

[CHAPTER 153]

AN ACT

To provide uniform longevity promotional grades for the postal field service.

May 3, 1950
[H. R. 6553]
[Public Law 500]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That (a) in the case of postmasters and employees in the postal field service (except employees, other than charmen and charwomen, paid on an hourly basis and substitute and temporary rural carriers) for whom single salary or annual automatic salary grades are provided in the Act of July 6, 1945, as amended (Public Law 134, Seventy-ninth Congress), there are hereby established longevity grades A, B, and C. The rate of basic compensation of each such postmaster and employee (except postmasters at post offices of the fourth class, and charmen and charwomen paid on an hourly basis) shall be increased by $100 per annum for each promotion to a longevity grade. The rate of basic compensation of each such postmaster at a post office of the fourth class shall be increased by 5 per centum per annum for each promotion to a longevity grade. The rate of basic compensation of each such charman and charwoman shall be increased by five cents per hour for each promotion to a longevity grade.

30 U. S. C. §§ 56,
851-876; Sup. III,
§§ 626, 853 et seq.
Post, pp. 102, 1118.

(b) Each such postmaster or employee who is serving in a regular position on the date of enactment of this Act or who is appointed to such a position at any time thereafter, shall be assigned to longevity grade A at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of thirteen years of service, to longevity grade B at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of eighteen years of service, and to longevity grade C at the beginning of the quarter following the completion of twenty-five years of service.

Assignment to grades.

(c) All time on the rolls of the custodial service of the Post Office Department on and after October 1, 1933, and all time on the rolls of the mail equipment shops before or after July 1, 1945, shall be considered as postal field service. In determining longevity credit for the purposes of subsection (b), there shall be credited all time on the rolls (except time on the rolls as a substitute rural carrier) in the postal field service or in the Post Office Department before or after July 1, 1945; all time on the rolls in the custodial service of the Treasury Department continuous to the date of the transfer of the employee to the custodial service of the Post Office Department in accordance with Executive Order Numbered 6166, dated June 10, 1933; all time on the rolls as a special delivery messenger at a first-class post office before or after July 1, 1945; all time on the rolls as a clerk in a third-class post office before or after July 1, 1945, for which payment is made from authorized allowances. In the case of an officer or employee who was separated or is hereafter separated from the postal field service or from the departmental service of the Post Office Department for military duty, or to comply with a war transfer as defined by the Civil Service Commission, all time engaged in military service or service on war transfer shall be credited, and pro rata credit shall be given for the time engaged in military service and service on war transfer for each year of such service. Service specified in this subsection shall be credited on the basis of one-twelfth of a year for each whole calendar month the employee has been on the rolls. All such service shall be credited, whether continuous or intermittent, except that credit shall not be allowed for time on the rolls under a temporary appointment unless such time on the rolls is continuous for one year or more, or unless continuous to the date of appointment as a classified substitute or regular employee.
