AN ACT

To provide for the acquisition, construction, expansion, rehabilitation, conversion, and joint utilization of facilities necessary for the administration and training of units of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States, and for other purposes.

September 11, 1950
[H. R. 8594]
[Public Law 783]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the “National Defense Facilities Act of 1950”.

SEC. 2. It is the purpose of this Act to make provisions for—

(a) the acquisition by purchase, lease, transfer, construction, expansion, rehabilitation, or conversion, of such facilities as may be necessary for the proper development, training, operation, and maintenance of units of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States; and

(b) the joint utilization of such facilities by units of two or more such Reserve components, and in time of war or national emergency by such units and other units of the Armed Forces of the United States or any other use by the Federal Government, to the greatest practicable extent in the interest of efficiency and economy.

Acquisition, etc., of facilities.

SEC. 3. Subject to the provisions of section 4 of this Act, the Secretary of Defense may, in an amount not to exceed $250,000,000 over a period of the next five fiscal years, after consultation with the respective Armed Services Committees of the Congress—

(a) acquire by purchase, lease, or transfer, to construct, expand, rehabilitate, or convert and equip such facilities as he shall determine to be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this Act;

(b) contribute to any State such funds as he shall determine to be necessary to expand, rehabilitate, or convert facilities owned by such State to the extent required for the joint utilization of such facilities; and

(c) contribute to any State such funds for the acquisition, construction, expansion, rehabilitation, or conversion by such State of such additional facilities as he shall determine to have been made essential by any increase in strength of the National Guard of the United States or the Air National Guard of the United States.

SEC. 4. (a) No expenditure or contribution shall be made for any facility pursuant to this Act until it shall have been determined by the Secretary of Defense that—

(1) the number of units of Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States located or to be located in the community or area within which such facility is to be provided does not exceed the number which reasonably can be expected to be maintained at authorized strength, taking into account the number of persons residing in such community or area who are qualified for membership in such Reserve units; and

(2) the plan or program under which such facility is to be provided makes the maximum practicable provision for the joint utilization of such facilities.

Restriction on withdrawal of National Guard units.

(b) No unit of the National Guard of the United States or the Air National Guard of the United States shall be withdrawn from any community or area, nor shall the location of any such unit be changed, pursuant to any authority conferred by this Act, until the governor of the State within which such unit is situated shall have been consulted with regard to such withdrawal or change of location.

Title to property.
Authority of Secretary of Defense.

(c) Title to all real or personal property acquired under section 3 (a) of this Act shall be vested in the United States. The Secretary of Defense is hereby authorized, after consultation on matters of policy with the Armed Services Committees of the Congress, to administer, operate, maintain, and equip all facilities constructed, expanded, rehabilitated, or converted pursuant to section 3 (a) hereof and facilities otherwise acquired and being used for the purposes of this Act, and may (1) permit any such facility to be used from time to time by persons or organizations other than members or units of the armed services under such leases or other agreements as the Secretary shall deem appropriate, and (2) cover the payments received under such leases or agreements into the Treasury to the credit of the appropriation or appropriations from which the cost of maintenance (including providing of utilities and services) is paid, but the Secretary shall at no time permit any disposition or use to be made of such facilities which will interfere with their use for the administration and training of units of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States, or in time of war or national emergency by other units of the Armed Forces of the United States or any other use by the Federal Government.

(d) Each contribution made pursuant to section 3 (b) or 3 (c) of this Act shall be subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of Defense, after consultation with the Armed Services Committees of the Congress, shall deem necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Act: Provided, That except as agreed at the time the contribution is made the facilities provided through contributions made pursuant to section 3 (c) of this Act shall be subject to joint utilization only to the extent deemed practicable by the State concerned. No contribution shall be made under section 3 (c) for any facility in an amount exceeding 75 per centum of the cost of the additional or improved facilities to be constructed: And provided further, That for the purpose of such computation the amount to be contributed by any State shall be exclusive of the cost or market value of any real estate which may be contributed by the State concerned for the purposes of section 3 (c) of this Act.

Contributions.

(e) Each State which shall have acquired, constructed, expanded, rehabilitated, or converted any facility with any funds contributed under sections 3 (b) and 3 (c) of this Act may (1) permit such facility to be used from time to time by persons or organizations other than members or units of the armed services under such leases or other agreements as such State shall deem appropriate, and (2) apply the sums received under such leases or agreements to defray in whole or in part the cost of maintaining such facility, but, except as agreed at the time such contribution is made, or by subsequent modifications of the agreement, at no time shall such State permit any disposition or use to be made of such facility which will interfere with its use for the administration and training of units of the Reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States, or in time of war or national emergency of other units of the Armed Forces of the United States or any other use by the Federal Government.

State permit to use facilities, etc.

SEC. 5. The Secretary of Defense may delegate all or any part of the authority conferred or the duties imposed upon him by this Act, without relieving himself of the responsibility therefor, to such department, agency, officer, or officers of the Department of Defense as he may designate from time to time.

Delegation of authority.

SEC. 6. All construction, expansion, rehabilitation, or conversion of facilities pursuant to the provisions of this Act may be performed under the supervision of the Chief, Corps of Engineers, or the Chief, Bureau of Yards and Docks.

Supervision of construction, etc.

SEC. 7. As used in this Act, the terms—
