CHAP. 18.—An act authorizing the Blue Hill National Bank of Dorchester, Massachusetts, to change its location and name.

Blue Hill National Bank.
Change of name
and location.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Blue Hill National Bank of Dorchester, now located in Boston, in the commonwealth of Massachusetts, is hereby authorized to change its location to the town of Milton, in the county of Norfolk, in said commonwealth, whenever the stockholders representing two-thirds of the capital stock of said bank, at a meeting for that purpose, determine to make such change; and the president and cashier shall execute a certificate under the corporate seal of the bank, specifying such determination, and shall cause the same to be recorded in the office of the Comptroller of the Currency; and thereupon such change of location shall be effected, and the operations of discount and deposit of said bank shall be carried on in the said town of Milton.

SEC. 2. That nothing in this act contained shall be so construed as in any manner to release the said bank from any liability, or affect any action or proceeding in law in which said bank may be a party or interested; and when such change shall have been determined upon as aforesaid, notice thereof and of such change shall be published in two weekly papers, one in the county of Suffolk and one in the county of Norfolk, in said commonwealth of Massachusetts, not less than four weeks.

SEC. 3. That whenever the location of said bank shall have been changed from said city of Boston to said town of Milton in accordance with the first section of this act, its name shall be changed to the Blue Hill National Bank of Milton, if the board of directors of said bank shall accept the new name by resolution of the board, and cause a copy of such resolution, duly authenticated, to be filed with the Comptroller of the Currency.

SEC. 4. That all the debts, demands, liabilities, rights, privileges, and powers of the Blue Hill National Bank of Dorchester shall devolve upon the Blue Hill National Bank of Milton, whenever such change of name is effected.

Approved, January 13, 1881.

CHAP. 19.—An act for the relief of certain settlers on restored railroad lands.

Jan. 13, 1881.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all persons who shall have settled and made valuable and permanent improvements upon any odd numbered section of land within any railroad withdrawal in good faith and with the permission or license of the railroad company for whose benefit the same shall have been made, and with the expectation of purchasing of such company the land so settled upon, which land so settled upon and improved, may, for any cause, be restored to the public domain, and who, at the time of such restoration, may not be entitled to enter and acquire title to such land under the pre-emption, homestead, or timber-culture acts of the United States, shall be permitted, at any time within three months after such restoration, and under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of the General Land Office may prescribe, to purchase not to exceed one hundred and sixty acres in extent of the same by legal sub-divisions, at the price of two dollars and fifty cents per acre, and to receive patents therefor.

Relief of settlers on restored railroad lands.
