

involving the taking of testimony at public hearings. All such orders shall take effect forthwith and remain in effect until otherwise ordered by the commission. In case of the absence or inability for any other reason to act of any such individual commissioner or employee designated to serve upon any such board, the chairman of the commission may designate another commissioner or employee, as the case may be, to serve temporarily until the commission shall otherwise order. In conformity with and subject to the order or orders of the commission in the premises, any such individual commissioner, or board acting by a majority thereof, shall have power and authority to hear and determine, order, certify, report, or otherwise act as to any of said work, business, or functions so assigned or referred to him or it for action by the commission and in respect thereof shall have all the jurisdiction and powers now or then conferred by law upon the commission and be subject to the same duties and obligations. Any order, decision, or report made or other action taken by any such individual commissioner or board in respect of any matters so assigned or referred shall have the same force and effect, and may be made, evidenced, and enforced in the same manner as if made or taken by the commission. Any party affected by any order, decision, or report of any such individual commissioner or board may file a petition for reconsideration or for rehearing by the commission or a division thereof and every such petition shall be passed upon by the commission or a division thereof. Any action by a division upon such a petition shall itself be subject to reconsideration by the commission, as provided in section 16a of this Act (U. S. C., title 49, sec. 16a), and in paragraph (4) of this section. The commission may, as provided in paragraph (1) of this section, make and amend rules for the conduct of proceedings before such individual commissioner or board and for the rehearing of such action before a division of the commission or the commission. The secretary and seal of the commission shall be the secretary and seal of such individual commissioner or board."

[CHAPTER 137.]

AN ACT

To amend chapter 231 of the Act of May 22, 1896, 29 Stat. 133, section 546, title 34, U. S. C.

February 28, 1933.
[H. R. 13026.]
[Public, No. 384.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That chapter 231 of the Act of May 22, 1896, 29 Stat. 133 (section 546, title 34, U. S. C.), be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

Loan or gift of condemned or obsolete naval property.
Vol. 29, p. 133; Vol. 45, p. 773, amended.
U. S. C., p. 1124.

"SEC. 546. LOAN OR GIFT OF CONDEMNED OR OBSOLETE PROPERTY.—The Secretary of the Navy is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to lend or give to soldiers' monument associations, posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, posts of the American Legion, and other recognized war veteran associations, State museums and incorporated museums operated and maintained for educational purpose only, whose charter denies them the right to operate for profit, and municipal corporations condemned or obsolete ordnance, guns, projectiles, books, manuscripts, works of art, drawings, plans, models, and other condemned or obsolete material which may not be needed in the service of the Navy Department. Such loan or gift shall be made subject to rules and regulations covering the same, and the Government shall be at no expense in connection with any such loan or gift."
