[CHAPTER 800]

JOINT RESOLUTION

Designating November 19, 1946, the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, as Dedication Day.

August 7, 1946
[H. J. Res. 35]
[Public Law 645]

Gettysburg Address.

Whereas the Gettysburg Address of President Abraham Lincoln is the outstanding classic of the ages; and
Whereas it will touch the hearts of men and inspire them with faith in our matchless democracy as long as time endures; and
Whereas in that address Mr. Lincoln adjured his fellow countrymen to dedicate themselves to the principles of democracy in order that government "of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth": Therefore be it

Dedication Day.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That November 19, 1946, the anniversary of the Gettysburg Address, be, and hereby is, designated in our calendar of special days as Dedication Day.

That the President of the United States is requested to proclaim November 19, 1946, as Dedication Day and to suggest that the address be read on that day in public assemblages throughout the United States and its possessions, on our ships at sea and wherever the American flag flies.

Approved August 7, 1946.
