[CHAPTER 769]

JOINT RESOLUTION

Providing for recognition and endorsement of the California World Progress Exposition.

August 21, 1950
[H. J. Res. 434]
[Public Law 726]

Whereas the city of San Diego, California, with formal approval and endorsement of the State of California, has stated its intention to build and present the California World Progress Exposition in the year 1953; and

Whereas, in 1915-1916 and again in 1935-1936, the city of San Diego did successfully hold international expositions that contributed to the development of the Nation and the Western Empire; and

Whereas the city of San Diego has, since 1915, perpetuated, maintained, and continually improved the buildings, grounds, landscaping, and facilities in which said expositions were held; and

Whereas said facilities have been supplemented by the people of San Diego and placed in readiness and are available for the presentation of the California World Progress Exposition in 1953; and

Whereas the California World Progress Exposition will define the economic and political “freedoms of choice” enjoyed under our democratic system, and will demonstrate these freedoms of choice through exhibits and events portraying better designs for living in the United States and everywhere in the world: Therefore be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President is authorized and requested, by proclamation or in such other manner as he may deem proper, to grant recognition to the California World Progress Exposition, its date, theme, and purpose, and to invite the participation of foreign nations in the celebration.

California World
Progress Exposition.

Approved August 21, 1950.
