SEC. 2. That any bridge authorized to be constructed under this Act shall be a lawful structure and shall be recognized and known as a post route, and shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of other post-roads in the United States, upon which also no higher charge shall be made for the transmission over the same of the mails or for through passengers or freight passing over said bridge and approaches than the rate per mile paid for transportation over the railroads leading to said bridge, and equal privileges in the use of said bridge shall be granted to all telegraph and telephone companies, and the United States shall have the right of way for postal, telegraph, and telephone purposes without charge therefor across said bridge and approaches. Said bridge shall be built and located under and subject to such regulations for the security of navigation as the Secretary of War shall prescribe; and to secure that object the said county of Trigg shall submit to the Secretary of War, for his examination and approval, a design and drawings of the bridge and a map of the location giving for the space of one mile above and one mile below the proposed location the high and low water lines upon the banks of the river, the direction and strength of the current at all stages of the water, with the soundings accurately showing the bed of the stream and the location of any other bridge or bridges, such map to be sufficiently in detail to enable the Secretary of War to judge of the proper location of said bridge, and shall furnish such other information as may be required for full and satisfactory understanding of the subject. And until the said plans and location are approved by the Secretary of War, the bridge shall not be commenced or built, and should any change be made in the plan of said bridge during the process of construction, or after completion, such changes shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of War, and any changes which the Secretary of War may require at any time in the said structure shall be promptly made by the said county of Trigg, State of Kentucky, at its own expense. A schedule of all tolls to be charged for passage, either for wagons or foot passengers, shall be approved by the Secretary of War.

Jamestown Ter-Centennial celebration.
Preamble.

Whereas it is desirable to commemorate in a fitting and appropriate manner the birth of the American nation, the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the American continent, made at Jamestown, Virginia, on the thirteenth day of May, sixteen hundred and seven, in order that the great events of American history which have resulted therefrom may be accentuated to the present and future generations of American citizens; and

Whereas that section of the Commonwealth of Virginia where the first permanent settlement was made is conspicuous in the history of the American nation by reason of the vital and momentous events which have there taken place in the colonial, Revolutionary, and civil war eras of the nation, including not only the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people, but also the scene of the capitulation of Lord Cornwallis at Yorktown, and the scene of the first naval conflict between armor-clad vessels, the Monitor and Merrimac: Therefore

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be inaugurated in the year nineteen hundred and seven, on and near the waters of Hampton Roads, in the State of Virginia, as herein provided, an international naval, marine and military celebration, beginning May thirteenth, and ending not later than November first, nineteen hundred and seven.

SEC. 2. In furtherance of the object set forth in section one of this Act there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be available until expended, the sum of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be expended under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury and upon vouchers to be approved by him and apportioned as follows: Fifty thousand dollars for the expenditures which shall be made by the commission hereinafter created and not herein specifically provided for, in preparing for and conducting said celebration, including the expenses of said commission. One hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars for the official entertainment of foreign military and naval representatives, of which amount one hundred thousand dollars shall be expended by the commander in chief of the North Atlantic Fleet, under the supervision of the Secretary of the Navy, and twenty-five thousand dollars thereof by the Chief of Staff of the Army under the supervision of the Secretary of War. Fifty thousand dollars for a permanent monument upon the place of the first permanent English settlement at Jamestown, Virginia, and in commemoration thereof; the site and design to be selected by the Commission hereinafter named, subject to the approval of the President: Provided, That the site be donated to the United States by proper deed. Fifteen thousand dollars for permanent moorings for the use of vessels participating in said celebration at Hampton Roads, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Navy. Ten thousand dollars for exhibiting on the scene of the engagement between the Monitor and Merrimac one or more of the old monitors of that period in order to illustrate the progress of naval construction.

SEC. 3. The President of the United States is hereby authorized to make proclamation of said celebration, setting forth the event to be commemorated, inviting foreign nations to participate by the sending of their naval vessels and such representation of their military organizations as may be practicable, and to have such portions of our Army and Navy assembled there during the said celebration as may be compatible with the public service. And the President is also authorized to invite participation in said celebration by the militia of the several States, but at their own expense.

SEC. 4. And the President of the United States is hereby authorized to constitute a Commission to consist of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Secretary of War, and the Secretary of the Navy, to be known as the Jamestown Ter-Centennial Commission. The said Commission
