FOR CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS.

Claims of churches and schools.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he hereby is, authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the following sums, the amount appropriated to be accepted in full satisfaction of each claim before payment is made:

German Evangelical Church, Martinsburg, W. Va.

To the trustees of the German Evangelical Church, at Martinsburg, West Virginia, the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, on account of the destruction of their church building and its furniture on the seventeenth day of February, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, while the same was in the possession of a portion of the military forces of the United States, and through their carelessness.

Methodist Episcopal Church, Martinsburg, W. Va.

To the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Martinsburg, West Virginia, the sum of one thousand eight hundred and fifty dollars, for use and occupation of said church by the Federal troops from March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, to April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five.

Saint Joseph's Catholic Church, Martinsburg, W. Va.

To Bishop Augustine Vandevyver, trustee of Saint Joseph's Catholic Church, at Martinsburg, West Virginia, the sum of two thousand eight hundred and eighty dollars, for the use and occupancy of said church by the Army of the United States during the war of the rebellion.

Cumberland Female College.

To the Cumberland Female College, of McMinnville, Tennessee, the sum of five thousand dollars, for the use, occupation, and consumption of its property for hospital and other army purposes during the late war of eighteen hundred and sixty-one to eighteen hundred and sixty-five by the military authority of the United States.

Richmond College.

To Richmond College, located at Richmond, Virginia, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, to reimburse said college for the occupation of its buildings and grounds by United States troops and officers for the period of eight months, said occupation commencing in April, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for injury to and destruction of the buildings, the apparatus, libraries, and other property of said college by said troops and officers: Provided, That no money be so paid except upon accounts of such occupation, injury, and destruction, and the damage caused thereby, duly verified and proven.

Proviso.
Proof required.

Stewart College.

To Stewart College (now the Southwestern Presbyterian University), located at Clarksville, Tennessee, not exceeding twenty-five thousand and nineteen dollars and ninety-six cents, for the use and occupation of the building and grounds and for consumption of materials, for injury to its buildings, apparatus, cabinets, and other property injured or destroyed by troops of the United States during the late war, or such sum below that amount as the accounting officers of the Treasury Department, under direction of the Secretary, may find to be duly proven on account of such injury and destruction, use, occupation, and consumption of the building and grounds of said college.

Macon City, Mo., Catholic Church.

To the person or persons authorized to represent the Catholic Church at Macon City, Missouri, the sum of seven hundred and twenty-five dollars, and the acceptance of said sum paid under the provisions of this Act shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of every kind and nature for the use and occupation of said church during the civil war.

Saint Charles College.
Investigation of claim for military occupation.

That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to cause to be investigated by the Quartermaster's Department of the United States Army the circumstances, character, and extent of the alleged use and occupation by the United States military authorities, for Government purposes, during the late war, of the college buildings and grounds of Saint Charles College, in Saint Charles County, Missouri, the actual value of such use and occupation, and certify to the Secretary of the Treasury what amount, if any, is equitably due to said Saint Charles College from the United States as the reasonable value of such use and occupation; and that the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay to said Saint Charles College, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the amount, if any, so found to be due from the United States; and the acceptance by said Saint Charles College of any sum paid under the provisions of this Act shall be in full satisfaction of all claims of every kind and nature for said use and occupation, and all damages resulting therefrom.

Payment of amount found due.

STATE CLAIMS.

State claims.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, directed to readjust, and pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, all claims of the States of Virginia, South Carolina, and the city of Baltimore for and on account of advances and expenditures made by said States and the city of Baltimore in the war of eighteen hundred and twelve to eighteen hundred and fifteen, with Great Britain; and in computing interest on said advances the Secretary of the Treasury shall apply the following rule, as applied by Act of Congress to the claim of the State of Maryland, namely: Interest shall be calculated up to the time of any payment made. To this interest the payment shall be first applied, and if it exceeds the interest due the balance shall be applied to diminish the principal; if the payment fall short of the interest, the balance of interest shall not be added to the principal so as to produce interest. Second, interest shall be allowed on such sums only on which the State either paid interest or lost interest by the transfer of an interest-bearing fund, or for such length of time only as the State or city paid or lost interest aforesaid: Provided, That in the settlement of these claims any bonds or other evidences of debt of either of the said States or of said city of Baltimore held by the United States on any account whatever shall be credited as offsets to the United States, as of the dates, respectively, at which the accounts will be completely or most nearly balanced, and the balance found due on such date, after deducting the principal and interest on said bonds or other evidences of debt to such date, shall be paid to or by said States and city of Baltimore, and the said bonds or other evidences of debt shall be returned to the States issuing the same.

Payment to Virginia, South Carolina, and Baltimore. Advances, etc., war of 1812.

Interest.

Provido. Deductions for bonds.

That the Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to settle the mutual account, heretofore stated, between the United States and the State of Florida, under the authority of an Act of Congress, according to the mode of stating the same, found near the foot of the third page of the letter of the Secretary submitting his report, dated December sixteenth, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine, published as Executive Document Numbered Sixty-eight, House of Representatives, Fifty-first Congress, first session, by continuing the computation of interest upon the principal on both sides to the date of settlement, and ascertaining the balance due the said State. And the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to surrender to the governor of the State of Florida the bonds of said State held by the United States which are included in such statement; and such sum of money is hereby appropriated as is necessary to pay to the State of Florida whatever balance is found due said State: Provided, That in further computing the said mutual account from the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety (at which time it was stated by authority of an Act of Congress), no greater rate of interest shall be allowed the State of Florida than said State has paid, is obligated to pay, or has lost in connection with said account.
