

[CHAPTER 157.]

AN ACT

To amend article 5 of the Act of Congress approved June 7, 1897, relating to the approval of regulations for preventing collisions upon certain harbors, rivers, and inland waters of the United States.

March 1, 1933.
[S. 4008.]
[Public, No. 400.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That article 5 of the Act of Congress approved June 7, 1897, be amended by striking out the word "or" after the word "way" and preceding the word "being" in the first line thereof, and adding the words "and any vessel" after the word "way" and before the word "being" hereinabove referred to; and that the article be further amended by inserting a comma and the words "except barges, canal boats, scows, and other vessels of nondescript type, when in tow of steam vessels," between the words "towed" and "shall," so that the article as amended shall read as follows:

Collisions on rivers, harbors and inland waters.
Vol. 30, p. 97, amended.

"ART. 5. A sailing vessel under way and any vessel being towed, except barges, canal boats, scows, and other vessels of nondescript type, when in tow of steam vessels, shall carry the same lights as are prescribed by article 2 for a steam vessel under way, with the exception of the white lights mentioned therein, which they shall never carry."

Rule concerning lights on sailing vessels, under way, etc., modified.

Approved, March 1, 1933.
