AN ACT

To authorize the payment of taxes and assessments on family dwelling houses in the District of Columbia in quarterly installments, and for other purposes.

February 28, 1933.
[H. R. 14392.]
[Public, No. 377.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each fiscal year, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall send to the owner of each family dwelling house occupied by such owner upon written application therefor an itemized statement of the taxes payable with respect to such dwelling house not less than thirty days prior to the time when the first installment of real-estate taxes for such fiscal year becomes due and payable. Such statement shall include all real-estate taxes which are due and payable in such fiscal year and all installments of special assessments which have been levied, charged, or assessed prior to, and are due and payable in, such fiscal year, with respect to the family dwelling house occupied by the owner. Such taxes and assessments shall be payable, at the election of the taxpayer, in four equal installments, in the months of September, December, March, and June, and no interest shall be payable with respect to any such installment unless it is unpaid after the time it is due. Any real-estate tax or special assessment or any installment thereof with respect to any family dwelling house occupied by the owner thereof not included in such statement shall not be due or payable during the fiscal year for which the statement is sent; and
