Population.

Agriculture.

Manufactures.

History of National Loan.

Fish and Fisheries.

Compendium.

Sets to libraries, etc.

Proviso.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Reports of the Tenth Census of the United States be printed, and that ten thousand additional copies be printed, of which three thousand shall be for the use of the Senate, six thousand for the use of the House of Representatives, and one thousand for the use of the Department of the Interior.

That, in addition to the above, twenty thousand copies of the Report on population be printed, of which six thousand shall be for the use of the Senate, twelve thousand for the use of the House of Representatives, and two thousand for the use of the Department of the Interior.

That twenty thousand additional copies of the Report on Agriculture be printed, of which six thousand copies shall be for the use of the Senate, twelve thousand copies for the use of the House, and two thousand copies for the use of the Department of the Interior.

That ten thousand additional copies of the Report on Manufactures and Mechanics be printed, of which three thousand copies shall be for the use of the Senate, six thousand copies for the use of the House of Representatives, and one thousand copies for the use of the Department of the Interior.

Also, that six thousand additional copies of the Report on the History of the National Loan be printed for the use of the Treasury Department.

Also, that one thousand five hundred additional copies of the Report on Fish and Fisheries be printed for the use of the Fish Commission.

And, also, that the Compendium of the Tenth Census be printed, and that one hundred thousand additional copies be printed, of which thirty thousand copies shall be for the use of the Senate, sixty thousand copies for the use of the House, and ten thousand copies for the use of the Department of the Interior. And in order to avoid duplication in the distribution of these documents, and to secure complete sets to libraries and other public institutions the additional copies herein ordered, excepting those ordered for the Treasury Department and for the Fish Commission, be delivered to the document-rooms of the Department of the Interior; and the Secretary of the Interior shall distribute those ordered for the use of Congress as follows: In sets to each of such fifteen libraries and other public institutions or individuals as shall be named to him for this purpose by each Senator, and to each of such ten libraries and other public institutions or individuals as shall be named to him for this purpose by each Representative and Delegate, and in volumes to Senators and Representatives or such other parties as shall be designated by Senators, Representatives, and Delegates until the quota of each shall be exhausted: Provided, That one copy of each volume shall, on its reception from the Public Printing Office, be transmitted to each Senator, Representative, and Delegate in Congress: And provided further, That duplicate copies shall not be sent to any library or individual on the request of any Senator or member of the House of Representatives until both Senator and Member shall be notified that they have named the same library or individual: And provided further, That the party receiving the work upon the order of a member of Congress shall be informed by the Secretary of the Interior upon whose request it is supplied. And the Secretary of the Interior shall report to Congress at its next session the names and locations of the libraries and other public institutions designated to receive these reports under the provisions of this bill.

Secretary Interior to report to Congress names and locations of libraries, etc.
Appropriation.

And the sum of six hundred and seventy eight thousand, six hundred and twenty four dollars and sixty one cents, or so much thereof as may be necessary to defray the cost of the above-named printing and binding, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Approved, August 7, 1882.

CHAP. 438.—An act to amend section forty-seven hundred and two, title fifty-seven, Revised Statutes of the United States, and for other purposes.

August 7, 18-2.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section forty-seven hundred and two, title fifty-seven, of the Revised Statutes of the United States is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Pensions to widows or to children under 16 years, etc.

“Sec. 4702. If any person embraced within the provisions of sections forty-six hundred and ninety-two and forty-six hundred and ninety-three has died since the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or hereafter dies, by reason of any wound, injury, or disease which under the conditions and limitations of such sections would have entitled him to an invalid pension had he been disabled, his widow or if there be no widow, or in case of her death without payment to her of any part of the pension hereinafter mentioned, his child or children under sixteen years of age, shall be entitled to receive the same pension as the husband or father would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled, to commence from the death of the husband or father, to continue to the widow during her widowhood, and to his child or children until they severally attain the age of sixteen years, and no longer; and if the widow remarry, the child or children shall be entitled from the date of remarriage, except when such widow has continued to draw the pension-money after her remarriage, in contravention of law, and such child or children have resided with and been supported by her, their pension will commence at the date to which the widow was last paid.”

R. S. 4702, 916.

SEC. 2. That marriages, except such as are mentioned in section forty-seven hundred and five of the Revised Statutes shall be proven in pension cases to be legal marriages according to the law of the place where the parties resided at the time of marriage or at the time when the right to pension accrued; and the open and notorious adulterous cohabitation of a widow who is a pensioner shall operate to terminate her pension from the commencement of such cohabitation.

R. S. 4705, 916.
Marriages to be proven legal marriages under laws, etc.

Approved, August 7, 1882.

CHAP. 439.—An act to authorize the auditing of certain unpaid claims against the Indian Bureau by the accounting officers of the Treasury.

August 7, 1882.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper accounting officers of the Treasury are authorized and directed to examine and audit all the unpaid claims heretofore filed in the departments for serv-

Claims under Indian Bureau filed, to be exam-
