

GIRLS ORGANIZE SURE 'NOUGH BALL CLUB— KNOW HOW TO PLAY

Ida Schnall, Captain of the Feminine
Baseball Club at Los Angeles.

A feminine baseball club composed of girls who really understand the game has been organized by motion picture actresses at Los Angeles.

Daily tryouts for places on the team are being held, suits and equipment have been ordered and a schedule of games with similar organizations throughout the state is being made.

Miss Ida Schnall, as captain and manager, has her hands full attending to the various details of the new club and looking over the fair recruits, who are besieging the diamond in an attempt to land on the team. She was formerly captain of the New York Female Giants.

Miss Schnall, who is an expert swimmer and diver, came west from
