 (a) or adding any special allocations made under Article 24 (b) for the years in question.

Reduction of quotas.

(b) In subsequent years, it shall be open to the Council to recommend at any time whether, and to what extent, a reduction would be desirable, but such reduction shall come into force only if all the members of the Council representing countries entitled to basic quotas or to participation in the reserve, consent to it.

ARTICLE 22.

Adherence to quotas.

Each Contracting Government to which an export quota has been or may be allotted undertakes to ensure that net exports from its territories to the free market for any given quota year shall not exceed the export quota in force for it in that year under the provisions of the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 23.

Deficiency in quota.

If in any year of the Agreement a Contracting Government should not export its quota or any part of it, it shall not thereby acquire any right to an increase of its quota in the following year.

Nevertheless, if the Government of Czechoslovakia proves to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee that, owing to a low or high water level or the presence of ice on the Elbe, Czechoslovakia has been unable to export her full quota in any quota year, the Czechoslovak Government may be permitted to export the deficiency during the first three months of the next quota year, in addition to her quota for that year.

ARTICLE 24.

Redistribution.

(a) Each Contracting Government shall notify the Council, as soon as possible, if it does not propose to make use of its export quota, or any part of it, in any quota year, so that the quantities which will not be used may be redistributed (i) among the other Contracting Governments which notify the Council that they are in a position to use them and (ii) to the reserve quota. Subject to paragraph (b) below, this redistribution shall be made pro rata according to the basic quotas.

Cases of special hardship.

(b) The Council shall in any given quota year have power to use up to 25 per cent. of the quotas available for redistribution or up to 50,000 metric tons of such quotas, whichever shall be the larger amount, to meet proved cases of special hardship. Nevertheless, if in a particular year the amount available for redistribution should be less than 30,000 tons, the Council shall have power, should a proved case of special hardship arise, to allot to meet the necessities of that case an amount up to 30,000 tons. The excess of this amount over the amount available for redistribution shall constitute an increase of the supplies to the free market and the quotas of other Contracting Governments shall not be affected.

(c) The Governments of the following countries have given notice that during the quota year beginning on the 1st September, 1937, they will not make use of the parts of their export quotas herein indicated:—

	Tons.
Belgium	5, 000
Germany	70, 000
Hungary	20, 000
Poland	20, 000
U.S.S.R.	11, 500

The French Government has given notice that during the above-mentioned quota year the reserve quota may be reduced by 22,500 tons.

ARTICLE 25.

Neither the basic quotas nor the export quotas for a particular year nor any additional quotas may be ceded by one Contracting Government to another.

Chapter V.—Stocks.

ARTICLE 26.

(a) While the Contracting Governments fully realise that due regard must be had to the necessity of maintaining adequate reserve supplies to meet unexpected demands, they agree that it is undesirable that excessive stocks of sugar which would weigh on the market should be accumulated in their respective countries.

(b) Those Contracting Governments to which export quotas have been or may be allotted under the present Agreement, undertake so to regulate their production that the stocks in their respective countries shall not exceed, for each country, on a fixed date in each year to be agreed with the Council, an amount equal to 25 per cent. of its annual production.

(c) Nevertheless, the Council may if it considers that such action is justified by special circumstances allot to any country a stock in excess of 25 per cent. of its production.

(d) On account of its special situation in connection with exports to the United States and the requirements of Contract No. 4 on the New York Sugar Exchange, the Republic of Cuba may have at the end of each calendar year as stocks (1) for the United States an amount not to exceed 30 per cent. of its export quota to that country, (2) for the free market, an amount not to exceed 300,000 metric tons, provided that a system of control is maintained by the Government of the Republic of Cuba, by means of identity certificates or otherwise, which ensures that such stocks are used for those purposes.

(e) Having regard to the special conditions of production in the Netherlands East Indies, that territory shall be permitted to have a stock not exceeding 500,000 tons on the 1st April in each year.

(f) Hungary shall be permitted to have a stock of 30 per cent. of its annual production.

ARTICLE 27.

Those Contracting Governments to which free market export quotas have been allotted agree in respect of their cane producing territories to regulate sugar production in those territories, unless prevented from doing so by drought, flood or other adverse conditions, so that stocks shall equal, on a fixed date in each year to be agreed with the Council, an amount not less than 10 per cent. of their respective export quotas for such year, provided nothing in this Article shall be construed as requiring any country to produce in excess of its basic export quota specified in Article 19 during either of the years 1937-38 or 1938-39.

ARTICLE 28.

The Council shall in due course determine what shall be regarded as "stocks" of sugar for the purpose of Articles 26 and 27.

Chapter VI.—Establishment of an International Sugar Council.

ARTICLE 29.

The present Agreement shall be under the administration of—

(h) In general, to exercise all the powers which may be necessary to carry out the present Agreement.

ARTICLE 34.

The Council shall appoint a Secretary and take all other necessary measures to establish a Secretariat which shall be entirely free and independent of any other national or international organisation or institution.

Secretariat.

ARTICLE 35.

The expenses of delegations to the Council and of the members of the Executive Committee shall be defrayed by their respective Governments. All other expenses necessary for the administration of the present Agreement, including those of the Secretariat, shall be met by annual contributions of the Contracting Governments made in such manner and at such times as the Council shall determine, and shall not, except with the express consent of all the Contracting Governments, exceed £12,500 in any year. The contribution of each Government shall be proportionate to the number of votes to which its delegation is entitled.

Defrayment of expenses.

ARTICLE 36.

(a) The Council shall meet at least once a year. It may be convened at any time by its Chairman. Meetings.

(b) The necessary quorum for a meeting of the Council shall be secured if not less than one third of the Contracting Governments are represented. One or more Contracting Governments may by a written notification to the Chairman appoint the delegation of another Contracting Government to represent them and to vote on their behalf at any meeting of the Council.

Quorum.

(c) The Council may take decisions without holding a meeting, by correspondence between the Chairman and the delegations of the Contracting Governments provided that no delegation makes objection to this procedure. Any decision so taken shall be communicated to all the delegations as soon as possible, and shall be set forth in the Minutes of the next meeting of the Council.

For the purposes of this paragraph any acceding Government to which an export quota is not allotted shall be included as an importing country.

If approval of the recommendations is not given by telegraph within five days by delegations exercising the necessary majority of votes provided for in Article 20, the Chairman shall immediately summon a meeting of the Council.

If the Council shall decide that it is desirable that the other Contracting Governments shall prohibit or restrict the import of sugar from the country which has infringed the Agreement, the taking of such measures shall not be deemed to be contrary to any most-favoured-nation rights which the offending Government may enjoy.

Infringement of agreement.

(b) any decision of the Council under this Article shall be taken by three-fourths of the votes cast.

ARTICLE 45.

If during the period of the present Agreement it should be considered or should be shown that the attainment of its objects was being hindered by countries not party thereto, a special meeting of the Council shall be called to decide what measures should be recommended to the Contracting Governments.

Hindrance by non-members.

ARTICLE 46.

Should the Council at any time be satisfied that, as the result of a material increase in the exportation or use of sugar syrups, liquid sugar, edible molasses or any other kind of sugar mixtures, those products are taking the place of sugar to such an extent as to prevent full effect being given to the purposes of the present Agreement, it may resolve that such products or any of them shall be deemed to be sugar, in respect of their sugar content, for the purposes of the Agreement; provided that the Council shall, for the purpose of calculating the amount of sugar to be charged to the export quota of any country, exclude the sugar equivalent of any quantity of such products which has normally been exported from that country prior to the coming into force of the Agreement.

Sugar equivalents.

ARTICLE 47.

The present Agreement shall be ratified and the instruments of ratification shall be deposited as soon as possible with the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, which will notify the fact of each deposit to the Governments which have signed the Agreement.

In the event of unanimity not being attained the Governments which desire to maintain the Agreement shall be entitled to do so as between themselves.

ARTICLE 51.

Withdrawal from agreement.

The Contracting Governments shall have the right to withdraw from the Agreement in the following circumstances and subject to the following conditions:—

(a) Any Contracting Government may, if it becomes involved in hostilities, apply for the suspension of its obligations under the Agreement. If the application is denied such Government may give notice of withdrawal from the Agreement.

(b) If any Contracting Government into whose territories there is a net import of sugar shall allege that, owing to the operation of the present Agreement, there is an acute shortage of supplies or an abnormal rise in world prices, it may request the Council to take measures to remedy such situation, and if the Council declines to do so the Government concerned may give notice of withdrawal from the Agreement.

(c) If, during the period of the present Agreement, by the action of any country (whether the Agreement applies to it or not) such adverse changes occur in the relation between supply and demand on the free market as may substantially diminish the market possibilities of the suppliers of that free market, any Contracting Government affected may state its case to the Council. If the Council does not agree that the complaint of that Government is well-founded, that Government shall have the right to submit the case to the judgment of three arbitrators, subjects of countries not parties to the Agreement, to be nominated by the Council at its first meeting after the entry into force of the Agreement. If either the Council or the arbitrators declare the case to be well-founded the Government concerned may give notice of withdrawal from the Agreement.

(d) The Council shall take a decision within sixty days on any matters submitted to it in accordance with the preceding paragraphs of this Article; failure to do so within that time shall give the Government which has submitted the matter to the Council the right to give notice of withdrawal from the Agreement.

(e) In the event of any Government giving notice of withdrawal from the Agreement in accordance with the provisions of this Article, any of the other Contracting Governments shall have the right at any time during the ensuing three months also to give notice of withdrawal.

(f) All notices of withdrawal given under this Article shall be sent to the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, by whom they will be communicated to all the other Contracting Governments and to the Council; and withdrawal shall take effect three months after the date of receipt of such notice by the Government of the United Kingdom.

(g) Any decision taken by the Council under this Article shall require three-fourths of the votes cast.

In faith whereof the undersigned, duly authorised thereto, have signed the present Agreement.

Done in London this sixth day of May, One thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven. In accordance with the procedure followed by the World Monetary and Economic Conference, in continuation of which the International Sugar Conference was called, the present Agreement has been prepared in the French and English languages. It will also be drawn up in German and Russian. PROTOCOL ANNEXED TO THE AGREEMENT.

1. At the moment of signing the Agreement regarding the Regulation of the Production and Marketing of Sugar of to-day's date, the signatory Governments agree that the Government of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland shall take between this date and the assumption of its duties by the Provisional Council referred to below any steps necessary as transitional measures, including the convening of the first session of the said Provisional Council, which shall be held in London as soon as possible, the preparation of the agenda for that session, and the making of all necessary arrangements.

2. The said Governments agree to appoint, as soon as possible, representatives who shall constitute a Provisional Council, which shall exercise all the functions of the International Sugar Council to be set up under that Agreement, and which shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of Chapter VI of the said Agreement, provided that no decisions of such a Provisional Council shall be binding on the signatory Governments prior to the coming into force of the Agreement.

Provisional council.

Ante, p. 93A.

3. Within a period of forty days from the date of its signature of the Agreement, each signatory Government will communicate to the Government of the United Kingdom a statement as to its position in regard to ratification.

Ratifications.

4. If any Government is unable for constitutional reasons to obtain the necessary parliamentary authority for ratification before the 1st

September, 1937, the signatory Governments agree to accept provisionally as equivalent to ratification for the purposes of bringing the Agreement into force on that date a declaration by that Government that it will provisionally accept the obligations of the Agreement as from that date and will ratify it as soon as possible. Should the ratification of such Government not be deposited before the 1st January, 1938, the Contracting Governments shall have the right to decide whether or not the Agreement is to be maintained in force.

5. Each signatory Government undertakes to ensure that so far as its territories are concerned the situation as regards production, export and import of sugar shall not be modified in a manner contrary to the aims of the Agreement during the period between the date of its signature and the date of entry into force of the Agreement. Any infringement of this undertaking shall be equivalent to a violation of the Agreement.

6. The signatory Governments take note of the following declaration, which was made to the Conference by the delegate of the Government of Canada:—

“I desire to make a brief statement regarding the position of the Government of Canada. After an examination of the Convention, necessarily hurried, the Government of Canada regret that they have not found it possible to authorise signature at the present time. They are, of course, sympathetic with the aim of the Conference of averting uneconomic production, but the position of Canada at this Conference as an importer and consumer of sugar is so different from that of almost all the other countries represented that they desire a further period of time to study the effect of the specific proposals of the Convention on that position; and in the light of that study to decide whether it would be possible to accede later. At the same time, the Government of Canada reiterate the assurance already given that they do not propose to stimulate the production of sugar in Canada during the term of this agreement by subsidy, increased protection, special remission of taxes, or by any other similar measures.”

7. The present Protocol shall enter into force for each signatory Government on the date of signature.

In faith whereof the undersigned, duly authorized thereto, have signed the present Protocol.

Done in London this sixth day of May, Nineteen hundred and thirty-seven. In accordance with the procedure followed by the World Monetary and Economic Conference, in continuation of which the International Sugar Conference was called, the present Agreement has been prepared in the French and English languages. It will also be drawn up in German and Russian. [T. S. 991]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS an international sanitary convention, which was opened for signature in the English and French languages at Washington on December 15, 1944 and was signed by the Plenipotentiaries of the United States of America (with a reservation "Subject to ratification") and seventeen other countries, is word for word as follows:

INTERNATIONALE 1944

Portant Modification de la Con-

The Governments signatory
hereto,

Les Gouvernements signataires,

Considering that the International Office of Public Health created by the Agreement signed at Rome on December 9, 1907, is unable for the time being to carry out effectively all of the duties and functions assigned to it in the Annex to that Agreement; in the International Sanitary Convention, 1926; in the International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation, 1933; and in other Conventions or Agreements relating to the public health;

Considérant que l'Office international d'Hygiène publique, créé par l'Accord signé à Rome le 9 décembre 1907, ne peut, pour le moment, remplir effectivement toutes les tâches et fonctions qui lui ont été assignées par l'Annexe de cet Accord, par la Convention sanitaire internationale de 1926, par la Convention sanitaire internationale pour la Navigation aérienne de 1933 et par d'autres Conventions ou Accords ayant rapport à l'hygiène publique;

Having entrusted the task of solving this temporary problem by the preparation of emergency

Ayant, conformément à la résolution No. 8 (2) adoptée lors de sa première session par le Conseil de agreements and arrangements for the notification of epidemic diseases and for uniformity in quarantine regulations to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (hereinafter referred to as UNRRA), in accordance with Resolution No. 8 (2) adopted by the Council of UNRRA at its First Session, without prejudice however to the status of the International Office of Public Health which it is hoped will be able at the expiry of the present Convention to resume the above-mentioned duties and functions; and having received the recommendations of UNRRA in this connection;

Having agreed that, in regard to the American Republics, the Pan American Sanitary Bureau shall continue to act as the general coordinating sanitary agency, including the general collection and distribution of sanitary information to and from the said Republics, as specified in the Pan American Sanitary Code and recognized heretofore by the International Office of Public Health;

Desiring also to modify as between themselves the provisions of the International Sanitary Convention signed in Paris on June 21, 1926, as modified by the Sanitary Convention signed in Paris in 1938,¹ insofar as the provisions of the Convention of 1938 may be in force between the respective Governments (hereinafter referred to as the 1926 Convention), in the light of the present-day conditions which call for special measures to prevent the spread by land and l'Administration des Nations Unies de Secours et de Restauration (dénommée ci-après UNRRA), confié à l'UNRRA la tâche de résoudre ce problème temporaire en élaborant, à titre de mesures d'urgence, des accords et arrangements pour la notification des maladies épidémiques ainsi que pour l'uniformisation des mesures de quarantaine, sans porter atteinte au statut de l'Office international d'Hygiène publique qui, il est permis de l'espérer, pourra, à l'expiration de la présente Convention, reprendre les tâches et fonctions mentionnées ci-dessus; et ayant reçu les recommandations de l'UNRRA à ce sujet;

Ayant convenu que, à l'égard des Républiques américaines, le Bureau sanitaire panaméricain jouera, comme par le passé, le rôle d'organe général de coordination en matière sanitaire, notamment pour la réunion et la distribution générales d'informations sanitaires qui proviennent des dites Républiques ou leur sont destinées, ainsi qu'il est spécifié dans le Code sanitaire panaméricain et comme cela a été accepté jusqu'ici par l'Office international d'Hygiène publique;

Désirant aussi modifier, en ce qui les concerne, les dispositions de la Convention sanitaire internationale signée à Paris le 21 juin 1926—telle qu'elle a été modifiée par la Convention sanitaire signée à Paris en 1938 et pour autant que les dispositions de la Convention de 1938 restent en vigueur entre les Gouvernements intéressés (dénommée ci-après la Convention de 1926)—pour tenir compte des conditions actuelles qui nécessitent des mesures spéciales pour em-

In Article 3 the word "Paris" in the second paragraph shall be deleted and the words "London or Washington" shall be substituted.

To Article 3 the following shall be added:

In order to facilitate the prompt and scrupulous fulfilment of the foregoing provisions, the Contracting Parties shall ensure priority for all communications which may enable UNRRA rapidly to appraise the situation concerning the outbreak of a disease and to inform governments in order that they may take appropriate measures against the spread of the disease across their frontiers.

ARTICLE VI

After Article 5 the following shall be inserted:

Article 5A. In addition to carrying out the system of notification and intelligence prescribed in Part I, Chapter I of the 1926 Convention, which remains in full force, the Parties to the present Convention shall transmit promptly to UNRRA the notifications and other information prescribed in Part I of the 1926 Convention.

Dans l'Article 3, paragraphe 2, le mot "Paris" est supprimé et les mots "Londres ou Washington" sont substitués.

A l'Article 3 ajouter ce qui suit:

Afin de faciliter le prompt et scrupuleux accomplissement des dispositions précédentes, les Parties Contractantes accorderont priorité à toutes communications susceptibles de permettre à l'UNRRA de juger rapidement la situation résultant de l'apparition d'une de ces maladies et d'informer les gouvernements afin qu'ils puissent prendre les mesures nécessaires pour combattre la propagation de la maladie à travers leurs frontières.

ARTICLE VI

Après l'Article 5, insérer ce qui suit:

Article 5A. En outre, tout en appliquant le système de notification et d'information prescrit dans la Partie I, Chapitre I, de la Convention de 1926, qui reste pleinement en vigueur, les Parties à la présente Convention devront transmettre sans délai à l'UNRRA les notifications et autres renseignements prévus dans la Partie I de la Convention de 1926.

Article 5B (1). Outre la notification formelle exigée ci-dessus, les Parties Contractantes devront, autant que possible, adresser périodiquement à l'Organisation d'Hygiène de l'UNRRA des noti-

(2). The Contracting Parties shall make the necessary arrangements with UNRRA for giving prompt information to all the governments concerned of the outbreak in their respective countries of a disease which, in the opinion of UNRRA, constitutes a menace to other countries and of the measures which are being taken to prevent the spread of the disease across frontiers.

ARTICLE VII

To Article 13 the following shall be added:

In a country where there exists a communicable disease, the subject of a formal notification under any international sanitary or quarantine convention for the time being in force, the Sanitary Authority in that country may prohibit the embarkation on board a ship on international voyage of persons suffering from the disease, and of persons in such relations to the sick as to render them liable to transmit the disease, unless the Medical Officer of the port of embarkation is satisfied that measures can be taken on board the ship to prevent the spread of the disease to the other persons on board. The Medical Officer of the port of embarkation, or other authorized officer of the sanitary authority, if he has reason to suspect any clothing, bedding, or other article of personal use which belongs to or is intended for use by persons embarking to be infected, may examine and require the disinfection of any such clothing, bedding, or other article of

Les Parties Contractantes devront faire avec l'UNRRA les arrangements nécessaires pour tenir tous les gouvernements intéressés rapidement informés de l'apparition dans leur pays respectif d'une maladie qui, de l'avis de l'UNRRA, constitue un danger pour d'autres pays, ainsi que des mesures en cours d'exécution pour en empêcher l'extension à travers les frontières.

ARTICLE VII

A l'Article 13, ajouter ce qui suit:

Dans tout pays où l'on a constaté l'existence d'une maladie contagieuse dont la notification est obligatoire en vertu d'une convention sanitaire internationale ou d'une convention internationale de quarantaine actuellement en vigueur, l'autorité sanitaire de ce pays peut interdire l'embarquement à bord d'un navire, pour un voyage international, de personnes atteintes de cette maladie, ainsi que de personnes qui ont eu avec des malades des relations les rendant susceptibles de transmettre la maladie, à moins que l'Officier de santé du port d'embarquement ne se soit assuré que des mesures peuvent être prises à bord pour empêcher la propagation de la maladie aux autres personnes embarquées. L'Officier de santé du port d'embarquement, ou tout autre agent habilité par l'autorité sanitaire, s'il a des motifs de soupçonner que les vêtements, literie ou autres effets personnels appartenant aux passagers ou destinés à leur usage sont infectés, pourra les examiner et exiger que

The measures enumerated in this Article shall be taken as far in advance of the sailing date of the ship as possible in order not unduly to delay the ship's departure. Les mesures énumérées au présent Article devront être prises aussi longtemps que possible avant la date du départ du navire, afin de ne pas le retarder indûment.

Nothing in this Article shall affect the power of the Master of the ship to refuse to embark sick persons. Rien dans le présent Article ne porte atteinte au pouvoir que possède le Capitaine du navire de refuser l'embarquement à des malades.

Lorsqu'à une escale ou à l'arrivée d'un navire dans un port, il existe à bord un cas de maladie infectieuse dûment constaté par l'Officier de santé dudit port, autre qu'un cas de peste, de choléra, de fièvre jaune, de typhus ou de variole, on appliquera les mesures habituelles en vigueur dans le pays où se trouve ledit port, sous réserve des dispositions de l'Article 54 de la Convention de 1926.

45 Stat. 2571.

In carrying out measures for control of the spread of communicable disease across frontiers, particularly in regard to the movement of displaced populations conveyed by international maritime transport, the Contracting Parties will not delay any ship at any point of her voyage longer than is necessary for the medical examination of crew and passengers, for the disembarkation (if such is considered necessary) of persons suffering from communicable disease, and of their bedding and personal effects, and for the disinfection of the accommodation they occupied. The ship shall not

En appliquant les mesures destinées à éviter la propagation des maladies contagieuses à travers les frontières, et particulièrement en ce qui concerne le mouvement des "populations déplacées" par transport maritime international, les Parties Contractantes ne devront en aucun point du voyage retarder le navire au delà du temps requis pour l'examen médical de l'équipage et des passagers, pour le débarquement (si celui-ci est jugé nécessaire) de personnes atteintes de maladies contagieuses, de leur literie et de leurs effets personnels, et pour la désinfection des locaux qu'elles occupaient. The footnote to Article 25 shall be deleted and the following substituted:

Surveillance.

IN ALL CASES where this Convention provides for surveillance, surveillance may not be replaced by observation except

- (a) in circumstances in which it would not be practicable to carry out surveillance with sufficient thoroughness; or
- (b) if the risk of the introduction of infection into the country is considered to be exceptionally serious; or
- (c) if the person who would be subject to surveillance cannot furnish adequate sanitary guarantees.

Persons under observation or surveillance shall submit themselves to any examination which the competent sanitary authority may consider necessary.

- (b) si le risque d'introduire une maladie infectieuse dans le pays est considéré comme exceptionnellement sérieux;
- (c) si la personne qui doit faire l'objet de la surveillance ne peut fournir les garanties sanitaires suffisantes.

Les personnes en observation ou sous surveillance se soumettront à tout examen que l'autorité sanitaire compétente pourrait juger nécessaire.

ARTICLE X

Dans les Articles 35(a), 36(4) et 47, aux mots "200 mètres" substituer les mots "400 mètres".

ARTICLE XI

A l'Article 40, ajouter ce qui suit:

En vue de l'élimination du Stegomyia (Aedes aegypti), étape importante dans la lutte contre la fièvre jaune, les Parties Contractantes devront s'efforcer, à la light of their knowledge and experience of the control of the yellow fever vector, render and maintain free from Stegomyia (Aedes aegypti) (a) ports and their surroundings in endemic areas, and (b) ports not situated in endemic areas but exposed to the risk of the introduction of the disease. They shall also use their best endeavors to secure that personnel employed in the handling of ships in ports in endemic areas and in ports specially exposed to risk shall be inoculated against yellow fever.

The Contracting Parties agree that all persons inoculated in compliance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph of this Article shall be furnished with and carry an inoculation certificate signed by the officer carrying out the inoculation. This certificate shall conform to the International Form of Certificate of Inoculation against yellow fever annexed hereto.

Persons in possession of a valid anti-yellow fever inoculation certificate shall not for the purpose of the control of yellow fever be subjected to quarantine restrictions.

In place of a valid anti-yellow fever inoculation certificate, a certificate that the bearer has recovered from an attack of yellow fever and that his blood contains immune bodies against yellow fever, as proved by a test carried out by an institute regularly carrying out biological tests for yellow fever and approved for this purpose by the government of the country concerned, will be accepted.

Les Parties Contractantes devront s'efforcer également de faire vacciner contre la fièvre jaune le personnel de manoeuvre et de manutention employé dans les ports des zones d'endémicité et dans les ports particulièrement exposés au risque de contagion.

Les Parties Contractantes conviennent que toutes personnes vaccinées en exécution des dispositions du paragraphe précédent du présent Article seront munies d'un certificat de vaccination signé par l'agent ayant effectué la vaccination et devront en être porteurs. Ce certificat doit être conforme à la formule internationale de certificat de vaccination contre la fièvre jaune annexée ci-après.

Les personnes en possession d'un certificat valable de vaccination contre la fièvre jaune ne seront pas soumises aux restrictions de quarantaine instituées pour combattre la fièvre jaune.

A défaut d'un certificat valable de vaccination contre la fièvre jaune, on acceptera un certificat attestant que le porteur est remis d'un accès de fièvre jaune et que son sang contient des anti-corps contre la fièvre jaune, la preuve en ayant été faite par l'emploi d'un test appliqué par un institut exécutant habituellement des tests biologiques de fièvre jaune et agréé à cet effet par le gouvernement du pays intéressé.

Convention between the United States of America and other powers respecting sanitary aerial navigation, modifying the convention of April 12, 1933. Opened for signature at Washington December 15, 1944; signed for the United States of America January 5, 1945; ratification advised by the Senate of the United States of America May 21, 1945; ratified by the President of the United States of America May 29, 1945; ratification deposited by the United States of America May 29, 1945; proclaimed by the President of the United States of America May 29, 1945; effective as to the United States of America May 29, 1945.

January 5, 1945
[T. S. 992]

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS an international sanitary convention for aerial navigation, which was opened for signature in the English and French languages at Washington on December 15, 1944 and was signed by the Plenipotentiaries of the United States of America (with a reservation "Subject to ratification") and seventeen other countries, is word for word as follows:

INTERNATIONAL SANITARY CON-VENTION FOR AERIAL NAVIGA-
TION, 1944

CONVENTION SANITAIRE INTER-
NATIONALE POUR LA NAVIGA-
TION AERIENNE 1944

Modifying the International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation of April 12, 1933

Portant Modification de la Convention Sanitaire Internationale pour la Navigation Aerienne du 12 Avril 1933

The Governments signatory
hereto,

Les Gouvernements signataires,

Considering that the International Office of Public Health created by the Agreement signed at Rome on December 9, 1907, is unable for the time being to carry out effectively all of the duties and functions assigned to it in the Annex to that Agreement; in the International Sanitary Convention, 1926; in the International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation, 1933;
and in other Conventions or Agreements relating to the public health;

Considérant que l'Office international d'Hygiène publique, créé par l'Accord signé à Rome le 9 décembre 1907, ne peut pour le moment remplir effectivement toutes les tâches et fonctions qui lui ont été assignées par l'Annexe de cet Accord, par la Convention sanitaire internationale de 1926, par la Convention sanitaire internationale pour la Navigation aérienne de 1933 et par d'autres Conventions ou Accords ayant rapport à l'hygiène publique;

35 Stat. 2061.

45 Stat. 2492.

49 Stat. 3279.

Having entrusted the task of solving this temporary problem by the preparation of emergency agreements and arrangements for the notification of epidemic diseases and for uniformity in quarantine regulations to the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (hereinafter referred to as UNRRA), in accordance with Resolution No. 8 (2) adopted by the Council of UNRRA at its First Session, without prejudice however to the status of the International Office of Public Health which it is hoped will be able at the expiry of the present Convention to resume the above-mentioned duties and functions; and having received the recommendations of UNRRA in this connection;

Having agreed that, in regard to the American Republics, the Pan American Sanitary Bureau shall continue to act as the general coordinating sanitary agency, including the general collection and distribution of sanitary information to and from the said Republics, as specified in the Pan American Sanitary Code and recognized heretofore by the International Office of Public Health;

Desiring also to modify as between themselves the provisions of the International Sanitary Convention for Aerial Navigation signed at The Hague on April 12, 1933 (hereinafter referred to as the 1933 Convention) in the light of the present-day conditions which call for special measures to prevent the spread by air across

Ayant, conformément à la résolution No. 8 (2) adoptée lors de sa première session par le Conseil de l'Administration des Nations Unies de Secours et de Restauration (dénommée ci-après UNRRA), confié à l'UNRRA la tâche de résoudre ce problème temporaire en élaborant, à titre de mesures d'urgence, des accords et arrangements pour la notification des maladies épidémiques ainsi que pour l'uniformisation des mesures de quarantaine, sans porter atteinte au statut de l'Office international d'Hygiène publique qui, il est permis de l'espérer, pourra, à l'expiration de la présente Convention, reprendre les tâches et fonctions mentionnées ci-dessus; et ayant reçu les recommandations de l'UNRRA à ce sujet;

Ayant convenu que, à l'égard des Républiques américaines, le Bureau sanitaire panaméricain jouera, comme par le passé, le rôle d'organe général de coordination en matière sanitaire, notamment pour la réunion et la distribution générales d'informations sanitaires qui proviennent desdites Républiques ou leur sont destinées, ainsi qu'il est spécifié dans le Code sanitaire panaméricain et comme cela a été accepté jusqu'ici par l'Office international d'Hygiène publique;

Désirant aussi modifier, en ce qui les concerne, les dispositions de la Convention sanitaire internationale pour la Navigation aérienne signée à la Haye le 12 avril 1933 (dénommée ci-après la Convention de 1933), pour tenir compte des conditions actuelles qui nécessitent des mesures spéciales pour empêcher la propaga-frontiers of epidemic or other communicable diseases;

Have decided to conclude a Convention for these purposes, have agreed that, whereas the authentic text of the 1933 Convention is in the French language, the present Convention shall be in English and in French, both texts being equally authentic, and have accordingly appointed the undersigned plenipotentiaries who, having communicated their full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed that the 1933 Convention shall be amended as follows:

ARTICLE II

The second paragraph of Article 1, subparagraph VI, shall be deleted and the following substituted:

The word surveillance means that persons are not isolated, that they may move about freely, but that the sanitary authorities of the place or places to which they are proceeding are notified of their coming. They may be subjected in the places of arrival to a medical examination and such inquiries as are necessary with a view to ascertaining their state of health; and, in any territory where the competent Contracting Party thinks fit, surveillance may include requirement to report on arrival and afterwards at such intervals during continuance of surveillance as may be specified, to

Au deuxième paragraphe de l'Article 1er, alinéa VI, substituer ce qui suit:

Elles pourront être soumises au lieu d'arrivée à un examen médical, et l'on pourra leur poser les questions nécessaires à la constatation de leur état de santé. Dans tout territoire où la Partie Contractante compétente le juge nécessaire, la surveillance peut comprendre l'obligation de se présenter, lors de l'arrivée, et ensuite à intervalles fixes pendant la durée

Detention of healthy passengers and crews not carrying valid Inoculation Certificates shall not be carried out at the aerodrome of departure. They shall be permitted to depart, the necessary quarantine measures being carried out at the first aerodrome of arrival in an area at risk. Dans tout territoire compris dans une zone d'endémicité de la fièvre jaune, les autorités sanitaires auront toute latitude pour imposer, à l'égard d'autres territoires situés dans cette même zone, les mesures de quarantaine qui sont autorisées par la Convention de 1933, telle qu'elle a été modifiée par la présente Convention. Les passagers en bonne santé et les membres de l'équipage non porteurs de certificat valable de vaccination ne pourront être retenus à l'aérodrome de départ. Ils seront autorisés à partir, les mesures de quarantaine nécessaires étant prises au premier aérodrome d'arrivée dans une zone menacée.

ARTICLE XIII

Articles 39 to 46 inclusive shall be deleted.*

ARTICLE XIV

Article 47 shall be deleted, and the following substituted:

(1) In territories in which yellow fever does not exist, but in which there may be conditions which permit of its development:

(a) authorized aerodromes shall conform to the requirements set forth in Article 38 of the 1933 Convention as hereby amended;

(b) upon arrival at the first aerodrome of call aircraft which have proceeded from endemic yellow fever areas shall be disinfected.

(2) All persons traveling by air from an endemic yellow fever area to one in which yellow fever does not exist but in which there may be conditions which permit of its development, shall be dealt with in the following manner, at the first stopping place in the latter area:

(a) if they are in possession of a valid anti-yellow fever inoculation certificate they shall be allowed to proceed without any quarantine restrictions with respect to yellow fever;

ARTICLE XIII

Les Articles 39 à 46 inclusive-ment sont supprimés.*

ARTICLE XIV

A l'Article 47 substituer ce qui suit:

(1) Dans les territoires où la fièvre jaune n'existe pas, mais où les conditions pourraient en permettre le développement:

(a) les aérodromes autorisés devront se conformer aux prescriptions de l'Article 38 de la Convention de 1933, telle qu'elle a été modifiée par la présente Convention;

(b) à l'arrivée au premier aérodrome, les aéronefs provenant d'une zone d'endémicité de la fièvre jaune seront désinsectisés.

(2) Toute personne faisant par voie aérienne un voyage d'une zone d'endémicité de la fièvre jaune vers une autre zone où la fièvre jaune n'existe pas, mais où les conditions pourraient en permettre le développement, sera traitée de la façon suivante au premier point d'arrêt dans cette autre zone:

(a) si elle est en possession d'un certificat valable de vaccination contre la fièvre jaune, elle sera autorisée à continuer son voyage sans subir les restrictions de quarantaine concernant la fièvre jaune;

Uninfected regions, but possible of development.

49 Stat. 3296.

*In view of the deletion of Article 40, compliance with the requirements of Article 38 as amended shall no longer cause aerodromes situated in an endemic yellow fever area to be regarded as "antiamaril aerodromes" and separate local areas. Passengers landing at such aerodromes shall submit to the measures laid down in Article 38 as required.

*Par suite de la suppression de l'Article 40, l'application des prescriptions de l'Article 38, modifié, n'aura plus pour effet de faire considérer les aérodromes situés dans une zone d'endémicité de la fièvre jaune comme "aérodromes antiamaril" et comme zones séparées. Les passagers atterrissant à ces aérodromes seront soumis aux mesures définies à l'Article 38, selon les nécessités du cas.

- (b) if they are not in possession of a valid anti-yellow fever inoculation certificate, they may be isolated in properly screened quarters until the certificate becomes valid or until 6 days have elapsed, whichever is the lesser.
- (b) si elle n'est pas en possession d'un certificat valable de vaccination contre la fièvre jaune, elle pourra être isolée dans des locaux dûment pourvus de grillages jusqu'au moment où le certificat deviendra valable ou jusqu'à l'expiration d'un délai de six jours, suivant que l'une ou l'autre circonstance se produira la première.

Certificates of Urgency.

- (3) Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, the Contracting Parties may (but only in the most exceptional cases) issue Certificates of Urgency to non-inoculated persons whose unobstructed passage is absolutely and immediately essential on grounds of high policy, certifying that a passage without hindrance to the bearer of the Certificate is urgently necessary.
- (3) Nonobstant les dispositions précédentes du présent Article, les Parties Contractantes peuvent (mais seulement dans des cas tout à fait exceptionnels) délivrer à des personnes non-vaccinées dont le libre passage est absolument et immédiatement essentiel pour des raisons de haute politique, des certificats d'urgence attestant qu'il est de nécessité urgente de laisser passer sans entraves le porteur du certificat.

The precise form and method of issue of the Certificate and the nature of the certifying authority shall be a matter for arrangement and communication between governments concerned.

La forme exacte et le mode de délivrance du certificat, ainsi que le caractère de l'autorité qui aura qualité pour l'émettre, feront l'objet d'arrangements et de communications entre les gouvernements intéressés.

The Contracting Parties undertake to grant unimpeded passage to bearers of such Certificates but the movements of such Certificate holders will, whenever possible, be restricted during stops on air routes to adequately screened quarters which will not be left except to re-enter the aircraft.

Les Parties Contractantes s'engagent à accorder le libre passage aux porteurs de ces certificats, mais les déplacements de ces personnes seront, autant que possible, restreints pendant les escales sur les lignes aériennes à des locaux dûment pourvus de grillages qu'elles ne devront quitter que pour se rendre à l'aéronef.

ARTICLE XV

The first line of Article 51 shall be altered to read "The following measures may be taken on arrival:".

A l'Article 51 la première ligne sera modifiée comme suit "Les mesures suivantes peuvent être prises à l'arrivée:".

ARTICLE XVI

Article 53 shall be deleted, and the following substituted:

Persons who, on their arrival at an aerodrome, are considered, under the terms of Part III of the 1933 Convention as hereby amended, liable to surveillance* up to the expiration of the period of incubation of the disease, may nevertheless continue the voyage on condition that the fact is notified to the authorities of subsequent landing places and of the place of arrival by some method sufficient to secure that they can be subjected to medical inspection in any subsequent aerodromes on the route.

Persons who are liable to observation* under the terms of Article 26 of the 1933 Convention shall not be authorized, until the expiration of the period of incubation, to continue their voyage except, in the case of diseases other than yellow fever, with the approval of the sanitary authorities of the next stopping place.

*IN ALL CASES where this Convention provides for surveillance, surveillance may not be replaced by observation except

- (a) in circumstances in which it would not be practicable to carry out surveillance with sufficient thoroughness; or
- (b) if the risk of the introduction of infection into the country is considered to be exceptionally serious; or
- (c) if the person who would be subject to surveillance cannot furnish adequate sanitary guarantees.

Persons under observation or surveillance shall submit themselves to any examination which the competent sanitary authority may consider necessary.

ARTICLE XVI

A l'Article 53, substituer ce qui suit:

Toute personne qui, à son arrivée dans un aéroport, est considérée, aux termes de la Partie III de la Convention de 1933, telle qu'elle a été modifiée par la présente Convention, comme astreinte à être placée en surveillance* jusqu'à la fin de la période d'incubation de la maladie, peut néanmoins continuer son voyage, à la condition que le fait soit notifié aux autorités des territoires où elle doit atterrir, ainsi qu'à celles du territoire d'arrivée, par une méthode garantissant que l'intéressé sera soumis à l'inspection médicale aux aéroports situés de long de la route.

Aucune personne astreinte à être mise en observation* aux termes de l'Article 26 de la Convention de 1933 ne sera autorisée, jusqu'à l'expiration de la période d'incubation, à continuer son voyage, excepté, dans le cas de maladies autres que la fièvre jaune, avec l'autorisation des autorités sanitaires du point d'arrêt suivant.

*DANS TOUS LES CAS où la présente Convention prescrit une surveillance, celle-ci ne pourra être remplacée par l'observation, excepté

- (a) dans les circonstances où la surveillance ne pourrait être exercée avec le soin nécessaire;
- (b) si le risque d'introduire une maladie infectieuse dans le pays est considéré comme exceptionnellement sérieux;
- (c) si la personne qui doit faire l'objet de la surveillance ne peut fournir les garanties sanitaires suffisantes.

Les personnes en observation ou sous surveillance se soumettront à tout examen que l'autorité sanitaire compétente pourrait juger nécessaire.

ARTICLE XVII

49 Stat. 3302.

The first paragraph of Article 54 shall be deleted and the following substituted:

Au paragraphe premier de l'Article 54, substituer ce qui suit:

Application of sanitary measures.

In applying sanitary measures to an aircraft coming from an infected local area, the sanitary authority of each aerodrome shall, to the greatest possible extent, take into account all measures which have already been applied to the aircraft, in another sanitary aerodrome abroad or in the same country, and which are duly noted in the Aircraft Declaration of Health referred to in Article IV of the present Convention.

En appliquant des mesures sanitaires à un aéronef provenant d'une zone infectée, l'autorité sanitaire de chaque aéroport doit, dans toute la mesure du possible, tenir compte de toutes mesures déjà appliquées à l'aéronef dans un autre aéroport sanitaire, soit à l'étranger, soit dans le pays même, et dûment constatées dans la déclaration de santé d'aéronef prévue par l'Article IV de la présente Convention.

Ante, p. 995.

To Article 54 the following paragraph shall be added:

A l'Article 54, ajouter le paragraphe suivant:

Disinsectization.

In view of the special risk of conveying insect vectors of malaria and other diseases by aircraft on international flight, all such aircraft leaving affected areas will be disinfected. Notwithstanding the terms of Article 54 of the 1933 Convention as hereby amended, further disinsectization of the aircraft on or before arrival may be required if there is reason to suspect the importation of insect vectors.

En raison du risque spécial de transport, par les aéronefs effectuant des voyages internationaux, d'insectes vecteurs de la malaria et d'autres maladies, tout aéronef quittant une zone infectée doit être désinsectisé au départ. Nonobstant les termes de l'Article 54 de la Convention de 1933, telle qu'elle a été modifiée par la présente Convention, une désinsectisation subséquente de l'aéronef peut être exigée avant l'arrivée ou à l'arrivée s'il y a des raisons de soupçonner l'importation d'insectes vecteurs.
