(i) to perform such other functions as may be assigned by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

Nonliability.

SEC. 4. Neither the District of Columbia nor any volunteer agency in the service of said District nor, except in cases of willful misconduct or gross negligence, any officer, agent, or employee of the District of Columbia or volunteer agency, or any regularly appointed volunteer worker, engaged in civil defense activities, while complying with or attempting to comply with any provision of this Act or of any rule, regulation, or order issued pursuant to this Act, shall be liable to any person, whether or not such person is engaged in civil defense, for death, injury, or property damage resulting therefrom. The provisions of this section shall not affect the right of any person to receive benefits to which he would otherwise be entitled under any workmen's compensation law, or under any pension, retirement, or disability law, nor the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any other Act of Congress.

SEC. 5. Appropriations for carrying out the purposes of this Act are hereby authorized.

SEC. 6. The Office of Civil Defense, through the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, shall submit to the Senate and House of Representatives on the first day of each regular session of the Congress a report of its activities and expenditures under this Act.

AN ACT

To provide for a mutual-aid plan for fire protection by and for the District of Columbia and certain adjacent communities in Maryland and Virginia, and for other purposes.

August 14, 1950
[H. R. 4788]
[Public Law 689]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized in their discretion to enter into and to renew reciprocal agreements, for such period as they deem advisable, with the appropriate county, municipal, and other governmental units in Prince Georges and Montgomery Counties, Maryland, and Arlington and Fairfax Counties, Virginia, with the city of Alexandria, Virginia, with the city of Falls Church, Virginia, and with incorporated or unincorporated fire departments, fire companies, and organizations of firemen in such counties and cities, in order to establish and carry into effect a plan to provide mutual aid, through the furnishing of fire-fighting personnel and equipment, by and for the District of Columbia and such counties and cities, for the extinguishment of fires and for the preservation of life and property in emergencies, in the District and in such counties and cities.

Mutual-aid fire protection for District of Columbia, etc.

SEC. 2. The District of Columbia shall not enter into any such agreement unless the agreement provides that each of the parties to such agreement shall waive any and all claims against all the other parties thereto which may arise out of their activities outside their respective jurisdictions under such agreement.

Waiver of claims.

SEC. 3. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to make available to the Federal Government personnel and equipment of the Fire Department of the District to extinguish fires, and to save lives, on property of the Federal Government in Prince Georges and Montgomery Counties, Maryland; Arlington and Fairfax Counties, Virginia; and the city of Alexandria, Virginia; and the city of Falls Church, Virginia.

Availability of D. C. personnel and equipment.

SEC. 4. For the purposes of the Act of September 1, 1916, as amended and supplemented (D. C. Code, 1940 edition, secs. 4-501—4-517), service performed by any officer or member of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia under any mutual-aid agreement entered into by the District pursuant to this Act, service performed by any officer or member of the Fire Department of the District of Columbia at any other city, area, municipality, or other location where they shall have
