(c) The Attorney General is authorized to designate any officer or employee of the Department of Justice to act as Director of Prohibition during the absence or disability of the Director of Prohibition, or in the event that there is no Director of Prohibition.

Acting Director to be designated by Attorney General.

Duties of personnel.

(d) The personnel of the Bureau of Prohibition shall perform such duties, in the District of Columbia or elsewhere, as the Attorney General shall prescribe.

Enforcement division created in Treasury, Bureau of Prohibition.

SEC. 3. (a) The Secretary of the Treasury and the Attorney General by joint regulation shall, as soon as may be after the passage and approval of this Act, create an enforcement division in the Bureau of Prohibition in the Treasury Department and place in and apportion to such enforcement division so much of the personnel, appropriations, records, files, and property of said bureau as they shall agree upon.

Transfer of personnel to Bureau of Prohibition, Department of Justice.

Ante, p. 342.

Post, p. 1071.

Proviso.
Dismissal of officials violating prohibition laws.

(b) All attorneys, officers, and employees of the enforcement division of the Bureau of Prohibition in the Treasury Department are hereby transferred, without change in classification or compensation, to the Bureau of Prohibition in the Department of Justice, but such attorneys shall not be subject to the provisions of the civil service laws: Provided, That all officers and employees of the Bureau of Prohibition who the Attorney General finds have heretofore violated or shall hereafter violate any penal provisions of the Federal prohibition laws shall be dismissed.

Enforcement division records, appropriations etc., transferred to Bureau in Department of Justice.

(c) All records, files, and property (including office equipment) of the enforcement division of the Bureau of Prohibition, and the portion of the unexpended appropriations for the Bureau of Prohibition in the Treasury Department apportioned for the use of such enforcement division, are transferred to the Bureau of Prohibition in the Department of Justice.

Availability of transferred appropriations.

(d) Appropriations transferred by this Act shall be available for expenditure by the bureau to which they are transferred as if such bureau had been named in the Act making the appropriations.

Duties of Attorney General.

SEC. 4. (a) The following duties are imposed upon the Attorney General:

Investigate violations of prohibition laws and penal provisions of internal revenue Act.

(1) The investigation of violations of the National Prohibition Act, and violations of the internal revenue laws if a violation of such Act is involved, for the purpose of enforcing the penal provisions of such Act and laws.

Apprehend and prosecute offenders.

(2) The apprehension and prosecution of offenders against such Act, and offenders against the internal revenue laws if a violation of such Act is involved.

Seizures, forfeitures, compromises, etc.
Vol. 45, p. 882.
U. S. C., Supp. IV, p. 416.

(3) The making of all seizures and enforcement of all forfeitures under such Act, or under the internal revenue laws if a violation of such Act is involved; and the remission or mitigation under section 709 of the Revenue Act of 1928 (United States Code, Supplement III, title 26, section 2709), of any such forfeiture under the internal revenue laws; and Determination of liability for taxes, etc.

(4) The determination of liability for internal revenue taxes and penalties if a violation of the National Prohibition Act is involved, and the institution of suits upon, and compromise (before or after suit is brought) of, any cause of action under such Act or under the internal revenue laws if a violation of such Act is involved; but all assessments and collections shall be made under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury, in accordance with existing law.

Assessments and collections under Secretary of the Treasury.

Administrative action, etc., as to bonds and permits, by Secretary of the Treasury.

(b) The duty to make all investigations necessary in or incidental to administrative action with respect to permits and bonds given in connection therewith and the power to make seizures and arrests for violations discovered in the course of such investigations shall remain with the Secretary of the Treasury, but the Attorney General shall make such investigations as he deems necessary to prevent violations of, or for the purpose of enforcing the penal provisions of, the National Prohibition Act.

Enforcing penal provisions of prohibition laws by Attorney General.

(c) The power under section 34 of Title II of the National Prohibition Act (United States Code, title 27, section 51) to require copies of records and reports, the power to inspect records and reports kept or filed under the provisions of such Act, the power to swear out warrants for offenders against such Act, and offenders against the internal revenue laws if a violation of such Act is involved, and the power and protection of section 28 of Title II of such Act (United States Code, title 27, section 45), are conferred upon the Attorney General, but such powers and protection shall also remain vested in the Secretary of the Treasury. All other rights, privileges, powers, and duties now conferred and imposed upon the Secretary of the Treasury and the officers and employees of the Bureau of Prohibition in the Treasury Department incident to the performance of the duties imposed upon the Attorney General by this Act, including the bringing of suits to enjoin nuisances under the National Prohibition Act, are transferred to and conferred and imposed upon the Attorney General.

Power to inspect records, swear out warrants, conferred upon Attorney General. Vol. 41, p. 317. U. S. C., p. 859.

Other rights, etc., conferred.

(d) The Attorney General is authorized to confer or impose any of the rights, privileges, protection, powers, and duties conferred or imposed upon him by this Act upon any of the officers or employees of the Bureau of Prohibition or any other officer or employee of the Department of Justice.

Duties, etc., may be imposed on other officials.

SEC. 5. (a) The Attorney General and the Secretary of the Treasury shall jointly prescribe all regulations under this Act and the National Prohibition Act relating to permits, and the form of all applications, bonds, permits, records, and reports under such Acts: Provided, That all regulations relating to the Bureau of Prohibition in the Department of Justice shall be made by the Attorney General.

Regulations to be prescribed by Attorney General and Secretary of the Treasury jointly.

(b) Regulations in force prior to the effective date of this Act shall not be in force thereafter unless prescribed and issued in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section; but the repeal of such regulations shall not have the effect of releasing or extinguishing any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred thereunder. Nothing in this Act shall affect the terms or conditions of any permit or bond given prior to the effective date of this Act.

Proviso. For Prohibition Bureau by Attorney General. Restriction as to prior regulations.

No penalty released.

SEC. 6. (a) The Attorney General shall prescribe regulations for the filing by the Attorney General with the Secretary of the Treasury copies of reports of violations of the National Prohibition Act, from which civil liability for taxes and penalties has accrued under such Act or the internal revenue laws, or which may be the basis of action with respect to any permit.

Filing of copies of reports of violations of prohibition laws on which civil liability accrued.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by regulations, the Secretary of the Treasury shall file with the Attorney General complete reports of all proceedings for revocation of permits and copies of all applications for permits to be issued for more than ninety days (including renewals and amendments thereof to extend for more than ninety days) under the National Prohibition Act and regulations promulgated thereunder; and, except as otherwise provided by regulations, no such permit shall be granted, renewed, or amended within ten days after copy of application therefor has been filed with the Attorney General.

Proceedings for revocation of permits, and applications, to be filed with Attorney General.

Time restricted in granting permits.

SEC. 7. The Attorney General may, if he considers it advisable, act jointly with the Secretary of the Treasury in passing upon any application for any permit or any renewal or amendment thereof, which may be issued under the National Prohibition Act, and in such cases no permit shall be granted, renewed, or amended without their joint approval. In the event of a refusal of the permit, renewal, or amendment, the applicant may have a review of the decision before a court of equity as provided in sections 5 and 6, Title II, of the Joint action of Attorney General and Secretary of the Treasury on applications for permits, etc.
