SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all suits hereafter to be instituted in either of said courts, not of a local nature, shall be commenced in a court of the district where the defendant resides; but if there be more than one defendant, and they reside in different districts, the plaintiff may sue in either, and send duplicate writs to the other defendants, on which the plaintiff or his attorney shall endorse that the writ thus sent is a copy of a writ sued out of the proper district; and the said writs, when executed and returned into the office from which they issued, shall constitute one and the same suit, and be proceeded in accordingly.

Suits hereafter instituted to be commenced in a court of the district where the defendant resides; but if more than one defendant, plaintiff may sue in the district of either.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the judge of the said District Court shall appoint a clerk of the District Court of the northern district, who shall reside and keep his office, and records and documents appertaining thereto, at the place of holding said court. And the said clerk shall be entitled to the same fees allowed by law to the clerks of the District Courts in the other district in said State, perform the like duties, and be subject to the same liabilities and penalties.

Judge to appoint a clerk for northern district.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the district attorney and the marshal of the southern district of Georgia shall respectively perform the duties of the district attorney and marshal of the northern district. And the said marshal shall keep an office at Marietta; and his charges for mileage, in the execution of the duties of his office within the said northern district, shall be computed from Marietta.

District attorney and marshal of southern district to perform duties of district attorney and marshal for northern district.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said District Court for the northern district of Georgia, in addition to the ordinary jurisdiction and powers of a District Court of the United States, shall, within the limits of the said northern district, have jurisdiction of all causes, except appeals and writs of error, which now are or hereafter may be made cognizable in a Circuit Court of the United States, and shall proceed therein in the same manner as a Circuit Court.

Jurisdiction of District Court for northern district.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That appeals, and writs of error in the nature of appeals, shall lie and may be sued from the said District Court at Marietta to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Appeals, &c., to lie to Supreme Court of the United States.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That, should the judge of the District Courts aforesaid fail to attend at the time and place of holding the court for the said northern district, at any one of its terms aforesaid, before the close of the fourth day of any such term, the business pending in any such court shall stand adjourned to the next term thereof.

In case judge should fail to attend, business to stand adjourned.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That all laws contravening or opposed to the provisions of this act be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

Conflicting laws repealed.
