

credits relating to the construction and operation and maintenance of the Colorado River front work and levee system adjacent to the Yuma Federal irrigation project in Arizona and California; and

(b) A credit to and on behalf of Imperial Irrigation District of California to be applied against the next succeeding annual payments as the same become due and payable from said district to the United States under any repayment contract by and between Imperial Irrigation District and the United States in an amount not greater than 80 per centum of such items of construction, operation, and maintenance costs heretofore paid or incurred by said district for flood-protection works, including among others, levees, railroads, quarries, river rectification works for flood-control purposes, and appurtenant works and facilities, in, along, or adjacent to the Colorado River in Arizona, California, and Lower California, Mexico, as shall be determined and found to be equitable by the American Commissioner of the International Boundary and Water Commission, United States and Mexico, but in no event shall the total credit exceed $3,000,000.

SEC. 2. Any other costs and charges allocable or assignable to the Yuma project and not repayable under existing contracts, under water-right applications heretofore or hereafter filed, nor otherwise recoverable, all as may be determined from time to time in any instance by the Secretary of the Interior shall, less applicable credits, be non-reimbursable, and the Secretary, in his discretion, may declare any lands temporarily suspended from a paying status at the date of this enactment to be permanently unproductive, and may adjust the balance of individual construction charge accounts accordingly: Provided, That such adjustment shall not include any refund or credit for payment theretofore made on account of lands so declared permanently unproductive.

Adjustments.

AN ACT

To amend section 4311, Revised Statutes (46 U. S. C. 251).

September 2, 1950
[H. R. 9134]
[Public Law 751]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 4311 of the Revised Statutes (46 U. S. C. 251), be amended as follows:

After the word "fisheries" add: "Except as otherwise provided by treaty or convention to which the United States is a party, no foreign-flag vessel shall, whether documented as a cargo vessel or otherwise, land in a port of the United States its catch of fish taken on board such vessels on the high seas or fish products processed therefrom, or any fish or fish products taken on board such vessel on the high seas from a vessel engaged in fishing operations or in the processing of fish or fish products."

the projects or activities for which funds would be made available by the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1951 (H. R. 9526, 81st Cong.) to the extent and in accord with the terms provided for by said Act as passed by the House of Representatives on August 26, 1950.

SEC. 2. Appropriations and authority made available by this Act shall remain available until the enactment into law of the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1951, or September 30, 1950, whichever first occurs.

SEC. 3. Expenditures from appropriations and funds made available pursuant to this joint resolution shall be charged to the applicable appropriations or funds whenever the Supplemental Appropriation Act, 1951, is enacted into law.

Approved September 2, 1950.

[CHAPTER 848]

AN ACT

To repeal the prohibition against the filling of a vacancy in the office of district judge for the district of Delaware.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the second judgeship for the district of Delaware provided for by the Act entitled "An Act authorizing the appointment of an additional judge for the district of Delaware", approved July 24, 1946 (60 Stat. 654), shall hereafter be a permanent judgeship. Accordingly, in order to incorporate the permanent provisions of the said Act into the United States Code, as a continuation of existing law and not as a new enactment, title 28, United States Code, section 133, is amended to read as follows with respect to the district of Delaware :

*	*	*	*	*	*	*	*

SEC. 2. The Act entitled "An Act authorizing the appointment of an additional judge for the district of Delaware", approved July 24, 1946 (60 Stat. 654), is hereby repealed but its repeal shall not affect the tenure of office of the incumbent of the judgeship created by such Act who shall henceforth hold his position under title 28, United States Code, section 133, as amended by this Act.

Approved September 5, 1950.
