

SEC. 2. Such public resolution is hereby further amended by adding new sections thereto as follows:

"SEC. 9. Sums heretofore or hereafter received from the sale of publications and other material of such Commission are hereby authorized to be appropriated as a revolving fund for the further acquisition of such publications and material.

"SEC. 10. That the United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission is authorized and directed to procure sufficient copies of the booklet entitled 'The Story of the Constitution', published by the Commission, to provide a distribution quota of two thousand copies for each Senator, Representative, and Delegate from a Territory. Enclosures for mailing such booklets shall also be provided by the Commission. The quantities of such booklets and enclosures required for Senators shall be delivered to the folding room of the Senate and placed subject to the order of the respective Senators and the quantities required for Representatives and Delegates shall be delivered to the folding room of the House of Representatives and placed subject to the order of the respective Representatives and Delegates.

"SEC. 11. Any funds heretofore or hereafter made available to the United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission for carrying out the functions imposed upon such Commission by or pursuant to law may be expended by the Commission for printing and binding outside the Government Printing Office and such objects as the Commission may deem necessary and proper to accomplish the purposes of such functions: Provided, That this provision shall not be construed as waiving the requirement for the submission of accounts and vouchers to the General Accounting Office for audit.

"SEC. 12. The President is authorized to appoint a director general of such Commission who shall not be deemed an officer of the Government."

Approved, August 19, 1937.

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish the General Anthony Wayne Memorial Commission to formulate plans for the construction of a permanent memorial to the memory of General Anthony Wayne.

Whereas the people of the United States owe a deep debt of gratitude to General Anthony Wayne, whose military career meant so much during the War of Revolution and whose activities in the Indian wars succeeded in opening such a large tract of territory in the Middle West; and

Whereas no adequate memorial exists at the junction of the Saint Mary's, Saint Joseph, and Maumee Rivers where he established his fort and carried on his campaign: Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there is hereby established a Commission, to be known as the "General Anthony Wayne Memorial Commission", and to be composed of nine commissioners, three to be appointed by the President of the United States, three Senators to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and three Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House. Such Commission shall consider and formulate plans for designing and constructing a permanent memorial in the city of Fort Wayne to the said General Anthony Wayne.

SEC. 2. Such Commission may, in its discretion, accept from any source, public or private, money or property to be used for the purpose of making surveys and investigations, formulating, preparing,

AN ACT

To authorize the Secretary of War to lease the Fort Schuyler Military Reservation, New York.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized to lease to the State of New York, for nautical education purposes in the interests of national defense, the Fort Schuyler Military Reservation, New York, or portions thereof, for such term or terms, and upon such conditions as the Secretary of War may deem advisable, and he may authorize the State of New York incident to making the premises suitable for occupancy to change the contour of the land, alter or demolish existing buildings and other structures, erect new buildings and structures, construct roads and other utilities, and landscape the reservation: Provided, That all alterations, construction, and improvements made shall become the property of the United States: Provided further, That the consideration for said lease or leases shall be the repair and maintenance of the property by the State of New York in accordance with the terms of the lease, and such lease or leases shall reserve to the United States of America the right to resume possession and occupy said premises or any portion thereof whenever in the judgment of the Secretary of War an emergency exists that requires the use and appropriation of the same for the public defense.

Approved, August 19, 1937.

[CHAPTER 698]

AN ACT

For the protection of certain enlisted men of the Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That, notwithstanding the language contained in the second proviso on page 6 of the Act of July 1, 1937 (Public, Numbered 176, Seventy-fifth Congress, first session), or any other Act, during the three-year period following the enactment of this Act, enlisted personnel of the Army who have legally declared their intention to become citizens, or who do so during their current enlistment, or who have been discharged from the Army since July 1, 1937, and who also agree to complete expeditiously their naturalization and become citizens of the United States may be reenlisted and receive the pay to which, except for the aforesaid proviso, they would otherwise be legally entitled: Provided, That Filipinos who were serving in the Army on July 1, 1937, may be reenlisted without regard to their citizenship status, and receive the pay to which otherwise legally entitled.
