- Is this an RDA authority record, an AACR2 authority record, or could it be either one?

AACR2

- If it is either RDA or AACR2, what characteristics identify it as RDA or AACR2?

Abbreviation “b.” in the 1xx and 4xx $d – RDA 9.3.2.3 would spell out the word “born”; LCPS 9.3.2.3 instructs the use of a hyphen over the spelled out “born”

- Is this an RDA authority record, an AACR2 authority record, or could it be either one?

Could be either RDA or AACR2

- If it is either RDA or AACR2, what characteristics identify it as RDA or AACR2?

Fuller form would only be added under RDA and the applied LCPS in case of conflict; in AACR2 and the LCRI, fuller form would be added when known. Without checking for conflict here, it is safe to say that the 1xx could be either AACR2 or RDA. The addition of the 046 and 3xx fields is permitted in both AACR2 authority records as well as in RDA authority records.

Assume conflict with Rose, Edward J.

- Is this an RDA authority record, an AACR2 authority record, or could it be either one?

Given the conflict situation, it could be either RDA or AACR2

- If it is either RDA or AACR2, what characteristics identify it as RDA or AACR2?

RDA 9.2.2.9.5 considers words (e.g., Jr., Sr., fils, père) and numbers (e.g., III) indicating relationship as part of the preferred name—added in the absence of conflict. AACR2 would only add the term in the case of conflict.
