[CHAPTER 107]

AN ACT

To authorize the establishment of a permanent instruction staff at the United States Coast Guard Academy.

April 16, 1937

[S. 1441]

[Public, No. 38]

U. S. Coast Guard
Academy.
Appointment of heads of departments.

Original appointments, probationary period.

proviso.
Appointment of certain instructors without examination.

Professors; rank,
pay, and allowances.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate to appoint not to exceed five professors to the United States Coast Guard as heads of the departments of instruction at the Coast Guard Academy. An original appointment as professor not made from a civilian instructor or regular commissioned officer in the United States Coast Guard shall be a temporary appointment; but a professor so appointed, after completion of a satisfactory probationary period of two years, may be regularly appointed as professor to rank from the date of his original appointment: Provided, That any person who has served as a civilian instructor in the Coast Guard Academy for fifteen years or more may be appointed to the office of professor in the Coast Guard Academy pursuant to this section without physical examination.

SEC. 2. A professor in the Coast Guard shall be a commissioned officer with rank not above that of commander and shall receive the pay and allowances of a commissioned officer of the same rank and length of service. When any such professor is commissioned with rank less than that of commander, he shall be promoted through the successive ranks to a rank not above that of commander under such regulations as the President shall prescribe. A professor shall exercise command only in the academic department of the Coast Guard Academy.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to appoint in the Coast Guard, subject to the competitive provisions of the civil-service laws and regulations, not to exceed three civilian instructors, and the compensation of such appointees shall be fixed in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended.

SEC. 4. Service as a civilian instructor or professor at the Coast Guard Academy or as a commissioned officer in the Coast Guard (regular or temporary), rendered prior to an appointment as a professor pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall be credited in computing length of service as a professor for purposes of pay and allowance.

SEC. 5. Professors in the Coast Guard shall be on the same footing as to retirement from active service for any cause as other commissioned officers of the Coast Guard: Provided, That service as a civilian instructor or professor at the Coast Guard Academy or as a commissioned officer in the Coast Guard (regular or temporary), rendered prior to an appointment as a professor pursuant to the provisions of this Act, shall be credited in computing length of service for retirement purposes: Provided further, That the provisions of law relating to retirement for disability in line of duty shall not apply in the case of a professor until he shall have served fifteen years in the Coast Guard.

SEC. 6. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to appoint an advisory committee of the Coast Guard Academy which shall consist of not to exceed five persons of distinction in the field of education who shall serve without pay. The members so appointed shall visit the Coast Guard Academy at least once during the academic year on the call of the chairman and may convene once each year at headquarters at the call of the commandant, for the purpose of examining the course of instruction and advising the Secretary of the Treasury relative thereto. The actual expenses of the members of the committee while engaged in these duties, including their actual expense of travel, shall be defrayed under Government travel regulations from any appropriation available for the authorized work of the United States Coast Guard.

SEC. 7. In addition to the advisory board there shall be appointed in January of each year a Board of Visitors to the Coast Guard, which shall consist of two Senators and three Members of the House of Representatives appointed by the chairmen of the committees of the Senate and the House of Representatives, respectively, having cognizance of legislation pertaining to the Coast Guard Academy. The chairmen of such committees shall be ex-officio members of the Board.

(b) Such Board shall visit the Coast Guard Academy annually on a date to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury. Each member of the Board shall be reimbursed under Government travel regulations for the actual expense incurred by him while engaged upon duties as a member of such Board.

SEC. 8. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent the Secretary of the Treasury from assigning any commissioned officer, chief warrant officer, warrant officer, or enlisted man to appropriate instruction duty at the Coast Guard Academy.

SEC. 9. Any appropriation which is now or may hereafter be available for the payment of expenses for the authorized work of the Coast Guard shall be available to carry out the purposes of this Act.

Command limited.

AN ACT

April 17, 1937
[S. 1901]

[Public, No. 39]

To amend the last two provisos, section 26, Act of Congress approved March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. L. 1225-1248).

Quapaw Indians, Oklahoma.
State gross production tax on lead and zinc produced on lands of.
41 Stat. 1249.

Exemption from other State taxes.

Proviso.
Not a lien on property of Indian.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the last two provisos in section 26 of the Act of Congress approved March 3, 1921 (41 Stat. L. 1225-1248), be, and the same are hereby, amended to read as follows: "That the State of Oklahoma is authorized, from and after the passage of this amendment, to levy and collect a gross production tax upon all lead and zinc produced on said lands in an amount not to exceed the present rate of three-fourths of 1 per centum on the gross value thereof. In accordance with the uniform policy of the United States Government to hold the lands of the Quapaw Indians while restricted and the income therefrom free from State taxation of whatsoever nature, except as said immunity is expressly waived, and, in pursuance of said fixed policy, it is herein expressly provided that the waiver of tax immunity herein provided shall be in lieu of all other State taxes of whatsoever nature on said restricted lands or the income therefrom, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized and directed to cause to be paid out of the individual Indian funds held under his supervision, belonging to the Indian owner of the land, the gross production tax so assessed against the royalty interest of the respective Indian owner in an amount not to exceed the rate hereinabove set forth: Provided, however, That such tax shall not become a lien or charge of any kind or character against the land or other property of said Indian owner."

Approved, April 17, 1937.
