CHAP. CCXCIV. — An Act to prescribe the Mode of Settling the Accounts of the Clerk of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia.

July 28, 1866.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the clerk of the supreme court of the District of Columbia shall pay into the treasury of the United States all the earnings of his office, over and above the necessary expenses of the same and his own compensation.

Clerk of supreme court of District of Columbia to pay into treasury all excess of earnings.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That his accounts of said earnings and expenses shall be adjusted by the regular auditor of the court, or by a special auditor to be appointed by the court for the purpose, within thirty days after the first day of January and July, every year; and the auditor shall immediately report his adjustment to the court, with such exceptions thereto as the clerk shall, within four days after the adjustment reported, take and file with the auditor.

Accounts of earnings and expenses, how to be adjusted.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the court shall pronounce such decree upon said report and exceptions as may seem to it equitable and just; and said decree shall be final, and be binding upon the United States and the clerk. If, upon such account, a balance be found due from the clerk to the United States, the court shall order payment by the clerk into the treasury, and enforce its order by execution, process of contempt, or otherwise; and, if the clerk refuse to pay the money, shall remove him from office. If a balance be found due from the United States to the clerk, the same shall be paid upon presenting to the treasurer a copy of the decree, duly certified.

Court to pass upon report of auditor.
Account, how to be settled.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the clerk shall, as in other cases of judgments to which the United States is a party, furnish the solicitor of the treasury a copy of the decree immediately after it is pronounced.

Clerk to furnish copy of decree to solicitor of treasury.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That all other modes of accounting for the earnings of said office are hereby repealed.
