

tenant directly, and if such return is made within such period the owner shall not become liable under the provisions of section 112 of this Act. An owner who has obtained a judgment against a tenant for, or which includes, such rent or charge in excess of the amount fixed in such a determination of the commission shall move to vacate such judgment to the amount of such excess, within sixty days after this section takes effect. In case such motion is not made and such owner does not exercise reasonable diligence to have such judgment vacated, such judgment, to the amount of such excess, shall be null and void.

"SEC. 124. (a) Any violation of this Act or of any order of the commission, committed before the termination of this Act may, after such termination, be prosecuted by and in the name of the Attorney General in lieu of the commission in the same manner and with the same effect as if this Act had not been terminated.

"(b) In the case of (1) any proceeding begun under the provisions of section 114 before the termination of this Act, or (2) any proceeding on appeal from a determination of the commission begun before the termination of this Act, such proceeding may, after such termination, be continued in the same manner with the same effect as if this Act had not been terminated, and all powers and duties in respect to such proceedings vested in the commission by this Act shall for the purposes of such proceedings be vested in the Attorney General.

"(c) Any right or obligation based upon any provision of this Act or upon any order of the commission, accrued prior to the termination of this Act may, after the termination of this Act, be enforced in the same manner and with the same effect as if this Act had not been terminated.

"(d) The Attorney General may, after the termination of this Act, appoint the attorney last appointed by the commission under the provisions of section 103 to assist in the enforcement of this Act. Such attorney shall continue to receive compensation for such services at the rate of $5,000 per annum, payable monthly."

SEC. 5. That the provisions of this Act, except section 2, shall take effect upon the enactment of the Act. Section 2 shall take effect on and after October 22, 1921.

Approved, August 24, 1921.

CHAP. 92.—An Act To Amend the Act entitled "An Act to establish standard weights and measures for the District of Columbia; to define the duties of the superintendent of weights, measures, and markets of the District of Columbia; and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1921.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act entitled "An Act to establish standard weights and measures for the District of Columbia; to define the duties of the superintendent of weights, measures, and markets of the District of Columbia; and for other purposes," approved March 3, 1921, be, and the same is hereby, amended by striking out section 13 and inserting the following in lieu thereof:

"SEC. 13. That the standard loaf of bread manufactured for sale, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in the District of Columbia shall weigh one pound avoirdupois, but bread may also be manufactured for sale, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in loaves of one-half pound, one pound and a half, or multiples of one pound, but shall not be manufactured for sale, sold, offered, or exposed for sale in other than the aforesaid weights.
