SEC. 682. THE PROBATE MAY BE CONTESTED WITHIN ONE YEAR.—When a will has been admitted to probate, any person interested may, at any time within one year after such probate, contest the same or the validity of the will. For that purpose he must file in the division of the court in which the will was proved a petition in writing, containing his allegations against the validity of the will or against the sufficiency of the proof, and praying that the probate may be revoked.

Citation to interested parties.

SEC. 683. CITATION TO BE ISSUED TO PARTIES INTERESTED.—Upon filing the petition, and within one year after such probate, a citation must be issued to the executor of the will, or to the administrator with the will annexed, and to all the legatees and devisees mentioned in the will, and heirs residing in the Canal Zone, so far as known to the petitioner or to their guardians, if any of them are minors, or to their personal representatives, if any of them are dead, requiring them to appear before the court on some day therein specified, to show cause why the probate of the will should not be revoked.

Hearing, on proof of service.

SEC. 684. THE HEARING HAD ON PROOF OF SERVICE.—At the time appointed for showing cause, or at any time to which the hearing is postponed, proof having been made of service of the citation upon all of the persons named therein, the court must proceed to try the issues of fact joined in the same manner as an original contest of a will.

SEC. 685. PETITIONS TO REVOKE PROBATE OF WILL TRIED BY JURY OR COURT; JUDGMENT, WHAT.—In all cases of petitions to revoke the probate of a will, wherein the original probate was granted without a contest, on written demand of either party, filed three days prior to the hearing, a trial by jury must be had, as in cases of the contest of an original petition to admit a will to probate. If, upon hearing the proofs of the parties, the jury shall find, or, if no jury is had, the court shall decide, that the will is for any reason invalid, or that it is not sufficiently proved to be the last will of the testator, the probate must be annulled and revoked.

Trial by jury or court.

Judgment thereon.

SEC. 686. ON REVOCATION OF PROBATE, POWERS OF EXECUTOR, AND SO FORTH, CEASE, BUT NOT LIABLE FOR ACTS IN GOOD FAITH.—Upon the revocation being made, the powers of the executor or administrator with the will annexed, must cease; but such executor or administrator shall not be liable for any act done in good faith previous to the revocation.

Powers of executor to cease on revocation of probate.

No liability for acts in good faith.

SEC. 687. COSTS AND EXPENSES, BY WHOM PAID.—The fees and expenses must be paid by the party contesting the validity or probate of the will, if the will or probate is confirmed. If the probate is revoked, the costs must be paid by the party who resisted the revocation, or out of the property of the decedent, as the court directs.

Costs and expenses.

SEC. 688. PROBATE, WHEN CONCLUSIVE; ONE YEAR AFTER REMOVAL OF DISABILITY GIVEN TO INFANTS AND OTHERS.—If no person, within one year after the probate of a will, contest the same or the validity thereof, the probate of the will is conclusive; saving to infants and persons of unsound mind, a like period of one year after their respective disabilities are removed.

Probate, when conclusive.

Saving period to infants and lunatics.

PROBATE OF LOST OR DESTROYED WILL

SEC. 689. PROOF OF LOST OR DESTROYED WILL TO BE TAKEN.—Whenever any will is lost or destroyed, the district court must take proof of the execution and validity thereof and establish the same; notice to all persons interested being first given, as prescribed in regard to proofs of wills in other cases. All the testimony given must be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses.

Lost or destroyed will.

Proof of.

SEC. 690. PROBATE OF WILLS LOST; PUBLIC CALAMITY.—No will shall be proved as a lost or destroyed will, unless the same is proved to have been in existence at the time of the death of the testator, or is shown to have been fraudulently or by public calamity destroyed in the lifetime of the testator, without his knowledge, or unless its provisions are clearly and distinctly proved by at least two credible witnesses: Provided, however, That if the testator be committed to any hospital for the insane in the Canal Zone and after such commitment his last will and testament be destroyed by public calamity, and the testator is never restored to competency, then after the death of the said testator, his said last will may be probated as though it were in existence at the time of the death of the testator.

Matter to be shown.

Proviso. Will destroyed when testator insane.

SEC. 691. TO BE CERTIFIED, RECORDED, AND LETTERS THEREON GRANTED.—When a lost will is established, the provisions thereof must be distinctly stated and certified by the judge, under his hand and seal of the court, and the certificate must be filed and recorded as other wills are filed and recorded, and letters testamentary or of administration, with the will annexed, must be issued thereon in the same manner as upon wills produced and duly proved. The testimony must be reduced to writing, signed, certified, and filed as in Certification and recordation.

Letters thereon granted.

Preservation of testimony.

other cases, and shall have the same effect as evidence as provided in section 676.

Restraint of injurious acts of executors, etc., during proceedings.

SEC. 692. COURT TO RESTRAIN INJURIOUS ACTS OF EXECUTORS OR ADMINISTRATORS DURING PROCEEDINGS TO PROVE LOST WILL.—If, before or during the pendency of an application to prove a lost or destroyed will, letters of administration are granted on the estate of the testator, or letters testamentary of any previous will of the testator are granted, the court may restrain the administrators or executors, so appointed, from any acts or proceedings which would be injurious to the legatees or devisees claiming under the lost or destroyed will.

Nuncupative will.

PROBATE OF NUNCUPATIVE WILL

Probate of.

SEC. 693. NUNCUPATIVE WILLS, WHEN AND HOW ADMITTED TO PROBATE.—Nuncupative wills may at any time, within six months after the testamentary words are spoken by the decedent, be admitted to probate, on petition and notice as provided in sections 658 to 671. The petition, in addition to the jurisdictional facts, must allege that the testamentary words or the substance thereof were reduced to writing within thirty days after they were spoken, which writing must accompany the petition.

Ante, pp. 1022-1024.

Additional requirements for.

SEC. 694. ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS IN PROBATE OF NUNCUPATIVE WILLS.—The district court must not receive or entertain a petition for the probate of a nuncupative will until the lapse of ten days from the death of the testator, nor must such petition at any time be acted on until the testamentary words are, or their substance is, reduced to writing and filed with the petition, nor until the surviving husband or wife (if any), and all other persons resident in the Canal Zone interested in the estate are notified as hereinbefore provided.

Contests, appointments, to conform to provisions.

SEC. 695. CONTESTS AND APPOINTMENTS TO CONFORM TO PROVISIONS AS TO OTHER WILLS.—Contests of the probate of nuncupative wills and appointments of executors and administrators of the estate devised thereby must be had, conducted, and made as hereinbefore provided in cases of the probate of written wills.

Trust companies eligible as executors.

SEC. 696. TRUST COMPANIES AS EXECUTORS.—Corporations or associations authorized to conduct the business of a trust company in the Canal Zone may be appointed to act as an executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository, or trustee in like manner as individuals.

Oath, by officer of corporation.

OATH.—In all cases in which it is required that an executor, administrator, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, depository or trustee, shall qualify by taking and subscribing an oath, or in which an affidavit is required, it shall be a sufficient qualification by such corporation if such oath be taken and subscribed or such affidavit be made by the president, vice-president, secretary, manager, trust officer, or assistant trust officer; provided, any such appointment as guardian shall apply to the estate only, and not to the person.

Appointment as guardian to apply to estate only.

Issue of letters.

SEC. 697. ISSUE OF LETTERS.—If no objection is made as provided in section 700, the court admitting a will to probate, after the same is proved and allowed, must issue letters thereon to the persons named therein as executors who are competent to discharge the trust, unless they or either of them have renounced their right to letters.

SEC. 698. WHO INCOMPETENT AS EXECUTOR.—No person is competent to serve as executor who, at the time the will is admitted to probate, is:

Persons incompetent as executor.

- 1. Under the age of majority;
- 2. Convicted of an infamous crime;
- 3. Adjudged by the court incompetent to execute the duties of the trust by reason of drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding or integrity.

SEC. 699. WHEN NO EXECUTOR IS NAMED IN WILL.—If no executor is named in the will, or if the sole executor or all the executors therein named are dead, or incompetent, or renounce, or fail to apply for letters, or to appear and qualify, letters of administration with the will annexed must be issued as designated and provided for in granting of letters in case of intestacy.

When no executor named, etc.

To proceed as in intestacy.

SEC. 700. INTERESTED PARTIES MAY FILE OBJECTIONS.—Any person interested in the estate or will may file objections in writing to granting letters testamentary to the persons named as executors or any of them, and the objections must be heard and determined by the court; a petition may, at the same time, be filed for letters of administration with the will annexed.

Objections by interested parties.

SEC. 701. MARRIED WOMAN MAY BE EXECUTRIX.—A married woman may be appointed an executrix. The authority of an executrix, who was unmarried when appointed, is not extinguished nor affected by her marriage.

Married woman as executrix.

SEC. 702. EXECUTOR OF AN EXECUTOR.—No executor of an executor shall, as such, be authorized to administer on the estate of the first testator, but on the death of the sole or surviving executor of any last will, letters of administration with the will annexed, of the estate of the first testator, left unadministered, must be issued.

Executor of an executor.

SEC. 703. LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION WHERE MINOR EXECUTOR.—Where a person absent from the Canal Zone, or a minor, is named executor—if there is another executor who accepts the trust and qualifies—the latter may have letters testamentary and administer the estate until the return of the absentee or the majority of the minor, who may then be admitted as joint executor. If there is no other executor, letters of administration, with the will annexed, must be granted; but the court may, in its discretion, revoke them on the return of the absent executor or the arrival of the minor at the age of majority.

Letters of administration. Granting of, when person named minor, or absent from Zone.

SEC. 704. ACTS OF A PORTION OF EXECUTORS VALID.—When all the executors named are not appointed by the court, those appointed have the same authority to perform all acts and discharge the trust, required by the will, as effectually for every purpose as if all were appointed and should act together; where there are two executors or administrators, the act of one alone shall be effectual, if the other is absent from the Canal Zone, or laboring under any legal disability from serving, or if he has given his co-executor or co-administrator authority, in writing, to act for both; and where there are more than two executors or administrators, the act of a majority is valid.

Validity of acts of portion of executors.

SEC. 705. AUTHORITY OF ADMINISTRATORS WITH WILL ANNEXED; LETTERS, HOW ISSUED.—Administrators with the will annexed have the same authority over the estates which executors named in the will would have, and their acts are as effectual for all purposes. Their letters must be signed by the clerk of the court, and bear the seal thereof.

Authority of administrators, c. t. a.

LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION, TO WHOM AND THE ORDER IN WHICH THEY ARE GRANTED

Order of.

SEC. 709. ORDER OF PERSONS ENTITLED TO ADMINISTER.—Administration of the estate of a person dying intestate must be granted to some one or more of the persons hereinafter mentioned, the relatives of the deceased being entitled to administer only when they are entitled to succeed to his estate or some portion thereof; and they are, respectively, entitled thereto in the following order :

1. The surviving husband or wife, or some competent person whom he or she may request to have appointed.

2. The children.
3. The father and mother.
4. The brothers and sisters.
5. The grandchildren.
6. The next of kin entitled to share in the distribution of the estate.
7. The public administrator.
8. The creditors.
9. Any person legally competent.

If the decedent was a member of a partnership at the time of his decease, the surviving partner must in no case be appointed administrator of his estate. This section shall apply to the relatives of the previously deceased spouse of decedent when entitled to succeed to some portion of the estate under subdivision 8 of section 402 of the Civil Code.

SEC. 710. RELATIVES OF WHOLE BLOOD PREFERRED TO HALF BLOOD.—Of several persons claiming and equally entitled to administer, relatives of the whole blood must be preferred to those of the half blood.

Relatives of whole blood entitled to preference.

SEC. 711. IN DISCRETION OF COURT TO APPOINT ADMINISTRATOR, WHEN.—When there are several persons equally entitled to the administration, the court may grant letters to one or more of them; and when a creditor is claiming letters the court may, in its discretion, at the request of another creditor, grant letters to any other person legally competent.

Discretion in court with respect to parties equally eligible, etc.

SEC. 712. WHEN MINOR OR INCOMPETENT ENTITLED, WHO APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR.—If any person entitled to administration is a minor, or an incompetent person, letters must be granted to his or her guardian, or any other person entitled to letters of administration, in the discretion of the court.

When minor or incompetent entitled.

SEC. 713. WHO ARE INCOMPETENT TO ACT AS ADMINISTRATORS.—No person is competent or entitled to serve as administrator or administratrix who is:

Persons incompetent to act.

1. Under the age of majority.
2. Not a bona fide resident of the Canal Zone.
3. Convicted of an infamous crime.
4. Adjudged by the court incompetent to execute the duties of the trust by reason of drunkenness, improvidence, or want of understanding or integrity.

SEC. 714. MARRIED WOMAN MAY BE ADMINISTRATRIX.—A married woman may be appointed administratrix. When an unmarried woman appointed administratrix marries, her authority is not thereby extinguished.

Married woman as administratrix.

PETITION AND CONTEST FOR LETTERS AND ACTION THEREON

Letters and action thereon.

SEC. 715. PETITION FOR LETTERS, HOW MADE.—Petitions for letters of administration must be in writing, signed by the applicant or his counsel, and filed with the clerk of the court, stating the facts essential to give the court jurisdiction of the case, and when known to the applicant, he must state the names, ages, and residences of the heirs of the decedent, and the value and character of the property. If the jurisdictional facts exist, and are proved at the hearing but are not fully set forth in the petition, the decree or order of administration and subsequent proceedings are not void on account of such want of jurisdictional averments.

Petition for.

SEC. 716. LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION, WHEN GRANTED.—Letters of administration may be granted by the court at any time appointed for the hearing of the application, or at any time to which the hearing is continued or postponed.

Granting of.

Notice of hearing on.

SEC. 717. DATE FOR AND NOTICE OF HEARING.—When a petition praying for letters of administration is filed, the clerk of the court must set the petition for hearing by the court, and give notice thereof by causing a notice to be posted at the courthouse which notice shall contain the name of the decedent, the name of the applicant, and the time at which the application will be heard. Such notice must be given at least ten days before the hearing. The clerk shall cause similar notice to be mailed to the heirs of the decedent named in the petition, at least ten days before the hearing, addressed to them at their respective post-office addresses, as set forth in the petition, otherwise at the place where the proceedings are pending.

Contest of.

SEC. 718. CONTESTING APPLICATION.—Any person interested may contest the petition, by filing written opposition thereto, on the ground of the incompetency of the applicant, or may assert his own rights to the administration and pray that letters be issued to himself. In the latter case the contestant must file a petition and give the notice required for an original petition, and the court must hear the two petitions together.

Hearing of application.

SEC. 719. HEARING OF APPLICATION.—On the hearing, it being first proved that notice has been given as herein required, the court must hear the allegations and proofs of the parties, and order the issuing of letters of administration to the party best entitled thereto.

Evidence of notice.

SEC. 720. EVIDENCE OF NOTICE.—An entry in the minutes of the court, that the required proof was made and notice given, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of such notice.

Grant to any applicant.

SEC. 721.—GRANT TO ANY APPLICANT.—Letters of administration must be granted to any applicant, though it appears that there are other persons having better rights to the administration, when such persons fail to appear and claim the issuing of letters to themselves.

Proofs before grant of letters.

SEC. 722. WHAT PROOFS MUST BE MADE BEFORE GRANTING LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.—Before letters of administration are granted on the estate of any person who is represented to have died intestate, the fact of his dying intestate must be proved by the testimony of the applicant or others: and the court may also examine any other person concerning the time, place, and manner of his death, the place of his residence at the time, the value and character of his property, and whether or not the decedent left any will, and may compel any person to attend as a witness for that purpose.

Letters granted to other than those entitled.

SEC. 723. LETTERS MAY BE GRANTED TO OTHERS THAN THOSE ENTITLED.—Administration may be granted to one or more competent persons, although not otherwise entitled to the same, at the written request of the person entitled, filed in the court. When the person entitled is a nonresident of the Canal Zone, affidavits, taken ex parte before any officer authorized by the laws of the Canal Zone, to take acknowledgment and administer oaths out of the Canal Zone, may be received as prima facie evidence of the identity of the party, if free from suspicion, and the fact is established to the satisfaction of the court.

Requests for special notice of proceedings.

SEC. 724. REQUESTS FOR SPECIAL NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS; GIVING NOTICES; FINDING REGARDING NOTICES.—At any time after the issuance of letters testamentary or of administration upon the estate of any decedent, any person interested in said estate, whether as heir, devisee, legatee or creditor, or the attorney for any such person may serve upon the executor or administrator, or upon the attorney for the executor or administrator, and file with the clerk of the court wherein administration of such estate is pending, a written request, stating that he desires special notice of any or all of the following mentioned matters, steps or proceedings in the administration of said estate, to wit:

- (1) Filing of petitions for sales, leases or mortgages and confirmation of sales of any property of the estate;
- (2) Filing of accounts;
- (3) Filing of petitions for distribution;
- (4) Filing of petitions for partition of any property of the estate.

Such request shall state the post-office address of the person making same.

GIVING OF NOTICES.—And thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any of such petitions, or accounts, except petitions for sale of perishable property or other personal property which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to such person making such request, or his attorney, at his stated post-office address, and deposited in the post office with the postage thereon prepaid, within two days after the filing of such petition or account; or personal service of such notices may be made on the person making such request or his attorney, within said two days, and such personal service shall be equivalent to such deposit in the post office, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of such petition or account.

Giving of notices.

FINDING REGARDING NOTICES.—If upon the hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that said notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order or judgment, and such judgment shall be final and conclusive upon all persons.

Finding regarding notices.

SEC. 725. UNITED STATES AS A PARTY TO ESTATES, PROCEEDINGS, ETC.—Where compensation, pensions, insurance or other allowance is made or awarded by the United States Government or a department or bureau thereof, to estates of decedents or to minor or incompetent persons for whom guardians have been appointed, or to their estates, the department or bureau of the United States Government making or awarding such allowance, compensation, pension, or insurance shall have the same right to commence and prosecute actions on executors, administrators, and guardians' bonds, and shall have the same right to petition the court for appointment or removal of guardians of minor and incompetent persons, and shall have the same right to file exceptions in writing to accounts of executors, administrators, and guardians and to contest same, as is provided in this code for interested parties, heirs at law, and relatives.

United States as party, etc.

REVOCATION OF LETTERS, AND PROCEEDINGS THEREFOR

SEC. 726. REVOCATION OF LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION.—When letters of administration have been granted to any other person than the surviving husband or wife, child, father, mother, brother, or sister of the intestate, any one of them who is competent, or any competent person at the written request of any one of them, may obtain the revocation of the letters, and be entitled to the administration, by presenting to the court a petition praying the revocation, and that letters of administration may be issued to him.

Revocation of letters, etc.

Proceedings; petition.

SEC. 727. WHEN PETITION FILED, CITATION TO ISSUE.—When such petition is filed, the clerk must, in addition to the notice provided in section 717, issue a citation to the administrator to appear and answer the same at the time appointed for the hearing.

Citation to issue.

SEC. 728. HEARING OF PETITION FOR REVOCATION.—At the time appointed, the citation having been duly served and returned, the court must proceed to hear the allegations and proofs of the parties;

Hearing of petition.

and if the right of the applicant is established, and he is competent, letters of administration must be granted to him, and the letters of the former administrator revoked.

Assertion of prior rights of relatives.

SEC. 729. PRIOR RIGHTS OF RELATIVES ENTITLE THEM TO REVOKE PRIOR LETTERS.—The surviving husband or wife, when letters of administration have been granted to a child, father, brother, or sister of the intestate; or any of such relatives, when letters have been granted to any other of them, may assert his prior right, and obtain letters of administration, and have the letters before granted revoked in the manner prescribed in sections 726 to 728.

Ante, p. 1033.

Oaths and bonds, executors and administrators.

OATHS AND BONDS OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Oath; recording letters.

SEC. 730. OATH OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR; RECORDING LETTERS.—Before letters testamentary or of administration are issued to the executor or administrator, he must take and subscribe an oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths, that he will perform, according to law, the duties of executor or administrator, which oath must be attached to the letters. All letters testamentary and of administration, with the affidavits and certificates thereon, must be forthwith recorded by the clerk of the court, in books to be kept by him in his office for that purpose.

Bond.

SEC. 731. BOND OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.—Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue, must, before receiving them, execute a bond to the government of the Canal Zone, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the district court, or the judge thereof. In form the bond must be joint and several, and the penalty shall be in such reasonable sum as the court shall direct.

Conditions of.

SEC. 732. CONDITIONS OF BONDS.—The bond must be conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law.

Separate bonds, when more than one administrator, required.

SEC. 733. SEPARATE BONDS, WHEN MORE THAN ONE ADMINISTRATOR.—When two or more persons are appointed executors or administrators, the district court, or the judge thereof, must require and take a separate bond from each of them.

Several recoveries on same bond.

SEC. 734. SEVERAL RECOVERIES MAY BE HAD ON SAME BOND.—The bond shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued and recovered upon from time to time, by any person aggrieved, in his own name, until the whole penalty is exhausted.

Justification of sureties.

SEC. 735. JUSTIFICATION OF SURETIES.—In all cases where bonds or undertakings are required to be given, under chapters 23 to 36, the sureties must justify thereon in the same manner and in like amounts as required by section 533, and the certificate thereof must be attached to and filed with the bond or undertaking. All such bonds and undertakings must be approved by the judge of the district court before being filed. Upon filing, the clerk shall thereupon enter in the register of actions the date and amount of such bond or undertaking and the name or names of the surety or sureties thereon. In the event of the loss of such bond or undertaking, such entries so made shall be prima facie evidence of the due execution of such bond or undertaking as required by law.

Citation and requirements of judge on deficient bond.

SEC. 736. CITATION AND REQUIREMENTS OF JUDGE ON DEFICIENT BOND; ADDITIONAL SECURITY.—Before the judge approves any bond required under chapters 23 to 36, and after its approval, he may, of his own motion, or upon the motion of any person interested in the estate, supported by affidavit that the sureties, or some one or more of them, are not worth as much as they have justified to, order a citation to issue requiring such sureties to appear before him at a designated time and place, to be examined touching their property and its value; and the judge must, at the same time, cause a notice to be issued to the executor or administrator requiring his appearance on the return of the citation; and on its return he may examine the sureties and such witnesses as may be produced, touching the property of the sureties and its value; and if, upon such examination, he is satisfied that the bond is insufficient, he must require sufficient additional security.

Additional security required.

SEC. 737. RIGHT CEASES WHEN SUFFICIENT SECURITY NOT GIVEN.—If sufficient security is not given within the time fixed by the judge's order, the right of such executor or administrator to the administration shall cease, and the person next entitled to the administration on the estate, who will execute a sufficient bond, must be appointed to the administration.

Upon failure to give sufficient security, right to cease.

SEC. 738. WHEN BOND MAY BE DISPENSED WITH.—When it is expressly provided in the will that no bond shall be required of the executor, letters testamentary may issue without any bond, unless the court, for good cause, require one to be executed; but the executor may at any time afterwards (if it appear from any cause necessary or proper) be required to file a bond, as in other cases.

Bond dispensed with.

SEC. 739. PETITION SHOWING FAILING SURETIES AND ASKING FOR FURTHER BONDS.—Any person interested in an estate may, by verified petition, represent to the district court, or the judge thereof, that the sureties of the executor or administrator thereof have become, or are becoming, insolvent, or that they have removed, or are about to remove, from the Canal Zone, or that from any other cause the bond is insufficient, and ask that further security be required.

Failing sureties; further bonds.

SEC. 740. CITATION TO EXECUTOR, ETC., TO SHOW CAUSE AGAINST SUCH APPLICATION.—If the court, or the judge thereof, is satisfied that the matter requires investigation, a citation must be issued to the executor or administrator requiring him to appear, at a time and place to be therein specified, to show cause why he should not give further security. The citation must be served personally on the executor or administrator, at least five days before the return-day. If he has absconded, or can not be found, it may be served by leaving a copy of it at his place of residence, or by such publication as the court, or the judge thereof, may order.

Citation to executor, etc., to show cause against application.

SEC. 741. FURTHER SECURITY MAY BE ORDERED.—On the return of the citation, or at such other time as the judge may appoint, he must proceed to hear the proofs and allegations of the parties. If it satisfactorily appears that the security is, from any cause, insufficient, he may make an order requiring the executor or administrator to give further security, or to file a new bond in the usual form within a reasonable time, not less than five days.

Further security ordered.

SEC. 742. NEGLECTING TO OBEY ORDER.—If the executor or administrator neglects to comply with the order within the time prescribed, the judge must, by order, revoke his letters, and his authority must thereupon cease.

Neglect to obey order, letters revoked.

SEC. 743. SUSPENDING POWERS OF EXECUTOR, AND SO FORTH.—When a petition is presented praying that an executor or administrator be required to give further security, or to give bond, where, by the terms of the will, no bond was originally required, and it is alleged, on oath, that the executor or administrator is wasting the property of the estate, the judge may, by order, suspend his powers until the matter can be heard and determined.

Suspension of executor's, etc., powers.

SEC. 744. FURTHER SECURITY ORDERED WITHOUT APPLICATION OF PARTY IN INTEREST.—When it comes to his knowledge that the bond of any executor or administrator is from any cause insufficient, the judge, without any application, must cause him to be cited to appear and show cause why he should not give further security, and must proceed thereon as upon the application of any person interested.

Further security on initiative of judge.

Release of sureties.

SEC. 745. RELEASE OF SURETIES.—When a surety of any executor or administrator desires to be released from responsibility on account of future acts, he may make application to the district court, or the judge thereof, for relief. The court or judge must cause a citation to the executor or administrator to be issued, and served personally, requiring him to appear at a time and place, to be therein specified, and to give other security. If he has absconded, left, or removed from the Canal Zone, or if he can not be found, after due diligence and inquiry, service may be made as provided in section 740.

New sureties.

SEC. 746. NEW SURETIES.—If new sureties be given to the satisfaction of the judge, he may thereupon make an order that the sureties who applied for relief shall not be liable on their bond for any subsequent act, default, or misconduct of the executor or administrator.

Neglect to give, to act as forfeiture of letters.

SEC. 747. NEGLECT TO GIVE NEW SURETIES FORFEITS LETTERS.—If the executor or administrator neglects or refuses to give new sureties, to the satisfaction of the judge, on the return of the citation, or within such reasonable time as the judge shall allow, unless the surety making the application shall consent to a longer extension of time, the court or judge must, by order, revoke his letters.

Time of acting on applications.

SEC. 748. APPLICATIONS TO BE DETERMINED AT ANY TIME.—The applications authorized by the nine preceding sections of this chapter may be heard and determined at any time. All orders made therein must be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Liability on bond.

SEC. 749. LIABILITY ON BOND.—The liability of principal and sureties upon the bond of any executor, administrator, or guardian, is in all cases to pay in the kind of money or currency in which the principal is legally liable.

Special administrators; powers and duties.

SPECIAL ADMINISTRATORS, AND THEIR POWERS AND DUTIES

When appointed.

SEC. 750. SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR, WHEN APPOINTED.—When there is delay in granting letters testamentary or of administration from any cause, or when such letters are granted irregularly, or no sufficient bond is filed as required, or when no application is made for such letters, or when an executor or administrator dies, or is suspended, or removed, the district court or judge, must appoint a special administrator to collect and take charge of the estate of the decedent in whatever division the same may be found, and to exercise such other powers as may be necessary for the preservation of the estate; or he may direct the public administrator to take charge of the estate.

Appointment of, issuance of letters.

SEC. 751. APPOINTMENT OF—ISSUANCE OF LETTERS.—The appointment may be made at any time upon such notice to such of the persons interested in the estate as the court may deem reasonable. After the person appointed has given bond, the clerk must issue special letters of administration to such person.

Preference in appointment.

SEC. 752. PREFERENCE IN APPOINTMENT.—In making the appointment of a special administrator the court must give preference to the person entitled to letters testamentary, or of administration.

Bond and oath.

SEC. 753. BOND AND OATH OF.—Before any letters issue to any special administrator, except to the public administrator, he must give bond in such sum as the court or judge may direct, with sureties to the satisfaction of the court or judge, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties; and he must take the usual oath, and have the same indorsed on his letters.

Powers and duties.

SEC. 754. POWERS AND DUTIES.—The special administrator must collect and preserve for the executor or administrator, all the goods, chattels, debts, and effects of the decedent, all incomes, rents, issues, and profits, claims, and demands of the estate; must take the charge and management of, enter upon, and preserve from damage, waste, and injury, the real estate, and for any such and all necessary purposes may commence and maintain or defend suits and other legal proceedings as an administrator; he may sell such perishable property as the court may order to be sold, and exercise such other powers as are conferred upon him by his appointment, but except when appointed with the powers, duties, and obligations of a general administrator, as hereinafter provided, he is not liable to an action by any creditor on a claim against the decedent.

When a special administrator is appointed pending determination of a contest of a will instituted prior to the probate thereof, or pending an appeal from an order appointing, suspending, or removing an executor or administrator, such special administrator shall have the same powers, duties, and obligations as a general administrator, and the letters of administration issued to him shall recite that such special administrator is appointed with the powers of a general administrator.

SEC. 755. WHEN LETTERS TESTAMENTARY OR OF ADMINISTRATION ARE GRANTED, SPECIAL ADMINISTRATOR'S POWERS CEASE.—When letters testamentary or of administration on the estate of the decedent have been granted, the powers of the special administrator cease, and he must forthwith deliver to the executor or administrator all the property and effects of the decedent in his hands; and the executor or administrator may prosecute to final judgment any suit commenced by the special administrator.

SEC. 756. ACCOUNT.—The special administrator must render an account on oath of his proceedings in like manner as other administrators are required to do.

His fees and those of his attorney shall be fixed by the court: Provided, however, That the total fees paid to the special administrator and executor, or to the special administrator and general administrator of an estate must not, together, exceed the sums provided for in section 858, including the further allowance therein provided; and that the total fees paid to the attorneys both of the special administrator and executor, or of the special administrator and general administrator, must not, together, exceed the sums provided for in section 859, including the further allowance therein provided.

And when the same person does not act as both special administrator and executor, or as special administrator and general administrator, of the estate, such fees shall be divided between the special administrator and executor, or between the special administrator and general administrator of the estate, in such proportions as the court shall determine to be just and reasonable.

And when the same attorney does not act for both the special administrator and executor, or for the special administrator and general administrator of the estate, such fees shall be divided between the attorneys in such proportion as the court shall determine to be just and reasonable.

SEC. 757. PAYMENT OF SECURED DEBTS BY SPECIAL ADMINISTRATORS.—If it shall appear by the verified petition of any special administrator, or other person interested in any estate in the charge of any special administrator, that any of the property of said estate is subject to any mortgage, lien or deed of trust, to secure the payment of money, and that any amount so secured, either principal or interest, is past due and unpaid; that the holder of the security threatens or is about to enforce or foreclose the same and that the said property exceeds in value the amount of the entire obligation thereon, and an order is asked directing or permitting said special administrator to pay all or any part of the amount so secured, the court or judge shall fix a time for the hearing of said petition and shall direct notice of not less than ten days to be given by posting in three public places and by personal service on all parties who have appeared or their attorneys. At the time so appointed, if the allegations of such petition shall be proven to the satisfaction of the court and it shall appear to be for the best interests of said estate, the court may order the special administrator to pay interest or other portions or the whole of the secured debt, and, in its discretion, may direct the special administrator to take proceedings to secure funds for such purpose. Any such order for payment of interest may also direct that interest not yet accrued be paid as it becomes due and such order shall remain in effect and cover such future interest until and unless thereafter for good cause set aside or modified by the court upon similar petition and notice to that hereinabove provided.

By court order.

Will found subsequently.

WILLS FOUND AFTER LETTERS OF ADMINISTRATION GRANTED AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Letters revoked on admission to probate.

SEC. 758. PREEXISTING GRANT OF LETTERS, WHEN REVOKED.—Upon the admission to probate of a will after a grant of letters of administration on the ground of intestacy, or upon the admission to probate of a later will than the one before admitted to probate, the preexisting grant of letters testamentary or of administration must be revoked, and the administrator or executor whose grant of authority is thus terminated must render an account of his administration within such time as the court may direct.

Powers of executor.

SEC. 759. POWER OF EXECUTOR IN SUCH A CASE.—In such case, the executor or the administrator with the will annexed is entitled to demand, sue for, recover, and collect all the rights, goods, chattels, debts, and effects of the decedent remaining unadministered, and may prosecute to final judgment any suit commenced by the administrator before the revocation of his letters of administration.

Remaining administrator or executor.

SEC. 760. REMAINING ADMINISTRATOR OR EXECUTOR TO CONTINUE WHEN HIS COLLEAGUES ARE DISQUALIFIED.—In case any one of several executors or administrators, to whom letters are granted, dies, becomes lunatic, is convicted of an infamous crime, or otherwise becomes incapable of executing the trust; or in case the letters testamentary or of administration are revoked or annulled, with respect to any one executor or administrator, the remaining executor or administrator must proceed to complete the execution of the will or administration.

When no executor, etc., competent.

SEC. 761. WHO TO ACT WHEN ALL ACTING ARE INCOMPETENT.—If all such executors or administrators die or become incapable, or the power and authority of all of them is revoked, the court must issue letters of administration, with the will annexed or otherwise, to the widow or next of kin, or others, in the same order and manner as is directed in relation to original letters of administration. The administrators so appointed must give bond in the like penalty, with like sureties and conditions, as hereinbefore required of administrators, and shall have the like power and authority.

Resignation.

SEC. 762. EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR MAY RESIGN, WHEN; COURT TO APPOINT SUCCESSOR; LIABILITY OF OUTGOER.—Any executor or administrator may, at any time, by writing, filed in the district court, resign his appointment, having first settled his accounts and delivered up all the estate to the person whom the court shall appoint to receive the same. If, however, by reason of any delays in such settlement and delivery up of the estate, or for any other cause, the circumstances of the estate or the rights of those interested therein require it, the court may, at any time before settlement of accounts and delivering up of the estate is completed, revoke the letters of such executor or administrator, and appoint in his stead an administrator, either special or general, in the same manner as is directed in relation to original letters of administration. The liability of the outgoing executor or administrator, or of the sureties on his bond, shall not be in any manner discharged, released, or affected by such appointment or resignation.

Appointment of successor.

Liability of person resigning.

SEC. 763. ALL ACTS OF EXECUTOR, AND SO FORTH, VALID UNTIL HIS POWER IS REVOKED.—All acts of an executor or administrator, as such, before the revocation of his letters testamentary or of administration, are as valid, to all intents and purposes, as if such executor or administrator had continued lawfully to execute the duties of his trust.

Validity of executor's acts, etc.

SEC. 764.—TRANSCRIPT OF COURT MINUTES TO BE EVIDENCE.—A transcript from the minutes of the court, showing the appointment of any person as executor or administrator, together with the certificate of the clerk, under his hand and the seal of his court, that such person has given bond and been qualified, and that letters testamentary or of administration have been issued to him and have not been revoked, shall have the same effect in evidence as the letters themselves.

Court minutes as evidence.

DISQUALIFICATION OF JUDGE

Disqualification of judge.

When interested party.

SEC. 765.—WHEN JUDGE NOT TO ACT.—No will shall be admitted to probate, or letters testamentary or of administration granted, before any judge who is interested as next of kin to the decedent, or as a legatee or devisee under the will, or when he is named as executor or trustee in the will, or is a witness thereto, or is in any other manner interested or disqualified from acting.

REMOVALS AND SUSPENSIONS IN CERTAIN CASES

Removals and suspensions.

For fraud, waste, etc.

SEC. 766. SUSPENSION OF POWERS OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.—Whenever the district judge has reason to believe from his own knowledge, or from credible information, that any executor or administrator has wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged, or is about to waste or embezzle the property of the estate committed to his charge, or has committed or is about to commit a fraud upon the estate, or is incompetent to act, or has removed or is about to remove from the Canal Zone, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has long neglected to perform any act as such executor or administrator, he must, by an order entered upon the minutes of the court, direct such executor or administrator to be cited to appear and show cause why his letters should not be revoked, and may also suspend the powers of such executor or administrator, until the matter is investigated.

SEC. 767.—REVOCATION OF LETTERS.—If the executor or administrator fails to appear in obedience to the citation, or, if he appears, and the court is satisfied from the evidence, that there exists cause for his removal, his letters must be revoked.

Revocation of letters for cause.

SEC. 768. ANY PARTY INTERESTED MAY APPEAR ON HEARING.—At the hearing, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his allegations in writing, showing that the executor or administrator should be removed; to which the executor or administrator may demur or answer, as hereinbefore provided. The issues raised must be heard and determined by the court.

Hearing, interested parties may appear.

Notice to absconding executors, etc.

SEC. 769. NOTICE TO ABSCONDING EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.—If the executor or administrator has absconded or conceals himself, or has removed or absented himself from the Canal Zone, notice may be given him of the pendency of the proceedings by publication, in such manner as the court may direct, and the court may proceed upon such notice as if the citation had been personally served.

Power to compel attendance of executor, etc.

SEC. 770. MAY COMPEL ATTENDANCE.—In the proceedings authorized by the preceding sections of this subchapter, for the removal of an executor or administrator, the court may compel his attendance by attachment, and may compel him to answer questions, on oath, touching his administration, and, upon his refusal so to do, may commit him until he obey, or may revoke his letters, or both.

INVENTORY AND COLLECTION OF EFFECTS OF DECEDENTS.

CHAPTER 26.—INVENTORY AND COLLECTION OF EFFECTS OF DECEDENTS

INVENTORY, APPRAISEMENT, AND POSSESSION OF ESTATE

Inventory, appraisal, possession of estate.

Return of inventory and appraisal to court.

SEC. 771. INVENTORY AND APPRAISEMENT TO BE RETURNED.—Every executor or administrator must make and return to the court, within thirty days after his appointment, a true inventory, and, also, if the court so direct, an appraisal of all the estate of the decedent which has come to his possession or knowledge.

Appointment of appraisers.

SEC. 772. APPRAISERS OF ESTATES OF DECEASED PERSONS.—To make the appraisal, the court or judge must appoint three disinterested persons, any two of whom may act.

Compensation.

Each of said appraisers is entitled to receive from each estate he appraises, as compensation for his services, such sum as may be fixed by the court or judge.

Account of services, etc.

The appraisers or appraiser must, with the inventory, file a verified account of their or his services and disbursements.

Ineligible parties.

No clerk or deputy, nor any person related by consanguinity or affinity to or connected by marriage with, or being a partner or employee of the judge of the court, shall be appointed or shall be competent to act as appraiser in any estate, or matter or proceeding pending before said judge or in said court.

Oath of appraisers.

SEC. 773. OATH OF APPRAISERS; INVENTORY MUST SHOW WHAT.—Before proceeding to the execution of their duty, the appraisers must take and subscribe an oath, to be attached to the inventory, that they will truly, honestly, and impartially appraise the property exhibited to them, according to the best of their knowledge and ability.

Inventory.

They must then proceed to estimate and appraise the property; each item of property must be set down separately, with the value thereof in dollars and cents in figures, opposite the items respectively.

Contents.

The inventory must contain all the estate of the decedent, real and personal, a statement of all debts, bonds, mortgages, notes, and other securities for the payment of money belonging to the decedent, specifying the name of the debtor in each debt or security, the date, the sum originally payable, the indorsement thereon (if any), with their dates, and the sum which, in the judgment of the appraisers, may be collected on each debt or security; and a statement of the interest of the decedent in any partnership of which he was a member, to be appraised as a single item.

Interest of decedent in property.

The inventory must also show, so far as the same can be ascertained by the executor or administrator, what portion of the property is community property, and what portion is the separate property of the decedent.

Inventory to account for moneys.

SEC. 774. INVENTORY TO ACCOUNT FOR MONEYS; IF ALL MONEY, NO APPRAISEMENT NECESSARY.—The inventory must also contain an account of all moneys belonging to the decedent which have come to the hands of the executor or administrator, and if none, the fact must be so stated in the inventory.

SEC. 775. EFFECT OF NAMING A DEBTOR EXECUTOR.—The naming of a person as executor does not thereby discharge him from any just claim which the testator has against him, but the claim must be included in the inventory, and the executor is liable for the same, as for so much money in his hands, when the debt or demand becomes due.

Effect of naming debtor executor.

SEC. 776. DISCHARGE OR BEQUEST OF DEBT AGAINST EXECUTOR.—The discharge or bequest in a will, of any debt or demand of the testator against the executor named, or any other person, is not valid against the creditors of the decedent, but is a specific bequest of the debt or demand. It must be included in the inventory, and, if necessary, applied in the payment of the debts. If not necessary for that purpose, it must be paid in the same manner and proportion as other specific legacies.

Discharge, etc., of debt against.

Not discharge as against creditors.

SEC. 777. TO MAKE OATH TO INVENTORY.—The inventory must be signed by the appraisers, if any there be, and the executor or administrator must take and subscribe an oath, before an officer authorized to administer oaths, that the inventory contains a true statement of all the estate of the decedent which has come to his knowledge and possession, and particularly of all money belonging to the decedent, and of all just claims of the decedent against the affiant. The oath must be indorsed upon or annexed to the inventory.

Inventory must be signed.

Oath by executor, etc., as to contents.

SEC. 778. LETTERS MAY BE REVOKED FOR NEGLECT OF ADMINISTRATOR.—If an executor or administrator neglects or refuses to return the inventory within the time prescribed, or within such further time, not exceeding two months, which the court or judge shall, for reasonable cause, allow, the court may, upon notice, revoke the letters testamentary or of administration, and the executor or administrator is liable on his bond for any injury to the estate, or any person interested therein, arising from such failure.

Revocation of letters for neglect.

SEC. 779. INVENTORY OF AFTERDISCOVERED PROPERTY.—Whenever property not mentioned in an inventory that is made and filed, comes to the possession or knowledge of an executor or administrator, he must cause the same to be appraised in the manner prescribed in this subchapter, and an inventory thereof to be returned within two months after the discovery; and the making of such inventory may be enforced, after notice, by attachment or removal from office.

After discovered property.

Appraisal and inventory.

SEC. 780. EXECUTOR ENTITLED TO POSSESS ALL OF ESTATE OF DECEDENT.—The executor or administrator is entitled to the possession of all the real and personal estate of the decedent, and to receive the rents and profits of the real estate until the estate is settled or until delivered over by the order of the court to the heirs or devisees; and must keep in good tenantable repair all houses, buildings and fixtures thereon which are under his control. After the expiration of the time for the presentation of claims, he is not entitled to recover the possession of any property of the estate from any heir, who has succeeded to the property in his possession or from any devisee, or legatee, to whom the property has been devised or bequeathed, or from the assignee of any such heir, devisee, or legatee, unless he proves that the same is necessary for the payment of debts or legacies, or of expenses of administration already accrued, or for distribution to some other heir, devisee, or legatee entitled thereto. The heirs or devisees may themselves, or jointly with the executor or administrator, maintain an action for the possession of the real estate, or for the purpose of quieting title to the same, against anyone except the executor or administrator; but this section shall not be so construed as requiring them so to do.

Possession of estate.

Surrender of real estate.

SEC. 781. EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR TO DELIVER REAL ESTATE TO HEIRS OR DEVISEES.—Unless it satisfactorily appear to the court that the rents, issues, and profits of the real estate for a longer period are necessary to be received by the executor or administrator, where-with to pay the debts of the decedent, or that it will probably be necessary to sell the real estate for the payment of such debts, the court at the end of the time limited for the presentation of claims against the estate, must direct the executor or administrator to deliver possession of all the real estate to the heirs at law or devisees.

Embezzlement and surrender of property of estate.

EMBEZZLEMENT AND SURRENDER OF PROPERTY OF ESTATE

Liability of embezzler.

SEC. 782. EMBEZZLING EFFECTS OF A DECEDENT.—If any person embezzles, conceals, smuggles, or fraudulently disposes of any of the moneys, goods, chattels, or effects of a decedent, he is chargeable therewith, and liable to an action by the executor or administrator of the estate for double the value of the property so embezzled, concealed, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of, to be recovered for the benefit of the estate.

Citation of person suspected.

SEC. 783. CITATION TO PERSON SUSPECTED OF EMBEZZLEMENT, CONCEALMENT, AND SO FORTH, OF PROPERTY.—If any executor, administrator, or other person interested in the estate of a decedent, complains to the district court or judge, on oath, that any person is suspected to have concealed, embezzled, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of any moneys, goods, or chattels of the decedent, or has in his possession or knowledge any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings, which contain evidences of or tend to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the decedent to any real or personal estate, or any claim or demand, or any lost will, the said court or judge may cite such person to appear before such court, and may examine him on oath upon the matter of such complaint. But if he appears and is found innocent, his necessary expenses must be allowed him out of the estate.

Penalty for failure to obey.

SEC. 784. REFUSAL TO OBEY CITATION, PENALTY FOR, AND FOR EMBEZZLEMENT; MAY BE COMPELLED TO DISCLOSE BY IMPRISONMENT; LIABLE FOR DOUBLE DAMAGES.—If the person so cited refuses to appear and submit to an examination, or to answer such interrogatories as may be put to him, touching the matters of the complaint, the court may, by warrant for that purpose, commit him to jail, there to remain in close custody until he submits to the order of the court or is discharged according to law. If, upon such examination, it appears that he has concealed, embezzled, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of any moneys, goods, or chattels of the decedent, or that he has in his possession or knowledge any deeds, conveyances, bonds, contracts, or other writings containing evidences of or tending to disclose the right, title, interest, or claim of the decedent to any real or personal estate, claim, or demand, or any lost will of the decedent, the court may make an order requiring such person to disclose his knowledge thereof to the executor or administrator, and may commit him to jail, there to remain until the order is complied with, or he is discharged according to law; and all such interrogatories and answers must be in writing, signed by the party examined, and filed in the court. In addition to the examination of the party, witnesses may be produced and examined on either side.

Discovery of property.

Citation of persons intrusted with estate.

SEC. 785. PERSONS INTRUSTED WITH ESTATE OF DECEDENT MAY BE CITED TO ACCOUNT.—The district court or judge, upon the complaint, on oath, of any executor or administrator, may cite any person who has been intrusted with any part of the estate of the decedent to appear before such court, and require him to render a full account, on oath, of any moneys, goods, chattels, bonds, accounts, or other property or papers belonging to the estate, which have come to his possession in trust for the executor or administrator, and of his proceedings thereon; and if the person so cited refuses to appear and render such account, the court may proceed against him as provided in the preceding section.

CHAPTER 27.—PROVISION FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE FAMILY

SUPPORT OF FAMILY OF DECEDENT.

SEC. 786. WIDOW AND MINOR CHILDREN MAY REMAIN IN POSSESSION OF FURNITURE AND APPAREL.—When a person dies leaving a widow or minor children, the widow or children, until letters are granted and the inventory is returned, are entitled to remain in possession of all the wearing apparel of the family, and of all the household furniture of the decedent, and are also entitled to a reasonable provision for their support, to be allowed by the district court or judge.

Possession of furniture and apparel.

CROSS REFERENCE

Clothing of decedent and household effects not exceeding in value $2,500 to go to surviving wife without administration, see Civil Code, section 418.

Post, p. 118L.

SEC. 787. ALL PROPERTY EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION TO BE SET APART FOR USE OF FAMILY.—Upon the return of the inventory, or at any subsequent time during the administration, the court may, on petition therefor, set apart for the use of the surviving husband or wife, or, in case of his or her death, to the minor children of the decedent, all the property exempt from execution.

Property exempt from execution set aside for, on petition.

SEC. 788. NOTICE OF HEARING; TO WHOM SENT.—When the petition mentioned in section 787 is filed the clerk of the court must set the petition for hearing by the court and give notice thereof by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in the division, one of which must be at the place where the court is held, containing the name of the decedent, the name of the petitioner, the nature of the application, and the time at which the same will be heard. Such notice must be given at least ten days before the hearing, and a copy thereof must be mailed at least ten days before the day appointed for the hearing to the executor or administrator, if he be not the petitioner, and to any person named as coexecutor or coadministrator not petitioning, and upon the attorney of any person who has appeared or given notice of appearance (by an attorney) in the estate as heir, legatee, devisee, next of kin, or creditor, or as otherwise interested, addressed to them at their places of residence, or office, if known, and if not known, then to the place where the proceedings are pending. Proof of such posting and mailing must be made at the hearing.

Hearing on, notice.

SEC. 789. COURT MAY MAKE EXTRA ALLOWANCE.—If the property set apart is insufficient for the support of the widow and children, or either, the court or judge must take such reasonable allowance out of the estate as shall be necessary for the maintenance of the family, according to their circumstances, during the progress of the settlement of the estate, which, in case of an insolvent estate, must not be longer than one year after granting letters testamentary or of administration.

Extra allowance.

SEC. 790. PAYMENT OF ALLOWANCE.—Any allowance made by the court or judge, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, must be paid in preference to all other charges; except funeral

Payment of, preferential.

charges and expenses of administration; and any such allowance, whenever made, may, in the discretion of the court or judge, take effect from the death of the decedent.

Apportionment of property.

SEC. 791. PROPERTY SET APART, HOW APPORTIONED.—When property is set apart to the use of the family, in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, such property, if the decedent left a surviving spouse and no minor child, is the property of such spouse. If the decedent left also a minor child or children, the one half of such property belongs to the surviving spouse, and the remainder to the child, or in equal shares to the children, if there are more than one. If there is no surviving spouse, the whole belongs to the minor child or children.

Administration when estate does not exceed $1,000.

SEC. 792. ADMINISTRATION OF ESTATE NOT EXCEEDING $1,000 IN VALUE.—If a deceased person leave a widow or minor child or minor children and upon the return of the inventory of the estate of such deceased person it shall appear to the court or judge by the verified petition of the personal representative of such deceased person or his widow or of the guardian of his minor children or of any of them that the net value of the whole estate of said deceased over and above all liens or encumbrances of record at the date of the death of said deceased does not exceed the sum of $1,000, not including the property excepted from administration under section 418 of the Civil Code, the court, or judge, shall, by order, require all persons interested to appear on a day fixed to show cause why the whole of said estate should not be assigned for the use and support of the family of the deceased.

Post, p. 1181.

Notice of hearing. Ante, p. 1043.

NOTICE OF HEARING.—Notice thereof shall be given and proceedings had in the same manner as provided in section 788.

Proceedings.

PROCEEDINGS ON HEARING.—If upon the hearing, the court finds that the net value of the estate over and above all liens or encumbrances of record at the date of the death of said deceased does not exceed the sum of $1,000, not including the property excepted from administration under section 418 of the Civil Code, it shall, by decree for that purpose, assign to the widow of the deceased, if there be a widow, or if there be no widow, then to the minor children of the deceased, if there be minor children, the whole of the estate, subject to whatever mortgages, liens, or encumbrances there may be upon said estate at the time of the death of said deceased, after the payment of the expenses of the last illness of the deceased, funeral charges, and expenses of administration, and the title thereof shall vest absolutely in such widow, if there is a widow, or if there is no widow, in the minor children or child, subject to whatever mortgages, liens or encumbrances there may be upon said estate at the time of the death of the deceased, and there must be no further proceedings in the administration, unless further estate be discovered.

When all property to go to children.

SEC. 793. WHEN ALL PROPERTY TO GO TO CHILDREN.—If the widow has a maintenance derived from her own property equal to the portion set apart to her by the preceding sections of this chapter, the whole property so set apart must go to the minor children.

CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE.

CHAPTER 28.—CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE

Notice to creditors, by publication.

SEC. 794. NOTICE TO CREDITORS OF DECEDENTS' ESTATES.—Every executor or administrator must, immediately after his letters are issued, cause to be published in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone, a notice to the creditors of the decedent, requiring all persons having claims against said decedent to file them, with the necessary vouchers, in the office of the clerk of the court, or to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, to the executor or administrator, at the place of his residence or business to be specified in the notice.

Such notice must be published not less than once a week for four weeks. In case such executor or administrator resigns, or is removed, before the time expressed in the notice, his successor must give notice only for the unexpired time allowed for such filing or presentation: Provided, however, That the publication may in the discretion of the court, be dispensed with, in which event the court may direct notice by posting in three public places in the Canal Zone for a period of four weeks.

Provido.
May be dispensed with, in discretion of court.

SEC. 795. TIME EXPRESSED IN THE NOTICE.—The time expressed in the notice must be ten months after its first publication, when the estate exceeds in value the sum of $10,000, and four months when it does not.

Time expressed in notice.

SEC. 796. FILING COPY OF PRINTED NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—Within thirty days after the first publication of notice to creditors, the executor or administrator must file or cause to be filed in the court a copy of said notice to creditors accompanied by a statement, setting forth the date of the first publication thereof and the name of the newspaper in which the same is printed, or the dates and places of posting, if the posting of notices be directed.

Copy of notice to be filed.

SEC. 797. RECORDING DECREE OF NOTICE TO CREDITORS.—After the notice is given, as required by section 794, a copy thereof, with the affidavit of due publication or posting, must be filed and upon such affidavit or other testimony to the satisfaction of the court, an order or decree showing that due notice to creditors has been given, and directing that such order or decree be entered in the minutes, must be made by the court.

Recording decree of notice.

SEC. 798. CLAIMS NOT FILED ARE BARRED.—All claims arising upon contracts, whether the same be due, not due, or contingent, and all claims for funeral expenses and expenses of the last sickness must be filed or presented within a time limited in the notice, and any claim not so filed or presented is barred forever: Provided, however, That when it is made to appear by the affidavit of the claimant to the satisfaction of the court, or judge, that the claimant had no notice as provided in this chapter, by reason of being out of the Canal Zone, it may be filed or presented at any time before a decree of distribution is entered.

Unfiled claims barred.

Provido.
Claimants without notice.

A brief description of every claim filed must be entered by the clerk in the register, showing the name of the claimant, the amount and character of the claim, the rate of interest, if any, and the date of filing.

Description of claim.

SEC. 799. CLAIMS MUST BE SWORN TO.—Every claim which is due, when filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, must be supported by the affidavit of the claimant, or some one in his behalf, that the amount is justly due, that no payments have been made thereon which are not credited, and that there are no offsets to the same, to the knowledge of the affiant. If the claim be not due when filed or presented, or be contingent, the particulars of such claim must be stated. When the affidavit is made by a person other than the claimant, he must set forth in the affidavit the reason why it is not made by the claimant. The oath may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

Affidavit on, required.

The executor or administrator may also require satisfactory vouchers or proofs to be produced in support of the claim.

Additional proof.

No greater rate of interest shall be allowed upon any claim after its approval by the administrator or executor and judge than is allowed on judgments obtained in the district court.

Rate of interest allowable.

SEC. 800. CLAIMS TO BE ALLOWED OR REJECTED.—When a claim, accompanied by the affidavit required in this chapter, has been filed with the clerk, the executor or administrator must allow or reject

- it, and his allowance or rejection thereof must be in writing and filed with the clerk. If the executor or administrator so allow the claim after filing, the clerk must, immediately after the filing of such allowance, present the claim, together with the allowance, to the judge, and must at the time of such presentation indorse on the claim the date thereof. The judge must indorse upon the claim so filed his allowance or rejection, with the date thereof. When a claim, accompanied by the affidavit required in this chapter, is presented to the executor or administrator before filing, he must indorse thereon his allowance or rejection, with the day and date thereof. If he allows the claim so presented, it must be presented to the judge for his approval, who must in the same manner indorse upon it his allowance or rejection, and, if allowed, it must, within thirty days thereafter, be filed with the clerk.
- PRESENTATION OF ALLOWED CLAIM TO COURT.—
- ACTION BY JUDGE.—
- PROCEDURE WHEN CLAIM PRESENTED TO EXECUTOR, ETC., BEFORE FILING.—
- FAILURE OF EXECUTOR, ETC., TO ACT.—
- REFUSAL OR NEGLECT OF EXECUTOR TO ALLOW OR REJECT CLAIM.— If, where a claim has been filed without presentation, the executor or administrator refuse or neglect to file such allowance or rejection for ten days after the claim has been filed, or if, where a claim has been presented before filing, the executor or administrator refuse or neglect to indorse such allowance or rejection for ten days after the claim has been presented to him, or if the judge refuse or neglect to indorse such allowance or rejection for ten days after the claim has been presented to him, such refusal or neglect may, at the option of the claimant, be deemed equivalent to a rejection on the tenth day; and if the presentation be made before filing by a notary, the certificate of such notary, under seal, shall be prima facie evidence of such presentation and the date thereof.
- ACTION ON, WHEN FILED AFTER EXPIRATION OF TIME.—
- ACTING ON CLAIM AFTER EXPIRATION OF TIME TO PRESENT.— If the claim be filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, before the expiration of the time limited for the filing or presentation of claims, the same is filed or presented in time, though acted upon by the executor or administrator, and by the judge, after the expiration of such time.
- PAYABLE IN PARTICULAR KIND OF MONEY.—
- CLAIM PAYABLE IN PARTICULAR KIND OF MONEY.— If the claim is payable in a particular kind of money or currency, it shall, if allowed, be payable only in such money or currency.
- EFFECT OF ALLOWANCE.—
- EFFECT OF ALLOWANCE.— Every claim allowed by the executor or administrator and approved by the judge shall be ranked among the acknowledged debts of the estate, to be paid in due course of administration.
- ENTRY OF DATE OF ALLOWANCE.—
- ENTRY OF DATE OF ALLOWANCE.— The dates of allowance of every such claim, together with the amount allowed, must be entered in the register by the clerk after the allowance thereof by the judge.
- ORIGINAL INSTRUMENT NEED NOT BE FILED.—
- SEC. 801.—ORIGINAL INSTRUMENT NEED NOT BE FILED WITH CLAIM.— If the claim be founded on a bond, bill, note, or any other instrument, the original need not be filed or presented, but a verified copy of such instrument with all indorsements must be attached to the statement of the claim and filed therewith, and the original instrument must be exhibited, if demanded by the executor or administrator or judge, unless it be lost or destroyed, in which case the claimant must accompany his claim when filed or presented by his affidavit, containing a copy or particular description of such instrument, and stating its loss or destruction.
- VERIFIED COPIES.—
- MORTGAGES AND LIENS.—
- If the claim, or any part thereof, be secured by a mortgage or other lien which has been recorded in the office of the Registrar of Property, it shall be sufficient to describe the mortgage or lien, and refer to the date, volume, and page of its record.

If, in any case, the claimant has left any original voucher in the hands of the executor or administrator, or suffered the same to be filed with the clerk, he may withdraw the same, when a copy thereof has been already, or is then, attached to his claim.

Withdrawal of original vouchers, etc.

SEC. 802. REJECTION OF CLAIM AGAINST ESTATES.—When a claim is rejected either by the executor or administrator, or the judge, written notice of such rejection shall be given by the executor or administrator to the holder of such claim or to the person filing or presenting the same, and the holder must bring suit in the proper court against the executor or administrator within three months after the date of service of such notice if the claim be then due or within two months after it becomes due, otherwise the claim shall be forever barred.

Suit thereon, must be brought.

If the residence of the claimant is not known, and the same shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, the court shall by its order require the notice to be served on the claimant by filing with the clerk.

Notice by filing with clerk.

SEC. 803. CLAIMS BARRED BY STATUTE.—No claim must be allowed by the executor or administrator, or by the district judge, which is barred by the statute of limitations. When a claim is presented to the judge for his allowance, he may, in his discretion, examine the claimant and others, on oath, and hear any legal evidence touching the validity of the claim.

Claims barred by statute.

ALLOWED CLAIMS NOT AFFECTED BY STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—No claim against any estate which has been filed and allowed, or presented and allowed, is affected by the statute of limitations, pending the proceedings for the settlement of the estate.

Allowed claims not affected by statute of limitations.

SEC. 804. ACTIONS ON CLAIMS.—No holder of any claim against an estate shall maintain any action thereon, unless the claim is first filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, except in the following case: An action may be brought by any holder of a mortgage or lien to enforce the same against the property of the estate subject thereto, where all recourse against any other property of the estate is expressly waived in the complaint, but no counsel fees shall be recovered in such action unless such claim be so filed or presented.

Actions on.

SEC. 805. TIME OF LIMITATION.—The time during which there shall be a vacancy in the administration must not be included in any limitations herein prescribed.

Time of limitation.

SEC. 806. ACTION PENDING AT DECEDENT'S DEATH.—If an action is pending against the decedent at the time of his death, the plaintiff must in like manner file his claim with the clerk, or present it to the executor or administrator for allowance or rejection, authenticated as required in other cases; and no recovery shall be had in the action unless proof be made of such filing or presentation.

Actions pending at decedent's death.

SEC. 807. ALLOWANCE IN PART.—Whenever the executor or administrator or the judge shall act upon any claim that may be filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, and is willing to allow the same in part, he must state in his allowance the amount he is willing to allow. If the creditor refuse to accept the amount allowed in satisfaction of his claim, he shall recover no costs in any action therefor brought against the executor or administrator, unless he recover a greater amount than that offered to be allowed.

Partial allowance.

SEC. 808. EFFECT OF JUDGMENT AGAINST EXECUTOR.—A judgment rendered against an executor or administrator, upon any claim for money against the estate of his testator or intestate, only establishes the claim in the same manner as if it had been allowed by the executor or administrator and the judge; and the judgment must be that the executor or administrator pay, in due course of administration, the amount ascertained to be due. A certified transcript of the original docket of the judgment must be filed among the papers of the estate in court. No execution must issue upon such judgment, nor shall it create any lien upon the property of the estate, or give to the judgment creditor any priority of payment.

Against decedent.

SEC. 809. JUDGMENT AGAINST DECEDENT.—When any judgment has been rendered for or against the testator or intestate in his lifetime, no execution shall issue thereon after his death, except as provided in section 355. A judgment against the decedent for the recovery of money must be filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, like any other claim. If execution is actually levied upon any property of the decedent before his death, the same may be sold for the satisfaction thereof; and the officer making the sale must account to the executor or administrator for any surplus in his hands. A judgment creditor having a judgment which was rendered against the testator or intestate in his lifetime, may redeem any real estate of the decedent from any sale under foreclosure, or execution, in like manner and with like effect as if the judgment debtor were still living.

Ante, p. 970.

Disputed claims referred to referee.

SEC. 810. DISPUTED CLAIM MAY BE REFERRED TO REFEREE.—If the executor or administrator doubts the correctness of any claim presented to him or filed with the clerk, he may enter into an agreement in writing with the claimant to refer the matter in controversy to some disinterested person, to be approved by the court or judge. Upon filing the agreement and approval of such court or judge, in the office of the clerk of the court, the clerk must enter a minute of the order referring the matter in controversy to the person so selected, or, if the parties consent, a reference may be had in the court; and the report of the referee, if confirmed, establishes or rejects the claim the same as if it had been allowed or rejected by the executor or administrator and judge.

Trial by, confirmation, and effect.

SEC. 811. TRIAL BY REFEREE, HOW CONFIRMED, AND ITS EFFECT.—The referee must hear and determine the matter, and make his report thereon to the court in which his appointment is entered. The same proceedings shall be had in all respects, and the referee shall have the same powers, be entitled to the same compensation and subject to the same control, as in other cases of reference. The court may remove the referee, appoint another in his place, set aside or confirm his report and adjudge costs, as in actions against executors or administrators, and the judgment of the court thereon shall be as valid and effectual, in all respects, as if the same had been rendered in a suit commenced by ordinary process.

Liability of executor, etc., for costs.

SEC. 812. LIABILITY OF EXECUTOR, AND SO FORTH, FOR COSTS.—When a judgment is recovered, with costs, against any executor or administrator, he shall be individually liable for such costs, but they must be allowed him in his administration accounts, unless it appears that the suit or proceeding in which the costs were taxed was prosecuted or defended without just cause.

Executor, etc., as claimant.

SEC. 813. EXECUTOR'S CLAIM.—If the executor or administrator is a creditor of the decedent, his claim duly authenticated by affidavit shall be filed with the clerk, and must be presented by the clerk for allowance or rejection to the judge, who shall allow or reject it, and its allowance by the judge is sufficient evidence of its correctness, and it must be paid as other claims in due course of administration. If, however, the judge reject the claim, action thereon may be had against the estate by the claimant, and summons must be served upon the judge, who may appoint an attorney, at the expense of the estate, to defend the action. If the claimant recover no judgment, he must pay all costs, including defendant's reasonable attorney's fees, to be fixed by the court.

SEC. 814. EXECUTOR NEGLECTING TO GIVE NOTICE TO CREDITORS, TO BE REMOVED.—If an executor or administrator neglects for two months after his appointment to give notice to creditors, as prescribed by this chapter, the court must revoke his letters, and appoint some other person in his stead, equally or the next in order entitled to the appointment.

Removal of executor, if notice not given to creditors.

SEC. 815. STATEMENT OF CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE.—At the same time at which he is required to return an inventory, the executor or administrator must also return a statement of all claims against the estate which have been filed with the clerk, or presented to the executor or administrator, if so required by the court, or judge, and from time to time thereafter he must present a statement of claims subsequently so filed or presented, if so required by the court or judge. In all such statements he must designate the names of the creditors, the nature of each claim, when it became due, or will become due, and whether it was allowed or rejected by him, or not yet acted upon.

Statement of claims to be filed.

SEC. 816. PAYMENT OF DEBTS BEARING INTEREST.—If there be any debt of the decedent bearing interest, whether filed or not, or whether presented or not, the executor or administrator may, by order of the court, pay the amount then accumulated and unpaid, or any part thereof, at any time when there are sufficient funds properly applicable thereto, whether said claim be then due or not; and interest shall thereupon cease to accrue upon the amount so paid.

Payment of debts bearing interest.

SEC. 817. WHEN CLAIMANT CAN NOT BE FOUND; DEPOSIT WITH COLLECTOR.—Whenever any claim has been filed or presented and shall have been approved by the executor or administrator and by the judge, but the same has not been paid, and the estate is in all other respects ready to be closed, if it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court or judge, by affidavit, or by testimony, taken in open court, that the same can not be found, and has not been paid because the claimant can not be found, the court or judge shall make an order fixing the amount of said claim, with interest, if any, and directing the executor or administrator to deposit the amount with the collector of the Panama Canal, who shall give a receipt for the same, and who shall be liable upon his official bond therefor. Such executor or administrator shall at once make the deposit in accordance with such order of court and shall forthwith proceed to close up and settle such estate. Upon the final settlement of his accounts, the receipt of such collector shall be received as a proper voucher for the payment of such claim, and shall have the same force and effect as if executed by such claimant.

When claimant can not be found.

Deposit with collector.

Any person claiming to be entitled to any amount so deposited with the collector, may, within five years after such deposit, petition the court or judge for any order directing payment to the said claimant. A copy of such petition shall be served on the collector and thereafter no such amount shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, as hereinafter directed, until so ordered by the court.

Petition by claimant for funds in collector's hands.

If no one claims the amount, as herein provided, or if a claim be made and disallowed and the court so directs, such amount devolves to the United States and shall be covered into the Treasury by the collector as miscellaneous receipts.

Unclaimed, covered into Treasury.

SALES, ETC.,
PROPERTY OF
DECEDENT.CHAPTER 29.—SALES AND CONVEYANCES OF PROPERTY OF DECEDENTSEstate chargeable with debts.

SEC. 818. ESTATE CHARGEABLE WITH DEBTS; NO PRIORITY.—All of the property of a decedent shall be chargeable with the payment of the debts of the deceased, the expenses of administration, and the allowance to the family, except as otherwise provided in this code and in the Civil Code. And the said property, personal and real, may be sold in the manner prescribed in this chapter. There shall be no priority as between personal and real property for the purposes of this section.

No priority between realty and personalty.

Confirmation of sales.

SEC. 819. CONFIRMATION OF SALES.—All sales of property must be reported under oath to and confirmed by the court, before the title to the property passes.

Perishable, etc., property.

SEC. 820. PERISHABLE AND DEPRECIATING PROPERTY TO BE SOLD.—At any time after receiving letters, the executor, administrator, or special administrator may sell perishable and other personal property likely to depreciate in value, or which will incur loss or expense by being kept, and so much other personal property as may be necessary to pay the allowance made to the family of the decedent. The executor, administrator, or special administrator is responsible for the property unless, after making a sworn return, and on a proper showing, the court shall approve the sale.

Personalty.

SEC. 821. SALE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY BY EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.—If claims against the estate have been allowed, and a sale of property is necessary for their payment, or for the expenses of administration, or for the payment of legacies, the executor or administrator may sell all or so much of the personal property as may be necessary therefor. He may also make a sale from time to time, so long as any personal property remains in his hands, and sale thereof is necessary. If it appear for the best interests of the estate, he may, at any time after filing the inventory, in like manner sell the whole or any part of the personal property belonging to the estate, whether necessary to pay debts or not. Such sale to take effect only upon confirmation by the court.

Partnership interests, choses in action.

SEC. 822. PARTNERSHIP INTERESTS AND CHOSES IN ACTION, HOW SOLD.—Partnership interests or interests belonging to any estate by virtue of any partnership formerly existing, interest in personal property pledged, and choses in action, may be sold in the same manner as other personal property, when it appears to be for the best interest of the estate. Before confirming the sale of any partnership interest, whether made to the surviving partner or to any other person, the court or judge must carefully inquire into the condition of the partnership affairs, and must examine the surviving partner, if in the Canal Zone and able to be present in court.

Order of sales.

SEC. 823. ORDER OF SALES.—In making orders and sales for the payment of debts or family allowance, such articles as are not necessary for the support and subsistence of the family of the decedent, or are not specially bequeathed, must be first sold.

At public auction, or private sale.

SEC. 824. SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION OR PRIVATE SALE.—The sale of personal property may be made at public auction or private sale, for cash, and after public notice given for at least ten days by notices posted in three public places in the Canal Zone, or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone, or both, as the executor or administrator may determine, containing the time and place of sale, and a brief description of the property to be sold, unless the property to be sold be perishable property, in which latter case at least one day's notice by posting as aforesaid shall be given. Public sales must be made at the courthouse door, or at some other public place, or at the residence of the decedent; but no sale shall be made of any personal property which is not present at the time of sale, unless the court shall otherwise order.

SEC. 825. EXECUTOR AND GUARDIAN MAY BORROW ON CHATTEL MORTGAGE.—Whenever in any estate now being administered or that may hereafter be administered or in any guardianship proceeding now pending or that may hereafter be pending it shall appear to the district court or judge to be for the advantage of the estate to borrow and raise money upon a note or notes, to be secured by chattel mortgage or other lien upon the personal property of any decedent or of a minor or an incompetent person, or any part thereof, for the purpose of paying the debts of such decedent or such minor or incompetent person, the court or judge as often as occasion therefor shall arise in the administration of any estate or in the course of any guardianship may authorize, empower, and direct the executors or administrators or guardian of such minor or incompetent person to mortgage such personal property, or any part thereof, or to give other security by way of pledge or other lien upon such personal property, or any part thereof, and to execute a note or notes, to be secured by such mortgage, pledge, or lien: Provided, That in order to obtain such authorization, the proceedings to be taken and the effect thereof shall be as follows:

Authority to borrow on chattel mortgage.

Provided.
Procedure to be followed.

Verified petition to be filed.

First. VERIFIED PETITION.—The executor or administrator of any estate, or guardian of any minor or incompetent person, or any person interested in the estates of such decedents, minors, or incompetent persons, may file a verified petition showing:

1. The particular purpose or purposes for which it is proposed to make the note or notes and the chattel mortgage or other lien, which shall be either to maintain the ward and his family or to maintain and educate the ward when a minor, or to pay the debts, legacies, or charges of administration, or to pay, reduce, extend, or renew some lien or mortgage already subsisting on said property or some part thereof.

Purpose.

2. A statement of the facts and circumstances showing the insufficiency of the income of the estate under guardianship to maintain the ward and his family or to maintain and educate the ward when a minor and the debts, legacies, charges of administration, liens or mortgages to be paid, reduced, extended, or renewed, as the case may be.

Statement of facts and circumstances.

3. The advantage that may accrue to the estate from raising the required money by note or notes and mortgage or other lien, or providing for the payment, reduction, extension, or renewal of the subsisting liens or mortgages, as the case may be.

Advantages to accrue.

4. The amount to be raised, with a general description of the property proposed to be mortgaged; and,

Amount to be raised and description of property.

5. The names of the legatees and the devisees, if any, and of the heirs of the deceased, or of the minor, or of the incompetent person, as the case may be, so far as known to the petitioner.

Names of legatees, etc.

Second. Upon filing such petition, an order shall be made by the court or judge, requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear before the court or judge, at a time and place specified, not less than four nor more than ten weeks thereafter, then and there to show cause why the property (briefly indicating it), or some part thereof, should not be hypothecated for the amount mentioned in the petition (stating such amount), or such lesser amount as to the court or judge shall seem meet, and referring to the petition on file for further particulars.

Order to issue from court.

Notice. Third. The order to show cause may be personally served on the persons interested in the estate, at least ten days before the time appointed for hearing the petition, or may be published for four successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone.

Hearing. Fourth. PROCEEDINGS UPON HEARING.—Upon the hearing of the order to show cause, having first received satisfactory proof of personal service or publication of the order to show cause, the court or judge must proceed to hear the petition and any objections that may be filed or presented thereto. Upon such hearing, witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify, in the same manner, and with like effect, as in other cases; and if, after a full hearing, the court or judge is satisfied that it will be for the advantage of the estate to hypothecate the whole or any portion of the property, an order must be made authorizing, empowering, and directing the executor or administrator, or the guardian of such minor or incompetent person, to make such mortgage, pledge, or other lien, and a promissory note or notes to the lender, for the amount of the loan, to be secured by said mortgage or other lien.

Order to issue, to allow loan.

Contents. WHAT ORDER MAY PRESCRIBE.—The order may direct that a lesser amount than that named in the petition be borrowed, and may prescribe the maximum rate of interest and period of the loan, and may direct in what coin or currency it shall be paid, and require that the interest and the whole or any part of the principal be paid, from time to time, out of the whole estate or any part thereof.

Execution of note and mortgage.

Fifth. EXECUTION OF NOTE AND MORTGAGE.—After the making of the order to mortgage, the executor, administrator, or guardian of a minor or of an incompetent person shall execute and deliver a promissory note or notes for the amount and period specified in the order, and shall execute a mortgage, pledge, or other lien setting forth therein that it is made by authority of the order, and giving the date of such order. The note or notes and mortgage or other lien shall be signed by the executor, administrator, or guardian as such, and shall create no personal liability against the person so signing.

To be valid as against all parties.

Irregularity in proceedings not to impair.

Sixth. Every note or notes and mortgage or other lien so made shall be effectual to mortgage and hypothecate all the right, title, and interest which the decedent, minor, or incompetent person has in the property described therein.

No irregularity in the proceedings shall impair or invalidate the same or the note or notes and mortgage or other lien given in the pursuance thereof, and the mortgagee, his heirs and assigns, shall have and possess the same rights and remedies on the note or notes and mortgage or other lien as if it had been made by the decedent prior to his death, the minor after reaching the age of maturity, or the incompetent person when legally competent.

Provision. Deficiency on foreclosure.

DEFICIENCY ON FORECLOSURE.—Provided, however, That upon any foreclosure, if the proceeds of the encumbered property are insufficient to pay the note or notes, and mortgage, or other lien, no judgment or claim for any deficiency of such proceeds to satisfy the note or notes and mortgage, or the costs or expenses of sale, shall be had or allowed, except in cases where the note or notes and mortgage were given to pay, reduce, extend, or renew a lien or mortgage subsisting on the property, or some part thereof, at the time of the death of the decedent, and the indebtedness secured by such lien or mortgage was an allowed and approved claim against his estate, or a lien upon the interest of the minor in said property at the time it vested in him, or upon the estate of the incompetent at the time the incompetency of the incompetent person was so declared by the court:

And provided also, That in cases affecting the estate of the deceased persons, the part of the indebtedness remaining unsatisfied must be classed and paid with other demands against the estate, as provided in sections 875 to 885, with respect to mortgages and other liens subsisting at the time of death.

Unsatisfied deficiency to be simple debt.

SEC. 826. WHEN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR MAY SELL REAL PROPERTY.—When it is for the advantage, benefit, and best interests of the estate, and those interested therein, that the real estate, or some part thereof, or interest therein be sold, the executor or administrator may sell the same under such terms, conditions, and in the manner prescribed by the court.

Sale of real property.

SEC. 827. POWER OF EXECUTOR OR GUARDIAN TO BORROW MONEY UPON UNSECURED NOTES.—Whenever in any estate now being administered or that may hereafter be administered, or in any guardianship proceeding now pending, or that may hereafter be pending, it shall appear to the court or judge having jurisdiction of said estate, or said minor or incompetent person, to be for the advantage, benefit, or best interest of the estate of said minor or incompetent person, to borrow money upon a note or notes, without being secured, the court or judge, as often as occasion therefor shall arise in the administration of any estate, or in the course of any guardianship, may upon petition and notice of hearing, as provided in this section, authorize, empower, and direct the executor or administrator or guardian of such minor or incompetent person, to execute a note or notes, without security.

Authority to borrow on unsecured notes.

The proceeding to be taken to obtain an order to borrow said money and execute said note or notes shall be as follows:

Procedure.

First. The executor, or administrator of any estate, or guardian of any minor or incompetent person must file a verified petition showing,

Verified petition.

(a) The particular purpose or purposes for which it is proposed to borrow said money, and the purpose or purposes for which it is to be used.

Purpose.

(b) The advantage or advantages that may accrue to said estate from borrowing said money and executing said note or notes.

Advantages to accrue.

(c) The amount of money to be borrowed, the rate of interest to be paid, and the length of time said note or notes are to run.

Amount, interest, etc.

Second. Upon filing such petition, the clerk of the court shall fix a day for hearing the same by the court.

Hearing.

Third. The petitioner shall cause notice of the hearing to be mailed, postage prepaid, to the heirs at law of said decedent, and to the devisees and legatees resident in the Canal Zone, and to the nearest relatives of said minor or incompetent person, resident in the Canal Zone, at least ten days before the hearing, addressed to them at their respective post-office addresses, if known. Otherwise, at the place where the proceedings are pending.

Notice.

Fourth. At the time and place appointed for said hearing, or at such other time and place to which the hearing may be postponed by the court, the court must proceed to hear the petition, and any objections that may be filed or presented thereto, and, if, after a full hearing, the court is satisfied that it will be for the advantage, benefit, or best interest of the estate of said decedent, or of said minor or incompetent person, to borrow said money, and execute said note or notes, without security, an order must be made, authorizing, empowering, and directing the executor, or administrator, or the guardian of such minor or incompetent person to borrow said money, and to make and execute said note or notes, without security, specifying in said order the amount that may be borrowed, the rate of interest that is to be paid, and the length of time that said note or notes are to run.

Procedure on hearing.

Issue of notes, etc.

Fifth. After the making of the order to borrow said money and execute said note or notes, the executor, administrator, or guardian of the minor or incompetent person, shall execute and deliver a promissory note or notes, without security, for the amount, at the rate of interest, and for the period prescribed in said order, and said note or notes shall be signed by the executor, or administrator or guardian, as such, and shall create no personal liability against the person so signing.

To be valid as against all parties.

Sixth. Any note or notes so signed and executed, shall be effectual to create a valid obligation and debt against said estate, or said minor or incompetent person, and shall be payable out of the funds of said estate, and said note or notes shall specify that it is made by authority of such order, giving the date thereof.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF EXECUTORS, ETC., MANAGEMENT OF ESTATES.

CHAPTER 30.—POWERS AND DUTIES OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS, AND MANAGEMENT OF ESTATES.

Possession of estate.

SEC. 828. EXECUTORS TO TAKE POSSESSION OF THE ENTIRE ESTATE.—The executor or administrator must take into his possession all the estate of the decedent, real and personal, and collect all debts due to the decedent or to the estate. For the purpose of bringing suits to quiet title, or for partition of such estate, the possession of the executors or administrators is the possession of the heirs or devisees; such possession by the heirs or devisees is subject, however, to the possession of the executor or administrator, for the purposes of administration, as provided in chapters 23 to 36 of this code.

Actions by and against executors, etc.

SEC. 829. ACTIONS MAY BE MAINTAINED BY AND AGAINST EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS.—Actions for the recovery of any property, real or personal, or for the possession thereof, or to quiet title thereto, or to determine any adverse claim thereon, and all actions founded upon contracts, may be maintained by and against executors and administrators in all cases in which the same might have been maintained by or against their respective testators or intestates.

Actions by, for waste, conversion, and trespass.

SEC. 830. MAY MAINTAIN ACTIONS FOR WASTE, CONVERSION, AND TRESPASS.—Executors and administrators may maintain actions against any person who has wasted, destroyed, taken, or carried away, or converted to his own use, the goods of their testator or intestate, in his lifetime. They may also maintain actions for trespass committed on the real estate of the decedent in his lifetime.

Against, for waste or trespass of decedent.

SEC. 831. EXECUTOR AND ADMINISTRATOR MAY BE SUED FOR WASTE OR TRESPASS OF DECEDENT.—Any person or his personal representatives may maintain an action against the executor or administrator of any testator or intestate who in his lifetime has wasted, destroyed, taken, or carried away, or converted to his own use, the goods or chattels of any such person, or committed any trespass on the real estate of such person.

Surviving partner.

SEC. 832. SURVIVING PARTNER TO SETTLE UP BUSINESS; INTEREST THEREIN TO BE APPRAISED; ACCOUNT TO BE RENDERED.—When a partnership exists between the decedent, at the time of his death, and any other person, the surviving partner has the right to continue in possession of the partnership, and to settle its business, but the interest of the decedent in the partnership must be included in the inventory, and be appraised as other property. The surviving partner must settle the affairs of the partnership without delay, and account with the executor or administrator, and pay over such balances as may from time to time be payable to him, in right of the decedent. Upon the application of the executor or administrator, the court, or a judge thereof, may, whenever it appears necessary, Account may be required.

order the surviving partner to render an account, and in case of neglect or refusal may, after notice, compel it by attachment; and the executor or administrator may maintain against him any action which the decedent could have maintained.

SEC. 833. ACTIONS ON BOND OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR MAY BE BROUGHT BY ANOTHER ADMINISTRATOR.—An administrator may, in his own name, for the use and benefit of all parties interested in the estate, maintain actions on the bond of an executor, or of any former administrator of the same estate. Action on bond of executor, etc.

SEC. 834. WHAT EXECUTORS ARE NOT PARTIES TO ACTIONS.—In actions by or against executors, it is not necessary to join those as parties to whom letters were issued, but who have not qualified. Unqualified executors not parties to actions.

SEC. 835. MAY COMPOUND.—Whenever a debtor of the decedent is unable to pay all his debts, the executor or administrator, with the approbation of the court or judge, may compound with him and give him a discharge, upon receiving a fair and just dividend of his effects. A compromise may also be authorized when it appears to be just, and for the best interest of the estate. Compounds and compromises.

SEC. 836. RECOVERY OF PROPERTY FRAUDULENTLY DISPOSED OF BY TESTATOR.—When there is a deficiency of assets in the hands of an executor or administrator, and when the decedent, in his lifetime, has conveyed any real estate, or any rights or interests therein, with intent to defraud his creditors, or to avoid any right, debt, or duty of any person, or has so conveyed such estate that by law the deeds or conveyances are void as against creditors, the executor or administrator must commence and prosecute to final judgment any proper action for the recovery of the same; and may recover for the benefit of the creditor all such real estate so fraudulently conveyed; and may also, for the benefit of the creditors, sue and recover all goods, chattels, rights, or credits which have been so conveyed by the decedent in his lifetime, whatever may have been the manner of such fraudulent conveyance. Recovery of property fraudulently disposed of by testator.

SEC. 837. WHEN EXECUTOR TO SUE, AS PROVIDED IN PRECEDING SECTION.—No executor or administrator is bound to sue for such estate, as mentioned in section 836, for the benefit of the creditors, unless on application of creditors, who must pay such part of the costs and expenses of the suit, or give such security to the executor or administrator therefor, as the court or judge shall direct. Suit to be instituted on application of creditors.

SEC. 838. DISPOSITION OF ESTATE RECOVERED.—All real estate so recovered must be sold for the payment of debts, in the same manner as if the decedent had died seised thereof, upon obtaining an order therefor from the court; and the proceeds of all goods, chattels, rights, and credits so recovered must be appropriated in payment of the debts of the decedent in the same manner as other property in the hands of the executor or administrator. The remainder of the proceeds, after all the debts of the decedent have been paid, must be paid to the person from whom such property was recovered. Disposition of estate recovered.

SEC. 839. COURT MAY ORDER FUNDS DEPOSITED.—The court is empowered to order any executor or administrator to deposit any or all funds of an estate, coming into his hands, in a bank or banks, or other depository, to be designated by the court. The deposit shall be made in the name of the executor or administrator with a designation of his fiduciary capacity. The court may direct the executor or administrator to deposit any or all of such funds in an interest-bearing account: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve any executor or administrator from any duty otherwise imposed by law. Deposit of funds on order of court.

Proviso.
Executors, etc., not relieved from duties, etc., thereby.

Investment of moneys, pending settlement, by court order.

SEC. 840. INVESTMENT OF MONEYS OF ESTATE PENDING SETTLEMENT.—Pending the settlement of any estate, on the petition of any person interested therein, and upon good cause shown therefor, the court may order any money in the hands of the executors or administrators to be invested for the benefit of the estate in securities of the United States.

Notice of hearing on petition.

Such order can only be made after ten days' notice of the hearing of the said petition, by notice posted in three public places in the Canal Zone, or by publication in a newspaper of general circulation therein, or both, as the court or judge shall direct.

CONVEYANCE AND TRANSFER OF PROPERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL.

CHAPTER 31.—CONVEYANCE OF REAL ESTATE AND TRANSFER OF PERSONAL PROPERTY BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS IN CERTAIN CASES

Completion of contracts for sale.

SEC. 841. EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR TO COMPLETE CONTRACTS FOR SALE OF REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY.—When a person who is bound by contract in writing to convey any real estate, or to transfer any personal property, dies before making conveyance or transfer, and in all cases when such decedent, if living, might be compelled to make such conveyance or transfer, the court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings of the estate of such decedent, may make a decree authorizing and directing the executor or administrator of such deceased person to convey or transfer such real estate or personal property to the person entitled thereto.

Procedure to enforce.

SEC. 842. PETITION FOR EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR TO MAKE CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER AND NOTICE OF HEARING.—On the presentation of a verified petition by the executor or administrator, or by any person claiming to be entitled to such conveyance from an executor or administrator, setting forth the facts upon which the claim is predicated, the court or judge shall appoint a time and place for hearing the petition, and shall order notice thereof to be served on the executor or administrator personally when he is not the petitioner, and to be published at least once a week for four successive weeks before such hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone.

Contest by interested parties.

SEC. 843. INTERESTED PARTIES MAY CONTEST.—At the time and place appointed for the hearing, or at such other time to which the same may be postponed, upon satisfactory proof by affidavit or otherwise, of the due publication of the notice, the court shall proceed to hear the said petition, and all persons interested in the estate may appear and contest such petition, by filing their objections in writing, and the court may examine, on oath, the petitioner and all who may be produced before him for that purpose.

Decree authorizing.

SEC. 844. DECREE AUTHORIZING CONVEYANCE.—If after a full hearing upon the petition and objections and examination of the facts and circumstances of the claim, the court is satisfied that the conveyance of the real estate described in the petition to the party entitled thereto should be made, a decree authorizing and directing the executor or administrator to execute a conveyance thereof to the party entitled thereto must be made.

Execution of conveyance, etc.

SEC. 845. EXECUTION OF CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER, AND THE RECORDING OF THE ORDER THEREFOR.—The executor or administrator must execute the conveyance or transfer according to the directions contained in the decree, which decree shall be prima facie evidence of the correctness of the proceedings, and of the authority of the executor or administrator to make the conveyance or transfer.

SEC. 846. RIGHTS OF PETITIONER TO ENFORCE THE CONTRACT.—If upon the hearing, as hereinbefore provided, the right of the petitioner to have a specific performance of the contract is found to be doubtful, the court must dismiss the petition without prejudice to the rights of the petitioner, who may, at any time within six months after such dismissal, proceed by action to enforce a specific performance thereof.

Rights of petitioner to enforce contract.

SEC. 847. EFFECT OF CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER.—Every conveyance or transfer made in pursuance of a decree as provided in this chapter, shall pass title to the property contracted for, as fully as if the contracting party himself was still living, and executed the conveyance or transfer.

Effect of conveyance or transfer.

SEC. 848. EFFECT OF RECORDING A COPY OF THE DECREE.—A copy of the decree for a conveyance or transfer as provided in this chapter, duly certified and recorded in the office of the registrar of property, gives the person entitled to the conveyance or transfer a right to the possession of the property contracted for, and to hold the same according to the terms of the intended conveyance or transfer, in like manner as if the same had been conveyed or transferred in pursuance of the decree.

Of recording copy of decree.

SEC. 849. RECORDING OF THE DECREE DOES NOT SUPERSEDE POWER OF COURT TO ENFORCE IT.—The recording of any decree, as provided in section 848 shall not prevent the court making the decree from enforcing the same by other process.

Recording decree not to supersede power of court to enforce.

SEC. 850. WHERE PARTY TO WHOM CONVEYANCE OR TRANSFER TO BE MADE IS DEAD.—If the person entitled to the conveyance or transfer dies before the commencement of the proceedings therefor under this chapter, or before the completion of the conveyance or transfer, any person entitled to succeed to his rights in the contract, or the executor or administrator of such decedent, may, for the benefit of the person so entitled, commence such proceedings or prosecute any already commenced, and the conveyance or transfer must be so made as to vest the property in the person or persons entitled thereto, or in the executor or administrator, for their benefit.

When transferee dead.

SEC. 851. DECREE MAY DIRECT POSSESSION TO BE SURRENDERED.—The decree provided for in this chapter may direct the possession of the property therein described to be surrendered to the person entitled thereto, upon his producing a certified copy of the decree, when, by the terms of the contract, possession is to be surrendered.

Surrender of possession.

CHAPTER 32.—ACCOUNTS RENDERED BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS, AND PAYMENT OF DEBTS

ACCOUNTS BY EXECUTORS, ETC. PAYMENT OF DEBTS.

LIABILITIES AND COMPENSATION OF EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Liabilities and compensation of executors, etc. Personal liability.

SEC. 852. WHEN EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR PERSONALLY LIABLE.—No executor or administrator is chargeable upon any special promise to answer in damages or to pay the debts of the testator or intestate out of his own estate, unless the agreement for that purpose, or some memorandum or note thereof, is in writing and signed by such executor or administrator, or by some other person by him thereunto specially authorized in writing.

SEC. 853. EXECUTOR TO BE CHARGED WITH ALL ESTATE, AND SO FORTH.—Every executor and administrator is chargeable in his account with the whole of the estate of the decedent which may come into his possession at the value of the appraisalment contained in the inventory, except as provided in the following sections, and with all the interest, profit, and income of the estate.

Executor, etc., chargeable with all estate, etc.

Not to profit or lose
by estate.

SEC. 854. NOT TO PROFIT OR LOSE BY ESTATE.—He shall not make profit by the increase, nor suffer loss by the decrease, or destruction, without his fault, of any part of the estate. He must account for the excess when he sells any part of the estate for more than the appraisal, and if any is sold for less than the appraisal, he is not responsible for the loss, if the sale has been justly made.

Uncollected debts without fault.

SEC. 855. UNCOLLECTED DEBTS WITHOUT FAULT.—No executor or administrator is accountable for any debts due to the decedent, if it appears that they remain uncollected without his fault.

Allowance of expenses.

SEC. 856. EXPENSES OF EXECUTORS.—The executor or administrator shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care, management, and settlement of the estate, and for his services such fees as provided by this chapter; but when the decedent, by his will, makes some other provision for the compensation of his executor, that shall be a full compensation for his services, unless by a written instrument, filed in the court, he renounces all claim for compensation provided for in the will.

missions.

ALLOWANCE UPON COMMISSIONS.—At any time during the administration any executor or administrator, may, upon such notice to the other parties interested in the estate as the court shall by order require, apply to the court for an allowance to himself upon his commissions, and the court shall on the hearing of such application make an order allowing such executor or administrator such portion of his commissions as to the court shall seem proper, and the portion so allowed may be thereupon charged against the estate.

ney of fees.

ALLOWANCE TO ATTORNEY UPON FEE.—Any attorney who has rendered services to an executor or administrator may at any time during the administration, and upon such notice to the other parties interested in the estate as the court shall by order require, apply to the court for an allowance to himself, of compensation therefor, and the court shall on the hearing of such application make an order requiring the executor or administrator to pay such attorney out of the estate such compensation on account of services rendered by such attorney up to the date of such order as to the court shall seem proper, and such payment shall be forthwith made.

against estate forbidden.

SEC. 857. NOT TO PURCHASE CLAIMS AGAINST THE ESTATE.—No administrator or executor shall purchase any claim against the estate he represents; and if he pays any claim for less than its nominal value he is only entitled to charge in his account the amount he actually paid.

Commissions allowed to executors and administrators.

SEC. 858. EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS; COMMISSIONS ALLOWED TO.—When no compensation is provided by the will, or the executor renounces all claim thereto, he must be allowed commissions upon the amount of estate accounted for by him, as follows: for the first $1,000, at the rate of 7 per cent; for the next $9,000, at the rate of 4 per cent; for the next $10,000, at the rate of 3 per cent; for the next $30,000, at the rate of 2 per cent; for the next $50,000, at the rate of 1 per cent; and for all above $100,000, at the rate of one-half of 1 per cent. If there are two or more executors the compensation shall be apportioned among them by the court according to the services actually rendered by them respectively. The same commissions shall be allowed to administrators. In all cases, such further allowance may be made as the court may deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary service, but the total amount of such extra allowance must not exceed one-half the amount of commissions allowed by this section. Where the property of the estate is distributed in kind, and involves no labor beyond the custody and distribution of the same, the commission shall be computed on all the estate above the value of $20,000, at one-half of the rates fixed in this section. Public administrators shall, subject to the provisions of section 952, receive the same compensation and allowances as are allowed in this title to other administrators. All contracts between an executor or administrator and an heir, devisee, or legatee, for a higher compensation than that allowed by this section, shall be void. When the executor or administrator is an attorney he shall not be allowed to charge against the estate any professional fees, as such, for services rendered by himself.

Public administrators.

Attorney serving as, not allowed professional fees.

SEC. 859. ALLOWED FEES FOR ATTORNEYS; EXTRAORDINARY<sup>1</sup> SERVICES.—Attorneys for executors and administrators shall be allowed out of the estate as fees for conducting the ordinary probate proceedings such reasonable sum as the court may allow which shall be not in excess of such amounts as are allowed by section 858 as compensation for executors and administrators for their own services. In all cases such further allowance may be made as the court may deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary services such as sales or mortgages of real estate, contested or litigated claims against the estate, litigation in regard to the property of the estate, and such other litigation as may be necessary for the executor or administrator to prosecute or defend.

Attorneys' fees, extraordinary services.

ACCOUNTING AND SETTLEMENTS BY EXECUTORS AND ADMINISTRATORS

Accounting and settlements by executors, etc.

SEC. 860. EXECUTOR'S EXHIBIT OF MONEY RECEIVED, AND SO FORTH.—When required by the court, either upon its own motion or upon the application of any person interested in the estate, the executor or administrator must render an exhibit under oath, showing the amount of money received and expended by him, the amount of all claims filed or presented against the estate, and the names of the claimants, and all other matters necessary to show the condition of its affairs.

Exhibits of money received, etc.

SEC. 861. OBJECTIONS TO ACCOUNT, WHO MAY FILE.—When an exhibit is rendered by an executor or administrator, any person interested may appear and, by objections in writing, contest any account or statement therein contained. The court may examine the executor or administrator, and if he has been guilty of neglect, or has wasted, embezzled, or mismanaged the estate, his letters must be revoked.

Objections to account, filing of.

SEC. 862. ATTACHMENT FOR NOT OBEYING CITATION.—If any executor or administrator neglects or refuses to appear and render an exhibit, after having been duly cited, an attachment may be issued against him and such exhibit enforced, or his letters may be revoked, in the discretion of the court.

Attachment for not obeying citation.

SEC. 863. EXECUTOR'S REPORT.—Within thirty days after the expiration of the time mentioned in the notice to creditors within which claims must be filed or exhibited every executor or administrator must render a full account and report of his administration. If he fails to present his account the court or judge must compel the rendering of the account by attachments, and any person interested in the estate may apply for and obtain an attachment; but no attachment must issue unless a citation has been first issued, served, and returned, requiring the executor or administrator to appear and show cause why an attachment should not issue. Every account must exhibit all debts which have been filed and allowed during the period embraced in the account.

Executor's report.

Account after authority revoked.

SEC. 864. EXECUTOR TO ACCOUNT AFTER HIS AUTHORITY REVOKED.—When the authority of an executor or administrator ceases, or is revoked for any reason, he may be cited to account before the court, at the instance of the person succeeding to the administration of the same estate, in like manner as he might have been cited by any person interested in the estate during the time he was executor or administrator.

Revocation of authority.

SEC. 865. REVOKING AUTHORITY OF EXECUTOR, WHEN.—If the executor or administrator resides out of the Canal Zone, or absconds, or conceals himself, so that the citation can not be personally served, and neglects to render an account within thirty days after the time prescribed in this subchapter, or if he neglects to render an account within thirty days after being committed where the attachment has been executed, his letters must be revoked.

Vouchers to be produced and filed.

SEC. 866. TO PRODUCE AND FILE VOUCHERS, WHICH REMAIN IN COURT.—In rendering his account, the executor or administrator must produce and file vouchers for all charges, debts, claims, and expenses which he has paid, which must remain in the court; and he may be examined on oath touching such payments, and also touching any property and effects of the decedent, and the disposition thereof. When any voucher is required for other purposes, it may be withdrawn on leaving a certified copy on file; if a voucher is lost, or for other good reason can not be produced on the settlement, the payment may be proved by the oath of any competent witness.

Petty cash expenditures.

SEC. 867. EXPENDITURES LESS THAN $20 MAY BE ALLOWED EXECUTORS WITHOUT VOUCHERS.—On the settlement of his account he may be allowed any item of expenditure not exceeding $20, for which no voucher is produced, if such item be supported by his own uncontradicted oath positive to the fact of payment, specifying when, where, and to whom it was made; but such allowances in the whole must not exceed $500 against any one estate.

Lost and destroyed vouchers.

LOST OR DESTROYED VOUCHERS.—Provided, that if it appears by the oath to the account and is proven by competent evidence to the satisfaction of the court, that a voucher for any disbursement or disbursements whatsoever has been lost or destroyed, and that it is impossible to obtain a duplicate thereof, and that such item or items were paid in good faith and for the best interests of the estate, and such item or items were legal charges against said estate, then the executor or administrator shall be allowed such item or items.

Payments of debts without affidavit, etc.
Ante, p. 1045.

PAYMENTS OF DEBTS WITHOUT AFFIDAVIT AND ALLOWANCE.—If, upon such settlement of accounts, it appears that debts against the deceased have been paid without the affidavit and allowance prescribed by statute or sections 799 and 800, and it shall be proven by competent evidence to the satisfaction of the court that such debts were justly due, were paid in good faith, that the amount paid was the true amount of such indebtedness over and above all payments or set-offs, and that the estate is solvent, it shall be the duty of the said court to allow the said sums so paid in the settlement of said accounts.

Day of settlement to be appointed.

SEC. 868. DAY OF SETTLEMENT TO BE APPOINTED; CLERK MUST GIVE NOTICE THEREOF; HEARING ON SETTLEMENT.—When any account is rendered for settlement, the clerk of the court must appoint a day for the settlement thereof, and thereupon give notice thereof by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in the Canal Zone, setting forth the name of the estate, the executor or administrator, and the day appointed for the settlement of the account. If, upon the final hearing at the time of settlement, the court or judge should deem the notice insufficient from any cause, Notice.

Hearing.

he may order such further notice to be given as may seem to him proper.

SEC. 869. WHEN SETTLEMENT IS FINAL, NOTICE MUST SO STATE.—If the account mentioned in the preceding section be for a final settlement, and a petition for the final distribution of the estate be filed with said account, the notice of settlement must state those facts, which notice must be given by posting or publication for at least ten days prior to the day of settlement. On the settlement of said account, distribution and partition of the estate to all entitled thereto may be immediately had without further notice or proceedings.

Notice of final settlement.

SEC. 870. INTERESTED PARTY MAY FILE EXCEPTIONS TO ACCOUNT.—On the day appointed, or any subsequent day to which the hearing may be postponed by the court, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his exceptions in writing to the account, and contest the same.

Exceptions to account.

SEC. 871. ALL MATTERS MAY BE CONTESTED BY THE HEIRS; HEARING MAY BE POSTPONED.—All matters, including allowed claims not passed upon on the settlement of any former account, or on rendering an exhibit, or on making a decree of sale, may be contested by the heirs, for cause shown. The hearing and allegations of the respective parties may be postponed from time to time, when necessary, and the court may appoint one or more referees to examine the accounts, and make report thereon, subject to confirmation; and may allow a reasonable compensation to the referees to be paid out of the estate of the decedent. Whenever an allowed claim is contested by any heir, or other person entitled to contest it, either the contestant or the claimant is entitled to a trial by jury of the issues of fact presented by the contest; and it is the duty of the court, at request of either party, to call a jury and submit to them such issues, and, after receiving their verdict, to enter an order disposing of such contest in accordance therewith.

Contesting of matters by heirs.

Postponement of hearing.

Trial by jury.

SEC. 872. SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS TO BE CONCLUSIVE, WHEN AND WHEN NOT.—The settlement of the account and the allowance thereof by the court, or upon appeal, is conclusive against all persons in any way interested in the estate, saving, however, to all persons laboring under any legal disability, their right to move for cause to reopen and examine the account, or to proceed by action against the executor or administrator, either individually or upon his bond, at any time before final distribution; and in any action brought by any such person, the allowance and settlement of the account is prima facie evidence of its correctness.

Settlement of accounts conclusive.

Saving persons under disability.

SEC. 873. PROOF OF NOTICE OF SETTLEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.—The account must not be allowed by the court until it is first proved that notice has been given as required by this chapter, and the decree must show that such proof was made to the satisfaction of the court, and is conclusive evidence of the fact.

Proof of notice.

SEC. 874. DECEASED EXECUTOR'S OR GUARDIAN'S ACCOUNTS.—If any executor, administrator or guardian dies, his accounts may be presented by his personal representative to, and settled by, the court in which the estate of which he was executor, administrator or guardian is being administered, and, upon petition of the successor of such deceased executor, administrator or guardian, such court may compel the personal representatives of such deceased executor, administrator or guardian to render an account of the administration of their testator or intestate, and must settle such account as in other cases.

Deceased executor's, etc., accounts.

Payment of debts.

PAYMENT OF DEBTS OF ESTATE

Order.

SEC. 875. ORDER IN WHICH DEBTS MUST BE PAID.—The debts of the estate must be paid in the following order:

1. Funeral expenses;
2. The expenses of the last sickness;
3. Debts due to the United States;
4. Judgments rendered against the decedent in his lifetime, and mortgages and other liens in the order of their date;
5. All other demands against the estate.

Debts payable in particular kind of currency.

If a debt is payable in a particular kind of money or currency, it must be paid only in such money or currency. If the estate is insolvent, no greater rate of interest must be paid upon any debt, from the time of the first publication of notice to creditors, than is allowed by law on judgments.

Limitation on priority of mortgage, etc.

SEC. 876. WHERE PROPERTY INSUFFICIENT TO PAY MORTGAGE.—The preference given in section 875 to a mortgage or lien only extends to the proceeds of the property subject to the mortgage or lien. If the proceeds of such property are insufficient to pay the mortgage or lien, the part remaining unsatisfied must be classed with general demands against the estate.

If estate insufficient, dividends to be paid.

SEC. 877. ESTATE INSUFFICIENT, A DIVIDEND TO BE PAID.—If the estate is insufficient to pay all the debts of any one class, each creditor must be paid a dividend in proportion to his claim; and no creditor of any one class shall receive any payment until all those of the preceding class are fully paid.

Expenses of funeral and last sickness.

SEC. 878. FUNERAL EXPENSES AND EXPENSES OF LAST SICKNESS.—The executor or administrator, as soon as he has sufficient funds in his hands, must pay the funeral expenses and the expenses of the last sickness, and the allowance made to the family of the decedent. He may retain in his hands the necessary expenses of administration, but he is not obliged to pay any other debt or any legacy until, as prescribed in this sub-chapter, the payment has been ordered by the court.

Payment of debts by court order.

SEC. 879. ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF DEBTS, AND DISCHARGE OF THE EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR.—Upon the settlement of the account of the executor or administrator, provided for in section 863, the court must make an order for the payment of the debts, as the circumstances of the estate require. If there are not sufficient funds in the hands of the executor or administrator, the court must specify in the decree the sum to be paid to each creditor. If the whole property of the estate is exhausted by such payment or distribution, such account must be considered as a final account, and the executor or administrator is entitled to his discharge on producing and filing the necessary vouchers and proofs showing that such payments have been made, and that he has fully complied with the decree of the court.

Discharge of executor, etc.

Disputed and contingent claims.

SEC. 880. PROVISION FOR DISPUTED AND CONTINGENT CLAIMS.—If there is any claim not due, or any contingent or disputed claim against the estate, the amount thereof, or such part of the same as the holder would be entitled to if the claim were due, established, or absolute, must be paid into the court, and there remain, to be paid over to the party when he becomes entitled thereto; or, if he fails to establish his claim, to be paid over or distributed as the circumstances of the estate require. If any creditor whose claim has been allowed, but is not yet due, appears and assents to a deduction therefrom of the legal interest for the time the claim has yet to run, he is entitled to be paid accordingly. The payments provided for in this section are not to be made when the estate is insolvent, unless a pro rata distribution is ordered.

SEC. 881. AFTER DECREE FOR PAYMENT OF DEBTS, EXECUTOR PERSONALLY LIABLE TO CREDITORS.—When a decree is made by the court for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator is personally liable to each creditor for his allowed claim, or the dividend thereon, and execution may be issued on such decree, as upon a judgment in the court, in favor of each creditor, and the same proceeding may be had under such execution as under execution in other cases. The executor or administrator is liable therefor on his bond to each creditor.

Court decree for payment of debts, executor personally liable.

SEC. 882. CLAIMS NOT INCLUDED IN ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF DEBTS, HOW DISPOSED OF.—When the accounts of the administrator or executor have been settled, and an order made for the payment of debts and distribution of the estate, no creditor whose claim was not included in the order for payment has any right to call upon the creditors who have been paid, or upon the heirs, devisees, or legatees to contribute to the payment of his claim; but if the executor or administrator has failed to give the notice to the creditors, as prescribed in section 795, such creditor may recover on the bond of the executor or administrator the amount of his claim, or such part thereof as he would have been entitled to had it been allowed. This section shall not apply to any creditor whose claim was not due ten months before the day of settlement, or whose claim was contingent and did not become absolute ten months before such day.

Claims not included in decree, disposition of.

SEC. 883. ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF LEGACIES, AND EXTENSION OF TIME.—If the whole of the debts have been paid by the first distribution, the court must direct the payment of legacies and the distribution of the estate among the heirs, legatees, or other persons entitled, as provided in the next chapter; but if there be debts remaining unpaid, or if, for other reasons, the estate be not in a proper condition to be closed, the court must give such extension of time as may be reasonable for a final settlement of the estate.

Decree for payment of legacies, extension of time.

SEC. 884. FINAL ACCOUNT, WHEN TO BE MADE.—At the time designated in section 883, or sooner, if within that time all the property of the estate has been sold, or there are sufficient funds in his hands for the payment of all the debts due by the estate, and the estate be in a proper condition to be closed, the executor or administrator must render a final account, and pray a settlement of his administration.

Final account.

SEC. 885. NEGLECT TO RENDER FINAL ACCOUNT, HOW TREATED.—If he neglects to render his account, the same proceedings may be had as prescribed in this chapter in regard to the first account to be rendered by him; and all the provisions of this chapter relative to the last-mentioned account, and the notice and settlement thereof, apply to his account presented for final settlement.

Failure to render.

CHAPTER 33.—PARTITION, DISTRIBUTION, AND FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES

PARTITION, DISTRIBUTION, FINAL SETTLEMENT OF ESTATES.

PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION PRIOR TO FINAL SETTLEMENT

Partial distribution.

SEC. 886. PAYMENT OF LEGACIES.—At any time after the lapse of four months from the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration, any heir, devisee, legatee (or his assignee, grantee, or successor in interest) may present his petition to the court for the legacy or share of the estate to which he is entitled, or any portion thereof, to be given to him upon his giving bonds, with security, for the payment of his proportion of the debts of the estate.

Payment of legacies, petition for.

Notice.

SEC. 887. NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LEGACIES.—Notice of the application must be given to the executor or administrator, personally, and to all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of the account of an executor or administrator.

Contest.

SEC. 888. EXECUTOR, OR OTHER PERSON INTERESTED, MAY RESIST APPLICATION.—The executor or administrator, or any person interested in the estate, may appear at the time named and resist the application.

Granting of prayer of applicant.

SEC. 889. PRAYER OF APPLICANT GRANTED.—If, at the hearing, it appears that the estate is but little indebted, and that the share of the party applying may be allowed to him without loss to the creditors of the estate, the court must make an order in conformity with the prayer of the applicant, requiring:

Decree granting, to require.

Bond.

1. BOND.—Each heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee, or successor in interest) obtaining such order, before receiving his share or any portion thereof, to execute and deliver to the executor or administrator, a bond, in such sum as may be designated by the court or judge, with sureties to be approved by the judge, payable to the executor or administrator, and conditioned for the payment, whenever required, of his proportion of the debts due from the estate, not exceeding the value or amount of the legacy or portion of the estate to which he is entitled. Where the time for filing or presenting claims has expired, and all claims that have been allowed, have been paid, or are secured by mortgage upon real estate sufficient to pay them, and the court is satisfied that no injury can result to the estate, the court may dispense with the bond;

Delivery of property.

2. DELIVERY OF PROPERTY.—The executor or administrator to deliver to the heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee, or successor in interest), the whole portion of the estate to which he may be entitled, or only a part thereof designating it.

Partition.

If, in the execution of the order, a partition is necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it must be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The costs of these proceedings must be paid by the applicant, or if there are more than one, must be apportioned equally among them.

Petition and order for payment of bond.

SEC. 890. ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF BOND, AND SUIT THEREON.—When any bond has been executed and delivered, under the provisions of the preceding section, and it is necessary for the settlement of the estate to require the payment of any part of the money thereby secured, the executor or administrator must petition the court for an order requiring the payment, and have a citation issued and served on the party bound, requiring him to appear and show cause why the order should not be made. At the hearing, the court, if satisfied of the necessity of such payment, must make an order accordingly, designating the amount and giving a time within which it must be paid. If the money is not paid within the time allowed, an action may be maintained by the executor or administrator on the bond.

Partial distribution, petition for.

SEC. 891. PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATES OF DECEASED PERSONS.—Where the time for filing or presenting claims has expired, and all claims that have been allowed have been paid, or are secured by a mortgage upon real estate sufficient to pay them, and the estate is not in a condition to be finally closed and distributed, the executor or administrator, or coexecutor or coadministrator, may present his petition to the court for ratable payment of the legacies, or ratable distribution of the estate to all the heirs, legatees, devisees, or their assignees, grantees or successors in interest. Notice of such application must be given to all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that notice is required to be given of the settlement of the account of an executor or administrator.

Any person interested in the estate may appear at the time named and resist the application.

Contest.

ORDER GRANTED WHEN.—If, at the hearing, it appears that the allegations of the petition of said executor, administrator, coexecutor, or coadministrator, are true, and the court is satisfied that no injury can result to the estate by granting the petition, the court must make an order directing the executor or executors, administrator or administrators, as the case may be, to deliver to the heirs, legatees, devisees, or to their assigns, grantees, or successors in interest, the whole portion of the estate to which they may be entitled or only a part thereof, designating it.

Granting of decree.

If, in the execution of the order, a partition is necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it must be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed. The costs of the proceedings under this section must be paid by the estate, excepting that in case a partition is necessary, the costs of such partition must be apportioned amongst the parties interested in such partition.

DISTRIBUTION ON FINAL SETTLEMENT

Distribution on final settlement.

SEC. 892. PROCEEDINGS IN THE NATURE OF AN ACTION TO DETERMINE HEIRSHIP; PETITION.—In all estates now being administered, or that may hereafter be administered, any person claiming to be heir to the deceased, or entitled to distribution in whole or in any part of such estate, may, at any time prior to the decree of final distribution, file a petition in the matter of such estate, praying the court to ascertain and declare the rights of all persons to said estate and all interests therein, and to whom distribution thereof should be made.

Petition to establish rights of parties.

NOTICE TO PERSONS INTERESTED.—Upon the filing of such petition, the court shall make an order directing service of notice to all persons interested in said estate to appear and show cause, on a day to be therein named, not less than sixty days nor over four months from the date of the making of such order, in which notice shall be set forth the name of the deceased, the name of the executor or administrator of said estate, the names of all persons who may have appeared claiming any interest in said estate in the course of the administration of the same, up to the time of the making of said order, and such other persons as the court may direct, and also a description of the real estate whereof said deceased died seised or possessed, so far as known, described with certainty to a common intent, and requiring all said persons, and all persons named or not named having or claiming any interest in the estate of said deceased, at the time and place in said order specified, to appear and exhibit, as hereinafter provided, their respective claims of heirship, ownership, or interest in said estate, to said court, which notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, upon proof of which service, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, the court shall thereupon acquire jurisdiction to ascertain and determine the heirship, ownership, and interest of all parties in and to the property of said deceased, and such determination shall be final and conclusive in the administration of said estate, and the title and ownership of said property. The court shall enter an order or decree establishing proof of the service of such notice.

Notice.

FILING OF APPEARANCE—DEFAULT.—All persons appearing within the time limited as aforesaid shall file their written appearance in person or through their authorized attorney, such attorney filing at the same time written evidence of his authority to so appear, entry of which appearance shall be made in the minutes of the court and in Appearance, default.

the register of proceedings of said estate. And the court shall, after the expiration of the time limited for appearing as aforesaid, enter an order adjudging the default of all persons for not appearing as aforesaid who shall not have appeared as aforesaid.

Complaint by interested persons; filing and service of answer to.

COMPLAINT BY INTERESTED PERSONS; FILING AND SERVICE OF ANSWER TO.—At any time within twenty days after the date of the order or decree of the court establishing proof of the service of such notice, any of such persons so appearing may file his complaint in the matter of the estate, setting forth the facts constituting his claim of heirship, ownership, or interest in said estate, with such reasonable particularity as the court may require, and serve a copy of the same upon each of the parties or attorneys who shall have entered their written appearance as aforesaid, if such parties or such attorneys reside within the Canal Zone; and in case any of them do not reside within the Canal Zone, then service of such copy of said complaint shall be made upon the clerk of said court for them, and the clerk shall forthwith mail the same to the address of such party or attorney as may have left with said clerk his post-office address.

Proceedings after issues joined.

PROCEEDINGS AFTER ISSUES JOINED.—Such parties are allowed twenty days after the service of the complaint, as aforesaid, within which to plead thereto, and thereafter such proceedings shall be had upon such complaint as in this code provided in case of an ordinary civil action; and the issues of law and of fact arising in the proceeding shall be disposed of in like manner as issues of law and fact are herein provided to be disposed of in civil actions; and the provisions of this code contained regulating the mode of procedure for the trial of civil actions shall be applicable thereto.

Plaintiff and defendant.

PLAINTIFFS AND DEFENDANTS IN PROCEEDINGS.—The party filing the petition as aforesaid, if he file a complaint, and if not, the party first filing such complaint, shall, in all subsequent proceedings, be treated as the plaintiff therein, and all other parties so appearing shall be treated as the defendants in said proceedings, and all such defendants shall set forth in their respective answers the facts constituting their claim of heirship, ownership, or interest in said estate, with such particularity as the court may require, and serve a copy thereof on the plaintiff.

Evidence.

Evidence in support of all issues may be taken orally or by deposition, in the same manner as provided in civil actions. Notice of the taking of such depositions shall be served only upon the parties, or the attorneys of the parties, so appearing in said proceeding.

Decree, what to determine; conclusiveness.

DECREE, WHAT TO DETERMINE; CONCLUSIVENESS OF.—The court shall enter a default of all persons failing to appear, or plead, or prosecute, or defend their rights as aforesaid; and upon the trial of the issues arising upon the pleadings in such proceedings, the court shall determine the heirship to said deceased, the ownership of his estate, and the interest of each respective claimant thereto or therein, and persons entitled to distribution thereof, and the final determination of the court thereupon shall be final and conclusive in the distribution of said estate, and in regard to the title to all the property of the estate of said deceased.

Distribution of cost.

The cost of the proceedings under this section shall be apportioned in the discretion of the court.

Attorney for minor.

ATTORNEY FOR MINORS.—In any proceeding under this section, the court may appoint an attorney for any minor mentioned in said proceedings not having a guardian.

Determination of heirship at final distribution.

DETERMINATION OF HEIRSHIP AT FINAL DISTRIBUTION.—Nothing in this section contained shall be construed to exclude the right upon final distribution of any estate to contest the question of heirship, title, or interest in the estate so distributed, where the same shall not have been determined under the provisions of this section; but where such questions shall have been litigated, under the provisions of this section, the determination thereof as herein provided shall be conclusive in the distribution of said estate.

SEC. 893. FINAL DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE.—Upon the final settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator, or at any subsequent time, upon the application of the executor or administrator, or of any heir, legatee, devisee (or his assignee, grantee, or successor in interest), the court must proceed to distribute the residue of the estate in the hands of the executor or administrator, if any, among the persons who by law are entitled thereto; and if the decedent has left a surviving child, or the issue of a deceased child, and any of them, before the close of the administration, have died while under age and not having been married, no administration on such deceased child's estate is necessary, but all the estate which such deceased child was entitled to by inheritance must, without administration, be distributed as provided in the Civil Code. A statement of any receipts and disbursements of the executor or administrator, since the rendition of his final account, must be reported and filed at the time of making such distribution; and a settlement thereof, together with an estimate of the expenses of closing the estate must be made by the court, and included in the order or decree, or the court or judge may order notice of the settlement of such supplementary account, and refer the same as in other cases of the settlement of accounts.

Final distribution of estate.

Supplemental accounting by executor.

SEC. 894. WHAT THE DECREE MUST CONTAIN, AND IS FINAL.—In the order or decree, the court must name the persons and the proportions or parts to which each shall be entitled, and such persons may demand, sue for, and recover their respective shares from the executor or administrator, or any person having the same in possession. Such order or decree is conclusive as to the rights of heirs, legatees, or devisees.

Contents and conclusiveness of decree.

SEC. 895. DISTRIBUTION WHEN DECEDENT WAS NOT A RESIDENT OF THE CANAL ZONE.—Upon application for distribution, after final settlement of the accounts of administration, if the decedent was a non-resident of the Canal Zone, leaving a will which has been duly proved or allowed in the state of his residence, and an authenticated copy thereof has been admitted to probate in the Canal Zone, or if the decedent died intestate, and an administrator has been duly appointed and qualified in the state of his residence, and it is necessary, in order that the estate, or any part thereof, may be distributed according to the will, or if the court is satisfied that it is for the best interests of the estate, that the estate in the Canal Zone should be delivered to the executor or administrator in the state or place of the decedent's residence, the court may order such delivery to be made, and, if necessary, order a sale of the real estate, and a like delivery of the proceeds. The delivery, in accordance with the order of the court, is a full discharge of the executor or administrator with the will annexed or administrator, in the Canal Zone, in relation to all property embraced in such order, which binds and concludes all parties in interest. Sales of real estate, ordered by virtue of this section, must be made in the same manner as other sales of real estate of decedents by order of the court.

Distribution of non-resident decedent's estate.

SEC. 896.—PETITION FOR FINAL DISTRIBUTION; NOTICE OF HEARING; CONTEST; PARTITION.—The order or decree may be made on the petition of the executor or administrator, or of any person interested in the estate. When such petition is filed the clerk of the court must set the petition for hearing by the court, and give notice thereof by causing a notice to be posted at the courthouse where the court is held, setting forth the name of the estate, the executor or administrator, and the time appointed for the hearing of the petition. If, upon the hearing of the petition, the court or judge deems the notice insufficient from any cause, he may order such further notice to be given as may seem to him proper. At the time fixed for the hearing, or to which the hearing may be postponed, any person interested in the estate may appear and contest the petition by filing written objections thereto. If the partition is applied for, as provided in this chapter, the decree of distribution does not divest the court of jurisdiction to order partition, unless the estate is finally closed.

SEC. 897. CONTINUATION OF ADMINISTRATION; PETITION FOR.—In all cases where a decedent shall have left a will, in and by the terms of which the testator shall have limited the time for administration upon an estate left by him, and the executor, and all of the legatees or devisees named in the will, shall file and present to the court a petition, in writing, representing that it will be for the best interests of the estate, and of the beneficiaries under the will, to have the administration upon the estate continued for a longer period of time than that designated in such will, and that it would be injurious to the estate, and to such beneficiaries, to have the administration brought to a close at the date therefor designated in the will.

HEARING OF PETITION AND NOTICE OF.—The court shall then set a day for the hearing of said petition; and notice thereof shall be served on all persons interested in the estate, in the same manner that summons in civil actions is served. Upon the day set for such hearing (or upon some other day to which the hearing may have been continued), the court shall proceed to hear proofs touching the representations made in such petition—and any person interested in the estate may also present counter-proofs in opposition to said application.

DECREEING CONTINUANCE OF ADMINISTRATION.—And if, upon such hearing, it be made to appear to the court that the representations made by the petitioners in their said petition contained be true, the court may then, by its order and decree in that behalf, decree and direct that the administration upon the estate continue for and during such further period of time as in its judgment will best subserve the interests of the estate and of the beneficiaries under said will.

PETITION TO HAVE ADMINISTRATION CLOSED.—Provided, however, That if, at any time during the period for which the administration upon the estate shall have been thus continued, the executor, or any one or more of the legatees or devisees, shall present to the court his or their petition, representing that it has become necessary for the best interests of the estate, and of the beneficiaries under the will, to have the administration upon the estate closed, the court shall then set a day for the hearing of said last-named petition; and notice thereof shall be given in the same manner, and the same proceedings be had thereupon, as shall have been given for and had upon the hearing of the petition asking for the continuation of such administration. And if, upon such hearing, it shall be made to appear to the court that the representations made by such petitioners or petitioner (as the case may be) are true, the court shall then, by its order and decree in that behalf, decree and direct that the administration upon the estate be closed as soon thereafter as, under the circumstances shall be practicable.

SEC. 898. DISTRIBUTION AFTER DEATH OF HEIR, ETC.—If any heir, legatee, or devisee of an estate shall die before the distribution to him of any part thereof, then the property to which he might be entitled, if living, shall be and become a part of his estate and the same may be distributed to the representative of his estate for the purpose of administration therein, with the same effect as if distributed to him if living.

DISTRIBUTION AND PARTITION

SEC. 899. ESTATE IN COMMON; COMMISSIONERS.—When the estate, real or personal, assigned by the decree of distribution to two or more heirs, devisees, or legatees, is in common and undivided, and the respective shares are not separated and distinguished, partition or distribution may be made by three disinterested persons, to be appointed commissioners for that purpose by the court, who must be duly sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties, a certified copy of the order of their appointment, and of the order or decree assigning and distributing the estate, must be issued to them as their warrant, and their oath must be indorsed thereon. Upon consent of the parties, or when the court deems it proper and just, it is sufficient to appoint one commissioner only, who has the same authority and is governed by the same rules as if three were appointed.

SEC. 900. PARTITION AND NOTICE THEREOF, AND THE TIME OF FILING PETITION.—Such partition may be ordered and had in the district court on the petition of any person interested. But before commissioners are appointed, or partition ordered by the court as directed in this chapter, notice thereof must be given to all persons interested who reside in the Canal Zone, or to their guardians, and to the agents, attorneys, or guardians, if any in the Canal Zone, of such as reside out of the Canal Zone, either personally or by public notice, as the court may direct. The petition may be filed, attorneys, guardians, and agents appointed, and notice given at any time before the order or decree of distribution, but the commissioners must not be appointed until the order or decree is made distributing the estate.

Petition for partition.

Notice.

SEC. 901. PARTITION MAY BE MADE, ALTHOUGH SOME OF THE HEIRS, AND SO FORTH, HAVE PARTED WITH THEIR INTEREST.—Partition or distribution of the estate may be made as provided in this chapter, although some of the original heirs, legatees, or devisees may have conveyed their shares to other persons, and such shares must be assigned to the person holding the same, in the same manner as they otherwise would have been to such heirs, legatees, or devisees.

Allowable, although some heirs, etc., have parted with interest.

SEC. 902. SHARES TO BE SET OUT BY METES AND BOUNDS.—When both distribution and partition are made, the several shares in the real and personal estate must be set out to each individual in proportion to his right, by metes and bounds, or description, so that the same can be easily distinguished, unless two or more of the parties interested consent to have their shares set out so as to be held by them in common and undivided.

Shares to be set out by metes and bounds.

SEC. 903. WHOLE ESTATE MAY BE ASSIGNED TO ONE, IN CERTAIN CASES.—When the real estate can not be divided without prejudice or inconvenience to the owners, the court may assign the whole to one or more of the parties entitled to share therein, who will accept it, always preferring the males to the females, and, among children, preferring the elder to the younger. The parties accepting the whole must pay to the other parties interested their just proportion of the true value thereof, or secure the same to their satisfaction, or in case of the minority of such party, then to the satisfaction of his guardian; and the true value of the estate must be ascertained and reported by the commissioners. When the commissioners appointed to make partition are of the opinion that the real estate can not be divided without prejudice or inconvenience to the owners, they must so report to the court and recommend that the whole be assigned as herein provided, and must find and report the true value of such real estate. On filing the report of the commissioners, and on making or securing the payment as before provided, the court, if it appears just and proper, must confirm the report, and thereupon the assignment is complete, and the title to the whole of such real estate vests in the person to whom the same is so assigned.

Report by commissioners.

Payments for equality of partition.

SEC. 904. PAYMENTS FOR EQUALITY OF PARTITION, BY WHOM AND HOW.—When any tract of land or tenement is of greater value than any one's share in the estate to be divided, and can not be divided without injury to the same, it may be set off by the commissioners appointed to make partition to any of the parties who will accept it, giving preference as prescribed in the preceding section. The party accepting must pay or secure to the others such sums as the commissioners shall award to make the partition equal, and the commissioners must make their award accordingly; but such partition must not be established by the court until the sums awarded are paid to the parties entitled to the same, or secured to their satisfaction.

Sale of estate.

SEC. 905. ESTATE MAY BE SOLD.—When it appears to the court, from the commissioners' report, that it can not otherwise be fairly divided and should be sold, the court may order the sale of the whole or any part of the estate, real or personal, by the executor or administrator, or by a commissioner appointed for that purpose, and the proceeds distributed. The sale must be conducted, reported, and confirmed in the same manner and under the same requirements provided in chapter 29 of this code.

Ante, p. 1050.

Notice before partition.

SEC. 906. TO GIVE NOTICE TO ALL PERSONS AND GUARDIANS BEFORE PARTITION; DUTIES OF COMMISSIONERS.—Before any partition is made or any estate divided, as provided in this chapter, notice must be given to all persons interested in the partition, their guardians, agents, or attorneys, by the commissioners, of the time and place when and where they shall proceed to make partition. The commissioners may take testimony, order surveys, and take such other steps as may be necessary to enable them to form a judgment upon the matters before him.

Report of commissioners.

SEC. 907. TO MAKE REPORT; SETTING ASIDE REPORT.—The commissioners must report their proceedings, and the partition agreed upon by them, to the court, in writing, and the court may, for sufficient reasons, set aside the report and commit the same to the same commissioners, or appoint others; and when such report is finally confirmed a certified copy of the judgment, or decree of partition made thereon, attested by the clerk under the seal of the court, must be recorded in the office of the registrar of property.

Court may set aside report.

When partition commissioners not necessary.

SEC. 908. WHEN COMMISSIONERS TO MAKE PARTITION ARE NOT NECESSARY.—When the court makes a judgment or decree assigning the residue of any estate to one or more persons entitled to the same, it is not necessary to appoint commissioners to make partition or distribution thereof, unless the parties to whom the assignment is decreed, or some of them, request that such partition be made.

Advancements to heirs.

SEC. 909. ADVANCEMENTS MADE TO HEIRS.—All questions as to advancements made, or alleged to have been made, by the decedent to his heirs, may be heard and determined by the court, and must be specified in the decree assigning and distributing the estate; and the final judgment or decree of the court is binding on all parties interested in the estate.

DISTRIBUTION TO PERSON WHOSE ADDRESS IS UNKNOWN, AND SO FORTH

Distribution to person whose address unknown, etc.

Unfound distributee.

SEC. 910. DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE TO PERSON WHOSE ADDRESS IS UNKNOWN, AND SO FORTH.—When any estate is distributed by the judgment or decree of the court or judge, as provided in this chapter, to a distributee who can not be found and his or her place of residence is unknown or to a distributee who refuses to accept the same or to give a proper voucher therefor, or to a minor or incompetent person, who has no lawful guardian to receive the same, or person authorized to receipt therefor, the portion of said estate consisting of money shall be paid to and deposited with the collector of the Panama Canal, who shall give a receipt for the same, and shall be liable on his official bond therefor; and said receipt shall be deemed and received by the court or judge as a voucher in favor of said executor or administrator, with the same force and effect as if executed by the distributee thereof. And this section shall be applicable to any and all estates now pending in which a final decree of discharge has not been granted.

Distributee who refuses to accept. Minors, etc.

Money to be deposited with collector of Panama Canal.

Claimants to funds in hands of collector, recovery.

Any person claiming to be entitled to any amount so deposited with the collector, may, within five years after such deposit, petition the court or judge for an order directing payment to the said distributee. A copy of such petition shall be served on the collector and thereafter no such amount shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, as hereinafter directed, until so ordered by the court.

Unclaimed funds covered into Treasury.

If no one claims the amount, as herein provided, or if a claim be made and disallowed and the court so directs, such amount devolves to the United States and shall be covered into the Treasury by the collector as miscellaneous receipts.

AGENTS FOR ABSENT INTERESTED PARTIES; DISCHARGE OF EXECUTOR OR ADMINISTRATOR

Agents for absent parties; discharge of executor, etc.

SEC. 911. COURT MAY APPOINT AGENT TO TAKE POSSESSION FOR ABSENTEES.—When any estate is assigned or distributed, by a judgment or decree of the court, as provided in this chapter, to any person residing out of, and having no agent in the Canal Zone, and it is necessary that some person should be authorized to take possession and charge of the same for the benefit of such absent person, the court may appoint an agent for that purpose and authorize him to take charge of such estate, as well as to act for such absent person in the distribution.

Agent to possess property for absentees.

SEC. 912. AGENT TO GIVE BOND, AND HIS COMPENSATION.—The agent must execute a bond to the Government of the Canal Zone, to be approved by the court or judge, conditioned that he shall faithfully manage and account for the estate. The court appointing such agent may allow a reasonable sum out of the profits of the estate for his services and expenses.

Bond and compensation.

SEC. 913. UNCLAIMED ESTATE, HOW DISPOSED OF.—When personal property remains in the hands of the agent unclaimed for a year, and it appears to the court that it is for the benefit of those interested, it shall be sold under the order of the court, and the proceeds after deducting the expenses of the sale, allowed by the court, must be paid to the collector of the Panama Canal. When the payment is made, the agent must take from the collector a receipt, which he must file in the court. Where any agent has money in his hands as such agent, and it appears to the court upon the settlement of his account as such agent that the balance remaining in his hands should be paid to the collector, the court may direct such payment and upon such agent filing the proper receipt showing such payment, the court shall enter an order discharging such agent and his sureties from all liability therefor. All such funds shall be held and disposed of by the collector in the manner provided in section 910.

Real and personal property of absentee; disposal of.

SEC. 914. WHEN REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY OF ABSENTEE TO BE SOLD.—The agent must render the court appointing him, annually, an account, showing:

1. The value and character of the property received by him, what portion thereof is still on hand, what sold, and for what.

2. The income derived therefrom.

3. Expenses incurred in the care, protection, and management thereof, and whether paid or unpaid. When filed the court may examine witnesses and take proofs in regard to the account; and if satisfied from such accounts and proofs that it will be for the benefit and advantage of the persons interested therein, the court may, by order, direct a sale to be made of the whole or such parts of the real or personal property as shall appear to be proper, and the purchase money to be deposited with the collector.

Agent's liability on bond.

SEC. 915. LIABILITY OF AGENT ON HIS BOND.—The agent is liable on his bond for the care and preservation of the estate while in his hands, and for the payment of the proceeds of the sale as required in the preceding sections, and may be sued thereon by any person interested.

Certificate to claimant.

SEC. 916. CERTIFICATE TO CLAIMANT.—When any person appears and claims the money paid to the collector of the Panama Canal, the court making the distribution must inquire into such claim, and being first satisfied of his right thereto, must grant him a certificate to that effect, under its seal; and upon the presentation of the certificate to him, the auditor must draw his warrant on the collector for the amount.

Final settlement, decree, and discharge.

SEC. 917. FINAL SETTLEMENT, DECREE, AND DISCHARGE.—When the estate has been fully administered, and it is shown by the executor or administrator, by the production of satisfactory vouchers, that he has paid all sums of money due from him, and delivered up, under the order of the court, all the property of the estate to the parties entitled, and performed all the acts lawfully required of him, the court must make a judgment or decree discharging him from all liability to be incurred thereafter.

Discovery of property.

SEC. 918. DISCOVERY OF PROPERTY.—The final settlement of an estate, as in this chapter provided, shall not prevent a subsequent issue of letters testamentary or of administration, or of administration with the will annexed, if other property of the estate be discovered, or if it become necessary or proper for any cause that letters should be again issued.

Accounts of trustees; distribution.

ACCOUNTS OF TRUSTEES; DISTRIBUTION

Jurisdiction of district court to continue.

SEC. 919. DISTRICT COURT NOT TO LOSE JURISDICTION BY FINAL DISTRIBUTION.—Where any trust has been created by or under any will to continue after distribution, the district court shall not lose jurisdiction of the estate by final distribution, but shall retain jurisdiction thereof for the purpose of the settlement of accounts under the trusts.

Accounting by trustee.

ACCOUNTING BY TRUSTEE.—And any trustee created by any will, or appointed to execute any trust created by any will, may, from time to time, pending the execution of his trust, or may, at the termination thereof, render and pray for the settlement of his accounts as such trustee, before the court in which the will was probated, and in the manner provided for the settlement of the accounts of executors and administrators. The trustee, or, in case of his death, his legal representatives, shall, for that purpose, present to the court his verified petition, setting forth his accounts in detail, with a report showing condition of trust estate, together with a verified statement of said trustee, giving the names and post-office addresses, if known, of the cestuis que trust, and upon the filing thereof, the clerk shall fix a day for the hearing, and give notice thereof of not less than ten days, by causing notices to be posted in at least three public places in the Canal Zone, setting forth the name of the trust estate, the trustee, and the day appointed for the settlement of the account. The court or judge may order such further notice to be given as may be proper. Such trustee may, in the discretion of the court, upon application of any beneficiary of the trust, or the guardian of such beneficiary, be ordered to appear and render his account, after being cited by service of citation, as provided for the service of summons in civil cases, and such application shall not be denied where no account has been rendered to the court within six months prior to such application. Upon the filing of the account so ordered, the same proceedings for the hearing and settlement thereof shall be had as hereinabove provided.

Notice and hearing.

SEC. 920. COMPENSATION OF TRUSTEES.—On all such accountings the court shall allow the trustee or trustees the proper expenses and such compensation for services as the court may adjudge to be just and reasonable, and shall apportion such compensation among the trustees according to the services rendered by them respectively, and may in its discretion fix a yearly compensation for the trustee or trustees to continue as long as the court may judge proper.

Compensation.

SEC. 921. TRUSTEE MAY DECLINE TO ACT.—Any person named or designated as a trustee in any will which has been or shall hereafter be admitted to probate in the Canal Zone may, at any time before final distribution, decline to act as such trustee, and an order of court shall thereupon be made accepting such resignation; but the declination of any such person who has qualified as trustee shall not be accepted by the court, unless the same shall be in writing and filed in the matter of the estate in the court in which the administration is pending, and such notice shall be given thereof as is required upon a petition praying for letters of administration.

Refusal to act as trustee.

APPOINTMENT TO VACANCY.—The court in which the administration is pending shall have power at any time before final distribution to appoint some fit and proper person to fill any vacancy in the office of trustee under the will, whether resulting from such declination, removal, or otherwise; provided, it shall be required by law or necessary to carry out the trust created by the will, that such vacancy shall be filled; and every person so appointed shall, before acting as trustee, give a bond such as is required by section 731, of a person to whom letters of administration are directed to issue. Such appointment may be made by the judge upon the written application of any person interested in the trust filed in the probate proceedings, and shall only be made after notice to all parties interested in the trust, given in the same manner as notice is required to be given of the hearing upon the petition for the probate of a will. In each of the preceding cases the court may order such further notice as shall seem necessary.

Filling vacancy.

Bond.
Ante, p. 1034.

In accepting a declination under the provisions of this section, the court may make and enforce any order which may be necessary for the preservation of the estate.

Preservation of estate by court.

SEC. 922. JURISDICTION.—The provisions of section 921 shall apply in all cases where a final decree of distribution has not been made; but the jurisdiction given by said section shall not exclude, in cases to which it applies, the jurisdiction now possessed by the district court.

ORDERS, DECREES, ETC., PROBATE MATTERS.

CHAPTER 34.—ORDERS, DECREES, PROCESS, MINUTES, RECORDS, AND TRIALS IN PROBATE PROCEEDINGS

Orders and decrees.

SEC. 923. ORDERS AND DECREES IN PROBATE PROCEEDINGS.—Orders and decrees made by the court or judge, in probate proceedings, need not recite the existence of facts, or the performance of acts, upon which the jurisdiction of the court or judge may depend, but it shall only be necessary that they contain the matters ordered, or adjudged, except as otherwise provided in chapters 23 to 36 of this code. All orders and decrees of the court or judge must be entered at length in the minute book of the court or must be signed by the judge and filed; but decrees of distribution must always be so entered at length.

SEC. 930. RULES OF PRACTICE GENERALLY.—Except as otherwise provided in chapters 23 to 36, the provisions of chapters 4 to 16 of this code are applicable to and constitute the rules of practice in the proceedings mentioned in said chapters 23 to 36.

New trials. Ante, pp. 916-998.

SEC. 931. NEW TRIALS IN PROBATE PROCEEDINGS.—The provisions of chapters 4 to 16 of this code, relative to new trials, except in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of chapters 23 to 36 of this code, apply to the proceedings mentioned in said chapters 23 to 36; provided, that hereafter a motion for a new trial in probate proceedings can be made only in cases of contests of wills, either before or after probate, in proceedings under section 892 and in those cases where the issues of fact, of which a new trial is sought, were tried by a jury or were of such character as to entitle the parties to have them tried by a jury whether or not they were so tried.

Issues joined, trial and disposition of. Ante, p. 1025.

SEC. 932. ISSUES JOINED IN PROBATE PROCEEDINGS, HOW TRIED AND DISPOSED OF.—All issues of fact joined in probate proceedings must be tried in conformity with the requirements of sections 672 to 678, and in all such proceedings the party affirming is plaintiff, and the one denying or avoiding is defendant. Judgments therein, on the issue joined, as well as for costs, may be entered and enforced by execution or otherwise by the court as in civil actions.

SEC. 933. COURT MUST TRY ISSUES JOINED WHEN NO JURY IS DEMANDED; COURT MUST SETTLE AND FRAME ISSUES WHEN JURY CALLED.—

Trial by court; framing of issues for jury.

If no jury is demanded, the court must try the issues joined, and sign and file its decision in writing, as provided in sections 304 and 305. If, on written demand, a jury is called by either party, and the issues are not sufficiently made up by the written pleadings on file, the court, on due notice to the opposite party, must settle and frame the issues to be tried, and submit the same, together with the evidence of each party<sup>1</sup>, to the jury, on which they must render a verdict. Either party may move for a new trial, upon the same grounds and errors, and in like manner, as provided in this code for civil actions.

Motion for new trial.

SEC. 934. COSTS, BY WHOM PAID IN CERTAIN CASES.—When it is not otherwise prescribed in chapters 23 to 36, the district court, may, in its discretion, order costs to be paid by any party to the proceedings, or out of the assets of the estate, as justice may require. Execution for the costs may issue out of the district court.

Costs.

SEC. 935. EXECUTOR, AND SO FORTH, TO BE REMOVED WHEN COMMITTED FOR CONTEMPT, AND ANOTHER APPOINTED.—Whenever an executor, administrator, or guardian is committed for contempt in disobeying any lawful order of the court or judge, and has remained in custody for thirty days without obeying such order, or purging himself otherwise of the contempt, the court may, by order reciting the facts, and without further showing or notice revoke his letters and appoint some other person entitled thereto executor, administrator, or guardian in his stead.

Removal of executor, etc., for contempt.

Appointment of other.

SEC. 936. SERVICE OF PROCESS, AND SO FORTH, UPON GUARDIAN.—Whenever an infant, insane, or incompetent person has a guardian of his estate residing in the Canal Zone, personal service upon the guardian of any process, notice, or order of the court concerning the estate of a deceased person in which the ward is interested, is equivalent to service upon the ward, and it is the duty of the guardian to attend to the interests of the ward in the matter. Such guardian may also appear for his ward and waive any process, notice, or order to show cause which an adult or a person of sound mind might do.

Service upon guardian, etc.

SEC. 937. ESTABLISHMENT OF IDENTITY OF HEIRS.—In every case where title to real or personal property, or any interest therein, shall have vested or may hereafter become vested, other than by the laws of succession, in the heirs, heirs of the body, issue, or children of any person, without other description or means of identification of the persons embraced in such description, any person interested in such property as such heir, heir of the body, issue, or child, or the successor in interest of any such heir, heir of the body, issue, or child, or the legal representatives of any of such persons or of their said successors in interest, may file a verified petition in the district court in and for the division wherein said property or any part thereof is situate, setting forth briefly the deraignment of title of petitioner, a description of the property affected, and the names, ages, and residences, if known, of the heirs, heirs of the body, issue, or children whose identity is sought to be determined (or if any of the same is dead or if the residence of any of the same is unknown, such facts shall be stated) and a request that a decree be entered in said court determining and establishing the identity of the persons embraced in such general description.

Establishment of identity of heirs.

Notice for hearing on identity petition.

Notice of the time and place for the hearing of said petition must be given by the clerk by posting notices thereof in three or more public places in the Canal Zone at least ten days prior to the date fixed by the clerk for said hearing.

Contest.

WHO MAY CONTEST PETITION.—At any time before the date fixed for such hearing any person interested in said property may answer said petition and deny any of the matters contained therein.

Hearing and decree.

HEARING AND DECREE.—At the time fixed for such hearing or such time thereafter as may be fixed by the court, the court must hear the proofs offered by the petitioner, and of any person answering the same and must make a decree conformable to the proofs. Such decree shall have the same force and effect as decrees entered in accordance with the provisions of chapters 23 to 36 of this code.

PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.

CHAPTER 35.—PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR

Post, p. 1083.

Public administrator as guardian, see section 975.

Appointment.

SEC. 938. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR; APPOINTMENT.—There shall be in the Canal Zone a public administrator appointed by the Governor of the Panama Canal.

Estates administered by.

SEC. 939. WHAT ESTATES TO BE ADMINISTERED BY PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.—The public administrator must take charge of the estates of persons dying within the Canal Zone, or who, dying elsewhere, leave estates in the Canal Zone, as follows:

1. Of the estate of decedents for which no administrators or executors are appointed, and which, in consequence thereof, may be wasted, uncared for, or lost;
2. Of the estate of decedents who have no known heirs;
3. Of the estates ordered into his hands by the court; and,
4. Of the estates upon which letters of administration or letters testamentary have been issued to him by the court.

Estates less than $150.

SEC. 940. ESTATES LESS THAN $150.—Whenever the public administrator shall file with the clerk of the district court a statement that the value of any estate, of which he has taken charge, is less than $150, there shall be no regular administration on such estate unless additional estate be found or discovered; and the public administrator may pay out such funds to the creditors, heirs, or other persons legally entitled thereto.

Burial expenses.

SEC. 941. BURIAL EXPENSES OF DECEASED PERSONS.—Whenever the public administrator takes possession of the estate of a deceased person, as provided in section 939, and the method of the defrayal of the expense of the burial of said deceased is not otherwise provided for by law or by the rules, agreement, or death benefits of any order or lodge to which the deceased may at the time of his death belong, or with which he may have been affiliated, the public administrator may, in order to defray the proper expenses of the burial of the body of the deceased and the expenses of the last illness, apply to the judge of the district court for an order permitting the public administrator to summarily sell any personal property belonging to the deceased, and to withdraw any money that the deceased may have on deposit with any bank, and to collect any indebtedness or claim that may be owing to or due the deceased.

Petition to sell property, etc., to defray.

Notice unnecessary; no fee chargeable.

No notice of the application need be given and no fee shall be charged by the clerk of the court or the public administrator for the filing of said application, or for any duty or service of the clerk or public administrator or his attorney connected therewith.

Upon the sale of the personal property of the deceased, or the collection of any money, claim or indebtedness by the public administrator under said order the public administrator shall use the same for the expenses of the burial of the deceased, and the expenses of the last illness.

Use of funds obtained.

The public administrator shall file with the clerk of the court a statement showing the property of the deceased that came into his hands and the disposition of the property of the deceased, and shall file with the clerk vouchers showing what disposition was made of the said property or of the proceeds thereof.

Statement and vouchers to be filed.

SEC. 942. PAYMENT OF SALARY OR CLAIMS.—If a deceased or insane person shall have to his credit with The Panama Canal or the Panama Railroad Company, any sum as salary or other acknowledged claim, the amount so due shall be paid to the public administrator upon demand and be by him administered as a part of said person's estate: Provided, That if there should be other regular administration upon such person's estate in a court in the Canal Zone or in any State in the United States, then the sum due shall be paid to such other executor, administrator, or guardian upon presentation of duly authenticated copies of the order or decree appointing such executor, administrator, or guardian: And provided further, That in case the amount so due in salary or wages from The Panama Canal or Panama Railroad Company does not exceed $100 and it is shown that there is to be no administration of the deceased employee's estate either by the public administrator or otherwise, then payment may be made to the person or persons who under the laws of the Canal Zone would be entitled to receive the same, if administration were had, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Governor of the Panama Canal.

Payment of salary or claims.

Provided.
When other regular administration.

When sum due not in excess of $100.

SEC. 943. DISPOSITION OF ESTATES OF ALIEN EMPLOYEES.—If a deceased intestate employee of The Panama Canal or the Panama Railroad Company, or member of his family, whose estate is being administered by the public administrator, leaves no heirs in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama entitled to receive such estate, the proceeds and residue thereof may be delivered to the diplomatic or consular representative, accredited to the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama, of the country of which the deceased was a citizen or subject for delivery by such representative to the heirs of the deceased: Provided, That if the deceased was a citizen of the Republic of Panama, the residue of his estate may be delivered to his heirs in the Republic of Panama or to the authorities of the said Republic lawfully designated to receive the same.

Estates of alien employees.

Provided.
When citizen of Republic of Panama.

SEC. 944. WHEN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR TAKES CHARGE; HIS BOND AND OATH.—Whenever a public administrator takes charge of an estate, of which he is entitled to take charge without letters of administration being issued, or under order of the court, he must, with all convenient dispatch, procure letters of administration thereon, in like manner and on like proceedings as letters of administration are issued to other persons. His official bond and oath are in lieu of the administrator's bond and oath.

When public administrator takes charge.

Official bond and oath.

SEC. 945. DUTY OF PERSONS IN WHOSE HOUSE ANY STRANGER DIES.—Whenever a stranger, or person without known heirs, dies intestate in the house or premises of another, the possessor of such premises, or anyone knowing the facts, must give immediate notice thereof to the public administrator; and in default of so doing, he is liable for any damage that may be sustained thereby, to be recovered by the public administrator, or any party interested.

Duty of persons in whose house stranger dies.

SEC. 946. MUST RETURN INVENTORY AND ADMINISTER ESTATES ACCORDING TO CHAPTERS 23 TO 36.—The public administrator must make and return a perfect inventory of all estates taken into his possession, administer and account for the same according to the provisions of chapters 23 to 36, subject to the control and directions of the court.

Ante, pp. 1022-1078.
When another appointed administrator.

SEC. 947. WHEN ANOTHER PERSON IS APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR OR EXECUTOR, PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR TO DELIVER UP THE ESTATE.—If, at any time, letters testamentary or of administration are regularly granted to any other person on an estate of which the public administrator has charge, he must, under the order of the court, account for, pay, and deliver to the executor or administrator thus appointed, all the money, property, papers, and estate of every kind in his possession or under his control.

Notice by civil officers of waste to property, etc.

SEC. 948. CIVIL OFFICERS TO GIVE NOTICE OF WASTE TO PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.—All civil officers must inform the public administrator of all property known to them, belonging to a decedent, which is liable to loss, injury, or waste, and which, by reason thereof, ought to be in the possession of the public administrator.

Institution of suits.

SEC. 949. SUITS FOR PROPERTY OF DECEDENTS.—The public administrator must institute all suits and prosecutions necessary to recover the property, debts, papers, and other estate of the decedent.

Order to account.

SEC. 950. ORDER ON PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR TO ACCOUNT.—The court may, at any time, order the public administrator to account for and deliver all the money and property of an estate in his hands to the heirs, or to the executors or administrators regularly appointed.

No interest in estates in his hands.

SEC. 951. NOT TO BE INTERESTED IN THE PAYMENTS FOR OR ON ACCOUNT OF THE ESTATES IN HIS HANDS.—The public administrator must not be interested in expenditures of any kind made on account of any estate he administers; nor must he be associated, in business or otherwise, with any one who is so interested.

Commissions.

Ante, p. 1058.
Proviso.
No commission, when estate below $1,000.

SEC. 952. COMMISSIONS OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.—The commissions to be charged by the public administrator shall be as prescribed in section 858: Provided, That no commissions shall be charged where it appears that the total assets of the estate do not exceed $1,000 in value.

Fees to be paid over to collector.

The public administrator shall pay over all such fees to the Collector of the Panama Canal to be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

Oaths to be administered by.

SEC. 953. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR TO ADMINISTER OATHS.—The public administrator may administer oaths in regard to all matters touching the discharge of his duties, or the administration of estates in his hands.

Further proceedings in administration by.
Ante, pp. 1022-1074.

SEC. 954. PRECEDING CHAPTERS APPLICABLE TO PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.—When no direction is given in this chapter for the government or guidance of a public administrator in the discharge of his duties, or for the administration of an estate in his hands, the provisions of chapters 23 to 34 of this code must govern, except that wherever notice is required to be given, such notice may, in the discretion of the court, be waived or be given by posting.

GUARDIAN AND WARD.

CHAPTER 36.—GUARDIAN AND WARD

Minors.

GUARDIANS OF MINORS

Appointment of guardians.

SEC. 955. APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIANS.—Either division of the district court, when it appears necessary or convenient, may appoint guardians for the persons and estates, or either of them, of minors who have no guardian legally appointed by will or deed, and who are inhabitants or residents of the division, or who reside without the Canal Zone and have estate within the division.

Such appointment may be made on the petition of a relative or other person on behalf of the minor, or on the petition of the minor, if fourteen years of age.

By petition.

NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS.—Before making such appointment, the court must cause such notice as such court deems reasonable to be given to any person having the care of such minor, and to such relatives of the minor residing in the Canal Zone as the court may deem proper. In all cases notice must be given to the parents of the minor or proof made to the court that their addresses are unknown, or that, for other reason, such notice can not be given.

Notice.

TEMPORARY CUSTODY PENDING PROCEEDINGS.—In all such proceedings, when it appears to the satisfaction of the court, either from a verified petition, or from affidavits, that the welfare of the minor will be imperiled if such minor is allowed to remain in the custody of the person then having the care of such minor, the court may make an order providing for the temporary custody of such minor until a hearing can be had on such petition.

Temporary custody.

PROCEEDINGS WHERE MINOR LIABLE TO BE CARRIED OUT OF CANAL ZONE.—And when it appears to the court that there is reason to believe that such minor will be carried out of the jurisdiction of the court before which the application is made, or will suffer some irreparable injury before compliance with such order providing for the temporary custody of such minor can be enforced, such court may at the time of making such order providing for the temporary custody of such minor cause a warrant to be issued, reciting the facts, and directed to the marshal, commanding such officer to take such minor from the custody of the person in whose care such minor then is and place such minor in custody in accordance with the order of the court.

When danger of removal from jurisdiction, etc.

SEC. 956. WHEN MINOR MAY NOMINATE GUARDIAN; WHEN NOT.—If the minor is under the age of fourteen years, the court may nominate and appoint his guardian. If he is fourteen years of age, he may nominate his own guardian, who, if approved by the court, must be appointed accordingly.

Nomination of guardian by minor.

SEC. 957. WHEN APPOINTMENT MAY BE MADE BY COURT, WHEN MINOR IS OVER FOURTEEN.—If the guardian nominated by the minor is not approved by the court, or if the minor resides out of the Canal Zone, or if, after being duly cited by the court, he neglects for ten days to nominate a suitable person, the court or judge may nominate and appoint the guardian in the same manner as if the minor were under the age of fourteen years.

By court.

SEC. 958. NOMINATION BY MINORS AFTER ARRIVING AT FOURTEEN.—When a guardian has been appointed by the court for a minor under the age of fourteen years, the minor, at any time after he attains that age, may nominate his own guardian, subject to the approval of the court.

Nomination by minor when reaching fourteen years of age.

SEC. 959. WHO MAY BE GUARDIAN; MARRIAGE OF GUARDIAN DOES NOT AFFECT GUARDIANSHIP.—The father or the mother of a minor child under the age of fourteen years, if found by the court competent to discharge the duties of guardianship, is entitled to be appointed a guardian of such minor child, in preference to any other person. The person nominated by a minor of the age of fourteen years as his guardian, whether married or unmarried, may, if found by the court competent to discharge the duties of guardianship, be appointed as such guardian. The authority of a guardian is not extinguished nor affected by the marriage of the guardian.

Who may be guardian.

Authority not extinguished by marriage.

SEC. 960. POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIAN.—Every guardian appointed has the custody and care of the education of the minor, and the care and management of his estate, until such minor arrives at the age of majority or marries, or until the guardian is legally discharged, unless he is appointed guardian only of the person of the ward. In that event, the guardian is charged with the custody of the ward, and must look to his support, health, and education. He may fix the residence of the ward at any place in the Canal Zone, but not elsewhere without the permission of the court.

Powers and duties.

Bond.

SEC. 961. BOND OF GUARDIAN.—Before the order appointing any person guardian under this chapter takes effect, and before letters issue, the court shall require of such person a bond to the minor, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judge, and in such sum as he shall order, which sum shall not be less than twice the value of the personal property and the probable value of the annual rents, issues and profits of property belonging to the minor; where, however, a surety company is authorized by law to furnish such bond, the court in its discretion may fix the amount of the bond given by such surety company at not less than the value of the personal property and the probable value of the annual rents, issues and profits of property belonging to the minor conditioned that the guardian will faithfully execute the duties of his trust according to law, and the following conditions shall form a part of such bond without being expressed therein:

Conditions of.

Inventory of estate of ward.

1. To make an inventory of all the estate, real and personal of his ward, that comes to his possession or knowledge, and to return the same within such time as the court may order.

Management of.

2. To dispose of and manage the estate according to law and for the best interest of the ward, and faithfully to discharge his trust in relation thereto, and also in relation to the care, custody, and education of the ward.

Accounting.

3. To render an account on oath of the property, estate, and moneys of the ward in his hands, and all proceeds or interests derived therefrom, and of the management and disposition of the same, within three months after his appointment, and at such other times as the court directs, and at the expiration of his trust to settle his accounts with the court, or with the ward, if he be of full age, or his legal representatives, and to pay over and deliver all the estate, moneys, and effects remaining in his hands, or due from him on such settlement, to the person who is lawfully entitled thereto. Upon filing the bond, duly approved, letters of guardianship must issue to the person appointed. In form the letters of guardianship must be substantially the same as letters of administration, and the oath of the guardian must be indorsed thereon that he will perform the duties of his office as such guardian according to law.

Issue of letters.

Insertion of conditions in order appointing, by court.

SEC. 962. COURT MAY INSERT CONDITIONS IN ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN.—When any person is appointed guardian of a minor, the court may, with the consent of such person, insert in the order of appointment, conditions not otherwise obligatory, providing for the care, treatment, education, and welfare of the minor and for the care and custody of his property. The performance of such conditions shall be a part of the duties of the guardian, for the faithful performance of which he and the sureties on his bond shall be responsible.

Recording letters.

SEC. 963. RECORDING LETTERS OF GUARDIANSHIP.—All letters of guardianship issued under the provisions of this chapter, with the affidavits and certificates thereon, must be recorded by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the persons and estates of the wards.

Maintenance of minor out of income of his property.

SEC. 964. MAINTENANCE OF MINOR OUT OF INCOME OF HIS PROPERTY.—If any minor having a father living has property, the income of which is sufficient for his maintenance and education in a manner more expensive than his father can reasonably afford, regard being had to the situation of the father's family and to all the circumstances of the case, the expenses of the education and maintenance of such minor may be defrayed out of the income of his own property, in whole or in part, as judged reasonable, and must be directed by the court; and the charges therefor may be allowed accordingly in the settlement of the accounts of his guardian.

SEC. 965. GUARDIAN TO GIVE BONDS; POWERS LIMITED.—Every testamentary guardian must qualify and has the same powers and must perform the same duties with regard to the person and estate of his ward as guardians appointed by the court, except so far as his powers and duties are legally modified, enlarged, or changed by the will by which such guardian was appointed, and except that such guardian need not give bond unless directed to do so by the court.

Testamentary guardian, bond; powers limited.

SEC. 966. POWER OF COURT TO APPOINT GUARDIANS AND NEXT FRIEND NOT IMPAIRED.—Nothing contained in this chapter affects or impairs the power of the court to appoint a guardian to defend the interests of any minor interested in any suit or matter pending therein.

Power of court to appoint guardian ad litem, etc., not impaired.

SEC. 967. WHEN POWER OF GUARDIAN IS SUPERSEDED.—The power of a guardian appointed by a court is superseded:

When power of guardian superseded.

1. By order of the court;
2. If the appointment was made solely because of the ward's minority, by his attaining majority;
3. The guardianship over the person of the ward, by the marriage of the ward.

SEC. 968. SPECIAL NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS; DEMAND FOR BY RELATIVES.—At any time after the issuance of letters of guardianship upon the estate of any minor, insane, or incompetent person, any relative of the ward, or the attorney for such relative, may serve upon the guardian, or upon the attorney for the guardian, and file with the clerk of the court wherein administration of such ward's estate is pending, a written request, stating that he desires special notice of any or all of the following-mentioned matters, steps, or proceedings in the administration of said estate, to wit:

Special notice of administrative proceedings, demand for.

1. Filing of the return of sales of any property of the ward's estate.
2. Filing of accounts.
3. Filing of application for removal of ward's property to any foreign jurisdiction.
4. Filing of petitions for partition of any property of the ward's estate.
5. Proceedings for removal, suspension or discharge of the guardian, or final determination of the guardianship.

REQUEST WHAT TO STATE; NOTICE OF PROCEEDINGS.—Such request shall state the post-office address of such relative, or his attorney, and thereafter a brief notice of the filing of any such petitions, applications, or accounts, or proceedings, except petitions for sale of perishable property, or other personal property which will incur expense or loss by keeping, shall be addressed to such relative, or his attorney, at his stated post-office address, and deposited in the post office, within two days after the filing of such petition, account, application, or the commencement of such proceeding; or personal service of such notices may be made on such relative, or his attorney, within said two days, and such personal service shall be equivalent to such deposit in the post office, and proof of mailing or of personal service must be filed with the clerk before the hearing of any such matter.

Contents of request; notice.

FINDING THAT NOTICE GIVEN.—If, upon the hearing it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the said notice has been regularly given, the court shall so find in its order or judgment, and such judgment shall be final and conclusive upon all persons.

Insane and incompetents, in general.
Guardians of.

GUARDIANS OF INSANE AND INCOMPETENT PERSONS IN GENERAL

SEC. 969. GUARDIANS OF INSANE AND OTHER INCOMPETENT PERSONS.—When it is represented to the district court or judge, upon verified petition of any relative or friend, that any person is insane, or from any cause mentally incompetent to manage his property, such court or judge must cause a notice to be given to the supposed insane or incompetent person of the time and place of hearing the case, not less than five days before the time so appointed, and such person, if able to attend, must be produced on the hearing, provided that when such person is a patient at a hospital in the Canal Zone, the certificate of the medical superintendent or acting medical superintendent of such hospital, to the effect that such patient is unable to attend on the hearing shall be prima facie evidence of such fact.

Appointment after hearing.

SEC. 970. APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN BY COURT AFTER HEARING.—If, after a full hearing and examination upon such petition, it appears to the court that the person in question is incapable of taking care of himself and managing his property, such court must appoint a guardian of his person and estate, or person or estate, with the powers and duties in this chapter specified.

Appointment as.

SEC. 971. APPOINTMENT AS GUARDIAN.—In awarding letters of guardianship of the person and estate, or person or estate, of an insane or incompetent person, the court shall appoint as guardian such person as may have been designated pursuant to section 166e of the Civil Code, in which cases such persons shall be appointed unless good cause to the contrary be shown.

Post, p. 1145.

Powers and duties.

SEC. 972. POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIANS.—Every guardian appointed, as provided in the preceding section, has the care and custody of the person of his ward and the management of all his estate, or the care and custody of the person of his ward or the management of all his estate, according to the order of appointment, until such guardian is legally discharged, and he must give bond to such ward in like manner and with like conditions as before prescribed with respect to the guardian of a minor.

Proceeding for restoration to capacity, by petition.

SEC. 973. PROCEEDING FOR RESTORATION TO CAPACITY.—Any person who has been declared insane or incompetent, or the guardian, or any relative of such person within the third degree, or any friend, may apply, by petition, to the division of the district court in which he was declared insane, to have the fact of his restoration to capacity judicially determined. The petition must be verified, and must state that such person is then sane or competent. Upon receiving the petition, the court must appoint a day for a hearing before the court, and, if the petitioner requests it, must order an investigation before a jury, which must be summoned and impaneled in the same manner as juries in civil actions. The court must cause notice of the trial to be given to the guardian of the person so declared insane or incompetent, if there is a guardian, and to his or her husband or wife, if there is one, and to his or her father or mother, if living in the Canal Zone. On the trial, the guardian or relative of the person so declared insane or incompetent, and, in the discretion of the court, any other person, may contest the right to the relief demanded. Witnesses may be required to appear and testify, as in civil cases, and may be called and examined by the court on its own motion. If it is found that the person is of sound mind, and capable of taking care of himself and his property, his restoration to capacity must be adjudged, and the guardianship of such person, if such person is not a minor, must cease.

SEC. 974. DEFINITION OF INCOMPETENT.—The phrase “incompetent,” “mentally incompetent,” and “incapable,” as used in this chapter, shall be construed to mean any person who, though not insane, is, by reason of old age, disease, weakness of mind, or from any other cause, unable, unassisted, to properly manage and take care of himself or his property, and by reason thereof would be likely to be deceived or imposed upon by artful or designing persons.

“Incompetent,” defined.

SEC. 975. PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR AS GUARDIAN OF ESTATES OF INSANE EMPLOYEES, OTHER INSANE OR INCOMPETENT PERSONS, AND MINORS.—The public administrator shall take charge of estates of persons employed in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama by The Panama Canal or Panama Railroad Company or members of their families who have been adjudged insane by the district court or by a competent court of any State, where such estates consist of personal property and no legal guardian has been appointed.

Public administrator as guardian.

The district court may in its discretion appoint the public administrator guardian of the estate of any other insane or incompetent person or of any minor.

Appointment as, in discretion of district court.

The public administrator shall comply with all of the provisions of this chapter with respect to the guardianship of similar estates by other persons: Provided, however, That his official bond and oath shall satisfy the requirements with respect to a guardian's bond and oath: And provided further, That wherever notice is required to be given, such notice may, in the discretion of the court, be waived or be given by posting.

Compliance with guardianship requirements.

COROZAL HOSPITAL: ADMISSION, KEEPING, AND DISCHARGE OF PERSONS

Corozal Hospital.

SEC. 976. KEEPING OF INSANE PERSONS IN JAIL.—No person under observation for insanity or declared to be insane shall be kept in jail, prison, or other similar institution, but shall be kept in suitable quarters within the Corozal Hospital or at such other place as may be deemed advisable by the superintendent of Corozal Hospital.

Keeping insane in jail.

SEC. 977. ADMISSION OF PATIENTS IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in respect to the admission of insane patients from the Republic of Panama, and the admission of members of the United States Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, and beneficiaries of the United States Public Health Service for observation and care pending their transfer to the United States, no person shall be admitted or detained as a patient in the Corozal Hospital except upon the order of the district judge of the Canal Zone, provided that if a patient is in a state of violent insanity he may be admitted at once by the superintendent of Corozal Hospital, without an order from the court, into the quarters provided for the observation of persons alleged to be insane, upon the written request of any physician employed by the United States Government; or such patient may be admitted to the observation quarters by said superintendent upon his own authority.

Admission in general, to hospital.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of Corozal Hospital to file a written report with the clerk of the district court within forty-eight hours after the patient has been admitted to the observation quarters, which report shall set out the name, age, and physical condition of the patient, together with the name of physician attending patient at time of admission, and as soon as the clerk shall have received the report, he shall enter it upon the docket and the district judge shall proceed to examine and determine the case in like manner as if the petition had been presented to him prior to the patient's admission into observation quarters.

Duty of superintendent to file report.

Petition for confinement of insane.

SEC. 978. PETITION FOR CONFINEMENT OF INSANE PERSONS.—To obtain the judicial order provided for in section 977, it shall be necessary for a relative of the person alleged to be insane, or a physician or other interested person in the Canal Zone, to present a petition, duly subscribed and sworn to by the petitioner, to the judge of the district court, which petition shall state the sex, age, and nationality of patient, if known, and the facts showing the patient's mental infirmity, and, if possible, the history of the case and the form of insanity with which he is suffering and the attending circumstances making it necessary that he be confined in the asylum. If such petition is presented by other than a relative, and there is a known relative within or near the Canal Zone, notice thereof shall be given to such relative. The petition shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by one or more reputable physicians to the effect that in their opinion such person is insane.

Prompt hearing.

SEC. 979. HEARING TO BE PROMPT; ORDERING CUSTODY FOR OBSERVATION.—The petition provided for in section 978 shall take precedence over all other matters pending before the court, and if the facts stated therein are sufficient to satisfy the court of the insanity of the person sought to be confined, orders shall be issued at once directing that the person alleged to be insane be taken in custody for observation.

Custody for observation.

Admission of patient for.

SEC. 980. ADMISSION OF PATIENT FOR OBSERVATION; REPORT ON SANITY.—The order of the judge directing that the person alleged to be insane be placed under observation shall be sufficient authority for the superintendent of Corozal Hospital to admit the patient into the hospital or other suitable quarters and to detain him for the purpose of observation.

Report on sanity.

Within thirty days after the patient has been placed under observation the superintendent of Corozal Hospital shall file with the clerk of the court a written report stating whether the patient is sane or insane, and the facts upon which such statement is based. If the observation shall show that the patient is not insane he shall be set at liberty by the superintendent of Corozal Hospital at once, and such action shall be noted in the report submitted to the court. If the observation shall show that the patient is insane, it shall be the duty of the court to render judgment therein, either committing the patient to the Corozal Hospital or directing that he be turned over to his relatives or friends who are able and willing to care for him.

Contest of.

SEC. 981. CONTESTING REPORT ON SANITY.—The relatives of the person alleged to be insane, or the district attorney, may appear and contest the report of the superintendent, and in such cases the judge shall hear the evidence presented by the parties and render judgment thereon, as provided in section 980.

Temporary release.

SEC. 982. TEMPORARY RELEASE OF PATIENTS.—Whenever any patient who is not serving a sentence for violation of the criminal laws of the Canal Zone has shown such improvement in his mental condition as would, in the opinion of the superintendent, warrant his temporary release for the purpose of determining whether such improvement is permanent and would eventually warrant the discharge of the patient, the superintendent may release such patient for such period as may be deemed proper by the superintendent after the latter by adequate investigation has satisfied himself that the patient has relatives or friends who are able and willing to receive and care for such patient. If, during such release, it shall appear to the superintendent that the patient should be discharged, a statement as provided in section 984 hereof shall be filed with the clerk of the court.

SEC. 983. APPLICATION FOR DISCHARGE OF PATIENT.—Any person interested in an inmate of the Corozal Hospital, who believes such inmate is improperly detained therein, may make application to the district judge for the discharge of such patient. Upon receipt of such application the judge shall issue an order to the superintendent of Corozal Hospital, to make a report on the patient's condition, and upon the receipt of such report shall consider the case, and, in his discretion, may grant or deny the application. The judge may cause the patient to be examined by two competent physicians, who shall report in writing as to the condition of the patient.

Application for discharge.

SEC. 984. DISCHARGE OF PATIENTS.—Any patients, except those serving sentences for violation of the criminal laws of the Canal Zone, may be discharged by the superintendent. He shall file with the clerk of the court a written statement that in his judgment such patient has recovered or that the discharge will not be detrimental or dangerous to the public welfare or injurious to the patient: Provided, That before discharging any patient who has not recovered, the superintendent shall satisfy himself by adequate investigation that the relatives or friends of the patient are able and willing to receive and care for such patient or that suitable measures for deportation have been taken.

Discharge.

Proviso.
Provision for future care of discharged.

SEC. 985. COMMITTING INSANE PRISONERS TO HOSPITAL; DISCHARGE.—If any person confined in a prison or penitentiary under the sentence of a court become insane, he shall be committed to the Corozal Hospital by the judge of the district court. In all such cases the provisions of sections 976 to 986 relating to the period of observation of the patient and the trial of the issue as to his insanity shall be observed. Whenever a person is committed to the Corozal Hospital under the provisions of this section, the order of commitment issued by the court shall include a statement of the offense of which the person was convicted, the term of his imprisonment and the date upon which said term is to expire. Should such person be discharged from the Corozal Hospital before the date of the expiration of his term of imprisonment, he shall be returned to the penal institution from which he was taken.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIANS

Powers and duties of guardians.

Payment of debts from ward's estate.

SEC. 987. GUARDIAN TO PAY DEBTS OF WARD FROM WARD'S ESTATE.—Every guardian appointed under the provisions of this chapter, whether for a minor or any other person, must pay all just debts due from the ward out of his personal estate and the income of his real estate, if sufficient; if not, then out of his real estate upon selling or mortgaging it and disposing of the proceeds in the manner provided in sections 997 to 1002.

Recovery of debts, etc.

SEC. 988. GUARDIAN TO RECOVER DEBTS DUE HIS WARD AND REPRESENT HIM.—Every guardian must settle all accounts of the ward, and demand, sue for, and receive all debts due to him, or may, with the approbation of the court, compound for the same and give discharges to the debtor, on receiving a fair and just dividend of his estate and effects; and he must appear for and represent his ward in all legal suits and proceedings, unless another person be appointed for that purpose.

Management of estate.

SEC. 989. GUARDIAN TO MANAGE ESTATE FRUGALLY, MAINTAIN WARD AND SELL OR MORTGAGE REAL ESTATE.—Every guardian must manage the estate of his ward frugally and without waste, and apply the income and profits thereof, as far as may be necessary, for the comfortable and suitable maintenance and support of the ward and his family, if there be any; and if such income and profits be insufficient for that purpose, the guardian may sell or mortgage the real estate, as provided in this code, and must apply the proceeds of such sale or mortgage, as far as may be necessary, for the maintenance and support of the ward and his family, if there be any.

Support of ward.

Sale or mortgage of real estate.

Support of wife from her estate.

SEC. 990. SUPPORT OF WIFE FROM HER ESTATE.—If the husband is unable to provide suitably for the care or support of a wife over whose estate a guardian has been appointed by reason of incompetency, the expense of providing such care or support, may, to the extent necessary, be charged against and defrayed out of such estate, as previously directed by the court or as subsequently approved by the court in settling the accounts of the guardian of the estate; for this purpose the guardian may sell or mortgage estate of the ward as provided in this code.

Maintenance, support, education of ward, how enforced.

SEC. 991. MAINTENANCE, SUPPORT, AND EDUCATION OF WARD, HOW ENFORCED.—When a guardian has advanced, for the necessary maintenance, support, or education of his ward, an amount not disproportionate to the value of his estate or his condition of life, and the same is made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, by proper vouchers and proofs, the guardian must be allowed credit therefor in his settlements. Whenever a guardian fails, neglects, or refuses to furnish suitable and necessary maintenance, support, or education for his ward, the court may order him to do so, and enforce such order by proper process. Whenever any third person, at his request, supplies a ward with such suitable and necessary maintenance, support, or education, and it is shown to have been done after refusal or neglect of the guardian to supply the same, the court may direct the guardian to pay therefor out of the estate, and enforce such payment by due process.

Powers of guardian, partition proceedings.

Proviso. Prior authorization by court.

SEC. 992. GUARDIANS, POWERS OF, IN PARTITION.—The guardian may join in and assent to a partition of the real or personal estate of the ward, wherever such assent may be given by any person: Provided, That such assent can only be given after the court having jurisdiction over said estate shall grant an order conferring such authority, which order shall only be made after a hearing in open court upon the petition of the guardian after notice of at least ten days, mailed by the clerk of the court to all the known relatives of the ward residing in the Canal Zone. The guardian may also consent to a partition of the real or personal estate of his ward without action, and agree upon the share to be set off to such ward, and may execute a release in behalf of his ward to the owners of the shares, of the parts to which they may be respectively entitled, upon obtaining from said court having jurisdiction over said estate, authority to so consent after a hearing in open court upon the petition of the guardian after notice of at least ten days, mailed by the clerk of the court to all the known relatives of the ward residing in the Canal Zone.

SEC. 993. INVENTORY OF WARD'S ESTATE; REFUSAL OF GUARDIAN TO RETURN INVENTORY.—Every guardian must return to the court a verified inventory of the estate of his ward within thirty days after his appointment. He must annually thereafter, and at such other times as directed by the court, render a verified account of the estate of his ward. All the estate of the ward described in the first inventory must be appraised by appraisers, appointed, sworn, and acting in the manner provided for regulating the settlement of the estates of decedents. Such inventory, with the appraisal of the property therein described, must be recorded by the clerk of the court in a proper book kept in his office for that purpose. Whenever any other property of the estate of any ward is discovered, not included in the inventory of the estate already returned, and whenever any other property, has been succeeded to, or acquired by any ward, or for his benefit, the like proceedings must be had for the return and appraisal thereof and the service of the same as are herein provided in relation to the first inventory and return. If within the time prescribed, or within such further time, not exceeding two months which the court or judge shall for reasonable cause allow, the guardian neglects or refuses to return the inventory or render his account, the court may, upon notice, revoke the letters of guardianship and the guardian shall be liable on his bond for any injury to the estate, or any person interested therein, arising from such failure.

Inventory of estate.

Refusal to return.

SEC. 994. ACCOUNT OF GUARDIAN.—The guardian must upon the expiration of a year from the time of his appointment and as often thereafter as he may be required, present his account to the court for settlement and allowance. The termination of the relation of guardian and ward by the death of either guardian or ward or by the ward attaining his majority or being restored to capacity shall not cause the court to lose jurisdiction of the proceeding for the purpose of settling the accounts of the guardian.

Accounting of.

SEC. 995. ALLOWANCE OF ACCOUNTS OF JOINT GUARDIANS.—When an account is rendered by two or more joint guardians, the court may, in its discretion, allow the same upon the oath of any of them.

Allowance of accounts, joint guardians.

SEC. 996. EXPENSES AND COMPENSATION OF GUARDIANS.—Every guardian must be allowed the amount of his reasonable expenses incurred in the execution of his trust, and he must also have such compensation for his services as the court in which his accounts are settled deems just and reasonable. He must also be allowed all reasonable and proper disbursements, made after the legal termination of the guardianship, but while that relation, by consent or acquiescence of the parties, still subsists in fact, and before the discharge of the guardian by the court, and which were made by the consent, express or implied, of the ward, and for his benefit or the benefit of his estate.

Expenses and compensation.

Sale of property, etc.

SALE OF PROPERTY AND DISPOSITION OF THE PROCEEDS

Authority for, when insufficient income from estate.

SEC. 997. WHEN INCOME FROM WARD'S ESTATE IS INSUFFICIENT.—When the income of an estate under guardianship is insufficient to maintain the ward and his family or to maintain and educate the ward when a minor, or to pay for his care, treatment, and support, if confined in a hospital for the insane in the Canal Zone, his guardian may sell his real or personal estate, or mortgage the real estate for that purpose subject to confirmation of such sale or mortgage by the court.

Application of proceeds.

SEC. 998. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS OF SALES.—If the estate is sold for the purposes mentioned in this subchapter, the guardian must apply the proceeds of the sale to such purposes, as far as necessary, and put out the residue, if any, on interest, or invest it in the best manner in his power, until the capital is wanted for the maintenance of the ward and his family, or the education of his children, or for the education of the ward when a minor, in which case the capital may be used for that purpose, as far as may be necessary, in like manner as if it had been personal estate of the ward.

Investment of.

SEC. 999. INVESTMENT OF PROCEEDS OF SALES.—If the estate is sold for the purpose of putting out or investing the proceeds, the guardian must make the investment according to his best judgment, or in pursuance of any order that may be made by the court.

Sales to conform to law governing executors.
Ante, pp. 1022-1076.

SEC. 1000. SALES OF PROPERTY TO CONFORM TO LAW GOVERNING EXECUTORS.—All the proceedings by guardians concerning sales of property of their wards, giving notice of sale, reselling the same property, return of sale and application for confirmation thereof, notice and hearing of such application, making orders rejecting or confirming sales and reports of sales, ordering and making conveyances of property sold, allowance of commissions, accounting and settlement of accounts, must be had and made as required by the provisions of chapters 23 to 35 of this code concerning estates of decedents, unless otherwise specially provided in this chapter. All known relatives of the ward within the third degree residing in the Canal Zone whose addresses are known to the guardian shall within two days after filing of the return of sale be served by mail with a brief notice of the time set for hearing of the return.

Proceedings in sale of real property.

Ante, pp. 1056-1057.

SEC. 1001. PROCEEDINGS FOR COMPLETION OF SALES BY GUARDIANS.—All proceedings for the completion of contracts for the sale of real estate by guardians must be had and made as required by the provisions of chapters 23 to 35 of this code concerning the conveyance of real estate by executors and administrators under sections 841 to 851, and said sections are hereby made applicable to conveyances by guardians as provided by section 1021.

Post, p. 1001.

Investment of money by order of court.

SEC. 1002. COURT MAY ORDER THE INVESTMENT OF MONEY OF THE WARD.—The court, on the application of a guardian, or any person interested in the estate of any ward, after such notice to persons interested therein as the court shall direct, may authorize and require the guardian to invest the proceeds of sales, and any other of his ward's money in his hands, in any manner most to the interest of all concerned therein, and the court may make such other orders and give such directions as are needful for the management, investment, and disposition of the estate and effects as circumstances require.

Nonresident guardians and wards.

NONRESIDENT GUARDIANS AND WARDS

Appointment of.

SEC. 1003. GUARDIANS OF NONRESIDENT PERSONS.—The district court may appoint a guardian of the person and estate, or either, of a minor, insane, or incompetent person, who has no guardian within the Canal Zone, legally appointed by will, deed, or otherwise, and who resides without the Canal Zone, and has estate within the division or, who, though not having such estate, is within the division, upon petition of any friend of such person or any one interested in his estate, in expectancy or otherwise. Before making such appointment, the court must cause notice to be given to all persons interested, in such manner as such court deems reasonable.

SEC. 1004. POWERS AND DUTIES OF GUARDIANS APPOINTED UNDER PRECEDING SECTION.—Every guardian, appointed under section 1003, has the same powers and performs the same duties, with respect to the estate of the ward found within the Canal Zone, and with respect to the person of the ward, if he shall come to reside therein, as are prescribed with respect to any other guardian appointed under this chapter.

Powers and duties.

SEC. 1005. SUCH GUARDIANS TO GIVE BONDS.—Every guardian must give bond to the ward, in the manner and with the like conditions as hereinbefore provided for other guardians, except that the provisions respecting the inventory, the disposal of the estate and effects, and the account to be rendered by the guardian, must be confined to such estate and effects as come to his hands in the Canal Zone.

Bond.

SEC. 1006. TO WHAT GUARDIANSHIP SHALL EXTEND.—The guardianship which is first lawfully granted of any person residing without the Canal Zone extends to all the estate of the ward within the Canal Zone.

Extent of guardianship.

SEC. 1007. REMOVAL OF NONRESIDENT WARD'S PROPERTY.—When the guardian and ward are both nonresidents, and the ward is entitled to property in the Canal Zone, which may be removed to a state or foreign country without conflict with any restriction or limitation thereupon, or impairing the right of the ward thereto, such property may be removed to the state or foreign country of the residence of the ward, upon the application of the guardian to the division of the district court in which the estate of the ward, or the principal part thereof, is situated.

Removal of property.

SEC. 1008. PROCEEDINGS ON SUCH REMOVAL.—The application must be made upon ten days' notice to the resident executor, administrator, or guardian, if there be such, and upon such application the nonresident guardian must produce and file a certificate, under the hand of the clerk and seal of the court, from which his appointment was derived, showing:

Application for.

Procedure on.

Certificate to be filed; contents.

1. A transcript of the record of his appointment.

2. That he has entered upon the discharge of his duties.

3. That he is entitled, by the laws of the State, of his appointment to the possession of the estate of the ward or must produce and file a certificate, under the hand and seal of the clerk of the court having jurisdiction in the country of his residence, of the estates of persons under guardianship, or of the highest court of such country, attested by a minister, consul, or vice consul of the United States, resident in such country, that, by the laws of such country, the applicant is entitled to the custody of the estate of his ward, without the appointment of any court. Upon such application, unless good cause to the contrary is shown, the court must make an order granting to such guardian leave to take and remove the property of his ward to the State or place of his residence, which is authority to him to sue for and receive the same in his own name, for the use and benefit of his ward.

Order.

SEC. 1009. DISCHARGE OF GUARDIANS.—Such order is a discharge of the executor, administrator, local guardian, or other person in whose possession the property may be at the time the order is made, on filing with the clerk of the court a receipt therefor of a foreign guardian of such absent ward, and transmitting a duplicate receipt, or a certified copy of such receipt, to the court from which such nonresident guardian received his appointment.

Discharge.

General and miscellaneous provisions.

Examination of persons suspected of defrauding wards, etc.

SEC. 1010. EXAMINATION OF PERSONS SUSPECTED OF DEFRAUDING WARDS OR CONCEALING PROPERTY.—Upon complaint made by any guardian, ward, creditor, or other person interested in the estate, or having a prospective interest therein as heir or otherwise, against any one suspected of having concealed, embezzled, smuggled, or fraudulently disposed of, any of the money, goods, or effects, or an instrument in writing belonging to the ward or to his estate, the district court may cite such suspected person to appear before such court, and may examine and proceed against him on such charge in the manner provided in chapters 23 to 35 with respect to persons suspected of and charged with concealing, embezzling, smuggling, or fraudulently disposing of the effects of a decedent.

Removal and resignation of guardian, surrender of estate.

SEC. 1011. REMOVAL AND RESIGNATION OF GUARDIAN, AND SURRENDER OF ESTATE.—When a guardian, appointed either by the testator or the court, becomes insane or otherwise incapable of discharging his trust or unsuitable therefor, or has wasted or mismanaged the estate, or failed for thirty days to render an account or make a return, the district court may, upon such notice to the guardian as the court may require, remove him and compel him to surrender the estate of the ward to the person found to be lawfully entitled thereto. Every guardian may resign when it appears proper to allow the same; and upon the resignation or removal of a guardian, as herein provided, the court may appoint another in the place of the guardian who resigned or was removed.

Termination of guardianship.

SEC. 1012. GUARDIANSHIP, HOW TERMINATED.—The marriage of a minor ward terminates the guardianship of the person of such ward, but not the estate; and the guardian of an insane or other person may be discharged by the court, when it appears on the application of the ward or otherwise, that the guardianship is no longer necessary.

New bond.

SEC. 1013. NEW BOND, WHEN REQUIRED.—The court may require a new bond to be given by a guardian whenever such court deems it necessary, and may discharge the existing sureties from further liability, after due notice given as such court may direct, when it shall appear that no injury can result therefrom to those interested in the estate.

Filing of bond; action on.

SEC. 1014. GUARDIAN'S BOND TO BE FILED; ACTION ON.—Every bond given by a guardian must be filed and preserved in the office of the clerk of the district court, and in case of a breach of a condition thereof, may be prosecuted for the use and benefit of the ward, or of any person interested in the estate.

Period of limitation on.

SEC. 1015. LIMITATION OF ACTIONS ON GUARDIAN'S BOND.—No action can be maintained against the sureties on any bond given by a guardian, unless it be commenced within three years from the discharge or removal of the guardian; but if at the time of such discharge the person entitled to bring such action is under any legal disability to sue, the action may be commenced at any time within three years after such disability is removed.

Limitation of actions for recovery of property sold.

SEC. 1016. LIMITATION OF ACTIONS FOR THE RECOVERY OF PROPERTY SOLD.—No action for the recovery of any estate, sold by a guardian, can be maintained by the ward, or by any person claiming under him, unless it is commenced within three years next after the termination of the guardianship, or when a legal disability to sue exists by reason of minority or otherwise, at the time when the cause of action accrues, within three years next after the removal thereof.

SEC. 1017. MORE THAN ONE GUARDIAN OF A PERSON MAY BE APPOINTED.—The court, in its discretion, whenever necessary, may appoint more than one guardian of any person subject to guardianship, each of whom must give a separate bond, and be governed and liable in all respects as a sole guardian.

Appointment of more than one guardian.

SEC. 1018. ORDER APPOINTING GUARDIAN, HOW ENTERED.—Any order appointing a guardian becomes a decree of the court and must be entered at length in the minute book of the court or must be signed by the judge and filed.

Entry of order appointing guardian.

The provisions of chapters 23 to 35 relative to the estates of decedents, so far as they relate to the practice in the district court, apply to proceedings under this chapter.

Practice, rules of, relating to estates of decedents, to govern. Ante, pp. 1022-1076.

SEC. 1019. PROVISIONS OF SECTIONS 532 AND 533 APPLY TO GUARDIANS.—The provisions of sections 532 and 533 are hereby declared to apply to guardians appointed by the court, and to the bonds taken or to be taken from such guardians, and to the sureties on such bonds.

Sureties, qualifications, etc., of. Ante, p. 1001.

SEC. 1020. COURT MAY MAKE DECREE AUTHORIZING GUARDIAN TO MAKE CONVEYANCE FOR INCOMPETENT.—When a person who is bound by a contract in writing to convey any real estate shall afterwards and before making the conveyance become and be adjudged to be an incompetent person, the court may make a decree authorizing and directing his guardian to convey such real estate to the person entitled thereto. Such decree may be made under the provisions of sections 841 to 851, all of which provisions are hereby incorporated in this section; the word incompetent being substituted for the word deceased or decedent and the word guardian being substituted for the words administrator or executor, respectively, wherever said words occur.

Decree authorizing guardian to make conveyances of realty, pursuant to contract.

SEC. 1021. CONVEYANCE BY GUARDIAN.—When a person who is bound by contract in writing to convey any real estate, or to transfer any personal property, dies before making conveyance or transfer, and in all cases when such decedent, if living might be compelled to make such conveyance or transfer, the court, having jurisdiction of the guardianship proceedings of such minor may make a decree authorizing and directing the guardian of any minor, who has succeeded by distribution to the estate of such deceased person, to convey or transfer such real estate or personal property to the person entitled thereto.

Procedure. Ante, pp. 1056-1067.

When contract made by ward's ancestor, etc.

SEC. 1022. ATTORNEY'S FEES AGAINST MINOR FIXED BY COURT; JUDGMENT NOT IN EXCESS OF $500.—All contracts for attorney's fees made by or for the benefit of minors shall be void, and whenever a judgment shall be recovered by or on behalf of a minor, the attorney's fees chargeable against said minor shall be fixed by the court in which said judgment is rendered; and if said judgment is for money, and there is no general guardian of said minor, one shall be appointed by the court, and the entire amount of the judgment shall be paid to and shall be cared for by such general guardian, under the control of the court: Provided, That where a minor has brought an action by a guardian ad litem and has recovered a money judgment not in excess of $500, exclusive of costs, and the guardian ad litem is a parent or blood relative of said minor, then, with the approval of the court that rendered the judgment the whole amount of said judgment may be paid directly to such guardian ad litem without any bond being required therefor. The court in any of the cases provided for herein may direct the amount fixed as attorney's fees to be paid directly to the attorney, and the balance to be paid to such guardian ad litem of said minor, or to the general guardian of said minor if a general guardian has been appointed or is required by the court.

Attorney's fees against minor fixed by court.

Proviso. Payment of judgment below $500 recovered by minor.

Compromise of minor's claim by parent.

SEC. 1023. PARENT'S RIGHT TO COMPROMISE CLAIM OF MINOR.—Where a minor shall have a disputed claim for money against a third person, the father, and if the father be dead or has deserted or abandoned the minor, then the mother of said minor, shall have the right to compromise such claim, but before the compromise shall be valid or of any effect the same shall be approved by the division of the district court where the minor resides, upon a verified petition in writing, regularly filed with said court. If the court approves such compromise, the said district court may direct the money paid to the father or mother of such minor, with or without the filing of any bond, or it may require a general guardian or guardian ad litem to be duly appointed and the money to be paid to such guardian or guardian ad litem with or without a bond as in the discretion of the court seems to the best interests of said minor. The clerk of the district court shall not charge any fee for filing said petition for leave to compromise or for placing the same upon the calendar to be heard by the court.

Validity subject to approval of district court.

Disposition of money.

ESTATES OF MISSING PERSONS.

CHAPTER 37.—ESTATES OF MISSING PERSONS

Appointment of trustees for.

SEC. 1024. TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATES OF MISSING PERSONS; APPOINTMENT OF, BY THE COURT.—Whenever any resident of the Canal Zone, who owns or is entitled to the possession of any real or personal property situate therein, is missing, or his whereabouts unknown, for ninety days, and a verified petition is presented to the division of the district court of which he is a resident by his wife or any of his family or friends, representing that his whereabouts has been, for such time, and still is, unknown, and that his estate requires attention, supervision, and care of ownership, the court must order such petition to be filed, and appoint a day for its hearing, not less than ten days from the date of the order.

Petition for.

Notice and hearing.

NOTICE AND HEARING.—The clerk of the court must thereupon publish, for at least ten days prior to the day so appointed, a notice in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone, stating that such petition will be heard at the court room of the court at the time appointed for the hearing. The court may direct further notice of the application to be given in such manner and to such persons as it may deem proper. At the time so fixed for such hearing, or at any subsequent time to which the hearing may be postponed, the court must hear the petition and the evidence offered in support of or in opposition thereto, and, if satisfied that the allegations thereof are true, and that such person remains missing, and his whereabouts unknown, must appoint some suitable person to take charge and possession of such estate, and manage and control it under the direction of the court.

Preference of wife or nominee.

PREFERENCE OF WIFE OR NOMINEE.—In appointing a trustee, the court must prefer the wife of the missing person (if any such there is), or her nominee, and, in the absence of a wife, some person, if such there is who is willing to act, entitled to participate in the distribution of the missing person's estate were he dead.

Bond.
Ante, p. 1034.

SEC. 1025. BONDS TO BE GIVEN BY TRUSTEES.—Every person appointed under the provisions of section 1024 must give bond in the amount and as provided for in section 731.

Powers and duties.

SEC. 1026. POWERS AND DUTIES OF TRUSTEES.—The trustee must take possession of the real and personal estate in the Canal Zone of such missing person, and collect and receive the rents, income, and proceeds thereof, collect all indebtedness owing to him, and pay the expenses thereof out of the trust funds, and pay such indebtedness of the missing person as may be authorized by the court. The court may direct the trustee to pay to the person or persons constituting the family of the missing person such sum or sums of money for family expenses and support from the income of the estate as it may, from time to time, determine. The trustee must, from time to time, when directed by the court, account to and with it for all his acts as trustee, and the court may, at any time, upon good cause shown, remove any trustee, and appoint another in his place.

CHAPTER 38.—EVIDENCE

GENERAL DEFINITIONS AND DIVISIONS

EVIDENCE.

General definitions and divisions.

SEC. 1027. DEFINITION OF EVIDENCE.—Judicial evidence is the means, sanctioned by law, of ascertaining in a judicial proceeding the truth respecting a question of fact.

“Evidence.”

SEC. 1028. DEFINITION OF PROOF.—Proof is the effect of evidence, the establishment of a fact by evidence.

“Proof.”

SEC. 1029. DEFINITION OF LAW OF EVIDENCE.—The law of evidence, which is the subject of this chapter, is a collection of general rules established by law:

“Law of evidence.”

1. For declaring what is to be taken as true without proof;
2. For declaring the presumptions of law, both those which are disputable and those which are conclusive; and
3. For the production of legal evidence;
4. For the exclusion of whatever is not legal;
5. For determining, in certain cases, the value and effect of evidence.

SEC. 1030. DEGREE OF CERTAINTY REQUIRED TO ESTABLISH FACTS.—The law does not require demonstration; that is, such a degree of proof as, excluding possibility of error, produces absolute certainty; because such proof is rarely possible. Moral certainty only is required, or that degree of proof which produces conviction in an unprejudiced mind.

Degree of certainty required.

SEC. 1031. FOUR KINDS OF EVIDENCE SPECIFIED.—There are four kinds of evidence:

Kinds of evidence.

1. The knowledge of the court.
2. The testimony of witnesses.
3. Writings.
4. Other material objects presented to the senses.

SEC. 1032. SEVERAL DEGREES OF EVIDENCE SPECIFIED.—There are several degrees of evidence:

Degrees.

1. Primary and secondary.
2. Direct and indirect.
3. Prima facie, partial, satisfactory, indispensable, and conclusive.

SEC. 1033. PRIMARY EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Primary evidence is that kind of evidence which, under every possible circumstance, affords the greatest certainty of the fact in question. Thus, a written instrument is itself the best possible evidence of its existence and contents.

“Primary evidence.”

SEC. 1034. SECONDARY EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Secondary evidence is that which is inferior to primary. Thus, a copy of an instrument or oral evidence of its contents is secondary evidence of the instrument and contents.

“Secondary.”

SEC. 1035. DIRECT EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Direct evidence is that which proves the fact in dispute, directly, without an inference or presumption, and which in itself, if true, conclusively establishes that fact. For example, if the fact in dispute be an agreement, the evidence of a witness who was present and witnessed the making of it, is direct.

“Direct.”

"Indirect."

SEC. 1036. INDIRECT EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Indirect evidence is that which tends to establish the fact in dispute by proving another, and which, though true, does not of itself conclusively establish that fact, but which affords an inference or presumption of its existence. For example, a witness proves an admission of the party to the fact in dispute. This proves a fact, from which the fact in dispute is inferred.

"Prima facie."

SEC. 1037. PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Prima facie evidence is that which suffices for the proof of a particular fact, until contradicted and overcome by other evidence. For example, the certificate of a recording officer is prima facie evidence of a record, but it may afterwards be rejected upon proof that there is no such record.

"Partial."

SEC. 1038. PARTIAL EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Partial evidence is that which goes to establish a detached fact, in a series tending to the fact in dispute. It may be received, subject to be rejected as incompetent, unless connected with the fact in dispute by proof of other facts. For example, on an issue of title to real property, evidence of the continued possession of a remote occupant is partial, for it is of a detached fact, which may or may not be afterwards connected with the fact in dispute.

"Indispensable."

SEC. 1039. INDISPENSABLE EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Indispensable evidence is that without which a particular fact can not be proved.

"Conclusive."

SEC. 1040. CONCLUSIVE EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Conclusive or unanswerable evidence is that which the law does not permit to be contradicted. For example, the record of a court of competent jurisdiction can not be contradicted by the parties to it.

"Cumulative."

SEC. 1041. CUMULATIVE EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Cumulative evidence is additional evidence of the same character, to the same point.

"Corroborative."

SEC. 1042. CORROBORATIVE EVIDENCE DEFINED.—Corroborative evidence is additional evidence of a different character, to the same point.

General principles.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF EVIDENCE

Sufficiency of single witness.

SEC. 1043. ONE WITNESS SUFFICIENT TO PROVE A FACT.—The direct evidence of one witness who is entitled to full credit is sufficient for proof of any fact, except perjury and treason.

Testimony confined to personal knowledge.

SEC. 1044. TESTIMONY CONFINED TO PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE.—A witness can testify of those facts only which he knows of his own knowledge; that is, which are derived from his own perceptions, except in those few express cases in which his opinions or inferences, or the declarations of others, are admissible.

Exceptions; opinion, hearsay.

Testimony under oath and in open court.

SEC. 1045. TESTIMONY TO BE IN PRESENCE OF PERSONS AFFECTED.—A witness can be heard only upon oath or affirmation, and upon a trial he can be heard only in the presence and subject to the examination of all the parties, if they choose to attend and examine.

Credibility of.

SEC. 1046. WITNESS PRESUMED TO SPEAK THE TRUTH.—A witness is presumed to speak the truth. This presumption, however, may be repelled by the manner in which he testifies, by the character of his testimony, or by evidence affecting his character for truth, honesty, or integrity, or his motives, or by contradictory evidence; and the jury are the exclusive judges of his credibility.

Rights of party not affected by act of another.

SEC. 1047. RIGHTS OF ONE PERSON NOT AFFECTED BY ACT OF ANOTHER.—The rights of a party can not be prejudiced by the declaration, act, or omission of another, except by virtue of a particular relation between them; therefore, proceedings against one can not affect another.

Declarations of predecessor in title.

SEC. 1048. DECLARATIONS OF PREDECESSOR IN TITLE EVIDENCE.—Where, however, one derives title to real property from another, the declaration, act, or omission of the latter, while holding the title, in relation to the property, is evidence against the former.

SEC. 1049. DECLARATIONS WHICH ARE A PART OF THE TRANSACTION.—Where, also, the declaration, act, or omission forms part of a transaction, which is itself the fact in dispute, or evidence of that fact, such declaration, act, or omission is evidence, as part of the transaction.

Declarations a part of transaction.

SEC. 1050. EVIDENCE RELATING TO THIRD PERSON.—And where the question in dispute between the parties is the obligation or duty of a third person, whatever would be the evidence for or against such person is prima facie evidence between the parties.

Relating to third person.

SEC. 1051. DECLARATION OF DECEDENT EVIDENCE OF PEDIGREE.—The declaration, act, or omission of a member of a family who is a decedent, or out of the jurisdiction, is also admissible as evidence of common reputation, in cases where, on questions of pedigree, such reputation is admissible.

Pedigree, declaration of decedent.

SEC. 1052. DECLARATION OF DECEDENT EVIDENCE AGAINST HIS SUCCESSOR IN INTEREST.—The declaration, act, or omission of a decedent, having sufficient knowledge of the subject, against his pecuniary interest, is also admissible as evidence to that extent against his successor in interest.

Against interest.

SEC. 1053. WHEN PART OF A TRANSACTION PROVED, THE WHOLE IS ADMISSIBLE.—When part of an act, declaration, conversation, or writing is given in evidence by one party, the whole on the same subject may be inquired into by the other; when a letter is read, the answer may be given; and when a detached act, declaration, conversation, or writing is given in evidence, any other act, declaration, conversation, or writing, which is necessary to make it understood, may also be given in evidence.

When part of transaction proved, whole is admissible.

SEC. 1054. CONTENTS OF WRITING, HOW PROVED.—There can be no evidence of the contents of a writing, other than the writing itself, except in the following cases:

Proof of writing.

1. When the original has been lost or destroyed; in which case proof of the loss or destruction must first be made.

"Best evidence available."

2. When the original is in possession of the party against whom the evidence is offered, and he fails to produce it after reasonable notice.

3. When the original is a record or other document in the custody of a public officer.

4. When the original has been recorded, and a certified copy of the record is made evidence by this code or other statute.

5. When the original consists of numerous accounts or other documents, which can not be examined in court without great loss of time, and the evidence sought from them is only the general result of the whole.

In the cases mentioned in subdivisions three and four, a copy of the original, or of the record, must be produced; in those mentioned in subdivisions one and two, either a copy or oral evidence of the contents.

SEC. 1055. PROOF OF CONTENTS OF LOST PUBLIC RECORD OR DOCUMENT; ABSTRACT OF TITLE MAY BE ADMITTED IN EVIDENCE.—When, in any action, it is desired to prove the contents of any public record or document lost or destroyed by conflagration or other public calamity and after proof of such loss or destruction, there is offered in proof of such contents (a) any abstract of title made and issued and certified as correct prior to such loss or destruction, and purporting to have been prepared and made in the ordinary course of business by any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of preparing and making abstracts of title prior to such loss or destruction;

Lost public record or document.

Abstract of title.

(b) any abstract of title, or of any instrument affecting title, made, issued and certified as correct by any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of insuring titles or issuing abstracts of title, to real estate whether the same was made, issued, or certified before or after such loss or destruction and whether the same was made from the original records or from abstracts and notes, or either, taken from such records in the preparation and upkeeping of its, or his, plant in the ordinary course of its business, the same may, without further proof, be admitted in evidence for the purpose aforesaid.

Proof of loss.

No proof of the loss of the original document or instrument shall be required other than the fact that the same is not known to the party desiring to prove its contents to be in existence: Provided, nevertheless, That any party so desiring to use said evidence shall give reasonable notice in writing to all other parties to the action who have appeared therein, of his intention to use the same at the trial of said action, and shall give all such other parties a reasonable opportunity to inspect the same, and also the abstracts, memoranda, or notes from which it was compiled, and to take copies thereof.

Proviso.
Notice to adverse party.

Written instrument incontrovertible by parole.

SEC. 1056. AN AGREEMENT REDUCED TO WRITING DEEMED THE WHOLE.—When the terms of an agreement have been reduced to writing by the parties, it is to be considered as containing all those terms, and therefore there can be between the parties and their representatives, or successors in interest, no evidence of the terms of the agreement other than the contents of the writing, except in the following cases:

1. Where a mistake or imperfection of the writing is put in issue by the pleadings;

2. Where the validity of the agreement is the fact in dispute.

Attendant circumstances, ambiguity, etc.

But this section does not exclude other evidence of the circumstances under which the agreement was made or to which it relates, as defined in section 1060, or to explain an extrinsic ambiguity, or to establish illegality or fraud. The term agreement includes deeds and wills, as well as contracts between parties.

Construction of language.

SEC. 1057. CONSTRUCTION OF LANGUAGE RELATES TO PLACE WHERE USED.—The language of a writing is to be interpreted according to the meaning it bears in the place of its execution, unless the parties have reference to a different place.

Of statutes and instruments.

SEC. 1058.—CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES AND INSTRUMENTS, GENERAL RULE.—In the construction of a statute or instrument, the office of the judge is simply to ascertain and declare what is in terms or in substance contained therein, not to insert what has been omitted, or to omit what has been inserted; and where there are several provisions or particulars, such a construction is, if possible, to be adopted as will give effect to all.

Intention of legislature or parties to govern.

SEC. 1059. THE INTENTION OF THE LEGISLATURE OR PARTIES.—In the construction of a statute the intention of the legislature, and in the construction of the instrument the intention of the parties, is to be pursued, if possible; and when a general and a particular provision are inconsistent, the latter is paramount to the former. So a particular intent will control a general one that is inconsistent with it.

Attendant circumstances.

SEC. 1060. THE CIRCUMSTANCES TO BE CONSIDERED.—For the proper construction of an instrument, the circumstances under which it was made, including the situation of the subject of the instrument, and of the parties to it, may also be shown, so that the judge be placed in the position of those whose language he is to interpret.

Terms to be construed generally.

SEC. 1061. TERMS TO BE CONSTRUED IN THEIR GENERAL ACCEPTATION.—The terms of a writing are presumed to have been used in their primary and general acceptance, but evidence is nevertheless admissible that they have a local, technical, or otherwise peculiar signification, and were so used and understood in the particular instance, in which case the agreement must be construed accordingly. Technical, etc., words.

SEC. 1062. WRITTEN WORDS CONTROL THOSE PRINTED IN A BLANK FORM.—When an instrument consists partly of written words and partly of a printed form, and the two are inconsistent, the former controls the latter. Written words to govern print.

SEC. 1063. PERSONS SKILLED MAY TESTIFY, TO DECIPHER CHARACTERS.—When the characters in which an instrument is written are difficult to be deciphered, or the language of the instrument is not understood by the court, the evidence of persons skilled in deciphering the characters, or who understand the language, is admissible to declare the characters or the meaning of the language. Translators, etc.

SEC. 1064. OF TWO CONSTRUCTIONS, WHICH PREFERRED.—When the terms of an agreement have been intended in a different sense by the different parties to it, that sense is to prevail against either party in which he supposed the other understood it, and when different constructions of a provision are otherwise equally proper, that is to be taken which is most favorable to the party in whose favor the provision was made. Preference in construction.

SEC. 1065. A WRITTEN INSTRUMENT CONSTRUED AS UNDERSTOOD BY PARTIES.—A written notice, as well as every other writing, is to be construed according to the ordinary acceptance of its terms. Thus a notice to the drawers or indorsers of a bill of exchange or promissory note, that it has been protested for want of acceptance or payment, must be held to import that the same has been duly presented for acceptance or payment and the same refused, and that the holder looks for payment to the person to whom the notice is given. As understood by parties.

SEC. 1066. CONSTRUCTION IN FAVOR OF NATURAL RIGHT PREFERRED.—When a statute or instrument is equally susceptible of two interpretations, one in favor of natural right, and the other against it, the former is to be adopted. In favor of natural right.

SEC. 1067. MATERIAL ALLEGATION ONLY TO BE PROVED.—None but a material allegation need be proved. Material allegation, only, to be proved.

SEC. 1068. EVIDENCE CONFINED TO MATERIAL ALLEGATION.—Evidence must correspond with the substance of the material allegations and be relevant to the question in dispute. Collateral questions must therefore be avoided. It is, however, within the discretion of the court to permit inquiry into collateral fact, when such fact is directly connected with the question in dispute, and is essential to its proper determination or when it affects the credibility of a witness. Evidence confined to.

SEC. 1069. AFFIRMATIVE ONLY TO BE PROVED.—Each party must prove his own affirmative allegations. Evidence need not be given in support of a negative allegation, except when such negative allegation is an essential part of the statement of the right or title on which the cause of action or defense is founded, nor even in such case when the allegation is a denial of the existence of a document, the custody of which belongs to the opposite party. Affirmative allegations.

SEC. 1070. FACTS WHICH MAY BE PROVED ON TRIAL.—In conformity with the preceding provisions, evidence may be given upon a trial of the following facts: Facts provable on trial.

1. The precise fact in dispute; Fact in dispute.
2. The act, declaration, or omission of a party, as evidence against such party; Admissions against interest.
3. An act or declaration of another, in the presence and within the observation of a party, and his conduct in relation thereto; Acts of another in presence, etc., of party.

Dying declarations, etc.

4. The act or declaration, verbal or written, of a deceased person in respect to the relationship, birth, marriage, or death of any person related by blood or marriage to such deceased person; the act or declaration of a deceased person done or made against his interest in respect to his real property; and also in criminal actions, the act or declaration of a dying person, made under a sense of impending death, respecting the cause of his death;

Acts, etc., of partner, etc.

5. After proof of a partnership or agency, the act or declaration of a partner or agent of the party, within the scope of the partnership or agency, and during its existence. The same rule applies to the act or declaration of a joint owner, joint debtor, or other person jointly interested with the party;

Conspiracies.

6. After proof of a conspiracy, the act or declaration of a conspirator against his co-conspirator, and relating to the conspiracy;

Acts, etc., forming part of transaction. Ante, p. 1095.

7. The act, declaration, or omission forming part of a transaction as explained in section 1049;

Testimony of deceased, etc., persons.

8. The testimony of a witness deceased, or out of the jurisdiction, or unable to testify, given in a former action between the same parties, relating to the same matter;

Expert testimony.

9. The opinion of a witness respecting the identity or handwriting of a person, when he has knowledge of the person or handwriting; his opinion on a question of science, art, or trade, when he is skilled therein;

Opinion, as to sanity.

10. The opinion of a subscribing witness to a writing, the validity of which is in dispute, respecting the mental sanity of the signer; and the opinion of an intimate acquaintance respecting the mental sanity of a person, the reason for the opinion being given;

Ancient documents, etc.

11. Common reputation existing previous to the controversy, respecting facts of a public or general interest more than thirty years old, and in cases of pedigree and boundary;

Usage.

12. Usage, to explain the true character of an act, contract, or instrument, where such true character is not otherwise plain; but usage is never admissible, except as an instrument of interpretation;

Monuments, inscriptions, family records, etc.

13. Monuments and inscriptions in public places, as evidence of common reputation; and entries in family Bibles, or other family books or charts; engravings on rings, family portraits, and the like, as evidence of pedigree;

Parole, of writing, when admissible.

14. The contents of a writing, when oral evidence thereof is admissible;

Indirect.

15. Any other facts from which the facts in issue are presumed or are logically inferable;

Common reputation. Ante, p. 1094.

16. Such facts as serve to show the credibility of a witness, as explained in section 1046.

Kinds and degrees.

KINDS AND DEGREES OF EVIDENCE

Knowledge of the court.

KNOWLEDGE OF THE COURT

Judicial notice.

SEC. 1071. CERTAIN FACTS OF GENERAL NOTORIETY ASSUMED TO BE TRUE; SPECIFICATION OF SUCH FACTS.—Courts take judicial notice of the following facts:

1. The true signification of all English words and phrases, and of all legal expressions;

2. Whatever is established by law;

3. Public and private official acts of the legislative, executive, and judicial departments of the United States;

4. The seals of all the courts of the Canal Zone and of the United States;

5. The accession to office and the official signatures and seals of office of the principal officers of government in the legislative, executive, and judicial departments of the United States;

6. The existence, title, national flag, and seal of every state or sovereign recognized by the executive power of the United States;

7. The seals of courts of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction, and of notaries public;

8. The laws of nature, the measure of time, and the geographical divisions and political history of the world.

In all these cases the court may resort for its aid to appropriate books or documents of reference.

WITNESSES

Witnesses.

SEC. 1072. WITNESSES DEFINED.—A witness is a person whose declaration under oath is received as evidence for any purpose, whether such declaration be made on oral examination, or by deposition or affidavit.

Defined.

SEC. 1073. ALL PERSONS CAPABLE OF PERCEPTION AND COMMUNICATION MAY BE WITNESSES.—All persons, without exception, otherwise than is specified in the next two sections, who, having organs of sense, can perceive, and, perceiving, can make known their perceptions to others, may be witnesses. Therefore, neither parties nor other persons who have an interest in the event of an action or proceeding are excluded; nor those who have been convicted of crime; nor persons on account of their opinions on matters of religious belief; although, in every case the credibility of the witness may be drawn in question, as provided in section 1046.

Capacity.

Ante, p. 1094.

SEC. 1074. PERSONS WHO CAN NOT TESTIFY.—The following persons can not be witnesses:

Persons who can not testify.

1. Those who are of unsound mind at the time of their production for examination.

2. Children under ten years of age, who appear incapable of receiving just impressions of the facts respecting which they are examined, or of relating them truly.

3. Parties or assignors of parties to an action or proceeding, or persons in whose behalf an action or proceeding is prosecuted, against an executor or administrator upon a claim, or demand against the estate of a deceased person, as to any matter or fact occurring before the death of such deceased person.

SEC. 1075. CASES IN WHICH WITNESSES MAY NOT BE EXAMINED.—There are particular relations in which it is the policy of the law to encourage confidence and to preserve it inviolate; therefore, a person can not be examined as a witness in the following cases:

Who may not be examined.

1. HUSBAND AND WIFE.—A husband can not be examined for or against his wife without her consent; nor a wife for or against her husband, without his consent; nor can either, during the marriage or afterward, be, without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during the marriage; but this exception does not apply to civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other; or in an action brought by husband or wife against another person for the alienation of the affections of either husband or wife or in an action for damages against another person for adultery committed by either husband or wife.

Husband and wife.

Exceptions.

2. ATTORNEY AND CLIENT.—An attorney can not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment; nor can an attorney's secretary, stenographer, or clerk be examined, without the consent of his employer, concerning any fact the knowledge of which has been acquired in such capacity.

Confessor and confessant.

3. CONFESSOR AND CONFESSANT.—A clergyman or priest can not, without the consent of the person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

Physician and patient.

4. PHYSICIAN AND PATIENT.—A licensed physician or surgeon can not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending the patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient: Provided, however, That after the death of the patient, the executor of his will, or the administrator of his estate, or the surviving spouse of the deceased, or, if there be no surviving spouse, the children, of the deceased personally, or, if minors, by their guardian, may give such consent, in any action or proceeding brought to recover damages on account of the death of the patient: Provided further, That where any person brings an action to recover damages for personal injuries, such action shall be deemed to constitute a consent by the person bringing such action that any physician who has prescribed for or treated said person and whose testimony is material in said action shall testify: And provided further, That the bringing of an action to recover for the death of a patient, by the executor of his will, or by the administrator of his estate, or by the surviving spouse of the deceased, or if there be no surviving spouse, by the children personally, or, if minors, by their guardian, shall constitute a consent by such executor, administrator, surviving spouse, or children or guardian, to the testimony of any physician who attended said deceased.

Provisos. Concerning injury causing death of patient, upon consent of representative of estate.

When injured party brings action thereon.

Action by representative for death.

Public officer.

5. PUBLIC OFFICER.—A public officer can not be examined as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

Judge and jurors eligible as.

SEC. 1076. JUDGE OR A JUROR MAY BE A WITNESS.—The judge himself, or any juror, may be called as a witness by either party; but in such case it is in the discretion of the court or judge to order the trial to be postponed or suspended, and to take place before another judge or jury.

Interpreter.

SEC. 1077. WHEN AN INTERPRETER TO BE SWORN.—When a witness does not understand and speak the English language, an interpreter must be sworn to interpret for him. Any person, a resident of the proper division or subdivision, may be summoned by any court or judge to appear before such court or judge to act as interpreter in any action or proceeding. The summons must be served and returned in like manner as a subpoena. Any person so summoned who fails to attend at the time and place named in the summons, is guilty of a contempt.

Writings.

WRITINGS IN GENERAL

Public and private.

SEC. 1078. WRITINGS, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE.—Writings are of two kinds:

1. Public; and,
2. Private.

"Public" defined.

SEC. 1079. PUBLIC WRITINGS DEFINED.—Public writings are:

1. The written acts or records of the acts of the sovereign authority, of official bodies and tribunals, and of public officers, legislative, judicial, and executive, whether of the Canal Zone, of the United States, of a State of the United States, or of a foreign country;

2. Public records, kept in the Canal Zone, of private writings.

SEC. 1080. ALL OTHERS PRIVATE.—All other writings are private.

"Private."

PUBLIC WRITINGS

Public writings.

SEC. 1082. PUBLIC OFFICERS BOUND TO GIVE COPIES.—Every public officer having the custody of a public writing, which a citizen has a right to inspect, is bound to give him, on demand, a certified copy of it, on payment of the legal fees therefor, and such copy is admissible as evidence in like cases and with like effect as the original writing.

Officers bound to give copies.

SEC. 1083. FOUR KINDS OF PUBLIC WRITINGS.—Public writings are divided into four classes:

Divisions.

1. Laws;

2. Judicial records;

3. Other official documents;

4. Public records, kept in the Canal Zone, of private writings.

Definitions.

SEC. 1084. WRITTEN LAWS DEFINED.—A written law is that which is promulgated in writing, and of which a record is in existence.

"Written laws."

SEC. 1085. PUBLIC AND PRIVATE STATUTES DEFINED.—Statutes are public or private. A private statute is one which concerns only certain designated individuals, and affects only their private rights. All other statutes are public, in which are included statutes creating or affecting corporations.

"Public and private statutes."

SEC. 1086. UNWRITTEN LAW DEFINED.—Unwritten law is the law not promulgated and recorded, as mentioned in section 1084, but which is, nevertheless, observed and administered in the courts of the United States. It has no certain repository, but is collected from the reports of the decisions of the courts, and the treatises of learned men.

"Unwritten law."

SEC. 1087. BOOKS CONTAINING LAWS PRESUMED TO BE CORRECT.—Books printed or published under the authority of a state or foreign country, and purporting to contain the statutes, code, or other written law of such state or country, or proved to be commonly admitted in the tribunals of such state or country as evidence of the written law thereof, are admissible in the Canal Zone as evidence of such law.

Books containing laws presumed correct.

SEC. 1088. EVIDENCE OF FOREIGN LAW.—A copy of the written law or other public writing of any state or country, attested by the certificate of the officer having charge of the original, under the public seal of the state or country, is admissible as evidence of such law or writing.

Foreign laws, copies.

SEC. 1089. OTHER EVIDENCE OF LAWS OF STATES.—The oral testimony of witnesses skilled therein is admissible as evidence of the unwritten law of a state or foreign country, as are also printed and published books of reports of decisions of the courts of such state or country, or proved to be commonly admitted in such courts.

Oral testimony by experts.

SEC. 1090. RECITALS IN STATUTES, HOW FAR EVIDENCE.—The recitals in a public statute are conclusive evidence of the facts recited for the purpose of carrying it into effect, but no further. The recitals in a private statute are conclusive evidence between parties who claim under its provisions, but no further.

Recitals in statutes.

SEC. 1091. JUDICIAL RECORD DEFINED.—A judicial record is the record or official entry of the proceedings in a court of justice, or of the official act of a judicial officer, in an action or special proceeding.

"Judicial record" defined.

SEC. 1092. RECORD, HOW AUTHENTICATED AS EVIDENCE.—A judicial record of the Canal Zone, or of the United States, may be proved Authentication of.

by the production of the original, or by a copy thereof, certified by the clerk or other person having a legal custody thereof. That of a state may be proved by the attestation of the clerk and the seal of the court annexed, if there be a clerk and seal, together with a certificate of the chief judge or presiding magistrate, that the attestation is in due form.

Authentication of foreign judicial record.

SEC. 1093. RECORD OF A FOREIGN COUNTRY, HOW AUTHENTICATED.—A judicial record of a foreign country may be proved by the attestation of the clerk, with the seal of the court annexed, if there be a clerk and a seal, or of the legal keeper of the record, with the seal of his office annexed, if there be a seal, together with a certificate of the chief judge, or presiding magistrate, that the person making the attestation is the clerk of the court or the legal keeper of the record, and, in either case, that the signature of such person is genuine, and that the attestation is in due form. The signature of the chief judge or presiding magistrate must be authenticated by the certificate of the minister or ambassador, or a consul, vice consul, or consular agent of the United States in such foreign country.

Unauthenticated copy.

SEC. 1094. COPY OF A FOREIGN RECORD, WHEN EVIDENCE.—A copy of the judicial record of a foreign country is also admissible in evidence, upon proof:

1. That the copy offered has been compared by the witness with the original, and is an exact transcript of the whole of it;

2. That such original was in the custody of the clerk of the court or other legal keeper of the same; and

3. That the copy is duly attested by a seal which is proved to be the seal of the court where the record remains, if it be the record of a court; or if there be no such seal, or if it be not a record of a court, by the signature of the legal keeper of the original.

Effect of judgment upon rights.

SEC. 1095. EFFECT OF A JUDGMENT UPON RIGHTS IN VARIOUS CASES.—The effect of a judgment or final order in an action or special proceeding before a court or judge of the Canal Zone, is as follows:

1. In case of a judgment or order against a specific thing, or in respect to the probate of a will, or the administration of the estate of a decedent, or in respect to the personal, political, or legal condition or relation of a particular person, the judgment or order is conclusive upon the title to the thing, the will, or administration, or the condition or relation of the person.

2. In other cases, the judgment or order is, in respect to the matter directly adjudged, conclusive between the parties and their successors in interest by title subsequent to the commencement of the action or special proceeding, litigating for the same thing under the same title and in the same capacity, provided they have notice, actual or constructive, of the pendency of the action or proceeding.

Other judicial orders.

SEC. 1096. EFFECT OF OTHER JUDICIAL ORDERS, WHEN CONCLUSIVE.—Other judicial orders of a court or judge of the Canal Zone, create a disputable presumption, according to the matter directly determined, between the same parties and their representatives and successors in interest by title subsequent to the commencement of the action or special proceeding, litigating for the same thing under the same title and in the same capacity.

Where parties deemed the same.

SEC. 1097. WHERE PARTIES ARE TO BE DEEMED THE SAME.—The parties are deemed to be the same when those between whom the evidence is offered were on opposite sides in the former case, and a judgment or other determination could in that case have been made between them alone, though other parties were joined with both or either.

SEC. 1098. WHAT DEEMED ADJUDGED IN A JUDGMENT.—That only is deemed to have been adjudged in a former judgment which appears upon its face to have been so adjudged, or which was actually and necessarily included therein or necessary thereto.

What deemed adjudged in judgment.

SEC. 1099. WHERE SURETIES BOUND, PRINCIPAL IS ALSO.—Whenever, pursuant to the last four sections, a party is bound by a record, and such party stands in the relation of a surety for another, the latter is also bound from the time that he has notice of the action or proceeding, and an opportunity at the surety's request to join in the defense.

Principal bound when sureties are.

SEC. 1100. RECORD OF STATE, ITS EFFECT.—The effect of a judicial record of a state is the same in the Canal Zone as in the state where it was made, except that it can only be enforced here by an action or special proceeding, and except, also, that the authority of a guardian or committee, or of an executor or administrator, does not extend beyond the jurisdiction of the government under which he was invested with his authority.

Effect of judicial record of State.

SEC. 1101. RECORD OF A COURT OF ADMIRALTY.—The effect of the judicial record of a court of admiralty of a foreign country is the same as if it were the record of a court of admiralty of the United States.

Court of admiralty.

SEC. 1102. EFFECT OF A FOREIGN JUDGMENT.—A final judgment of any other tribunal of a foreign country having jurisdiction, according to the laws of such country, to pronounce the judgment, shall have the same effect as in the country where rendered, and also the same effect as final judgments rendered in the Canal Zone.

Foreign judgment.

SEC. 1103. MANNER OF IMPEACHING A RECORD.—Any judicial record may be impeached by evidence of a want of jurisdiction in the court or judicial officer, of collusion between the parties, or of fraud in the party offering the record, in respect to the proceedings.

Impeachment of record.

SEC. 1104. THE JURISDICTION NECESSARY IN A JUDGMENT.—The jurisdiction sufficient to sustain a record is jurisdiction over the cause, over the parties, and over the thing, when a specific thing is the subject of the judgment.

Jurisdiction necessary to sustain a judgment.

SEC. 1105. MANNER OF PROVING OTHER OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS.—Other official documents may be proved, as follows:

Proof of other official documents.

1. Acts of the executive of the Canal Zone, by the records of his office; and of the United States, by the records of the state department of the United States, certified by the heads of those departments, respectively. They may also be proved by public documents printed by order of the executive or Congress, or either house thereof.

Acts of executives of Canal Zone and United States.

2. The proceedings of Congress, by the journals of that body, or either house thereof, or by published statutes or resolutions, or by copies certified by the clerk or printed by their order.

Proceedings of Congress.

3. The acts of the executive, or the proceedings of the legislature of a state, in the same manner.

Executive and legislature of States.

4. The acts of the executive, or the proceedings of the legislature of a foreign country, by journals published by their authority, or commonly received in that country as such, or by a copy certified under the seal of the country or sovereign, or by a recognition thereof in some public act of the executive of the United States.

Of foreign country.

5. Documents of any other class in the Canal Zone, by the original, or by a copy, certified by the legal keeper thereof.

Other documents, Canal Zone.

6. Documents of any other class in a State, by the original, or by a copy, certified by the legal keeper thereof, together with the certificate of the secretary of state, judge of the supreme, superior, or county court, or mayor of a city of such State, that the copy is duly certified by the officer having the legal custody of the original.

States.

- Foreign country. 7. Documents of any other class in a foreign country, by the original, or by a copy, certified by the legal keeper thereof, with a certificate, under seal, of the country or sovereign, that the document is a valid and subsisting document of such country, and the copy is duly certified by the officer having the legal custody of the original.
- Departments, United States Government. 8. Documents in the departments of the United States Government, by the certificates of the legal custodian thereof.
- Public record of private writing. SEC. 1106. PUBLIC RECORD OF PRIVATE WRITING EVIDENCE.—A public record of a private writing may be proved by the original record, or by a copy thereof, certified by the legal keeper of the record.
- Entries in official books, prima facie evidence. SEC. 1107. ENTRIES IN OFFICIAL BOOKS PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE.—Entries in public or other official books or records made in the performance of his duty by a public officer of the Canal Zone, or by another person in the performance of a duty specially enjoined by law, are prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.
- Judgments of State justices. SEC. 1108. JUSTICE'S JUDGMENT IN STATES, HOW PROVED.—A transcript from the record or docket of a justice of the peace of a State, of a judgment rendered by him, of the proceedings in the action before the judgment, of the execution and return, if any, subscribed by the justice and verified in the manner prescribed in the next section is admissible evidence of the facts stated therein.
- Additional certifications. SEC. 1109. SAME.—There must be attached to the transcript a certificate of the justice that the transcript is in all respects correct, and that he had jurisdiction of the action, and also a further certificate of the clerk or prothonotary of the county in which the justice resided at the time of rendering the judgment, under the seal of the county, or the seal of the court of common pleas or county court thereof, certifying that the person subscribing the transcript was, at the date of the judgment, a justice of the peace in the county, and that the signature is genuine. Such judgment, proceedings, and jurisdiction may also be proved by the justice himself, on the production of his docket, or by a copy of the judgment, and his oral examination as a witness.
- Other official certificates. SEC. 1110. CONTENTS OF OTHER OFFICIAL CERTIFICATES.—Whenever a copy of a writing is certified for the purpose of evidence, the certificate must state in substance that the copy is a correct copy of the original, or of a specified part thereof, as the case may be. The certificate must be under the official seal of the certifying officer, if there be any, or if he be the clerk of a court having a seal, under the seal of such court.
- Provisions with respect to States to apply to United States and Territories. SEC. 1111. PROVISIONS IN RELATION TO PUBLIC WRITINGS OF STATES APPLY TO THOSE OF UNITED STATES OR TERRITORIES.—The provisions of the preceding sections of this subchapter applicable to the public writings of a state, are equally applicable to the public writings of the United States or a Territory of the United States.
- Entries of officers or boards prima facie evidence. SEC. 1112. ENTRIES MADE BY OFFICERS OR BOARDS PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE.—An entry made by an officer, or board of officers, or under the direction and in the presence of either, in the course of official duty, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated in such entry.
- Deed as evidence of transfer. SEC. 1113. DEED EVIDENCE OF TRANSFER.—A deed of conveyance of real property, purporting to have been executed by a proper officer in pursuance of legal process of the district court, or the record of such deed, or a certified copy of such record is prima facie evidence that the property or interest therein described was thereby conveyed to the grantee named in such deed.

PRIVATE WRITINGS

Private writings.

SEC. 1114. PRIVATE WRITINGS CLASSIFIED.—Private writings are either:

Classified.

1. Sealed; or,
2. Unsealed.

SEC. 1115. SEAL DEFINED.—A seal is a particular sign made to attest, in the most formal manner, the execution of an instrument.

"Seal" defined.

SEC. 1116. SEAL, WHAT IS, AND HOW MADE.—A public seal in the Canal Zone is a stamp or impression made by a public officer with an instrument provided by law, to attest the execution of an official or public document, upon the paper, or upon any substance attached to the paper, which is capable of receiving a visible impression. A private seal may be made in the same manner by any instrument, or it may be made by the scroll of a pen, or by writing the word "seal" against the signature of the writer. A scroll or other sign, made in a state or foreign country, and there recognized as a seal, must be so regarded in the Canal Zone.

How made.

SEC. 1117. EFFECT OF A SEAL.—There shall be no difference hereafter, in the Canal Zone, between sealed and unsealed writings. A writing under seal may therefore be changed, or altogether discharged by a writing not under seal.

Effect.

SEC. 1118. EXECUTION OF AN INSTRUMENT DEFINED.—The execution of an instrument is the subscribing and delivering it, with or without affixing a seal.

"Execution of instrument" defined.

SEC. 1119. COMPROMISE OF A DEBT WITHOUT SEAL GOOD.—An agreement, in writing, without a seal, for the compromise or settlement of a debt, is as obligatory as if a seal were affixed.

Compromise of debt without seal good.

SEC. 1120. SUBSCRIBING WITNESS DEFINED.—A subscribing witness is one who sees a writing executed or hears it acknowledged, and at the request of the party thereupon signs his name as a witness.

"Subscribing witness."

SEC. 1121. BOOKS, MAPS, AND SO FORTH, HOW FAR EVIDENCE.—Historical works, books of science or art, and published maps or charts, when made by persons indifferent between the parties, are prima facie evidence of facts of general notoriety and interest.

Evidentiary value of books, maps, etc.

SEC. 1122. ORIGINAL WRITING TO BE PRODUCED OR ACCOUNTED FOR.—The original writing must be produced and proved, except as provided in sections 1054 and 1106. If it has been lost, proof of the loss must first be made before evidence can be given of its contents. Upon such proof being made, together with proof of the due execution of the writing, its contents may be proved by a copy, or by recital of its contents in some authentic document, or by the recollection of a witness, as provided in section 1054.

Production of original writing. Exceptions. Ante, pp. 1093, 1104.

SEC. 1123. WHEN IN POSSESSION OF ADVERSE PARTY, NOTICE TO BE GIVEN.—If the writing be in the custody of the adverse party, he must first have reasonable notice to produce it. If he then fail to do so, the contents of the writing may be proved as in case of its loss. But the notice to produce it is not necessary where the writing is itself a notice, or where it has been wrongfully obtained or withheld by the adverse party.

Writing in hands of adverse party, notice to produce.

SEC. 1124. WRITINGS CALLED FOR AND INSPECTED MAY BE WITHHELD.—Though a writing called for by one party is produced by the other, and is thereupon inspected by the party calling for it, he is not obliged to produce it as evidence in the case.

May be withheld.

SEC. 1125. WRITING, HOW PROVED.—Any writing may be proved either:

Proof of writing.

1. By anyone who saw the writing executed; or,
2. By evidence of the genuineness of the handwriting of the maker; or,

3. By a subscribing witness.

Further proof of.

SEC. 1126. OTHER WITNESSES MAY ALSO TESTIFY.—If the subscribing witness denies or does not recollect the execution of the writing, its execution may still be proved by other evidence.

When evidence of execution not necessary.

SEC. 1127. WHEN EVIDENCE OF EXECUTION NOT NECESSARY.—Where, however, evidence is given that the party against whom the writing is offered has at any time admitted its execution no other evidence of the execution need be given, when the instrument is one mentioned in section 1130, or one produced from the custody of the adverse party, and has been acted upon by him as genuine.

Proof of handwriting, by party familiar.

SEC. 1128. EVIDENCE OF HANDWRITING.—The handwriting of a person may proved<sup>1</sup> by any one who believes it to be his, and who has seen him write, or has seen writings purporting to be his, upon which he has acted or been charged, and who has thus acquired a knowledge of his handwriting.

By comparison.

SEC. 1129. EVIDENCE OF HANDWRITING BY COMPARISON.—Evidence respecting the handwriting may also be given by a comparison, made by the witness or the jury, with writings admitted or treated as genuine by the party against whom the evidence is offered, or proved to be genuine to the satisfaction of the judge.

Ancient writings.

SEC. 1130. SAME; WHEN WRITING MORE THAN THIRTY YEARS OLD.—Where a writing is more than thirty years old, the comparisons may be made with writings purporting to be genuine, and generally respected and acted upon as such, by persons having an interest in knowing the fact.

Entries of decedents.

SEC. 1131. ENTRIES OF DECEDENTS; EVIDENCE IN SPECIFIED CASES.—The entries and other writings of a decedent, made at or near the time of the transaction, and in a position to know the facts stated therein, may be read as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein, in the following cases:

Against interest.

1. When the entry was made against the interest of the person making it.

Professional capacity.

2. When it was made in a professional capacity and in the ordinary course of professional conduct.

In performance of legal duty.

3. When it was made in the performance of a duty specially enjoined by law.

Copies of entries.

SEC. 1132. COPIES OF ENTRIES ALSO ALLOWED.—When an entry is repeated in the regular course of business, one being copied from another at or near the time of the transaction, all the entries are equally regarded as originals.

Proof of private writings.

SEC. 1133. PRIVATE WRITINGS, HOW PROVED.—Every private writing, except last wills and testaments, may be acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner provided in chapter 22 of the Civil Code, and the certificate of such acknowledgement or proof is prima facie evidence of the execution of the writing, in the same manner as if it were a conveyance of real property.

Post, p. 1164.

Removal of public records.

SEC. 1134. REMOVAL OF PUBLIC RECORDS.—The record of a conveyance of real property, or any other record, a transcript of which is admissible in evidence, must not be removed from the office where it is kept, except upon the order of a court, in cases where the inspection of the record is shown to be essential to the just determination of the cause or proceeding pending, or where the court is held in the same building with such office.

Instruments conveying real property admissible.

SEC. 1135. INSTRUMENT CONVEYING OR AFFECTING REAL PROPERTY MAY BE READ IN EVIDENCE.—Every instrument conveying or affecting real property, acknowledged or proved and certified, as provided in the Civil Code, may together with the certificate of acknowlment or proof, be read in evidence in an action or proceeding, without further proof; also, the original record of such conveyance or instrument thus acknowledged or proved, or a certified copy of the record of such conveyance or instrument thus acknowledged or proved, may be read in evidence, with the like effect as the original instrument, without further proof.

MATERIAL OBJECTS PRESENTED TO THE SENSES OTHER THAN WRITINGS

Material objects other than writing.

Admissible.

SEC. 1136. MATERIAL OBJECTS.—Whenever an object, cognizable by the senses, has such a relation to the fact in dispute as to afford reasonable grounds of belief respecting it, or to make an item in the sum of the evidence, such object may be exhibited to the jury, or its existence, situation, and character may be proved by witnesses. The admission of such evidence must be regulated by the sound discretion of the court.

INDIRECT EVIDENCE; INFERENCES AND PRESUMPTIONS

Indirect evidence; inferences and presumptions.

Indirect evidence classified.

SEC. 1137. INDIRECT EVIDENCE CLASSIFIED.—Indirect evidence is of two kinds:

1. Inferences; and,
2. Presumptions.

SEC. 1138. INFERENCE DEFINED.—An inference is a deduction which the reason of the jury makes from the facts proved, without an express direction of law to that effect.

SEC. 1139. PRESUMPTION DEFINED.—A presumption is a deduction which the law expressly directs to be made from particular facts.

SEC. 1140. WHEN AN INFERENCE ARISES.—An inference must be founded:

1. On a fact legally proved; and,
2. On such a deduction from that fact as is warranted by a consideration of the usual propensities or passions of men, the particular propensities or passions of the person whose act is in question, the course of business, or the course of nature.

SEC. 1141. PRESUMPTIONS MAY BE CONTROVERTED, WHEN.—A presumption (unless declared by law to be conclusive) may be controverted by other evidence, direct or indirect; but unless so controverted the jury are bound to find according to the presumption.

Presumption may be controverted, when.

SEC. 1142. SPECIFICATION OF CONCLUSIVE PRESUMPTIONS.—The following presumptions, and no others, are deemed conclusive:

Conclusive presumptions.

1. A malicious and guilty intent, from the deliberate commission of an unlawful act, for the purpose of injuring another;
2. The truth of the facts recited, from the recital in a written instrument between the parties thereto, or their successors in interest by a subsequent title; but this rule does not apply to the recital of a consideration;
3. Whenever a party has, by his own declaration, act, or omission, intentionally and deliberately led another to believe a particular thing true and to act upon such belief, he can not, in any litigation arising out of such declaration, act, or omission, be permitted to falsify it;
4. A tenant is not permitted to deny the title of his landlord at the time of the commencement of the relation;
5. The issue of a wife cohabiting with her husband, who is not impotent, is indisputably presumed to be legitimate;
6. The judgment or order of a court, when declared by this code to be conclusive; but such judgment or order must be alleged in the pleadings if there be an opportunity to do so; if there be no such opportunity, the judgment or order may be used as evidence;

Controvertible pre-sumptions.

7. Any other presumption which, by statute, is expressly made conclusive.

SEC. 1143. ALL OTHER PRESUMPTIONS MAY BE CONTROVERTED.—All other presumptions are satisfactory, if uncontradicted. They are denominated disputable presumptions, and may be controverted by other evidence. The following are of that kind:

1. That a person is innocent of crime or wrong;
2. That an unlawful act was done with an unlawful intent;
3. That a person intends the ordinary consequence of his voluntary act;
4. That a person takes ordinary care of his own concerns;
5. That evidence willfully suppressed would be adverse if produced;
6. That higher evidence would be adverse from inferior being produced;
7. That money paid by one to another was due to the latter;
8. That a thing delivered by one to another belonged to the latter;
9. That an obligation delivered up to the debtor has been paid;
10. That former rent or installments have been paid when a receipt for latter is produced;
11. That things which a person possesses are owned by him;
12. That a person is the owner of property from exercising acts of ownership over it, or from common reputation of his ownership;
13. That a person in possession of an order on himself for the payment of money, or the delivery of a thing, has paid the money or delivered the thing accordingly;
14. That a person acting in a public office was regularly appointed to it;
15. That official duty has been regularly performed;
16. That a court or judge, acting as such, whether in the Canal Zone or any state or country, was acting in the lawful exercise of his jurisdiction;
17. That a judicial record, when not conclusive, does still correctly determine or set forth the rights of the parties;
18. That all matters within an issue were laid before the jury and passed upon by them;
19. That private transactions have been fair and regular;
20. That the ordinary course of business has been followed;
21. That a promissory note or bill of exchange was given or indorsed for a sufficient consideration;
22. That an indorsement of a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange was made at the time and place of making the note or bill;
23. That a writing is truly dated;
24. That a letter duly directed and mailed was received in the regular course of the mail;
25. Identity of person from identity of name;
26. That a person not heard from in seven years is dead;
27. That acquiescence followed from a belief that the thing acquiesced in was conformable to the right or fact;
28. That things have happened according to the ordinary course of nature and ordinary habits of life;
29. That persons acting as copartners have entered into a contract of copartnership;
30. That a man and woman deporting themselves as husband and wife have entered into a lawful contract of marriage;
31. That a child born in lawful wedlock is legitimate;

32. That a thing once proved to exist continues as long as is usual with things of that nature; Controvertible pre-sumptions—Contd.

33. That the law has been obeyed;

34. That a document or writing more than thirty years old is genuine, when the same has been since generally acted upon as genuine, by persons having an interest in the question, and its custody has been satisfactorily explained;

35. That a printed and published book, purporting to be printed or published by public authority, was so printed or published;

36. That a printed and published book, purporting to contain reports of cases adjudged in the tribunals of the state or country where the book is published, contains correct reports of such cases;

37. That a trustee or other person, whose duty it was to convey real property to a particular person, has actually conveyed to him when such presumption is necessary to perfect the title of such person or his successor in interest;

38. That there was a good and sufficient consideration for a written contract;

39. When two persons perish in the same calamity, such as a wreck, a battle, or a conflagration, and it is not shown who died first, and there are no particular circumstances from which it can be inferred, survivorship is presumed from the probabilities resulting from the strength, age, and sex, according to the following rules:

First. If both of those who have perished were under the age of fifteen years, the older is presumed to have survived;

Second. If both were above the age of sixty, the younger is presumed to have survived;

Third. If one be under fifteen and the other above sixty, the former is presumed to have survived;

Fourth. If both be over fifteen and under sixty, and the sexes be different, the male is presumed to have survived; if the sexes be the same, then the older;

Fifth. If one be under fifteen, or over sixty, and the other between those ages, the latter is presumed to have survived.

INDISPENSABLE EVIDENCE

Indispensable evidence.

What is.

SEC. 1144. INDISPENSABLE EVIDENCE, WHAT.—The law makes certain evidence necessary to the validity of particular acts, or the proof of particular facts.

SEC. 1145. TO PROVE PERJURY AND TREASON, MORE THAN ONE WITNESS REQUIRED.—Perjury and treason must be proved by testimony of more than one witness. Treason by the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act; and perjury by the testimony of two witnesses, or one witness and corroborating circumstances. For perjury and treason.

SEC. 1146. WILL TO BE IN WRITING.—A last will and testament, except a nuncupative will, is invalid, unless it be in writing and executed with such formalities as are required by law. When, therefore, such a will is to be shown, the instrument itself must be produced, or secondary evidence of its contents be given. For will.

SEC. 1147. WILL, HOW REVOKED.—A written will can not be revoked or altered otherwise than as provided in the Civil Code. For revocation of will.
Post, p. 1167.

SEC. 1148. TRANSFER OF REAL PROPERTY TO BE IN WRITING.—No estate or interest in real property, other than for leases for a term not exceeding one year, nor any trust or power over or concerning it, or in any manner relating thereto, can be created, granted, assigned, surrendered, or declared, otherwise than by operation of law, or a conveyance or other instrument in writing, subscribed by Transfer of real property.

the party creating, granting, assigning, surrendering, or declaring the same, or by his lawful agent thereunto authorized by writing.

Not to extend to testamentary disposition or trusts.

SEC. 1149. LAST SECTION NOT TO EXTEND TO CERTAIN CASES.—The preceding section must not be construed to affect the power of a testator in the disposition of his real property by a last will and testament, nor to prevent any trust from arising or being extinguished by implication or operation of law, nor to abridge the power of any court to compel the specific performance of an agreement, in case of part performance thereof.

Agreements not in writing.

SEC. 1150. AGREEMENT NOT IN WRITING, WHEN INVALID.—In the following cases the agreement is invalid, unless the same or some note or memorandum thereof be in writing, and subscribed by the party charged, or by his agent. Evidence, therefore, of the agreement, can not be received without the writing or secondary evidence of its contents:

1. An agreement that by its terms is not to be performed within a year from the making thereof;

2. A special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another, except in the cases provided for in section 1265 of the Civil Code;

3. An agreement made upon consideration of marriage other than a mutual promise to marry;

4. A contract to sell or a sale of any goods or choses in action of the value of $50 or upwards, unless the buyer accepts part of the goods or choses in action so contracted to be sold or sold, and actually receives the same, or gives something in earnest to bind the contract, or in part payment;

5. An agreement for the leasing for a longer period than one year, or for the sale of real property, or of an interest therein; and such agreement, if made by an agent of the party sought to be charged, is invalid, unless the authority of the agent is in writing, subscribed by the party sought to be charged;

6. An agreement authorizing or employing an agent or broker to purchase or sell real estate for compensation or a commission;

7. An agreement which by its terms is not to be performed during the lifetime of the promisor, or an agreement to devise or bequeath any property, or to make any provision for any person by will.

Representation of credit.

SEC. 1151. REPRESENTATION OF CREDIT BY WRITING.—No evidence is admissible to charge a person upon a representation as to the credit of a third person, unless such representation, or some memorandum thereof, be in writing, and either subscribed by or in the handwriting of the party to be charged.

Conclusive evidence.

CONCLUSIVE OR UNANSWERABLE EVIDENCE

When declared so herein.

SEC. 1152. CONCLUSIVE OR UNANSWERABLE EVIDENCE.—No evidence is by law made conclusive or unanswerable, unless so declared by this code.

Production of evidence.

PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

By whom.

BY WHOM TO BE PRODUCED

Party holding affirmative of issue.

SEC. 1153. EVIDENCE TO BE PRODUCED BY WHOM.—The party holding the affirmative of the issue must produce the evidence to prove it; therefore, the burden of proof lies on the party who would be defeated if no evidence were given on either side.

Alteration in writing.

SEC. 1154. WRITING ALTERED, WHO TO EXPLAIN.—The party producing a writing as genuine which has been altered, or appears to have been altered, after its execution, in a part material to the question in dispute, must account for the appearance or alteration. He may show that the alteration was made by another, without his concurrence, or was made with the consent of the parties affected by it, or otherwise properly or innocently made, or that the alteration did not change the meaning or language of the instrument. If he do that, he may give the writing in evidence, but not otherwise.

MEANS OF PRODUCTION

SEC. 1155. SUBPŒNA FOR WITNESS DEFINED.—The process by which the attendance of a witness is required is a subpœna. It is a writ or order directed to a person and requiring his attendance at a particular time and place to testify as a witness. It may also require him to bring with him any books, documents, or other things under his control which he is bound by law to produce in evidence.

Means of production.

Subpœna.

Subpœna duces tecum.

SEC. 1156. SUBPŒNA, HOW ISSUED.—A subpœna is issued as follows:

Purpose.

1. To require attendance before a court, or at the trial of an issue therein, or upon the taking of a deposition in an action or proceeding pending therein, it is issued by the clerk of the court in which the action or proceeding is pending, under the seal of the court, or if there is no clerk or seal then by the judge or magistrate of such court;

For attendance before a court.

2. To require attendance before a commissioner appointed to take testimony by a court of a foreign country, or of the United States, or of any State in the United States, before any officer or officers empowered by the laws of the United States to take testimony, it may be issued by the clerk of the district court in the division in which the witness is to be examined, under the seal of such court;

Before commissioner.

3. To require attendance out of court, in cases not provided for in subdivision one, before a judge, magistrate, or other officer authorized to administer oaths or take testimony in any matter under the laws of the Canal Zone, it is issued by the judge, magistrate, or other officer before whom the attendance is required.

Before judge, etc., out of court.

If the subpœna is issued to require attendance before a court, or at the trial of an issue therein, it is issued by the clerk, as of course, upon the application of the party desiring it. If it is issued to require attendance before a commissioner or other officer upon the taking of a deposition, it must be issued by the clerk of the district court in the division wherein the attendance is required upon the order of such court or of the judge thereof, which order may be made ex parte.

Issue of.

SEC. 1157. SUBPŒNA, HOW SERVED.—The service of a subpœna is made by showing the original and delivering a copy, or a ticket containing its substance, to the witness personally, giving or offering to him at the same time, if demanded by him, the fees to which he is entitled for travel to the place designated, and one day's attendance there. The service must be made so as to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation and travel to the place of attendance. Such service may be made by any person.

Service.

SEC. 1158. HOW, IF WITNESS BE CONCEALED.—If a witness is concealed in a building or vessel, so as to prevent the service of a subpœna upon him, any court, judge, or magistrate or any officer issuing the subpœna may, upon proof by affidavit of the concealment, and of the materiality of the witness, make an order that the marshal or constable serve the subpœna; and the marshal or constable must serve it accordingly, and for that purpose may break into the building or vessel where the witness is concealed.

When witness concealed.

in the same manner as if he were in attendance upon a subpoena issued by such court or officer.

Disobedience to subpoena, punishable as a contempt.

When before officer or commissioner out of court.

SEC. 1160. DISOBEDIENCE TO SUBPOENA, HOW PUNISHED.—Disobedience to a subpoena, or a refusal to be sworn, or to answer as a witness, or to subscribe an affidavit or deposition when required, may be punished as a contempt by the court issuing the subpoena. When the subpoena, in any such case, requires the attendance of the witness before an officer or commissioner out of court, it is the duty of such officer or commissioner to report any such disobedience or refusal to the court issuing the subpoena; and the witness must not be punished for any refusal to answer a question or to subscribe an affidavit or deposition, unless, after a hearing upon notice, the court orders him to so answer or subscribe and then only for disobedience to such order. Any judge, magistrate, or other officer mentioned in subdivision three of section 1156, may report any such disobedience or refusal to the district court for the division in which such attendance was required; and such court thereupon has power, upon notice, to order the witness to perform the omitted act, and any refusal or neglect to comply with such order may be punished as a contempt of such court.

Ante, p. 1111.

Forfeiture.

SEC. 1161. FORFEITURE THEREFOR.—A witness disobeying a subpoena also forfeits to the party aggrieved the sum of $100, and all damages which he may sustain by the failure of the witness to attend, which forfeiture and damages may be recovered in a civil action.

Warrant to bring witness.

SEC. 1162. WARRANT MAY ISSUE TO BRING WITNESS, WHEN.—In case of failure of a witness to attend, the court or officer issuing the subpoena, upon proof of the service thereof, and of the failure of the witness, may issue a warrant to the marshal or constable to arrest the witness and bring him before the court or officer where his attendance was required.

Contents.

Ante, p. 1111.

SEC. 1163. CONTENTS OF WARRANT.—Every warrant of commitment, issued by a court or officer pursuant to sections 1155 to 1165, must specify therein, particularly, the cause of the commitment, and if it be for refusing to answer a question, such question must be stated in the warrant. And every warrant to arrest or commit a witness, pursuant to said sections, must be executed in the same manner as process issued by the district court.

When witness a prisoner.

SEC. 1164. IF WITNESS BE A PRISONER, HOW BROUGHT.—If the witness be a prisoner, confined in a jail or prison within the Canal Zone, an order for his examination in the prison upon deposition, or for his temporary removal and production before a court or officer, for the purpose of being orally examined, may be made as follows:

1. By the court itself in which the action or special proceeding is pending, unless it be a magistrate's court.
2. By the judge of the district court if the action or proceeding is pending before a magistrate's court, or before a judge or other person out of court.

Order for examination made on motion of party.

SEC. 1165. ON WHOSE MOTION.—Such order can only be made on the motion of a party, upon affidavit showing the nature of the action or proceeding, the testimony expected from the witness, and its materiality.

Taking of testimony.

MODE OF TAKING THE TESTIMONY OF WITNESSES

Methods of taking.

SEC. 1167. TESTIMONY, IN WHAT MODE TAKEN.—The testimony of witnesses is taken in three modes:

1. By affidavit;

- 2. By deposition;
- 3. By oral examination.

SEC. 1168. AFFIDAVIT DEFINED.—An affidavit is a written declaration under oath, made without notice to the adverse party.

"Affidavit" defined.

SEC. 1169. DEPOSITION DEFINED.—A deposition is a written declaration, under oath, made upon notice to the adverse party, for the purpose of enabling him to attend and cross-examine. In all actions and proceedings where the default of the defendant has been duly entered, and in all proceedings to obtain letters of administration, or for the probate of wills and the issuance of letters testamentary thereon, where, after due and legal notice, those entitled to contest the application have failed to appear, the entry of said defaults, and the failure of said persons to appear after notice, shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right to any further notice of any application or proceeding to take testimony by deposition in such action or proceeding.

"Deposition."

SEC. 1170. ORAL EXAMINATION DEFINED.—An oral examination is an examination in presence of the jury or tribunal which is to decide the fact or act upon it, the testimony being heard by the jury or tribunal from the lips of the witness.

"Oral examination."

SEC. 1171. DEPOSITION DEFINED; HOW TAKEN.—Depositions must be taken in the form of question and answer. The words of the witness must be written down, in the presence of the witness, by the officer taking the deposition, or by some disinterested person appointed by him. It may be taken down in shorthand, in which case it must be transcribed into longhand by the person who took it down. When completed, it must be carefully read to or by the witness and corrected by him in any particular, if desired, by writing or causing his corrections to be written in the body or margin of or at the bottom of the deposition, and must then be subscribed by the witness. The officer before whom the deposition is taken must write his initials near said corrections. If the parties agree in writing to any other mode, the mode so agreed upon must be followed.

Taking of deposition.

AFFIDAVITS

Affidavits.

SEC. 1172. AFFIDAVITS AND DEPOSITIONS; FOR WHAT PURPOSES USED.—An affidavit may be used to verify a pleading or a paper in a special proceeding, to prove the service of a summons, notice, or other paper in an action or special proceeding, to obtain a provisional remedy, the examination of a witness, or a stay of proceedings, or upon a motion, and in any other case expressly permitted by some other provision of this code.

Affidavits and depositions, purposes of.

SEC. 1173. EVIDENCE OF PUBLICATION, WHAT.—Evidence of the publication of a document or notice required by law, or by an order of a court or judge, to be published in a newspaper, may be given by the affidavit of the printer of the newspaper, or his foreman or principal clerk, annexed to a copy of the document or notice, specifying the times when, and the paper in which, the publication was made.

As evidence of publication.

SEC. 1174. FILING EVIDENCE OF PUBLICATION.—If such affidavit be made in an action or special proceeding pending in a court, it may be filed with the court or the clerk thereof. The original affidavit, or a copy thereof, certified by the judge of the court or clerk having it in custody, is prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Filing of.

SEC. 1175. AFFIDAVITS TO BE USED IN THE CANAL ZONE, BEFORE WHOM MAY BE TAKEN.—An affidavit to be used before any court, judge, or officer of the Canal Zone may be taken before any officer authorized to administer oaths.

Before whom taken.

When outside of Canal Zone.

SEC. 1176. AFFIDAVIT OUT OF ZONE, HOW TAKEN.—An affidavit taken in a State of the United States, to be used in the Canal Zone, may be taken before a commissioner appointed by the Governor of the Panama Canal to take affidavits and depositions in such State, or before any notary public in a State, or before any judge or clerk of a court of record having a seal.

In foreign country.

SEC. 1177. IF MADE IN A FOREIGN COUNTRY, BEFORE WHOM TAKEN.—An affidavit taken in a foreign country to be used in the Canal Zone, may be taken before an ambassador, minister, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or before any judge of a court of record having a seal in such foreign country.

Certificate of clerk, when taken outside Canal Zone.

SEC. 1178. CERTIFICATE OF THE CLERK, IF TAKEN BEFORE A JUDGE OF A COURT OUT OF THE ZONE.—When an affidavit is taken before a judge of a court in a state, or in a foreign country, the genuineness of the signature of the judge, the existence of the court, and the fact that such judge is a member thereof, must be certified by the clerk of the court, under the seal thereof.

Depositions.

DEPOSITIONS IN GENERAL

When used.
Ante, p. 1113.

SEC. 1179. DEPOSITIONS, WHEN USED.—In all cases other than those mentioned in section 1172, where a written declaration under oath is used, it must be a deposition as prescribed by this code.

Taking of, outside Canal Zone.

SEC. 1180. TESTIMONY OF A WITNESS OUT OF THE ZONE, WHEN TAKEN.—The testimony of a witness out of the Canal Zone may be taken by deposition in the following cases:

1st. In an action, at any time after the service of summons, or the appearance of the defendant.

2d. In a special proceeding, any time after a question of fact has arisen therein.

3d. Where default has been made by any or all of the defendants.

Within Canal Zone.

SEC. 1181. DEPOSITIONS IN THE ZONE, WHEN TAKEN.—The testimony of a witness in the Canal Zone may be taken by deposition in an action at any time after the service of the summons or the appearance of the defendant, and in a special proceeding after a question of fact has arisen therein, in the following cases:

1. When the witness is a party to the action or proceeding or an officer or member of a corporation which is a party to the action or proceeding, or a person for whose immediate benefit the action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended;

2. When the witness resides out of the subdivision in which his testimony is to be used;

3. When the witness is about to leave the subdivision where the action is to be tried, and will probably continue absent when the testimony is required;

4. When the witness, otherwise liable to attend the trial, is nevertheless too infirm to attend;

5. When the testimony is required upon a motion, or in any other case where the oral examination of the witness is not required;

6. When the witness is the only one who can establish facts or a fact material to the issue: Provided, That the deposition of such witness shall not be used if his presence can be procured at the time of the trial of the cause.

Provido.
Invalid, if witness can be produced.

Reading of deposition in evidence.
Ante, p. 1112.
Exception.
Post, p. 1116.

SEC. 1182. DEPOSITION MAY BE READ IN EVIDENCE BY EITHER PARTY.—A deposition taken and returned, as provided in sections 1167 to 1190, may, except as provided in section 1192, be read in evidence by either party at any stage of the action or proceeding in which it was taken, or in any other action or proceeding between the same parties or their privies or successors in interest upon the same subject, and is then deemed the evidence of the party reading it; but the court may exclude the same, if it appears that the taking thereof was in any material respect unfair.

SEC. 1183. COURT MAY ORDER DEPOSITION IF ADVERSE PARTY IN DEFAULT.—If an adverse party is in default for not appearing and answering within the time allowed by law or the court, or if, in a special proceeding, some or all of the parties interested have not appeared, the court may authorize a deposition to be taken without the service of any affidavit upon, or the giving of any notice to, the party so in default or not appearing, or may provide that notice be given to him in such mode as to the court may seem proper.

Court may order, if adverse party in default.

MANNER OF TAKING DEPOSITIONS OUT OF THE CANAL ZONE

Depositions outside Canal Zone.

SEC. 1184. DEPOSITION OF WITNESSES OUT OF ZONE, HOW TAKEN.—The deposition of a witness out of the Canal Zone may be taken upon a commission issued from the court under the seal of the court, upon an order of the court, or the judge or a magistrate thereof, on the application of either party, upon five days' previous notice to the other. If the court is a magistrate's court, the commission must have attached to it a certificate of the clerk of the district court for the division in which such magistrate's court is held, under the seal of such district court, to the effect that the person issuing the same was an acting magistrate at the date of the commission. If issued to any place within the United States, it may be directed to a person agreed upon by the parties, or if they do not agree, to any notary public, judge or justice of the peace or commissioner selected by the court or judge or justice issuing it. If issued to any country out of the United States, it may be directed to a minister, ambassador, consul, vice-consul, or consular agent of the United States, or judge of a court of record in such country, or to any person agreed upon by the parties.

Manner of taking.

In United States.

In foreign country.

SEC. 1185. PROPER INTERROGATORIES MAY BE PREPARED, OR MAY BE WAIVED BY THE PARTIES.—The party moving for the commission must, unless it is waived by the other party, attach to the notice of the motion the interrogatories upon which he desires it to be taken. On the hearing of the motion, the other party must propose such cross-interrogatories as he may desire. If the parties do not agree as to the form of the interrogatories, the court must settle their form, but such agreement or settlement does not preclude either party, when the deposition is offered in evidence, from interposing any objection to any interrogatory except as to the form thereof. The settlement of interrogatories may be had at the time of the hearing of the motion, or at any other time which the court may appoint; but the moving party must, if he request it, be allowed two days within which to propose such redirect interrogatories as the cross-interrogatories proposed render proper. When agreed upon or settled, the interrogatories must be annexed to the commission; or, when the parties agree to that mode, or the court on the application of either party, after a hearing had upon two days' notice to the opposite party, so directs, the examination must be without written interrogatories.

Interrogatories.

SEC. 1186. DEPOSITION OF NONRESIDENT WITNESS UPON ORAL INTERROGATORIES.—When a party shall desire to take the evidence of a non-resident witness, to be used in any cause pending in the Canal Zone, the party desiring the same (or where notice shall have been given that a commission to take the testimony of a nonresident witness will be applied for, the opposite party, upon giving the other three days' notice in writing of his election so to do), may have a commission directed in the same manner as provided in section 1184, to take such evidence, upon interrogatories to be propounded to the witness orally; upon the taking of which each party may appear before the commission, in person or by attorney, and interrogate the witness.

Notice to adverse party.

The party desiring such testimony shall give to the other the following notice of the time and place of taking the same, to wit: Ten days, and one day in addition thereto (Sundays included) for every three hundred miles' travel from the place of holding the court to the place where such deposition is to be taken.

Fees and mileage.

FEES AND MILEAGE.—When a party to a suit shall give the opposite party notice to take a deposition upon oral interrogatories, and shall fail to take the same accordingly, unless such failure be on account of the nonattendance of the witness, not occasioned by the fault of the party giving the notice, or some other unavoidable cause, the party notified, if he shall attend himself or by attorney, agreeably to the notice, shall be entitled to $2 per day for each day he may attend under such notice, and to 6 cents per mile for every mile that he shall necessarily travel in going to and returning from the place designated to take the deposition, to be allowed by the court where the suit is pending and for which execution may issue.

Authority of commissioner.

SEC. 1187. AUTHORITY OF COMMISSIONER.—The commission must authorize the commissioner to administer an oath to the witness and to take his deposition in answer to the interrogatories, or when the examination is to be without interrogatories, in respect to the question in dispute, and to certify the deposition to the court, in a sealed envelope, directed to the clerk, if there be one, and if not, to the judge thereof, and forward to him by mail or other usual channel of conveyance.

Postponement of trial for nonreturn of commission.

SEC. 1188. TRIAL, WHEN POSTPONED FOR REASON OF NONRETURN OF COMMISSION.—A trial or other proceeding must not be postponed by reason of a commission not returned, except upon evidence, satisfactory to the court, that the testimony of the witness is necessary, and that proper diligence has been used to obtain it.

Use by either party.
Ante, p. 1115.

SEC. 1189. DEPOSITION, BY WHOM USED.—The deposition mentioned in sections 1184 to 1190 may be used by either party on the trial or other proceeding, against any other party giving or receiving the notice, subject to all just exceptions.

Notice dispensed with.

SEC. 1190. NOTICE DISPENSED WITH WHEN WITNESS RESIDES OUT OF ZONE.—In all cases where service of summons has been had by publication as provided by law and after default has been duly entered, and it appears by affidavit that the residence of a party to the action is unknown and the witness resides out of the Canal Zone, then in such cases the notice provided for in sections 1184 to 1190 shall be dispensed with.

Depositions in Canal Zone.

MANNER OF TAKING DEPOSITIONS IN THE CANAL ZONE

Before judge, magistrate, etc.

SEC. 1191. DEPOSITIONS MAY BE TAKEN BEFORE A JUDGE, AND SO FORTH, UPON NOTICE TO THE ADVERSE PARTY.—Either party may have the deposition taken of a witness in the Canal Zone, in either of the cases mentioned in section 1181, before a judge, magistrate, or other officer authorized to administer oaths, on serving upon the adverse party previous notice of the time and place of examination, together with a copy of an affidavit, showing that the case is within that section. Such notice must be at least five days, unless, for a cause shown, a judge, by order, prescribe a shorter time. When a shorter time is prescribed, a copy of the order must be served with the notice.

Ante, p. 1114.
Notice.

SEC. 1192. MANNER OF TAKING DEPOSITIONS; MAY BE USED BY EITHER PARTY ON THE TRIAL.—Either party may attend the examination and put such questions, direct and cross, as may be proper. The deposition, when completed, must be carefully read to or by the witness and corrected by him in any particular, if desired; it must then be subscribed by the witness, certified by the judge or officer taking the deposition, inclosed in an envelope or wrapper, sealed, and directed to the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, or to such person as the parties in writing may agree upon, and either delivered by the judge or officer to the clerk or such person, or transmitted through the mail or by some safe private opportunity; and thereupon such deposition may be used by either party upon the trial or other proceeding against any party giving or receiving the notice, subject to all legal exceptions; but if the parties attend at the examination, no objection to the form of an interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same was stated at the time of the examination. If the deposition be taken under subdivisions two, three, and four, of section 1181, proof must be made at the trial that the witness continues absent or infirm, or is dead. The deposition thus taken may be also read in case of the death of the witness.

Manner of taking.

Use by either party on the trial.

Artic. p. 1114.

For use in States.

SEC. 1193. DEPOSITION IN THE ZONE TO BE USED IN STATES.—Any party to an action or special proceeding in a court or before a judge of a state, may obtain the testimony of a witness residing in the Canal Zone, to be used in such action or proceeding, in the cases mentioned in the next two sections.

SEC. 1194. HOW TO PROCURE WITNESS UPON COMMISSION.—If a commission to take such testimony has been issued by the court before which such action or proceeding is pending, or by a judge thereof, on exhibiting the commission to the division of the district court in which the witness resides, with an affidavit showing the materiality of his testimony, such court may issue a subpoena to the witness, requiring him to appear and testify before the commissioner named in the commission, at a specified time and place within such division.

Procuring witness upon commission.

Subpoena.

SEC. 1195. COMPELLING THE WITNESSES TO APPEAR AND TESTIFY.—Whenever any mandate, writ, or commission is issued out of any court of record in any State, Territory, District, or foreign jurisdiction, or whenever, upon notice or agreement, it is required to take the testimony of a witness or witnesses in the Canal Zone, witnesses may be compelled to appear and testify in the same manner and by the same process and proceeding as may be employed for the purpose of taking testimony in proceedings pending in the Canal Zone.

Compelling witness to appear and testify.

SEC. 1196. HOW, IF COMMISSION NOT ISSUED.—If a commission has not been issued, and it appears to the district judge, or to a magistrate, by affidavit satisfactory to him:

Procedure when no commission has issued.

1. That the testimony of the witness is material to either party, and that he resides in the division or subdivision in which such judge or magistrate holds office;
2. That a commission to take the testimony of such witness has not been issued;
3. That, according to the law of the State where the action or special proceeding is pending, the deposition of a witness taken under such circumstances, and before such judge or magistrate, will be received in the action or proceeding;

He must issue his subpoena requiring the witness to appear and testify before him at a specified time and place.

SEC. 1197. DEPOSITION, HOW TAKEN.—Upon the appearance of the witness, the judge or magistrate must cause his testimony to be taken in writing, and must certify and transmit the same to the court or judge before whom the action or proceeding is pending, in such manner as the law of that state requires.

Rules of examination.

GENERAL RULES OF EXAMINATION

Order of proof.

SEC. 1198. ORDER OF PROOF, HOW REGULATED.—The order of proof must be regulated by the sound discretion of the court. Ordinarily, the party beginning the case must exhaust his evidence before the other party begins.

Exclusion of witnesses.

SEC. 1199. WHAT WITNESSES MAY BE EXCLUDED.—If either party requires it, the judge may exclude from the court-room any witness of the adverse party not at the time under examination, so that he may not hear the testimony of other witnesses; but a party to the action or proceeding can not be so excluded; and if a corporation is a party thereto, it is entitled to the presence of one of its officers, to be designated by its attorney.

Control of interrogation of witnesses.

SEC. 1200. COURT MAY CONTROL MODE OF INTERROGATION.—The court must exercise a reasonable control over the mode of interrogation, so as to make it as rapid, as distinct, as little annoying to the witness, and as effective for the extraction of the truth, as may be; but subject to this rule, the parties may put such pertinent and legal questions as they see fit. The court, however, may stop the production of further evidence upon any particular point when the evidence upon it is already so full as to preclude reasonable doubt.

“Direct examination” and “cross-examination” defined.

SEC. 1201.—DIRECT EXAMINATION AND CROSS-EXAMINATION DEFINED.—The examination of a witness by the party producing him is denominated the direct examination; the examination of the same witness, upon the same matter, by the adverse party, the cross-examination. The direct examination must be completed before the cross-examination begins, unless the court otherwise direct.

“Leading question.”

SEC. 1202. LEADING QUESTION DEFINED.—A question which suggests to the witness the answer which the examining party desires, is denominated a leading or suggestive question. On a direct examination, leading questions are not allowed, except in the sound discretion of the court, under special circumstances, making it appear that the interests of justice require it.

Refreshing memory.

SEC. 1203. WHEN WITNESS MAY REFRESH MEMORY FROM NOTES.—A witness is allowed to refresh his memory respecting a fact, by anything written by himself, or under his direction, at the time when the fact occurred, or immediately thereafter, or at any other time when the fact was fresh in his memory, and he knew that the same was correctly stated in the writing. But in such a case the writing must be produced, and may be seen by the adverse party, who may, if he choose, cross-examine the witness upon it, and may read it to the jury. So, also, a witness may testify from such a writing, though he retain no recollection of the particular facts, but such evidence must be received with caution.

Cross-examination; limits of.

SEC. 1204. CROSS-EXAMINATION, AS TO WHAT.—The opposite party may cross-examine the witness as to any facts stated in his direct examination or connected therewith, and in so doing may put leading questions, but if he examine him as to other matters, such examination is to be subject to the same rules as a direct examination.

Impeaching own witness.

SEC. 1205. PARTY PRODUCING WITNESS, HOW FAR MAY IMPEACH HIS CREDIT.—The party producing a witness is not allowed to impeach his credit by evidence of bad character, but he may contradict him by other evidence, and may also show that he has made at other times statements inconsistent with his present testimony, as provided in section 1208.

SEC. 1206. WITNESS, HOW EXAMINED; WHEN REEXAMINED.—A witness once examined can not be reexamined as to the same matter without leave of the court, but he may be reexamined as to any new matter upon which he has been examined by the adverse party. And after the examinations on both sides are once concluded, the witness can not be recalled without leave of the court. Leave is granted or withheld, in the exercise of a sound discretion.

Reexamination of witness.

SEC. 1207. HOW IMPEACHED.—A witness may be impeached by the party against whom he was called, by contradictory evidence or by evidence that his general reputation for truth, honesty, or integrity is bad, but not by evidence of particular wrongful acts, except that it may be shown by the examination of the witness, or the record of the judgment, that he had been convicted of a felony.

Impeaching a witness, by contradictory evidence; general reputation.

SEC. 1208. SAME.—A witness may also be impeached by evidence that he has made, at other times, statements inconsistent, with his present testimony; but before this can be done the statements must be related to him, with the circumstances of times, places, and persons present, and he must be asked whether he made such statements, and if so, allowed to explain them. If the statements be in writing, they must be shown to the witness before any question is put to him concerning them.

Former conflicting statements of witness.

SEC. 1209. EVIDENCE OF GOOD CHARACTER, WHEN ALLOWED.—Evidence of the good character of a party is not admissible in a civil action, nor of a witness in any action, until the character of such party or witness has been impeached, or unless the issue involves his character.

Evidence of good character, admissibility.

SEC. 1210. WRITING SHOWN TO WITNESS MAY BE INSPECTED BY ADVERSE PARTY.—Whenever a writing is shown to a witness, it may be inspected by the opposite party, and no question must be put to the witness concerning a writing until it has been so shown to him.

Inspection of writings shown witness.

SEC. 1211. EXAMINATION OF ADVERSE PARTY.—A party to the record of any civil action or proceeding or a person for whose immediate benefit such action or proceeding is prosecuted or defended, or the directors, officers, superintendent or managing agent of any corporation which is a party to the record, may be examined by the adverse party as if under cross-examination, subject to the rules applicable to the examination of other witnesses. The party calling such adverse witness shall not be bound by his testimony, and the testimony given by such witness may be rebutted by the party calling him for such examination by other evidence. Such witness, when so called, may be examined by his own counsel, but only as to the matters testified to on such examination.

Examination of adverse party.

EFFECT OF EVIDENCE

Effect of evidence.

SEC. 1212. JURY JUDGES OF EFFECT OF EVIDENCE, BUT TO BE INSTRUCTED ON CERTAIN POINTS.—Where trial is by jury, the jury, subject to the control of the court, in the cases specified in this code, are the judges of the effect or value of evidence addressed to them, except when it is declared to be conclusive. They are, however, to be instructed by the court on all proper occasions:

Jury to be judge of.

1. That their power of judging of the effect of evidence is not arbitrary, but to be exercised with legal discretion, and in subordination to the rules of evidence;

Instructions by the court.

2. That they are not bound to decide in conformity with the declarations of any number of witnesses, which do not produce conviction in their minds, against a less number or against a presumption or other evidence satisfying their minds;

Power of judging not to be arbitrary, etc.

Number of witnesses not controlling.

Witness testifying falsely.

3. That a witness false in one part of his testimony is to be distrusted in others;

Testimony of accomplice.

4. That the testimony of an accomplice ought to be viewed with distrust, and the evidence of the oral admissions of a party with caution;

Affirmative must be proved in civil action; preponderance of evidence.

5. That in civil cases the affirmative of the issue must be proved, and when the evidence is contradictory the decision must be made according to the preponderance of evidence; that in criminal cases guilt must be established beyond reasonable doubt;

Proof beyond reasonable doubt in criminal prosecution. Intrinsic value not controlling.

6. That evidence is to be estimated not only by its own intrinsic weight, but also according to the evidence which it is in the power of one side to produce and of the other to contradict; and, therefore,

When weaker evidence offered, if stronger available.

7. That if weaker and less satisfactory evidence is offered, when it appears that stronger and more satisfactory evidence was within the power of the party, the evidence offered should be viewed with distrust.

Rights and duties of witnesses.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF WITNESSES

Attendance under subpoena compulsory.

SEC. 1213. WITNESS BOUND TO ATTEND WHEN SUBPENAED.—A witness, served with a subpoena, must attend at the time appointed, with any papers under his control lawfully required by the subpoena, and answer all pertinent and legal questions; and, unless sooner discharged, must remain until the testimony is closed.

Testimony compulsory.

SEC. 1214. WITNESS BOUND TO ANSWER QUESTIONS.—A witness must answer questions legal and pertinent to the matter in issue, though his answer may establish a claim against himself; but he need not give an answer which will have a tendency to subject him to punishment for a felony; nor need he give an answer which will have a direct tendency to degrade his character, unless it be to the very fact in issue, or to a fact from which the fact in issue would be presumed. But a witness must answer as to the fact of his previous conviction for felony.

Exceptions. Self-incriminatory, etc., testimony.

Right to protection.

SEC. 1215. RIGHT OF WITNESS TO PROTECTION.—It is the right of a witness to be protected from irrelevant, improper, or insulting questions, and from harsh or insulting demeanor; to be detained only so long as the interests of justice require it; to be examined only as to matters legal and pertinent to the issue.

Exemption from arrest.

SEC. 1216. WITNESS PROTECTED FROM ARREST WHEN ATTENDING, OR GOING, OR RETURNING.—Every person who has been, in good faith, served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, judge, commissioner, referee, or other person, in a case where the disobedience of the witness may be punished as a contempt, is exonerated from arrest in a civil action while going to the place of attendance, necessarily remaining there, and returning therefrom.

Arrest void.

Liability of person arresting witness.

SEC. 1217. ARREST VOID, AND PARTY MAKING ARREST LIABLE, AND SO FORTH.—The arrest of a witness, contrary to the preceding section, is void, and, when willfully made, is a contempt of the court; and the person making it is responsible to the witness arrested for double the amount of the damages which may be assessed against him, and is also liable to an action at the suit of the party serving the witness with the subpoena, for the damages sustained by him in consequence of the arrest.

Arrest by officer.

SEC. 1218. TO MAKE AFFIDAVIT IF ARRESTED.—An officer is not liable to the party for making the arrest in ignorance of the facts creating the exoneration, but is liable for any subsequent detention of the party, if such party claim the exemption, and make an affidavit stating:

Affidavit by party arrested.

Under subpoena.

1. That he has been served with a subpoena to attend as a witness before a court, officer, or other person, specifying the same, the place of attendance, and the action or proceeding in which the subpoena was issued; and

2. That he has not thus been served by his own procurement, with the intention of avoiding an arrest;

3. That he is at the time going to the place of attendance, or returning therefrom, or remaining there in obedience to the subpoena.

The affidavit may be taken by the officer, and exonerates him from liability for discharging the witness when arrested.

SEC. 1219. COURT MAY DISCHARGE WITNESS FROM ARREST.—The court or officer before whom the attendance is required, may discharge the witness from an arrest made in violation of section 1216. If the court has adjourned before the arrest, or before application for the discharge, a judge of the court may grant the discharge.

Not of own procurement.

Trial is in progress.

Exoneration of officer for discharge.

Discharge from arrest by court.

EVIDENCE IN PARTICULAR CASES, AND MISCELLANEOUS AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

Evidence in particular cases, miscellaneous and general provisions.

EVIDENCE IN PARTICULAR CASES

Evidence in particular cases.

SEC. 1220. AN OFFER EQUIVALENT TO TENDER.—An offer in writing to pay a particular sum of money, or to deliver a written instrument or specific personal property, is, if not accepted, equivalent to the actual production and tender of the money, instrument, or property.

Offer equivalent to tender.

SEC. 1221. WHOEVER PAYS ENTITLED TO RECEIPT.—Whoever pays money, or delivers an instrument or property, is entitled to a receipt therefor from the person to whom the payment or delivery is made, and may demand a proper signature to such receipt as a condition of the payment or delivery.

Right to receipt.

SEC. 1222. OBJECTIONS TO TENDER MUST BE SPECIFIED.—The person to whom a tender is made must, at the time, specify any objection he may have to the money, instrument, or property, or he must be deemed to have waived it; and if the objection be to the amount of money, the terms of the instrument, or the amount or kind of property, he must specify the amount, terms, or kind which he requires, or be precluded from objecting afterwards.

Objections to tender.

SEC. 1223. COMPROMISE OFFER OF NO AVAIL.—An offer of compromise is not an admission that anything is due.

Compromise offer not admission.

SEC. 1224. ADMISSION OF DEFENDANT IN DIVORCE PROCEEDINGS.—In proceedings for divorce, no admission of the defendant shall be taken as evidence unless the court shall be satisfied that such admission was made in sincerity and without fraud or collusion to enable the plaintiff to obtain a divorce. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 16, 42 Stat. 1010.)

Admissions of defendant in divorce proceedings.

Vol. 42, p. 1010.

PROCEEDINGS TO PERPETUATE TESTIMONY

Proceedings to perpetuate testimony.

SEC. 1225. EVIDENCE MAY BE PERPETUATED.—The testimony of a witness may be taken and perpetuated as provided in sections 1226 to 1231.

Testimony of witness.

SEC. 1226. MANNER OF APPLICATION FOR ORDER; ORDER.—The applicant must produce to the judge of the district court a petition, verified by the oath of the applicant, stating:

Petition.

1. That the applicant expects to be a party to an action in a court in the Canal Zone, and, in such case, the names of the persons whom he expects will be adverse parties; or,

Expectation of future legal action.

2. That the proof of some fact is necessary to perfect the title to property in which he is interested, or to establish marriage, descent, heirship, or any other matter which may hereafter become material to establish, though no suit may at the time be anticipated, or, if anticipated, he may not know the parties to such suit; and,

Proof of certain fact essential.

Name of witness,
facts involved, etc.

3. The name of the witness to be examined, his place of residence, and a general outline of the facts expected to be proved.

Order to issue.

The judge to whom such petition is presented must make an order allowing the examination, and designating the officer before whom the same must be taken, and prescribing the notice to be given, which notice, if the parties expectant are known and reside in the Canal Zone, must be personally served, and, if unknown, such notice must be served on the clerk of the court, and by publication thereof in some newspaper, to be designated by the judge, for the same period required for the publication of summons. The judge must also designate in his order the clerk of the court to whom the deposition must be returned when taken.

Notice.

Taking of deposition.

SEC. 1227. NOTICE OF TIME AND PLACE TO BE GIVEN.—The person appointed by the judge to take the depositions is authorized, if a resident of the Canal Zone, on receiving a copy of the order of the judge, and of the notice prescribed in the last section, with proof of its personal service or publication; or, if a resident without the Canal Zone, on receiving the commission mentioned in the next section, with proof of like service or publication of the notice; to take the deposition of the witness named in the order of the judge, or in the commission, or, if more than one witness is thus named, of such of them as appear before him, at the time designated, and the taking of the same may be continued from time to time.

Manner of taking.

SEC. 1228. MANNER OF TAKING THE DEPOSITION.—The examination must be by question and answer, and if the testimony is to be taken in a State of the United States, it must be taken upon a commission to be issued by the judge allowing the examination, under the seal of the court of which he is judge, and upon interrogatories, to be settled in the same manner as in cases of depositions taken under commission in pending actions, unless the parties expectant, if known, otherwise agree. If such parties are unknown, notice of the settlement of the interrogatories shall be published in some newspaper for such time as the judge may designate. The deposition, when completed, must be carefully read to or by the witness and be subscribed by him, then certified by the officer or person taking the same, and shall then be sealed up and delivered or transmitted to the clerk designated in the order of the judge allowing the examination, who shall file the same when received. The judge allowing the examination shall file with the clerk the order for the examination, the petition on which the same was granted, with proof of service of the order and notice.

Deposition to be read to, and subscribed by witness.

All papers to be filed.

Papers prima facie
evidence.

SEC. 1229. PAPERS PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE.—The petition and order, and papers filed by the judge, as provided in section 1228, or a certified copy thereof, are prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein to show compliance with the provisions of sections 1225 to 1231.

Ante, p. 1121.

Production of, in court.

SEC. 1230. WHEN THE EVIDENCE MAY BE PRODUCED.—If a trial be had between the parties named in the petition as parties expectant, or their successors in interest, or between any parties wherein it may be material to establish the facts which such depositions prove, or tend to prove, upon proof of the death, or insanity of the witnesses, or that they can not be found or are unable, by reason of age or other infirmity, to give their testimony, the depositions or copies thereof may be used by either party, subject to all legal objections; but if the parties attended at the examination, no objections to the form of an interrogatory can be made at the trial, unless the same was stated at the examination.

Effect of.

SEC. 1231. EFFECT OF THE DEPOSITION.—The deposition so taken and read in evidence has the same effect as the oral testimony of the witness, and no other, and every objection to the witness, or to the relevancy of any question put to him, or of any answer given by him, may be made in the same manner as if he were examined orally at the trial.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS AND AFFIRMATIONS

Administration of oaths, etc.

Officials authorized to administer.

SEC. 1232. JUDICIAL AND CERTAIN OFFICERS AUTHORIZED TO ADMINISTER OATHS.—Every court, every judge, or clerk of any court, every magistrate, and every notary public, and every officer or person authorized to take testimony in any action or proceeding, or to decide upon evidence, has power to administer oaths or affirmations.

Form of.

SEC. 1233. FORM OF ORDINARY OATH TO A WITNESS.—An oath, or affirmation, in an action or proceeding, may be administered as follows, the person who swears, or affirms, expressing his assent when addressed in the following form: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that the evidence you shall give in this issue (or matter), pending between ——— and ———, shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help you God."

Form may be varied.

SEC. 1234. FORM MAY BE VARIED TO SUIT WITNESS' BELIEF.—Whenever the court before which a person is offered as a witness is satisfied that he has a peculiar mode of swearing, connected with or in addition to the usual form of administration, which, in his opinion, is more solemn or obligatory, the court may, in its discretion, adopt that mode.

Form, non-Christians.

SEC. 1235. SAME.—When a person is sworn who believes in any other than the Christian religion, he may be sworn according to the peculiar ceremonies of his religion, if there be any such.

Affirmation, etc.

SEC. 1236. ANY PERSON WHO PREFERS IT MAY DECLARE OR AFFIRM.—Any person who desires it may, at his option, instead of taking an oath make his solemn affirmation or declaration, by assenting, when addressed, in the following form: "You do solemnly affirm (or declare) that" and so forth, as in section 1233.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

General provisions.

SEC. 1237. QUESTIONS OF FACT, HOW TRIED.—All questions of fact, where the trial is by jury, other than those mentioned in the next section, are to be decided by the jury, and all evidence thereon is to be addressed to them, except when otherwise provided by this code.

Trial of questions of fact, by jury.

SEC. 1238. QUESTIONS OF LAW ADDRESSED TO THE COURT.—All questions of law, including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admissions, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the court, and all discussions of law addressed to it. Whenever the knowledge of the court is, by this code, made evidence of a fact, the court is to declare such knowledge to the jury, who are bound to accept it.

Questions of law, by court.

SEC. 1239. QUESTIONS OF FACT BY COURT OR REFEREE.—The provisions contained in this chapter respecting the evidence on a trial before a jury, are equally applicable on the trial of a question of fact before a court, referee, or other officer.

Of fact, by judge, referee, etc.

CHAPTER 39.—REPEALS

REPEALS.

SEC. 1240. REPEAL OF EXISTING LAWS.—The Code of Civil Procedure of the Canal Zone promulgated by the Executive Order of March 22, 1907, and all amendments thereto, and all other acts, ordinances, orders, and parts thereof in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Executive Order No. 597½, as amended. All acts, ordinances, etc., in conflict herewith.

Approved, February 27, 1933.

[CHAPTER 128.]

AN ACT

February 27, 1933.
[H. R. 7522.]
[Public, No. 376.]

To provide a new civil code for the Canal Zone and to repeal the existing civil code.

Civil Code of Canal Zone.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the seventy-seven chapters hereinafter set forth shall constitute the Civil Code of the Canal Zone.

PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS.

CHAPTER 1.—PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

- Title.                   SECTION 1. TITLE OF THIS ACT.—This Act shall be known as the Civil Code of the Canal Zone.
- Effective date.       SEC. 2. WHEN THIS CODE TAKES EFFECT.—This code shall take effect on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and thirty-three.
- Not retroactive.      SEC. 3. NOT RETROACTIVE.—No part of it is retroactive, unless expressly so declared.
- Rules of construction.   SEC. 4. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—The rule of the common law, that statutes in derogation thereof are to be strictly construed, has no application to this code. The code establishes the law of the Canal Zone respecting the subjects to which it relates, and its provisions are to be liberally construed with a view to effect its objects and to promote justice.
- Construing provisions similar to existing laws.   SEC. 5. PROVISIONS SIMILAR TO EXISTING LAWS, HOW CONSTRUED.—The provisions of this code, so far as they are substantially the same as existing statutes, must be construed as continuations thereof, and not as new enactments.
- Actions, etc., not affected.           SEC. 6. ACTIONS, AND SO FORTH, NOT AFFECTED.—No action or proceeding commenced before this code takes effect, and no right accrued, is affected by its provisions.
- Holidays. Executive Order No. 1888.           SEC. 7. LEGAL HOLIDAYS.—Except as otherwise provided in section 12 of the Executive order of February 2, 1914, as amended, the following are the legal holidays in the Canal Zone: Every Sunday, January 1, February 22, Good Friday, May 30, July 4, Labor Day, November 3, Thanksgiving Day, and December 25. If a legal holiday other than Sunday falls on the first day of the week, the Monday following will be observed as a legal holiday. As far as practicable, all public business will be suspended on these days.
- Business days.       SEC. 8. BUSINESS DAYS.—All other days than those mentioned in section 7 are to be deemed business days for all purposes.
- Computation of time.   SEC. 9. COMPUTATION OF TIME.—The time in which any act provided by law is to be done is computed by excluding the first day and including the last, unless the last day is a holiday, and then it is also excluded.
- Performances on holidays.   SEC. 10. CERTAIN ACTS NOT TO BE DONE ON HOLIDAYS.—Whenever any act of a secular nature, other than a work of necessity or mercy, is appointed by law or contract to be performed upon a particular day, which day falls upon a holiday, it may be performed upon the next business day, with the same effect as if it had been performed upon the day appointed.
- Words and phrases, construction.           SEC. 11. WORDS AND PHRASES, HOW CONSTRUED.—Words and phrases are construed according to the context and the approved usage of the language; but technical words and phrases, and such others as may have acquired a peculiar and appropriate meaning in law, or are defined in section 12, are to be construed according to such peculiar and appropriate meaning or definition.

SEC. 12. WORDS; DEFINITION; SIGNIFICATION OF WORDS.—Words used in this code in the present tense include the future as well as the present; words used in the masculine gender include the feminine and neuter; the singular number includes the plural, and the plural the singular; the word person includes a corporation as well as a natural person; writing includes printing and typewriting; oath includes affirmation or declaration; and every mode of oral statement, under oath or affirmation, is embraced by the term “testify”, and every written one in the term “depose”; signature or subscription includes mark, when the person can not write, his name being written near it, by a person who writes his own name as a witness; provided, that when a signature is by mark it must in order that the same may be acknowledged or may serve as the signature to any sworn statement be witnessed by two persons who must subscribe their own names as witnesses thereto. The following words have in this code the signification attached to them in this section, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

Definition; signification.

1. The word “property” includes property real and personal;
2. The words “real property” are coextensive with lands, tenements, and hereditaments;
3. The words “personal property” include money, goods, chattels, things in action, and evidences of debt;
4. The word “month” means a calendar month, unless otherwise expressed;
5. The word “will” includes codicil.

SEC. 13. NOTICE, ACTUAL AND CONSTRUCTIVE.—Notice is:

Notice.
Active.
Constructive.

1. Actual—which consists in express information of a fact; or,
2. Constructive—which is imputed by law.

SEC. 14. CONSTRUCTIVE NOTICE, WHEN DEEMED.—Every person who has actual notice of circumstances sufficient to put a prudent man upon inquiry as to a particular fact, has constructive notice of the fact itself in all cases in which, by prosecuting such inquiry, he might have learned such fact.

CHAPTER 2.—PERSONS

PERSONS.

SECTION 15. MINORS, WHO ARE.—Minors are all persons under twenty-one years of age: Provided, That this section shall be subject to the provisions of chapters 4 to 6 of this code and shall not be construed as repealing or limiting the provisions of section 148: Provided, further, That upon the lawful marriage of any female of the age of eighteen years or over but under the age of twenty-one years, such female shall be deemed an adult person for the purpose of entering into any engagement or transaction respecting property or any contract, the same as if such person were over twenty-one years of age.

Minors.

Minors.
Delegation of powers.

SEC. 19. DELEGATION OF POWERS; MINORS.—A minor can not give a delegation of power, nor, under the age of eighteen, make a contract relating to real property, or any interest therein, or relating to any personal property not in his immediate possession or control.

Contracts by.

SEC. 20. CONTRACTS BY MINORS.—A minor may make any other contract than as specified in section 19, in the same manner as an adult, subject only to his power of disaffirmance under the provisions of this chapter, and subject to the provisions of the chapter on marriage.

When may disaffirm.

SEC. 21. WHEN MINOR MAY DISAFFIRM.—In all cases other than those specified in sections 22 and 23, the contract of a minor, if made whilst he is under the age of eighteen, may be disaffirmed by the minor himself, either before his majority or within a reasonable time afterwards; or, in case of his death within that period, by his heirs or personal representatives; and if the contract be made by the minor whilst he is over the age of eighteen, it may be disaffirmed in like manner upon restoring the consideration to the party from whom it was received, or paying its equivalent.

Can not disaffirm contract for necessities.

SEC. 22. MINOR CAN NOT DISAFFIRM CONTRACT FOR NECESSARIES.—A minor cannot disaffirm a contract, otherwise valid, to pay the reasonable value of things necessary for his support, or that of his family, entered into by him when not under the care of a parent or guardian able to provide for him or them.

Statutory obligations.

SEC. 23. MINOR CAN NOT DISAFFIRM CERTAIN OBLIGATIONS.—A minor can not disaffirm an obligation, otherwise valid, entered into by him under the express authority or direction of a statute.

Contracts by persons without understanding.

SEC. 24. CONTRACTS BY PERSONS WITHOUT UNDERSTANDING.—A person entirely without understanding has no power to make a contract of any kind, but he is liable for the reasonable value of things furnished to him necessary for his support or the support of his family.

SEC. 26. POWERS OF PERSONS WHOSE INCAPACITY HAS BEEN ADJUDGED.—After his incapacity has been judicially determined, a person of unsound mind can make no contract, nor delegate any power or waive any right, until his restoration to capacity. But a certificate from the medical superintendent or resident physician of the insane asylum to which such person may have been committed, showing that such person had been discharged therefrom, cured and restored to reason, shall establish the presumption of legal capacity in such person from the time of such discharge.

Tort liability of minors; exemplary damages.

SEC. 27. MINORS LIABLE FOR WRONGS, BUT NOT LIABLE FOR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES.—A minor, or person of unsound mind, of whatever degree, is civilly liable for a wrong done by him, but is not liable in exemplary damages unless at the time of the act he was capable of knowing that it was wrongful.

SEC. 28. MINORS MAY ENFORCE THEIR RIGHTS.—A minor may enforce his rights by civil action, or other legal proceedings, in the same manner as a person of full age, except that a guardian must conduct the same.

Minors may enforce rights.

CHAPTER 3.—PERSONAL RIGHTS

P E R S O N A L
R I G H T S.

SECTION 29. GENERAL PERSONAL RIGHTS.—Besides the personal rights mentioned or recognized in the Executive Order of May 9, 1904, and in the Code of Criminal Procedure, every person has, subject to the qualifications and restrictions provided by law, the right of protection from bodily restraint or harm, from personal insult, from defamation, and from injury to his personal relations.

General.

SEC. 30. DEFAMATION, WHAT.—Defamation is effected by:

Defamation.

1. Libel;
2. Slander.

SEC. 31. LIBEL, WHAT.—Libel is a false and unprivileged publication by writing, printing, picture, effigy, or other fixed representation to the eye, which exposes any person to hatred, contempt, ridicule, or obloquy, or which causes him to be shunned or avoided, or which has a tendency to injure him in his occupation.

Libel.

CROSS REFERENCE

Privileged publication, see sections 33 and 34.

SEC. 32. SLANDER, WHAT.—Slander is a false and unprivileged publication other than libel, which:

Slander.

1. Charges any person with crime, or with having been indicted, convicted, or punished for crime;
2. Imputes in him the present existence of an infectious, contagious, or loathsome disease;
3. Tends directly to injure him in respect to his office, profession, trade, or business, either by imputing to him general disqualification in those respects which the office or other occupation peculiarly requires, or by imputing something with reference to his office, profession, trade, or business that has a natural tendency to lessen its profits;
4. Imputes to him impotence of a want of chastity; or,
5. Which, by natural consequence, causes actual damage.

SEC. 33. PRIVILEGED PUBLICATIONS.—A privileged publication is one made—

Privileged publications.

1. In the proper discharge of an official duty.
2. In any judicial proceeding, or in any other official proceeding authorized by law: Provided, That an allegation or averment contained in any pleading or affidavit filed in an action for divorce or an action prosecuted under section 97 made of or concerning a person by or against whom no affirmative relief is prayed in such action shall not be a privileged publication as to the person making said allegation or averment within the meaning of this section unless such pleading be verified or affidavit sworn to, and be made without malice, by one having reasonable and probable cause for believing the truth of such allegation or averment and unless such allegation or averment be material and relevant to the issues in such action.

Proviso.
Allegation in divorce,
etc., proceedings.
Post, p. 1136.

3. In a communication, without malice, to a person interested therein, (1) by one who is also interested, or (2) by one who stands in such relation to the person interested as to afford a reasonable ground for supposing the motive for the communication innocent, or (3) who is requested by the person interested to give the information.

4. By a fair and true report, without malice, in a public journal, of (1) a judicial or (2) other public official proceeding, or (3) of anything said in the course thereof, or (4) of a verified charge or complaint made by any person to a public official, upon which complaint a warrant shall have been issued.

5. By a fair and true report, without malice, of (1) the proceedings of a public meeting, if such meeting was lawfully convened for a lawful purpose and open to the public, or (2) the publication of the matter complained of was for the public benefit.

Malice not inferred.

SEC. 34. MALICE NOT INFERRED.—In the cases provided for in subdivisions three, four, and five, of section 33, malice is not inferred from the communication or publication.

Personal relations forbid abduction and seduction.

SEC. 35. PERSONAL RELATIONS FORBID ABDUCTION AND SEDUCTION.—The rights of personal relations forbid:

1. The abduction of a husband from his wife, or of a parent from his child.

2. The abduction or enticement of a wife from her husband, or a child from a parent, or from a guardian entitled to its custody.

3. The seduction of daughter or orphan sister.

Right to use force.

SEC. 36. RIGHT TO USE FORCE.—Any necessary force may be used to protect from wrongful injury the person or property of oneself, or of a wife, husband, child, parent, or other relative, or member of one's family, or of a ward, servant, master, or guest.

MARRIAGE.

CHAPTER 4.—MARRIAGE

What constitutes.

SEC. 37. WHAT CONSTITUTES MARRIAGE.—Marriage is a personal relation arising out of a civil contract, to which the consent of parties capable of making that contract is necessary. Consent alone will not constitute marriage; it must be followed by a solemnization authorized by this code.

How proved.

SEC. 38. MARRIAGE; HOW PROVED.—Consent to marriage and solemnization thereof may be proved under the same general rules of evidence as facts are proved in other cases.

When are void.

SEC. 39. WHAT MARRIAGES VOID WITHOUT BEING SO DECREED.—(a) A marriage celebrated in the Canal Zone after December 29, 1926, shall be void, without being so decreed—

Post, p. 1180.

(1) If between persons related by consanguinity within the fourth degree, determined according to sections 405 to 409;

(2) If either party thereto has been previously married and such previous marriage has not been terminated by death, annulment, or a final decree of divorce;

(3) If either party thereto is not present in person at the celebration of the marriage.

By judicial decree.
Vol. 44, p. 927.

(b) A void marriage may, in addition, be declared by judicial decree, or be shown in any collateral proceeding, to have been void from the time of its celebration. (Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 8, 44 Stat. 927.)

Voidable.

SEC. 40. WHAT MARRIAGES VOIDABLE.—(a) A marriage celebrated in the Canal Zone after December 29, 1926, shall be voidable—

(1) If either party thereto, at the time of the marriage, is an idiot or a lunatic;

(2) If the consent of either party thereto was procured by force or fraud;

(3) If either party thereto is, at the time of the marriage, incapable, from physical cause, of entering into the marriage state;

(4) If, because of the age of either party thereto, a written consent under section 46 was required, and the marriage was celebrated without such consent; or

(5) If, at the time of the marriage, the male is under seventeen or the female is under fourteen years of age.

(b) A voidable marriage shall be held to be valid until it is annulled, by judicial decree, as of the date of such decree. (Acts Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 9, 44 Stat. 927; Jan. 22, 1927, c. 52, 44 Stat. 1023.)

Post, p. 1130.

Valid until judicially annulled.
Vol. 44, pp. 928, 1023.

SEC. 41. ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE CELEBRATED ELSEWHERE.—(a) A marriage celebrated outside of the Canal Zone may be declared void or may be annulled in the same manner and with the same effect as though it had been celebrated in the Canal Zone if the petitioner shall have resided in the Canal Zone within a period of thirty days before and a period of thirty days after the date of such marriage.

Marriages outside of Canal Zone.

(b) A suit to have any such marriage celebrated outside the Canal Zone declared void or annulled may, in addition, be instituted by the district attorney for the Canal Zone in the name of the government of the Canal Zone. (Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 10, 44 Stat. 928.)

Institution of suit by Government.
Vol. 44, p. 928.

SEC. 42. JURISDICTION OF ANNULMENT SUIT; WHO MAY INSTITUTE SUIT.—(a) The district court shall have jurisdiction of a suit to have a marriage declared void or annulled.

Jurisdiction of suit.

(b) In the case of a male under twenty-one or a female under eighteen years of age such suit may be instituted through a next friend or by a parent or guardian. In the case of an idiot or a lunatic such suit may be instituted through a next friend.

In case of minors.

(c) No suit to have a marriage annulled may be instituted by a person who, when fully capable of contracting marriage, entered into such marriage willfully and with knowledge of the circumstances rendering such marriage voidable. (Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 11, 44 Stat. 928.)

Knowledge of voidable circumstances a bar to annulment.
Vol. 44, p. 928.

SEC. 43. LEGITIMACY OF CHILDREN OF ANNULLED MARRIAGES.—A judgment of nullity of marriage does not affect the legitimacy of children begotten before the judgment.

SEC. 47. APPLICATION FOR AND ISSUANCE OF LICENSE; FEE.—(a) No marriage shall be celebrated in the Canal Zone unless a license to marry has first been secured from the clerk of the division of the district court in which the marriage is to be celebrated: Provided, however, That no marriage license shall be granted unless one of the parties thereto is an American citizen, or a resident of the Canal Zone: And provided further, That no marriage license shall be issued to a leper except upon a certificate of approval by the Chief Health Officer of the Canal Zone. Such license when issued shall be accompanied by a marriage certificate to be filled in by the person celebrating the marriage.

Provisos. Citizenship requirement.

Lepers.

Issue by clerk.

(b) Such clerk shall, upon application therefor in accordance with subdivision (c), accompanied by the written consent when required by subdivision (b) of section 46, issue a license to marry if it appears to the satisfaction of such clerk from the sworn statement of the persons desiring to marry, or, if required by such clerk, from the sworn statement of another, that no legal impediment to the marriage is known to exist.

Statement required.

- (c) The application for a license to marry shall state—
  - (1) The name, address, age, color, and race of each of the persons to be married;
  - (2) The relationship, if any, of such persons, by consanguinity or affinity;
  - (3) If either of such persons has been previously married, then the date and place of each previous marriage, the name of each person to whom previously married, and the manner in which each such marriage has been terminated.

(d) The governor shall prescribe the form of the application for a license to marry, of the license to marry, and of the marriage certificate.

Fee.

(e) The clerk shall be paid a fee of $2 upon the issuance of a license to marry, and shall keep a record of all licenses issued and of all applications for licenses, together with any written consent of parents or a parent or guardian or the chief health officer accompanying the same. Such fee shall be disposed of in the same manner as other fees received by such clerk. (Acts Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 13, 44 Stat. 928; Jan. 22, 1927, c. 52, 44 Stat. 1023.)

SEC. 50. VIOLATIONS OF PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER; PUNISHMENT.—(a) Any judicial officer or minister who is qualified to celebrate marriages in the Canal Zone and any clerk of court who violates any of the provisions of sections 47, 48, or 49 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $25, or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or both.

Violations; punishment.

Acte, p. 1130.

(b) Any person who knowingly makes or causes to be made any false oath as to any material matter for the purpose of procuring or aiding another to procure a marriage license shall be deemed guilty of perjury and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than ten years.

(c) Any person who knowingly files or causes to be filed with the clerk a written consent, any signature to which is a forgery, shall be deemed guilty of uttering a forged instrument and shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than fourteen years.

(d) Any person who is not qualified to celebrate marriages in the Canal Zone under this chapter and who celebrates in the Canal Zone what purports to be a marriage ceremony shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not more than three years. (Acts Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 16, 44 Stat. 929; Jan. 22, 1927, c. 52, 44 Stat. 1023.)

Vol. 44, p. 929.

SEC. 51. DECLARATION WHERE THERE IS NO RECORD.—If no record of the solemnization of a marriage heretofore contracted, be known to exist, the parties may join in a written declaration of such marriage, substantially showing:

Declaration where no record exists.

(1) The names, ages, and residences of the parties.

(2) The fact of marriage.

(3) That no record of such marriage is known to exist. Such declaration must be subscribed by the parties and attested by at least three witnesses.

To be acknowledged and recorded.

SEC. 52. TO BE ACKNOWLEDGED AND RECORDED.—Declarations of marriage must be acknowledged and recorded in the office of the clerk of the district court.

Validity.
Either party may test.

SEC. 53. EITHER PARTY MAY PROCEED TO TEST VALIDITY OF MARRIAGE.—If either party to any marriage denies the same, or refuses to join in a declaration thereof, the other may proceed, by action in the district court, to have the validity of the marriage determined and declared.

Contracted without the Zone.
Ante, p. 1129.

SEC. 55. MARRIAGES CONTRACTED WITHOUT THE ZONE.—Except as otherwise provided in section 41, all marriages contracted without the Canal Zone, which would be valid by the laws of the country in which the same were contracted, are valid in the Canal Zone.

CAUSES FOR DIVORCE

Causes.

SEC. 60. CAUSES FOR DIVORCE.—In every case in which a marriage has been, or hereafter may be, contracted and solemnized between any two persons, and it shall be adjudged, in the manner hereinafter provided, (1) that either party has committed adultery subsequent to the marriage except as hereinafter provided; or (2) has willfully deserted and absented herself or himself from the husband or wife without any reasonable cause for a period of two years; or (3) has been guilty of willful neglect which shall consist of the willful failure of the husband to provide for his wife the necessaries of life, he having the ability to do so, or the willful failure to do so by reason of voluntary idleness, profligacy, or dissipation, in either case continued for a period of one year; or (4) has been guilty of habitual drunkenness for the space of two years; or (5) has attempted the life of the other by any means showing malice; or (6) has been guilty of extreme cruelty; or (7) has been subsequent to the marriage, convicted of felony, it shall be lawful for the injured party to obtain a divorce and dissolution of such marriage contract in the district court of the Canal Zone. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 12, 42 Stat. 1008.)

Vol. 42, p. 1008.

"Adultery," defined.

SEC. 61. ADULTERY DEFINED.—Adultery is the voluntary sexual intercourse of a married person with a person other than the offender's husband or wife.

"Desertion," defined.

SEC. 62. DESERTION, WHAT.—Willful desertion is the voluntary separation of one of the married parties from the other with intent to desert.

How manifested.

SEC. 63. DESERTION, HOW MANIFESTED.—Persistent refusal to have reasonable matrimonial intercourse as husband and wife, when health or physical condition does not make such refusal reasonably necessary, or the refusal of either party to dwell in the same house with the other party, when there is no just cause for such refusal, is desertion.

SEC. 64. IN CASE OF STRATAGEM OR FRAUD, WHO COMMITS DESERTION.—When one party is induced, by the stratagem or fraud of the other party, to leave the family dwelling-place, or to be absent, and during such absence the offending party departs with intent to desert the other, it is desertion by the party committing the stratagem or fraud, and not by the other.

Offending party.
In case of stratagem,
etc.

SEC. 65. IN CASE OF CRUELTY, WHERE ONE PARTY LEAVES OTHER, WHO COMMITS DESERTION.—Departure or absence of one party from the family dwelling-place, caused by extreme cruelty or by threats of bodily harm from which danger would be reasonably apprehended from the other, is not desertion by the absent party, but it is desertion by the other party.

In case of cruelty.

SEC. 66. SEPARATION BY CONSENT NOT DESERTION.—Separation by consent, with or without the understanding that one of the parties will apply for a divorce, is not desertion.

Separation, not desertion.

CROSS REFERENCES

Agreement for separation, see section 114.
Consent revocable, see section 68.

Post, p. 1132.

SEC. 67. ABSENCE BECOMES DESERTION, WHEN.—Absence or separation, proper in itself, becomes desertion whenever the intent to desert is fixed during such absence or separation.

When absence becomes desertion.

SEC. 68. CONSENT TO SEPARATE REVOCABLE.—Consent to a separation is a revocable act, and if one of the parties afterwards, in good faith, seeks a reconciliation and restoration, but the other refuses it, such refusal is desertion.

Consent to separate revocable.

SEC. 69. DESERTION, HOW CURED; EFFECT OF REFUSING CONDONATION.—If one party deserts the other, and before the expiration of the statutory period required to make the desertion a cause of divorce, returns and offers in good faith to fulfill the marriage contract, and solicits condonation, the desertion is cured. If the other party refuse such offer and condonation, the refusal shall be deemed and treated as desertion by such party from the time of refusal.

Desertion, how cured; refusing con-
donation.

SEC. 70. WIFE MUST ABIDE BY HUSBAND'S SELECTION OF HOME, OR IT IS DESERTION ON HER PART.—The husband may choose any reasonable place or mode of living, and if the wife does not conform thereto, it is desertion.

Selection of home,
etc.

SEC. 71. IF PLACE IS UNFIT, AND WIFE REFUSES TO CONFORM, IT IS DESERTION BY HUSBAND.—If the place or mode of living selected by the husband is unreasonable and grossly unfit, and the wife does not conform thereto, it is desertion on the part of the husband from the time her reasonable objections are made known to him.

If place unfit.

SEC. 72. HABITUAL INTEMPERANCE, WHAT.—Habitual drunkenness is that degree of intemperance from the use of intoxicating drinks which disqualifies the person a great portion of the time from properly attending to business, or which would reasonably inflict a course of great mental anguish upon the innocent party.

Habitual intemperance.

SEC. 73. EXTREME CRUELTY, WHAT.—Extreme cruelty is the wrong-ful infliction of grievous bodily injury, or grievous mental suffering, upon the other by one party to the marriage.

Extreme cruelty.

CAUSES FOR DENYING DIVORCE

Denial of divorce.

SEC. 74. DIVORCES DENIED, ON SHOWING WHAT.—Divorces must be denied upon showing:

Reasons.

1. Connivance; or,
2. Collusion; or,
3. Condonation; or,
4. Recrimination; or,
5. Limitation and lapse of time.

Post, p. 1135.

Limitation and lapse of time, see sections 87 et seq.

Connivance.

SEC. 75. CONNIVANCE, WHAT.—Connivance is the corrupt consent of one party to the commission of the acts of the other, constituting the cause of divorce.

Corrupt consent.

SEC. 76. CORRUPT CONSENT, HOW MANIFESTED.—Corrupt consent is manifested by passive permission, with intent to connive at or actively procure the commission of the acts complained of.

Collusion.

SEC. 77. COLLUSION, WHAT.—Collusion is an agreement between husband and wife that one of them shall commit, or appear to have committed, or to be represented in court as having committed, acts constituting a cause of divorce, for the purpose of enabling the other to obtain a divorce.

Condonation.

SEC. 78. CONDONATION, WHAT.—Condonation is the conditional forgiveness of a matrimonial offense constituting a cause of divorce.

CROSS REFERENCES

Revoking condonation, see section 84.

Post, p. 1135.

Condonation of a recriminatory defense, see section 86.

Elements of.

SEC. 79. REQUISITES TO CONDONATION.—The following requirements are necessary to condonation:

1. A knowledge on the part of the condoner of the facts constituting the cause of divorce;

2. Reconciliation and remission of the offense by the injured party;

3. Restoration of the offending party to all marital rights.

Implication of.

SEC. 80. CONDONATION IMPLIES WHAT.—Condonation implies a condition subsequent; that the forgiving party must be treated with conjugal kindness.

Evidence of.

SEC. 81. EVIDENCE OF CONDONATION.—Where the cause of divorce consists of a course of offensive conduct, or arises, in cases of cruelty, from excessive acts of ill-treatment which may, aggregately, constitute the offense, cohabitation, or passive endurance, or conjugal kindness, shall not be evidence of condonation of any of the acts constituting such cause, unless accompanied by an express agreement to condone.

When can be made.

SEC. 82. CONDONATION; CAN ONLY BE MADE WHEN.—In cases mentioned in section 81, condonation can be made only after the cause of divorce has become complete, as to the acts complained of.

Concealment of facts.

SEC. 83. CONCEALMENT OF FACTS IN CERTAIN CASES MAKES CONDONATION VOID.—A fraudulent concealment by the condonee of facts constituting a different cause of divorce from the one condoned, and existing at the time of condonation, avoids such condonation.

How revoked.

SEC. 84. CONDONATION, HOW REVOKED.—Condonation is revoked and the original cause of divorce revived:

1. When the condonee commits acts constituting a like or other cause of divorce; or,

2. When the condonee is guilty of great conjugal unkindness, not amounting to a cause of divorce, but sufficiently habitual and gross to show that the conditions of condonation had not been accepted in good faith, or not fulfilled.

SEC. 85. RECRIMINATION, WHAT.—Recrimination is a showing by the defendant of any cause of divorce against the plaintiff, in bar of the plaintiff's cause of divorce.

Recrimination.

SEC. 86. CONDONATION; WHEN TO BAR DEFENSE.—Condonation of a cause of divorce, shown in the answer as a recriminatory defense, is a bar to such defense, unless the condonation be revoked, as provided in section 84, or two years have elapsed after the condonation, and before the accruing or completion of the cause of divorce against which the recrimination is shown.

When condonation is a bar to defense.
Ante, p. 1134.

SEC. 87. DIVORCE, WHEN DENIED.—A divorce must be denied:

Denial of divorce.

(1) When the cause is adultery and the action is not commenced within two years after the commission of the act of adultery, or after its discovery by the injured party; or,

(2) When the cause is conviction of felony, and the action is not commenced before the expiration of two years after a pardon, or the termination of the period of sentence.

(3) In all other cases when there is an unreasonable lapse of time before the commencement of the action.

SEC. 88. LAPSE OF TIME ESTABLISHES CERTAIN PRESUMPTIONS.—Unreasonable lapse of time is such a delay in commencing the action as establishes the presumption that there has been connivance, collusion, or condonation of the offense, or full acquiescence in the same, with intent to continue the marriage relation notwithstanding the commission of such offense.

Certain presumptions established by lapse of time.

SEC. 89. PRESUMPTIONS MAY BE REBUTTED.—The presumptions arising from lapse of time may be rebutted by showing reasonable grounds for the delay in commencing the action.

Rebuttal.

SEC. 90. LIMITATION OF TIME.—There are no limitations of time for commencing actions for divorce, except such as are contained in section 87.

Limitation of time.

SEC. 91. RESIDENCES OF PLAINTIFF IN SUIT FOR DIVORCE.—(a) Any person having an official residence within the territorial limits of the Canal Zone, or who resides therein for the purpose of any occupation or employment, shall, during such residence, be deemed a resident of the Canal Zone for the purpose of this chapter and sections 13, 15, 16, and 19 of Act September 21, 1922, as amended, notwithstanding that he or she may not have acquired a permanent domicile within the Canal Zone.

Residence of plaintiff in divorce suit.

Vol. 42, p. 1008-1010;
Vol. 44, p. 927.

(b) No plaintiff shall be entitled to a divorce in pursuance of the provisions of said sections who has not actually resided on the Canal Zone continuously during the whole year next before the filing of his or her complaint, which residence shall be duly proven by the plaintiff to the satisfaction of the court by at least two witnesses who are residents of the Canal Zone; and the plaintiff shall file with the complaint his or her own affidavit, in which he or she shall state the length of time plaintiff has resided on the Canal Zone, the place or places where he or she has resided for the last preceding year, and his or her office or occupation. General provisions.

SEC. 92. MARRIAGE, HOW DISSOLVED.—Marriage is dissolved only:

How marriage is dissolved.

(1) By the death of one of the parties; or

(2) By the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction decreeing a divorce of the parties.

Custody, etc., of children pending suit.

SEC. 93. CUSTODY AND CARE OF CHILDREN PENDING SUIT.—The court may, on the application of either party, make such order concerning the custody and care of the minor children of the parties during the pendency of the suit as may be deemed expedient and for the benefit of the children. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 17, 42 Stat. 1010.)

Vol. 42, p. 1010.

Alimony.

SEC. 94. ALIMONY PENDING SUIT.—In all cases of divorce the court may require the husband to pay to the wife or pay into court for her use during the pendency of the suit such sum or sums of money as may enable her to maintain or defend the suit; and in every suit for divorce, the wife, when it is just and equitable, shall be entitled to alimony during the pendency of the suit. And in case of appeal or writ of error by the husband, the district court may grant and enforce the payment of such money for her defense and such equitable alimony during the pendency of the appeal or writ of error as to the court shall seem reasonable and proper. SEC. 95. WHEN BILL IS TAKEN AS CONFESSED; DEFAULT.—If the bill is taken as confessed, the court shall proceed to hear the cause by examination of witnesses in open court, and in no case of default shall the court grant a divorce unless the judge is satisfied that all proper means have been taken to notify the defendant of the pendency of the suit, and that the cause of divorce has been fully proven by competent evidence. Whenever the district judge is satisfied that the interests of the defendant require it, the court may order such additional notice as equity may seem to require. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 16, 42 Stat. 1010.)

Vol. 42, p. 1010.

Maintenance by husband where divorce denied.

SEC. 96. MAINTENANCE BY HUSBAND WHERE DIVORCE DENIED.—Though judgment of divorce is denied, the court may, in an action for divorce, provide for the maintenance by the husband, of the wife and children of the marriage, or any of them.

SEC. 97. ACTION FOR PERMANENT SUPPORT OF WIFE.—When the husband willfully deserts the wife or when the husband willfully fails to provide for the wife or when the wife has any cause of action for divorce as provided in section 60, she may, without applying for divorce, maintain in the district court an action against him for permanent support and maintenance of herself or of herself and children. During the pendency of such action the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay as alimony any money necessary for the prosecution of the action and for support and maintenance, and execution may issue therefor in the discretion of the court. The court, in granting the wife permanent support and maintenance of herself, or of herself and children, in any such action, shall make the same disposition of the community property as would have been made if the marriage had been dissolved by the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction. The final judgment in such action may be enforced by the court by such order or orders as in its discretion it may from time to time deem necessary, and such order or orders may be varied, altered, or revoked at the discretion of the court.

INTERLOCUTORY ORDER AND APPEAL THEREFROM; FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE.—(a) No final decree granting a divorce shall be entered until after the expiration of the period of six months from the date of the entry of an interlocutory order adjudging that a case for divorce has been proved, and every such interlocutory order shall expressly state that no divorce is granted by it. An appeal may be taken from any such interlocutory order in the same manner and within the same time as an appeal from a final decree of such court in any other proceeding.

Interlocutory order.

Appeal.

(b) After the expiration of such period of six months, or if an appeal is taken and the case is pending at the time of the expiration of such period then after the final disposition of the case if determined in favor of the plaintiff, the court, upon application filed within thirty days after the expiration of such period or such final disposition, by the person in whose favor such interlocutory order was entered, shall enter a final decree granting a divorce. If no such application is made, the court may, on its own motion, within three months after the expiration of such thirty-day period, enter a final decree of divorce. No appeal may be taken from such final decree.

SEC. 101. ALIMONY AND MAINTENANCE; CARE, CUSTODY, AND SUPPORT OF CHILDREN.—When a divorce shall be decreed the court may make such order touching the alimony and maintenance of the wife, the care, custody, and support of the children, or any of them as, from the circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case, shall be reasonable and just, and in case the wife be plaintiff, to order the defendant to give reasonable security for such alimony and maintenance, or may enforce the payment of such alimony and maintenance in any other manner consistent with the rules and practice of the court. And the court may, on application, from time to time make such alterations in the allowance of alimony and maintenance and the care, custody, and support of the children as shall appear reasonable and proper. In decreeing a divorce to the wife the court may order the husband to pay alimony in a gross sum or in installments as may seem best. And it may make such orders and enforce the same by attachment and secure the payment of such alimony, but judgment for alimony can not be taken when the defendant is not personally served with summons or does not voluntarily appear. 1. To the community property; then,
2. To the separate property of the husband.

When wife has sufficient for her support.

SEC. 103. IF WIFE HAS SUFFICIENT FOR HER SUPPORT, COURT MAY WITHHOLD ALLOWANCE.—When the wife has either a separate estate, or there is community property sufficient to give her alimony or a proper support, the court, in its discretion, may withhold any allowance to her out of the separate property of the husband.

Support, etc., of children from community, etc., property.

SEC. 104. COMMUNITY AND SEPARATE PROPERTY MAY BE SUBJECTED TO SUPPORT AND EDUCATE CHILDREN.—The community property and the separate property may be subjected to the support and education of the children in such proportions as the court deems just.

Disposition of community property.

SEC. 105. DISPOSITION OF COMMUNITY PROPERTY ON DIVORCE.—In case of the dissolution of the marriage by the decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, the community property shall be assigned to the respective parties in such proportions as the court, from all the facts of the case, and the condition of the parties, may deem just.

Order for.

SEC. 106. SAME.—The court, in rendering a decree of divorce, must make such order for the disposition of the community property, as in this chapter provided, and, whenever necessary for that purpose, may order a partition or sale of the property and a division or other disposition of the proceeds.

Conveyance of property equitably belonging to other spouse.

SEC. 107. COMPELLING CONVEYANCE OF PROPERTY BELONGING TO OTHER SPOUSE.—Whenever a divorce is granted, if it shall appear to the court that either party holds the title to property equitably belonging to the other, the court may compel conveyance thereof to the party entitled to the same, upon such terms as it shall deem equitable. ## CHAPTER 8.—CHILDREN BY ADOPTION

How adopted.

Petition.

SEC. 158. HOW CHILD MAY BE ADOPTED.—A resident of the Canal Zone, not married, or a husband and wife jointly, may petition the district court for leave to adopt a minor child; but a written consent must be given for the adoption by the child, if of the age of fourteen years, and by each of his or her living parents who is not hopelessly insane or intemperate, or has not abandoned such child, or if there are no such parents, or if the parents are unknown, or have abandoned such child, or if they are hopelessly insane or intemperate, then by the legal guardian, or if there is no such guardian, then by a discreet and suitable person appointed by the court to act in the proceedings as the next friend of such child; but when such child is an inmate of a charitable or eleemosynary institution within the Canal Zone, and has been previously abandoned by its parents or guardians thereto, then the written consent of the head of such institution must be given; provided, nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall authorize a guardian to adopt his ward before the termination of the guardianship and the final settlement and approval of his accounts as guardian by the court. (E. O. Mar. 22, 1907, § 794; Act Cong. Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, §§ 2, 9, 37 Stat. 561; E. O. Mar. 12, 1914, § 10; Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 3, 42 Stat. 1006.)

Order of the court.

SEC. 161. ORDER OF THE COURT.—When the foregoing provisions are complied with, if the court is satisfied with the ability of the petitioner to bring up and educate the child properly, having reference to the degree and condition of the child's parents and the fitness and propriety of such adoption, it shall make an order setting forth the facts and declaring that from that date said child, to all legal intents and purposes, is the child of the petitioner and that its name is thereby changed. The order shall be recorded in the records of the court. (E. O. Mar. 22, 1907, § 796; Act Cong. Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, §§ 2, 9, 37 Stat. 561; E. O. Mar. 12, 1914, § 10; Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 3, 42 Stat. 1006.)

Effect.

SEC. 162. EFFECT OF THE ORDER.—The natural parents, except when such child is adopted under the provisions of section 159, shall, by such order, be divested of all legal rights and obligations in respect to the child, and the child shall be free from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance with respect to them. Such child shall be to all intents and purposes the child and legal heir of the person adopting him or her, entitled to all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the obligations of a child of such person begotten in lawful wedlock. (E. O. Mar. 22, 1907, § 797; Act Cong. Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, §§ 2, 9, 37 Stat. 561; E. O. Mar. 12, 1914, § 10; Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 3, 42 Stat. 1006.)

Rules for awarding custody of minor.

SEC. 166f. RULES FOR AWARDING CUSTODY OF MINOR.—In awarding the custody of a minor, or in appointing a general guardian, the court or officer is to be guided by the following considerations:

1. By what appears to be for the best interest of the child in respect to its temporal and its mental and moral welfare; and if the child is of a sufficient age to form an intelligent preference, the court may consider that preference in determining the question;

2. As between parents adversely claiming the custody or guardianship, neither parent is entitled to it as of right; but other things being equal, if the child is of tender years, it should be given to the mother; if it is of an age to require education and preparation for labor and business, then to the father;

3. Of two persons equally entitled to the custody in other respects, preference is to be given as follows:

(1) To a parent;

(2) To one who was indicated by the wishes of a deceased parent;

(3) To one who already stands in the position of a trustee of a fund to be applied to the child's support;

(4) To a relative.

4. Any parent who knowingly or willfully abandons, or having the ability so to do, fails to maintain his minor child under the age of fourteen years, forfeits the guardianship of such child.

SECTION 170. APPLICATION FOR LICENSE TO DO BUSINESS; ACCOMPANYING PAPERS; PROCESS AGENT; FILING FEE.—No corporation organized under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States or of any foreign country shall do business in the Canal Zone or maintain an office therein until it shall have filed with the executive secretary of the Panama Canal:

Application for business license.

Accompanying papers; process agent; fee.

(a) An application for a license setting forth the name of the corporation, the names of its officers and directors, and a statement showing the general nature of the business in which it desires to engage in the Canal Zone;

(c) An affidavit sworn to by any authorized officer of such corporation which shall state the amount of its authorized capital stock at or within sixty days prior to such filing;

(d) Every corporation must, at the time of filing its application, file in the office of the Executive Secretary a designation of some person residing within the Canal Zone and the place of business or residence of such person upon whom process issued by authority of or under any law of the Canal Zone may be served. With such designation shall be submitted a certified copy of the minutes of the board of directors of such corporation authorizing such designation. Process may be served on the person so designated, or, in the event that such person can not be found at the place designated or in the event that no such person is designated, then on the Executive Secretary of the Panama Canal, or his successor in office, and such service shall be a valid service on such corporation. When the Executive Secretary shall have been served with process as provided herein he shall without delay communicate the same to the corporation concerned at its last known address and no default judgment shall be entered against such corporation in any action in which process is served on the Executive Secretary until at least 60 days after the date of such service;

(e) Corporations licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall also be required to file with the Executive Secretary any amendment of or change in any of the provisions of its original articles of incorporation;

(f) With the application for license there shall also be submitted the sum of $10, which amount shall cover the filing fee and the annual license fee for the remainder of the calendar year during which the license is issued.

Insurance companies to file additional documents and deposits.

SEC. 171. INSURANCE COMPANIES TO FILE ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS AND DEPOSITS.—In addition to the requirements hereinbefore prescribed, insurance companies organized under the laws of any State or Territory of the United States or of any foreign country shall be required to file the following documents:

(a) A certificate of the Commissioner of Insurance or other duly authorized official, showing that the company is authorized to transact business in the State or country under whose laws the company is organized;

(b) A duly certified copy of the last annual statement of the insurance company to the Commissioner of Insurance or other duly authorized official in the State or country where the company is organized;

(c) A deposit with the executive secretary or his successor in office of $10,000 in cash or current marketable securities, which shall be held in trust by the executive secretary for the account of the company, to satisfy any judgment that may be rendered against the company under any insurance policies that it may issue.

Insurance companies to file statement and to pay license tax.

SEC. 172. INSURANCE COMPANIES TO FILE STATEMENT AND PAY LICENSE TAX.—Insurance companies licensed under this chapter shall file with the executive secretary between January 1 and March 1 of each year a verified statement showing the business transacted within the Canal Zone by the company during the previous calendar year and a duly certified copy of its annual report to the insurance commissioner of the State, Territory, or country in which the company is organized. Such insurance companies shall pay before March 1 of each year, in lieu of all other taxes save the annual fee provided for in section 174, a license tax equal to 1½ per centum of its net premium receipts in the Canal Zone for the calendar year preceding.

Issuance of license.

SEC. 173. ISSUANCE OF LICENSE.—Upon compliance with the foregoing conditions, the Governor of the Panama Canal, if he is satisfied that the business desired to be transacted is proper, legitimate, permissible under the laws of the Canal Zone, and not in conflict with the policy of administering the Canal Zone as an adjunct of the Panama Canal, may issue a license to do business in the Canal Zone.

Annual license fee.

SEC. 174. ANNUAL LICENSE FEE.—The right to continue to do business after the period for which the license is issued shall be contingent upon the payment of a license fee of $10, payable in advance, on January 1 of each year.

Punishment for transacting business without license.

SEC. 175. TRANSACTING BUSINESS WITHOUT LICENSE, HOW PUNISHED; CONTRACTS VOID.—Any corporation which does business in the Canal Zone without having complied with the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500, and any agent or person acting for such corporation, unless it shall have complied with the provisions of this chapter, shall, upon conviction, be punished as for a misdemeanor. In addition to this penalty, every contract made by or on behalf of any such foreign corporation affecting the liability thereof or relating to property within the Canal Zone shall be held void on its behalf and on behalf of its assigns, but shall be enforceable against it or them.

Contracts void.

Loss of benefits.

SEC. 176. SAME; LOSS OF BENEFIT OF LIMITATION LAWS.—Corporations doing business in the Canal Zone which fail to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall not be entitled to the benefit of the laws of the Canal Zone limiting the time for the commencement of civil actions.

SEC. 177. LICENSE UNDER CHAPTER 11 SUFFICIENT.—No corporation licensed under the provisions of chapter 11 of this code shall be required to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

License under chapter 11 sufficient.

SEC. 178. "CORPORATION" INCLUDES JOINT STOCK COMPANIES.—The term "corporation" as used in this chapter shall include joint stock companies.

"Corporation" to include joint stock company.

SEC. 179. REVOCATION OF LICENSE.—The Governor of The Panama Canal is authorized to revoke any license issued hereunder if, upon examination, he shall be satisfied that the operations of the corporation are conducted in an illegal manner, or in a manner contrary to public policy or to the policy of administering the Canal Zone as an adjunct of the Panama Canal.

Revocation of license.

SEC. 180. PERMIT TO SELL SECURITIES.—No company shall sell, or offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of, or take subscriptions for any security of its own issue until it shall have first applied for and secured from the Governor of the Panama Canal a permit authorizing it to do so. Such application shall be in writing and shall be verified. In such application the applicant shall set forth the names and addresses of its officers, the location of its principal office, the name of its Canal Zone representative, an itemized account of its financial condition, the amount and character of its assets and liabilities, a detailed statement of the plan upon which it proposes to transact business, a copy of any prospectus or advertisement, or other description of such securities, then prepared by or for it for distribution or publication, and such additional information concerning the company, its condition and affairs, as the governor may require. If the applicant is a partnership or an unincorporated association or joint stock company, it shall file with its application a copy of its articles of partnership or association, and all other papers pertaining to its organization. If the applicant is a corporation, it shall file with its application a copy of all minutes of any proceedings of its directors or stockholders or members relating to or affecting the issue of such securities, a copy of its articles of incorporation and of its by-laws and of any amendments thereto, and also a certificate, executed by the proper officer of the State, Territory, or country in which such corporation is organized, dated not more than sixty days before the filing of the application, showing that the applicant is authorized to transact business in such State, Territory, or country.

Permits to sell securities.

SEC. 181. DESIGNATION OF PROCESS AGENT.—Every company, at the time of filing its application, shall file in the office of the executive secretary a designation of some person residing within the Canal Zone and stating the place of business or residence of such person upon whom process issued by authority of or under any law of the Canal Zone may be served. With such designation shall be submitted a certified copy of the minutes of the board of directors of such company authorizing such designation. Process may be served on the person so designated, or, in the event that such person can not be found at the place designated or in the event that no person is designated, then on the executive secretary of the Panama Canal, or his successor in office, and such service shall be a valid service on such corporation. When the executive secretary shall have been served with process as provided herein he shall without delay communicate the same to the company concerned at its last known address and no default judgment shall be entered against such corporation in any action in which process is served on the executive secretary until at least sixty days after the date of such service.

Examination of application; issuance and revocation of permit.

SEC. 181a. EXAMINATION OF APPLICATION; ISSUANCE AND REVOCATION OF PERMIT.—Upon the filing of such application, it shall be the duty of the governor to examine it, and the other papers and documents filed therewith, or cause the same to be examined, and he may, if he deems it advisable, make or have made a detailed examination, audit, and investigation of the applicant and its affairs. If he finds that the proposed plan of business of the applicant is not unfair, unjust, inequitable, or contrary to the policy of administering the Canal Zone as an adjunct of the Panama Canal, that it intends to transact its business fairly and honestly, and that the securities that it proposes to issue and the methods to be used by it in issuing or disposing of them are not such as, in his opinion, will work a fraud upon the purchaser thereof, the Governor may issue to the applicant a permit authorizing it to issue and dispose of securities, as therein provided, in the Canal Zone. Each such permit shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next following its issuance, unless sooner revoked. Otherwise, he shall deny the application and refuse such permit and notify the applicant in writing of his decision. Every permit shall recite that the issuance thereof is permissive only and does not constitute a recommendation or indorsement of the securities permitted to be sold. The governor may impose such conditions as he may deem necessary to the issue of such securities, and shall have the power to establish such rules and regulations as may be reasonable or necessary to insure the disposition of the proceeds of such securities in the manner and for the purposes provided in such permit, and may, from time to time for cause, amend, alter, or revoke any permit issued by him, or temporarily suspend the rights of the applicant under such permit.

Certificate of agent or broker.

SEC. 181b. CERTIFICATE OF AGENT OR BROKER.—No person or company shall act as an agent or broker, other than for a company holding a permit under the preceding section, until such person or company shall have first applied for and secured from the Governor a certificate, then in effect, authorizing such person or company so to do. Each such certificate shall expire on the thirty-first day of December next after its issuance, unless sooner revoked. To secure such certificate, the applicant shall make and file in the office of the Governor an application therefor in writing, verified by or in behalf of the applicant. In such application the applicant shall set forth, in addition to such other information as may be required by the Governor:

Additional information required.

1. The name and address of the applicant, and, if it be a corporation, association, or joint-stock company, the name and address of each of its managing officers and agents, and, if it be a partnership, the name and address of each of the partners;
2. A succinct statement of facts showing that the applicant, and its managing officers and agents, if it be a corporation, or members, if it be a partnership, have a good business reputation;
3. If the applicant is a broker, the general plan and character of the business of the applicant.

If the applicant is a corporation or association it shall file with its application a designation of a process agent, as provided in section 181.

SEC. 181c. EXAMINATION OF APPLICATION ; ISSUANCE AND REVOCATION OF PERMIT.—The Governor shall examine such application, or cause the same to be examined, and shall make such further investigation of the applicant and its affairs as he shall deem advisable. If, from such examination, the Governor shall be satisfied that the business reputation of the applicant and of its officers or members, if any, is good, and that the conduct of such business will not conflict with the policy of administering the Canal Zone as an adjunct of the Panama Canal, he may issue such certificate. Otherwise he shall refuse the same and deny the application and notify the applicant of his decision. The Governor may at any time revoke any broker's or agent's certificate issued by him if he shall find that the holder thereof is of bad business repute, or had violated any provision of this chapter, or has engaged in, or is about to engage in, any fraudulent transaction, or if he shall find that the conduct of such business conflicts with good policy in the administration of the Canal Zone.

Examination of application; issuance and revocation of permit.

SEC. 181d. REPORT ON SALE OF SECURITIES.—Every company or broker authorized under this chapter to sell securities shall thereafter, at such times as they may be required by the Executive Secretary, make and file in the office of the Executive Secretary, a report, setting forth, in such form as the Executive Secretary may prescribe, the securities sold by it under the authority of any permit issued by him, the proceeds derived therefrom, the disposition of such proceeds, and such other information concerning its property, officers, or affairs, relating to or affecting the value of such securities, as the Executive Secretary may require.

Report on sale of securities.

SEC. 181e. FEES.—Each company or broker shall, with its application for a permit or certificate, remit the sum of $10, which amount shall cover the filing fee and the annual license fee for the remainder of the calendar year during which the permit or certificate is issued, but no part of such fee shall be returned if the application is disapproved. The annual fee for renewal of a permit or certificate issued hereunder shall be $10, payable in advance on or before January first of each year.

Fees.

SEC. 181f. PENALTY FOR VIOLATION.—Any company, agent, or broker, which shall directly or indirectly issue or cause to be issued, or solicit the sale of any security contrary to the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500. In addition to this penalty, every contract made by or on behalf of any such company, agent, or broker affecting the liability thereof shall be void on its behalf and on behalf of its assigns, but shall be enforceable against it or them.

Penalty for violation.

SEC. 181g. DEFINITIONS.—The following words have in this chapter the signification attached to them in this section, unless otherwise apparent from the context:

Definitions.

1. The word "company" includes all corporations, associations, joint-stock companies, and partnerships;

"Company."

2. The word "security" includes all stocks, bonds, or other evidences of property or interest in any company;

"Security."

3. The word "agent" as used in this chapter means and includes every person or company employed or appointed by a company or broker who shall, within the Canal Zone, either as an employee or otherwise, for a compensation, sell, offer for sale, negotiate for the sale of, or take a subscription for the sale of any security;

"Agent."

"Broker."

4. The word "broker" as used in this chapter includes every person or company, other than an agent, who shall for a commission, in the Canal Zone, engage either wholly or in part in the business of selling, offering for sale, negotiating for the sale of, or otherwise dealing in any security or securities issued by others, or of underwriting any issue of securities, or of purchasing such securities for the purpose of reselling them or of offering them for sale to the public.

SEC. 208. KINDS OF FUTURE INTERESTS.—A future interest is either:

1. Vested; or,
2. Contingent.

SEC. 209. VESTED INTERESTS.—A future interest is vested when there is a person in being who would have a right, defeasible or indefeasible, to the immediate possession of the property, upon the ceasing of the intermediate or precedent interest.

Vested.

SEC. 210. CONTINGENT INTERESTS.—A future interest is contingent, whilst the person in whom, or the event upon which, it is limited to take effect remains uncertain.

Contingent.

SEC. 211. TWO OR MORE FUTURE INTERESTS.—Two or more future interests may be created to take effect in the alternative, so that if the first in order fails to vest, the next in succession shall be substituted for it, and take effect accordingly.

Alternative.

SEC. 212. CERTAIN FUTURE INTERESTS NOT TO BE VOID.—A future interest is not void merely because of the improbability of the contingency on which it is limited to take effect.

Certain future interests not to be void.

SEC. 213. POSTHUMOUS CHILDREN.—When a future interest is limited to successors, heirs, issue, or children, posthumous children are entitled to take in the same manner as if living at the death of their parent.

SEC. 224. DISPOSITIONS OF INCOME.—Dispositions of the income of property to accrue and to be received at any time subsequent to the execution of the instrument creating such disposition, are governed by the rules prescribed in this chapter in relation to future interests.

When void.

SEC. 225. ACCUMULATIONS, WHEN VOID.—All directions for the accumulation of the income of property, except such as are allowed by this chapter, are void.

Accumulations of income.

SEC. 226. ACCUMULATION OF INCOME.—An accumulation of the income of property, for the benefit of one or more persons, may be directed by any will or transfer in writing sufficient to pass the property out of which the fund is to arise, as follows:

1. If such accumulation is directed to commence on the creation of the interest out of which the income is to arise, it must be made for the benefit of one or more minors then in being, and terminate at the expiration of their minority; or,

2. If such accumulation is directed to commence at any time subsequent to the creation of the interest out of which the income is to arise, it must commence within the time in this chapter permitted for the vesting of future interests, and during the minority of the beneficiaries, and terminate at the expiration of such minority.

Ante, p. 1155.

SEC. 232. SAME.—A future interest may be defeated in any manner or by any act or means which the party creating such interest provided for or authorized in the creation thereof; nor is a future interest, thus liable to be defeated, to be on that ground adjudged void in its creation.

SEC. 233. FUTURE INTERESTS, WHEN NOT DEFEATED.—No future interest can be defeated or barred by any alienation or other act of the owner of the intermediate or precedent interest, nor by any destruction of such precedent interest by forfeiture, surrender, merger, or otherwise, except as provided by section 234, or where a forfeiture is imposed by statute as a penalty for the violation thereof.

When not defeated.

SEC. 234. SAME.—No future interest, valid in its creation, is defeated by the determination of the precedent interest before the happening of the contingency on which the future interest is limited to take effect; but should such contingency afterwards happen, the future interest takes effect in the same manner and to the same extent as if the precedent interest had continued to the same period.

Products of the mind.

PRODUCTS OF THE MIND

Subject to ownership.

SEC. 240. HOW FAR THE SUBJECT OF OWNERSHIP.—The author of any product of the mind, whether it is an invention, or a composition in letters or art, or a design, with or without delineation, or other graphical representation, has an exclusive ownership therein, and in the representation or expression thereof, which continues so long as the product and the representations or expressions thereof made by him remain in his possession.

SEC. 241. JOINT AUTHORSHIP.—Unless otherwise agreed, a product of the mind in the production of which several persons are jointly concerned, is owned by them as follows:

Joint authorship.

1. If the product is single, in equal proportions;
2. If it is not single, in proportion to the contribution of each.

SEC. 242. TRANSFER.—The owner of any product of the mind, or of any representation or expression thereof, may transfer his property in the same.

Transfer.

SEC. 243. EFFECT OF PUBLICATION.—If the owner of a product of the mind intentionally makes it public, a copy or reproduction may be made public by any person, without responsibility to the owner, subject to the law of copyright.

Effect of publication; copyright.

Property, how acquired.

1. Accession;
2. Transfer;
3. Will; or
4. Succession.

CHAPTER 20.—ACCESSION

ACCESSION.

SECTION 248. FIXTURES.—When a person affixes his property to the land of another, without an agreement permitting him to remove it, the thing affixed, except as provided in section 249, belongs to the owner of the land, unless he chooses to require the former to remove it.

Fixtures.

Removal by tenant.

SEC. 249. WHAT FIXTURES TENANT MAY REMOVE.—A tenant may remove from the demised premises, any time during the continuance of his term, anything affixed thereto for the purposes of trade, manufacture, ornament, or domestic use, if the removal can be effected without injury to the premises, unless the thing has, by the manner in which it is affixed, become an integral part of the premises.

Accession by uniting several things.

SEC. 250. ACCESSION BY UNITING SEVERAL THINGS.—When things belonging to different owners have been united so as to form a single thing, and can not be separated without injury, the whole belongs to the owner of the thing which forms the principal part; who must, however, reimburse the value of the residue to the other owner, or surrender the whole to him.

What is deemed principal part.

SEC. 251. PRINCIPAL PART, WHAT.—That part is to be deemed the principal to which the other has been united only for the use, ornament, or completion of the former, unless the latter is the more valuable, and has been united without the knowledge of its owner, who may, in the latter case, require it to be separated and returned to him, although some injury should result to the thing to which it has been united.

SEC. 252. SAME.—If neither part can be considered the principal, within the rule prescribed by section 251, the more valuable, or, if the values are nearly equal, the more considerable in bulk, is to be deemed the principal part.

Uniting materials and workmanship.

SEC. 253. UNITING MATERIALS AND WORKMANSHIP.—If one makes a thing from materials belonging to another, the latter may claim the thing on reimbursing the value of the workmanship, unless the value of the workmanship exceeds the value of the materials, in which case the thing belongs to the maker, on reimbursing the value of the materials.

Inseparable materials.

SEC. 254. INSEPARABLE MATERIALS.—Where one has made use of materials which in part belong to him and in part to another, in order to form a thing of a new description, without having destroyed any of the materials, but in such a way that they can not be separated without inconvenience, the thing formed is common to both proprietors; in proportion, as respects the one, of the materials belonging to him, and as respects the other, of the materials belonging to him and the price of his workmanship.

Materials of several owners.

SEC. 255. MATERIALS OF SEVERAL OWNERS.—When a thing has been formed by the admixture of several materials of different owners, and neither can be considered the principal substance, an owner without whose consent the admixture was made may require a separation, if the materials can be separated without inconvenience. If they can not be thus separated, the owners acquire the thing in common, in proportion to the quantity, quality, and value of their materials; but if the materials of one were far superior to those of the others, both in quantity and value, he may claim the thing on reimbursing to the others the value of their materials.

Willful trespassers.

SEC. 256. WILLFUL TRESPASSERS.—The foregoing sections of this chapter are not applicable to cases in which one willfully uses the materials of another without his consent; but, in such cases, the product belongs to the owner of the material, if its identity can be traced.

Election between thing and its value.

SEC. 257. OWNER MAY ELECT BETWEEN THE THING AND ITS VALUE.—In all cases where one whose material has been used without his knowledge, in order to form a product of a different description, can claim an interest in such product, he has an option to demand either restitution of his material in kind, in the same quantity, weight, measure, and quality, or the value thereof; or where he is entitled to the product, the value thereof in place of the product.

SEC. 258. WRONGDOER LIABLE IN DAMAGES.—One who wrongfully employs materials belonging to another is liable to him in damages, as well as under the foregoing provisions of this chapter.

Wrongdoer liable in damages.

CHAPTER 21.—TRANSFER OF PROPERTY

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY.

DEFINITION OF TRANSFER

SEC. 259. TRANSFER, WHAT.—Transfer is an act of the parties, or of the law, by which the title to property is conveyed from one living person to another.

Transfer defined.

Contract in writing takes effect only from delivery, see section 543.

Date of delivery. SEC. 269. DATE.—A grant duly executed is presumed to have been delivered at its date.

Absolute delivery necessary. SEC. 270. DELIVERY TO GRANTEE IS NECESSARILY ABSOLUTE.—A grant can not be delivered to the grantee conditionally. Delivery to him, or to his agent as such, is necessarily absolute, and the instrument takes effect thereupon, discharged of any condition on which the delivery was made.

Delivery in escrow. SEC. 271. DELIVERY IN ESCROW.—A grant may be deposited by the grantor with a third person, to be delivered on performance of a condition, and, on delivery by the depository, it will take effect. While in the possession of the third person, and subject to condition, it is called an escrow.

Constructive delivery. SEC. 272. CONSTRUCTIVE DELIVERY.—Though a grant be not actually delivered into the possession of the grantee, it is yet to be deemed constructively delivered in the following cases:

1. Where the instrument is, by the agreement of the parties at the time of execution, understood to be delivered, and under such circumstances that the grantee is entitled to immediate delivery; or

2. Where it is delivered to a stranger for the benefit of the grantee, and his assent is shown, or may be presumed.

Limitations, how controlled. SEC. 274. LIMITATIONS, HOW CONTROLLED.—A clear and distinct limitation in a grant is not controlled by other words less clear and distinct.

Recitals, resort to. SEC. 275. RECITALS, WHEN RESORTED TO.—If the operative words of a grant are doubtful, recourse may be had to its recitals to assist the construction.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1199. Interpretation of doubtful words, see section 565.

Interpretation against grantor.

SEC. 276. INTERPRETATION AGAINST GRANTOR.—A grant is to be interpreted in favor to the grantee, except that a reservation in any grant, and every grant by a public officer or body, as such, to a private party, is to be interpreted in favor of the grantor.

Irreconcilable provisions.

SEC. 277. IRRECONCILABLE PROVISIONS.—If several parts of a grant are absolutely irreconcilable, the former part prevails.

SEC. 278. MEANING OF "HEIRS" AND "ISSUE," IN CERTAIN REMAINDERS.—Where a future interest is limited by a grant to take effect on the death of any person without heirs, or heirs of his body, or without issue, or in equivalent words, such words must be taken to mean successors, or issue living at the death of the person named as ancestor.

SEC. 284. GIFT IN VIEW OF DEATH, WHAT.—A gift in view of death is one which is made in contemplation, fear, or peril of death, and with intent that it shall take effect only in case of the death of the giver.

Gift causa mortis.

CROSS REFERENCE

Revocation, see section 286.

SEC. 285. WHEN GIFT PRESUMED TO BE IN VIEW OF DEATH.—A gift made during the last illness of the giver, or under circumstances which would naturally impress him with an expectation of speedy death, is presumed to be a gift in view of death.

When gift presumed to be.

SEC. 286. REVOCATION OF GIFT IN VIEW OF DEATH.—A gift in view of death may be revoked by the giver at any time, and is revoked by his recovery from the illness, or escape from the peril, under the presence of which it was made, or by the occurrence of any event which would operate as a revocation of a will made at the same time, but when the gift has been delivered to the donee, the rights of a bona fide purchaser from the donee before the revocation, shall not be affected by the revocation.

Revocation.

CROSS REFERENCE

Gift inter vivos not revocable, see section 283.

Effect of will upon.

SEC. 287. EFFECT OF WILL UPON GIFT.—A gift in view of death is not affected by a previous will; nor by a subsequent will, unless it expresses an intention to revoke the gift.

When treated as legacy.

SEC. 288. WHEN TREATED AS LEGACY.—A gift in view of death must be treated as a legacy, so far as relates only to the creditors of the giver.

PROOF AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF INSTRUMENTS.

CHAPTER 22.—PROOF AND ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF INSTRUMENTS

By whom taken. In Canal Zone.

SEC. 289. BY WHOM ACKNOWLEDGMENTS MAY BE TAKEN IN CANAL ZONE.—The proof or acknowledgment of any instrument required by law to be proved or acknowledged may be made before the district judge, the clerk of the district court, a magistrate, or before any notary public of the Canal Zone.

Without Canal Zone.

SEC. 290. BY WHOM TAKEN WITHOUT CANAL ZONE.—The proof or acknowledgment of an instrument may be made without the Canal Zone, but within the United States, and within the jurisdiction of the officer, before the judge of any court of record or the clerk thereof or before any notary public within any State, Territory, District, or possession of the United States.

Taken in foreign country.

SEC. 291. BY WHOM TAKEN IN FOREIGN COUNTRY.—If an instrument is one executed in a foreign country, the same may be acknowledged before any diplomatic or consular officer or commercial agent of the United States accredited to such country or before any officer of such foreign country authorized to take acknowledgments, the signature and official character of such officer to be certified by a diplomatic, consular, or commercial official of the United States.

Power to issue certificates on.

SEC. 292. OFFICERS EMPOWERED TO ISSUE PROPER CERTIFICATES.—The officers authorized to take acknowledgments under sections 289 to 291 are empowered to issue proper certificates of the same.

Requisites for acknowledgment.

SEC. 293. REQUISITES FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—The acknowledgment of an instrument must not be taken unless the officer taking it knows or has satisfactory evidence, on the oath or affirmation of a credible witness, that the person making such acknowledgment is the individual who is described in and who executed the instrument; or, if executed by a corporation, that the person making such acknowledgment is the president or secretary of such corporation, or other person who executed it on its behalf.

Officer must indorse.

SEC. 294. OFFICER MUST INDORSE CERTIFICATE.—An officer taking the acknowledgment of an instrument must indorse thereon or attach thereto a certificate substantially in the forms hereinafter prescribed.

Form.

SEC. 295. GENERAL FORM OF CERTIFICATE.—The certificate of acknowledgment, unless it is otherwise in this chapter provided, must be substantially in the following form: "United States of America, Canal Zone, ss. On this _____ day of _____, in the year _____, before me (here insert name and quality of the officer), personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument, and acknowledged that he (she or they) executed the same": Provided, however, That any acknowledgment taken without the Canal Zone in accordance with the laws of the place where the acknowledgment is made, shall be sufficient in the Canal Zone: And provided further, That the certificate of the clerk of a court of record of the county or district where such acknowledgment is taken, that the officer certifying to the same is authorized by law so to do, and that the signature of the said officer to such certificate is his true and genuine signature, and that such acknowledgment is taken in accordance with the laws of the place where the same is made, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the certificate of said clerk.

SEC. 296. FORM OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY CORPORATION.—The certificate of acknowledgment of an instrument executed by a corporation must be substantially in the following form:

“UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Acknowledgment by corporation.

Canal Zone, ss:

“On this _____ day of _____, in the year _____, before me (here insert the name and quality of the officer), personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the president (or the secretary) of the corporation that executed the within instrument (where, however, the instrument is executed in behalf of the corporation by some one other than the president or secretary insert: known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person who executed the within instrument on behalf of the corporation therein named and acknowledged to me that such corporation executed the same).”

SEC. 297. FORM OF CERTIFICATE OF ACKNOWLEDGMENT BY ATTORNEY IN FACT.—The certificate of acknowledgment by an attorney in fact must be substantially in the following form:

“UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

By attorney in fact.

Canal Zone, ss:

“On this _____ day of _____, in the year _____, before me (here insert the name and quality of the officer), personally appeared _____, known to me (or proved to me on the oath of _____) to be the person whose name is subscribed to the within instrument as the attorney in fact of _____, and acknowledged to me that he subscribed the name of _____ thereto as principal, and his own name as attorney in fact.”

SEC. 298. OFFICERS MUST AFFIX THEIR SIGNATURES.—Officers taking and certifying acknowledgments, or proof of instruments for record, must authenticate their certificates by affixing thereto their signatures, followed by the names of their offices; also, their seals of office, if by the laws of the State or country where the acknowledgment or proof is taken, or by authority of which they are acting, they are required to have official seals.

Officers' signatures.

SEC. 299. PROOF OF EXECUTION, HOW MADE.—Proof of the execution of an instrument, when not acknowledged, may be made either:

Proof of execution.

1. By the party executing it, or either of them; or,

2. By a subscribing witness; or,

3. By other witnesses, in cases mentioned in section 302.

SEC. 300. WITNESS MUST BE PERSONALLY KNOWN TO OFFICER.—If by a subscribing witness, such witness must be personally known to the officer taking the proof to be the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a witness, or must be proved to be such by the oath of a credible witness.

Witness must be personally known to officer.

SEC. 301. WITNESS MUST PROVE, WHAT.—The subscribing witness must prove that the person whose name is subscribed to the instrument as a party is the person described in it, and that such person executed it, and that the witness subscribed his name thereto as a witness.

Witness must prove, what.

Proof by handwriting.

SEC. 302. HANDWRITING MAY BE PROVED, WHEN.—The execution of an instrument may be established by proof of the handwriting of the party and of a subscribing witness, if there is one, in the following cases:

1. When the parties and all the subscribing witnesses are dead; or,
2. When the parties and all the subscribing witnesses are nonresidents of the Canal Zone; or,
3. When the place of their residence is unknown to the party desiring the proof, and can not be ascertained by the exercise of due diligence; or,
4. When the subscribing witness conceals himself, or can not be found by the officer by the exercise of due diligence in attempting to serve the subpoena or attachment; or,
5. In case of the continued failure or refusal of the witness to testify, for the space of one hour, after his appearance.

What handwriting must prove.

SEC. 303. EVIDENCE OF HANDWRITING MUST PROVE, WHAT.—The evidence taken under section 302 must satisfactorily prove to the officer the following facts:

- (1) The existence of one or more of the conditions mentioned therein; and,
- (2) That the witness testifying knew the person whose name purports to be subscribed to the instrument as a party, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
- (3) That the witness testifying personally knew the person who subscribed the instrument as a witness, and is well acquainted with his signature, and that it is genuine; and,
- (4) The place of residence of the witness.

Certificate of proof.

SEC. 304. CERTIFICATE OF PROOF.—An officer taking proof of the execution of any instrument must, in his certificate indorsed thereon or attached thereto, set forth all the matters required by law to be done or known by him, or proved, before him on the proceeding, together with the names of all the witnesses examined before him, their places of residence respectively, and the substance of their testimony.

Authority of officers.

SEC. 305. OFFICERS AUTHORIZED TO DO CERTAIN THINGS.—Officers authorized to take the proof of instruments are authorized in such proceedings:

1. To administer oaths or affirmations;
2. To employ and swear interpreters;
3. To issue subpoenas, as prescribed in section 1156 of the Code of Civil Procedure;
4. To punish for contempt, as prescribed in sections 1160, 1162, and 1163, of the Code of Civil Procedure.

The civil damages and forfeiture to the party aggrieved are prescribed in section 1161 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Correction of improper certificate.

SEC. 306. WHEN INSTRUMENT IS IMPROPERLY CERTIFIED, PARTY MAY HAVE ACTION TO CORRECT ERROR.—When the acknowledgment or proof of the execution of an instrument is properly made, but defectively certified, any party interested may have an action in the district court to obtain a judgment correcting the certificate.

Judgment of proof of an instrument.

SEC. 307. IN CERTAIN CASES, PARTIES INTERESTED MAY OBTAIN JUDGMENT OF PROOF OF AN INSTRUMENT.—Any person interested under an instrument entitled to be proved for record, may institute an action in the district court against the proper parties to obtain a judgment proving such instrument.

Effect.

SEC. 308. EFFECT OF JUDGMENT IN SUCH ACTION.—A certified copy of the judgment in a proceeding instituted under section 306 or section 307, showing the proof of the instrument, and attached thereto, entitled such instrument to record, with like effect as if acknowledged.

SEC. 309. INSTRUMENTS HERETOFORE MADE TO BE GOVERNED BY THEN EXISTING LAWS.—The legality of the execution, acknowledgment, proof, form, or record of any instrument made before this code goes into effect, executed, acknowledged, proved, or recorded is not affected by anything contained in this chapter, but depends for its validity and legality upon the laws in force when the act was performed.

Execution, etc., provisions not retroactive.

SEC. 310. DEEDS, AND SO FORTH, AFFECTING LAND IN DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA OR ANY TERRITORY OF UNITED STATES.—Deeds and other instruments affecting land situate in the District of Columbia or any Territory of the United States may be acknowledged in the Canal Zone before any notary public or judge, appointed therein by proper authority, or by any officer therein who has ex officio the powers of a notary public: Provided, That the certificate by such notary in the Canal Zone shall be accompanied by the certificate of the governor or acting governor to the effect that the notary taking said acknowledgment was in fact the officer he purported to be; and any deeds or other instruments affecting lands so situate, so acknowledged since January 1, 1905, and accompanied by such certificate shall have the same effect as such deeds or other instruments hereafter so acknowledged and certified. (Act Cong. June 28, 1906, c. 3585, 34 Stat. 552.)

Deeds, etc., affecting lands in District of Columbia or Territories.

Will of married woman.

SEC. 314. WHAT MAY PASS BY WILL.—Every interest in property, to which heirs, husband, widow, or next of kin might succeed, may be disposed of by will, except as otherwise provided in sections 417 and 418.

What may pass by will.

SEC. 315. WRITTEN WILL, HOW TO BE EXECUTED.—Every will, other than a nuncupative will, must be in writing; and every will, other than an olographic will, and a nuncupative will, must be executed and attested as follows:

Execution of will.

1. It must be subscribed at the end thereof by the testator himself, or some person in his presence and by his direction must subscribe his name thereto;

2. The subscription must be made in the presence of the attesting witnesses, or be acknowledged by the testator to them to have been made by him or by his authority;

3. The testator must, at the time of subscribing or acknowledging the same, declare to the attesting witnesses that the instrument is his will; and,

4. There must be two attesting witnesses, each of whom must sign the same as a witness, at the end of the will, at the testator's request and in his presence.

"Olographic will," defined.

SEC. 316. DEFINITION OF AN OLOGRAPHIC WILL.—An olographic will is one that is entirely written, dated, and signed by the hand of the testator himself. It is subject to no other form, and may be made in or out of the Canal Zone, and need not be witnessed.

Witness to add residence.

SEC. 317. WITNESS TO ADD RESIDENCE.—A witness to a written will must write, with his name, his place of residence; and a person who subscribes the testator's name, by his direction, must write his own name as a witness to the will. But a violation of this section does not affect the validity of the will.

Mutual will.

SEC. 318. MUTUAL WILL.—A conjoint or mutual will is valid, but it may be revoked by any of the testators in like manner with any other will.

Competency of witness.

SEC. 319. COMPETENCY OF SUBSCRIBING WITNESS.—If the subscribing witnesses to a will are competent at the time of attesting its execution, their subsequent incompetency, from whatever cause it may arise, does not prevent the probate and allowance of the will, if it is otherwise satisfactorily proved.

Gifts to subscribing witness void; creditors competent witnesses.

SEC. 320. GIFTS TO SUBSCRIBING WITNESSES VOID; CREDITORS COMPETENT WITNESSES.—All beneficial legacies and gifts whatever, made or given in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, are void, unless there are two other competent subscribing witnesses to the same; but a mere charge on the estate of the testator for the payment of debts does not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will.

Subscribing witness entitled to his share by succession.

SEC. 321. SUBSCRIBING WITNESS ENTITLED TO HIS SHARE BY SUCCESSION.—If a witness, to whom any beneficial legacy or gift, void by section 320, is made, would have been entitled to any share of the estate of the testator, in case the will should not be established, he succeeds to so much of the share as would be distributed to him, not exceeding the bequest made to him in the will, and he may recover the same of the other legatees named in the will, in proportion to and out of the parts bequeathed to them.

Foreign wills.

SEC. 322. WILL MADE OUT OF THE CANAL ZONE.—A will made out of the Canal Zone which might be proved and allowed by the laws of the state or country in which it was made, may be proved, allowed, and recorded in the Canal Zone, and shall have the same effect as if executed according to the laws of the Zone. ((E. O. Mar. 22, 1907, § 670;) Act Cong. Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, §§ 2, 9, 37 Stat. 561; E. O. Mar. 12, 1914, § 10; Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 3, 42 Stat. 1006.)

SEC. 324. REPUBLICATION BY CODICIL.—The execution of a codicil, referring to a previous will, has the effect to republish the will, as modified by the codicil.

Republishing by codicil.

SEC. 325. NUNCUPATIVE WILL, HOW TO BE EXECUTED.—A nuncupative will is not required to be in writing, nor to be declared or attested with any formalities.

Nuncupative will, how executed.

CROSS REFERENCE

Probating nuncupative wills, see sections 326 and 327.

SEC. 326. REQUISITES OF VALID NUNCUPATIVE WILL.—To make a nuncupative will valid, and to entitle it to be admitted to probate, the following requisites must be observed:

Requisites of.

(1) The estate bequeathed must not exceed in value the sum of $1,000.

(2) It must be proved by two witnesses who were present at the making thereof, one of whom was asked by the testator, at the time, to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect.

(3) The decedent must, at the time, have been in actual military service in the field, or doing duty on shipboard at sea, and in either case in actual contemplation, fear, or peril of death, or the decedent must have been, at the time, in expectation of immediate death from an injury received the same day.

SEC. 327. PROOF OF NUNCUPATIVE WILLS.—No proof must be received of any nuncupative will, unless it is offered within six months after speaking the testamentary words, nor unless the words, or the substance thereof, were reduced to writing within thirty days after they were spoken.

Proof.

SEC. 328. PROBATE OF NUNCUPATIVE WILLS.—No probate of any nuncupative will must be granted for fourteen days after the death of the testator, nor must any nuncupative will be at any time proved, unless the testamentary words, or the substance thereof, be first committed to writing, and process issued to call in the widow, or other persons interested, to contest the probate of such will, if they think proper.

Probate of.

SEC. 329. WRITTEN WILL, HOW REVOKED.—Except in the cases in this chapter mentioned, no written will, nor any part thereof, can be revoked or altered otherwise than:

Revocation.

1. By a written will, or other writing of the testator, declaring such revocation or alteration, and executed with the same formalities with which a will should be executed by such testator; or,

2. By being burned, torn, canceled, obliterated, or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking the same, by the testator himself, or by some person in his presence and by his direction.

SEC. 330. EVIDENCE OF REVOCATION.—When a will is canceled or destroyed by any other person than the testator, the direction of the testator, and the fact of such injury or destruction, must be proved by two witnesses.

Evidence of.

When in duplicate.

SEC. 331. REVOCATION OF DUPLICATE.—The revocation of a will, executed in duplicate, may be made by revoking one of the duplicates.

By subsequent will.

SEC. 332. REVOCATION BY SUBSEQUENT WILL.—A prior will is not revoked by a subsequent will, unless the latter contains an express revocation, or provisions wholly inconsistent with the terms of the former will; but in other cases the prior will remains effectual so far as consistent with the provisions of the subsequent will.

Antecedent not revived by revocation of subsequent will.

SEC. 333. ANTECEDENT NOT REVIVED BY REVOCATION OF SUBSEQUENT WILL.—If, after making a will, the testator duly makes and executes a second will, the destruction, cancellation, or revocation of such second will does not revive the first will, unless it appears by the terms of such revocation that it was the intention to revive and give effect to the first will, or unless, after such destruction, cancellation, or revocation, the first will is duly republished.

By marriage and birth of issue.

SEC. 334. REVOCATION BY MARRIAGE AND BIRTH OF ISSUE.—If, after having made a will, the testator marries, and has issue of such marriage, born either in his lifetime or after his death, and the wife or issue survives him, the will is revoked, unless provision has been made for such issue by some settlement, or unless such issue are provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision; and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of such revocation can be received.

Will as affected by marriage of man.

SEC. 335. EFFECT OF MARRIAGE OF MAN ON HIS WILL.—If, after making a will, the testator marries, and the wife survives the testator, the will is revoked, unless provision has been made for her by marriage contract, or unless she is provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision; and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of revocation can be received.

Of woman.

SEC. 336. EFFECT OF MARRIAGE OF WOMAN ON HER WILL.—If, after making a will, the testatrix marries, and the husband survives the testatrix, the will is revoked, unless provision has been made for him by marriage contract, or unless he is provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision; and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of revocation can be received.

Revocation by marriage and birth of issue.

SEC. 337. REVOCATION BY MARRIAGE AND BIRTH OF ISSUE.—If, after making a will, the testatrix marries, and has issue of said marriage, born either in her lifetime or after her death, and the husband or issue survives her, the will is revoked, unless provision has been made for such issue by some settlement, or unless such issue are provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision; and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of such revocation can be received.

Contract of sale not revocation.

SEC. 338. CONTRACT OF SALE NOT REVOCATION.—An agreement made by a testator, for the sale or transfer of property disposed of by a will previously made, does not revoke such disposal; but the property passes by the will, subject to the same remedies on the testator's agreement, for a specific performance or otherwise against the legatees, as might be had against the testator's successors, if the same had passed by succession.

Mortgage.

SEC. 339. MORTGAGE NOT REVOCATION OF WILL.—A charge or encumbrance upon any estate, for the purpose of securing the payment of money or the performance of any covenant or agreement, is not a revocation of any will relating to the same estate which was previously executed; but the legacies therein contained must pass, subject to such charge or encumbrance.

SEC. 340. TRANSFER, WHEN NOT A REVOCATION.—A transfer, settlement, or other act of a testator, by which his interest in a thing previously disposed of by his will is altered, but not wholly divested, is not a revocation; but the will passes the property which would otherwise devolve by succession.

Transfer, when not a revocation.

Revocation, see sections 341 and 342.

When a revocation.

SEC. 341. WHEN IT IS A REVOCATION.—If the instrument by which an alteration is made in the testator's interest in a thing previously disposed of by his will expresses his intent that it shall be a revocation, or if it contains provisions wholly inconsistent with the terms and nature of the testamentary disposition, it operates as a revocation thereof, unless such inconsistent provisions depend on a condition or contingency by reason of which they do not take effect.

SEC. 342. REVOCATION OF CODICILS.—The revocation of a will revokes all its codicils.

Revocation of codicils.

SEC. 343. APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS AS TO REVOCATIONS.—The provisions of this chapter in relation to the revocation of wills apply to all wills made by any testator living at the expiration of one year from the time it takes effect.

Application of provisions as to revocations.

SEC. 344. AFTER-BORN CHILD, UNPROVIDED FOR, TO SUCCEED.—Whenever a testator has a child born after the making of his will, either in his lifetime or after his death, and dies leaving such child unprovided for by any settlement, and neither provided for nor in any way mentioned in his will, the child succeeds to the same portion of the testator's property that he would have succeeded to if the testator had died intestate.

SEC. 345. CHILDREN OR ISSUE OF CHILDREN OF TESTATOR UNPROVIDED FOR BY HIS WILL.—When any testator omits to provide in his will for any of his children, or for the issue of any deceased child, unless it appears that such omission was intentional, such child, or the issue of such child, has the same share in the estate of the testator as if he had died intestate, and succeeds thereto as provided in section 344.

Children, etc., unprovided for.

SEC. 346. SHARE OF AFTER-BORN CHILD, OUT OF WHAT PART OF ESTATE TO BE PAID.—When any share of the estate of a testator is assigned to a child born after the making of a will, or to a child, or the issue of a child, omitted in the will, as hereinbefore mentioned, the same must first be taken from the estate not disposed of by the will, if any; if that is not sufficient, so much as may be necessary must be taken from all the legatees, in proportion to the value they may respectively receive under the will, unless the obvious intention of the testator in relation to some specific bequest, or other provision in the will, would thereby be defeated; in such case, such specific legacy or provision may be exempted from such apportionment, and a different apportionment, consistent with the intention of the testator, may be adopted.

After-born children, etc., payment of share.

SEC. 347. ADVANCEMENT DURING LIFETIME OF TESTATOR.—If such children, or their descendants, so unprovided for, had an equal proportion of the testator's estate bestowed on them in the testator's lifetime, by way of advancement, they take nothing in virtue of the provisions of sections 344 to 346.

Effect of advancements to.

SEC. 353. RULES OF INTERPRETATION.—In interpreting a will, subject to the law of the Canal Zone, the rules prescribed by the following sections of this chapter are to be observed, unless an intention to the contrary clearly appears.

Rules of interpretation.

SEC. 354. SEVERAL INSTRUMENTS ARE TO BE TAKEN TOGETHER.—Several testamentary instruments, executed by the same testator, are to be taken and construed together as one instrument.

Several instruments construed as one.

SEC. 355. HARMONIZING VARIOUS PARTS.—All the parts of a will are to be construed in relation to each other, and so as, if possible, to form one consistent whole; but where several parts are absolutely irreconcilable the latter must prevail.

Harmonizing various parts.

SEC. 356. IN WHAT CASE BEQUEST NOT AFFECTED.—A clear and distinct bequest can not be affected by an <sup>1</sup> reasons assigned therefor, or by any other words not equally clear and distinct, or by inference or argument from other parts of the will, or by an inaccurate recital of or reference to its contents in another part of the will.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO WILLS.

CHAPTER 25.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO WILLS

Nature and designation of legacies.

SEC. 384. NATURE AND DESIGNATION OF LEGACIES.—Legacies are distinguished and designated, according to their nature, as follows:

Specific.

1. A legacy of a particular thing, specified and distinguished from all others of the same kind belonging to the testator, is specific; if such legacy fails, resort can not be had to the other property of the testator;

Demonstrative.

2. A legacy is demonstrative when the particular fund or personal property is pointed out from which it is to be taken or paid; if such fund or property fails, in whole or in part, resort may be had to the general assets, as in case of a general legacy;

Annuity.

3. An annuity is a bequest of certain specified sums periodically; if the fund or property out of which they are payable fails, resort may be had to the general assets, as in case of a general legacy;

Residuary.

4. A residuary legacy embraces only that which remains after all the bequests of the will are discharged;

General.

5. All other legacies are general legacies.

Order of resort to estate for debts.

SEC. 385. ORDER OF RESORT TO ESTATE FOR DEBTS.—The property of a testator, except as otherwise specially provided in this code and the Code of Civil Procedure, must be resorted to for the payment of debts, in the following order:

(1) The property which is expressly appropriated by the will for the payment of the debts;

(2) Property not disposed of by the will;

(3) Property which is devised or bequeathed to a residuary legatee;

(4) Property which is not specifically devised or bequeathed; and,

(5) All other property ratably. Before any debts are paid, the expenses of the administration and the allowance to the family must be paid or provided for.

Legacies.

SEC. 386. SAME FOR LEGACIES.—The property of a testator, except as otherwise specially provided in this code and the Code of Civil Procedure, must be resorted to for the payment of legacies, in the following order:

(1) The property which is expressly appropriated by the will for the payment of the legacies.

(2) Property not disposed of by the will.

(3) Property which is devised or bequeathed to a residuary legatee.

(4) Property which is specifically devised or bequeathed.

Legacies, how charged with debts.

SEC. 387. LEGACIES, HOW CHARGED WITH DEBTS.—Legacies to husband, widow, or kindred of any class are chargeable only after legacies to persons not related to the testator.

Abatement.

SEC. 388. ABATEMENT.—Abatement takes place in any class only as between legacies of that class, unless a different intention is expressed in the will.

Specific legacies.

SEC. 389. SPECIFIC LEGACIES.—In a specific legacy, the title passes by the will, but possession can only be obtained from the personal representative; and he may be authorized by the district court to sell the property devised and bequeathed in the cases herein provided.

SUCCESSION.

CHAPTER 26.—SUCCESSION

Defined.

SEC. 400. SUCCESSION DEFINED.—Succession is the coming in of another to take the property of one who dies without disposing of it by will.

Intestate's estate, to whom passes.

SEC. 401. INTESTATE'S ESTATE, TO WHOM PASSES.—The property of one who dies without disposing of it by will, passes to the heirs of the intestate, subject to the control of the district court, and to the possession of any administrator appointed by that court, for the purposes of administration.

Succession to and distribution of estate of deceased person.

SEC. 402. SUCCESSION TO AND DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATE OF DECEASED PERSON.—When any person having title to any estate not otherwise limited by marriage contract, dies without disposing thereof by will, it is succeeded to and must be distributed, unless otherwise expressly provided in this code and the Code of Civil Procedure, subject to the payment of his debts, in the following manner:

When husband or wife and issue survive.

1. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and only one child, or the lawful issue of one child, in equal shares to the surviving husband, or wife and child, or issue of such child. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, one third to the surviving husband or wife, and the remainder in equal shares to his children and to the lawful issue of any deceased child, by right of representation; but if there is no child of decedent living at his death, the remainder goes to all of his lineal descendants; and if all of the descendants are in the same degree of kindred to the decedent, they share equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation. If the decedent leaves no surviving husband or wife, but leaves issue, the whole estate goes to such issue; and if such issue consists of more than one child living, or one child living and the lawful issue of one or more deceased children, then the estate goes in equal shares to the children living, or to the child living and the issue of the deceased child or children by right of representation;

Surviving husband or wife but no issue.

2. If the decedent leaves no issue, the estate goes one half to the surviving husband or wife, and the other half to the decedent's father and mother in equal shares, and if either is dead the whole of said half goes to the other. If there is no father or mother, then one half goes in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of decedent and to the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation. If the decedent leaves no issue, nor husband nor wife, the estate must go to his father and mother in equal shares, or if either is dead then to the other;

When property goes to brothers, sisters, etc.

3. If there is neither issue, husband, wife, father, nor mother then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of decedent and to the children or grandchildren of any deceased brother or sister, by right of representation;

When whole estate to husband or wife.

4. If the decedent leaves a surviving husband or wife, and neither issue, father, mother, brother, sister, nor the children or grandchildren of a deceased brother or sister, the whole estate goes to the surviving husband or wife;

Next of kin.

5. If the decedent leaves neither issue, husband, wife, father, mother, brother, nor sister, the estate must go to the next of kin, in equal degree, excepting that, when there are two or more collateral kindred, in equal degree, but claiming through different ancestors, those who claim through the nearest ancestor must be preferred to those claiming through an ancestor more remote;

Interest of unmarried minor child, deceased.

6. If the decedent leaves several children, or one child and the issue of one or more children, and any such surviving child dies under age and not having been married, all the estate that came to the deceased child by inheritance from such decedent descends in equal shares to the other children of the same parent and to the issue of any such other children who are dead by right of representation;

7. If, at the death of such child, who dies under age, not having been married, all the other children of his parents are also dead, and any of them has left issue, the estate that came to such child by inheritance from his parent descends to the issue of all other children of the same parent; and if all the issue are in the same degree of kindred to the child, they share the estate equally, otherwise they take according to the right of representation;

When all other children dead.

8. If the deceased is a widow, or widower, and leaves no issue, and the estate, or any portion thereof, was common property of such decedent and his or her deceased spouse, while such spouse was living, such property goes in equal shares to the children of such deceased spouse and to the descendants of such children by right of representation, and if none, then one half of such common property goes to the father and mother of such decedent in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such decedent and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation, and the other half goes to the father and mother of such deceased spouse in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such deceased spouse and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

Distribution when deceased a widow or widower.

If the estate, or any portion thereof, was separate property of such deceased spouse, while living, and came to such decedent from such spouse by descent or bequest, such property goes in equal shares to the children of such spouse and to the descendants of any deceased child by right of representation, and if none, then to the father and mother of such spouse, in equal shares, or to the survivor of them if either be dead, or if both be dead, then in equal shares to the brothers and sisters of such spouse and to the descendants of any deceased brother or sister by right of representation.

When estate separate property of deceased spouse.

Escheat, when no heirs.

SEC. 403. ILLEGITIMATE CHILDREN TO INHERIT IN CERTAIN EVENTS.— Every illegitimate child is an heir of the person who, in writing, signed in the presence of a competent witness, acknowledges himself to be the father of such child; and in all cases is an heir of his mother; and inherits his or her estate, in whole or in part, as the case may be, in the same manner as if he had been born in lawful wedlock, but he does not represent his father or mother by inheriting any part of the estate of his or her kindred, either lineal or collateral, unless, before his death, his parents shall have intermarried, and his father, after such marriage, acknowledges him as his child, or adopts him into his family; in which case such child and all the legitimate children are considered brothers and sisters, and on the death of either of them, intestate, and without issue, the others inherit his estate, and are heirs, as hereinbefore provided, in like manner as if all the children had been legitimate; saving to the father and mother, respectively, their rights in the estates of all the children in like manner as if all had been legitimate. The issue of all marriages null in law, or dissolved by divorce, are legitimate.

SEC. 404. SUCCESSION TO ILLEGITIMATE CHILD.—The estate of an illegitimate child, who, having title to any estate not otherwise limited by marriage contract, dies without disposing thereof by will, is succeeded to as if he had been born in lawful wedlock if he has been legitimated by a subsequent marriage of his parents, or adopted by his father as provided by section 164; otherwise, it is succeeded to as if he had been born in lawful wedlock and had survived his father and all persons related to him only through his father.

Computation of degrees of kindred.

SEC. 405. DEGREES OF KINDRED, HOW COMPUTED.—The degree of kindred is established by the number of generations, and each generation is called a degree.

Direct and collateral consanguinity.

SEC. 406. SAME; DIRECT AND COLLATERAL CONSANGUINITY.—The series of degrees forms the line; the series of degrees between persons who descend from one another is called direct or lineal consanguinity; and the series of degrees between persons who do not descend from one another, but spring from a common ancestor, is called the collateral line or collateral consanguinity.

Direct, descending and ascending.

SEC. 407. SAME; DIRECT LINE DESCENDING, AND DIRECT LINE ASCENDING.—The direct line is divided into a direct line descending and a direct line ascending. The first is that which connects the ancestors with those who descend from him. The second is that which connects a person with those from whom he descends.

Degrees in.

SEC. 408. SAME; DEGREES IN DIRECT LINE.—In the direct line there are as many degrees as there are generations. Thus, the son is, with regard to the father, in the first degree; the grandson in the second; and vice versa with regard to the father and grandfather toward the sons and grandsons.

Degrees in collateral line.

SEC. 409. SAME; DEGREES IN COLLATERAL LINE.—In the collateral line the degrees are counted by generations, from one of the relations up to the common ancestor, and from the common ancestor to the other relations. In such computation the decedent is excluded, the relative included, and the ancestor counted but once. Thus, brothers are related in the second degree; uncle and nephew in the third degree; cousins german in the fourth, and so on.

Relatives of the half blood.

SEC. 410. RELATIVES OF THE HALF BLOOD.—Kindred of the half blood inherit equally with those of the whole blood in the same degree, unless the inheritance come to the intestate by descent or gift of some one of his ancestors, in which case all those who are not of the blood of such ancestors must be excluded from such inheritance.

Advancements constitute part of distributive share.

SEC. 411. ADVANCEMENTS CONSTITUTE PART OF DISTRIBUTIVE SHARE.—Any estate given by the decedent in his lifetime as an advancement to any child, or other heir, is a part of the estate of the decedent for the purposes of division and distribution thereof among his heirs, and must be taken by such child, or other heir, toward his share of the estate of the decedent.

Advancements, sufficiency.

SEC. 412. ADVANCEMENTS, WHEN TOO MUCH, OR NOT ENOUGH.—If the amount of such advancement exceeds the share of the heir receiving the same, he must be excluded from any further portion in the division and distribution of the estate, but he must not be required to refund any part of such advancement; and if the amount so received is less than his share, he is entitled to so much more as will give him his full share of the estate of the decedent.

SEC. 413. WHAT ARE ADVANCEMENTS.—All gifts and grants are made as advancements, if expressed in the gift or grant to be so made, or if charged in writing by the decedent as an advancement, or acknowledged in writing as such, by the child or other successor or heir.

What are.

SEC. 414. VALUE OF ADVANCEMENTS, HOW DETERMINED.—If the value of the estate so advanced is expressed in the grant, or in the charge thereof made by the decedent, or in the acknowledgment of the party receiving it, it must be held as of that value in the division and distribution of the estate; otherwise, it must be estimated according to its value when given, as nearly as the same can be ascertained.

Value of, how determined.

SEC. 415. WHEN HEIR, ADVANCED TO, DIES BEFORE DECEDENT.—If any child, or other heir receiving advancement, dies before the decedent, leaving heirs, the advancement must be taken into consideration in the division and distribution of the estate, and the amount thereof must be allowed accordingly by the representatives of the heirs receiving the advancement, in like manner as if the advancement had been made directly to them.

When heir, advanced to, predeceases decedent.

SEC. 416. INHERITANCE OF HUSBAND AND WIFE FROM EACH OTHER.—The provisions of the preceding sections of this chapter, as to the inheritance of the husband and wife from each other, apply only to the separate property of the decedents.

Inheritance of husband and wife from each other.

SEC. 417. COMMUNITY PROPERTY ON DEATH OF SPOUSE.—Upon the death of either husband or wife, one half of the community property belongs to the surviving spouse; the other half is subject to the testamentary disposition of the decedent, and in the absence thereof goes to the surviving spouse, subject to the provisions of section 418.

Community property on death of spouse.

SEC. 418. COMMUNITY PROPERTY SUBJECT TO ADMINISTRATION; EXCEPTION; HUSBAND'S CONTROL AFTER DEATH OF WIFE.—Community property passing from the control of the husband by reason of his death is subject to administration, his debts, family allowance, and the charges and expenses of administration: Provided, however, That the clothing of the decedent and the household effects not exceeding in value $2,500 shall go to the surviving wife without administration, and shall not be subject to the debts and allowance aforesaid.

Subject to administration.

Proviso. Clothing, household effects, etc.

Community property passing from the control of the husband by virtue of testamentary disposition by the wife is subject to administration, his debts, and the charges and expenses of administration, but the husband, pending administration, shall retain the same power to sell, manage and deal with the community personal property as he had in her lifetime; and his possession and control of the community property shall not be transferred to the personal representative of the wife, except to the extent necessary to carry her will into effect.

PERSON CONVICTED OF MURDER OF DECEDENT NOT TO SUCCEED.—No person who has been convicted of the murder of the decedent shall be entitled to succeed to any portion of his estate; but the portion thereof to which he would otherwise be entitled to succeed descends to the other persons entitled thereto under the provisions of this chapter.

OBLIGATIONS IN GENERAL.

CHAPTER 27.—OBLIGATIONS IN GENERAL

DEFINITION OF OBLIGATIONS

Definition. SEC. 424. OBLIGATION, WHAT.—An obligation is a legal duty, by which a person is bound to do or not to do a certain thing.

How created and enforced. SEC. 425. HOW CREATED AND ENFORCED.—An obligation arises either from:

- (1) The contract of the parties; or,
- (2) The operation of law. An obligation arising from operation of law may be enforced in the manner provided by law, or by civil action or proceeding.

Interpretation of obligations.

INTERPRETATION OF OBLIGATIONS

GENERAL RULES OF INTERPRETATION

General rules.
Post, p. 1197.

SEC. 426. GENERAL RULES.—The rules which govern the interpretation of contracts are prescribed by chapter 30 of this code. Other obligations are interpreted by the same rules by which statutes of a similar nature are interpreted.

JOINT OR SEVERAL OBLIGATIONS

Joint, several, etc.

SEC. 427. OBLIGATIONS, JOINT OR SEVERAL, ETC.—An obligation imposed upon several persons, or a right created in favor of several persons, may be:

1. Joint;
2. Several; or,
3. Joint and several.

Joint.

SEC. 428. WHEN JOINT.—An obligation imposed upon several persons, or a right created in favor of several persons, is presumed to be joint, and not several, except in the special cases mentioned in the chapter on the interpretation of contracts. This presumption, in the case of a right, can be overcome only by express words to the contrary.

Conditions involving forfeiture.

SEC. 438. CONDITIONS INVOLVING FORFEITURE, HOW CONSTRUED.—A condition involving a forfeiture must be strictly interpreted against the party for whose benefit it is created.

Alternative obligations.

ALTERNATIVE OBLIGATIONS

Right of selection.

SEC. 439. WHO HAS THE RIGHT OF SELECTION.—If an obligation requires the performance of one of two acts, in the alternative, the party required to perform has the right of selection, unless it is otherwise provided by the terms of the obligation.

How lost.

SEC. 440. RIGHT OF SELECTION, HOW LOST.—If the party having the right of selection between alternative acts does not give notice of his selection to the other party within the time, if any, fixed by the obligation for that purpose, or, if none is so fixed, before the time at which the obligation ought to be performed, the right of selection passes to the other party.

Alternatives indivisible.

SEC. 441. ALTERNATIVES INDIVISIBLE.—The party having the right of selection between alternative acts must select one of them in its entirety, and can not select part of one and part of another without the consent of the other party.

When one alternative void.

SEC. 442. NULLITY OF ONE OR MORE OF ALTERNATIVE OBLIGATIONS.—If one of the alternative acts required by an obligation is such as the law will not enforce, or becomes unlawful, or impossible of performance, the obligation is to be interpreted as though the other stood alone.

Transfer of obligations.

TRANSFER OF OBLIGATIONS

Burden of obligation not transferable.

SEC. 443. BURDEN OF OBLIGATION NOT TRANSFERABLE.—The burden of an obligation may be transferred with the consent of the party entitled to its benefit, but not otherwise.

Rights arising out of, transferable.

SEC. 444. RIGHTS ARISING OUT OF OBLIGATION TRANSFERABLE.—A right arising out of an obligation is the property of the person to whom it is due, and may be transferred as such.

SEC. 449. EFFECT OF DIRECTIONS BY CREDITORS.—If a creditor, or any one of two or more joint creditors, at any time directs the debtor to perform his obligation in a particular manner, the obligation is extinguished by performance in that manner, even though the creditor does not receive the benefit of such performance. Effect of directions by creditors.

SEC. 450. PARTIAL PERFORMANCE.—A partial performance of an indivisible obligation extinguishes a corresponding proportion thereof if the benefit of such performance is voluntarily retained by the creditor, but not otherwise. If such partial performance is of such a nature that the creditor can not avoid retaining it without injuring his own property, his retention thereof is not presumed to be voluntary. Part performance.

ance, in whole or in part, which is equally applicable to two or more of such obligations, such performance must be applied as follows:

(1) If, at the time of performance, the intention or desire of the debtor that such performance should be applied to the extinction of any particular obligation, be manifested to the creditor, it must be so applied.

(2) If no such application be then made, the creditor, within a reasonable time after such performance, may apply it toward the extinction of any obligation, performance of which was due to him from the debtor at the time of such performance; except that if similar obligations were due to him both individually and as a trustee, he must, unless otherwise directed by the debtor, apply the performance to the extinction of all such obligations in equal proportion; and an application once made by the creditor can not be rescinded without the consent of the debtor.

(3) If neither party makes such application within the time prescribed herein, the performance must be applied to the extinction of obligations in the following order; and, if there be more than one obligation of a particular class, to the extinction of all in that class, ratably:

1. Of interest due at the time of the performance.
2. Of principal due at that time.
3. Of the obligation earliest in date of maturity.
4. Of an obligation not secured by a lien or collateral undertaking.
5. Of an obligation secured by a lien or collateral undertaking.

SEC. 457. WHERE OFFER MAY BE MADE.—In the absence of an express provision to the contrary, an offer of performance may be made, at the option of the debtor:

Where offer may be made.

1. At any place appointed by the creditor; or,
2. Wherever the person to whom the offer ought to be made can be found; or,
3. If such person can not with reasonable diligence, be found within the Canal Zone, and within a reasonable distance from his residence or place of business, of<sup>1</sup> if he evades the debtor, then at his residence or place of business, if the same can, with reasonable diligence, be found within the Canal Zone; or
4. If this can not be done, then at any place within the Canal Zone.

SEC. 458. WHEN OFFER MUST BE MADE.—Where an obligation fixes a time for its performance, an offer of performance must be made at that time, within reasonable hours, and not before nor afterwards.

When offer must be made.

SEC. 459. SAME.—Where an obligation does not fix the time for its performance, an offer of performance may be made at any time before the debtor, upon a reasonable demand, has refused to perform.

SEC. 460. COMPENSATION AFTER DELAY IN PERFORMANCE.—Where delay in performance is capable of exact and entire compensation, and time has not been expressly declared to be of the essence of the obligation, an offer of performance, accompanied with an offer of such compensation, may be made at any time after it is due, but without prejudice to any rights acquired by the creditor, or by any other person, in the meantime.

Compensation after delay in performance.

SEC. 461. OFFER TO BE MADE IN GOOD FAITH.—An offer of performance must be made in good faith, and in such manner as is most likely, under the circumstances, to benefit the creditor.

Offer to be made in good faith.

SEC. 462. CONDITIONAL OFFER.—An offer of performance must be free from any conditions which the creditor is not bound, on his part, to perform.

Conditional offer.

Objection to mode of offer.

SEC. 469. OBJECTIONS TO MODE OF OFFER.—All objections to the mode of an offer of performance, which the creditor has an opportunity to state at the time to the person making the offer, and which could be then obviated by him, are waived by the creditor, if not then stated.

Title to thing offered.

SEC. 470. TITLE TO THING OFFERED.—The title to a thing duly offered in performance of an obligation passes to the creditor, if the debtor at the time signifies his intention to that effect.

Custody of.

SEC. 471. CUSTODY OF THING OFFERED.—The person offering a thing, other than money, by way of performance, must, if he means to treat it as belonging to the creditor, retain it as a depositary for hire, until the creditor accepts it, or until he has given reasonable notice to the creditor that he will retain it no longer, and, if with reasonable diligence he can find a suitable depositary therefor, until he has deposited it with such person.

Prevention of performance or offer.

PREVENTION OF PERFORMANCE OR OFFER

What excuses performance, etc.

SEC. 474. WHAT EXCUSES PERFORMANCE, ETC.—The want of performance of an obligation, or of an offer of performance, in whole or in part, or any delay therein, is excused by the following causes, to the extent to which they operate:

1. When such performance or offer is prevented or delayed by the act of the creditor, or by the operation of law, even though there may have been a stipulation that this shall not be an excuse;

2. When it is prevented or delayed by an irresistible, super-human cause, or by the act of public enemies of the United States, unless the parties have expressly agreed to the contrary; or,

3. When the debtor is induced not to make it, by any act of the creditor intended or naturally tending to have that effect, done at or before the time at which such performance or offer may be made, and not rescinded before that time.

CROSS REFERENCE

Excuse of performance, see section 436.

Ante, p. 1184.

SEC. 475. EFFECT OF PREVENTION OF PERFORMANCE.—If the performance of an obligation be prevented by the creditor, the debtor is entitled to all the benefits which he would have obtained if it had been performed by both parties.

Effect of prevention of performance.

SEC. 476. SAME.—If performance of an obligation is prevented by any cause excusing performance, other than the act of the creditor, the debtor is entitled to a ratable proportion of the consideration to which he would have been entitled upon full performance, according to the benefit which the creditor receives from the actual performance.

SEC. 477. EFFECT OF REFUSAL TO ACCEPT PERFORMANCE BEFORE OFFER.—A refusal by a creditor to accept performance, made before an offer thereof, is equivalent to an offer and refusal, unless, before performance is actually due, he gives notice to the debtor of his willingness to accept it.

Refusal to accept, before offer.

Post, p. 1191. Right to sue on contract made for one's benefit, see section 494.

Modes of. SEC. 483. MODES OF NOVATION.—Novation is made:

1. By the substitution of a new obligation between the same parties, with intent to extinguish the old obligation;

2. By the substitution of a new debtor in place of the old one, with intent to release the latter; or,

3. By the substitution of a new creditor in place of the old one, with intent to transfer the rights of the latter to the former.

Novation a contract. SEC. 484. NOVATION A CONTRACT.—Novation is made by contract, and is subject to all the rules concerning contracts in general.

Rescission of. SEC. 485. RESCISSION OF NOVATION.—When the obligation of a third person, or an order upon such person is accepted in satisfaction, the creditor may rescind such acceptance if the debtor prevents such person from complying with the order, or from fulfilling the obligation; or if, at the time the obligation or order is received, such person is insolvent, and this fact is unknown to the creditor, or if, before the creditor can with reasonable diligence present the order to the person upon whom it is given, he becomes insolvent.

Release.

RELEASE

SEC. 502. ACTUAL FRAUD, WHAT.—Actual fraud, within the meaning of this subchapter, consists in any of the following acts, committed by a party to the contract, or with his connivance, with intent to deceive another party thereto, or to induce him to enter into the contract:

1. The suggestion, as a fact, of that which is not true, by one who does not believe it to be true;
2. The positive assertion, in a manner not warranted by the information of the person making it, of that which is not true, though he believes it to be true;
3. The suppression of that which is true, by one having knowledge or belief of the fact;
4. A promise made without any intention of performing it; or,
5. Any other act fitted to deceive.

- Mode of communicating acceptance.      SEC. 512. MODE OF COMMUNICATING ACCEPTANCE OF PROPOSAL.—If a proposal prescribes any conditions concerning the communication of its acceptance, the proposer is not bound unless they are conformed to; but in other cases any reasonable and usual mode may be adopted.
- When communication deemed complete.      SEC. 513. WHEN COMMUNICATION DEEMED COMPLETE.—Consent is deemed to be fully communicated between the parties as soon as the party accepting a proposal has put his acceptance in the course of transmission to the proposer, in conformity to section 512.
- Acceptance by performance.      SEC. 514. ACCEPTANCE BY PERFORMANCE OF CONDITIONS.—Performance of the conditions of a proposal, or the acceptance of the consideration offered with a proposal, is an acceptance of the proposal.
- Acceptance must be absolute.      SEC. 515. ACCEPTANCE MUST BE ABSOLUTE.—An acceptance must be absolute and unqualified, or must include in itself an acceptance of that character which the proposer can separate from the rest, and which will conclude the person accepting. A qualified acceptance is a new proposal.
- Revocation of proposal.      SEC. 516. REVOCATION OF PROPOSAL.—A proposal may be revoked at any time before its acceptance is communicated to the proposer, but not afterwards.
- How made.      SEC. 517. REVOCATION, HOW MADE.—A proposal is revoked:
  1. By communication of notice of revocation by the proposer to the other party, in the manner prescribed by sections 511 and 513, before his acceptance has been communicated to the former;
  2. By the lapse of the time prescribed in such proposal for its acceptance, or if no time is so prescribed, the lapse of a reasonable time without communication of the acceptance;
  3. By the failure of the acceptor to fulfill a condition precedent to acceptance; or,
  4. By the death or insanity of the proposer.
- Ratification of contract void for want of consent.      SEC. 518. RATIFICATION OF CONTRACT VOID FOR WANT OF CONSENT.—A contract which is voidable solely for want of due consent, may be ratified by a subsequent consent.
- Assumption of obligation by acceptance of benefits.      SEC. 519. ASSUMPTION OF OBLIGATION BY ACCEPTANCE OF BENEFITS.—A voluntary acceptance of the benefit of a transaction is equivalent to a consent to all the obligations arising from it, so far as the facts are known, or ought to be known, to the person accepting.

CONSIDERATION

Consideration.

SEC. 525. GOOD CONSIDERATION, WHAT.—Any benefit conferred, or agreed to be conferred, upon the promisor, by any other person, to which the promisor is not lawfully entitled, or any prejudice suffered, or agreed to be suffered, by such person, other than such as he is at the time of consent lawfully bound to suffer, as an inducement to the promisor, is a good consideration for a promise.

Good consideration.

SEC. 526. HOW FAR LEGAL OR MORAL OBLIGATION IS A GOOD CONSIDERATION.—An existing legal obligation resting upon the promisor, or a moral obligation originating in some benefit conferred upon the promisor, or prejudice suffered by the promisee, is also a good consideration for a promise, to an extent corresponding with the extent of the obligation, but no further or otherwise.

Legal or moral obligation as good consideration.

SEC. 527. CONSIDERATION LAWFUL.—The consideration of a contract must be lawful within the meaning of section 572.

Unlawful consideration.

- Consideration executed or executory. SEC. 529. CONSIDERATION EXECUTED OR EXECUTORY.—A consideration may be executed or executory, in whole or in part. In so far as it is executory it is subject to the provisions of sections 520 to 524.
- Executory. SEC. 530. EXECUTORY CONSIDERATION.—When a consideration is executory, it is not indispensable that the contract should specify its amount or the means of ascertaining it. It may be left to the decision of a third person, or regulated by any specified standard.
- How ascertained. SEC. 531. HOW ASCERTAINED.—When a contract does not determine the amount of the consideration, nor the method by which it is to be ascertained, or when it leaves the amount thereof to the discretion of an interested party, the consideration must be so much money as the object of the contract is reasonably worth.
- Effect of impossibility of ascertaining consideration. SEC. 532. EFFECT OF IMPOSSIBILITY OF ASCERTAINING CONSIDERATION.—Where a contract provides an exclusive method by which its consideration is to be ascertained, which method is on its face impossible of execution, the entire contract is void.
- SEC. 533. SAME.—Where a contract provides an exclusive method by which its consideration is to be ascertained, which method appears possible on its face, but in fact is, or becomes, impossible of execution, such provision only is void.

required by law to be in writing, is prevented from being put into writing by the fraud of a party thereto, any other party who is by such fraud led to believe that it is in writing, and acts upon such belief to his prejudice, may enforce it against the fraudulent party.

SEC. 541. WHAT CONTRACTS MUST BE WRITTEN.—The following contracts are invalid, unless the same, or some note or memorandum thereof, is in writing and subscribed to by the party to be charged, or by his agent:

Written contracts.

1. An agreement that by its terms is not to be performed within a year from the making thereof;

2. A special promise to answer for the debt, default, or miscarriage of another, except in the cases provided for in section 1265;

Post, p. 1261.

3. An agreement made upon consideration of marriage other than a mutual promise to marry;

4. An agreement for the leasing of real property for a longer period than one year, and such agreement, if made by an agent of the party sought to be charged, is invalid, unless the authority of the agent is in writing, subscribed by the party sought to be charged;

5. An agreement authorizing or employing an agent or broker to purchase or sell real estate for compensation or a commission;

6. An agreement which by its terms is not to be performed during the lifetime of the promisor, or an agreement to bequeath any property, or make any provision for any person by will.

SEC. 553. SEVERAL CONTRACTS, WHEN TAKEN TOGETHER.—Several contracts relating to the same matters, between the same parties, and made as parts of substantially one transaction, are to be taken together.

Interpretation in favor of contract.

SEC. 554. INTERPRETATION IN FAVOR OF CONTRACT.—A contract must receive such an interpretation as will make it lawful, operative, definite, reasonable, and capable of being carried into effect, if it can be done without violating the intention of the parties.

Words to be understood in usual sense.

SEC. 555. WORDS TO BE UNDERSTOOD IN THE USUAL SENSE.—The words of a contract are to be understood in their ordinary and popular sense, rather than according to their strict legal meaning; unless used by the parties in a technical sense, or unless a special meaning is given to them by usage, in which case the latter must be followed.

Technical words.

SEC. 556. TECHNICAL WORDS.—Technical words are to be interpreted as usually understood by persons in the profession or business to which they relate, unless clearly used in a different sense.

SEC. 557. LAW OF PLACE.—A contract is to be interpreted according to the law and usage of the place where it is to be performed; or, if it does not indicate a place of performance, according to the law and usage of the place where it is made.

Law of place.

SEC. 558. CONTRACTS EXPLAINED BY CIRCUMSTANCES.—A contract may be explained by reference to the circumstances under which it was made, and the matter to which it relates.

Contracts explained by circumstances.

SEC. 559. CONTRACT RESTRICTED TO ITS EVIDENT OBJECT.—However broad may be the terms of a contract, it extends only to those things concerning which it appears that the parties intended to contract.

Contract restricted to object.

SEC. 560. INTERPRETATION IN SENSE IN WHICH PROMISOR BELIEVED PROMISEE TO RELY.—If the terms of a promise are in any respect ambiguous or uncertain, it must be interpreted in the sense in which the promisor believed, at the time of making it, that the promisee understood it.

SEC. 562. CONTRACT, PARTLY WRITTEN AND PARTLY PRINTED.—Where a contract is partly written and partly printed, or where part of it is written or printed under the special directions of the parties, and with a special view to their intention, and the remainder is copied from a form originally prepared without special reference to the particular parties and the particular contract in question, the written parts control the printed parts, and the parts which are purely original control those which are copied from a form. And if the two are absolutely repugnant, the latter must be so far disregarded.

Writing to govern print.

SEC. 563. REPUGNANCES, HOW RECONCILED.—Repugnancy in a contract must be reconciled, if possible, by such an interpretation as will give some effect to the repugnant clauses, subordinate to the general intent and purpose of the whole contract.

Repugnances, how reconciled.

SEC. 565. WORDS TO BE TAKEN MOST STRONGLY AGAINST WHOM.—In cases of uncertainty not removed by the preceding rules, the language of a contract should be interpreted most strongly against the party who caused the uncertainty to exist. The promisor is presumed to be such party; except in a contract between a public officer or body, as such, and a private party, in which it is presumed that all uncertainty was caused by the private party.

Against whom words are to be taken most strongly.

When party may rescind.

1. If the consent of the party rescinding, or of any party jointly contracting with him, was given by mistake, or obtained through duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence, exercised by or with the connivance of the party as to whom he rescinds, or of any other party to the contract jointly interested with such party;

2. If, through the fault of the party as to whom he rescinds, the consideration for his obligation fails, in whole or in part;
3. If such consideration becomes entirely void from any cause;
4. If such consideration, before it is rendered to him, fails in a material respect, from any cause; or,
5. By consent of all the other parties.

SEC. 582. WHEN STIPULATIONS AGAINST RIGHT TO RESCIND DO NOT DEFEAT IT.—A stipulation that errors of description shall not avoid a contract, or shall be the subject of compensation, or both, does not take away the right of rescission for fraud, nor for mistake, where such mistake is in a matter essential to the inducement of the contract, and is not capable of exact and entire compensation.

Rescission, how effected.

SEC. 583. RESCISSION, HOW EFFECTED.—Rescission, when not effected by consent, can be accomplished only by the use, on the part of the party rescinding, of reasonable diligence to comply with the following rules:

1. He must rescind promptly, upon discovering the facts which entitle him to rescind, if he is free from duress, menace, undue influence, or disability, and is aware of his right to rescind; and,

2. He must restore to the other party everything of value which he has received from him under the contract; or must offer to restore the same, upon condition that such party shall do likewise, unless the latter is unable or positively refuses to do so.

SEC. 593. RESTORATION OF THING WRONGFULLY ACQUIRED.—One who obtains a thing without the consent of its owner, or by a consent afterwards rescinded, or by an unlawful exaction which the owner could not at the time prudently refuse, must restore it to the person from whom it was thus obtained, unless he has acquired a title thereto superior to that of such other person, or unless the transaction was corrupt and unlawful on both sides.

Restoration of thing wrongfully acquired.

SEC. 594. WHEN DEMAND NECESSARY.—The restoration required by section 593 must be made without demand, except where a thing is obtained by mutual mistake, in which case the party obtaining the thing is not bound to return it until he has notice of the mistake.

When demand necessary.

SEC. 595. RESPONSIBILITY FOR WILLFUL ACTS, NEGLIGENCE, ETC.—Every one is responsible, not only for the result of his willful acts, but also for an injury occasioned to another by his want of ordinary care or skill in the management of his property or person, except so far as the latter has willfully brought the injury upon himself. Want of ordinary care on the part of the injured person shall not bar a recovery, but the damages shall be diminished by the court or jury in proportion to the want of ordinary care attributable to such person. The extent of liability in the cases covered by this section is defined by the chapter on compensatory relief.

SALES OF GOODS.

CHAPTER 34.—SALES OF GOODS

NOTE.—This chapter was derived from the Uniform Sales Act.

Contracts to sell and sales.

SEC. 597. CONTRACTS TO SELL AND SALES.—1. A contract to sell goods is a contract whereby the seller agrees to transfer the property in goods to the buyer for a consideration called the price.

2. A sale of goods is an agreement whereby the seller transfers the property in goods to the buyer for a consideration called the price.

3. A contract to sell or a sale may be absolute or conditional.

4. There may be a contract to sell or a sale between one part owner and another.

Capacity; liabilities for necessaries.

SEC. 598. CAPACITY; LIABILITIES FOR NECESSARIES.—Capacity to buy and sell is regulated by the general law concerning capacity to contract, and to transfer and acquire property. Where necessaries are sold and delivered to an infant, or to a person who by reason of mental incapacity or drunkenness is incompetent to contract, he must pay a reasonable price therefor. Necessaries in this section mean goods suitable to the condition in life of such infant or other person, and to his actual requirements at the time of delivery.

Form of contract or sale.

SEC. 599. FORM OF CONTRACT OR SALE.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter and of any statute in that behalf, a contract to sell or a sale may be made in writing (either with or without seal), or by word of mouth, or partly in writing and partly by word of mouth, or may be inferred from the conduct of the parties.

Statute of frauds.

SEC. 600. STATUTE OF FRAUDS.—A contract to sell or a sale of any goods or choses in action of the value of $50 or upwards shall not be enforceable by action unless the buyer shall accept part of the goods or choses in action so contracted to be sold or sold, and actually receive the same, or give something in earnest to bind the contract, or in part payment, or unless some note or memorandum in writing of the contract or sale be signed by the party to be charged or his agent in that behalf.

2. The provisions of this section apply to every such contract or sale, notwithstanding that the goods may be intended to be delivered at some future time or may not at the time of such contract or sale be actually made, procured, or provided, or fit or ready for delivery, or some act may be requisite for the making or completing thereof, or rendering the same fit for delivery; but if the goods are to be manufactured by the seller especially for the buyer and are not suitable for sale to others in the ordinary course of the seller's business, the provisions of this section shall not apply.

"Acceptance" under.

3. There is an acceptance of goods within the meaning of this section when the buyer, either before or after delivery of the goods, expresses by words or conduct his assent to becoming the owner of those specific goods.

CROSS REFERENCE

Ante, p. 1197.

What contracts must be written, in general, see section 541.

Existing and future goods.

SEC. 601. EXISTING AND FUTURE GOODS.—1. The goods which form the subject of a contract to sell may be either existing goods, owned or possessed by the seller, or goods to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract to sell, in this chapter called "future goods."

2. There may be a contract to sell goods, the acquisition of which by the seller depends upon a contingency which may or may not happen.

3. Where the parties purport to effect a present sale of future goods, the agreement operates as a contract to sell the goods.

SEC. 602. UNDIVIDED SHARES.—1. There may be a contract to sell or a sale of an undivided share of goods. If the parties intend to effect a present sale, the buyer, by force of the agreement, becomes an owner in common with the owner or owners of the remaining shares.

Undivided shares.

2. In the case of fungible goods, there may be a sale of an undivided share of a specific mass, though the seller purports to sell and the buyer to buy a definite number, weight or measure of the goods in the mass, and though the number, weight or measure of the goods in the mass, is undetermined. By such a sale the buyer becomes owner in common of such a share of the mass as the number, weight, or measure bought bears to the number, weight, or measure of the mass. If the mass contains less than the number, weight, or measure bought, the buyer becomes the owner of the whole mass and the seller is bound to make good the deficiency from similar goods unless a contrary intent appears.

Fungibles.

SEC. 603. DESTRUCTION OF GOODS SOLD.—1. Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the goods without the knowledge of the seller have wholly perished at the time when the agreement is made, the agreement is void.

Destruction of goods sold.

2. Where the parties purport to sell specific goods, and the goods without the knowledge of the seller have perished in part or have wholly or in a material part so deteriorated in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the buyer may at his option treat the sale—

(a) As avoided, or

(b) As transferring the property in all of the existing goods or in so much thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full agreed price if the sale was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for the goods in which the property passes if the sale was divisible.

SEC. 604. DESTRUCTION OF GOODS CONTRACTED TO BE SOLD.—1. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and subsequently, but before the risk passes to the buyer, without any fault on the part of the seller or the buyer, the goods wholly perish, the contract is thereby avoided.

Destruction of contract to be sold.

2. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, and subsequently, but before the risk passes to the buyer, without any fault of the seller or the buyer, part of the goods perish or the whole or a material part of the goods so deteriorate in quality as to be substantially changed in character, the buyer may at his option treat the contract—

(a) As avoided, or

(b) As binding the seller to transfer the property in all of the existing goods, or in so much thereof as have not deteriorated, and as binding the buyer to pay the full agreed price if the contract was indivisible, or to pay the agreed price for so much of the goods as the seller, by the buyer's option, is bound to transfer if the contract was divisible.

SEC. 605. DEFINITION AND ASCERTAINMENT OF PRICE.—1. The price may be fixed by the contract, or may be left to be fixed in such manner as may be agreed, or it may be determined by the course of dealing between the parties.

Ascertainment of price.

2. The price may be made payable in any personal property.

3. Where transferring or promising to transfer any interest in real estate constitutes the whole or part of the consideration for transferring or for promising to transfer the property in goods, this chapter shall not apply.

4. Where the price is not determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions the buyer must pay a reasonable price. What is a reasonable price is a question of fact dependent on the circumstances of each particular case.

Sale at a valuation.

SEC. 606. SALE AT A VALUATION.—1. Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods at a price or on terms to be fixed by a third person, and such third person without fault of the seller or the buyer, can not or does not fix the price or terms, the contract or the sale is thereby avoided; but if the goods or any part thereof have been delivered to and appropriated by the buyer he must pay a reasonable price therefor.

2. Where such third person is prevented from fixing the price or terms by fault of the seller or the buyer, the party not in fault may have such remedies against the party in fault as are allowed by the appropriate parts of this chapter.

Effect of condition.

SEC. 607. EFFECT OF CONDITION.—1. Where the obligation of either party to a contract to sell or a sale is subject to any condition which is not performed, such party may refuse to proceed with the contract or sale or he may waive performance of the condition. If the other party has promised that the condition should happen or be performed, such first mentioned party may also treat the nonperformance of the condition as a breach of warranty.

2. Where the property in the goods has not passed, the buyer may treat the fulfillment by the seller of his obligation to furnish goods as described and as warranted expressly or by implication in the contract to sell as a condition of the obligation of the buyer to perform his promise to accept and pay for the goods.

Express warranty.

SEC. 608. DEFINITION OF EXPRESS WARRANTY.—Any affirmation of fact or any promise by the seller relating to the goods is an express warranty if the natural tendency of such affirmation or promise is to induce the buyer to purchase the goods, and if the buyer purchases the goods relying thereon. No affirmation of the value of the goods, nor any statement purporting to be a statement of the seller's opinion only shall be construed as a warranty.

Implied warranties.

SEC. 609. IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE.—In a contract to sell or a sale, unless contrary intention appears, there is

1. An implied warranty on the part of the seller that in case of a sale he has a right to sell the goods, and that in case of a contract to sell he will have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property is to pass;

2. An implied warranty that the buyer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods as against any lawful claims existing at the time of the sale;

3. An implied warranty that the goods shall be free at the time of the sale from any charge or encumbrance in favor of any third person, not declared or known to the buyer before or at the time when the contract or sale is made.

4. This section shall not, however, be held to render liable a marshal, auctioneer, mortgagee or other person professing to sell by virtue of authority in fact or law goods in which a third person has a legal or equitable interest.

When sale by description.

SEC. 610. IMPLIED WARRANTY IN SALE BY DESCRIPTION.—Where there is a contract to sell or a sale of goods by description, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall correspond with the description and if the contract or sale be by sample, as well as by description, it is not sufficient that the bulk of the goods corresponds with the sample if the goods do not also correspond with the description.

SEC. 611. IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF QUALITY.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter and of any statute in that behalf, there is no implied warranty or condition as to the quality or fitness for any particular purpose of goods supplied under a contract to sell or a sale, except as follows:

Implied warranties of quality.

1. Where the buyer, expressly or by implication, makes known to the seller the particular purpose for which the goods are required, and it appears that the buyer relies on the seller's skill or judgment (whether he be the grower or manufacturer or not), there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be reasonably fit for such purpose.

2. Where the goods are bought by description from a seller who deals in goods of that description (whether he be the grower or manufacturer or not), there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be of merchantable quality.

3. If the buyer has examined the goods, there is no implied warranty as regards defects which such examination ought to have revealed.

4. In the case of a contract to sell or a sale of a specified article under its patent or other trade name, there is no implied warranty as to its fitness for any particular purpose.

5. An implied warranty or condition as to quality or fitness for a particular purpose may be annexed by the usage of trade.

6. An express warranty or condition does not negative a warranty or condition implied under this chapter unless inconsistent therewith.

SEC. 612. IMPLIED WARRANTIES IN SALE BY SAMPLE.—In the case of a contract to sell or a sale by sample:

When sale by sample.

(a) There is an implied warranty that the bulk shall correspond with the sample in quality.

(b) There is an implied warranty that the buyer shall have a reasonable opportunity of comparing the bulk with the sample, except so far as otherwise provided in subdivision 3 of section 643.

Post, p. 1214.

(c) If the seller is a dealer in goods of that kind, there is an implied warranty that the goods shall be free from any defect rendering them unmerchantable which would not be apparent on reasonable examination of the sample.

SEC. 613. NO PROPERTY PASSES UNTIL GOODS ARE ASCERTAINED.—Where there is a contract to sell unascertained goods no property in the goods is transferred to the buyer unless and until the goods are ascertained, but property in an undivided share of ascertained goods may be transferred as provided in section 602.

No property passes until goods are ascertained.

Ante, p. 1205.

SEC. 614. PROPERTY IN SPECIFIC GOODS PASSES WHEN PARTIES SO INTEND.—1. Where there is a contract to sell specific or ascertained goods, the property in them is transferred to the buyer at such time as the parties to the contract intend it to be transferred.

Passing of property in specific goods.

2. For the purpose of ascertaining the intention of the parties, regard shall be had to the terms of the contract, the conduct of the parties, usages of trade, and the circumstances of the case.

SEC. 615. RULES FOR ASCERTAINING INTENTION.—Unless a different intention appears, the following are rules for ascertaining the intention of the parties as to the time at which the property in the goods is to pass to the buyer:

Rules for ascertaining intention.

RULE 1. Where there is an unconditional contract to sell specific goods, in a deliverable state, the property in the goods passes to the buyer when the contract is made and it is immaterial whether the time of payment, or the time of delivery, or both, be postponed.

RULE 2. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods and the seller is bound to do something to the goods, for the purpose of putting them into a deliverable state, the property does not pass until such thing be done.

RULE 3. 1. When goods are delivered to the buyer "on sale or return," or on other terms indicating an intention to make a present sale, but to give the buyer an option to return the goods instead of paying the price, the property passes to the buyer on delivery, but he may re-vest the property in the seller by returning or tendering the goods within the time fixed in the contract, or, if no time has been fixed, within a reasonable time.

2. When goods are delivered to the buyer on approval or on trial or on satisfaction, or other similar terms, the property therein passes to the buyer—

(a) When he signifies his approval or acceptance to the seller or does any other act adopting the transaction;

(b) If he does not signify his approval or acceptance to the seller, but retains the goods without giving notice of rejection, then if a time has been fixed for the return of the goods, on the expiration of such time, and, if no time has been fixed, on the expiration of a reasonable time. What is a reasonable time is a question of fact.

RULE 4. 1. Where there is a contract to sell unascertained or future goods by description, and goods of that description and in a deliverable state are unconditionally appropriated to the contract, either by the seller with the assent of the buyer, or by the buyer with the assent of the seller, the property in the goods thereupon passes to the buyer. Such assent may be expressed or implied, and may be given either before or after the appropriation is made.

2. Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell, the seller delivers the goods to the buyer, or to a carrier or other bailee (whether named by the buyer or not) for the purpose of transmission to or holding for the buyer, he is presumed to have unconditionally appropriated the goods to the contract, except in the cases provided for in the next rule and in section 616. This presumption is applicable, although by the terms of the contract the buyer is to pay the price before receiving delivery of the goods and the goods are marked with the words "collect on delivery" or their equivalents.

RULE 5. If the contract to sell requires the seller to deliver the goods to the buyer, or at a particular place, or to pay the freight or cost of transportation to the buyer, or to a particular place, the property does not pass until the goods have been delivered to the buyer or reached the place agreed upon.

Reservation of right of possession, etc.,
when goods shipped.

SEC. 616. RESERVATION OF RIGHT OF POSSESSION OR PROPERTY WHEN GOODS ARE SHIPPED.—1. Where there is a contract to sell specific goods, or where goods are subsequently appropriated to the contract, the seller may, by the terms of the contract or appropriation, reserve the right of possession or property in the goods until certain conditions have been fulfilled. The right of possession or property may be thus reserved notwithstanding the delivery of the goods to the buyer or to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer.

3. Where goods are shipped, and by the bill of lading the goods are deliverable to the order of the buyer or of his agent, but possession of the bill of lading is retained by the seller or his agent, the seller thereby reserves a right to the possession of the goods as against the buyer.

4. Where the seller of goods draws on the buyer for the price and transmits the bill of exchange and bill of lading together to the buyer to secure acceptance or payment of the bill of exchange, the buyer is bound to return the bill of lading if he does not honor the bill of exchange, and if he wrongfully retains the bill of lading he acquires no added right thereby. If, however, the bill of lading provides that the goods are deliverable to the buyer or to the order of the buyer, or is indorsed in blank, or to the buyer by the consignee named therein, one who purchases in good faith, for value, the bill of lading, or goods from the buyer will obtain the property in the goods, although the bill of exchange has not been honored, provided that such purchaser has received delivery of the bill of lading indorsed by the consignee named therein, or of the goods, without notice of the facts making the transfer wrongful.

SEC. 617. SALE BY AUCTION.—In the case of sale by auction—

Sale by auction.

1. Where goods are put up for sale by auction in lots each lot is the subject of a separate contract of sale.

2. A sale by auction is complete when the auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer, or in other customary manner. Until such announcement is made, any bidder may retract his bid; and the auctioneer may withdraw the goods from sale unless the auction has been announced to be without reserve.

3. A right to bid may be reserved expressly by or on behalf of the seller.

4. Where notice has not been given that a sale by auction is subject to a right to bid on behalf of the seller, it shall not be lawful for the seller to bid himself or to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on his behalf, or for the auctioneer to employ or induce any person to bid at such sale on behalf of the seller or knowingly to take any bid from the seller or any person employed by him. Any sale contravening this rule may be treated as fraudulent by the buyer.

SEC. 618. RISK OF LOSS.—Unless otherwise agreed, the goods remain at the seller's risk until the property therein is transferred to the buyer, but when the property therein is transferred to the buyer the goods are at the buyer's risk whether delivery has been made or not, except that—

Risk of loss.

(a) Where delivery of goods has been made to the buyer, or to a bailee for the buyer, in pursuance of the contract and the property in the goods has been retained by the seller merely to secure performance by the buyer of his obligations under the contract, the goods are at the buyer's risk from the time of such delivery.

(b) Where delivery has been delayed through the fault of either buyer or seller the goods are at the risk of the party in fault as regards any loss which might not have occurred but for such fault.

SEC. 619. SALE BY PERSON NOT THE OWNER.—1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, where goods are sold by a person who is not the owner thereof, and who does not sell them under the authority or with the consent of the owner, the buyer acquires no better title to the goods than the seller had, unless the owner of the goods is by his conduct precluded from denying the seller's authority to sell.

Sale by person not the owner.

2. Nothing in this chapter, however, shall affect—

(a) The provisions of any factors' acts, recording acts, or any enactment enabling the apparent owner of goods to dispose of them as if he were the true owner thereof.

No effect on factors, recording, etc., acts.

Sales under order of court.

(b) The validity of any contract to sell or sale under any special common law or statutory power of sale or under the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

When title voidable.

SEC. 620. SALE BY ONE HAVING A VOIDABLE TITLE.—Where the seller of goods has a voidable title thereto, but his title has not been avoided at the time of the sale, the buyer acquires a good title to the goods, provided he buys them in good faith, for value, and without notice of the seller's defect of title.

When in possession of goods already sold.

SEC. 621. SALE BY SELLER IN POSSESSION OF GOODS ALREADY SOLD.—Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods, the delivery or transfer by that person, or by an agent acting for him, of the goods or documents of title under any sale, pledge, or other disposition thereof, to any person receiving and paying value for the same in good faith and without notice of the previous sale, shall have the same effect as if the person making the delivery or transfer were expressly authorized by the owner of the goods to make the same.

Creditors' rights against sold goods.

SEC. 622. CREDITORS' RIGHTS AGAINST SOLD GOODS IN SELLER'S POSSESSION.—Where a person having sold goods continues in possession of the goods, or of negotiable documents of title to the goods and such retention of possession is fraudulent in fact or is deemed fraudulent under any rule of law, a creditor or creditors of the seller may treat the sale as void.

Negotiable documents of title.

SEC. 623. DEFINITION OF NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS OF TITLE.—A document of title in which it is stated that the goods referred to therein will be delivered to the bearer, or to the order of any person named in such document is a negotiable document of title.

Negotiation by delivery.

SEC. 624. NEGOTIATION OF NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS BY DELIVERY.—A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by delivery—

(a) Where, by the terms of the document, the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer, or

(b) Where, by the terms of the document, the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing the same undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the document has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable document of title, the goods are deliverable to bearer or where a negotiable document of title has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the document shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee.

By indorsement.

SEC. 625. NEGOTIATION OF NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS BY INDORSEMENT.—A negotiable document of title may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are by the terms of the document deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

Negotiable documents marked "not negotiable."

SEC. 626. NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS OF TITLE MARKED "NOT NEGOTIABLE."—If a document of title which contains an undertaking by a carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee to deliver the goods to the bearer, to a specified person or order, or to the order of a specified person, or which contains words of like import, has placed upon it the words "not negotiable," "nonnegotiable," or the like, such a document may nevertheless be negotiated by the holder and is a negotiable document of title within the meaning of this chapter.

But nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed as limiting or defining the effect upon the obligations of the carrier, warehouseman, or other bailee issuing a document of title of placing thereon the words "not negotiable," "nonnegotiable," or the like.

SEC. 627. TRANSFER OF NONNEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS.—A document of title which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A nonnegotiable document can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a document gives the transferee no additional right.

Transfer of nonnegotiable documents.

SEC. 628. WHO MAY NEGOTIATE A DOCUMENT.—A negotiable document of title may be negotiated—

Who may negotiate a document.

(a) By the owner thereof, or

(b) By any person to whom the possession or custody of the document has been entrusted by the owner, if, by the terms of the document the bailee issuing the document undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of the person to whom the possession or custody of the document has been entrusted, or if at the time of such entrusting the document is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

SEC. 629. RIGHTS OF PERSON TO WHOM DOCUMENT HAS BEEN NEGOTIATED.—A person to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated acquires thereby—

Rights of person to whom negotiated.

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the document to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value and also such title to the goods as the person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the document had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and

(b) The direct obligation of the bailee issuing the document to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the document as fully as if such bailee had contracted directly with him.

SEC. 630. RIGHTS OF PERSON TO WHOM DOCUMENT HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED.—A person to whom a document of title has been transferred, but not negotiated, acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the document is nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the bailee who issued the document of the transfer thereof, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of such bailee to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the document. Prior to the notification of such bailee by the transferor or transferee of a nonnegotiable document of title, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of such bailee may be defeated by the levy of an attachment of execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to such bailee by the transferor or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

To whom transferred.

SEC. 631. TRANSFER OF NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENT WITHOUT INDORSEMENT.—Where a negotiable document of title is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the document unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Transfer without indorsement.

SEC. 632. WARRANTIES ON SALE OF DOCUMENTS.—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a document of title by indorsement or Warranties.

delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a document of title unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

- (a) That the document is genuine;
- (b) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it;
- (c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the document; and
- (d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose, whenever such warranties would have been implied if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a document of title the goods represented thereby.

Indorser not a guarantor.

SEC. 633. INDORSER NOT A GUARANTOR.—The indorsement of a document of title shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the bailee who issued the document or previous indorsers thereof to fulfill their respective obligations.

Fraud, mistake, and duress.

SEC. 634. WHEN NEGOTIATION NOT IMPAIRED BY FRAUD, MISTAKE OR DURESS.—The validity of the negotiation of a negotiable document of title is not impaired by the fact that the negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the document was induced by fraud, mistake or duress to entrust the possession or custody thereof to such person, if the person to whom the document was negotiated or a person to whom the document was subsequently negotiated paid value therefor, without notice of the breach of duty, or fraud, mistake or duress.

Attachment or levy upon goods when negotiable document issued.

SEC. 635. ATTACHMENT OR LEVY UPON GOODS FOR WHICH A NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENT HAS BEEN ISSUED.—If goods are delivered to a bailee by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser in good faith for value would bind the owner and a negotiable document of title is issued for them they can not thereafter, while in the possession of such bailee, be attached by garnishment or otherwise be levied upon under an execution unless the document be first surrendered to the bailee or its negotiation enjoined. The bailee shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the document is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

Creditors' remedies.

SEC. 636. CREDITORS' REMEDIES TO REACH NEGOTIABLE DOCUMENTS.—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable document of title shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction by injunction and otherwise in attaching such document or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity in regard to property which can not be readily attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

Duty of delivery and acceptance.

SEC. 637. SELLER MUST DELIVER AND BUYER ACCEPT GOODS.—It is the duty of the seller to deliver the goods, and of the buyer to accept and pay for them, in accordance with the terms of the contract to sell or sale.

Delivery and payment concurrent conditions.

SEC. 638. DELIVERY AND PAYMENT ARE CONCURRENT CONDITIONS.—Unless otherwise agreed, delivery of the goods and payment of the price are concurrent conditions; that is to say, the seller must be ready and willing to give possession of the goods to the buyer in exchange for the price and the buyer must be ready and willing to pay the price in exchange for possession of the goods.

Place, time, and manner of.

SEC. 639. PLACE, TIME, AND MANNER OF DELIVERY.—1. Whether it is for the buyer to take possession of the goods or for the seller to send them to the buyer is a question depending in each case on the contract, express or implied, between the parties. Apart from any such contract, express or implied, or usage of trade to the contrary, the place of delivery is the seller's place of business if he have one, and if not his residence; but in case of a contract to sell or a sale of specific goods, which to the knowledge of the parties when the contract or the sale was made were in some other place, then that place is the place of delivery.

2. Where by a contract to sell or a sale the seller is bound to send the goods to the buyer, but no time for sending them is fixed, the seller is bound to send them within a reasonable time.

3. Where the goods at the time of sale are in the possession of a third person, the seller has not fulfilled his obligation to deliver to the buyer unless and until such third person acknowledges to the buyer that he holds the goods on the buyer's behalf; but as against all others than the seller the buyer shall be regarded as having received delivery from the time when such third person first has notice of the sale. Nothing in this section, however, shall affect the operation of the issue or transfer of any document of title to goods.

4. Demand or tender of delivery may be treated as ineffectual unless made at a reasonable hour. What is a reasonable hour is a question of fact.

5. Unless otherwise agreed, the expenses of and incidental to putting the goods into a deliverable state must be borne by the seller.

SEC. 640. DELIVERY OF WRONG QUANTITY.—1. Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods less than he contracted to sell, the buyer may reject them, but if the buyer accepts or retains the goods so delivered, knowing that the seller is not going to perform the contract in full, he must pay for them at contract rate. If, however, the buyer has used or disposed of the goods delivered before he knows that the seller is not going to perform his contract in full, the buyer shall not be liable for more than the fair value to him of the goods so received.

When wrong quantity.

2. Where the seller delivers to the buyer a quantity of goods larger than he contracted to sell, the buyer may accept the goods included in the contract and reject the rest, or he may reject the whole. If the buyer accepts the whole of the goods so delivered he must pay for them at the contract rate.

3. Where the seller delivers to the buyer the goods he contracted to sell mixed with goods of a different description not included in the contract, the buyer may accept the goods which are in accordance with the contract and reject the rest, or he may reject the whole.

4. The provisions of this section are subject to any usage of trade, special agreement, or course of dealing between the parties.

SEC. 641. DELIVERY IN INSTALLMENTS.—1. Unless otherwise agreed, the buyer of goods is not bound to accept delivery thereof by installments.

Delivery in installments.

2. Where there is a contract to sell goods to be delivered by stated installments, which are to be separately paid for, and the seller makes defective deliveries in respect of one or more installments, or the buyer neglects or refuses to take delivery of or pay for one or more installments, it depends in each case on the terms of the contract and the circumstances of the case whether the breach of contract is so material as to justify the injured party in refusing to proceed further and suing for damages for breach of the entire contract, or whether the breach is severable, giving rise to a claim for compensation, but not to a right to treat the whole contract as broken.

To carrier.

SEC. 642. DELIVERY TO A CARRIER ON BEHALF OF THE BUYER.—1. Where, in pursuance of a contract to sell or a sale, the seller is authorized or required to send the goods to the buyer, delivery of the goods to a carrier, whether named by the buyer or not, for the purpose of transmission to the buyer is deemed to be a delivery of the goods to the buyer, except in the cases provided for in section 615, rule five, or unless a contrary intent appears.

Ante, p. 1208.

2. Unless otherwise authorized by the buyer, the seller must make such contract with the carrier on behalf of the buyer as may be reasonable, having regard to the nature of the goods and the other circumstances of the case. If the seller omit so to do, and the goods are lost or damaged in course of transit, the buyer may decline to treat the delivery to the carrier as a delivery to himself, or may hold the seller responsible in damages.

3. Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are sent by the seller to the buyer under circumstances in which the seller knows or ought to know that it is usual to insure, the seller must give such notice to the buyer as may enable him to insure them during their transit, and, if the seller fails to do so, the goods shall be deemed to be at his risk during such transit.

Right to examine goods.

SEC. 643. RIGHT TO EXAMINE THE GOODS.—1. Where goods are delivered to the buyer, which he has not previously examined, he is not deemed to have accepted them unless and until he has had a reasonable opportunity to examine them for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

2. Unless otherwise agreed, when the seller tenders delivery of goods to the buyer, he is bound, on request, to afford the buyer a reasonable opportunity of examining the goods for the purpose of ascertaining whether they are in conformity with the contract.

3. Where goods are delivered to a carrier by the seller, in accordance with an order from or agreement with the buyer, upon the terms that the goods shall not be delivered by the carrier to the buyer until he has paid the price, whether such terms are indicated by marking the goods with the words "collect on delivery," or otherwise, the buyer is not entitled to examine the goods before payment of the price in the absence of agreement permitting such examination.

What constitutes acceptance.

SEC. 644. WHAT CONSTITUTES ACCEPTANCE.—The buyer is deemed to have accepted the goods when he intimates to the seller that he has accepted them, or when the goods have been delivered to him and he does any act in relation to them which is inconsistent with the ownership of the seller, or when, after the lapse of a reasonable time, he retains the goods without intimating to the seller that he has rejected them.

Acceptance not bar to action for damages.

SEC. 645. ACCEPTANCE DOES NOT BAR ACTION FOR DAMAGES.—In the absence of express or implied agreement of the parties, acceptance of the goods by the buyer shall not discharge the seller from liability in damages or other legal remedy for breach of any promise or warranty in the contract to sell or the sale. But, if, after acceptance of the goods, the buyer fails to give notice to the seller of the breach of any promise or warranty within a reasonable time after the buyer knows, or ought to know, of such breach, the seller shall not be liable therefor.

Return of goods wrongly delivered.

SEC. 646. BUYER IS NOT BOUND TO RETURN GOODS WRONGLY DELIVERED.—Unless otherwise agreed, where goods are delivered to the buyer, and he refuses to accept them, having the right so to do, he is not bound to return them to the seller, but it is sufficient if he notifies the seller that he refuses to accept them.

Liability for failure to accept delivery.

SEC. 647. BUYER'S LIABILITY FOR FAILING TO ACCEPT DELIVERY.—When the seller is ready and willing to deliver the goods, and requests the buyer to take delivery, and the buyer does not within a reasonable time after such request take delivery of the goods, he is liable to the seller for any loss occasioned by his neglect or refusal to take delivery, and also for a reasonable charge for the care and custody of the goods. If the neglect or refusal of the buyer to take delivery amounts to a repudiation or breach of the entire contract, the seller shall have the rights against the goods and on the contract hereinafter provided in favor of the seller when the buyer is in default.

SEC. 648. DEFINITION OF UNPAID SELLER.—1. The seller of goods is deemed to be an unpaid seller within the meaning of this chapter.

(a) When the whole of the price has not been paid or tendered.

(b) When a bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument has been received as conditional payment, and the condition on which it was received has been broken by reason of the dishonor of the instrument, the insolvency of the buyer, or otherwise.

2. In this part of this chapter the term "seller" includes an agent of the seller to whom the bill of lading has been indorsed, or a consignor or agent who has himself paid, or is directly responsible for, the price, or any other person who is in the position of a seller.

SEC. 649. REMEDIES OF AN UNPAID SELLER.—1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, notwithstanding that the property in the goods may have passed to the buyer, the unpaid seller of the goods, as such has

(a) A lien on the goods or right to retain them for the price while he is in possession of them;

(b) In case of the insolvency of the buyer, a right of stopping the goods in transitu after he has parted with the possession of them;

(c) A right of resale as limited by this chapter;

(d) A right to rescind the sale as limited by this chapter.

2. Where the property in goods has not passed to the buyer, the unpaid seller has, in addition to his other remedies, a right of withholding delivery similar to and coextensive with his rights of lien and stoppage in transitu where the property has passed to the buyer.

SEC. 650. WHEN RIGHT OF LIEN MAY BE EXERCISED.—1. Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the unpaid seller of goods who is in possession of them is entitled to retain possession of them until payment or tender of the price in the following cases, namely:

(a) Where the goods have been sold without any stipulation as to credit;

(b) Where the goods have been sold on credit, but the term of credit has expired;

(c) Where the buyer becomes insolvent.

2. The seller may exercise his right of lien notwithstanding that he is in possession of the goods as agent or bailee for the buyer.

SEC. 651. LIEN AFTER PART DELIVERY.—Where an unpaid seller has made part delivery of the goods, he may exercise his right of lien on the remainder, unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an intent to waive the lien or right of retention.

SEC. 652. WHEN LIEN IS LOST.—1. The unpaid seller of goods loses his lien thereon:

(a) When he delivers the goods to a carrier or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer without reserving the property in the goods or the right to the possession thereof;

(b) When the buyer or his agent lawfully obtains possession of the goods;

(c) By waiver thereof.

2. The unpaid seller of goods, having a lien thereon, does not lose his lien by reason only that he has obtained judgment or decree for the price of the goods.

Stoppage in transitu.

SEC. 653. SELLER MAY STOP GOODS ON BUYER'S INSOLVENCY.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter, when the buyer of goods is or becomes insolvent, the unpaid seller who has parted with the possession of the goods has the right of stopping them in transitu, that is to say, he may resume possession of the goods at any time while they are in transit, and he will then become entitled to the same rights in regard to the goods as he would have had if he had never parted with the possession.

Goods in transit.

SEC. 654. WHEN GOODS ARE IN TRANSIT.—1. Goods are in transit within the meaning of section 653:

(a) From the time when they are delivered to a carrier by land or water, or other bailee for the purpose of transmission to the buyer, until the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, takes delivery of them from such carrier or other bailee;

(b) If the goods are rejected by the buyer, and the carrier or other bailee continues in possession of them, even if the seller has refused to receive them back.

2. Goods are no longer in transit within the meaning of section 653:

(a) If the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, obtains delivery of the goods before their arrival at the appointed destination;

(b) If, after the arrival of the goods at the appointed destination, the carrier or other bailee acknowledges to the buyer or his agent that he holds the goods on his behalf and continues in possession of them as bailee for the buyer or his agent; and it is immaterial that a further destination for the goods may have been indicated by the buyer;

(c) If the carrier or other bailee wrongfully refuses to deliver the goods to the buyer or his agent in that behalf.

3. If the goods are delivered to a ship chartered by the buyer, it is a question depending on the circumstances of the particular case whether they are in the possession of the master as a carrier or as agent of the buyer.

4. If part delivery of the goods has been made to the buyer, or his agent in that behalf, the remainder of the goods may be stopped in transitu, unless such part delivery has been made under such circumstances as to show an agreement with the buyer to give up possession of the whole of the goods.

Manners of stoppage.

SEC. 655. WAYS OF EXERCISING THE RIGHT TO STOP.—1. The unpaid seller may exercise his right of stoppage in transitu either by obtaining actual possession of the goods or by giving notice of his claim to the carrier or other bailee in whose possession the goods are. Such notice may be given either to the person in actual possession of the goods or to his principal. In the latter case the notice, to be effectual, must be given at such time and under such circumstances that the principal, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, may prevent a delivery to the buyer.

2. When notice of stoppage in transitu is given by the seller to the carrier, or other bailee in possession of the goods, he must redeliver the goods to, or according to the directions of, the seller.

The expenses of such delivery must be borne by the seller. If, however, a negotiable document of title representing the goods has been issued by the carrier or other bailee, he shall not be obliged to deliver or justified in delivering the goods to the seller unless such document is first surrendered for cancellation.

Right of resale.

SEC. 656. WHEN AND HOW RESALE MAY BE MADE.—1. Where the goods are of a perishable nature, or where the seller expressly reserves the right of resale in case the buyer should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of the price an unreasonable time, an unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the goods in transitu may resell the goods. He shall not thereafter be liable to the original buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale or for any profit made by such resale, but may recover from the buyer damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

2. Where a resale is made, as authorized in this section, the buyer acquires a good title as against the original buyer.

3. It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of an intention to resell the goods be given by the seller to the original buyer. But where the right to resell is not based on the perishable nature of the goods or upon an express provision of the contract or the sale, the giving or failure to give such notice shall be relevant in any issue involving the question whether the buyer had been in default an unreasonable time before the resale was made.

4. It is not essential to the validity of a resale that notice of the time and place of such resale should be given by the seller to the original buyer.

5. The seller is bound to exercise reasonable care and judgment in making a resale, and subject to this requirement may make a resale either by public or private sale.

SEC. 657. WHEN AND HOW THE SELLER MAY RESCIND THE SALE.—

Rescission.

1. An unpaid seller having a right of lien or having stopped the goods in transitu, may rescind the transfer of title and resume the property in the goods, where he expressly reserved the right to do so in case the buyer should make default, or where the buyer has been in default in the payment of the price an unreasonable time. The seller shall not thereafter be liable to the buyer upon the contract to sell or the sale, but may recover from the buyer damages for any loss occasioned by the breach of the contract or the sale.

2. The transfer of title shall not be held to have been rescinded by an unpaid seller until he has manifested by notice to the buyer or by some other overt act an intention to rescind. It is not necessary that such overt act should be communicated to the buyer but the giving or failure to give notice to the buyer of the intention to rescind shall be relevant in any issue involving the question whether the buyer had been in default an unreasonable time before the right of rescission was asserted.

SEC. 658. EFFECT OF SALE OF GOODS SUBJECT TO LIEN OR STOPPAGE IN TRANSITU.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the unpaid seller's right of lien or stoppage in transitu is not affected by any sale, or other disposition of the goods which the buyer may have made, unless the seller has assented thereto. If, however, a negotiable document of title has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the right of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such document has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the carrier, or other bailee who issued such document, of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu.

Effect of sale of goods subject to lien or stoppage in transitu.

SEC. 659. ACTION FOR THE PRICE.—1. Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the property in the goods has passed to the buyer, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay for the goods according to the terms of the contract or the sale, the seller may maintain an action against him for the price of the goods.

Action for price.

2. Where, under a contract to sell or a sale, the price is payable on a day certain, irrespective of delivery or of transfer of title, and the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to pay such price, the seller may maintain an action for the price, although the property in the goods has not passed, and the goods have not been appropriated to the contract. But it shall be a defense to such an action that the seller at any time before judgment in such action has manifested an inability to perform the contract or the sale on his part or an intention not to perform it.

3. Although the property in the goods has not passed, if they can not readily be resold for a reasonable price, and if the provisions of subdivision four of section 660 are not applicable, the seller may offer to deliver the goods to the buyer, and if the buyer refuses to receive them, may notify the buyer that the goods are thereafter held by the seller as bailee for the buyer. Thereafter the seller may treat the goods as the buyer's and may maintain an action for the price.

For nonacceptance.

SEC. 660. ACTION FOR DAMAGES FOR NONACCEPTANCE OF THE GOODS.—

1. Where the buyer wrongfully neglects or refuses to accept and pay for the goods, the seller may maintain an action against him for damages for nonacceptance.

2. The measure of damages is the estimated loss directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the buyer's breach of contract.

3. Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the measure of damages is, in the absence of special circumstances, showing proximate damage of a greater amount, the difference between the contract price and the market or current price at the time or times when the goods ought to have been accepted, or, if no time was fixed for acceptance, then at the time of the refusal to accept.

4. If, while labor or expense of material amount are necessary on the part of the seller to enable him to fulfill his obligations under the contract to sell or the sale, the buyer repudiates the contract or the sale, or notifies the seller to proceed no further therewith, the buyer shall be liable to the seller for no greater damages than the seller would have suffered if he did nothing toward carrying out the contract or the sale after receiving notice of the buyer's repudiation or countermand. The profit the seller would have made if the contract or the sale had been fully performed shall be considered in estimating such damages.

When seller may rescind.

SEC. 661. WHEN SELLER MAY RESCIND CONTRACT OR SALE.—Where the goods have not been delivered to the buyer, and the buyer has repudiated the contract to sell or sale, or has manifested his inability to perform his obligations thereunder, or has committed a material breach thereof, the seller may totally rescind the contract or the sale by giving notice of his election so to do to the buyer.

Action for conversion, etc.

SEC. 662. ACTION FOR CONVERTING OR DETAINING GOODS.—Where the property in the goods has passed to the buyer and the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the buyer may maintain any action allowed by law to the owner of goods of similar kind when wrongfully converted or withheld.

For failure to deliver.

SEC. 663. ACTION FOR FAILING TO DELIVER GOODS.—1. Where the property in the goods has not passed to the buyer, and the seller wrongfully neglects or refuses to deliver the goods, the buyer may maintain an action against the seller for damages for nondelivery.

2. The measure of damages is the loss directly and naturally resulting in the ordinary course of events from the seller's breach of contract.

3. Where there is an available market for the goods in question, the measure of damages, in the absence of special circumstances showing proximate damages of a greater amount, is the difference between the contract price and the market or current price of the goods at the time or times when they ought to have been delivered, or, if no time was fixed, then at the time of the refusal to deliver.

SEC. 664. SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE.—Where the seller has broken a contract to deliver specific or ascertained goods, a court having the powers of a court of equity may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the buyer, by its judgment or decree, direct that the contract shall be performed specifically, without giving the seller the option of retaining the goods on payment of damages. The judgment or decree may be unconditional, or upon such terms and conditions as to damages, payment of the price and otherwise, as to the court may seem just.

Specific performance.

SEC. 655.<sup>1</sup> REMEDIES FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY.—1. Where there is a breach of warranty by the seller, the buyer may, at his election:

Remedies for breach of warranty.

(a) Accept or keep the goods and set up against the seller the breach of warranty by way of recoupment in diminution or extinction of the price;

(b) Accept or keep the goods and maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of warranty;

(c) Refuse to accept the goods, if the property therein has not passed, and maintain an action against the seller for damages for the breach of warranty;

(d) Rescind the contract to sell or the sale and refuse to receive the goods, or if the goods have already been received, return them or offer to return them to the seller and recover the price or any part thereof which has been paid.

2. When the buyer has claimed and been granted a remedy in any one of these ways, no other remedy can thereafter be granted.

3. Where the goods have been delivered to the buyer, he can not rescind the sale if he knew of the breach of warranty when he accepted the goods, or if he fails to notify the seller within a reasonable time of the election to rescind, or if he fails to return or to offer to return the goods to the seller in substantially as good condition as they were in at the time the property was transferred to the buyer. But if deterioration or injury of the goods is due to the breach of warranty, such deterioration or injury shall not prevent the buyer from returning or offering to return the goods to the seller and rescinding the sale.

4. Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do so, the buyer shall cease to be liable for the price upon returning or offering to return the goods. If the price or any part thereof has already been paid, the seller shall be liable to repay so much thereof as has been paid, concurrently with the return of the goods, or immediately after an offer to return the goods in exchange for repayment of the price.

5. Where the buyer is entitled to rescind the sale and elects to do so, if the seller refuses to accept an offer of the buyer to return the goods, the buyer shall thereafter be deemed to hold the goods as bailee for the seller, but subject to a lien to secure the repayment of any portion of the price which has been paid, and with the remedies for the enforcement of such lien allowed to an unpaid seller by section 649.

Ante, p. 1215.

6. The measure of damages for breach of warranty is the loss directly and naturally resulting, in the ordinary course of events, from the breach of warranty.

7. In the case of breach of warranty of quality, such loss, in the absence of special circumstances showing proximate damage of a greater amount, is the difference between the value of the goods at the time of delivery to the buyer and the value they would have had if they had answered to the warranty.

Interest and special damages.

SEC. 666. INTEREST AND SPECIAL DAMAGES.—Nothing in this chapter shall affect the right of the buyer or the seller to recover interest or special damages in any case where by law interest or special damages may be recoverable, or to recover money paid where the consideration for the payment of it has failed.

Variation of implied obligations.

SEC. 667. VARIATION OF IMPLIED OBLIGATIONS.—Where any right, duty, or liability would arise under a contract to sell or a sale by implication of law, it may be negatived, or varied by express agreement or by the course of dealing between the parties, or by customs, if the custom be such as to bind both parties to the contract or the sale.

Enforcement of rights.

SEC. 668. RIGHTS MAY BE ENFORCED BY ACTION.—Where any right, duty, or liability is declared by this chapter, it may, unless otherwise by this chapter provided, be enforced by action.

Rule for cases not provided for.

SEC. 669. RULE FOR CASES NOT PROVIDED FOR BY THIS CHAPTER.—In any case not provided for in this chapter, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, or other invalidating cause, shall continue to apply to contracts to sell and sales of goods.

Provisions not applicable to mortgages.

SEC. 670. PROVISIONS NOT APPLICABLE TO MORTGAGES.—The provisions of this chapter relating to contracts to sell and to sales do not apply, unless so stated, to any transaction in the form of a contract to sell or a sale which is intended to operate by way of mortgage, pledge, charge, or other security.

Definitions.

SEC. 671. DEFINITIONS.—1. In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

“Action” includes counterclaim, set-off, and suit in equity.

“Buyer” means a person who buys or agrees to buy goods or any legal successor in interest of such person.

“Defendant” includes a plaintiff against whom a right of set-off or counterclaim is asserted.

“Delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

“Divisible contract to sell or sale” means a contract to sell or a sale in which by its terms the price for a portion or portions of the goods less than the whole is fixed or ascertainable by computation.

“Document of title to goods” includes any bill of lading, dock warrant, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, or any other document used in the ordinary course of business in the sale or transfer of goods, as proof of the possession or control of the goods, or authorizing or purporting to authorize the possessor of the document to transfer or receive, either by indorsement or by delivery, goods represented by such document.

“Fault” means wrongful act or default.

“Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is from its nature or by mercantile usage treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

“Future goods” means goods to be manufactured or acquired by the seller after the making of the contract of sale.

“Goods” includes all chattels personal other than things in action and money. The term includes emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming part of the land which are agreed to be severed before sale or under the contract of sale.

“Order” in sections of this chapter relating to documents of title means an order by indorsement on the document.

“Person” includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

“Plaintiff” includes defendant asserting a right of set-off or counterclaim.

“Property” means the general property in goods, and not merely a special property.

“Purchases” includes taking as a mortgagee or as a pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee.

“Quality of goods” includes their state or condition.

“Sale” includes a bargain and sale as well as a sale and delivery.

“Seller” means a person who sells or agrees to sell goods, or any legal successor in the interest of such person.

“Specific goods” means goods identified and agreed upon at the time a contract to sell or a sale is made.

2. A thing is done “in good faith” within the meaning of this chapter when it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not.

3. A person is insolvent within the meaning of this chapter who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or can not pay his debts as they become due, whether he has committed an act of bankruptcy or not, and whether he is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law or not.

4. Goods are in a “deliverable state” within the meaning of this chapter when they are in such a state that the buyer would, under the contract, be bound to take delivery of them.

SEC. 672. CHAPTER DOES NOT APPLY TO EXISTING SALES OR CONTRACTS TO SELL.—None of the provisions of this chapter shall apply to any sale, or to any contract to sell, made prior to the taking effect of this chapter.

Provisions not retroactive.

SEC. 673. NO REPEAL OF WAREHOUSE LAWS.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal or limit any of the provisions of sections 731 to 784.

No repeal of warehouse laws.
Post, p. 1230.

CHAPTER 35.—CONDITIONAL SALES

CONDITIONAL SALES.

NOTE.—This chapter was derived from the uniform conditional sales act.

SEC. 674. DEFINITIONS.—In this chapter “conditional sale” means (1) any contract for the sale of goods under which possession is delivered to the buyer and the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer at a subsequent time upon the payment of part or all of the price, or upon the performance of any other condition or the happening of any contingency; or (2) any contract for the bailment or leasing of goods by which the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation a sum substantially equivalent to the value of the goods, and by which it is agreed that the bailee or lessee is bound to become, or has the option of becoming the owner of such goods upon full compliance with the terms of the contract.

Definitions.

“Buyer” means the person who buys or hires the goods covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

“Goods” means all chattels personal other than things in action and money, and includes emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming a part of land which are agreed to be severed before sale or under the conditional sale.

“Performance of the condition” means the occurrence of the event upon which the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer, whether such event is the performance of an act by the buyer or the happening of a contingency.

"Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, and any other association.

"Purchase" includes mortgage and pledge.

"Purchaser" includes mortgagee and pledgee.

"Seller" means the person who sells or leases the goods covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

Primary rights of seller.

SEC. 675. PRIMARY RIGHTS OF SELLER.—The buyer shall be liable to the seller for the purchase price, or for installments thereof, as the same shall become due, and for breach of all promises made by him in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

Of buyer.

SEC. 676. PRIMARY RIGHTS OF BUYER.—The buyer shall have the right when not in default to retain possession of the goods, and he shall also have the right to acquire the property in the goods on the performance of the conditions of the contract. The seller shall be liable to the buyer for the breach of all promises and warranties, express or implied, made in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

Validity of conditional sales.

SEC. 677. CONDITIONAL SALES VALID EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE PROVIDED.—Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller after possession of the goods is delivered to the buyer, shall be valid as to all persons, except as hereinafter otherwise provided.

When void.

SEC. 678. CONDITIONAL SALES VOID AS TO CERTAIN PERSONS.—Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller shall be void as to any purchaser from or creditor of the buyer, who, without notice of such provision, purchases the goods or acquires by attachment or levy a lien upon them, before the contract or a copy thereof shall be filed as hereinafter provided. This section shall not apply to conditional sales of goods for resale.

Filing of.

SEC. 679. PLACE OF FILING.—The conditional sale contract or a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the registrar of property of the Canal Zone.

Conditional sale of goods for resale.

SEC. 680. CONDITIONAL SALE OF GOODS FOR RESALE.—When goods are delivered under a conditional sale contract and the seller expressly or impliedly consents that the buyer may resell them prior to performance of the condition, the same shall be valid whether filed or not except that the reservation of property shall be void against purchasers from the buyer in good faith for value and without actual knowledge of the condition of such contract.

Filing.

SEC. 681. FILING.—The registrar of property shall mark upon contract or copy filed with him the day and hour of filing and shall file the contract or copy in his office for public inspection. He shall keep a separate book in which he shall enter the names of the seller and buyer, the date of the contract, the day and hour of filing, a brief description of the goods, the price named in the contract, and the date of cancellation thereof. Such book shall be indexed under the names of both seller and buyer. For filing and entering such contract or copy, or any assignment of such a contract, the registrar shall be entitled to a fee of 50 cents.

Refiling.

SEC. 682. REFILING.—The filing of conditional sale contracts provided for in sections 678 and 679 shall be valid for a period of three years only. The validity of the filing may in each case be extended for successive additional periods of one year from the date of refiling by filing a copy of the original contract within thirty days next preceding the expiration of each period, with a statement attached signed by the seller, showing that the contract is in force and the amount remaining to be paid thereon. Such copy, with statement attached, shall be filed and entered in the same manner as a contract or copy filed and entered for the first time, and the registrar of property shall be entitled to a like fee as upon the original filing.

SEC. 683. CANCELLATION OF CONTRACT.—After the performance of the condition, upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer or any other person having an interest in the goods, the seller shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the demandant a statement that the condition in the contract has been performed. If for ten days after such demand the seller fails to mail or deliver such a statement of satisfaction, he shall forfeit to the demandant $5 and be liable for all damages suffered. Upon presentation of such statement of satisfaction the registrar of property shall file the same and note the cancellation of the contract and the date thereof on the margin of the page where the contract has been entered. For filing and entering the statement of satisfaction the filing officer shall be entitled to a fee of 25 cents.

Cancellation of contract.

SEC. 684. PROHIBITION OF REMOVAL OR SALE WITHOUT NOTICE.—Unless the contract otherwise provides, the buyer may, without the consent of the seller, remove the goods from the Canal Zone and sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of his interest in them; but prior to the performance of the condition, no such buyer shall remove the goods from the Canal Zone, except for temporary uses for a period of not more than thirty days, unless the buyer not less than thirty days before such removal shall give the seller personally or by registered mail written notice of the place to which the goods are to be removed and the approximate time of such intended removal; nor prior to the performance of the conditions shall the buyer sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of his interest in the goods, unless he, or the person to whom he is about to sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the same, shall notify the seller in writing personally or by registered mail of the name and address of the person to whom his interest in the goods is about to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise transferred, not less than ten days before such sale, mortgage, or other disposal. If any buyer does so remove the goods, or does so sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of his interest in them without such notice or in violation of the contract, the seller may retake possession of the goods and deal with them as in case of default in payment of part or all of the purchase price.

Prohibition of removal.

Sale without notice.

SEC. 685. FRAUDULENT INJURY, CONCEALMENT, REMOVAL OR SALE.—When, prior to the performance of the condition, the buyer maliciously or with intent to defraud, shall injure, destroy, or conceal the goods, or remove them from the Canal Zone, without having given the notice required by section 684, or shall sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of such goods under claim of full ownership, he shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in jail for not more than one year or be fined not more than $500 or both.

Fraudulent injury, etc.

Penalty.

SEC. 686. RETAKING POSSESSION.—When the buyer shall be in default in the payment of any sum due under the contract, or in the performance of any other condition which the contract requires him to perform in order to obtain the property in the goods, or in the performance of any promise, the breach of which is by the contract expressly made a ground for the retaking of the goods, the seller may retake possession thereof. Unless the goods can be retaken without breach of the peace, they shall be retaken by legal process; but nothing herein shall be construed to authorize a violation of the criminal law.

Repossession.

Notice of intention.

SEC. 687. NOTICE OF INTENTION TO RETAKE.—Not more than forty nor less than twenty days prior to the retaking, the seller, if he so desires, may serve upon the buyer personally or by registered mail a notice of intention to retake the goods on account of the buyer's default. The notice shall state the default and the period at the end of which the goods will be retaken, and shall briefly and clearly state what the buyer's rights under this chapter will be in case they are retaken. If the notice is so served and the buyer does not perform the obligations in which he has made default before the day set for retaking, the seller may retake the goods and hold them subject to the provisions of sections 689 to 693 regarding resale, but without any right of redemption.

Redemption.

SEC. 688. REDEMPTION.—If the seller does not give the notice of intention to retake described in section 687, he shall retain the goods for ten days after the retaking within the Canal Zone, during which period the buyer, upon payment or tender of the amount due under the contract at the time of retaking and interest, or upon performance or tender of performance of such other condition as may be named in the contract as precedent to the passage of the property in the goods, or upon performance or tender of performance of any other promise for the breach of which the goods were retaken, and upon payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping, and storage, may redeem the goods and become entitled to take possession of them and to continue in the performance of the contract as if no default had occurred. Upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer, the seller shall furnish to the buyer a written statement of the sum due under the contract and the expense of retaking, keeping, and storage. For failure to furnish such statement within a reasonable time after demand, the seller shall forfeit to the buyer $10 and also be liable to him for all damages suffered because of such failure. If the goods are perishable so that retention for ten days as herein prescribed would result in their destruction or substantial injury, the provisions of this section shall not apply, and the seller may resell the goods immediately upon their retaking.

Compulsory resale.

SEC. 689. COMPULSORY RESELL BY SELLER.—If the buyer does not redeem the goods within ten days after the seller has retaken possession, and the buyer has paid at least 50 per centum of the purchase price at the time of the retaking the seller shall sell them at public auction in the Canal Zone, such sale to be held not more than thirty days after the retaking. The seller shall give to the buyer not less than ten days' written notice of the sale, either personally or by registered mail, directed to the buyer at his last known place of business or residence. The seller shall also give notice of the sale by at least three notices posted in different public places within the Zone, at least five days before the sale. If at the time of the retaking $500 or more has been paid on the purchase price, the seller shall also give notice of the sale at least five days before the sale by publication in a newspaper having a general circulation within the Canal Zone. The seller may bid for the goods at the resale.

Resale at option of parties.

SEC. 690. RESELL AT OPTION OF PARTIES.—If the buyer has not paid at least 50 per centum of the purchase price at the time of the retaking, the seller shall not be under a duty to resell the goods as prescribed in section 689, unless the buyer serves upon the seller, within ten days after the retaking, a written notice demanding a resale, delivered personally or by registered mail. If such notice is served, the resale shall take place within thirty days after the service, in the manner, at the place, and upon the notice prescribed in section 689. The seller may voluntarily resell the goods for account of the buyer on compliance with the same requirements.

SEC. 691. PROCEEDS OF RESALE.—The proceeds of the resale shall be applied (1) to the payment of the expenses thereof, (2) to the payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping, and storing the goods, (3) to the satisfaction of the balance due under the contract. Any sum remaining after the satisfaction of such claims shall be paid to the buyer.

Proceeds of resale.

SEC. 692. DEFICIENCY ON RESALE.—If the proceeds of the resale are not sufficient to defray the expenses thereof, and also the expenses of retaking, keeping, and storing the goods and the balance due upon the purchase price, the seller may recover the deficiency from the buyer, or from any one who has succeeded to the obligations of the buyer.

Deficiencies.

SEC. 693. RIGHTS OF PARTIES WHERE THERE IS NO RESALE.—Where there is no resale the seller may retain the goods as his own property without obligation to account to the buyer except as provided in section 695, and the buyer shall be discharged of all obligation.

Rights of parties when no resale.

SEC. 694. ELECTION OF REMEDIES.—After the retaking of possession as provided in section 686 the buyer shall be liable for the price only after a resale and only to the extent provided in section 692. Neither the bringing of an action by the seller for the recovery of the whole or any part of the price, nor the recovery of judgment in such action, nor the collection of a portion of the price, shall be deemed inconsistent with a later retaking of the goods as provided in section 686. But such right of retaking shall not be exercised by the seller after he has collected the entire price or after he has claimed a lien upon the goods, or attached them, or levied upon them as the goods of the buyer.

Election of remedies. Ante, p. 1223.

SEC. 695. RECOVERY OF PART PAYMENTS.—If the seller fails to comply with the provisions of sections 688, 689, 690, 691, and 693, after retaking the goods, the buyer may recover from the seller his actual damages, if any, and in no event less than one-fourth of the sum of all payments which have been made under the contract, with interest.

Recovery of part payments. Ante, p. 1224.

SEC. 696. WAIVER OF STATUTORY PROTECTION.—No act or agreement of the buyer before or at the time of the making of the contract, nor any agreement or statement by the buyer in such contract, shall constitute a valid waiver of the provisions of sections 688, 689, 690, 691, and 695; except that the contract may stipulate that on such default of the buyer as is provided for in section 686, the seller may rescind the conditional sale, either as to all the goods or as to any part thereof for which a specific price was fixed in the contract. If the contract thus provides for rescission, the seller at his option may retake such goods without complying with or being bound by the provisions of sections 687 to 695, inclusive, as to the goods retaken, upon crediting the buyer with the full purchase price of those goods. So much of this credit as is necessary to cancel any indebtedness of the buyer to the seller shall be so applied, and the seller shall repay to the buyer on demand any surplus not so required.

Waiver of statutory protection.

Ante, p. 1224.

SEC. 697. LOSS AND INCREASE.—After the delivery of the goods to the buyer and prior to the retaking of them by the seller, the risk of injury and loss shall rest upon the buyer. The increase of the goods shall be subject to the same conditions as the original goods.

Loss and increase.

SEC. 698. RULES FOR CASES NOT PROVIDED FOR.—In any case not provided for in this chapter the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular those relating to principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion,

Persons who may issue receipts.

SEC. 731. PERSONS WHO MAY ISSUE RECEIPTS.—Warehouse receipts may be issued by any warehouseman.

Form of.

SEC. 732. FORM OF RECEIPTS.—Warehouse receipts need not be in any particular form, but every such receipt must embody within its written or printed terms:

(a) The location of the warehouse where the goods are stored;

(b) The date of issue of the receipt;

(c) The consecutive number of the receipt;

(d) A statement whether the goods received will be delivered to the bearer, to a specified person, or to a specified person or his order;

(e) The rate of storage charges;

(f) A description of the goods or of the packages containing them;

(g) The signature of the warehouseman, which may be made by his authorized agent;

(h) If the receipt is issued for goods of which the warehouseman is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, the fact of such ownership; and

(i) A statement of the amount of advances made and of liabilities incurred for which the warehouseman claims a lien. If the precise amount of such advances made or of such liabilities incurred is, at the time of the issue of the receipt, unknown to the warehouseman or to his agent who issues it, a statement of the fact that advances have been made or liabilities incurred and the purpose thereof is sufficient.

A warehouseman shall be liable to any person injured thereby, for all damage caused by the omission from a negotiable receipt of any of the foregoing terms.

A warehouseman may insert in a receipt, issued by him, any other terms and conditions, provided that such terms and conditions shall not:

- (a) Be contrary to the provisions of this subchapter.
- (b) In anywise impair his obligation to exercise that degree of care in the safe-keeping of the goods intrusted to him which a reasonably careful man would exercise in regard to similar goods of his own.

SEC. 733. NEGOTIABLE AND NONNEGOTIABLE RECEIPTS.—A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the depositor, or to any other specified person, is a nonnegotiable receipt. Negotiable and non-negotiable receipts.

A receipt in which it is stated that the goods received will be delivered to the bearer or to the order of any person named in such receipt is a negotiable receipt. No provision shall be inserted in a negotiable receipt that it is nonnegotiable. Such provision, if inserted, shall be void.

SEC. 734. DUPLICATE RECEIPTS MUST BE SO MARKED.—When more than one negotiable receipt is issued for the same goods, the word "duplicate" shall be plainly placed upon the face of every such receipt, except the one first issued. A warehouseman shall be liable for all damage caused by his failure so to do to any one who purchased the subsequent receipt for value supposing it to be an original, even though the purchase be after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman to the holder of the original receipt. Duplicate receipts must be marked.

SEC. 735. FAILURE TO MARK "NOT NEGOTIABLE."—A nonnegotiable receipt shall have plainly placed upon its face by the warehouseman issuing it "nonnegotiable" or "not negotiable." In case of the warehouseman's failure so to do, a holder of the receipt who purchased it for value supposing it to be negotiable may, at his option, treat such receipt as imposing upon the warehouseman the same liabilities he would have incurred had the receipt been negotiable. This section shall not apply, however, to letters, memoranda, or written acknowledgments of an informal character. Failure to mark "not negotiable."

SEC. 736. OBLIGATION OF WAREHOUSEMAN TO DELIVER.—A warehouseman, in the absence of some lawful excuse provided by this subchapter, is bound to deliver the goods upon a demand made either by the holder of a receipt for the goods or by the depositor, if such demand is accompanied with: Obligation to deliver.

- (a) An offer to satisfy the warehouseman's lien;
- (b) An offer to surrender the receipt if negotiable, with such indorsement as would be necessary for the negotiation of the receipt; and
- (c) A readiness and willingness to sign, when the goods are delivered, and acknowledgment that they have been delivered, if such signature is requested by the warehouseman.

In case the warehouseman refuses or fails to deliver the goods in compliance with a demand by the holder or depositor so accompanied, the burden shall be upon the warehouseman to establish the existence of a lawful excuse for such refusal.

SEC. 737. JUSTIFICATION OF WAREHOUSEMAN IN DELIVERING.—A warehouseman is justified in delivering the goods, subject to the provisions of sections 738 to 740, to one who is: When delivery justified.

- (a) The person lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods, or his agent;
  - (b) A person who is either himself entitled to delivery by the terms of a nonnegotiable receipt issued for the goods, or who has
- Post, p. 1232.

written authority from the person so entitled either indorsed upon the receipt or written upon another paper; or

(c) A person in possession of a negotiable receipt by the terms of which the goods are delivered to him or order or to bearer, or which has been indorsed to him or in blank by the person to whom delivery was promised by the terms of the receipt or by his mediate or immediate indorsee.

Liability for mis-delivery.

SEC. 738. WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIABILITY FOR MISDELIVERY.—Where a warehouseman delivers the goods to one who is not in fact lawfully entitled to the possession of them, the warehouseman shall be liable as for conversion to all having a right of property or possession in the goods if he delivered the goods otherwise than as authorized by subdivisions (b) and (c) of section 737 and though he delivered the goods as authorized by said subdivisions he shall be so liable, if prior to such delivery he had either—

(a) Been requested, by or on behalf of the person lawfully entitled to a right of property or possession in the goods, not to make such delivery; or

(b) Had information that the delivery about to be made was to one not lawfully entitled to the possession of the goods.

Cancellation of negotiable receipts.

Post, p. 1236.

SEC. 739. NEGOTIABLE RECEIPTS MUST BE CANCELED OR MARKED WHEN GOODS OR PART THEREOF ARE DELIVERED.—Except as provided in section 762, where a warehouseman delivers goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt, the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of the goods, and fails to take up and cancel the receipt, he shall be liable to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver the goods to him, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of the goods by the warehouseman.

Except as provided in said section 762, where a warehouseman delivers part of the goods for which he had issued a negotiable receipt and fails either to take up and cancel such receipt, or to place plainly upon it a statement of what goods or packages have been delivered he shall be liable, to anyone who purchases for value in good faith such receipt, for failure to deliver all the goods specified in the receipt, whether such purchaser acquired title to the receipt before or after the delivery of any portion of the goods by the warehouseman.

Altered receipts.

SEC. 740. ALTERED RECEIPTS.—The alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from any liability if such alteration was

- (a) Immaterial;
- (b) Authorized; or
- (c) Made without fraudulent intent.

Liability thereon.

If the alteration was authorized, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt as altered. If the alteration was unauthorized, but made without fraudulent intent, the warehouseman shall be liable according to the terms of the receipt, as they were before alteration. Material and fraudulent alteration of a receipt shall not excuse the warehouseman who issued it from liability to deliver, according to the terms of the receipt as originally issued, the goods for which it was issued, but shall excuse him from any other liability to the person who made the alteration and to any person who took with notice of the alteration. Any purchaser of the receipt for value without notice of the alteration shall acquire the same rights against the warehouseman which such purchaser would have acquired if the receipt had not been altered at the time of the purchase.

SEC. 741. LOST OR DESTROYED RECEIPTS.—Where a negotiable receipt has been lost or destroyed, a court of competent jurisdiction may order the delivery of the goods upon satisfactory proof of such loss or destruction and upon the giving of a bond with sufficient sureties to be approved by the court to protect the warehouseman from any liability or expense, which he or any person injured by such delivery may incur by reason of the original receipt remaining outstanding. The court may also in its discretion order the payment of the warehouseman's reasonable costs and counsel fees. The delivery of the goods under an order of the court as provided in this section shall not relieve the warehouseman from liability to a person to whom the negotiable receipt has been or shall be negotiated for value without notice of the proceedings or of the delivery of the goods.

Lost and destroyed receipts.

SEC. 742. EFFECT OF DUPLICATE RECEIPTS.—A receipt upon the face of which the word "duplicate" is plainly placed is a representation and warranty by the warehouseman that such receipt is an accurate copy of an original receipt properly issued and uncanceled at the date of the issue of the duplicate, but shall impose upon him no other liability.

Effect of duplicate receipts.

SEC. 743. WAREHOUSEMAN CAN NOT SET UP TITLE IN HIMSELF.—No title or right to the possession of the goods, on the part of the warehouseman, unless such title or right is derived directly or indirectly from a transfer made by the depositor at the time of or subsequent to the deposit for storage, or from the warehouseman's lien, shall excuse the warehouseman from liability for refusing to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Warehouseman can not set up title in himself.

SEC. 744. INTERPLEADER OF ADVERSE CLAIMANTS.—If more than one person claim the title or possession of the goods, the warehouseman may, either as a defense to an action brought against him for non-delivery of the goods, or as an original suit, whichever is appropriate, require all known claimants to interplead.

Interpleader when adverse claimants.

SEC. 745. WAREHOUSEMAN HAS REASONABLE TIME TO DETERMINE VALIDITY OF CLAIMS.—If some one other than the depositor or person claiming under him has a claim to the title or possession of the goods, and the warehouseman has information of such claim, the warehouseman shall be excused from liability for refusing to deliver the goods, either to the depositor or person claiming under him or to the adverse claimant, until the warehouseman has had a reasonable time to ascertain the validity of the adverse claim or to bring legal proceedings to compel all claimants to interplead.

Time to determine validity of claims.

SEC. 746. ADVERSE TITLE IS NO DEFENSE EXCEPT AS ABOVE PROVIDED.—Except as provided in sections 744 and 745 and in sections 737 and 762, no right or title of a third person shall be a defense to an action brought by the depositor or person claiming under him against the warehouseman for failure to deliver the goods according to the terms of the receipt.

Adverse title as defense.

Ante, p. 1231; post, p. 1236.

SEC. 747. LIABILITY FOR NONEXISTENCE OR MISDESCRIPTION OF GOODS.—A warehouseman shall be liable to the holder of a receipt, issued by him or on his behalf by an agent or employee the scope of whose actual or apparent authority includes the issuing of warehouse receipts, for damages caused by the nonexistence of the goods or by the failure of the goods to correspond with the description thereof in the receipt at the time of its issue. If, however, the goods are described in a receipt merely by a statement of marks or labels upon them, or upon packages containing them, or by a statement that the goods are said to be goods of a certain kind, or that the packages containing the goods are said to contain goods of a certain kind, or by words of like purport, such statements, if true, shall not make liable the warehouseman issuing the receipt, although the goods are not of the kind which the marks or labels upon them indicate, or of the kind they were said to be by the depositor.

Liability for nonexistence or misdescription of goods.

For care of goods.

SEC. 748. LIABILITY FOR CARE OF GOODS.—A warehouseman shall be liable for any loss or injury to the goods caused by his failure to exercise such care in regard to them as a reasonably careful owner of similar goods would exercise, but he shall not be liable, in the absence of an agreement to the contrary, for any loss or injury to the goods which could not have been avoided by the exercise of such care.

Goods must be kept separate.

SEC. 749. GOODS MUST BE KEPT SEPARATE.—Except as provided in section 750, a warehouseman shall keep the goods so far separate from goods of other depositors, and from other goods of the same depositor for which a separate receipt has been issued, as to permit at all times the identification and redelivery of the goods deposited.

Commingled goods.

SEC. 750. COMMINGLED GOODS AND WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIABILITY THEREFOR.—If authorized by agreement or by custom, a warehouseman may mingle fungible goods with other goods of the same kind and grade. In such case the various depositors of the mingled goods shall own the entire mass in common, and each depositor shall be entitled to such portion thereof as the amount deposited by him bears to the whole.

Liability.

The warehouseman shall be severally liable to each depositor for the care and redelivery of his share of such mass to the same extent and under the same circumstances as if the goods had been kept separate.

Attachment or levy upon goods for which a negotiable receipt has been issued.

SEC. 751. ATTACHMENT OR LEVY UPON GOODS FOR WHICH A NEGOTIABLE RECEIPT HAS BEEN ISSUED.—If goods are delivered to a warehouseman by the owner or by a person whose act in conveying the title to them to a purchaser<sup>1</sup> in good faith for value would bind the owner, and a negotiable receipt is issued for them, they can not thereafter, while in the possession of the warehouseman, be attached by garnishment or otherwise, or be levied upon under an execution, unless the receipt be first surrendered to the warehouseman, or its negotiation enjoined. The warehouseman shall in no case be compelled to deliver up the actual possession of the goods until the receipt is surrendered to him or impounded by the court.

Creditors remedies, negotiable receipts.

SEC. 752.—CREDITORS REMEDIES TO REACH NEGOTIABLE RECEIPTS.—A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a negotiable receipt shall be entitled to such aid from courts of appropriate jurisdiction, by injunction and otherwise, in attaching such receipt or in satisfying the claim by means thereof as is allowed at law or in equity, in regard to property which can not readily be attached or levied upon by ordinary legal process.

Claims included in warehouseman's lien.
Post, p. 1235.

SEC. 753. WHAT CLAIMS ARE INCLUDED IN THE WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIEN.—Subject to the provisions of section 756, a warehouseman shall have a lien on goods deposited or on the proceeds thereof in his hands, for all lawful charges for storage and preservation of the goods; also for all lawful claims for money advanced, interest, insurance, transportation, labor, weighing, cooping and other charges and expenses in relation to such goods; also for all reasonable charges and expenses for notice, and advertisements of sale, and for sale of the goods where default has been made in satisfying the warehouseman's lien.

Against what property lien may be enforced.

SEC. 754. AGAINST WHAT PROPERTY THE LIEN MAY BE ENFORCED.—Subject to the provisions of section 756, a warehouseman's lien may be enforced:

(a) Against all goods, whenever deposited, belonging to the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted; and

(b) Against all goods belonging to others which have been deposited at any time by the person who is liable as debtor for the claims in regard to which the lien is asserted, if such person had been so intrusted with the possession of the goods that a pledge of the same by him at the time of the deposit to one who took the goods in good faith for value would have been valid.

SEC. 755. HOW THE LIEN MAY BE LOST.—A warehouseman loses his lien upon goods:

Loss of lien.

(a) By surrendering possession thereof; or

(b) By refusing to deliver the goods when a demand is made with which he is bound to comply under the provisions of this subchapter.

SEC. 756. NEGOTIABLE RECEIPT MUST STATE CHARGES FOR WHICH LIEN IS CLAIMED.—If a negotiable receipt is issued for goods, the warehouseman shall have no lien thereon, except for charges for storage of those goods subsequent to the date of the receipt, unless the receipt expressly enumerates other charges for which a lien is claimed. In such case there shall be a lien for the charges enumerated so far as they are within the terms of section 753, although the amount of the charges so enumerated is not stated in the receipt.

Negotiable receipt must state charges for which lien is claimed.

Anie, p. 1234.

SEC. 757. WAREHOUSEMAN NEED NOT DELIVER UNTIL LIEN IS SATISFIED.—A warehouseman having a lien valid against the person demanding the goods may refuse to deliver the goods to him until the lien is satisfied.

Delivery not required until lien satisfied.

SEC. 758. WAREHOUSEMAN'S LIEN DOES NOT PRECLUDE OTHER REMEDIES.—Whether a warehouseman has or has not a lien upon the goods, he is entitled to all remedies allowed by law to a creditor against his debtor for the collection from the depositor of all charges and advances which the depositor has expressly or impliedly contracted with the warehouseman to pay.

Lien does not preclude other remedies.

SEC. 759. SATISFACTION OF LIEN BY SALE.—A warehouseman's lien for a claim which has become due may be satisfied as follows: The warehouseman shall give a written notice to the person on whose account the goods are held, and to any other person known by the warehouseman to claim an interest in the goods. Such notice shall be given by delivery in person or by registered letter addressed to the last known place of business or abode of the person to be notified. The notice shall contain:

Satisfaction of lien by sale.

Notice to interested parties.

Contents.

(a) An itemized statement of the warehouseman's claim, showing the sum due at the time of the notice and the date or dates when it became due;

(b) A brief description of the goods against which the lien exists;

(c) A demand that the amount of the claim as stated in the notice, and of such further claim as shall accrue, shall be paid on or before a day mentioned, not less than ten days from the delivery of the notice if it is personally delivered, or from the time when the notice should reach its destination, according to the due course of post, if the notice is sent by mail; and

(d) A statement that unless the claim is paid within the time specified the goods will be advertised for sale and sold by auction at a specified time and place.

At auction.

In accordance with the terms of a notice so given, a sale of the goods by auction may be had to satisfy any valid claim of the warehouseman for which he has a lien on the goods. The sale shall be had in the place where the lien was acquired, or, if such a place is manifestly unsuitable for the purpose, at the nearest suitable place.

- Notice of auction. After the time for the payment of the claim specified in the notice to the depositor has elapsed, a notice of the sale, describing the goods to be sold, and stating the name of the owner or person on whose account the goods are held, and the time and place of the sale, shall be posted for two consecutive weeks on the bulletin board of each post office of the Canal Zone. The sale shall not be held less than fifteen days from the time when such notices were posted. From the proceeds of such sale the warehouseman shall satisfy his lien, including the reasonable charges of notice and sale. The balance, if any, of such proceeds shall be held by the warehouseman, and delivered on demand to the person to whom he would have been bound to deliver or justified in delivering the goods: Provided, however, That in case any such balance shall not be claimed by the rightful owner within one month from the day of said sale, the same shall be paid to the collector of the Panama Canal; and if the same be not claimed by the owner thereof or his legal representatives within one year thereafter, the same shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts. At any time before the goods are so sold any person claiming a right of property or possession therein may pay the warehouseman the amount necessary to satisfy his lien and to pay the reasonable expenses and liabilities incurred in serving and posting notices and preparing for the sale up to the time of such payment. The warehouseman shall deliver the goods to the person making such payment if he is a person entitled, under the provisions of this subchapter, to the possession of the goods on payment of the charges thereon. Otherwise the warehouseman shall retain possession of the goods according to the terms of the original contract of deposit.
- Proviso.*
Disposition of unclaimed balance.
- Perishable and hazardous goods. SEC. 760. PERISHABLE AND HAZARDOUS GOODS.—If goods are of a perishable nature, or by keeping will deteriorate greatly in value, or by their odor, leakage, inflammability, or explosive nature will be liable to injure other property, the warehouseman may give such notice to the owner, or to the person in whose name the goods are stored, as is reasonable and possible under the circumstances, to satisfy the lien upon such goods and to remove them from the warehouse, and in the event of the failure of such person to satisfy the lien and to remove the goods within the time so specified, the warehouseman may sell the goods at public or private sale without posting notices. If the warehouseman after a reasonable effort is unable to sell such goods, he may dispose of them in any lawful manner, and shall incur no liability by reason thereof. The proceeds of any sale made under the terms of this section shall be disposed of in the same way as the proceeds of sales made under the terms of section 759.
- Other methods of enforcing liens. SEC. 761. OTHER METHODS OF ENFORCING LIENS.—The remedy for enforcing a lien herein provided does not preclude any other remedies allowed by law for the enforcement of a lien against personal property nor bar the right to recover so much of the warehouseman's claim as shall not be paid by the proceeds of the sale of the property.
- Effect of sale. SEC. 762. EFFECT OF SALE.—After goods have been lawfully sold to satisfy a warehouseman's lien, or have been lawfully sold or disposed of because of their perishable or hazardous nature, the warehouseman shall not thereafter be liable for failure to deliver the goods to the depositor, or owner of the goods, or to a holder of the receipt given for the goods when they were deposited, even if such receipt be negotiable.
- Negotiation of receipts by delivery. SEC. 763. NEGOTIATION OF NEGOTIABLE RECEIPTS BY DELIVERY AND BY INDORSEMENT.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by delivery:

(a) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the bearer; or

(b) Where, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of a specified person, and such person or a subsequent indorsee of the receipt has indorsed it in blank or to bearer.

Where, by the terms of a negotiable receipt, the goods are deliverable to bearer or where a negotiable receipt has been indorsed in blank or to bearer, any holder may indorse the same to himself or to any other specified person, and in such case the receipt shall thereafter be negotiated only by the indorsement of such indorsee.

A negotiable receipt may be negotiated by the indorsement of the person to whose order the goods are, by the terms of the receipt, deliverable. Such indorsement may be in blank, to bearer or to a specified person. If indorsed to a specified person, it may be again negotiated by the indorsement of such person in blank, to bearer or to another specified person. Subsequent negotiation may be made in like manner.

By indorsement.

SEC. 764. TRANSFER OF RECEIPTS.—A receipt which is not in such form that it can be negotiated by delivery may be transferred by the holder by delivery to a purchaser or donee. A nonnegotiable receipt can not be negotiated, and the indorsement of such a receipt gives the transferee no additional right.

Transfer of.

SEC. 765. WHO MAY NEGOTIATE A RECEIPT.—A negotiable receipt may be negotiated:

Who may negotiate.

By any person in possession of the same, however such possession may have been acquired, if, by the terms of the receipt, the warehouseman undertakes to deliver the goods to the order of such person or if at the time of negotiation the receipt is in such form that it may be negotiated by delivery.

SEC. 766. RIGHTS OF PERSON TO WHOM A RECEIPT HAS BEEN NEGOTIATED.—A person to whom a negotiable receipt has been duly negotiated acquires thereby:

Rights of person to whom negotiated.

(a) Such title to the goods as the person negotiating the receipt to him had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value, and also such title to the goods as the depositor or person to whose order the goods were to be delivered by the terms of the receipt had or had ability to convey to a purchaser in good faith for value; and

(b) The direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt as fully as if the warehouseman had contracted directly with him.

To whom transferred.

SEC. 767. RIGHTS OF PERSON TO WHOM A RECEIPT HAS BEEN TRANSFERRED.—A person to whom a receipt has been transferred but not negotiated acquires thereby, as against the transferor, the title to the goods, subject to the terms of any agreement with the transferor. If the receipt is nonnegotiable, such person also acquires the right to notify the warehouseman of the transfer to him of such receipt, and thereby to acquire the direct obligation of the warehouseman to hold possession of the goods for him according to the terms of the receipt. Prior to the notification of the warehouseman by the transferor or transferee of a nonnegotiable receipt, the title of the transferee to the goods and the right to acquire the obligation of the warehouseman may be defeated by the levy of an attachment or execution upon the goods by a creditor of the transferor, or by a notification to the warehouseman by the transferor, or a subsequent purchaser from the transferor of a subsequent sale of the goods by the transferor.

Transfer without indorsement.

SEC. 768. TRANSFER OF NEGOTIABLE RECEIPT WITHOUT INDORSEMENT.—Where a negotiable receipt is transferred for value by delivery, and the indorsement of the transferor is essential for negotiation, the transferee acquires a right against the transferor to compel him to indorse the receipt, unless a contrary intention appears. The negotiation shall take effect as of the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Warranties of transferor, etc.

SEC. 769. WARRANTIES ON SALE OF RECEIPT.—A person who for value negotiates or transfers a receipt by indorsement or delivery, including one who assigns for value a claim secured by a receipt, unless a contrary intention appears, warrants:

(a) That the receipt is genuine;

(b) That he has a legal right to negotiate or transfer it;

(c) That he has knowledge of no fact which would impair the validity or worth of the receipt; and

(d) That he has a right to transfer the title to the goods, and that the goods are merchantable or fit for a particular purpose whenever such warranties would have been implied, if the contract of the parties had been to transfer without a receipt the goods represented thereby.

Indorser not a guarantor.

SEC. 770. INDORSER NOT A GUARANTOR.—The indorsement of a receipt shall not make the indorser liable for any failure on the part of the warehouseman or previous indorsers of the receipt to fulfill their respective obligations.

No warranty implied from accepting payment of a debt.

SEC. 771. NO WARRANTY IMPLIED FROM ACCEPTING PAYMENT OF A DEBT.—A mortgagee, pledgee, or holder for security of a receipt who in good faith demands or receives payment of the debt for which such receipt is security, whether from a party to a draft drawn for such debt or from any other person, shall not by so doing be deemed to represent or to warrant the genuineness of such receipt or the quantity or quality of the goods therein described.

Effect of fraud, etc., on negotiation.

SEC. 772. WHEN NEGOTIATION NOT IMPAIRED BY FRAUD, MISTAKE, OR DURESS.—The validity of the negotiation of a receipt is not impaired by the fact that such negotiation was a breach of duty on the part of the person making the negotiation, or by the fact that the owner of the receipt was deprived of the possession of the same by loss, theft, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, or conversion, if the person to whom the receipt was negotiated, or a person to whom the receipt was subsequently negotiated, paid value therefor, in good faith, without notice of the breach of duty, or loss, theft, fraud, accident, mistake, duress, or conversion.

Subsequent negotiations.

SEC. 773. SUBSEQUENT NEGOTIATION.—Where a person having sold, mortgaged, or pledged goods which are in a warehouse and for which a negotiable receipt has been issued, or having sold, mortgaged, or pledged the negotiable receipt representing such goods, continues in possession of the negotiable receipt, the subsequent negotiation thereof by that person under any sale, or other disposition thereof to any person receiving the same in good faith, for value and without notice of the previous sale, mortgage, or pledge, shall have the same effect as if the first purchaser of the goods or receipt had expressly authorized the subsequent negotiation.

Negotiation defeats vendor's lien.

SEC. 774. NEGOTIATION DEFEATS VENDOR'S LIEN.—Where a negotiable receipt has been issued for goods, no seller's lien or right of stoppage in transitu shall defeat the rights of any purchaser for value in good faith to whom such receipt has been negotiated, whether such negotiation be prior or subsequent to the notification to the warehouseman who issued such receipt of the seller's claim to a lien or right of stoppage in transitu. Nor shall the warehouseman be obliged to deliver or be justified in delivering the goods to an unpaid seller unless the receipt is first surrendered for cancellation.

SEC. 775. ISSUE OF RECEIPT FOR GOODS NOT RECEIVED.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a receipt knowing that the goods for which such receipt is issued have not been actually received by such warehouseman, or are not under his actual control at the time of issuing such receipt, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

Issue of receipt for goods not received.

Penalties.

SEC. 776. ISSUE OF RECEIPT CONTAINING FALSE STATEMENT.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who fraudulently issues or aids in fraudulently issuing a receipt for goods knowing that it contains any false statement, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

Issue of receipt containing false statement.

SEC. 777. ISSUE OF DUPLICATE RECEIPTS NOT SO MARKED.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman, who issues or aids in issuing a duplicate or additional negotiable receipt for goods knowing that a former negotiable receipt for the same goods or any part of them is outstanding and uncanceled, without plainly placing upon the face thereof the word "Duplicate," except in the case of a lost or destroyed receipt after proceedings as provided for in section 741, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

Duplicate receipts.

Ante, p. 1233.

SEC. 778. ISSUE FOR WAREHOUSEMAN'S GOODS OF RECEIPTS WHICH DO NOT STATE THAT FACT.—Where there are deposited with or held by a warehouseman goods of which he is owner, either solely or jointly or in common with others, such warehouseman, or any of his officers, agents, or servants who, knowing this ownership, issues or aids in issuing a negotiable receipt for such goods which does not state such ownership, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

When warehouseman has a title therein.

SEC. 779. DELIVERY OF GOODS WITHOUT OBTAINING NEGOTIABLE RECEIPT.—A warehouseman, or any officer, agent, or servant of a warehouseman who delivers goods out of the possession of such warehouseman, knowing that a negotiable receipt the negotiation of which would transfer the right to the possession of such goods is outstanding and uncanceled, without obtaining the possession of such receipt at or before the time of such delivery, shall, except in the cases provided for in sections 741 and 762, be found guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

Delivery without obtaining negotiable receipt.

Ante, pp. 1233, 1236.

SEC. 780. NEGOTIATION OF RECEIPT FOR MORTGAGED GOODS.—Any person who deposits goods to which he has not title, or upon which there is a lien or mortgage, and who takes for such goods a negotiable receipt which he afterwards negotiates for value with intent to deceive and without disclosing his want of title or the existence of the lien or mortgage, shall be guilty of a crime, and upon conviction shall be punished for each offense by imprisonment in jail not exceeding one year, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000, or by both.

Negotiation of receipt for mortgaged goods.

SEC. 781. WHEN RULES OF COMMON LAW STILL APPLICABLE.—In any case not provided for in this subchapter, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular the rules relating to the law of principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress, or coercion, mistake, or other invalidating cause, shall govern.

Definitions.

SEC. 783. DEFINITIONS.—(1) In this subchapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

“Action” includes counterclaim, set-off, and suit in equity.

“Delivery” means voluntary transfer of possession from one person to another.

“Fungible goods” means goods of which any unit is, from its nature or by mercantile custom, treated as the equivalent of any other unit.

“Goods” means chattels or merchandise in storage, or which has been or is about to be stored.

“Holder” of a receipt means a person who has both actual possession of such receipt and a right of property therein.

“Order” means an order by indorsement on the receipt.

“Owner” does not include mortgagee or pledgee.

“Person” includes a corporation or partnership or two or more persons having a joint or common interest.

To “purchase” includes to take as mortgagee or as pledgee.

“Purchaser” includes mortgagee and pledgee.

“Receipt” means a warehouse receipt.

“Value” is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or preexisting obligation, whether for money or not, constitutes value where a receipt is taken either in satisfaction thereof or as security therefor.

“Warehouseman” means a person lawfully engaged in the business of storing goods for profit.

(2) A thing is done “in good faith” within the meaning of this subchapter, when it is in fact done honestly, whether it be done negligently or not.

Provisions not retro-active.

SEC. 784. APPLICATION TO EXISTING RECEIPTS.—The provisions of this subchapter do not apply to receipts made and delivered prior to the taking effect of this subchapter.

Innkeepers.

INNKEEPERS

Lien on baggage of guests.

SEC. 785. HOTELS HAVE LIEN ON BAGGAGE OF GUESTS; MAY SELL BAGGAGE; RESIDUE; BAGGAGE NOT BELONGING TO GUEST.—Hotel, inn, boarding-house, and lodging-house keepers shall have a lien upon the baggage and other property belonging to or legally under the control of their guests, or boarders, or lodgers which may be in such hotel, inn, or boarding or lodging house for the proper charges due from such guests, or boarders, or lodgers, for their accommodation, board and lodging, and room rent, and such extras as are furnished at their request, and for all money paid for or advanced to such guests, or boarders or lodgers, and for the costs of enforcing such lien, with the right to the possession of such baggage and other property until such charges and moneys are paid.

Sale under.

And unless such charges and moneys shall be paid when the same become due, said hotel, inn, boarding-house, or lodging-house keeper may sell said baggage and property under the conditions prescribed in sections 759 to 762 of this code relating to warehousemen.

Ante, p. 1235.

Sale of unclaimed baggage; notice.

SEC. 786. UNCLAIMED BAGGAGE MAY BE SOLD AT AUCTION; NOTICE.—Whenever any trunk, carpetbag, valise, box, bundle, or other baggage has heretofore come, or shall hereafter come into the possession of the keeper of any hotel, inn, boarding or lodging house, and has remained or shall remain unclaimed for a period of three months, such keeper shall proceed to sell the same under the conditions prescribed in sections 759 to 762 of this code relating to warehousemen.

Ante, p. 1235.

FINDING

Finding.

SEC. 787. OBLIGATION OF FINDER.—One who finds a thing lost is not bound to take charge of it, but if he does so he is thenceforward a depositary for the owner, with the rights and obligations of a depositary for hire.

Finder as bailee.

SEC. 788. FINDER OF GOODS OR MONEY, OR SAVING ANIMALS, DUTY OF.—If the finder of a thing, other than a domestic animal, takes possession thereof, or if a person saves any such animal from drowning or starvation, he must, within a reasonable time, inform the owner thereof, if known, and make restitution to him upon demand, without compensation, except a reasonable charge for saving and caring therefor.

Notice to owner.

If the owner is not known to such finder or saver, he must, within five days, file an affidavit with the magistrate of the subdivision in which the finding or saving took place, particularly describing the property and the time, place, and circumstances under which it was found or saved.

When owner unknown.

SEC. 789. CLAIMANT TO PROVE OWNERSHIP.—The finder of a thing may, in good faith, before giving it up, require reasonable proof of ownership from any person claiming it.

Claimant to prove ownership.

SEC. 790. REWARD, AND SO FORTH, TO FINDER.—The finder of a thing is entitled to compensation for all expenses necessarily incurred by him in its preservation, and for any other service necessarily performed by him about it, and to a reasonable reward for keeping it.

Rewards, etc.

SEC. 791. FINDER MAY PUT THING FOUND ON STORAGE.—The finder of a thing may exonerate himself from liability at any time by placing it on storage with any responsible person of good character, at a reasonable expense.

Storage.

SEC. 792. WHEN FINDER MAY SELL THE THING FOUND.—The finder of a thing may sell it, if it is a thing which is commonly the subject of sale, when the owner can not, with reasonable diligence, be found, or, being found, refuses upon demand to pay the lawful charges of the finder, in the following cases:

Sale.

1. When the thing is in danger of perishing or of losing the greater part of its value; or
2. When the lawful charges of the finder amount to two-thirds of its value.

SEC. 793. HOW SALE IS TO BE MADE.—A sale under the provisions of section 792 must be made in the same manner as the sale of a thing pledged.

How made.

SEC. 807. LENDER MAY REQUIRE RETURN OF THING LENT.—The lender of a thing for use may at any time require its return, even though he lent it for a specified time or purpose. But if, on the faith of such an agreement, the borrower has made such arrangements that a return of the thing before the period agreed upon would cause him loss, exceeding the benefit derived by him from the loan, the lender must indemnify him for such loss, if he compels such return, the borrower not having in any manner violated his duty.

Lender may require return.

SEC. 808.—WHEN RETURNABLE WITHOUT DEMAND.—If a thing is lent for use for a specified time or purpose, it must be returned to the lender without demand, as soon as the time has expired, or the purpose has been accomplished. In other cases it need not be returned until demanded.

When returnable without demand.

SEC. 809. PLACE OF RETURN.—The borrower of a thing for use must return it to the lender, at the place contemplated by the parties at the time of lending; or if no particular place was so contemplated by them, then at the place where it was at the time.

Place of return.

Vol. 35, p. 65.

Vol. 27, p. 531.

SEC. 840. SCOPE OF CHAPTER.—The scope of this chapter is not confined to servants, but includes factors, brokers, carriers, agents, and all similar classes of persons.

Scope.

DEFINITION OF EMPLOYMENT

SEC. 841. EMPLOYMENT, WHAT.—The contract of employment is a contract by which one, who is called the employer, engages another, who is called the employee, to do something for the benefit of the employer or of a third person.

Employment.

Defined.

OBLIGATIONS OF EMPLOYER

SEC. 842. WHEN EMPLOYER MUST INDEMNIFY EMPLOYEE.—An employer must indemnify his employee, except as prescribed in section 843, for all that he necessarily expends or loses in direct consequence of the discharge of his duties as such, or of his obedience to the directions of the employer, even though unlawful, unless the employee, at the time of obeying such directions, believed them to be unlawful.

Obligations of employer.

When employer must indemnify employee.

SEC. 843. WHEN EMPLOYER NOT BOUND TO INDEMNIFY EMPLOYEE.—An employer is not bound to indemnify his employee for losses suffered by the latter in consequence of the ordinary risks of the business in which he is employed nor in consequence of the negligence of another person employed by the same employer in the same general business, unless the negligence causing the injury was committed in the performance of a duty the employer owes by law to the employee, or unless the employer has neglected to use ordinary care in the selection of the culpable employee; provided, nevertheless, that the employer shall be liable for such injury when the same results from the wrongful act, neglect, or default of any agent or officer of such employer, superior to the employee injured, or of a person employed by such employer having the right to control or direct the services of such employee injured, and also when such injury results from the wrongful act, neglect, or default of a coemployee engaged in another department of labor from that of the employee injured, or employed upon a machine or other appliance other than that upon which the employee injured is employed.

When not bound to indemnify employee.

Knowledge by an employee injured of the defective or unsafe character or condition of any machinery, ways, appliances or structures of such employer shall not be a bar to recovery for any injury or death caused thereby, unless it shall also appear that such employee

Knowledge of defective machinery, etc.

fully understood, comprehended and appreciated the dangers incident to the use of such defective machinery, ways, appliances or structures, and thereafter consented to use the same, or continued in the use thereof.

Contracts waiving benefits void.

Any contract or agreement, express or implied, made by any such employee to waive the benefits of this section, or any part thereof, shall be null and void, and this section shall not be construed to deprive any such employee or his personal representative of any right or remedy to which he is now entitled under the laws of the Canal Zone.

Contributory negligence.

The rules and principles of law as to contributory negligence which apply to other cases shall apply to cases arising under this section, except in so far as the same are herein modified or changed.

Employer to indemnify for own negligence.

SEC. 844. EMPLOYER TO INDEMNIFY FOR HIS OWN NEGLIGENCE.—An employer must in all cases indemnify his employee for losses caused by the former's want of ordinary care.

Obligations of employee.

OBLIGATIONS OF EMPLOYEE

Duties of gratuitous employee.

SEC. 845. DUTIES OF GRATUITOUS EMPLOYEE.—One who, without consideration, undertakes to do a service for another, is not bound to perform the same, but if he actually enters upon its performance, he must use at least slight care and diligence therein.

Upon own special request.

SEC. 846. SAME.—One who, by his own special request, induces another to intrust him with the performance of a service, must perform the same fully. In other cases, one who undertakes a gratuitous service may relinquish it at any time.

With written power of attorney.

SEC. 847. SAME.—A gratuitous employee, who accepts a written power of attorney, must act under it so long as it remains in force, or until he gives notice to his employer that he will not do so.

Employee for reward.

SEC. 848. DUTIES OF EMPLOYEE FOR REWARD.—One who, for a good consideration, agrees to serve another, must perform the service, and must use ordinary care and diligence therein, so long as he is thus employed.

Employee for his own benefit.

SEC. 849. DUTIES OF EMPLOYEE FOR HIS OWN BENEFIT.—One who is employed at his own request to do that which is more for his own advantage than for that of his employer, must use great care and diligence therein to protect the interest of the latter.

Obedience.

SEC. 850. EMPLOYEE MUST OBEY EMPLOYER.—An employee must substantially comply with all the directions of his employer concerning the service on which he is engaged, except where such obedience is impossible or unlawful, or would impose new and unreasonable burdens upon the employee.

Conformity to usage.

SEC. 851. EMPLOYEE TO CONFORM TO USAGE.—An employee must perform his service in conformity to the usage of the place of performance, unless otherwise directed by his employer, or, unless it is impracticable, or manifestly injurious to his employer to do so.

Degree of skill required.

SEC. 852. DEGREE OF SKILL REQUIRED.—An employee is bound to exercise a reasonable degree of skill, unless his employer has notice, before employing him, of his want of skill.

Must use what skill he has.

SEC. 853. MUST USE WHAT SKILL HE HAS.—An employee is always bound to use such skill as he possesses, so far as the same is required, for the service specified.

What belongs to employer.

SEC. 854. WHAT BELONGS TO EMPLOYER.—Everything which an employee acquires by virtue of his employment, except the compensation, if any, which is due to him from his employer, belongs to the latter, whether acquired lawfully or unlawfully, or during or after the expiration of the term of his employment.

SEC. 855. DUTY TO ACCOUNT.—An employee must, on demand, render to his employer just accounts of all his transactions in the course of his service, as often as may be reasonable, and must, without demand, give prompt notice to his employer of everything which he receives for his account. Duty to account.

SEC. 856. EMPLOYEE NOT BOUND TO DELIVER WITHOUT DEMAND.—An employee who receives anything on account of his employer, in any capacity other than that of a mere servant, is not bound to deliver it to him until demanded, and is not at liberty to send it to him from a distance, without demand, in any mode involving greater risk than its retention by the employee himself. Delivery without demand.

SEC. 857. PREFERENCE TO BE GIVEN TO EMPLOYERS.—An employee who has any business to transact on his own account, similar to that intrusted to him by his employer, must always give the latter the preference. Preference to be given to employers.

SEC. 858. RESPONSIBILITY FOR NEGLIGENCE.—An employee who is guilty of a culpable degree of negligence is liable to his employer for the damage thereby caused to the latter; and the employer is liable to him, if the service is not gratuitous, for the value of such services only as are properly rendered. Responsibility for negligence.

SEC. 859.—SURVIVING EMPLOYEE.—Where service is to be rendered by two or more persons jointly, and one of them dies, the survivor must act alone, if the service to be rendered is such as he can rightly perform without the aid of the deceased person, but not otherwise. Surviving employee.

SEC. 860. CONFIDENTIAL EMPLOYMENT.—The obligations peculiar to confidential employments are defined in chapters 49 and 50 of this code on trusts. Confidential employment.
Post, pp. 1258, 1261.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

SEC. 861. EMPLOYMENT, HOW TERMINATED.—Every employment in which the power of the employee is not coupled with an interest in its subject is terminated by notice to him of: Termination of employment.
How.

1. The death of the employer; or
2. His legal incapacity to contract.

SEC. 862. SAME.—Every employment is terminated:

1. By the expiration of its appointed term;
2. By the extinction of its subject;
3. By the death of the employee; or
4. By his legal incapacity to act as such.

SEC. 863. CONTINUANCE OF SERVICE IN CERTAIN CASES.—An employee, unless the term of his service has expired, or unless he has a right to discontinue it at any time without notice, must continue his service after notice of the death or incapacity of his employer, so far as is necessary to protect from serious injury the interests of the employer's successor in interest, until a reasonable time after notice of the facts has been communicated to such successor. The successor must compensate the employee for such service according to the terms of the contract of employment. Continuance of service in certain cases.

SEC. 864. TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT.—An employment, having no specified terms, may be terminated at the will of either party, on notice to the other. Employment for a specified term shall mean an employment for a period greater than one month. Employment at will.
For specified term.

SEC. 865. TERMINATION BY EMPLOYER.—An employment, for a specified term, may be terminated at any time by the employer, in case of any willful breach of duty by the employee in the course of his employment, or in case of his habitual neglect of his duty or continued incapacity to perform it. Termination by employer.

By employee.

SEC. 866. TERMINATION BY EMPLOYEE.—An employment, for a specified term, may be terminated by the employee at any time, in case of any willful or permanent breach of the obligations of his employer to him as an employee.

Compensation on dismissal.

SEC. 867. COMPENSATION DUE ON DISMISSAL.—An employee who is not employed for a specified term, dismissed by his employer, is entitled to compensation for services rendered up to the time of such dismissal.

Compensation on quitting.

SEC. 868. COMPENSATION DUE ON QUITTING.—An employee who is not employed for a specified term and who quits the service of his employer, is entitled to compensation for services rendered up to the time of such quitting.

PARTICULAR EMPLOYMENTS.

Term of hiring.

SEC. 870. TERM OF HIRING.—A servant is presumed to have been hired for such length of time as the parties adopt for the estimation of wages. A hiring at a yearly rate is presumed to be for one year; a hiring at a daily rate, for one day; a hiring by piecework, for no specified term.

SEC. 871. SAME.—In the absence of any agreement or custom as to the term of service, the time of payment, or rate or value of wages, a servant is presumed to be hired by the month, at a monthly rate of reasonable wages, to be paid when the service is performed.

Renewal of hiring.

SEC. 872. RENEWAL OF HIRING.—Where, after the expiration of an agreement respecting the wages and the term of service, the parties continue the relation of master and servant, they are presumed to have renewed the agreement for the same wages and term of service.

Servant's duty to pay over.

SEC. 873. SERVANT TO PAY OVER WITHOUT DEMAND.—A servant must deliver to his master, as soon as with reasonable diligence he can find him, everything that he receives for his account, without demand; but he is not bound, without orders from his master, to send anything to him through another person.

Right to discharge.

SEC. 874. WHEN SERVANT MAY BE DISCHARGED.—A master may discharge any servant, other than an apprentice, whether engaged for a fixed term or not:

1. If he is guilty of misconduct in the course of his service, or of gross immorality, though unconnected with the same; or,
2. If, being employed about the person of the master, or in a confidential position, the master discovers that he has been guilty of misconduct, before or after the commencement of his service, of such a nature that, if the master had known or contemplated it, he would not have so employed him.

SEC. 947. CONSIGNOR, WHEN LIABLE FOR FREIGHTAGE.—The consignor of freight is presumed to be liable for the freightage, but if the contract between him and the carrier provides that the consignee shall pay it, and the carrier allows the consignee to take the freight, he can not afterwards recover the freightage from the consignor.

When consignee liable.

SEC. 948. CONSIGNEE, WHEN LIABLE.—The consignee of freight is liable for the freightage, if he accepts the freight with notice of the intention of the consignor that he should pay it.

SEC. 949. NATURAL INCREASE OF FREIGHT.—No freightage can be charged upon the natural increase of freight. Natural increase of freight.

SEC. 950. APPORTIONMENT BY CONTRACT.—If freightage is apportioned by a bill of lading or other contract made between a consignor and carrier, the carrier is entitled to payment, according to the apportionment, for so much as he delivers. Apportionment by contract.

SEC. 951. SAME.—If a part of the freight is accepted by a consignee, without specific objection that the rest is not delivered, the freightage must be apportioned and paid as to that part, though not apportioned in the original contract.

SEC. 952. APPORTIONMENT ACCORDING TO DISTANCE.—If a consignee voluntarily receives freight at a place short of the one appointed for delivery, the carrier is entitled to a just proportion of the freightage, according to distance. If the carrier, being ready and willing, offers to complete the transit, he is entitled to the full freightage. If he does not thus offer completion, and the consignee receives the freight only from necessity, the carrier is not entitled to any freightage. Apportionment according to distance.

SEC. 953. FREIGHT CARRIED FURTHER THAN AGREED, AND SO FORTH.—If freight is carried further, or more expeditiously, than was agreed upon by the parties, the carrier is not entitled to additional compensation, and can not refuse to deliver it, on the demand of the consignee, at the place and time of its arrival. Freight carried farther than agreed, etc.

SEC. 954. CARRIER'S LIEN FOR FREIGHTAGE, SERVICES, AND ADVANCES.—A carrier has a lien for freightage and for services rendered at request of shipper or consignee in and about the transportation, care, and preservation of the property, and he also has a lien for money advanced at request of shipper or consignee to discharge a prior lien. His rights to such lien are regulated by chapters 62 to 65 of this code on liens: Provided, however, That such lien may be enforced in the manner provided by sections 759 to 762 of this code relating to warehousemen. ## POWERS OF TRUSTEES

As agent.

SEC. 1021. TRUSTEE'S POWER AS AGENT.—A trustee is a general agent for the trust property. His authority is such as is conferred upon him by the declaration of trust and by this chapter, and none other. His acts, within the scope of his authority, bind the trust property to the same extent as the acts of an agent bind his principal.

Discretionary powers.

RIGHTS OF TRUSTEES

Rights of trustees.

SEC. 1024. INDEMNIFICATION OF TRUSTEE.—A trustee is entitled to the repayment, out of the trust property, of all expenses actually and properly incurred by him in the performance of his trust. He is entitled to the repayment of even unlawful expenditures, if they were productive of actual benefit to the estate.

Indemnification.

Compensation.

SEC. 1025. COMPENSATION OF TRUSTEE.—Except as provided in the Code of Civil Procedure, when a declaration of trust is silent upon the subject of compensation the trustee is entitled to the same compensation as an executor. If it specifies the amount of his compensation, he is entitled to the amount thus specified and no more. If it directs that he shall be allowed a compensation but does not specify the rate or amount, he is entitled to such compensation as may be reasonable under the circumstances. If there are two or more trustees, the compensation shall be apportioned among the trustees according to the services rendered by them respectively.

How trustee's office vacated.

1. By his death; or
2. By his discharge.

SEC. 1030. TRUSTEE, HOW DISCHARGED.—A trustee can be discharged from his trust only as follows:

How discharged.

1. By the extinction of the trust;
2. By the completion of his duties under the trust;

- 3. By such means as may be prescribed by the declaration of trust;
- 4. By the consent of the beneficiary, if he have capacity to contract;
- 5. By the judgment of a competent tribunal, in a direct proceeding for that purpose, that he is of unsound mind; or
- 6. By the district court.

Removal by district court.

SEC. 1031. REMOVAL BY DISTRICT COURT.—The district court may remove any trustee who has violated or is unfit to execute the trust, or may accept the resignation of a trustee.

Succession or appointment of new trustees.

SUCCESSION OR APPOINTMENT OF NEW TRUSTEES

Appointment by court.

SEC. 1032. APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEE BY COURT TO FILL VACANCY.—The district court must appoint a trustee whenever there is a vacancy, and the declaration of trust does not provide a practical method of appointment. In all cases of appointment of any trustee or trustees by any court, if the cestui que trustent, or any one of them are of the age of fourteen years, they, or the one or more of them of the age of fourteen years, may make nomination, to the court, and unless such nominee or nominees are incompetent, upon one or more of the grounds of incompetency specified in the Code of Civil Procedure, to discharge the duties of trustee, the court must appoint such nominee, or nominees, as trustee, or trustees, as the case may be.

Survivorship between cotrustees.

SEC. 1033. SURVIVORSHIP BETWEEN COTRUSTEES.—On the death, renunciation, or discharge of one of several cotrustees the trust survives to the others.

When district court to appoint.

SEC. 1034. DISTRICT COURT TO APPOINT TRUSTEE WHEN.—When a trust exists without any appointed trustee, or where all the trustees renounce, die, or are discharged, the district court must appoint another trustee and direct the execution of the trust. The court may, in its discretion, appoint the original number, or any less number of trustees.

AGENCY IN GENERAL.

Rights of person against undisclosed principal.

SEC. 1069. RIGHTS OF PERSON WHO DEALS WITH AGENT WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE OF AGENCY.—One who deals with an agent without knowing or having reason to believe that the agent acts as such in the transaction, may set off against any claim of the principal arising out of the same, all claims which he might have set off against the agent before notice of the agency.

Instrument intended to bind principal.

SEC. 1070. INSTRUMENT INTENDED TO BIND PRINCIPAL DOES BIND HIM.—An instrument within the scope of his authority by which an agent intends to bind his principal, does bind him if such intent is plainly inferable from the instrument itself.

Liability for agent's negligence, etc.

SEC. 1071. PRINCIPAL'S RESPONSIBILITY FOR AGENT'S NEGLIGENCE, WRONGFUL ACT, OR OMISSION.—Unless required by or under the authority of law to employ that particular agent, a principal is responsible to third persons for the negligence of his agent in the transaction of the business of the agency, including wrongful acts committed by such agent in and as a part of the transaction of such business, and for his willful omission to fulfill the obligations of the principal.

Exception.

SEC. 1072. SAME.—A principal is responsible for no other wrongs committed by his agent than those mentioned in section 1071, unless he has authorized or ratified them, even though they are committed while the agent is engaged in his service.

Obligations of agents to third persons.

OBLIGATIONS OF AGENTS TO THIRD PERSONS

Warranty of authority.

SEC. 1074. AGENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO THIRD PERSONS.—One who assumes to act as an agent is responsible to third persons as a principal for his acts in the course of his agency, in any of the following cases, and in no others:

1. When, with his consent, credit is given to him personally in a transaction;

2. When he enters into a written contract in the name of his principal, without believing, in good faith, that he has authority to do so; or

3. When his acts are wrongful in their nature.

Obligation to surrender property to third person.

SEC. 1075. OBLIGATION OF AGENT TO SURRENDER PROPERTY TO THIRD PERSON.—If an agent receives anything for the benefit of his principal, to the possession of which another person is entitled, he must, on demand, surrender it to such person, or so much of it as he has under his control, at the time of demand, on being indemnified for any advance which he has made to his principal, in good faith, on account of the same; and is responsible therefor, if, after notice from the owner, he delivers it to his principal.

TERMINATION OF AGENCY

SEC. 1080. TERMINATION OF AGENCY.—An agency is terminated, as to every person having notice thereof, by—

Termination of agency.

1. The expiration of its term;
2. The extinction of its subject;
3. The death of the agent;
4. His renunciation of the agency; or
5. The incapacity of the agent to act as such.

SEC. 1081. SAME.—Unless the power of an agent is coupled with an interest in the subject of the agency, it is terminated, as to every person having notice thereof, by—

1. Its revocation by the principal;
2. His death; or
3. His incapacity to contract.

thority.

SEC. 1103. WHAT AUTHORITY PARTNER HAS NOT.—A partner, as such, has not authority to do any of the following acts unless his copartners have wholly abandoned the business to him or are incapable of acting:

1. To make an assignment of the partnership property or any portion thereof to a creditor, or to a third person in trust for the benefit of a creditor, or of all creditors;
2. To dispose of the good will of the business;
3. To dispose of the whole of the partnership property at once, unless it consists entirely of merchandise;
4. To do any act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the partnership;
5. To confess a judgment;
6. To submit a partnership claim to arbitration; or
7. To do any other act not within the scope of section 1102.

Acts in bad faith ineffectual.

SEC. 1104. PARTNER'S ACTS IN BAD FAITH, WHEN INEFFECTUAL.—A partner is not bound by any act of a copartner, in bad faith toward him, though within the scope of the partner's powers, except in favor of persons who have in good faith parted with value in reliance upon such act.

Total dissolution.

SEC. 1114. TOTAL DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP.—A general partnership is dissolved as to all the partners—

1. By lapse of the time prescribed by agreement for its duration;
2. By the expressed will of any partner, if there is no such agreement;
3. By the death of a partner;
4. By the transfer to a person, not a partner, of the interest of any partner in the partnership property;
5. By war, or the prohibition of commercial intercourse between the country in which one partner resides and that in which another resides; or
6. By a judgment of dissolution.

Partial.

SEC. 1115. PARTIAL DISSOLUTION.—A general partnership may be dissolved, as to himself only, by the expressed will of any partner, notwithstanding his agreement for its continuance, subject, however, to liability to his copartners for any damage caused to them thereby, unless the circumstances are such as entitle him to a judgment of dissolution.

When partner entitled to.

SEC. 1116. PARTNER ENTITLED TO DISSOLUTION.—A general partner is entitled to a judgment of dissolution—

1. When he, or another partner, becomes legally incapable of contracting;
2. When another partner fails to perform his duties under the agreement of partnership, or is guilty of serious misconduct; or
3. When the business of the partnership can be carried on only at a permanent loss.

CHAPTER 55.—SPECIAL PARTNERSHIP

SPECIAL PARTNERSHIP.

FORMATION

SEC. 1124.—FORMATION OF SPECIAL PARTNERSHIP.—A special partnership may be formed by two or more persons, in the manner and with the effect prescribed in this chapter, for the transaction of any business except banking or insurance by an insurer.

Formation.

CROSS REFERENCE

No partnership until compliance with law, see section 1129.

SEC. 1125. OF WHAT TO CONSIST.—A special partnership may consist of one or more persons called general partners, and one or more persons called special partners.

Of what to consist.

SEC. 1126. CERTIFIED STATEMENT.—Persons desirous of forming a special partnership must severally sign a certificate, stating:

Certified statement.

1. The name under which the partnership is to be conducted;
2. The general nature of the business intended to be transacted;
3. The names of all the partners, and their residences, specifying which are general and which are special partners;
4. The amount of capital which each special partner has contributed to the common stock;
5. The periods at which such partnership will begin and end.

Acknowledging and recording; false statement.
Ante, p. 1275.

SEC. 1127. ACKNOWLEDGED AND RECORDED; FALSE STATEMENT.—Certificates under section 1126 must be acknowledged by all the partners, before the clerk of the district court and filed in his office, and shall be open to public inspection. If any false statement is made in any such certificate, all the persons interested in the partnership are liable, as general partners, for all the engagements thereof.

Powers, rights, and duties of partners.

POWERS, RIGHTS, AND DUTIES OF PARTNERS

General partners to do business.

SEC. 1131. WHO TO DO BUSINESS.—The general partners only have authority to transact the business of a special partnership.

Special, may advise.

SEC. 1132. SPECIAL PARTNERS MAY ADVISE.—A special partner may at all times investigate the partnership affairs, and advise his partners, or their agents, as to their management.

May loan money; insolvency.

SEC. 1133. MAY LOAN MONEY; INSOLVENCY.—A special partner may lend money to the partnership, or advance money for it, and take from it security therefor, and as to such loans or advances has the same rights as any other creditor; but in case of the insolvency of the partnership, all other claims which he may have against it must be postponed until all other creditors are satisfied.

General partners may sue and be sued.

SEC. 1134. GENERAL PARTNERS MAY SUE AND BE SUED.—In all matters relating to a special partnership, its general partners may sue and be sued alone, in the same manner as if there were no special partners.

Withdrawal of capital.

SEC. 1135. WITHDRAWAL OF CAPITAL.—No special partner, under any pretense, may withdraw any part of the capital invested by him in the partnership, during its continuance.

CROSS REFERENCE

Withdrawal of capital, see section 1137.

Interest and profits.

SEC. 1136. INTEREST AND PROFITS.—A special partner may receive such lawful interest and such proportion of profits as may be agreed upon, if not paid out of the capital invested in the partnership by him, or by some other special partner, and is not bound to refund the same to meet subsequent losses.

Result of withdrawing capital.

SEC. 1137. RESULT OF WITHDRAWING CAPITAL.—If a special partner withdraws capital from the firm, contrary to the provisions of this subchapter, he thereby becomes a general partner.

CROSS REFERENCE

Withdrawal of capital, see section 1135.

Ante, p. 1276.

SEC. 1138. PREFERENTIAL TRANSFER VOID.—Every transfer of the property of a special partnership, or of a partner therein, made after or in contemplation of the insolvency of such partnership or partner, with intent to give a preference to any creditor of such partnership or partner over any other creditor of such partnership; is void against the creditors thereof; and every judgment confessed, lien created, or security given, in like manner and with the like intent, is in like manner void.

Preferential transfer void.

LIABILITY OF PARTNERS

Liability of partners.

SEC. 1139. LIABILITY OF PARTNERS.—The general partners in a special partnership are liable to the same extent as partners in a general partnership.

SEC. 1155. ASSIGNMENT TO MORTGAGEE OF POLICY ON THING INSURED.—Unless the policy otherwise provides, where a mortgagor of property effects insurance in his own name providing that the loss shall be payable to the mortgagee, or assigns a policy of insurance to a mortgagee, the insurance is deemed to be upon the interest of the mortgagor, who does not cease to be a party to the original contract, and any act of his, prior to the loss, which would otherwise avoid the insurance will have the same effect, although the property is in the hands of the mortgagee, but any act which, under the contract of insurance, is to be performed by the mortgagor, may be performed by the mortgagee therein named, with the same effect as if it had been performed by the mortgagor.

Assignment to mortgagee of policy on thing insured.

SEC. 1156. NEW CONTRACT BETWEEN INSURER AND ASSIGNEE.—If an insurer assents to the transfer of an insurance from a mortgagor to a mortgagee, and, at the time of his assent, imposes further obligations on the assignee, making a new contract with him, the acts of the mortgagor can not affect his rights.

New contract between insurer and assignee.

INSURABLE INTEREST

Insurable interest.

SEC. 1157. INSURABLE INTEREST, WHAT.—Every interest in property, or any relation thereto, or liability in respect thereof, of such a nature that a contemplated peril might directly damnify the insured is an insurable interest.

CONCEALMENT AND REPRESENTATIONS

SEC. 1170. CONCEALMENT, WHAT.—A neglect to communicate that which a party knows, and ought to communicate, is called a concealment.

Concealment and representations.

Concealment, defined.

CROSS REFERENCE

"Party" refers to either party to the contract, see section 1172.

SEC. 1171. EFFECT OF CONCEALMENT.—A concealment, whether intentional or unintentional, entitles the injured party to rescind a contract of insurance.

Effect of.

SEC. 1172. WHAT MUST BE DISCLOSED.—Each party to a contract of insurance must communicate to the other, in good faith, all facts within his knowledge which are or which he believes to be material to the contract, and which the other has not the means of ascertaining, and as to which he makes no warranty.

What must be disclosed.

SEC. 1173. MATTERS WHICH NEED NOT BE COMMUNICATED WITHOUT INQUIRY.—Neither party to a contract of insurance is bound to communicate information of the matters following, except in answer to the inquiries of the other:

Matters which need not be communicated.

1. Those which the other knows;
2. Those which, in the exercise of ordinary care, the other ought to know, and of which the former has no reason to suppose him ignorant;
3. Those of which the other waives communication;
4. Those which prove or tend to prove the existence of a risk excluded by a warranty, and which are not otherwise material; and

Representation as to future. SEC. 1183. REPRESENTATION AS TO FUTURE.—A representation as to the future is to be deemed a promise, unless it appears that it was merely a statement of belief or expectation.

SEC. 1184. HOW MAY AFFECT POLICY.—A representation can not be allowed to qualify an express provision in a contract of insurance, but it may qualify an implied warranty.

How affect policy.

SEC. 1185. WHEN MAY BE WITHDRAWN.—A representation may be altered or withdrawn before the insurance is effected, but not afterwards.

When may be withdrawn.

SEC. 1186. TIME INTENDED BY REPRESENTATION.—The completion of the contract of insurance is the time to which a representation must be presumed to refer.

Time intended by representation.

SEC. 1187. REPRESENTING INFORMATION.—When a person insured has no personal knowledge of a fact, he may nevertheless repeat information which he has upon the subject, and which he believes to be true, with the explanation that he does so on the information of others, or he may submit the information, in its whole extent, to the insurer; and in neither case is he responsible for its truth, unless it proceeds from an agent of the insured, whose duty it is to give the intelligence.

Representing information.

SEC. 1188. FALSITY.—A representation is to be deemed false when the facts fail to correspond with its assertions or stipulations.

Falsity.

SEC. 1189. EFFECT OF FALSITY.—If a representation is false in a material point, whether affirmative or promissory, the injured party is entitled to rescind the contract from the time when the representation becomes false.

THE POLICY

The policy.

SEC. 1193. POLICY, WHAT.—The written instrument, in which a contract of insurance is set forth, is called a policy of insurance.

Definition.

SEC. 1194. WHAT MUST BE SPECIFIED IN A POLICY.—A policy of insurance must specify:

What must specify.

1. The parties between whom the contract is made;
2. The rate of premium;
3. The property or life insured;
4. The interest of the insured in property insured, if he is not the absolute owner thereof;
5. The risks insured against; and
6. The period during which the insurance is to continue.

Whose interest covered.

SEC. 1195. WHOSE INTEREST IS COVERED.—When the name of the person intended to be insured is specified in a policy, it can be applied only to his own proper interest.

Insurance by agent or trustee.

SEC. 1196. INSURANCE BY AGENT OR TRUSTEE.—When an insurance is made by an agent or trustee, the fact that his principal or beneficiary is the person really insured may be indicated by describing him as agent or trustee, or by other general words in the policy.

By part owner.

SEC. 1197. INSURANCE BY PART OWNER.—To render an insurance, effected by one partner or part owner, applicable to the interest of his copartners, or of other part owners, it is necessary that the terms of the policy should be such as are applicable to the joint or common interest.

General terms.

SEC. 1198. GENERAL TERMS.—When the description of the insured in a policy is so general that it may comprehend any person or any class of persons, he only can claim the benefit of the policy who can show that it was intended to include him.

Successive owners.

SEC. 1199. SUCCESSIVE OWNERS.—A policy may be so framed that it will inure to the benefit of whomsoever, during the continuance of the risk, may become the owner of the interest insured.

Transfer of thing insured.

SEC. 1200. TRANSFER OF THE THING INSURED.—The mere transfer of a thing insured does not transfer the policy, but suspends it until the same person becomes the owner of both the policy and the thing insured.

Transfer of interest, see sections 1164 et seq.

Open and valued policies.

SEC. 1201. OPEN AND VALUED POLICIES.—A policy is either open or valued.

Open policy.

SEC. 1202. OPEN POLICY, WHAT.—An open policy is one in which the value of the thing insured is not agreed upon, but is left to be ascertained in case of loss.

Valued policy.

SEC. 1203. VALUED POLICY, WHAT.—A valued policy is one which expresses on its face an agreement that the thing insured shall be valued at a specified sum.

Running policy.

SEC. 1204. RUNNING POLICY, WHAT.—A running policy is one which contemplates successive insurances, and which provides that the object of the policy may be from time to time defined, especially as to the subjects of insurance, by additional statements or indorsements.

Effect of receipt.

SEC. 1205. EFFECT OF RECEIPT.—An acknowledgment in a policy of the receipt of premium is conclusive evidence of its payment, so far as to make the policy binding, notwithstanding any stipulation therein that it shall not be binding until the premium is actually paid.

SEC. 1211. EXPRESS WARRANTY, WHAT CONSTITUTES.—A statement in a policy, of a matter relating to the person or thing insured, or to the risk, as a fact, is an express warranty thereof. What constitutes express warranty.

SEC. 1212. WARRANTY AS TO THE FUTURE.—A statement in a policy, which imports that it is intended to do or not to do a thing which materially affects the risk, is a warranty that such act or omission shall take place. Warranty as to future.

SEC. 1213. PERFORMANCE EXCUSED.—When before the time arrives for the performance of a warranty relating to the future, a loss insured against happens, or performance becomes unlawful at the place of the contract, or impossible, the omission to fulfill the warranty does not avoid the policy. Performance excused.

Where the insurance is made for a definite period of time, and the insured surrenders his policy, to such proportion of the premium above the customary short rate premium as corresponds with the unexpired time, after deducting from the whole premium any claim for loss or damage under the policy which has previously accrued.

CROSS REFERENCE

Return for fraud, see section 1220.

When not allowed. SEC. 1219. WHEN NOT ALLOWED.—If a peril insured against has existed, and the insurer has been liable for any period, however short, the insured is not entitled to return of premiums so far as that particular risk is concerned.

Return for fraud. SEC. 1220. RETURN FOR FRAUD.—A person insured is entitled to a return of the premium when the contract is voidable, on account of the fraud or misrepresentation of the insurer, or on account of facts, of the existence of which the insured was ignorant without his fault; or when, by any default of the insured other than actual fraud, the insurer never incurred any liability under the policy.

Overinsurance by several insurers. SEC. 1221. OVERINSURANCE BY SEVERAL INSURERS.—In case of an overinsurance by several insurers, the insured is entitled to a ratable return for the premium, proportioned to the amount by which the aggregate sum insured in all the policies exceeds the insurable value of the thing at risk.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1287. Double insurance, defined, see section 1234.

Contribution. SEC. 1222. CONTRIBUTION.—When an overinsurance is affected by simultaneous policies, the insurers contribute to the premium to be returned in proportion to the amount insured by their respective policies.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1287. Contribution in cases of double insurance, see section 1235.

Proportionate contribution. SEC. 1223. PROPORTIONATE CONTRIBUTION.—When an overinsurance is effected by successive policies, those only contribute to a return of the premium who are exonerated by prior insurance from the liability assumed by them, and in proportion as the sum for which the premium was paid exceeds the amount for which, on account of prior insurance, they could be made liable.

Loss.

LOSS

Perils, remote and proximate. SEC. 1224. PERILS, REMOTE AND PROXIMATE.—An insurer is liable for a loss of which a peril insured against was the proximate cause, although a peril not contemplated by the contract may have been a remote cause of the loss; but he is not liable for a loss of which the peril insured against was only a remote cause.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1287. Negligence of insured, see section 1227.

Loss incurred in rescue. SEC. 1225. LOSS INCURRED IN RESCUE FROM PERIL.—An insurer is liable where the thing insured is rescued from a peril insured against, that would otherwise have caused a loss, if in the course of such rescue the thing is exposed to a peril not insured against, which permanently deprives the insured of its possession, in whole or in part; or where a loss is caused by efforts to rescue the thing insured from a peril insured against.

SEC. 1226. EXCEPTED PERILS.—Where a peril is specially excepted in a contract of insurance, a loss, which would not have occurred but for such peril, is thereby excepted, although the immediate cause of the loss was a peril which was not excepted.

Excepted perils.

SEC. 1227. NEGLIGENCE AND FRAUD.—An insurer is not liable for a loss caused by the willful act of the insured; but he is not exonerated by the negligence of the insured, or of his agents or others.

Negligence and fraud.

NOTICE OF LOSS

SEC. 1228. NOTICE OF LOSS.—In case of loss upon an insurance against fire, an insurer is exonerated if notice thereof be not given to him by some person insured, or entitled to the benefit of the insurance, without unnecessary delay.

Notice of loss.

SEC. 1229. TIME FOR GIVING NOTICE OF ACCIDENTS, ETC.—No conditions, stipulations, or agreements contained in any application for insurance in any casualty or accident insurance company, or contained in any policy issued by any such company, or in any way made by any such company, limiting the time within which notice of the accident or injury, or death, shall be given to such company to a period of less than twenty days after the happening of the accident, or injury, or death, shall be valid. Said notice may be given to the company insuring, at any time within twenty days after the happening of the accident, or injury, or death, and shall be valid and binding on the company; and notice deposited in the mails properly addressed within the time stated is sufficient, though it does not reach the insurer within that time.

Time for giving notice.

SEC. 1230. PRELIMINARY PROOFS.—When preliminary proof of loss is required by a policy, the insured is not bound to give such proof as would be necessary in a court of justice; but it is sufficient for him to give the best evidence which he has in his power at the time.

Preliminary proofs.

SEC. 1231. WAIVER OF DEFECTS IN NOTICE, ETC.—All defects in a notice of loss, or in preliminary proof thereof, which the insured might remedy, and which the insurer omits to specify to him, without unnecessary delay, as grounds of objection, are waived.

Waiver of defects in notice, etc.

SEC. 1232. WAIVER OF DELAY.—Delay in the presentation to an insurer of notice or proof of loss is waived, if caused by any act of his, or if he omits to make objection promptly and specifically upon that ground.

Waiver of delay.

SEC. 1233. CERTIFICATE, WHEN DISPENSED WITH.—If a policy requires, by way of preliminary proof of loss, the certificate or testimony of a person other than the insured, it is sufficient for the insured to use reasonable diligence to procure it, and in case of the refusal of such person to give it, then to furnish reasonable evidence to the insurer that such refusal was not induced by any just grounds of disbelief in the facts necessary to be certified.

When certificate dispensed with.

DOUBLE INSURANCE

SEC. 1234. DOUBLE INSURANCE.—A double insurance exists where the same person is insured by several insurers separately in respect to the same subject and interest.

Double insurance.

SEC. 1235. CONTRIBUTION IN CASE OF DOUBLE INSURANCE.—In case of double fire insurance, each insurer must contribute ratably toward the loss, without regard to the dates of the several policies.

REINSURANCE

- Reinsurance. Definition. SEC. 1236. REINSURANCE, WHAT.—A contract of reinsurance is one by which an insurer procures a third person to insure him against loss or liability by reason of such original insurance.
- Disclosures required. SEC. 1237. DISCLOSURES REQUIRED.—Where an insurer obtains reinsurance, he must communicate all the representations of the original insured, and also all the knowledge and information he possesses, whether previously or subsequently acquired, which are material to the risk.
- Reinsurance presumed to be against liability. SEC. 1238. REINSURANCE PRESUMED TO BE AGAINST LIABILITY.—A reinsurance is presumed to be a contract of indemnity against liability and not merely against damage.
- Original insured has no interest. SEC. 1239. ORIGINAL INSURED HAS NO INTEREST.—The original insured has no interest in a contract of reinsurance.

- Alteration increasing risk. SEC. 1240. ALTERATION INCREASING RISK.—An alteration in the use or condition of a thing insured from that to which it is limited by the policy, made without the consent of the insurer, by means within the control of the insured, and increasing the risk, entitles an insurer to rescind a contract of fire insurance.
- Not increasing risk. SEC. 1241. ALTERATION NOT INCREASING RISK.—An alteration in the use or condition of a thing insured from that to which it is limited by the policy, which does not increase the risk, does not affect a contract of fire insurance.
- Acts of insured. SEC. 1242. ACTS OF INSURED.—A contract of fire insurance is not affected by any act of the insured subsequent to the execution of the policy, which does not violate its provisions, even though it increases the risk and is the cause of a loss.
- Measure of indemnity. SEC. 1243. MEASURE OF INDEMNITY.—If there is no valuation in the policy, the measure of indemnity in an insurance against fire is the expense it would be to the insured at the time of the commencement of the fire to replace the thing lost or injured in the condition in which it was at the time of the injury; but the effect of a valuation in a policy of fire insurance is the same as in a policy of marine insurance.
- Value of interest in policy; how fixed; total or partial loss. SEC. 1244. VALUE OF INTEREST IN POLICY OF INSURANCE; HOW MAY BE FIXED; TOTAL OR PARTIAL LOSS.—Whenever the insured desires to have a valuation named in his policy, insuring any building or structure against fire, he may require such building or structure to be examined by the insurer, and the value of the insured's interest therein shall be thereupon fixed by the parties. The cost of such examination shall be paid for by the insured. A clause shall be inserted in such policy stating substantially that the value of the insured's interest in such building or structure has been thus fixed. In the absence of any change increasing the risk without the consent of the insurer or of fraud on the part of the insured, then, in case of a total loss under such policy, the whole amount so insured upon the insured's interest in such building or structure, as stated in the policy upon which the insurers have received a premium, shall be paid, and in case of a partial loss the full amount of the partial loss shall be so paid, and in case there are two or more policies covering the insured's interest therein, each policy shall contribute pro rata to the payment of such whole or partial loss. But in no case shall the insurer be required to pay more than the amount thus stated in such policy. This section shall not prevent the parties from stipulating in such policies concerning the repairing, rebuilding, or replacing buildings or structures wholly or partially damaged or destroyed.

SEC. 1256. PERSON INDEMNIFYING LIABLE JOINTLY OR SEVERALLY WITH PERSON INDEMNIFIED.—One who indemnifies another against an act to be done by the latter is liable jointly with the person indemnified, and separately, to every person injured by such act.

Rules for interpreting agreement.

SEC. 1257. RULES FOR INTERPRETING AGREEMENT OF INDEMNITY.—In the interpretation of a contract of indemnity the following rules are to be applied, unless a contrary intention appears:

1. Upon an indemnity against liability, expressly, or in other equivalent terms, the person indemnified is entitled to recover upon becoming liable.

2. Upon an indemnity against claims, or demands, or damages, or costs, expressly, or in other equivalent terms, the person indemnified is not entitled to recover without payment thereof.

3. An indemnity against claims, or demands, or liability, expressly, or in other equivalent terms, embraces the costs of defense against such claims, demands, or liability incurred in good faith and in the exercise of a reasonable discretion.

4. The person indemnifying is bound, on request of the person indemnified, to defend actions or proceedings brought against the latter in respect to the matters embraced by the indemnity, but the person indemnified has the right to engage in the conduct of such defenses, if he chooses to do so.

5. If, after request, the person indemnifying neglects to defend the person indemnified, a recovery against the latter suffered by him in good faith is conclusive in his favor against the former.

6. If the person indemnifying, whether he is a principal or a surety in the agreement, has not reasonable notice of the action or proceeding against the person indemnified, or is not allowed to control its defense, judgment against the latter is only presumptive evidence against the former.

7. A stipulation that a judgment against the person indemnified shall be conclusive upon the person indemnifying, is inapplicable if he had a good defense upon the merits, which by want of ordinary care he failed to establish in the action.

SEC. 1258. REIMBURSEMENT OF PERSON INDEMNIFYING OTHER.—Where one, at the request of another, engages to answer in damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, for any violation of duty on the part of the latter, he is entitled to be reimbursed in the same manner as a surety for whatever he may pay.

Reimbursement of person indemnifying other.

SEC. 1265. ENGAGEMENT TO ANSWER FOR OBLIGATION OF ANOTHER, WHEN DEEMED ORIGINAL.—A promise to answer for the obligation of another, in any of the following cases, is deemed an original obligation of the promisor, and need not be in writing:

Engagement to answer for obligation of another, when deemed original.

1. Where the promise is made by one who has received property of another upon an undertaking to apply it pursuant to such promise, or by one who has received a discharge from an obligation in whole or in part in consideration of such promise.

2. Where the creditor parts with value, or enters into an obligation, in consideration of the obligation in respect to which the promise is made, in terms or under circumstances such as to render the party making the promise the principal debtor, and the person in whose behalf it is made, his surety.

3. Where the promise, being for an antecedent obligation of another, is made upon the consideration that the party receiving it cancels the antecedent obligation, accepting the new promise as a substitute therefor; or upon the consideration that the party receiving it releases the property of another from a levy, or his person from imprisonment under an execution on a judgment obtained upon the antecedent obligation; or upon a consideration beneficial to the promisor, whether moving from either party to the antecedent obligation or from another person.

4. Where a factor undertakes, for a commission, to sell merchandise and guarantee the sale.

5. Where the holder of an instrument for the payment of money, upon which a third person is or may become liable to him, transfers it in payment of a precedent debt of his own, or for a new consideration, and in connection with such transfer enters into a promise respecting such instrument.

Interpretation of.

INTERPRETATION OF GUARANTY

Guaranty of incomplete contract.

SEC. 1267. GUARANTY OF INCOMPLETE CONTRACT.—In a guaranty of a contract, the terms of which are not then settled, it is implied that its terms shall be such as will not expose the guarantor to greater risks than he would incur under those terms which are most common in similar contracts at the place where the principal contract is to be performed.

That an obligation is good or collectible.

SEC. 1268. GUARANTY THAT AN OBLIGATION IS GOOD OR COLLECTIBLE.—A guaranty to the effect that an obligation is good, or is collectible, imports that the debtor is solvent and that the demand is collectible by the usual legal proceedings, if taken with reasonable diligence.

Recovery upon.

SEC. 1269. RECOVERY UPON SUCH GUARANTY.—A guaranty, such as is mentioned in section 1268, is not discharged by an omission to take proceedings upon the principal debt, or upon any collateral security for its payment, if no part of the debt could have been collected thereby.

Guarantor's liability.

SEC. 1270. GUARANTOR'S LIABILITY UPON SUCH GUARANTY.—In the cases mentioned in section 1268, the removal of the principal from the Canal Zone, leaving no property therein from which the obligation might be satisfied, is equivalent to the insolvency of the principal in its effect upon the rights and obligations of the guarantor.

Liability of guarantors.

LIABILITY OF GUARANTORS

Guaranty construed.

SEC. 1271. GUARANTY, HOW CONSTRUED.—A guaranty is to be deemed unconditional unless its terms import some condition precedent to the liability of the guarantor.

Liability upon guaranty of payment or performance.

SEC. 1272. LIABILITY UPON GUARANTY OF PAYMENT OR PERFORMANCE.—A guarantor of payment or performance is liable to the guarantee immediately upon the default of the principal, and without demand or notice.

Of conditional obligation.

SEC. 1273. LIABILITY UPON GUARANTY OF CONDITIONAL OBLIGATION.—Where one guarantees a conditional obligation, his liability is commensurate with that of the principal, and he is not entitled to notice of the default of the principal, unless he is unable, by the exercise of reasonable diligence, to acquire information of such default, and the creditor has actual notice thereof.

SEC. 1274. OBLIGATION OF GUARANTOR CAN NOT EXCEED THAT OF THE PRINCIPAL.—The obligation of a guarantor must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal; and if in its terms it exceeds it, it is reducible in proportion to the principal obligation.

Obligation not to exceed that of principal.

SEC. 1275. GUARANTOR NOT LIABLE ON ILLEGAL CONTRACT.—A guarantor is not liable if the contract of the principal is unlawful; but he is liable notwithstanding any mere personal disability of the principal, though the disability be such as to make the contract void against the principal.

Illegal contracts.

CONTINUING GUARANTY

SEC. 1276. CONTINUING GUARANTY, WHAT.—A guaranty relating to a future liability of the principal, under successive transactions, which either continue his liability or from time to time renew it after it has been satisfied, is called a continuing guaranty.

Continuing guaranty.

Definition.

SEC. 1277. REVOCATION.—A continuing guaranty may be revoked at any time by the guarantor, in respect to future transactions, unless there is a continuing consideration as to such transactions which he does not renounce.

Revocation.

EXONERATION OF GUARANTORS

SEC. 1278. WHAT DEALINGS WITH DEBTOR EXONERATE GUARANTOR.—A guarantor is exonerated, except so far as he may be indemnified by the principal, if by any act of the creditor, without the consent of the guarantor, the original obligation of the principal is altered in any respect, or the remedies or rights of the creditor against the principal, in respect thereto, in any way impaired or suspended.

Void promises.

SEC. 1280. RESCISSION OF ALTERATION.—The rescission of an agreement altering the original obligation of a debtor, or impairing the remedy of a creditor, does not restore the liability of a guarantor who has been exonerated by such agreement.

Rescission of alteration.

SEC. 1281. PART PERFORMANCE.—The acceptance, by a creditor, of anything in partial satisfaction of an obligation, reduces the obligation of a guarantor thereof, in the same measure as that of the principal, but does not otherwise affect it.

Part performance.

SURETYSHIP.

CHAPTER 61.—SURETYSHIP

WHO ARE SURETIES

Definition.

SEC. 1285. SURETY, WHAT.—A surety is one who at the request of another, and for the purpose of securing to him a benefit, becomes responsible for the performance by the latter of some act in favor of a third person, or hypothecates property as security therefor.

SEC. 1286. APPARENT PRINCIPAL MAY SHOW THAT HE IS SURETY.—One who appears to be a principal, whether by the terms of a written instrument or otherwise, may show that he is in fact a surety, except as against persons who have acted on the faith of his apparent character of principal.

Liability of sureties.

LIABILITY OF SURETIES

Limit of.

SEC. 1287. LIMIT OF SURETY'S OBLIGATION.—A surety can not be held beyond the express terms of his contract, and if such contract prescribes a penalty for its breach, he can not in any case be liable for more than the penalty.

Offer of performance, see sections 453 to 473.

Sureties discharged by acts of creditor.

SEC. 1291. SURETY DISCHARGED BY CERTAIN ACTS OF THE CREDITOR.—A surety is exonerated—

1. In like manner with a guarantor;
2. To the extent to which he is prejudiced by any act of the creditor which would naturally prove injurious to the remedies of the surety or inconsistent with his rights, or which lessens his security; or

3. To the extent to which he is prejudiced by an omission of the creditor to do anything, when required by the surety, which it is his duty to do.

RIGHTS OF SURETIES

Rights of sureties.

SEC. 1292. SURETY HAS RIGHTS OF GUARANTOR.—A surety has all the rights of a guarantor, whether he become personally responsible or not.

Has rights of guarantor.

SEC. 1293. SURETY MAY REQUIRE THE CREDITOR TO PROCEED AGAINST THE PRINCIPAL.—A surety may require his creditor to proceed against the principal, or to pursue any other remedy in his power which the surety can not himself pursue, and which would lighten his burden; and if in such case the creditor neglects to do so, the surety is exonerated to the extent to which he is thereby prejudiced.

May require creditor to proceed against principal.

CROSS REFERENCE

Mere delay by creditor to pursue principal does not discharge surety, see sections 1282 and 1291 (1).

Ante, pp. 1293, 1294.

SEC. 1294. SURETY MAY COMPEL PRINCIPAL TO PERFORM OBLIGATIONS, WHEN DUE.—A surety may compel his principal to perform the obligation when due.

May compel principal to perform obligations.

CROSS REFERENCE

Substitute for equitable action, see section 1293.

SEC. 1295. A PRINCIPAL BOUND TO REIMBURSE HIS SURETY.—If a surety satisfies the principal obligation, or any part thereof, whether with or without legal proceedings, the principal is bound to reimburse what he has disbursed, including necessary costs and expenses; but the surety has no claim for reimbursement against other persons, though they may have been benefited by his act, except as prescribed by section 1296.

Exoneration.

SEC. 1296. THE SURETY ACQUIRES THE RIGHT OF THE CREDITOR.—A surety, upon satisfying the obligation of the principal, is entitled to enforce every remedy which the creditor then has against the principal to the extent of reimbursing what he has expended, and also to require all his cosureties to contribute thereto, without regard to the order of time in which they became such.

Subrogation.

SEC. 1297. SURETY ENTITLED TO BENEFIT OF SECURITIES HELD BY CREDITOR.—A surety is entitled to the benefit of every security for the performance of the principal obligation held by the creditor, or by a cosurety at the time of entering into the contract of suretyship, or acquired by him afterwards, whether the surety was aware of the security or not.

Surety entitled to securities held by creditor.

SEC. 1298. THE PROPERTY OF PRINCIPAL TO BE TAKEN FIRST.—Whenever property of a surety is hypothecated with property of the principal, the surety is entitled to have the property of the principal first applied to the discharge of the obligation.

Property of principal to be taken first.

<sup>1</sup> So in original.

Rights of creditors.

RIGHTS OF CREDITORS

Creditor entitled to benefit of securities held by surety.

SEC. 1299. CREDITOR ENTITLED TO BENEFIT OF SECURITIES HELD BY SURETY.—A creditor is entitled to the benefit of everything which a surety has received from the debtor by way of security for the performance of the obligation, and may, upon maturity of the obligation, compel the application of such security to its satisfaction.

Letter of credit.

LETTER OF CREDIT

Definition.

SEC. 1300. LETTER OF CREDIT, WHAT.—A letter of credit is a written instrument, addressed by one person to another, requesting the latter to give credit to the person in whose favor it is drawn.

How addressed.

SEC. 1301. HOW ADDRESSED.—A letter of credit may be addressed to several persons in succession.

Liability of writer.

SEC. 1302. LIABILITY OF THE WRITER.—The writer of a letter of credit is, upon the default of the debtor, liable to those who gave credit in compliance with its terms.

CROSS REFERENCE

Letters of credit, general or special.

SEC. 1303. LETTERS OF CREDIT EITHER GENERAL OR SPECIAL.—A letter of credit is either general or special. When the request for credit in a letter is addressed to specified persons by name or description, the letter is special. All other letters of credit are general.

CROSS REFERENCE

Credit to correspond with terms of letter, see section 1308.

Nature of general letter.

SEC. 1304. NATURE OF GENERAL LETTER OF CREDIT.—A general letter of credit gives any person to whom it may be shown authority to comply with its request, and by his so doing it becomes, as to him, of the same effect as if addressed to him by name.

Extent of.

SEC. 1305. EXTENT OF GENERAL LETTER OF CREDIT.—Several persons may successively give credit upon a general letter.

Letter of credit as continuing guaranty.

SEC. 1306. A LETTER OF CREDIT MAY BE A CONTINUING GUARANTY.—If the parties to a letter of credit appear, by its terms, to contemplate a course of future dealing between the parties, it is not exhausted by giving a credit, even to the amount limited by the letter, which is subsequently reduced or satisfied by payments made by the debtor, but is to be deemed a continuing guaranty.

Notice to writer.

SEC. 1307. WHEN NOTICE TO THE WRITER NECESSARY.—The writer of a letter of credit is liable for credit given upon it without notice to him, unless its terms express or imply the necessity of giving notice.

Credit given must agree with terms of letter.

SEC. 1308. THE CREDIT GIVEN MUST AGREE WITH THE TERMS OF THE LETTER.—If a letter of credit prescribes the persons by whom, or the mode in which, the credit is to be given, or the term of credit, or limits the amount thereof, the writer is not bound except for transactions which, in these respects, conform strictly to the terms of the letter.

LIENS IN GENERAL.

CHAPTER 62.—LIENS IN GENERAL

DEFINITION OF LIENS

Definition.

SEC. 1309. LIEN, WHAT.—A lien is a charge imposed in some mode other than by a transfer in trust upon specific property by which it is made security for the performance of an act.

General or special.

SEC. 1310. LIENS, GENERAL OR SPECIAL.—Liens are either general or special.

SEC. 1311. GENERAL LIEN, WHAT.—A general lien is one which the holder thereof is entitled to enforce as a security for the performance of all the obligations, or all of a particular class of obligations, which exist in his favor against the owner of the property.

General lien.

Prior liens.

SEC. 1314. CONTRACTS SUBJECT TO PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER.—Contracts of mortgage and pledge are subject to all the provisions of this chapter.

Mortgages and pledges subject to provisions herein.

CREATION OF LIENS

SEC. 1315. LIEN, HOW CREATED.—A lien is created:

1. By contract of the parties; or
2. By operation of law.

Creation of liens.

How created.

SEC. 1316. NO LIEN FOR CLAIM NOT DUE.—No lien arises by mere operation of law until the time at which the act to be secured thereby ought to be performed.

No lien for claim not due.

SEC. 1317. LIEN ON FUTURE INTEREST.—An agreement may be made to create a lien upon property not yet acquired by the party agreeing to give the lien, or not yet in existence. In such case the lien agreed for attaches from the time when the party agreeing to give it acquires an interest in the thing, to the extent of such interest.

Lien on future interest.

SEC. 1318. LIEN MAY BE CREATED BY CONTRACT.—A lien may be created by contract, to take immediate effect, as security for the performance of obligations not then in existence.

Creation by contract.

EFFECT OF LIENS

SEC. 1319. LIEN, OR CONTRACT FOR LIEN, TRANSFERS NO TITLE.—Notwithstanding an agreement to the contrary, a lien, or a contract for a lien, transfers no title to the property subject to the lien.

Effect of.

No title transferred.

SEC. 1320. CERTAIN CONTRACTS VOID.—All contracts for the forfeiture of property subject to a lien, in satisfaction of the obligation secured thereby, and all contracts in restraint of the right of redemption from a lien, are void.

Certain contracts void.

Creation does not imply personal obligation.

SEC. 1321. CREATION OF LIEN DOES NOT IMPLY PERSONAL OBLIGATION.—The creation of a lien does not of itself imply that any person is bound to perform the act for which the lien is a security.

CROSS REFERENCE

See, also, sections 1329, 1341, and 1381.

Extent of.

SEC. 1322. EXTENT OF LIEN.—The existence of a lien upon property does not of itself entitle the person in whose favor it exists to a lien upon the same property for the performance of any other obligation than that which the lien originally secured.

Holder not entitled to compensation.

SEC. 1323. HOLDER OF LIEN NOT ENTITLED TO COMPENSATION.—One who holds property by virtue of a lien thereon is not entitled to compensation from the owner thereof for any trouble or expense which he incurs respecting it, except to the same extent as a borrower, under sections 805 and 806.

Ante, p. 1242.

PRIORITY OF LIENS

Priority of liens.

SEC. 1324. PRIORITY OF LIENS.—Other things being equal, different liens upon the same property have priority according to the time of their creation, except in cases of bottomry and respondentia.

Order of resort to different funds.

SEC. 1325. ORDER OF RESORT TO DIFFERENT FUNDS.—Where one has a lien upon several things, and other persons have subordinate liens upon, or interests in, some but not all of the same things, the person having the prior lien, if he can do so without risk of loss to himself or of injustice to other persons, must resort to the property in the following order, on the demand of any party interested:

1. To the things upon which he has an exclusive lien;
2. To the things which are subject to the fewest subordinate liens;
3. In like manner inversely to the number of subordinate liens upon the same things; and
4. When several things are within one of the foregoing classes, and subject to the same number of liens, resort must be had—
  - (1) To the things which have not been transferred since the prior lien was created;
  - (2) To the things which have been so transferred without a valuable consideration; and
  - (3) To the things which have been so transferred for a valuable consideration in the inverse order of the transfer.

Redemption from liens.

REDEMPTION FROM LIENS

Right to redeem; subrogation.

SEC. 1326. RIGHT TO REDEEM; SUBROGATION.—Every person, having an interest in property subject to a lien, has the right to redeem it from the lien at any time after the claim is due and before his right of redemption is foreclosed, and, by such redemption, becomes subrogated to all the benefits of the lien, as against all owners of other interests in the property, except in so far as he was bound to make such redemption for their benefit.

Pledgor's right of redemption may be foreclosed, see section 1392.

SEC. 1327. RIGHTS OF INFERIOR LIENOR.—One who has a lien inferior to another, upon the same property, has a right: Rights of inferior lienor.

1. To redeem the property in the same manner as its owner might, from the superior lien; and

2. To be subrogated to all the benefits of the superior lien, when necessary for the protection of his interests, upon satisfying the claim secured thereby.

SEC. 1328. REDEMPTION FROM LIEN, HOW MADE.—Redemption from a lien is made by performing, or offering to perform, the act for the performance of which it is a security, and paying, or offering to pay, the damages, if any, to which the holder of the lien is entitled for delay. Redemption from lien, how made.

SEC. 1331. LIEN EXTINGUISHED BY LAPSE OF TIME UNDER STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—A lien is extinguished by the lapse of the time within which, under the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, an action can be brought upon the principal obligation. By lapse of time.

SEC. 1332. APPORTIONMENT OF LIEN.—The partial performance of an act secured by a lien does not extinguish the lien upon any part of the property subject thereto, even if it is divisible. Apportionment of lien.

SEC. 1333. WHEN RESTORATION EXTINGUISHES LIEN.—The voluntary restoration of property to its owner by the holder of a lien thereon dependent upon possession extinguishes the lien as to such property, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, and extinguishes it, notwithstanding any such agreement, as to creditors of the owner and persons subsequently acquiring a title to the property, or a lien thereon, in good faith, and for value. Restoration extinguishes lien.

MORTGAGE, WHEN VOID AS TO THIRD PERSONS.—A mortgage of property is void as against creditors of the mortgagor and subsequent purchasers and encumbrances of the property in good faith for value, unless it is acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner prescribed in chapter 22 of this code, and recorded in the office of the Registrar of Property of the Canal Zone.

Mortgage, when void as to third person.

Ante, p. 1164.

SEC. 1346. RECORDING ASSIGNMENT OF MORTGAGE.—An assignment of a mortgage may be recorded in like manner as a mortgage, and such record operates as notice to all persons subsequently deriving title to the mortgage from the assignor.

Recording assignment of mortgage.

SEC. 1347. RECORDING ASSIGNMENT OF MORTGAGE NOT NOTICE TO MORTGAGOR.—When the mortgage is executed as security for money due, or to become due, on a promissory note, bond, or other instrument designated in the mortgage, the record of the assignment of the mortgage is not, of itself, notice to a mortgagor, his heirs, or personal representatives, so as to invalidate any payment made by them, or either of them, to the person holding such note, bond, or other instrument.

Recording assignment, not notice to mortgagor.

SEC. 1348. MORTGAGE PASSES BY ASSIGNMENT OF DEBT.—The assignment of a debt secured by mortgage carries with it the security.

Mortgage passes by assignment of debt.

SEC. 1349. MORTGAGE, HOW DISCHARGED.—A recorded mortgage may be discharged by an entry in the margin of the record thereof, signed by the mortgagee, or his personal representative or assignee, acknowledging the satisfaction of the mortgage in the presence of the registrar of property, who must certify the acknowledgment in form substantially as follows: "Signed and acknowledged before me, this _____ day of _____, in the year _____. A. B., Registrar of Property."

How mortgage discharged.

SEC. 1350. SAME.—A recorded mortgage, if not discharged as provided in section 1349, must be discharged upon the record by the officer having custody thereof, on the presentation to him of a certificate signed by the mortgagee, his personal representatives or assigns, acknowledged or proved and certified as prescribed by chapter 22 of this code, stating that the mortgage has been paid, satisfied, or discharged.

SEC. 1351. DUTY OF MORTGAGEE ON SATISFACTION OF MORTGAGE.—When any mortgage has been satisfied, the mortgagee or his assignee must immediately, on the demand of the mortgagor, execute, acknowledge, and deliver to him a certificate of the discharge thereof, so as to entitle it to be recorded, or he must enter satisfaction, or cause satisfaction of such mortgage to be entered of record; and any mortgagee, or assignee of such mortgagee, who refuses to execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the mortgagor the certificate of discharge, or to enter satisfaction, or cause satisfaction of the mortgage to be entered, as provided in this chapter, is liable to the mortgagor, or his grantee or heirs, for all damages which he or they may sustain by reason of such refusal, and shall also forfeit to him or them the sum of one hundred dollars.

Duty of mortgagee on satisfaction.

Contracts of bottomry or respondentia not affected.

SEC. 1352. PROVISIONS OF THIS CHAPTER DO NOT AFFECT BOTTOMRY OR RESPONDENTIA.—Contracts of bottomry or respondentia, although in the nature of mortgages, are not affected by any of the provisions of this chapter.

Mortgages of personal property.

MORTGAGES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Form of personal mortgage.

SEC. 1355. FORM OF PERSONAL MORTGAGE.—A mortgage of personal property may be made in substantially the following form:

This mortgage, made the — day of —, in the year —, by A B, of —, by occupation a —, mortgagor, to C D, of —, by occupation a —, mortgagee, witnesseth:

That the mortgagor mortgages to the mortgagee (here describe the property), as security for the payment to him of — dollars, on (or before) the — day of —, in the year —, with interest thereon (or, as security for the payment of a note or obligation, describing it, and so forth) A B.

When void as to third persons.

SEC. 1356. WHEN VOID AS TO THIRD PERSONS.—A mortgage of personal property is void as against creditors of the mortgagor and subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers of the property in good faith and for value, unless:

1. It is accompanied by the affidavit of all the parties thereto that it is made in good faith and without any design to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors;

2. It is acknowledged or proved and certified in the manner prescribed in chapter 22 of this code, and recorded in the office of the registrar of property of the Canal Zone.

SEC. 1361. MORTGAGED PROPERTY MAY BE LEVIED UPON.—Personal property mortgaged may be taken under attachment or execution issued at the suit of a creditor of the mortgagor. Mortgaged property may be levied upon.

SEC. 1362. ATTACHMENT AND EXECUTIONS ON MORTGAGED PERSONAL PROPERTY.—Before the property is so taken the officer must pay or tender to the mortgagee the amount of the mortgage debt and interest or must deposit the amount thereof with the registrar of property, payable to the order of the mortgagee: Provided, however, That when an attachment or execution creditor presents to the officer a verified statement that the mortgage is void or invalid for reasons therein specified and delivers to the officer a good and sufficient indemnity bond in double the amount of the mortgage debt or double the value of the mortgaged property, as the officer may determine and require, the officer shall take the property, and, in the case of an execution, sell it in the manner provided by law. Attachment and executions on. Proviso. When mortgage void, etc., indemnity bond.

The bond shall be made to both the officer and the mortgagee and shall indemnify them and each of them for the taking of the property against loss, liability, damages, costs, and counsel fees.

SEC. 1363. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS OF SALE.—When the property is taken after payment or tender of deposit as provided for in section 1362, and is sold under process the officer must apply the proceeds of the sale as follows: Application of proceeds.

1. To the repayment of the sum paid to the mortgagee, with interest from the date of such payment; and
2. The balance, if any, in like manner as the proceeds of sales under execution are applied in other cases.

When the property is taken after presentation to the officer of the verified statement and bond mentioned in the proviso in section 1362 and is sold under process the officer must apply the proceeds of the sale as follows:

1. To the satisfaction of the amount specified in the process including interest and costs; and
2. The balance, if any, in like manner as the proceeds of sales under execution are applied in other cases.

SEC. 1364. CERTAIN SECTIONS NOT APPLICABLE TO MORTGAGE OF CERTAIN SHIPS.—Sections 1356 and 1357 to 1359 do not apply to any mortgage of a ship or part of a ship under the flag of the United States. Designated sections not applicable to mortgage of certain ships. Ante, p. 1302.

SEC. 1365. CONTINUANCE OF LIEN OF MORTGAGE ON CROPS.—The lien of a mortgage on a growing crop continues on the crop after severance, whether remaining in its original state or converted into another product, so long as the same remains on the land of mortgagor. Continuance of lien of mortgage on crops.

SEC. 1366. VALIDITY OF CERTAIN MORTGAGES.—Mortgages of personal property, other than that mentioned in section 1353, and mortgages not made in conformity with the provisions of this subchapter, are nevertheless valid between the parties, their heirs, legatees, and personal representatives, and persons who, before parting with value, have actual notice thereof. Validity of certain mortgages.

REAL OWNER CAN NOT DEFEAT PLEDGE OF PROPERTY TRANSFERRED TO APPARENT OWNER FOR THE PURPOSE OF PLEDGE.—One who has allowed another to assume the apparent ownership of property for the purpose of making any transfer of it, can not set up his own title, to defeat a pledge of the property, made by the other, to a pledgee who received the property in good faith, in the ordinary course of business, and for value.

Pledge lender.

SEC. 1373. PLEDGE LENDER, WHAT.—Property may be pledged as security for the obligation of another person than the owner, and in so doing the owner has all the rights of a pledgor for himself, except as hereinafter stated.

Pledge holder.

SEC. 1374. PLEDGE HOLDER, WHAT.—A pledgor and pledgee may agree upon a third person with whom to deposit the property pledged, who, if he accepts the deposit, is called a pledge holder.

When pledge lender may withdraw property.

SEC. 1375. WHEN PLEDGE LENDER MAY WITHDRAW PROPERTY PLEDGED.—One who pledges property as security for the obligation of another can not withdraw the property pledged otherwise than as a pledgor for himself might, and if he receives from the debtor a consideration for the pledge he can not withdraw it without his consent.

Obligations of pledge holder.

SEC. 1376. OBLIGATIONS OF PLEDGE HOLDER.—A pledge holder for reward can not exonerate himself from his undertaking; and a gratuitous pledge holder can do so only by giving reasonable notice to the pledgor and pledgee to appoint a new pledge holder, and in case of their failure to agree, by depositing the property pledged with some impartial person, who will then be entitled to a reasonable compensation for his care of the same.

Pledge holder must enforce rights of pledgee.

SEC. 1377. PLEDGE HOLDER MUST ENFORCE RIGHTS OF PLEDGEE.—A pledge holder must enforce all the rights of the pledgee, unless authorized by him to waive them.

Obligation of pledgees, etc., for reward.

SEC. 1383. NOTICE OF SALE TO PLEDGOR.—A pledgee must give actual notice to the pledgor of the time and place at which the property pledged will be sold, at such a reasonable time before the sale as will enable the pledgor to attend.

Notice of.

SEC. 1384. WAIVER OF NOTICE OF SALE.—Notice of sale may be waived by a pledgor at any time; but is not waived by a mere waiver of demand of performance.

Waiver of.

SEC. 1385. WAIVER OF DEMAND.—A debtor or pledgor waives a demand of performance as a condition precedent to a sale of the property pledged, by a positive refusal to perform, after performance is due; but can not waive it in any other manner except by contract.

Waiver of demand.

SEC. 1386. SALE OF PLEDGED PROPERTY, MANNER OF.—The sale by pledgee, of property pledged, must be made by public auction, in the manner and upon the notice of sale of personal property under execution.

Pledgee may retain all that can become due.

SEC. 1390. PLEDGEE MAY RETAIN ALL THAT CAN BECOME DUE.—When property pledged is sold by order of the pledgor before the claim of the pledgee is due, the latter may retain out of the proceeds all that can possibly become due under his claim until it becomes due.

Right to purchase at sale.

Ante, p. 1305.

SEC. 1391. PLEDGEE OR PLEDGE HOLDER MAY PURCHASE.—Whenever property pledged is sold at public auction, in the manner provided by section 1386, the pledgee or pledge holder may purchase said property at such sale.

Pledgee may foreclose right of redemption.

SEC. 1392. PLEDGEE MAY FORECLOSE RIGHT OF REDEMPTION.—Instead of selling property pledged, as hereinbefore provided, a pledgee may foreclose the right of redemption by a judicial sale, under the direction of a competent court; and in that case may be authorized by the court to purchase at the sale.

SEC. 1394. LIMITATION ON AMOUNT RECOVERABLE WHERE WRITTEN NOTICE NOT GIVEN.—That portion of any lien, as provided for in section 1393, in excess of $100, for any work, services, care, or safe-keeping rendered or performed at the request of any person other than the holder of the legal title, shall be invalid, unless prior to commencing any such work, service, care, or safe-keeping, the person claiming such lien shall give actual notice in writing either by personal service or by registered letter addressed to the holder of the legal title to such property, if known. In the case of automobiles, the person named as legal owner in the registration certificate, shall be deemed for the purpose of this section, as the holder of the legal title.

SEC. 1395. LIEN HOLDER MAY SELL PROPERTY; NOTICE OF SALE; PROCEEDS.—If the person entitled to the lien provided for in section 1393 be not paid the amount due and for which said lien is given, within twenty days after the same shall have become due, then such lien holder may proceed to sell said property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said lien and costs of sale, at public auction, and by giving at least ten days' previous notice of such sale by advertising in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone. The proceeds of the sale must be applied to the discharge of the lien and the cost of keeping and selling the property; the remainder, if any, must be paid over to the owner thereof.

CHAPTER 66.—NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL

NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS IN GENERAL.

NOTE.—This chapter and chapters 67 to 69 of this code comprise the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Post, pp. 1322-1326.

FORM AND INTERPRETATION

Form and interpretation.

SEC. 1400. REQUIREMENTS FOR NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT.—An instrument to be negotiable must conform to the following requirements:

Requirements.

- (1) It must be in writing and signed by the maker or drawer;
- (2) Must contain an unconditional promise or order to pay a sum certain in money;
- (3) Must be payable on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time;
- (4) Must be payable to order or to bearer; and
- (5) Where the instrument is addressed to a drawee, he must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

SEC. 1401. SUM PAYABLE CERTAIN.—The sum payable is a sum certain within the meaning of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, although it is to be paid—

Sum certain.

- (1) With interest; or
- (2) By stated installments; or

(3) By stated installments, with a provision that upon default in payment of any installment or of interest, the whole shall become due; or

(4) With exchange, whether at a fixed rate or at the current rate; or

(5) With costs of collection or an attorney's fee, in case payment shall not be made at maturity.

Unconditional promise.

SEC. 1402. UNQUALIFIED PROMISE UNCONDITIONAL.—An unqualified order or promise to pay is unconditional within the meaning of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, though coupled with—

(1) An indication of a particular fund out of which reimbursement is to be made, or a particular account to be debited with the amount; or

(2) A statement of the transaction which gives rise to the instrument.

But an order or promise to pay out of a particular fund is not unconditional.

Time for payment.

SEC. 1403. TIME FOR PAYMENT.—An instrument is payable at a determinable, future time, within the meaning of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, which is expressed to be payable—

(1) At a fixed period after date or sight; or

(2) On or before a fixed or determinable future time specified therein; or

(3) On or at a fixed period after the occurrence of a specified event, which is certain to happen, though the time of happening be uncertain.

An instrument payable upon a contingency is not negotiable, and the happening of the event does not cure the defect.

Nonnegotiable instrument.

SEC. 1404. NONNEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT.—An instrument which contains an order or promise to do any act in addition to the payment of money is not negotiable. But the negotiable character of an instrument otherwise negotiable is not affected by a provision which—

(1) Authorizes the sale of collateral securities in case the instrument be not paid at maturity; or

(2) Authorizes a confession of judgment, if the instrument be not paid at maturity; or

(3) Waives the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of the obligor; or

(4) Gives the holder an election to require something to be done in lieu of payment of money.

But nothing in this section shall validate any provision or stipulation otherwise illegal.

Negotiability not affected.

SEC. 1405. NEGOTIABILITY NOT AFFECTED.—The validity and negotiable character of an instrument are not affected by the fact that—

(1) It is not dated; or

(2) Does not specify the value given, or that any value has been given therefor; or

(3) Does not specify the place where it is drawn or the place where it is payable; or

(4) Bears a seal; or

(5) Designates a particular kind of current money in which payment is to be made.

But nothing in this section shall alter or repeal any statute requiring in certain cases the nature of the consideration to be stated in the instrument.

SEC. 1406. PAYABLE ON DEMAND.—An instrument is payable on demand—

Payable on demand.

(1) Where it is expressed to be payable on demand, or at sight, or on presentation; or

(2) In which no time for payment is expressed.

Where an instrument is issued, accepted, or indorsed when overdue, it is, as regards the person so issuing, accepting, or indorsing it, payable on demand.

SEC. 1407. PAYABLE TO ORDER.—The instrument is payable to order where it is drawn payable to the order of a specified person or to him or his order. It may be drawn payable to the order of—

Payable to order.

(1) A payee who is not maker, drawer, or drawee; or

(2) The drawer or maker; or

(3) The drawee; or

(4) Two or more payees jointly; or

(5) One or some of several payees; or

(6) The holder of an office for the time being.

Where the instrument is payable to order the payee must be named or otherwise indicated therein with reasonable certainty.

Payable to bearer.

SEC. 1408. PAYABLE TO BEARER.—The instrument is payable to bearer—

(1) When it is expressed to be so payable; or

(2) When it is payable to a person named therein or bearer; or

(3) When it is payable to the order of a fictitious or nonexisting person, and such fact was known to the person making it so payable; or

(4) When the name of the payee does not purport to be the name of any person; or

(5) When the only or last indorsement is an indorsement in blank.

Language of instrument.

SEC. 1409. LANGUAGE OF INSTRUMENT.—The instrument need not follow the language of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, but any terms are sufficient which clearly indicate an intention to conform to the requirements thereof.

SEC. 1410. TRUE DATE.—Where the instrument or an acceptance or any indorsement thereon is dated, such date is deemed prima facie to be the true date of the making, drawing, acceptance, or indorsement as the case may be.

True date.

SEC. 1411. ANTE OR POST DATING.—The instrument is not invalid for the reason only that it is antedated or postdated, provided this is not done for an illegal or fraudulent purpose. The person to whom an instrument so dated is delivered acquires the title thereto as of the date of delivery.

Ante or post dating.

SEC. 1412. INSERTION OF DATE.—Where an instrument expressed to be payable at a fixed period after date is issued undated, or where the acceptance of an instrument payable at a fixed period after sight is undated, any holder may insert therein the true date of issue or acceptance, and the instrument shall be payable accordingly. The insertion of a wrong date does not avoid the instrument in the hands of a subsequent holder in due course; but as to him, the date so inserted is to be regarded as the true date.

Insertion of date.

SEC. 1413. FILLING UP BLANKS.—Where the instrument is wanting in any material particular, the person in possession thereof has a prima facie authority to complete it by filling up the blanks therein. And a signature on a blank paper delivered by the person making the signature in order that the paper may be converted into a negotiable instrument operates as a prima facie authority to fill it up as such for any amount. In order, however, that any such instrument when completed may be enforced against any person who became a party thereto prior to its completion, it must be filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time. But if any such instrument, after completion, is negotiated to a holder in due course, it is valid and effectual for all purposes in his hands, and he may enforce it as if it had been filled up strictly in accordance with the authority given and within a reasonable time.

Filling up blanks.

Incomplete instrument not delivered.

SEC. 1414. INCOMPLETE INSTRUMENT NOT DELIVERED.—Where an incomplete instrument has not been delivered it will not, if completed and negotiated, without authority, be a valid contract in the hands of any holder, as against any person whose signature was placed thereon before delivery.

Delivery necessary.

SEC. 1415. DELIVERY NECESSARY.—Every contract on a negotiable instrument is incomplete and revocable until delivery of the instrument for the purpose of giving effect thereto. As between immediate parties, and as regards a remote party other than a holder in due course, the delivery, in order to be effectual, must be made either by or under the authority of the party making, drawing, accepting, or indorsing, as the case may be; and in such case the delivery may be shown to have been conditional, or for a special purpose only, and not for the purpose of transferring the property in the instrument. But where the instrument is in the hands of a holder in due course, a valid delivery thereof by all parties prior to him so as to make them liable to him is conclusively presumed. And where the instrument is no longer in the possession of a party whose signature appears thereon, a valid and intentional delivery by him is presumed until the contrary is proved.

Rules of construction.

SEC. 1416. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Where the language of the instrument is ambiguous or there are omissions therein, the following rules of construction apply:

(1) Where the sum payable is expressed in words and also in figures and there is a discrepancy between the two, the sum denoted by the words is the sum payable; but if the words are ambiguous or uncertain, reference may be had to the figures to fix the amount;

(2) Where the instrument provides for the payment of interest, without specifying the date from which interest is to run, the interest runs from the date of the instrument, and if the instrument is undated, from the issue thereof;

(3) Where the instrument is not dated, it will be considered to be dated as of the time it was issued;

(4) Where there is a conflict between the written and printed provisions of the instrument, the written provisions prevail;

(5) Where the instrument is so ambiguous that there is doubt whether it is a bill or note, the holder may treat it as either at his election;

(6) Where a signature is so placed upon the instrument that it is not clear in what capacity the person making the same intended to sign, he is to be deemed an indorser;

(7) Where an instrument containing the words "I promise to pay" is signed by two or more persons, they are deemed to be jointly and severally liable thereon.

Liability on.

SEC. 1417. LIABILITY ON INSTRUMENT.—No person is liable on the instrument whose signature does not appear thereon, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. But one who signs in a trade or assumed name will be liable to the same extent as if he had signed in his own name.

Signature by agent.

SEC. 1418. SIGNATURE BY AGENT.—The signature of any party may be made by a duly authorized agent. No particular form of appointment is necessary for this purpose; and the authority of the agent may be established as in other cases of agency.

SEC. 1419. LIABILITY OF AGENT.—Where the instrument contains or a person adds to his signature words indicating that he signs for or on behalf of a principal, or in a representative capacity, he is not liable on the instrument if he was duly authorized; but the mere addition of words describing him as an agent, or as filling a representative character, without disclosing his principal, does not exempt him from personal liability.

Liability of agent.

SEC. 1420. SIGNATURE BY "PROCURATION."—A signature by "procuration" operates as notice that the agent has but a limited authority to sign, and the principal is bound only in case the agent in so signing acted within the actual limits of his authority.

Signature by "procuration."

SEC. 1421. INDORSEMENT BY CORPORATION OR INFANT.—The indorsement or assignment of the instrument by a corporation or by an infant passes the property therein, notwithstanding that from want of capacity the corporation or infant may incur no liability thereon.

Indorsement by corporation or infant.

SEC. 1422. FORGED SIGNATURE.—When a signature is forged or made without the authority of the person whose signature it purports to be, it is wholly inoperative, and no right to retain the instrument, or to give a discharge therefor, or to enforce payment thereof against any party thereto, can be acquired through or under such signature, unless the party, against whom it is sought to enforce such right, is precluded from setting up the forgery or want of authority.

Forged signature.

CONSIDERATION

SEC. 1423. PRESUMPTION OF CONSIDERATION.—Every negotiable instrument is deemed prima facie to have been issued for a valuable consideration; and every person whose signature appears thereon to have become a party thereto for value.

Presumption of consideration.

SEC. 1424. CONSIDERATION, WHAT CONSTITUTES.—Value is any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. An antecedent or preexisting debt constitutes value, and is deemed such whether the instrument is payable on demand or at a future time.

What constitutes consideration.

SEC. 1425. HOLDER FOR VALUE.—Where value has at any time been given for the instrument, the holder is deemed a holder for value in respect to all parties who become such prior to that time.

Holder for value.

SEC. 1426. LIEN ON AN INSTRUMENT.—Where the holder has a lien on the instrument, arising either from contract or by implication of law, he is deemed a holder for value to the extent of his lien.

Lien on instrument.

SEC. 1427. EFFECT OF WANT OF CONSIDERATION.—Absence or failure of consideration is matter of defense as against any person not a holder in due course; and partial failure of consideration is a defense pro tanto, whether the failure is an ascertained and liquidated amount or otherwise.

Want of consideration.

SEC. 1428. LIABILITY OF ACCOMMODATION PARTY.—An accommodation party is one who has signed the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser, without receiving value therefor, and for the purpose of lending his name to some other person. Such a person is liable on the instrument to a holder for value, notwithstanding such holder at the time of taking the instrument knew him to be only an accommodation party.

Liability of accommodation party.

NEGOTIATION

SEC. 1429. NEGOTIATION.—An instrument is negotiated when it is transferred from one person to another in such manner as to constitute the transferee the holder thereof. If payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery; if payable to order it is negotiated by the indorsement of the holder completed by delivery.

Negotiation.

Indorsement.

SEC. 1430. INDORSEMENT.—The indorsement must be written on the instrument itself or upon a paper attached thereto. The signature of the indorser, without additional words, is a sufficient indorsement.

Indorsement of entire instrument.

SEC. 1431. INDORSEMENT OF ENTIRE INSTRUMENT.—The indorsement must be an indorsement of the entire instrument. An indorsement which purports to transfer to the indorsee a part only of the amount payable, or which purports to transfer the instrument to two or more indorsees severally, does not operate as a negotiation of the instrument. But where the instrument has been paid in part, it may be indorsed as to the residue.

Kinds of indorsement.

SEC. 1432. KINDS OF INDORSEMENT.—An indorsement may be either special or in blank; and it may also be either restrictive or qualified, or conditional.

Special.

SEC. 1433. SPECIAL INDORSEMENT.—A special indorsement specifies the person to whom, or to whose order, the instrument is to be payable; and the indorsement of such indorsee is necessary to the further negotiation of the instrument. An indorsement in blank specifies no indorsee, and an instrument so indorsed is payable to bearer and may be negotiated by delivery.

Blank; how changed to special.

SEC. 1434. BLANK INDORSEMENT, HOW CHANGED TO SPECIAL INDORSEMENT.—The holder may convert a blank indorsement into a special indorsement by writing over the signature of the indorser in blank any contract consistent with the character of the indorsement.

Restrictive.

SEC. 1435. INDORSEMENT RESTRICTIVE.—An indorsement is restrictive, which either—

- (1) Prohibits the further negotiation of the instrument; or
- (2) Constitutes the indorsee the agent of the indorser; or
- (3) Vests the title in the indorsee in trust for or to the use of some other person.

But the mere absence of words implying power to negotiate does not make an indorsement restrictive.

Rights conferred.

SEC. 1436. RIGHTS CONFERRED.—A restrictive indorsement confers upon the indorsee the right—

- (1) To receive payment of the instrument;
- (2) To bring any action thereon that the indorser could bring;
- (3) To transfer his rights as such indorsee, where the form of the indorsement authorizes him to do so.

But all subsequent indorsees acquire only the title of the first indorsee under the restrictive indorsement.

Qualified.

SEC. 1437. QUALIFIED INDORSEMENT.—A qualified indorsement constitutes the indorser a mere assignor of the title to the instrument. It may be made by adding to the indorser's signature the words "without recourse" or any words of similar import. Such an indorsement does not impair the negotiable character of the instrument.

Conditional.

SEC. 1438. CONDITIONAL INDORSEMENT.—Where an indorsement is conditional, a party required to pay the instrument may disregard the condition, and make payment to the indorsee or his transferee, whether the condition has been fulfilled or not. But any person to whom an instrument so indorsed is negotiated will hold the same, or the proceeds thereof, subject to the rights of the person indorsing conditionally.

Payable to bearer.

SEC. 1439. PAYABLE TO BEARER.—Where an instrument, payable to bearer, is indorsed specially it may nevertheless be further negotiated by delivery; but the person indorsing specially is liable as indorser to only such holders as make title through his indorsement.

Payable to two or more persons.

SEC. 1440. PAYABLE TO TWO OR MORE PERSONS.—Where an instrument is payable to the order of two or more payees or indorsees who are not partners, all must indorse, unless the one indorsing has authority to indorse for the others.

SEC. 1441. INDORSED TO PERSON AS "CASHIER."—Where an instrument is drawn or indorsed to person as "cashier" or other fiscal officer of a bank or corporation, it is deemed prima facie to be payable to the bank or corporation of which he is such officer, and may be negotiated by either the indorsement of the bank or corporation or the indorsement of the officer.

Indorsed to person as "cashier."

SEC. 1442. NAME MISPELLED.—Where the name of a payee or indorsee is wrongly designated or misspelled, he may indorse the instrument as therein described, adding, if he thinks fit, his proper signature.

Name misspelled.

SEC. 1443. IN REPRESENTATIVE CAPACITY.—Where any person is under obligation to indorse in a representative capacity, he may indorse in such terms as to negative personal liability.

In representative capacity.

SEC. 1444. TIME OF INDORSEMENT.—Except where an indorsement bears date after the maturity of the instrument, every negotiation is deemed prima facie to have been effected before the instrument was overdue.

Time of indorsement.

SEC. 1445. PLACE OF INDORSEMENT.—Except where the contrary appears, every indorsement is presumed prima facie to have been made at the place where the instrument is dated.

Place of indorsement.

SEC. 1446. CONTINUATION.—An instrument negotiable in its origin continues to be negotiable until it has been restrictively indorsed or discharged by payment or otherwise.

Continuation of negotiability.

SEC. 1447. STRIKING OUT INDORSEMENT.—The holder may at any time strike out any indorsement which is not necessary to his title. The indorser whose indorsement is struck out, and all indorsers subsequent to him, are thereby relieved from liability on the instrument.

Striking out indorsement.

SEC. 1448. TRANSFER WITHOUT INDORSEMENT.—Where the holder of an instrument payable to his order transfers it for value without indorsing it, the transfer vests in the transferee such title as the transferor had therein, and the transferee acquires, in addition, the right to have the indorsement of the transferor. But for the purpose of determining whether the transferee is a holder in due course, the negotiation takes effect as to the time when the indorsement is actually made.

Transfer without indorsement.

SEC. 1449. PRIOR PARTY MAY NEGOTIATE.—Where an instrument is negotiated back to a prior party such party may, subject to the provisions of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, reissue and further negotiate the same. But he is not entitled to enforce payment thereof against any intervening party to whom he was personally liable.

Prior party may negotiate.

RIGHTS OF THE HOLDER

SEC. 1450. RIGHT TO SUE.—The holder of a negotiable instrument may sue thereon in his own name and payment to him in due course discharges the instrument.

Rights of holder.

To sue in own name.

SEC. 1451. HOLDER IN DUE COURSE.—A holder in due course is a holder who has taken the instrument under the following conditions:

Holder in due course.

- (1) That it is complete and regular upon its face;
- (2) That he became the holder of it before it was overdue, and without notice that it had been previously dishonored, if such was the fact;
- (3) That he took it in good faith and for value;
- (4) That at the time it was negotiated to him he had no notice of any infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating it.

When title defective.

Ante, p. 1307; post, p. 1323.

SEC. 1454. WHEN TITLE DEFECTIVE.—The title of a person who negotiates an instrument is defective within the meaning of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, when he obtained the instrument, or any signature thereto, by fraud, duress, or force and fear, or other unlawful means, or for an illegal consideration, or when he negotiates it in breach of faith, or under such circumstances as amount to a fraud.

Notice of defect.

SEC. 1455. NOTICE OF DEFECT.—To constitute notice of an infirmity in the instrument or defect in the title of the person negotiating the same, the person to whom it is negotiated must have had actual knowledge of the infirmity or defect, or knowledge of such facts that his action in taking the instrument amounted to bad faith.

Rights of holder in due course.

SEC. 1456. RIGHTS OF HOLDER IN DUE COURSE.—A holder in due course holds the instrument free from any defect of title of prior parties, and free from defenses available to prior parties among themselves, and may enforce payment of the instrument for the full amount thereof against all parties liable thereon.

Defense against holder not in due course.

SEC. 1457. WHEN SUBJECT TO ORIGINAL.—In the hands of any holder other than a holder in due course, a negotiable instrument is subject to the same defenses as if it were nonnegotiable. But a holder who derives his title through a holder in due course, and who is not himself a party to any fraud or illegality affecting the instrument, has all the rights of such former holder in respect of all parties prior to the latter.

Who deemed holder in due course.

SEC. 1458. WHO DEEMED HOLDER IN DUE COURSE.—Every holder is deemed prima facie to be a holder in due course; but when it is shown that the title of any person who has negotiated the instrument was defective, the burden is on the holder to prove that he or some person under whom he claims acquired the title as holder in due course. But the last-mentioned rule does not apply in favor of a party who became bound on the instrument prior to the acquisition of such defective title.

LIABILITIES OF PARTIES

SEC. 1459. LIABILITY OF MAKER.—The maker of a negotiable instrument by making it engages that he will pay it according to its tenor, and admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

SEC. 1460. LIABILITY OF DRAWER.—The drawer by drawing the instrument admits the existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse; and engages that on due presentment the instrument will be accepted or paid, or both, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it. But the drawer may insert in the instrument an express stipulation negating or limiting his own liability to the holder.

SEC. 1461. LIABILITY OF ACCEPTOR.—The acceptor by accepting the instrument engages that he will pay it according to the tenor of his acceptance; and admits—

(1) The existence of the drawer, the genuineness of his signature, and his capacity and authority to draw the instrument; and

(2) The existence of the payee and his then capacity to indorse.

SEC. 1462. PERSON DEEMED INDORSER.—A person placing his signature upon an instrument otherwise than as maker, drawer, or acceptor, is deemed to be an indorser, unless he clearly indicates by appropriate words his intention to be bound in some other capacity.

SEC. 1463. LIABILITY OF IRREGULAR INDORSER.—Where a person, not otherwise a party to an instrument, places thereon his signature in blank before delivery, he is liable as indorser, in accordance with the following rules:

(1) If the instrument is payable to the order of a third person, he is liable to the payee and to all subsequent parties.

(2) If the instrument is payable to the order of the maker or drawer, or is payable to bearer, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the maker or drawer.

(3) If he signs for the accommodation of the payee, he is liable to all parties subsequent to the payee.

SEC. 1464. WARRANTY WHEN NEGOTIATION BY DELIVERY, ETC.—Every person negotiating an instrument by delivery or by a qualified indorsement, warrants—

(1) That the instrument is genuine and in all respects what it purports to be;

(2) That he has a good title to it;

(3) That all prior parties had capacity to contract;

(4) That he has no knowledge of any fact which would impair the validity of the instrument or render it valueless.

But when the negotiation is by delivery only, the warranty extends in favor of no holder other than the immediate transferee.

The provisions of subdivision three of this section do not apply to persons negotiating public or corporation securities, other than bills and notes.

Of maker.

Of drawer.

Of acceptor.

Person deemed indorser.

Liability of irregular indorser.

Warranty when negotiation by delivery, etc.

Of general indorser. SEC. 1465. LIABILITY OF GENERAL INDORSER.—Every indorser who indorses without qualification, warrants to all subsequent holders in due course—

Ante, p. 1315. (1) The matters and things mentioned in subdivisions 1, 2, and 3 of section 1464; and

(2) That the instrument is at the time of his indorsement valid and subsisting.

And, in addition, he engages that on due presentment it shall be accepted or paid, or both, as the case may be, according to its tenor, and that if it be dishonored, and the necessary proceedings on dishonor be duly taken, he will pay the amount thereof to the holder, or to any subsequent indorser who may be compelled to pay it.

When negotiable by delivery. SEC. 1466. WHEN NEGOTIABLE BY DELIVERY.—Where a person places his indorsement on an instrument negotiable by delivery he incurs all the liabilities of an indorser.

Order of liability of indorsers. SEC. 1467. LIABILITY OF INDORSERS.—As respects one another indorsers are liable prima facie in the order in which they indorse; but evidence is admissible to show that as between or among themselves they have agreed otherwise. Joint payees or joint indorsees who indorse are deemed to indorse jointly and severally.

Liability of broker or agent. Ante, p. 1315. SEC. 1468. LIABILITY OF BROKER OR AGENT.—Where a broker or other agent negotiates an instrument without indorsement he incurs all the liabilities prescribed by section 1464, unless he discloses the name of his principal and the fact that he is acting only as agent.

PRESENTMENT FOR PAYMENT

Presentment for payment. SEC. 1469. PRESENTMENT FOR PAYMENT.—Presentment for payment is not necessary in order to charge the person primarily liable on the instrument; but if the instrument is, by its terms, payable at a special place, and he is able and willing to pay it there at maturity, such ability and willingness are equivalent to a tender of payment upon his part. But except as herein otherwise provided, presentment for payment is necessary in order to charge the drawer and indorsers.

When instrument payable on due date. SEC. 1470. PRESENTMENT FOR PAYMENT.—Where the instrument is not payable on demand, presentment must be made on the day it falls due. Where it is payable on demand, presentment must be made within a reasonable time after its issue, except that in the case of a bill of exchange, presentment for payment will be sufficient if made within a reasonable time after the last negotiation thereof.

What constitutes sufficient presentment. SEC. 1471. WHAT CONSTITUTES SUFFICIENT PRESENTMENT.—Presentment for payment, to be sufficient, must be made—

(1) By the holder, or by some person authorized to receive payment, on his behalf;

(2) At a reasonable hour on a business day;

(3) At a proper place as herein defined;

(4) To the person primarily liable on the instrument, or if he is absent or inaccessible, to any person found at the place where the presentment is made.

Place of. SEC. 1472. PLACE OF PRESENTMENT.—Presentment for payment is made at the proper place—

(1) Where a place of payment is specified in the instrument and it is there presented;

(2) Where no place of payment is specified, but the address of the person to make payment is given in the instrument and it is there presented;

(3) Where no place of payment is specified and no address is given and the instrument is presented at the usual place of business or residence of the person to make payment;

(4) In any other case if presented to the person to make payment wherever he can be found, or if presented at his last known place of business or residence.

SEC. 1473. MUST BE EXHIBITED.—The instrument must be exhibited to the person from whom payment is demanded, and when it is paid must be delivered up to the party paying it.

SEC. 1474. WHERE PAYABLE AT BANK.—Where the instrument is payable at a bank, presentment for payment must be made during banking hours, unless the person to make payment has no funds there to meet it at any time during the day, in which case presentment at any hour before the bank is closed on that day is sufficient.

SEC. 1475. WHEN PERSON LIABLE IS DEAD.—Where the person primarily liable on the instrument is dead, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment must be made to his personal representative, if such there be, and if, with the exercise of reasonable diligence, he can be found.

SEC. 1476. PERSONS LIABLE AS PARTNERS.—Where the persons primarily liable on the instrument are liable as partners, and no place of payment is specified, presentment for payment may be made to any one of them, even though there has been a dissolution of the firm.

SEC. 1477. JOINT DEBTS.—Where there are several persons, not partners, primarily liable on the instrument, and no place of payment is specified, presentment must be made to them all.

SEC. 1478. PRESENTMENT FOR PAYMENT NOT REQUIRED WHEN.—Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge the drawer where he has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will pay the instrument.

SEC. 1479. PRESENTMENT FOR PAYMENT NOT REQUIRED WHEN.—Presentment for payment is not required in order to charge an indorser where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation and he has no reason to expect that the instrument will be paid if presented.

SEC. 1480. DELAY EXCUSED.—Delay in making presentment for payment is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct, or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, presentment must be made with reasonable diligence.

SEC. 1481. WHEN DISPENSED WITH.—Presentment for payment is dispensed with—

(1) Where after the exercise of reasonable diligence presentment as required by this title can not be made;

(2) Where the drawee is a fictitious person;

(3) By waiver of presentment, express or implied.

SEC. 1482. WHEN DISHONORED BY NONPAYMENT.—The instrument is dishonored by nonpayment when—

(1) It is duly presented for payment and payment is refused or can not be obtained; or

(2) Presentment is excused and the instrument is overdue and unpaid.

SEC. 1483. LIABILITY OF PERSON SECONDARILY LIABLE.—Subject to the provisions of chapters 66 to 69 of this code, when the instrument is dishonored by nonpayment, an immediate right of recourse to all parties secondarily liable thereon accrues to the holder.

SEC. 1484. TIME OF PAYMENT.—Every negotiable instrument is payable at the time fixed therein without grace. When the day of maturity falls upon Sunday, or a holiday, the instrument is payable on the next succeeding business day. Instruments falling due on Saturday are to be presented for payment on the next succeeding Payment in due course.

SEC. 1487. PAYMENT IN DUE COURSE.—Payment is made in due course when it is made at or after the maturity of the instrument to the holder thereof in good faith and without notice that his title is defective.

NOTICE OF DISHONOR

Notice of dishonor.

SEC. 1488. NOTICE OF DISHONOR.—Except as herein otherwise provided, when a negotiable instrument has been dishonored by non-acceptance or nonpayment, notice of dishonor must be given to the drawer and to each indorser, and any drawer or indorser to whom such notice is not given is discharged.

Ante, p. 1307; post, p. 1329.

SEC. 1502. NOTICE WHERE PARTIES RESIDE IN SAME PLACE.—Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in the same place, notice must be given within the following times:

Where parties reside in same place.

(1) If given at the place of business of the person to receive notice, it must be given before the close of business hours on the day following;

(2) If given at his residence, it must be given before the usual hours of rest on the day following;

(3) If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to reach him in usual course on the day following.

SEC. 1503. NOTICE WHERE PARTIES RESIDE IN DIFFERENT PLACES.—Where the person giving and the person to receive notice reside in different places, the notice must be given within the following times:

Where reside in different places.

(1) If sent by mail, it must be deposited in the post office in time to go by mail the day following the day of dishonor, or if there be no mail at a convenient hour on that day, by the next mail thereafter;

(2) If given otherwise than through the post office, then within the time that notice would have been received in due course of mail, if it had been deposited in the post office within the time specified in the last subdivision.

Notice to subsequent party.

SEC. 1506. NOTICE TO SUBSEQUENT PARTY.—Where a party receives notice of dishonor, he has, after the receipt of such notice, the same time for giving notice to antecedent parties that the holder has after the dishonor.

Where notice may be sent.

SEC. 1507. WHERE NOTICE MAY BE SENT.—Where a party has added an address to his signature, notice of dishonor must be sent to that address; but if he has not given such address, then the notice must be sent as follows:

(1) Either to the post office nearest to his place of residence, or to the post office where he is accustomed to receive his letters; or

(2) If he live in one place, and have his place of business in another, notice may be sent to either place; or

(3) If he is sojourning in another place, notice may be sent to the place where he is sojourning.

But where the notice is actually received by the party within the time specified in chapters 66 to 69 of this code, it will be sufficient, though not sent in accordance with the requirements of this section.

Waiver of.

SEC. 1508. WAIVER OF NOTICE.—Notice of dishonor may be waived, either before the time of giving notice has arrived, or after the omission to give due notice, and the waiver may be express or implied.

Who is affected by waiver.

SEC. 1509. WHO IS AFFECTED BY WAIVER.—Where the waiver is embodied in the instrument itself, it is binding upon all parties; but where it is written above the signature of an indorser, it binds him only.

Waiver of protest.

SEC. 1510. WAIVER OF PROTEST.—A waiver of protest, whether in the case of a foreign bill of exchange or other negotiable instrument, is deemed to be a waiver not only of formal protest, but also of presentment and notice of dishonor.

Notice dispensed with.

SEC. 1511. NOTICE DISPENSED WITH.—Notice of dishonor is dispensed with when, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, it can not be given to or does not reach the parties sought to be charged.

Delay excused.

SEC. 1512. DELAY EXCUSED.—Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused when the delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder, and not imputable to his default, misconduct, or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, notice must be given with reasonable diligence.

When notice of dishonor not required.

SEC. 1513. WHEN NOTICE OF DISHONOR IS NOT REQUIRED.—Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to the drawer in either of the following cases:

(1) Where the drawer and drawee are the same person;

(2) When the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract;

(3) When the drawer is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;

(4) Where the drawer has no right to expect or require that the drawee or acceptor will honor the instrument;

(5) Where the drawer has countermanded payment.

SEC. 1514. WHEN NOT REQUIRED TO BE GIVEN INDORSER.—Notice of dishonor is not required to be given to an indorser in either of the following cases: When not required to be given indorser.

(1) Where the drawee is a fictitious person or a person not having capacity to contract, and the indorser was aware of the fact at the time he indorsed the instrument;

(2) Where the indorser is the person to whom the instrument is presented for payment;

(3) Where the instrument was made or accepted for his accommodation.

SEC. 1515. NOTICE OF NONPAYMENT WHERE ACCEPTANCE REFUSED.—Where due notice of dishonor by nonacceptance has been given, notice of a subsequent dishonor by nonpayment is not necessary, unless in the meantime the instrument has been accepted. Notice of nonpayment where acceptance refused.

SEC. 1516. EFFECT OF OMISSION.—An omission to give notice of dishonor by nonacceptance does not prejudice the rights of a holder in due course subsequent to the omission. Effect of omission.

SEC. 1517. PROTEST.—Where any negotiable instrument has been dishonored it may be protested for nonacceptance or nonpayment, as the case may be; but protest is not required except in the case of foreign bills of exchange. Protest.

SEC. 1518. HOW DISCHARGED.—A negotiable instrument is discharged— Discharge of negotiable instruments.

(1) By payment in due course by or on behalf of the principal debtor; How discharged.

(2) By payment in due course by the party accommodated, where the instrument is made or accepted for accommodation;

(3) By the intentional cancellation thereof by the holder;

(4) By any other act which will discharge a simple contract for the payment of money;

(5) When the principal debtor becomes the holder of the instrument at or after maturity in his own right.

SEC. 1519. PERSONS SECONDARILY LIABLE DISCHARGED.—A person secondarily liable on the instrument is discharged— Persons secondarily liable discharged.

(1) By any act which discharges the instrument;

(2) By the intentional cancellation of his signature by the holder;

(3) By the discharge of a prior party;

(4) By a valid tender of payment made by a prior party;

(5) By a release of the principal debtor, unless the holder's right of recourse against the party secondarily liable is expressly reserved;

(6) By any agreement binding upon the holder to extend the time of payment, or to postpone the holder's right to enforce the instrument, unless made with the assent of the party secondarily liable, or unless the right of recourse against such party is expressly reserved. Right of party who discharged.

SEC. 1520. RIGHT OF PARTY WHO DISCHARGED.—Where the instrument is paid by a party secondarily liable thereon, it is not discharged; but the party so paying it is remitted to his former rights as regards all prior parties, and he may strike out his own and all subsequent indorsements, and again negotiate the instrument, except—

(1) Where it is payable to the order of a third person, and has been paid by the drawer; and

(2) Where it was made or accepted for accommodation, and has been paid by the party accommodated.

Renunciation by holder.

SEC. 1521. RENUNCIATION BY HOLDER.—The holder may expressly renounce his rights against any party to the instrument, before, at, or after its maturity. An absolute and unconditional renunciation of his rights against the principal debtor made at or after the maturity of the instrument discharges the instrument. But a renunciation does not affect the rights of a holder in due course without notice. A renunciation must be in writing, unless the instrument is delivered up to the person primarily liable thereon.

Cancellation.

SEC. 1522. CANCELLATION.—A cancellation made unintentionally, or under a mistake or without the authority of the holder, is inoperative; but where an instrument or any signature thereon appears to have been canceled the burden of proof lies on the party who alleges that the cancellation was made unintentionally, or under a mistake or without authority.

Alteration.

SEC. 1523. ALTERATION.—Where a negotiable instrument is materially altered without the assent of all parties liable thereon, it is avoided, except as against a party who has himself made, authorized or assented to the alteration, and subsequent indorsers.

But when an instrument has been materially altered and is in the hands of a holder in due course, not a party to the alteration, he may enforce payment thereof according to its original tenor.

Material alteration.

SEC. 1524. MATERIAL ALTERATION.—Any alteration which changes—

- (1) The date;
- (2) The sum payable, either for principal or interest;
- (3) The time or place of payment;
- (4) The number or the relations of the parties;
- (5) The medium or currency in which payment is to be made;

Or which adds a place of payment where no place of payment is specified, or any other change or addition which alters the effect of the instrument in any respect, is a material alteration.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.

CHAPTER 67.—BILLS OF EXCHANGE

Ante, p. 1307; post, p. 1323.

NOTE.—Chapters 66 to 69 of this code comprise the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Form and interpretation.

FORM AND INTERPRETATION

Defined.

SEC. 1525. BILL OF EXCHANGE DEFINED.—A bill of exchange is an unconditional order in writing addressed by one person to another, signed by the person giving it, requiring the person to whom it is addressed to pay on demand or at a fixed or determinable future time a sum certain in money to order or to bearer.

Not an assignment of funds.

SEC. 1526. NOT AN ASSIGNMENT OF FUNDS.—A bill of itself does not operate as an assignment of the funds in the hands of the drawee available for the payment thereof, and the drawee is not liable on the bill unless and until he accepts the same.

Addressed to more than one drawee.

SEC. 1527. ADDRESSED TO MORE THAN ONE DRAWEE.—A bill may be addressed to two or more drawees jointly, whether they are partners or not; but not to two or more drawees in the alternative or in succession.

Inland and foreign bills.

SEC. 1528. INLAND AND FOREIGN BILLS.—An inland bill of exchange is a bill which is, or on its face purports to be, both drawn and payable within the Canal Zone. Any other bill is a foreign bill. Unless the contrary appears on the face of the bill, the holder may treat it as an inland bill.

SEC. 1529. BILL TREATED AS PROMISSORY NOTE.—Where in a bill drawer and drawee are the same person, or where the drawee is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract, the holder may treat the instrument, at his option, either as a bill of exchange or a promissory note.

Bill treated as promissory note.

SEC. 1530. REFEREE IN CASE OF NEED.—The drawer of a bill and any indorser may insert thereon the name of a person to whom the holder may resort in case of need; that is to say in case the bill is dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. Such person is called the referee in case of need. It is in the option of the holder to resort to the referee in case of need or not as he may see fit.

Referee in case of need.

ACCEPTANCE

SEC. 1531. ACCEPTANCE.—The acceptance of a bill is the signification by the drawee of his assent to the order of the drawer. The acceptance must be in writing and signed by the drawee. It must not express that the drawee will perform his promise by any other means than the payment of money.

Acceptance.

SEC. 1532. HOLDER ENTITLED TO ACCEPTANCE ON FACE OF BILL.—The holder of a bill presenting the same for acceptance may require that the acceptance be written on the bill and, if such request is refused, may treat the bill as dishonored.

Holder entitled to acceptance on face of bill.

SEC. 1533. ACCEPTANCE BY SEPARATE INSTRUMENT.—Where an acceptance is written on a paper other than the bill itself, it does not bind the acceptor except in favor of a person to whom it is shown and who, on the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Acceptance by separate instrument.

SEC. 1534. PROMISE TO ACCEPT.—An unconditional promise in writing to accept a bill before it is drawn is deemed an actual acceptance in favor of every person who, upon the faith thereof, receives the bill for value.

Promise to accept.

SEC. 1535. TIME ALLOWED DRAWEE TO ACCEPT.—The drawee is allowed twenty-four hours after presentment in which to decide whether or not he will accept the bill; but the acceptance, if given, dates as of the day of presentation.

Time allowed drawee to accept.

SEC. 1536. LIABILITY OF DRAWEE RETAINING OR DESTROYING BILL.—Where a drawee to whom a bill is delivered for acceptance destroys the same, or refuses within twenty-four hours after such delivery, or within such other period as the holder may allow, to return the bill accepted or nonaccepted to the holder, he will be deemed to have accepted the same.

Liability of drawee retaining or destroying bill.

SEC. 1537. ACCEPTANCE OF INCOMPLETE BILL.—A bill may be accepted before it has been signed by the drawer, or while otherwise incomplete, or when it is overdue, or after it has been dishonored by a previous refusal to accept, or by nonpayment. But when a bill payable after sight is dishonored by nonacceptance and the drawee subsequently accepts it, the holder in the absence of any different agreement, is entitled to have the bill accepted as of the date of the first presentment.

Acceptance of incomplete bill.

SEC. 1538. KINDS OF ACCEPTANCE.—An acceptance is either general or qualified. A general acceptance assents without qualification to the order of the drawer. A qualified acceptance in express terms varies the effect of the bill as drawn.

Kinds of acceptance.

SEC. 1539. KINDS OF ACCEPTANCE.—An acceptance to pay at a particular place is a general acceptance, unless it expressly states that the bill is to be paid there only and not elsewhere.

Qualified acceptance.

SEC. 1540. QUALIFIED ACCEPTANCE.—An acceptance is qualified which is—

- (1) Conditional; that is to say, which makes payment by the acceptor dependent on the fulfillment of a condition therein stated;
- (2) Partial; that is to say, an acceptance to pay part only of the amount for which the bill is drawn;
- (3) Local; that is to say, an acceptance to pay only at a particular place;
- (4) Qualified as to time;
- (5) The acceptance of some one or more of the drawees, but not of all.

Rights of parties.

SEC. 1541. RIGHTS OF PARTIES AS TO QUALIFIED ACCEPTANCES.—The holder may refuse to take a qualified acceptance, and if he does not obtain an unqualified acceptance he may treat the bill as dishonored by nonacceptance. Where a qualified acceptance is taken the drawer and indorsers are discharged from liability on the bill, unless they have expressly or impliedly authorized the holder to take a qualified acceptance, or subsequently assent thereto. When the drawer or an indorser receives notice of a qualified acceptance, he must, within a reasonable time, express his dissent to the holder, or he will be deemed to have assented thereto.

PRESENTMENT FOR ACCEPTANCE

When presentment must be made.

SEC. 1542. WHEN PRESENTMENT FOR ACCEPTANCE MUST BE MADE.—Presentment for acceptance must be made—

- (1) Where the bill is payable after sight, or in any other case, where presentment for acceptance is necessary in order to fix the maturity of the instrument; or
- (2) Where the bill expressly stipulates that it shall be presented for acceptance; or
- (3) Where the bill is drawn payable elsewhere than at the residence or place of business of the drawee.

In no other case is presentment for acceptance necessary in order to render any party to the bill liable.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1325.

Presentment, when excused, see section 1547.

Time for.

SEC. 1543. TIME FOR PRESENTMENT.—Except as herein otherwise provided, the holder of a bill which is required by section 1542 to be presented for acceptance must either present it for acceptance or negotiate it within a reasonable time. If he fails to do so, the drawer and all indorsers are discharged.

To whom must be made.

SEC. 1544. TO WHOM PRESENTMENT FOR ACCEPTANCE MUST BE MADE.—Presentment for acceptance must be made by or on behalf of the holder at a reasonable hour, on a business day and before the bill is overdue, to the drawee or some person, authorized to accept or refuse acceptance on his behalf; and—

- (1) Where a bill is addressed to two or more drawees who are not partners, presentment must be made to them all, unless one has authority to accept or refuse acceptance for all, in which case presentment may be made to him only;
- (2) Where the drawee is dead, presentment may be made to his personal representative;
- (3) Where the drawee has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, presentment may be made to him or to his trustee or assignee.

SEC. 1545. PRESENTMENT OF BILL OF EXCHANGE.—A bill may be presented for acceptance on any day on which negotiable instruments may be presented for payment under the provisions of sections 1471 and 1484. When Saturday is not otherwise a holiday, presentment for acceptance may be made before twelve o'clock noon, on that day.

Bill of exchange.

Post, pp. 1327, 1328.

SEC. 1546. PRESENTMENT WHERE TIME IS INSUFFICIENT.—Where the holder of a bill drawn payable elsewhere than at the place of business or the residence of the drawee has not time with the exercise of reasonable diligence to present the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment on the day that it falls due, the delay caused by presenting the bill for acceptance before presenting it for payment is excused and does not discharge the drawers and indorsers.

Where time is insufficient.

SEC. 1547. WHEN PRESENTMENT IS EXCUSED.—Presentment for acceptance is excused and a bill may be treated as dishonored by nonacceptance, in either of the following cases:

When excused.

(1) Where the drawee is dead, or has absconded, or is a fictitious person, or a person not having capacity to contract by bill;

(2) Where, after the exercise of reasonable diligence, presentment can not be made;

(3) Where, although presentment has been irregular, acceptance has been refused on some other ground.

SEC. 1548. BILL DISHONORED BY NONACCEPTANCE.—A bill is dishonored by nonacceptance—

Bill dishonored by nonacceptance.

(1) When it is duly presented for acceptance and such an acceptance as is prescribed by chapters 66 to 69 of this code is refused or can not be obtained; or

Ante, p. 1307; post, p. 1329.

(2) When presentment for acceptance is excused and the bill is not accepted.

SEC. 1549. DUTY OF HOLDER WHERE NOT ACCEPTED.—Where a bill is duly presented for acceptance and is not accepted within the prescribed time the person presenting it must treat the bill as dishonored by nonacceptance or he loses the right of recourse against the drawer and indorsers.

Duty of holder.

SEC. 1550. RIGHTS OF HOLDER WHERE BILL NOT ACCEPTED.—When a bill is dishonored by nonacceptance, an immediate right of recourse against the drawers and indorsers accrues to the holder and no presentment for payment is necessary.

Rights of holder where bill not accepted.

PROTEST

Protest.

SEC. 1551. IN WHAT CASES PROTEST NECESSARY.—Where a foreign bill appearing on its face to be such is dishonored by nonacceptance, it must be duly protested for nonacceptance, and where such a bill which has not previously been dishonored by nonacceptance is dishonored by nonpayment, it must be duly protested for nonpayment. If it is not so protested, the drawer and indorsers are discharged. Where a bill does not appear on its face to be a foreign bill, protest thereof in case of dishonor is unnecessary.

When necessary.

SEC. 1552. HOW MADE.—The protest must be annexed to the bill, or must contain a copy thereof, and must be under the hand and seal of the notary making it, and must specify—

How made.

(1) The time and place of presentment;

(2) The fact that presentment was made and the manner thereof;

(3) The cause or reason for protesting the bill;

(4) The demand made and the answer given, if any, or the fact that the drawee or acceptor could not be found.

- By whom. SEC. 1553. BY WHOM MADE.—Protest may be made by—
 (1) A notary public; or
 (2) By any respectable resident of the place where the bill is dishonored, in the presence of two or more credible witnesses.
- When. SEC. 1554. WHEN MADE.—When a bill is protested, such protest must be made on the day of its dishonor, unless delay is excused as herein provided. When a bill has been duly noted, the protest may be subsequently extended as of the date of the noting.
- Where. SEC. 1555. WHERE MADE.—A bill must be protested at the place where it is dishonored, except that when a bill drawn payable at the place of business, or residence of some person other than the drawee, has been dishonored by nonacceptance, it must be protested for nonpayment at the place where it is expressed to be payable, and no further presentment for payment to, or demand on, the drawee is necessary.
- Protest both for non-acceptance and non-payment. SEC. 1556. PROTEST BOTH FOR NONACCEPTANCE AND NONPAYMENT.—A bill which has been protested for nonacceptance may be subsequently protested for nonpayment.
- Before maturity. SEC. 1557. PROTEST BEFORE MATURITY.—Where the acceptor has been adjudged a bankrupt or an insolvent, or has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors, before the bill matures, the holder may cause the bill to be protested for better security against the drawer and indorsers.
- When dispensed with. SEC. 1558. WHEN DISPENSED WITH.—Protest is dispensed with by any circumstances which would dispense with notice of dishonor. Delay in noting or protesting is excused when delay is caused by circumstances beyond the control of the holder and not imputable to his default, misconduct or negligence. When the cause of delay ceases to operate, the bill must be noted or protested with reasonable diligence.
- Lost, etc., bills. SEC. 1559. WHEN BILL IS LOST AND SO FORTH.—When a bill is lost or destroyed or is wrongly detained from the person entitled to hold it, protest may be made on a copy or written particulars thereof.

ACCEPTANCE FOR HONOR

- Acceptance for honor. SEC. 1560. ACCEPTANCE FOR HONOR.—Where a bill of exchange has been protested for dishonor by nonacceptance or protested for better security, and is not overdue, any person not being a party already liable thereon may, with the consent of the holder, intervene and accept the bill supra protest for the honor of any party liable thereon, or for the honor of the person for whose account the bill is drawn. The acceptance for honor may be for the part only of the sum for which the bill is drawn; and where there has been an acceptance for honor for one party, there may be a further acceptance by a different person for the honor of another party.
- How made. SEC. 1561. HOW MADE.—An acceptance for honor supra protest must be in writing, and indicate that it is an acceptance for honor, and must be signed by the acceptor for honor.
- What deemed to be an acceptance for honor of the drawer. SEC. 1562. WHAT DEEMED TO BE AN ACCEPTANCE FOR HONOR OF THE DRAWER.—Where an acceptance for honor does not expressly state for whose honor it is made, it is deemed to be an acceptance for the honor of the drawer.
- Liability of acceptor. SEC. 1563. LIABILITY OF ACCEPTOR.—The acceptor for honor is liable to the holder and to all parties to the bill subsequent to the party for whose honor he has accepted.
- Agreement of acceptor for honor. SEC. 1564. AGREEMENT OF ACCEPTOR FOR HONOR.—The acceptor for honor by such acceptance engages that he will on due presentment pay the bill according to the terms of his acceptance; provided, it shall not have been paid by the drawee; and provided, also, that it shall have been duly presented for payment and protested for nonpayment and notice of dishonor given him.

SEC. 1565. BILL PAYABLE AFTER SIGHT.—Where a bill payable after sight is accepted for honor, its maturity is calculated from the date of the noting for nonacceptance and not from the date of the acceptance for honor. Bill payable after sight.

SEC. 1566. PROTEST.—Where a dishonored bill has been accepted for honor supra protest or contains a reference in case of need, it must be protested for nonpayment before it is presented for payment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need. Protest.
Presentation to acceptor.

SEC. 1567. PRESENTMENT TO ACCEPTOR.—Presentment for payment to the acceptor for honor must be made as follows:

(1) If it is to be presented in the place where the protest for nonpayment was made, it must be presented not later than the day following its maturity.

(2) If it is to be presented in some other place than the place where it was protested, then it must be forwarded within the time specified in section 1503. Ante, p. 1319.

SEC. 1568. DELAY IN PRESENTMENT.—The provisions of section 1480 apply where there is delay in making presentment to the acceptor for honor or referee in case of need. Delay in presentment.
Ante, p. 1317.

SEC. 1569. DISHONOR OF BILL BY ACCEPTOR FOR HONOR.—When the bill is dishonored by the acceptor for honor it must be protested for nonpayment by him. Dishonor of bill by acceptor for honor.

PAYMENT FOR HONOR

SEC. 1570. PAYMENT FOR HONOR.—Where a bill has been protested for nonpayment, any person may intervene and pay it supra protest for the honor of any person liable thereon or for the honor of the person for whose account it was drawn. Payment for honor.

SEC. 1571. PAYMENT FOR HONOR, HOW MADE.—The payment for honor supra protest in order to operate as such and not as a mere voluntary payment must be attested by a notarial act of honor which may be appended to the protest or form an extension to it. How made.

SEC. 1572. DECLARATION.—The notarial act of honor must be founded on a declaration made by the payer for honor or by his agent in that behalf declaring his intention to pay the bill for honor and for whose honor he pays. Declaration.

SEC. 1573. PREFERENCE OF PARTIES.—Where two or more persons offer to pay a bill for the honor of different parties, the person whose payment will discharge most parties to the bill is to be given the preference. Preference of parties.

SEC. 1574. SUBSEQUENT PARTIES DISCHARGED.—Where a bill has been paid for honor, all parties subsequent to the party for whose honor it is paid are discharged, but the payer for honor is subrogated for, and succeeds to, both the rights and duties of the holder as regards the party for whose honor he pays and all parties liable to the latter. Subsequent parties discharged.

SEC. 1575. RIGHT OF RECOURSE LOST.—Where the holder of a bill refuses to receive payment supra protest, he loses his right of recourse against any party who would have been discharged by such payment. Right of recourse lost.

SEC. 1576. RIGHT OF PAYER FOR HONOR.—The payer for honor, on paying to the holder the amount of the bill and the notarial expenses incidental to its dishonor, is entitled to receive both the bill itself and the protest. Right of payee for honor.

Bills in a set.

BILLS IN A SET

Constitutes one bill.

SEC. 1577. BILLS IN SETS ONE BILL.—Where a bill is drawn in a set, each part of the set being numbered and containing a reference to the other parts, the whole of the parts constitutes one bill.

Where different parts are negotiated.

SEC. 1578. WHERE DIFFERENT PARTS ARE NEGOTIATED.—Where two or more parts of a set are negotiated to different holders in due course, the holder whose title first accrues is, as between such holders, the true owner of the bill. But nothing in this section affects the rights of a person who in due course accepts or pays the part first presented to him.

Liability of holder.

SEC. 1579. LIABILITY OF HOLDER.—Where the holder of a set indorses two or more parts to different persons he is liable on every such part, and every indorser subsequent to him is liable on the part he has himself indorsed, as if such parts were separate bills.

Acceptance.

SEC. 1580. ACCEPTANCE.—The acceptance may be written on any part and it must be written on one part only. If the drawee accepts more than one part, and such accepted parts are negotiated to different holders in due course, he is liable on every such part as if it were a separate bill.

Payment by acceptor.

SEC. 1581. PAYMENT BY ACCEPTOR.—When the acceptor of a bill drawn in a set pays it without requiring the part being his acceptance to be delivered up to him, and that part at maturity is outstanding in the hands of a holder in due course, he is liable to the holder thereon.

Whole bill discharged.

SEC. 1582. WHOLE BILL DISCHARGED.—Except as herein otherwise provided, where any one part of a bill drawn in a set is discharged by payment or otherwise the whole bill is discharged.

PROMISSORY NOTES AND CHECKS.

CHAPTER 68.—PROMISSORY NOTES AND CHECKS

Ante, p. 1307; post, p. 1329.

NOTE.—Chapters 66 to 69 of this code comprise the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Definitions.
Promissory note.

SEC. 1583. PROMISSORY NOTE DEFINED.—A negotiable promissory note within the meaning of chapters 66 to 69 of this code is an unconditional promise in writing made by one person to another, signed by the maker, engaging to pay on demand, or at a fixed or determinable future time, a sum certain in money to order or to bearer, but the negotiability of a promissory note otherwise negotiable in form, secured by a mortgage or deed of trust upon real or personal property, shall not be affected or abridged by reason of a statement therein that it is so secured, nor by reason of the fact that said instrument is so secured, nor by any conditions contained in the mortgage or deed of trust securing the same. Where a note is drawn to the maker's own order it is not complete until indorsed by him.

Check.

SEC. 1584. CHECK DEFINED.—A check is a bill of exchange drawn on a bank payable on demand. Except as herein otherwise provided, the provisions of chapters 66 to 69 of this code applicable to a bill of exchange payable on demand apply to a check.

Time for presenting.

SEC. 1585. TIME FOR PRESENTING CHECK.—A check must be presented for payment within a reasonable time after its issue or the drawer will be discharged from liability thereon to the extent of the loss caused by the delay.

Certified check.

SEC. 1586. CERTIFIED CHECK.—Where a check is certified by the bank on which it is drawn, the certification is equivalent to an acceptance.

SEC. 1587. EFFECT OF ACCEPTANCE OR CERTIFICATION.—Where the holder of a check procures it to be accepted or certified the drawer and all indorsers are discharged from liability thereon.

Effect of acceptance or certification.

SEC. 1588. WHEN CHECK OPERATES AS ASSIGNMENT.—A check of itself does not operate as an assignment of any part of the funds to the credit of the drawer with the bank, and the bank is not liable to the holder, unless and until it accepts or certifies the check.

When check operates as assignment.

CHAPTER 69.—GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS

GENERAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENTS.

NOTE.—Chapters 66 to 69 of this code comprise the Uniform Negotiable Instruments Act.

Ante, pp. 1307-1329.

SEC. 1589. DEFINITIONS.—In chapters 66 to 69 of this code, unless the context other requires—

Definitions.

“Acceptance” means an acceptance completed by delivery or notification.

“Action” includes counterclaim and set-off.

“Bank” includes any person or association of persons carrying on the business of banking, whether incorporated or not.

“Bearer” means the person in possession of a bill or note which is payable to bearer.

“Bill” means bill of exchange, and “note” means negotiable promissory note.

“Delivery” means transfer of possession, actual or constructive, from one person to another.

“Holder” means the payee or indorsee of a bill or note, who is in possession of it, or the bearer thereof.

“Indorsement” means an indorsement completed by delivery.

“Instrument” means negotiable instrument.

“Issue” means the first delivery of the instrument complete in form, to a person who takes it as a holder.

“Person” includes a body of persons, whether incorporated or not.

“Value” means valuable consideration.

“Written” includes printed; and “writing” includes print.

SEC. 1590. PERSON PRIMARILY LIABLE ON INSTRUMENT.—The person “primarily” liable on an instrument is the person who by the terms of the instrument is absolutely required to pay the same. All other parties are “secondarily” liable.

Person primarily liable on instrument.

SEC. 1591. REASONABLE TIME, WHAT CONSTITUTES.—In determining what is a “reasonable time” or an “unreasonable time,” regard is to be had to the nature of the instrument, the usage of trade or business (if any) with respect to such instruments, and the facts of the particular case.

Reasonable time.

SEC. 1592. TIME, HOW COMPUTED WHEN LAST DAY FALLS ON HOLIDAY.—Where the day, or the last day, for doing any act herein required or permitted to be done falls on Sunday or on a holiday, the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day.

Time computation, last day falling on holiday.

SEC. 1593. APPLICATION OF CHAPTERS 66 TO 69.—The provisions of chapters 66 to 69 of this code do not apply to negotiable instruments made and delivered prior to the taking effect hereof. In any case not provided for in said chapters the rules of the law merchant shall govern.

Application of Chapters 66 to 69. Ante, pp. 1307-1329.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AFFECTING CHAPTERS 34 TO 69.

CHAPTER 70.—GENERAL PROVISIONS AFFECTING CHAPTERS 34 TO 69

Parties may waive certain provisions of Code.
Ante, pp. 1204-1329.

SEC. 1594. PARTIES MAY WAIVE PROVISIONS OF CODE.—Except where it is otherwise declared, the provisions of chapters 34 to 69 of this code, in respect to the rights and obligations of parties to contracts, are subordinate to the intention of the parties, when ascertained in the manner prescribed by the chapter on the interpretation of contracts; and the benefit thereof may be waived by any party entitled thereto, unless such waiver would be against public policy.

SEC. 1602. LIMIT OF RATE BY CONTRACT.—Any legal rate of interest stipulated by a contract remains chargeable after a breach thereof, as before, until the contract is superseded by a judgment or other new obligation.

Limit of rate by contract.

SEC. 1603. ACCEPTANCE OF PRINCIPAL WAIVES CLAIM TO INTEREST.—Accepting payment of the whole principal, as such, waives all claim to interest.

Acceptance of principal waives claim to interest.

EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

Exemplary damages.

SEC. 1604. EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, IN WHAT CASES ALLOWED.—In an action for the breach of an obligation not arising from contract, where the defendant has been guilty of oppression, fraud, or malice, express or implied, the plaintiff, in addition to the actual damages, may recover damages for the sake of example and by way of punishing the defendant.

When allowed.

Breach of contract to pay liquidated sum.

SEC. 1607. BREACH OF CONTRACT TO PAY LIQUIDATED SUM.—The detriment caused by the breach of an obligation to pay money only, is deemed to be the amount due by the terms of the obligation, with interest thereon.

Breach of carrier's obligation to receive goods, etc.

SEC. 1609. BREACH OF CARRIER'S OBLIGATION TO RECEIVE GOODS, AND SO FORTH.—The detriment caused by the breach of a carrier's obligation to accept freight, messages, or passengers, is deemed to be the difference between the amount which he had a right to charge for the carriage and the amount which it would be necessary to pay for the same service when it ought to be performed.

LIABILITY FOR NONPAYMENT OF CHECK.—No bank shall be liable to a depositor because of the nonpayment through mistake or error, and without malice, of a check which should have been paid unless the depositor shall allege and prove actual damage by reason of such nonpayment and in such event the liability shall not exceed the amount of damage so proved.

Liability for nonpayment of check.

DAMAGES FOR WRONGS

Damages for wrongs.

SEC. 1615. BREACH OF OBLIGATION OTHER THAN CONTRACT.—For the breach of an obligation not arising from contract the measure of damages, except where otherwise expressly provided by this code, is the amount which will compensate for all the detriment proximately caused thereby, whether it could have been anticipated or not.

Breach of obligation other than contract.

SEC. 1616. CONVERSION OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—The detriment caused by the wrongful conversion of personal property is presumed to be:

Conversion of personal property.

First. The value of the property at the time of the conversion, with the interest from that time, or where the action has been prosecuted with reasonable diligence, the highest market value of the property at any time between the conversion and the judgment, without interest, at the option of the injured party; and Second. A fair compensation for the time and money properly expended in pursuit of the property.

SEC. 1617. SAME.—The presumption declared by section 1616 can not be repelled in favor of one whose possession was wrongful from the beginning, by his subsequent application of the property to the benefit of the owner, without his consent.

Presumption of detriment.

SEC. 1618. DAMAGES OF LIENOR.—One having a mere lien on personal property, can not recover greater damages for its conversion, from one having a right thereto superior to his, after his lien is discharged, than the amount secured by the lien, and the compensation allowed by section 1616 for loss of time and expenses.

Damages of lienor.

General provisions.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Property of peculiar value.

SEC. 1622. PROPERTY OF PECULIAR VALUE.—Where certain property has a peculiar value to a person recovering damages for deprivation thereof, or injury thereto, that may be deemed to be its value against one who had notice thereof before incurring a liability to damages in respect thereof, or against a willful wrongdoer.

Value of thing in action.

SEC. 1623. VALUE OF THING IN ACTION.—For the purpose of estimating damages, the value of an instrument in writing is presumed to be equal to that of the property to which it entitles its owner.

Damages allowed in this subchapter, exclusive of others.
Ante, p. 1332.

SEC. 1624. DAMAGES ALLOWED IN THIS SUBCHAPTER, EXCLUSIVE OF OTHERS.—The damages prescribed by sections 1605 to 1627 are exclusive of exemplary damages and interest, except where those are expressly mentioned.

SEC. 1636. CONTRACT SIGNED BY ONE PARTY ONLY, MAY BE ENFORCED BY OTHER.—A party who has signed a written contract may be compelled specifically to perform it, though the other party has not signed it, if the latter has performed, or offers to perform it on his part, and the case is otherwise proper for enforcing specific performance.

Contract signed by one party only, may be enforced by other.

SEC. 1637. LIQUIDATION OF DAMAGES NOT A BAR TO SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE.—A contract otherwise proper to be specifically enforced, may be thus enforced, though a penalty is imposed, or the damages are liquidated for its breach, and the party in default is willing to pay the same.

Liquidation of damages not a bar to specific performance.

Obligations not specifically enforceable.

SEC. 1638. WHAT CAN NOT BE SPECIFICALLY ENFORCED.—The following obligations can not be specifically enforced:

1. An obligation to render personal service;
2. An obligation to employ another in personal service;
3. An agreement to submit a controversy to arbitration;
4. An agreement to perform an act which the party has not power lawfully to perform when required to do so;
5. An agreement to procure the act or consent of the wife of the contracting party, or of any other third person; or
6. An agreement, the terms of which are not sufficiently certain to make the precise act which is to be done clearly ascertainable.

CROSS REFERENCE

What parties can not have specific performance, see section 1640.

What parties can not be compelled to perform.

SEC. 1639. WHAT PARTIES CAN NOT BE COMPELLED TO PERFORM.—Specific performance can not be enforced against a party to a contract in any of the following cases:

1. If he has not received an adequate consideration for the contract;
2. If it is not, as to him, just and reasonable;
3. If his assent was obtained by the misrepresentation, concealment, circumvention, or unfair practices of any party to whom performance would become due under the contract, or by any promise of such party which has not been substantially fulfilled; or
4. If his assent was given under the influence of mistake, misapprehension, or surprise, except that where the contract provides for compensation in case of mistake, a mistake within the scope of such provision may be compensated for, and the contract specifically enforced in other respects, if proper to be so enforced.

What parties can not have specific performance in their favor.

SEC. 1640. WHAT PARTIES CAN NOT HAVE SPECIFIC PERFORMANCE IN THEIR FAVOR.—Specific performance can not be enforced in favor of a party who has not fully and fairly performed all the conditions precedent on his part to the obligation of the other party, except where his failure to perform is only partial, and either entirely immaterial, or capable of being fully compensated, in which case specific performance may be compelled, upon full compensation being made for the default.

CROSS REFERENCE

What obligations can not be specifically enforced, see section 1638.

Revision of contracts.

REVISION OF CONTRACTS

What may be revised.

SEC. 1641. WHEN CONTRACT MAY BE REVISED.—When, through fraud or a mutual mistake of the parties, or a mistake of one party, which the other at the time knew or suspected, a written contract does not truly express the intention of the parties, it may be revised on the application of a party aggrieved, so as to express that intention, so far as it can be done without prejudice to rights acquired by third persons, in good faith and for value.

SEC. 1642. PRESUMPTION AS TO INTENT OF PARTIES.—For the purpose of revising a contract, it must be presumed that all the parties thereto intended to make an equitable and conscientious agreement.

SEC. 1643. PRINCIPLES OF REVISION.—In revising a written instrument, the court may inquire what the instrument was intended to mean, and what were intended to be its legal consequences, and is not confined to the inquiry what the language of the instrument was intended to be.

Principles of revision.

SEC. 1644. ENFORCEMENT OF REVISED CONTRACT.—A contract may be first revised and then specifically enforced.

Enforcement of revised contract.

RESCISSION OF CONTRACTS

Rescission of contracts.

SEC. 1645. WHEN RESCISSION MAY BE ADJUDGED.—The rescission of a written contract may be adjudged, on the application of a party aggrieved:

When rescission may be adjudged.

1. In any of the cases mentioned in section 581; or
2. Where the contract is unlawful, for causes not apparent upon its face, and the parties were not equally in fault; or
3. When the public interest will be prejudiced by permitting it to stand.

Court may require party rescinding to do equity.

CANCELLATION OF INSTRUMENTS

Cancellation of instruments.

SEC. 1648. WHEN CANCELLATION MAY BE ORDERED.—A written instrument, in respect to which there is a reasonable apprehension that if left outstanding it may cause serious injury to a person against whom it is void or voidable, may, upon his application, be so adjudged, and ordered to be delivered up or canceled.

When may be ordered.

SEC. 1649. INSTRUMENTS OBVIOUSLY VOID.—An instrument, the invalidity of which is apparent upon its face or upon the face of another instrument which is necessary to the use of the former in evidence, is not to be deemed capable of causing injury, within the provisions of section 1648.

Instruments obviously void.

SEC. 1650. CANCELLATION IN PART.—Where an instrument is evidence of different rights or obligations, it may be canceled in part, and allowed to stand for the residue.

Cancellation in part.

Reissuance, etc., of lost private documents, etc.

SEC. 1651. REISSUANCE, AND SO FORTH, OF LOST PRIVATE DOCUMENTS OR INSTRUMENTS.—An action may be maintained by any person interested in any private document or instrument in writing, which has been lost, destroyed, or damaged by conflagration or other public calamity, to prove, establish, compel the reissuance, reexecution, and reacknowledgment of such document or instrument. If such document or instrument be a negotiable instrument, the court must compel the person in whose favor it is drawn to give a bond executed by himself and two sufficient sureties to indemnify the person reissuing, reexecuting, or reacknowledging the same against any lawful claim thereon.

Preventive relief.

SPECIAL RELATIONS OF DEBTOR AND CREDITOR.

CHAPTER 74.—SPECIAL RELATIONS OF DEBTOR AND CREDITOR

General principles.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Who is a debtor.

SEC. 1654. WHO IS A DEBTOR.—A debtor, within the meaning of this chapter, is one who, by reason of an existing obligation, is or may become liable to pay money to another, whether such liability is certain or contingent.

Who is a creditor.

SEC. 1655. WHO IS A CREDITOR.—A creditor, within the meaning of this chapter, is one in whose favor an obligation<sup>1</sup> exists, by reason of which he is, or may become, entitled to the payment of money.

Contracts of debtor are valid.

SEC. 1656. CONTRACTS OF DEBTOR ARE VALID.—In the absence of fraud, every contract of a debtor is valid against all his creditors, existing or subsequent, who have not acquired a lien on the property affected by such contract.

Payments in preference.

SEC. 1657. PAYMENTS IN PREFERENCE.—A debtor may pay one creditor in preference to another, or may give to one creditor security for the payment of his demand in preference to another.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 1341.

Preferring creditor, see section 1670 (1).

Relative rights of different creditors.

SEC. 1658. RELATIVE RIGHTS OF DIFFERENT CREDITORS.—Where a creditor is entitled to resort to each of several funds for the satisfaction of his claim, and another person has an interest in, or is entitled as a creditor to resort to some, but not all of them, the latter may require the former to seek satisfaction from those funds to which the latter has no such claim, so far as it can be done without impairing the right of the former to complete satisfaction, and without doing injustice to third persons.

CROSS REFERENCE

Ante, p. 1298.

Order of resort to different funds, see section 1325.

Fraudulent instruments and transfers.

FRAUDULENT INSTRUMENTS AND TRANSFERS

Transfers, etc., with intent to defraud creditors.

SEC. 1659. TRANSFERS, ETC., WITH INTENT TO DEFRAUD CREDITORS.—Every transfer of property or charge thereon made, every obligation incurred, and every judicial proceeding taken, with intent to delay or defraud any creditor or other person of his demands, is void against all creditors<sup>1</sup> of the debtor, and their successors in interest, and against any person upon whom the estate of the debtor devolves in trust for the benefit of others than the debtor.

SEC. 1660. TRANSFERS PRESUMED FRAUDULENT.—Every transfer of personal property, other than a thing in action, or a ship of cargo at sea or in a foreign port, and every lien thereon, other than a mortgage, when allowed by law, and a contract of bottomry or respondentia, is conclusively presumed if made by a person having at the time the possession or control of the property, and not accompanied by an immediate delivery, and followed by an actual and continued change of possession of the things transferred, to be fraudulent, and therefore void, against those who are his creditors while he remains in possession, and the successors in interest of such creditors, and against any persons on whom his estate devolves in trust for the benefit of others than himself, and against purchasers or encumbrancers in good faith subsequent to the transfer: Provided, however, That the provisions of this section shall not apply or extend to any sale, transfer, assignment, or mortgage made under the direction or order of a court of competent jurisdiction or by any executor, administrator, guardian, receiver, or other officer or person acting in the regular and proper discharge of official duty or in the discharge of any trust imposed upon him by law, nor to any transfer or assignment, statutory or otherwise, made for the benefit of creditors, generally, nor to any sale, transfer, assignment, or mortgage of any property exempt from execution.

Transfers presumed fraudulent.

Provido.
When not applicable.

CROSS REFERENCE

Chattel mortgage, when void as to creditors and purchasers, see section 1356. Ante, p. 1302.

SEC. 1661. CREDITOR'S RIGHT MUST BE JUDICIALLY ASCERTAINED.—A creditor can avoid the act or obligation of his debtor for fraud only where the fraud obstructs the enforcement, by legal process, of his right to take the property affected by the transfer or obligation.

Creditor's right must be judicially ascertained.

ASSIGNMENTS FOR BENEFIT OF CREDITORS

SEC. 1662. WHEN DEBTOR MAY EXECUTE ASSIGNMENT.—An insolvent debtor may in good faith execute an assignment of property in trust for the satisfaction of his creditors, in conformity to the provisions of this subchapter; subject, however, to the provisions of this code relative to trusts and fraudulent transfers, and to the restrictions imposed by law upon assignments by special partnerships, or by other specific classes or persons.

SEC. 1664. CUSTODY OF PROPERTY; CREDITORS' MEETING AND NOTICE THEREOF; ELECTION OF ASSIGNEE.—The marshal shall forthwith take possession of all the property so assigned to him, and keep the same till delivered by him, as hereinafter provided. When the assignment has been made, as hereinbefore provided, the marshal shall Custody of property.

Creditors' meeting. immediately, by mail, notify the creditors named in the assignment, at their places of residence as given therein, to meet at his office on a day and hour to be appointed by him, not less than eight or more than ten days from the date of the delivery of the assignment to him, for the purpose of electing one or more assignees, as they may determine, in the place and stead of the said marshal in the premises.

Notice. He shall also publish a notice of such meeting, and the purpose thereof, at least once before such meeting, in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone. The notice so to be mailed shall also contain a statement of the amount of the demand of the creditor, and the amount and nature of any security therefor, as set forth in the assignment; and if any creditor shall not find the amount of his claim to be correctly so stated, he may file with said marshal, at or before such meeting, a statement, under oath, of his demand, and such statement shall, for the purpose of voting as hereinafter provided, be accepted by said marshal as correct; and when no such statement is filed, the statement of amount as set forth in the assignment shall be accepted by the marshal as correct.

No creditor having a mortgage or pledge of property of the debtor, or lien thereon, for securing the payment of a debt owing to him from the debtor, shall be allowed to vote any part of his claim at such meeting of creditors, unless he shall have first conveyed, released, or delivered up his said security to said marshal for the benefit of all creditors of said assignor.

At such meeting the marshal shall preside, and a majority in amount of demands present or represented by proxy shall control all questions and decisions. The creditors may adjourn such meeting from time to time, and may vote on all questions either in person or by proxy signed and acknowledged before any officer authorized to take acknowledgments, and filed with the marshal.

Election of assignee. At such a meeting, or any adjournment thereof, the creditors may elect one or more assignees from their own number, in the place and stead of the marshal, and the person or persons so elected shall afterwards be the assignee or assignees under the provisions of this subchapter; and the marshal, by transfer in writing, acknowledged as required by section 1671, shall at once assign to such elected assignee or assignees, upon the trusts in this subchapter provided, all the property so assigned to him, and deliver possession thereof.

Post, p. 1341.

All recitals in such assignment by said marshal of notices of such meeting, and the holding thereof, and of the due election of such assignee or assignees, shall be prima facie proof of the facts recited.

Marshal's fees.

SEC. 1665. MARSHAL'S FEES.—The marshal shall, before the delivery of such assignment, be paid the expenses incurred by him, and fees in such amount as would by law be collectible if the property assigned had been levied upon and safely kept under attachment.

Powers and duties of elected assignee.

SEC. 1666. POWERS AND DUTIES OF ELECTED ASSIGNEE.—Thereupon, and after the record of such last-named assignment, as in this subchapter provided, such elected assignee or assignees shall take, and hold, and dispose of all such property and its proceeds, upon the trusts and conditions and for the purposes in this subchapter provided.

CERTAIN TRANSFERS NOT AFFECTED.—The provisions of this subchapter do not prevent a person residing in any state or country from making there, in good faith, and without intent to evade the laws of the Canal Zone, a transfer of property situated within it; but such person can not make a general assignment of property situated in the Canal Zone for the satisfaction of all his creditors, except as in this subchapter provided; nor do the provisions of this subchapter affect the power of a person, although insolvent, and whether residing within or without the Canal Zone, to transfer property in the Canal Zone, in good faith to a particular creditor, or creditors, or to some other person or persons in trust for such particular creditor or creditors for the purpose of paying or securing the whole or part of a debt owing to such creditor or creditors, whether in his or their own right or otherwise.

Certain transfers not affected.

SEC. 1669. WHAT DEBTS MAY BE SECURED.—An assignment for the benefit of creditors may provide for any subsisting liability of the assignor which he might lawfully pay, whether absolute or contingent.

What debts may be secured.

SEC. 1670. ASSIGNMENT WHEN VOID.—An assignment for the benefit of creditors is void against any creditor of the assignor not assenting thereto, in the following cases:

Assignment when void.

First. If it give a preference of one debt or class of debts over another.

Second. If it tend to coerce any creditor to release or compromise his demand.

Third. If it provide for the payment of any claim known to the assignor to be false or fraudulent; or for the payment of more upon any claim than is known to be justly due from the assignor.

Fourth. If it reserve any interest in the assigned property, or in any part thereof, to the assignor, or for his benefit, before all his existing debts are paid.

Fifth. If it confer upon the assignee any power which, if exercised, might prevent or delay the immediate conversion of the assigned property to the purposes of the trust.

Sixth. If it exempt him from liability for neglect of duty or misconduct.

Assignee takes, subject to rights of third parties.

SEC. 1673. ASSIGNEE TAKES, SUBJECT TO RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES.—An assignee for the benefit of creditors is not to be regarded as a purchaser for value, and has no greater rights than his assignor had, in respect to things in action transferred by the assignment.

Inventory required.

SEC. 1674. INVENTORY REQUIRED.—Within twenty days after an assignment is made for the benefit of creditors, the assignor must make and file, in the manner prescribed by section 1676, a full and true inventory, showing:

1. All the creditors of the assignor;
2. The place of residence of each creditor, if known to the assignor, or if not known, that fact must be stated;
3. The sum owing to each creditor and the nature of each debt or liability, whether arising on written security, account, or otherwise;
4. The true consideration of the liability in each case, and the place where it arose;
5. Every existing judgment, mortgage, or other security for the payment of any debt or liability of the assignor;
6. All property of the assignor at the date of the assignment, which is exempt by law from execution; and
7. All of the assignor's property at the date of the assignment, of every kind, not so exempt, and the encumbrances existing thereon, and all vouchers and securities relating thereto, and the value of such property according to the best knowledge of the assignor.

Affidavit of assignor to be filed with inventory.

SEC. 1675. AFFIDAVIT OF ASSIGNOR TO BE FILED WITH INVENTORY.—An affidavit must be made by every assignor executing an assignment for the benefit of creditors, to be annexed to and filed with the inventory mentioned in section 1674, to the effect that the same is in all respects just and true according to the best of such assignor's knowledge and belief.

If the assignor neglects or refuses to make and file such inventory and affidavit within said twenty days, the assignment shall not, for that reason, be affected in any way, but in that event the assignee or assignees elected by the creditors shall within twenty days thereafter make and file in the office of the registrar of property, a verified inventory of all assets received by them; and such assignee or assignees may at any time, or from time to time, after the transfer to them by the marshal, by petition to the district court, cause the assignor, by order or citation to appear before said court, or a commissioner or referee to be appointed by it, at a time and place to be designated in the order or citation, to be examined touching the matters mentioned in section 1674, and any other matters relative to the assignment, and to have with him all books of account, vouchers, and papers relating to the assigned property; and such court may by its order require the surrender to such assignee or assignees of such books, vouchers, and papers to be by them retained until their trust is fully completed and performed.

Recording assignment and filing inventory.

SEC. 1676. RECORDING ASSIGNMENT AND FILING INVENTORY.—An assignment for the benefit of creditors must be recorded, and the inventory required by section 1674 filed with the registrar of property.

When assignment void.

SEC. 1677. ASSIGNMENT, WHEN VOID.—An assignment for the benefit of creditors is void against creditors of the assignor and against purchasers and encumbrancers in good faith and for value unless it is recorded as provided in this subchapter, and unless either the inventory required by section 1674, or the inventory required of the assignee or assignees by section 1675 is filed in the manner provided in this subchapter and within the time designated.

Ante, p. 1342.

SEC. 1678. BOND OF ASSIGNEES.—No bond shall be given by the marshal, but he shall be liable on his official bond for the care and custody of the property while in his possession. Within forty days after date of the transfer by the marshal, the assignee must enter into a bond in such amount as may be fixed by the district judge, with sufficient sureties to be approved by such judge, and conditioned for the faithful discharge of the trust and the due accounting for all moneys received by the assignee, which bond must be filed in the same office with the inventory; and any assignee failing to comply with the provisions of this section may be removed by the above-named court on petition of the assignor or any creditor, and his successor appointed by such court.

Bond of assignees.

SEC. 1679. CONDITIONS OF DISPOSAL AND CONVERSION; PUBLICATION OF NOTICE BY ASSIGNEE; DIVIDENDS; RIGHTS OF MORTGAGEE.—Until a verified inventory has been made and filed, either by the assignor or assignee, as required by the provisions of this subchapter, and the assignee has given the bond required by section 1678, such assignee has no authority to dispose of the property of the estate, or any part of it (except in the case of perishable property, which in his discretion he may dispose of at any time and receive the proceeds of sale thereof); nor has he power to convert the property, or the proceeds of any sale of perishable property, to the purposes of the trust.

Conditions of disposal and conversion.

Within ten days after the filing of his bond, the assignee must commence the publication (and such publication shall continue at least once a week for four weeks), in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone, of a notice to creditors of the assignor, stating the fact and date of the assignment, and requiring all persons having claims against the assignor to exhibit them, with the necessary vouchers, and verified by the oath of the creditor, to the assignee, at his place of residence or business, to be specified in the notice; and he shall also, within ten days after the first publication of said notice, mail a copy of such notice to each creditor whose name is given in the instrument of assignment, at the address therein given. After such notice is given, a copy thereof, with affidavit of due publication and mailing, must be filed with the registrar of property with whom the inventory has been filed, which affidavit shall be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein.

Publication of notice by assignee.

At any time, or from time to time, after the expiration of thirty days from the first publication of said notice (provided the same shall also have been mailed as in this section provided), the assignee may, in his discretion, declare and pay dividends to the creditors whose claims have been presented and allowed. No dividend already declared shall be disturbed by reason of claims being subsequently presented and allowed; but the creditor presenting such claim shall be entitled to a dividend equal to the per cent already declared and paid, before any further dividend is made: Provided, however, That there be assets sufficient for that purpose: And provided, That the failure to present such claim shall not have resulted from his own neglect, and he shall attach to such claim a statement, under oath, showing fully why the same was not before presented.

Dividends.

Subsequent presentation of claims.

Provisos. Sufficient assets. Conditions.

When a creditor has a mortgage or pledge of property of the debtor, or a lien thereon, for securing the payment of a debt owing to him from the debtor, and shall not have conveyed, released, or delivered up such security to the marshal, as provided for by section 1664, he shall be admitted as a creditor only for the balance of the debt after deducting the value of such mortgage, pledge, or lien, to be ascertained by agreement between him and the assignee, or by a sale thereof, to be made in such manner as the district court shall direct; or the creditor may release or convey his claim to the assignee upon such property, and be admitted to prove his whole debt.

If the value of the property exceeds the sum for which it is so held as security, the assignee may release to the creditor the debtor's right of redemption thereon on receiving such excess; or he may sell the property, subject to the claim of the creditor thereon; and in either case the assignee and creditor, respectively, shall execute all writings necessary or proper to consummate the transaction. If the property is not sold or released, and delivered up, the creditor shall not be allowed to prove any part of his debt.

Accounting of assignee.

SEC. 1680. ACCOUNTING OF ASSIGNEE.—After six months from the date of an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the assignee may be required, on the petition of any creditor, to account before the district court.

Property exempt.

AN ACT

To authorize the payment of taxes and assessments on family dwelling houses in the District of Columbia in quarterly installments, and for other purposes.

February 28, 1933.
[H. R. 14392.]
[Public, No. 377.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That each fiscal year, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, the assessor of the District of Columbia shall send to the owner of each family dwelling house occupied by such owner upon written application therefor an itemized statement of the taxes payable with respect to such dwelling house not less than thirty days prior to the time when the first installment of real-estate taxes for such fiscal year becomes due and payable. Such statement shall include all real-estate taxes which are due and payable in such fiscal year and all installments of special assessments which have been levied, charged, or assessed prior to, and are due and payable in, such fiscal year, with respect to the family dwelling house occupied by the owner. Such taxes and assessments shall be payable, at the election of the taxpayer, in four equal installments, in the months of September, December, March, and June, and no interest shall be payable with respect to any such installment unless it is unpaid after the time it is due. Any real-estate tax or special assessment or any installment thereof with respect to any family dwelling house occupied by the owner thereof not included in such statement shall not be due or payable during the fiscal year for which the statement is sent; and any such tax or assessment or any installment thereof otherwise chargeable, assessable, or payable during such fiscal year shall be included in the statement for the next succeeding fiscal year.

Extension authorized.

SEC. 2. The collector of taxes of the District of Columbia shall extend the time for the payment of real-estate taxes and special assessments payable after January 1, 1933, on any family dwelling house occupied by the owner thereof, or any installment of such taxes or assessments, for not more than ninety days, if written application for such extension is filed with the collector before such taxes or installment thereof are due. Such extension shall be granted only if, in the judgment of the collector of taxes, satisfactory evidence is presented by the owner that, through unemployment or other emergency, the owner is unable to make such payment. No such application shall be granted unless the application is accompanied by the payment, to the collector, of interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on the amount of the taxes or assessments or installments thereof for the time of the extension applied for. In any case in which the amount of the tax or assessment or installment due is paid prior to the expiration of the period of the extension there shall be deducted from the amount payable an amount equal to such part of the interest payable with respect thereto as represents the unexpired portion of the period of the extension.

When may be granted.

Deduction of payment made before expiration of extension.

Restriction on sales for delinquent taxes.

SEC. 3. After the date of enactment of this Act no family dwelling house occupied by the owner thereof shall be sold for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments unless notice has been personally served upon such owner or sent by registered mail, addressed to him at such dwelling house not less than thirty days prior to the date of such sale.

Sale not valid if result of error, etc.

SEC. 4. No sale for delinquent personal or real-estate taxes or special assessments with respect to a family dwelling house owned by the occupier thereof shall be valid if such sale is in consequence of an error or omission in the computation of the amount of taxes due thereon.

Taxes for second half,
fiscal year 1933.

owner on request if made by March 15,
1933.

SEC. 5. In the case of taxes with respect to any family dwelling house occupied by the owner thereof due and payable during the second half of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, the assessor shall send an itemized statement of such taxes to the owner upon request made by the owner and filed with the assessor not later than midnight, March 15, 1933. Such statement shall include all real-estate taxes or installments thereof due and payable during the second half of such fiscal year and all installments of special assessments which have been assessed, charged, or levied prior to, and are due and payable in, the second half of such fiscal year, with respect to the family dwelling house occupied by the owner. Such taxes and assessments or installments thereof shall be payable in the month of April, 1933, or at the election of the taxpayer in two equal installments, in the months of April and June, 1933, and no interest shall be payable with respect to any such installment unless it is unpaid until after the time it is due. Such statement shall also show all arrears in taxes, special assessments, or installments thereof, with respect to the family dwelling house of such owner, due and payable prior to the last half of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, and all unredeemed certificates of sale issued with respect to the sale of such family dwelling house for delinquent taxes or assessments, together with total amount for which each such unredeemed certificate was issued and the name and address of the holder thereof as of record in the office of the assessor.

Bureau of Standards.

BUREAU OF STANDARDS

Director, and office personnel.

Salaries: For the director and other personal services in the District of Columbia, $600,000.

Equipment.

Equipment: For apparatus, machinery, tools, and appliances used in connection with buildings or work of the bureau, typewriters, adding machines, and other labor-saving devices, laboratory supplies, materials, and supplies used in the construction of apparatus, machinery, or other appliances, including their exchange; piping, wiring, and construction incident to the installation of apparatus, machinery, or appliances; furniture for laboratories and offices, cases for apparatus, $80,000, including $18,000 for repairs and necessary alterations to buildings.

General expenses.

General expenses: For fuel for heat, light, and power; office expenses, stationery, cleaning and toilet supplies, books and periodicals, which may be exchanged when not needed for permanent use; traveling expenses; street-car fares not exceeding $100; expenses of the visiting committee; expenses of attendance of American member at the meeting of the International Committee of Weights and Measures; purchase of gloves, goggles, rubber boots, and aprons; supplies for operation, maintenance, and repair of motor trucks and a passenger automobile for official use, including their exchange; and contingencies of all kinds, $64,000.

International Committee of Weights and Measures.

Care, etc., of grounds.

Improvement and care of grounds: For grading, construction of roads and walks, piping grounds for water supply, lamps, wiring for lighting purposes, and other expenses incident to the improvement and care of grounds, including foreman and laborers in the District of Columbia, $11,220.

Structural materials investigations.
Services in the District.

Proviso.
Disseminating information as to housing, etc.

Testing structural materials: For continuation of the investigation of structural materials, such as stone, clays, cement, and so forth, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $255,000: Provided, That as much of this sum as necessary shall be used to collect and disseminate such scientific, practical, and statistical information as may be procured, showing or tending to show approved methods in building, planning and construction, standardization, and adaptability of structural units, including building materials and codes, economy in the manufacture and utilization of building materials and supplies, and such other matters as may tend to encourage, improve, and cheapen construction and housing.

Testing machines for physical constants, etc.

Testing machines: For maintenance and operation of testing machines, including personal service in connection therewith in the District of Columbia and in the field, for the determination by the Bureau of Standards of the physical constants and the properties of materials as authorized by law, $41,455.

Investigation of fire-resisting properties: For investigation of fire-resisting properties of building materials and conditions under which they may be most efficiently used, and for the standardization of types of appliances for fire prevention, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $23,340.

Fire resisting building materials.

Investigation of public-utility standards: For investigation of the standards of practice and methods of measurements of public utilities, such as gas, electric light, electric power, water, telephone, central station heating, and electric-railway service, and the solution of the problems which arise in connection with standards in such service, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $82,810.

Public utility standards, etc., investigations.

Testing miscellaneous materials: For testing miscellaneous materials, such as varnish materials, soap materials, inks, and chemicals, including supplies for the Government departments and independent establishments, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, as authorized by law, $37,000.

Testing miscellaneous materials.

Radio research: For investigation and standardization of methods and instruments employed in radio communication, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $69,000.

Radio research.

Color standardization: To develop color standards and methods of manufacture and of color measurements, with special reference to their industrial use in standardization and specification of colorants, such as dyestuffs, inks, and pigments, and other products, paint, paper, and textiles, in which color is a pertinent property, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $11,100.

Industrial color standardization.

Investigation of clay products: To study methods of measurement and technical processes used in the manufacture of pottery, brick, tile, terra cotta, and other clay products, and the study of the properties of the materials used in that industry, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $37,000.

Clay products processes.

Standardizing mechanical appliances: To develop methods of testing and standardizing machines, motors, tools, measuring instruments, and other apparatus and devices used in mechanical, hydraulic, and aeronautic engineering; for the comparative study of types of apparatus and methods of operation, and for the establishment of standards of performance; for the accurate determination of fundamental physical constants involved in the proper execution of this work; and for the scientific experiments and investigations needed in solving the problems which may arise in connection therewith, especially in response to the requirements of aeronautics and aviation for information of a purely scientific nature, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $37,000.

Mechanical appliances.
Testing mechanical, hydraulic, and aeronautic devices, etc.

Investigation of optical and other types of glass: For the investigation of the problems involved in the production of optical and other types of glass, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $21,500.

Optical glass production problems.

Investigation of textiles: To investigate textiles, paper, leather, and rubber in order to develop standards of more durable quality and methods of measurement, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $46,500.

Textiles, paper, etc., standardization.

Sugar standardization: For the standardization and design of sugar-testing apparatus; the development of technical specifications for the various grades of sugar, especially involving the standardization and manufacture of sugars; for the study of the technical problems incidental to the collection of the revenue on sugar and to determine the fundamental scientific constants of sugars and other substances; for the standardization and production of rare and unusual types of sugars required for the medical service of the Sugar standardization.

Rare and unusual types.

Government departments; and for other technical and scientific purposes, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $69,130.

Gages, screw threads,
etc.
Cooperative stand-
ardization.

Gage standardization: To provide by cooperation of the Bureau of Standards, the War Department, and the Navy Department for the standardization and testing of the standard gages, screw threads, and standards required in manufacturing throughout the United States, and to calibrate and test such standard gages, screw threads, and standards, including necessary equipment and personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $37,000.

Testing large scales,
etc.

Testing railroad-track, mine, and other scales: For investigation and testing of railroad-track scales, elevator scales, and other scales used in weighing commodities for interstate shipments and to secure equipment and assistance for testing the scales used by the Government in its transactions with the public, such as post-office, navy-yard, and customhouse scales, and for the purpose of cooperating with the States in securing uniformity in the weights and measures laws and in the methods of inspection; for investigating the conditions and methods of use of scales and mine cars used for weighing and measuring coal dug by miners, for the purpose of determining wages due, and of conditions affecting the accuracy of the weighing or measuring of coal at the mines, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $50,000.

Mine scales and cars.

High-temperature measurements.

High-temperature investigations: For laboratory and field investigations of suitable methods of high-temperature measurements and control in various industrial processes and to assist in making available directly to the industries the results of the bureau's investigations in this field, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $7,000.

Metallurgical research.

Metallurgical research: For metallurgical research, including alloy steels, foundry practice, and standards for metals and sands; casting, rolling, forging, and the properties of aluminum alloys; prevention of corrosion of metals and alloys; development of metal substitutes, as for platinum; behavior of bearing metals; preparation of metal specifications; investigation of new metallurgical processes and study of methods of conservation in metallurgical manufacture and products; investigation of materials used in the construction of rails, wheels, axles, and other railway equipment, and the cause of their failure, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $45,990.

Sound investigation.

Sound investigation: For the investigation of the principles of sound and their application to military and industrial purposes, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $7,900.

Industrial research.
Cooperative investigation.

Industrial research: For technical investigations in cooperation with the industries upon fundamental problems involved in industrial development, with a view to assisting in the permanent establishment of new American industries, including personal services in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, $120,000.

Cooperative stand-ardization of industrial devices, etc.

Standardization of equipment: To enable the Bureau of Standards to cooperate with Government departments, engineers, and manufacturers in the establishment of standards, methods of testing, and inspection of instruments, equipment, tools, and electrical and mechanical devices used in the industries and by the Government, including the practical specifications for quality and performance of such devices, and the formulation of methods of inspection, laboratory, and service tests, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $152,500.

Standard materials: For purchase, preparation, analysis, and distribution of standard materials to be used in checking chemical analyses in the testing of physical measuring apparatus, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $8,900.

Standards for checking chemical analyses.

Investigation of radioactive substances and X rays: For an investigation of radioactive substances and the methods of their measurements and testing; for investigations relative to the development of standard specifications for X-ray equipment and operation; for the investigation of the hazards of X-ray practice; for the testing and standardization of X-ray protective materials; for the standardization and design of X-ray testing equipment; for the determination of fundamental physical constants essential to X-ray diagnosis and therapy, to X-ray analysis of materials, and to other technical and scientific applications, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $21,500.

Radioactive substances and X-ray investigations.

Utilization of waste products from the land: For the survey of the possibilities of the industrial utilization of waste products from the land, including cooperation with colleges, other institutions, and manufacturers, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $38,700: Provided, That the Bureau of Standards cooperates with the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, Department of Agriculture, without duplication of work;

Utilizing waste products from the land.

Investigation of automotive engines: For the promotion of economy and efficiency in automotive transportation by land and by air through investigations of the basic principles underlying the design, performance, operation, and testing of automotive engines, their fuels, lubricants, accessories, and the power-transmitting system used in connection with them, also such elements as brakes and brake linings; to promote economy in the use of liquid fuels and safety in vehicular traffic, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $34,000.

Proviso.
Cooperation with Chemistry Bureau without duplicating work.
Automotive engines, investigations, etc.

Investigation of dental materials: To investigate the physical and chemical properties of dental materials, including the method of their application and the causes of deterioration of such materials in service, for the purpose of developing standards of quality and standard methods of test, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $6,500.

Dental materials investigations.

Hydraulic laboratory research: For the determination of fundamental data useful in hydraulic research and engineering, including laboratory research relating to the behavior and control of river and harbor waters, the study of hydraulic structures and water flow, and the development and testing of hydraulic instruments and accessories, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000.

Hydraulic laboratory research.

During the fiscal year 1934 the head of any department or independent establishment of the Government having funds available for scientific investigations and requiring cooperative work by the Bureau of Standards on scientific investigations within the scope of the functions of that bureau, and which the Bureau of Standards is unable to perform within the limits of its appropriations, may, with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, transfer to the Bureau of Standards such sums as may be necessary to carry on such investigations. The Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer on the books of the Treasury Department any sums which may be authorized hereunder, and such amounts shall be placed to the credit of the Bureau of Standards for performance of work for the department or establishment from which the transfer is made, including, where necessary, compensation for personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field.

Cooperative work with departments, etc., in scientific investigations, etc.

Transfer of funds to credit of bureau.

Attendance at meetings, etc.

Appropriations herein made for the Bureau of Standards shall be available for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with standardization and research, or either, when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, and for the compensation and expenses of medical officers of the Public Health Service detailed to the Bureau of Standards for the purpose of maintaining a first-aid station and making clinical observations.

Services in the District.

Total, Bureau of Standards, $2,056,045, of which amount not to exceed $1,800,000 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia.

Lighthouses Bureau.

BUREAU OF LIGHTHOUSES

Commissioner, and office personnel.

Salaries: For the commissioner and other personal services in the District of Columbia, $100,000.

General expenses. Objects specified.

General expenses: For supplies, including replacement of and necessary additions to existing equipment, repairs, maintenance, and incidental expenses of lighthouses and other lights, beacons, buoyage, fog signals, lighting of rivers heretofore authorized to be lighted, light vessels, other aids to navigation, and lighthouse tenders, including the establishment, repair, and improvement of beacons and day marks, and purchase of land for same; establishment of post lights, buoys, submarine signals, and fog signals; establishment of oil or carbide houses, not to exceed $10,000: Provided, That any oil or carbide house erected hereunder shall not exceed $1,000 in cost; construction of necessary outbuildings at a cost not exceeding $1,000 at any one light station in any fiscal year; improvement of grounds and buildings connected with light stations and depots; restoring light stations and depots and buildings connected therewith: Provided further, That such restoration shall be limited to the original purpose of the structures; wages of persons attending post lights; temporary employees and field force while engaged on works of general repair and maintenance, and laborers and mechanics at lighthouse depots; rations and provisions or commutation thereof for working parties in the field, officers and crews of light vessels and tenders, and officials and other authorized persons of the Lighthouse Service on duty on board of such tenders or vessels, and money accruing from commutation for rations and provisions for the above-named persons on board of tenders and light vessels or in working parties in the field may be paid on proper vouchers to the person having charge of the mess of such vessel or party; not exceeding $2,000 for packing, crating, and transporting personal household effects of employees when transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty; purchase of rubber boots, oilskins, rubber gloves, and coats, caps, and aprons for stewards' departments on vessels; reimbursement under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce of keepers of light stations and masters of light vessels and of lighthouse tenders for rations and provisions and clothing furnished shipwrecked persons who may be temporarily provided for by them, not exceeding in all $5,000 in any fiscal year; fuel, light, and rent of quarters where necessary for keepers of lighthouses; purchase of land sites for fog signals; rent of necessary ground for all such lights and beacons as are for temporary use or to mark changeable channels and which in consequence can not be made permanent; rent of offices, depots, and wharves; traveling expenses, including travel for the examinations authorized by the Act entitled "An Act to provide for retirement for disability in the Lighthouse Service," approved March 4, 1925 (U. S. C., title 33, sec. 765); mileage; library books for light stations and vessels, and technical books and periodicals not exceed-

Keepers.

Lighthouse vessels: For salaries and wages of officers and crews of light vessels and lighthouse tenders, including temporary employment when necessary, $2,221,800.

Officers and crews of vessels.

Superintendents, clerks, and so forth: For salaries of eighteen superintendents of lighthouses, and of assistant superintendents, clerks, draftsmen, and other authorized permanent employees in the district offices and depots of the Lighthouse Service, exclusive of those regularly employed in the office of the Bureau of Lighthouses, District of Columbia, $589,000.

Superintendents, clerks, etc.

Retired pay: For retired pay of officers and employees engaged in the field service or on vessels of the Lighthouse Service, except persons continuously employed in district offices and shops, $411,300.

Retired pay.

COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY

Coast and Geodetic Survey.

For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, including maintenance, repair, exchange, and operation of motor-propelled or horse-drawn vehicles for official use in field work, purchase of motor cycles with side cars, including their exchange, not to exceed $1,000, surveying instruments, including their exchange, rubber boots, canvas and rubber gloves, goggles, and caps, coats, and aprons for stewards' departments on vessels, extra compensation at not to exceed $1 per day for each station to employees of the Lighthouse Service and the Weather Bureau while observing tides or currents, services of one tide observer in the District of Columbia at not to exceed $1 per day, and compensation, not otherwise appropriated for, of persons employed in the field work, and for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with the work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, to be expended in accordance with the regulations relating to the Coast and Geodetic Survey subscribed by the Secretary of Commerce, and under the following heads:

All expenses.
Objects specified.

Distribution.

Field expenses, Atlantic coast: For surveys and necessary resurveys of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of the United States, including the coasts of outlying islands under the jurisdiction of the United States, and including the employment in the field and office of one physicist to develop survey methods based on transmission of sound through sea water, $102,000: Provided, That not more than $35,000 of this amount shall be expended on the coasts of said outlying islands and the Atlantic entrance to the Panama Canal;

Field expenses.

Atlantic coast.

Proviso.
Outlying islands.

Pacific coast.	Pacific coast: For surveys and necessary resurveys of coasts on the Pacific Ocean under the jurisdiction of the United States, and including the employment in the field and office of one physicist to develop survey methods based on transmission of sound through sea water, $141,220;
Physical hydrography.	Tides, currents, and so forth: For continuing researches in physical hydrography, relating to harbors and bars, and for tidal and current observations on the coasts of the United States, or other coasts under the jurisdiction of the United States, $16,820;
Coast Pilot.	Coast pilot: For compilation of the Coast Pilot, including the employment of such pilots and nautical experts, and stenographic help in the field and office as may be necessary for the same; $5,200;
Magnetic and seismological observations.	Magnetic work: For continuing magnetic and seismological observations and to establish meridian lines in connection therewith in all parts of the United States; making magnetic and seismological observations in other regions under the jurisdiction of the United States; purchase of additional magnetic and seismological instruments; lease of sites where necessary and the erection of temporary magnetic and seismological buildings; and including the employment in the field and office of such magnetic and seismological observers and stenographic services as may be necessary, $37,160;
Federal, State, etc., surveys. Determining lines of exact levels.	Federal, boundary, and State surveys: For continuing lines of exact levels between the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf coasts; determining geographic positions by triangulation and traverse for the control of Federal, State, boundary, county, city, and other surveys and engineering works in all parts of the United States; including special geodetic surveys of first-order triangulation and leveling in regions subject to earthquakes, not exceeding $10,000; determining field astronomic positions and the variation of latitude, including the maintenance and operation of the latitude observatories at Ukiah, California, and Gaithersburg, Maryland, not exceeding $2,500 each; establishing lines of exact levels, determining geographic positions by triangulation and traverse, and making astronomic observations in Alaska; and continuing gravity observations in the United States and for making such observations in regions under the jurisdiction of the United States and also on islands and coasts adjacent thereto, $150,000, of which amount not to exceed $41,250 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia;
Ukiah and Gaithersburg observatories.

AN ACT

Amending the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended, for the purpose of further regulating common carriers by water in interstate commerce of the United States engaged in transportation by way of the Panama Canal.

March 3, 1933.

[S. 4491.]

[Public, No. 415.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That when used in this Act—

Intercoastal Shipping Act, 1933.

The term "common carrier by water in intercoastal commerce" for the purposes of this Act shall include every common and contract carrier by water engaged in the transportation for hire of passengers or property between one State of the United States and any other State of the United States by way of the Panama Canal.

"Common carriers by water in intercoastal trade." Term defined.

SEC. 2. That every common carrier by water in intercoastal commerce shall file with the United States Shipping Board and keep open to public inspection schedules showing all the rates, fares, and charges for or in connection with transportation between intercoastal points on its own route; and, if a through route has been established, all the rates, fares, and charges for or in connection with transportation between intercoastal points on its own route and points on the route of any other carrier by water. The schedules filed and kept open to public inspection as aforesaid by any such carrier shall plainly show the places between which passengers and/or freight will be carried, and shall contain the classification of freight and of passenger accommodations in force, and shall also state separately each terminal or other charge, privilege, or facility, granted or allowed, and any rules or regulations which in anywise change, affect, or determine any part or the aggregate of such aforesaid rates, fares, or charges, or the value of the service rendered to the passenger, consignor, or consignee. Such carriers in establishing and fixing rates, fares, or charges may make equal rates, fares, or charges for similar service between all ports of origin and all ports of destination, and it shall be unlawful for any such carrier, either directly or indirectly, through the medium of any agreement, conference, association, understanding, or otherwise, to prevent or attempt to prevent any such carrier from extending service to any publicly owned terminal located on any improvement project authorized by the Congress at the same rates which it charges at its nearest regular port of call. Such schedules shall be plainly printed, and copies shall be kept posted in a public and conspicuous place at every wharf, dock, and office of such carrier where passengers or freight are received for transportation, in such manner that they shall be readily accessible to the public and can be conveniently inspected.

Rate, etc., schedules filed with Shipping Board.

Contents.

Equal rates, etc., to be fixed.

Unlawful to prevent service extension at same rates, etc.

Posting schedules required.

No change permitted until 30 days after posting new schedule.

New schedule to show proposed changes.

No change shall be made in the rates, fares, or charges, or classifications, rules, or regulations, which have been filed and posted as required by this section, except by the publication, filing, and posting as aforesaid of a new schedule or schedules which shall become effective not earlier than thirty days after date of posting and filing thereof with the board, and such schedule or schedules shall plainly show the changes proposed to be made in the schedule or schedules then in force and the time when the rates, fares, charges, classifications, rules, or regulations as changed are to become effective: Provided, That the board may, in its discretion and for good cause, allow changes upon less than the period of thirty days herein specified: And provided further, That schedules or changes which provide for extension of actual service to additional ports at rates of said carrier already in effect for similar service at the nearest port of call to said additional ports shall become effective immediately upon notice to the board.

Proviso. Discretionary reduction of period. Rates to secondary ports.

Intercoastal commerce.
Regulations governing.

From and after ninety days following enactment hereof no person shall engage in transportation as a common carrier by water in intercoastal commerce unless and until its schedules as provided by this section have been duly and properly filed and posted; nor shall any common carrier by water in intercoastal commerce charge or demand or collect or receive a greater or less or different compensation for the transportation of passengers or property or for any service in connection therewith than the rates, fares, and/or charges which are specified in its schedules filed with the board and duly posted and in effect at the time; nor shall any such carrier refund or remit in any manner or by any device any portion of the rates, fares, or charges so specified, nor extend or deny to any person any privilege or facility, except in accordance with such schedules.

Form and manner of publishing schedule.

Rejection, if nonconforming.

The board shall by regulations prescribe the form and manner in which the schedules required by this section shall be published, filed, and posted; and the board is authorized to reject any schedule filed with it which is not in consonance with this section and with such regulations. Any schedule so rejected by the board shall be void and its use shall be unlawful.

Penalty for violation.

Any violation of any provision of this section by a common carrier by water in intercoastal commerce shall be punished by a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 for each act of violation and/or for each day such violation continues, to be recovered by the United States in a civil action.

Hearings to determine lawfulness of rate, etc.

SEC. 3. Whenever there shall be filed with the board any schedule stating a new individual or joint rate, fare, or charge, or any new individual or joint classification, or any new individual or joint regulation or practice affecting any rate, fare, or charge, the board shall have, and it is hereby given, authority, either upon complaint or upon its own initiative without complaint, and if it so orders without answer or other formal pleading by the interested carrier or carriers, but upon reasonable notice, to enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of such rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice: Provided, however, That there shall be no suspension of a tariff schedule or service which extends to additional ports, actual service at rates of said carrier for similar service already in effect at the nearest port of call to said additional port.

Notice.

Proviso.
Tariff schedule or service not suspended.

Temporary suspension pending hearing, etc.

Pending such hearing and the decision thereon the board, upon filing with such schedule and delivering to the carrier or carriers affected thereby a statement in writing of its reasons for such suspension, may from time to time suspend the operation of such schedule and defer the use of such rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice, but not for a longer period than four months beyond the time when it would otherwise go into effect; and after full hearing whether completed before or after the rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice goes into effect, the board may make such order with reference thereto as would be proper in a proceeding initiated after it had become effective. If the proceeding has not been concluded and an order made within the period of suspension, the proposed change of rate, fare, charge, classification, regulation, or practice shall go into effect at the end of such period. The board shall give preference to the hearing and decision of such questions and decide the same as speedily as possible. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to empower the board affirmatively to fix specific rates.

Duration.
Effect of board's orders.

Power to fix specific rates not granted.

SEC. 4. That nothing in this Act shall prevent the carriage, storage, or handling of property free or at reduced rates, for the United States, State, or municipal Governments, or for charitable purposes.

Special rates to Government, etc.

SEC. 2. The question as to whether any other provisions of law now omitted from the United States Code and supplements, have present force or effect as general and permanent law, shall be determined without regard to this Act.

SEC. 3. No inference shall be raised by the enactment of this Act that the sections of the Revised Statutes repealed by this Act were in force or effect at the time of such enactment: Provided, however, That any rights or liabilities existing under such repealed sections shall not be affected by their repeal.

Approved, March 3, 1933.

Determination of omitted provisions.

No inference that sections repealed were in force.

Provided. Existing rights not affected.

[CHAPTER 203.]

AN ACT

Making appropriations for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, and for other purposes.

March 3, 1933.
[H. R. 13872.]
[Public, No. 419.]

Department of Agriculture appropriations, fiscal year 1934.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the Department of Agriculture for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, namely:

Secretary's office.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

SALARIES

Secretary, Assistant, office, emergency, and field personnel.

Provisos.
Cleaning department buildings.

Salaries limited to average rates under Classification Act.

Allowances for living quarters abroad.

Vol. 46, p. 818.
U. S. C., Supp. VI, p. 20.

No payment to officer or employee issuing predictions, etc., of future cotton prices.

For Secretary of Agriculture, Assistant Secretary, and for other personal services in the District of Columbia, including $7,294 for extra labor and emergency employments, and for personal services in the field, $731,347: Provided. That in addition thereto, this appropriation may be reimbursed for the cost of such additional employments as may be necessary for cleaning, in whole or in part, of buildings of the Department of Agriculture in the city of Washington from the appropriations made for the bureaus or offices for which such service is performed: Provided further, That in expending appropriations or portions of appropriations, contained in this Act, for the payment for personal services in the District of Columbia in accordance with the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, with the exception of the Assistant Secretary, the average of the salaries of the total number of persons under any grade in any bureau, office, or other appropriation unit shall not at any time exceed the average of the compensation rates specified for the grade by such Act as amended: Provided further, That this restriction shall not apply (1) to grades 1, 2, 3, and 4 of the clerical-mechanical service, or (2) to require the reduction in salary of any person whose compensation was fixed, as of July 1, 1924, in accordance with the rules of section 6 of such Act, (3) to require the reduction in salary of any person who is transferred from one position to another position in the same or different grade, in the same or different bureau, office, or other appropriation unit, (4) to prevent the payment of a salary under any grade at a rate higher than the maximum rate of the grade when such higher rate is permitted by the Classification Act of 1923 as amended, and is specifically authorized by other law, or (5) to reduce the compensation of any person in a grade in which only one position is allocated: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to contract for stenographic reporting services, and the appropriations made in this Act shall be available for such purposes: Provided further, That the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to expend from appropriations available for the purchase of lands not to exceed $1 for each option to purchase any particular tract or tracts of land: Provided further, That not to exceed $23,600 of the appropriations available for salaries and expenses of officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture permanently stationed in foreign countries may be used for payment of allowances for living quarters, including heat, fuel, and light, as authorized by the Act approved June 26, 1930 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 5, sec. 118a), but not to exceed $720 may be so used for any one person: Provided further, That no part of the funds appropriated by this Act shall be used for the payment of any officer or employee of the Department of Agriculture who, as such officer or employee, or on behalf of the department or any division, commission, or bureau thereof, issues, or causes to be issued, any prediction, oral or written, or forecast with respect to future prices of cotton or the trend of same.

For salaries and compensation of necessary employees in the mechanical shops and power plant of the Department of Agriculture, $120,960: Provided, That such portion of this amount as may be necessary shall be available for transfer to the appropriation "Miscellaneous expenses, Department of Agriculture," for the purpose of that appropriation.

Mechanical, etc., employees.

Proviso.
Transfer of funds.

"CHAPTER VIII

"PROVISIONS FOR THE RELIEF OF DEBTORS

"SEC. 73. ADDITIONAL JURISDICTION.—In addition to the jurisdiction exercised in voluntary and involuntary proceedings to adjudge persons bankrupt, courts of bankruptcy shall exercise original jurisdiction in proceedings for the relief of debtors, as provided in sections 74, 75, and 77 of this Act.

Provisions for relief of debtors.

"SEC. 74. COMPOSITIONS AND EXTENSIONS.—(a) Any person excepting a corporation may file a petition, or, in an involuntary proceeding before adjudication, an answer within the time limited by section 18(b) of this Act, accompanied in either case, unless further time is granted, by his schedules, stating that he is insolvent or unable to meet his debts as they mature, and that he desires to effect a composition or an extension of time to pay his debts. The term 'debt' for the purposes of an extension proposal under this section shall include all claims of whatever character against the debtor or his property, including a claim for future rent, whether or not such claims would otherwise constitute provable claims under this Act. Upon the filing of such a petition or answer the judge shall enter an order either approving it as properly filed under this section, if satisfied that such petition or answer complies with this section and has been filed in good faith, or dismissing it. If such petition or answer is approved, an order of adjudication shall not be entered except as provided in subdivision (1) of this section: Provided, however, That in staying the action for adjudication in an involuntary proceeding the court shall make such stay conditional upon such terms for the protection and indemnity against loss by the estate as may be proper, and that in any other proceeding under this section the court may, as the creditors at the first meeting may direct, impose similar terms as a condition of delaying the appointment of a trustee and the liquidation of the estate. Any person by or against whom a petition is filed shall be referred to in the proceedings under this section as 'debtor.' The term 'creditor' shall include for the purposes of an extension proposal under this section all holders of claims of whatever character

A claim for future rent shall constitute a provable debt and shall be liquidated under section 63(b) of this Act.
Receiver. Appointment when, duties.	“(b) After the filing of such petition or answer the court may upon reasonable notice to creditors and attorneys of record appoint a custodian or receiver, who shall inventory the debtor’s estate and exercise such supervision and control over the conduct of the debtor’s business as the creditors at any meeting or the court shall direct.
Creditors’ meeting.	“(c) The custodian or receiver, or if none has been appointed, the court, shall promptly call the first meeting of creditors, stating in the notice that the debtor proposes to offer terms of composition or extension, and inclosing with the notice a summary of the inventory, a brief statement of the debtor’s indebtedness as shown by the schedules, and a list of the names and addresses of the secured creditors and the fifteen largest unsecured creditors, with the amounts owing to each as shown by the schedules. Any creditor may appear at or before the first meeting and controvert the facts alleged in the petition. In such case the court shall determine as soon as may be the issues presented, without the intervention of a jury, and unless the material allegations are sustained by the proofs shall dismiss the petition.
Notice and inclusions.
Appearance of creditor to controvert facts in petition. Determination of.
Procedure at first meeting. Examination of debtor; appointment of trustee, etc.	“(d) At the first meeting (1) the debtor may be examined; (2) the creditors may nominate a trustee, who shall thereafter be appointed by the court in case it becomes necessary to liquidate the estate as provided in subdivision (1) of this section; and (3) the court shall, after hearing the parties in interest, fix a reasonable time within which application for confirmation shall be made. The court may later extend such time for cause shown, and may require, as a condition of such extension, additional terms for the protection of and indemnity against loss by the estate as may be proper.
Application for confirmation of composition. When may file.	“(e) An application for the confirmation of a composition or extension proposal may be filed in the court of bankruptcy after, but not before, it has been accepted in writing by a majority in number of all creditors whose claims if unsecured have been allowed, or if secured are proposed to be affected by an extension proposal, which number must represent a majority in amount of such claims; and the money or security necessary to pay all debts which have priority unless waived and the costs of the proceedings, and in case of a composition the consideration to be paid by the debtor to his creditors, have been deposited in such place as shall be designated by and subject to the order of the court.
Date and place of hearing on.	“(f) A date and place, with reference to the convenience of the parties in interest, shall be fixed for a hearing upon each application for the confirmation of the composition or extension proposal, and such objections as may be made to its confirmation.
Confirmation of proposal.	“(g) The court shall confirm the proposal if satisfied that (1) it includes an equitable and feasible method of liquidation for secured creditors whose claims are affected and of financial rehabilitation for the debtor; (2) it is for the best interests of all creditors; (3) that the debtor has not been guilty of any of the acts, or failed to perform any of the duties, which would be a ground for denying his discharge; and (4) the offer and its acceptance are in good faith, and have not been made or procured except as herein provided, or by any means, promises, or acts herein forbidden. In application for extensions the court shall require proof from each creditor filing a claim that such claim is free from usury as defined by the laws of the place where the debt is contracted.
Application for extension, proof required.

“(h) The terms of an extension proposal may extend the time of payment of either or both unsecured debts and secured debts the security for which is in the actual or constructive possession of the debtor or of the custodian or receiver, and may provide for priority of payments to be made during the period of extension as between secured and unsecured creditors. It may also include specific undertakings by the debtor during the period of the extension, including provisions for payments on account, and may provide for supervisory or other control over the debtor’s business or affairs during such period by a creditors’ committee or otherwise, and for the termination of such period under certain specified conditions: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not affect the allowances and exemptions to debtors as are provided for bankrupts under title 11, chapter 3, section 24, of the United States Code, and such allowances and exemptions shall be set aside for the use of the debtor in the manner provided for bankrupts.

“(i) Upon its confirmation an extension proposal shall be binding upon the debtor and his unsecured and secured creditors affected thereby: Provided, however, That such extension or composition shall not reduce the amount of or impair the lien of any secured creditor, but shall affect only the time and method of its liquidation.

“(j) Upon the confirmation of a composition the consideration shall be distributed as the court shall direct, and the case dismissed: Provided, That the debts having priority of payment under title 11, chapter 7, section 104, of the United States Code, for bankrupt estates, shall have priority of payment in the same order as set forth in said section 104 under the provisions of this section in any distribution, assignment, composition, or settlement herein provided for. Upon the confirmation of an extension proposal the court may dismiss the proceeding or retain jurisdiction of the debtor and his property during the period of the extension in order to protect and preserve the estate and enforce the terms of the extension proposal.

“(k) The judge may, upon the application of the parties in interest, filed at any time within six months after the composition or extension proposal has been confirmed, set the same aside and reinstate the case, if it shall be made to appear upon a trial that fraud was practiced in the procuring of such composition or extension, and that knowledge thereof has come to the petitioners since the confirmation thereof.

“(l) If (1) the debtor shall fail to comply with any of the terms required of him for the protection of and indemnity against loss by the estate; or (2) the debtor has failed to make the required deposit in case of a composition; or (3) the debtor’s proposal has not been accepted by the creditors; or (4) confirmation has been denied; or (5) without sufficient reason the debtor defaults in any payment required to be made under the terms of an extension proposal when the court has retained jurisdiction of the debtor or his property, the court may appoint the trustee nominated by the creditors at the first meeting, and if the creditors shall have failed to so nominate, may appoint any other qualified person as trustee to liquidate the estate. The court shall in addition adjudge the debtor a bankrupt if satisfied that he commenced or prolonged the proceeding for the purpose of delaying creditors and avoiding an adjudication in bankruptcy, or if the confirmation of his proposal has been denied. No order of liquidation or adjudication shall be entered in any proceeding under this section instituted by or against a wage earner or a person engaged chiefly in farming or the tillage of the soil unless the wage earner or a person engaged chiefly in farming or the tillage of the soil consents.

“(m) The filing of a debtor’s petition or answer seeking relief under this section shall subject the debtor and his property, wherever located, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the court in which the order approving the petition or answer as provided in subdivision (a) is filed. In proceedings under this section, except as otherwise provided therein, the jurisdiction and powers of the court, the title, powers, and duties of its officers and, subject to the approval of the court, their fees, the duties of the debtor, and the rights and liabilities of creditors, and of all persons with respect to the property of the debtor and the jurisdiction of appellate courts shall be the same as if a voluntary petition for adjudication had been filed and a decree of adjudication had been entered on the day when the debtor’s petition or answer was filed and any decree of adjudication thereafter entered shall have the same effect as if it had been entered on that day.

Secured creditors. Enjoining from enforcing claims.

“(n) In addition to the provisions of section 11 of this Act for the staying of pending suits, the court, on such notice and on such terms, if any, as it deems fair and equitable, may enjoin secured creditors who may be affected by the extension proposal from proceeding in any court for the enforcement of their claims until the extension has been confirmed or denied by the court.

Referees. Appointment.

“(o) The judges of the courts of bankruptcy shall appoint sufficient referees to sit in convenient places to expedite the proceedings under this section.

Wage earner. Involuntary proceedings against, denied.

“(p) Involuntary proceedings under this section shall not be taken against a wage earner.

Agricultural compositions and extensions.

“SEC. 75. AGRICULTURAL COMPOSITIONS AND EXTENSIONS.—(a) Courts of bankruptcy are authorized, upon petition of at least fifteen farmers within any county who certify that they intend to file petitions under this section, to appoint for such county one or more referees to be known as conciliation commissioners, or to designate for service in such county a conciliation commissioner previously appointed for an adjacent county. In case more than one conciliation commissioner is appointed for a county, each commissioner shall act separately and shall have such territorial jurisdiction within the county as the court shall specify. A conciliation commissioner shall have a term of office of one year and may be removed by the court if his services are no longer needed or for other cause. No individual shall be eligible to appointment as a conciliation commissioner unless he is eligible for appointment as a referee and in addition is a resident of the county, familiar with agricultural conditions therein and not engaged in the farm-mortgage business, the business of financing farmers or transactions in agricultural commodities or the business of marketing or dealing in agricultural commodities or of furnishing agricultural supplies. In each judicial district the court may, if it finds it necessary or desirable, appoint a suitable person as a supervising conciliation commissioner. The supervising conciliation commissioner shall have such supervisory functions under this section as the court may by order specify.

Compensation.

If the creditors at any time desire supervision over the farming operations of a farmer, the cost of such supervision shall be borne by such creditors or by the farmer, as may be agreed upon by them, but in no instance shall the farmer be required to pay more than one-half of the cost of such supervision. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent a conciliation commissioner who supervises such farming operations from receiving such compensation therefor as may be so agreed upon. No fees, costs, or other charges shall be charged or taxed to any farmer or his creditors by any conciliation commissioner or with respect to any proceeding under this section, except as hereinbefore in this section provided. The conciliation commissioner may accept and avail himself of office space, equipment, and assistance furnished him by other Federal officials, or by any State, county, or other public officials. The Supreme Court is authorized to make such general orders as it may find necessary properly to govern the administration of the office of conciliation commissioner and proceedings under this section; but any district court of the United States may, for good cause shown and in the interests of justice, permit any such general order to be waived.

“(c) At any time within five years after this section takes effect, a petition may be filed by any farmer, stating that the farmer is insolvent or unable to meet his debts as they mature, and that it is desirable to effect a composition or an extension of time to pay his debts. The petition or answer of the farmer shall be accompanied by his schedules. The petition and answer shall be filed with the court, but shall, on request of the farmer or creditor, be received by the conciliation commissioner for the county in which the farmer resides and promptly transmitted by him to the clerk of the court for filing. If any such petition is filed, an order of adjudication shall not be entered except as provided hereinafter in this section.

“(d) After the filing of such petition or answer by the farmer, the farmer shall, within such time and in such form as the rules provide, file an inventory of his estate.

“(e) The conciliation commissioner shall promptly call the first meeting of creditors, stating in the notice that the farmer proposes to offer terms of composition or extension, and inclosing with the notice a summary of the inventory, a brief statement of the farmer's indebtedness as shown by the schedules, and a list of the names and addresses of the secured creditors and unsecured creditors, with the amounts owing to each as shown by the schedules. At the first meeting of the creditors the farmer may be examined, and the creditors may appoint a committee to submit to the conciliation commissioner a supplementary inventory of the farmer's estate. The conciliation commissioner shall, after hearing the parties in interest, fix a reasonable time within which application for confirmation shall be made, and may later extend such time for cause shown. After the filing of the petition and prior to the confirmation or other disposition of the composition or extension proposal by the court, the court shall exercise such control over the property of the farmer as the court deems in the best interests of the farmer and his creditors.

“(f) There shall be prepared by, or under the supervision of, the conciliation commissioner a final inventory of the farmer's estate, and in the preparation of such inventory the commissioner shall give due consideration to the inventory filed by the farmer and to any supplementary inventory filed by a committee of the creditors.

Date and place of hearing.

“(h) A date and place, with reference to the convenience of the parties in interest, shall be fixed for a hearing upon each application for the confirmation of the composition or extension proposal and upon such objections as may be made to its confirmation.

Confirmation of proposal.

“(i) The court shall confirm the proposal if satisfied that (1) it includes an equitable and feasible method of liquidation for secured creditors and of financial rehabilitation for the farmer; (2) it is for the best interests of all creditors; and (3) the offer and its acceptance are in good faith, and have not been made or procured except as herein provided, or by any means, promises, or acts herein forbidden. In applications for extensions the court shall require proof from each creditor filing a claim that such claim is free from usury as defined by the laws of the place where the debt is contracted.

Application for extension, proof required.

Terms.

“(j) The terms of a composition or extension proposal may extend the time of payment of either secured or unsecured debts, or both, and may provide for priority of payments to be made during the period of extension as between secured and unsecured creditors. It may also include specific undertakings by the farmer during the period of the extension, including provisions for payments on account, and may provide for supervisory or other control by the conciliation commissioner over the farmer's affairs during such period, and for the termination of such period of supervision or control under conditions specified: Provided, That the provisions of this section shall not affect the allowances and exemptions to debtors as are provided for bankrupts under title 11, chapter 3, section 24, of the United States Code, and such allowances and exemptions shall be set aside for the use of the debtor in the manner provided for bankrupts.

Upon the confirmation of an extension proposal the court may dismiss the proceeding or retain jurisdiction of the farmer and his property during the period of the extension in order to protect and preserve the estate and enforce through the conciliation commissioner the terms of the extension proposal. The court may, after hearing and for good cause shown, at any time during the period covered by an extension proposal that has been confirmed by the Within six months,

if fraud practiced.

"(n) The filing of a petition pleading for relief under this section shall subject the farmer and his property, wherever located, to the exclusive jurisdiction of the court. In proceedings under this section, except as otherwise provided herein, the jurisdiction and powers of the court, the title, powers, and duties of its officers, the duties of the farmer, and the rights and liabilities of creditors, and of all persons with respect to the property of the farmer and the jurisdiction of the appellate courts, shall be the same as if a voluntary petition for adjudication had been filed and a decree of adjudication had been entered on the day when the farmer's petition or answer was filed.

Jurisdiction over farmer, etc., when petition filed.

"(o) Except upon petition made to and granted by the judge after hearing and report by the conciliation commissioner, the following proceedings shall not be instituted, or if instituted at any time prior to the filing of a petition under this section, shall not be maintained, in any court or otherwise, against the farmer or his property, at any time after the filing of the petition under this section, and prior to the confirmation or other disposition of the composition or extension proposal by the court:

Proceedings not to be instituted against farmer after petition filed.

"(1) Proceedings for any demand, debt, or account, including any money demand;

Debts, etc.

"(2) Proceedings for foreclosure of a mortgage on land, or for cancellation, rescission, or specific performance of an agreement for sale of land or for recovery of possession of land;

Foreclosure.

"(3) Proceedings to acquire title to land by virtue of any tax sale;

Tax sale titles.

"(4) Proceedings by way of execution, attachment, or garnishment;

Executions, attachments, etc.

"(5) Proceedings to sell land under or in satisfaction of any judgment or mechanic's lien; and Judgment sales, etc.

"(6) Seizure, distress, sale, or other proceedings under an execution or under any lease, lien, chattel mortgage, conditional sale agreement, crop payment agreement, or mortgage.

Seizure, etc., under execution, etc.

"(p) The prohibitions of subdivision (o) shall not apply to proceedings for the collection of taxes, or interest or penalties with respect thereto, nor to proceedings affecting solely property other than that used in farming operations or comprising the home or household effects of the farmer or his family.

Tax collection proceedings, etc., excepted.

"(q) A conciliation commissioner shall upon request assist any farmer in preparing and filing a petition under this section and in all matters subsequent thereto arising under this section and farmers shall not be required to be represented by an attorney in any proceeding under this section.

Assistance in preparation of petition, etc.

"(r) For the purpose of this section and section 74, the term 'farmer' means any individual who is personally bona fide engaged primarily in farming operations or the principal part of whose income is derived from farming operations, and includes the personal representative of a deceased farmer; and a farmer shall be deemed a resident of any county in which such farming operations occur.

Reorganization of railroads engaged in interstate commerce. Petition for.

"SEC. 77. REORGANIZATION OF RAILROADS ENGAGED IN INTERSTATE COMMERCE.—(a) Any railroad corporation may file a petition stating that the railroad corporation is insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature and that it desires to effect a plan of reorganization. The petition shall be filed with the court in whose territorial jurisdiction the railroad corporation, during the preceding six months or the greater portion thereof, has had its principal executive or operating office, and a copy of the petition shall at the same time be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission hereinafter called the commission: Provided, That when any railroad, although engaged in interstate commerce, lies wholly within one State, such proceedings shall be brought in the Federal district court within the State in which the railroad is located. The petition shall be accompanied by payment to the clerk of a filing fee of $100, which shall be in addition to the fees required to be collected by the clerk under other sections of this Act. Upon the filing of such a petition, the judge shall enter an order either approving it as properly filed under this section, if satisfied that such petition complies with this section and has been filed in good faith, or dismissing it if not so satisfied. If the petition is so approved, the court in which such order approving the petition is entered shall, during the pendency of the proceedings under this section and for the purposes thereof, have exclusive jurisdiction of the debtor and its property wherever located. The railroad corporation shall be referred to in the proceedings as a 'debtor.' Any corporation, the majority of the capital stock of which having power to vote for the election of directors is owned, either directly or indirectly through an intervening medium, by any railroad corporation filing a petition as a debtor under this section, or substantially all of whose properties are operated by such a debtor under lease or operating agreement may file, with the court in which such other debtor had filed such a petition, and in the proceeding upon such petition under this section, a petition stating that it is insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature and that it desires to effect a plan of reorganization in connection with, or as a part of, the plan of reorganization of such other debtor; and thereupon such court shall have the same jurisdiction with respect to it, its property and its creditors and stockholders as the court has with respect to such other debtor. Creditors of any railroad corporation having claims or interests aggregating not less than 5 per centum of all the indebtedness of such railroad corporation as shown in the latest annual report which it has filed with the commission at the time when the petition is filed, may, if the railroad corporation has not filed a petition under this section, but subject to first having obtained the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission, after hearing, upon notice to such railroad corporation, file with the court in which such railroad corporation might file a petition under the provisions of this section, a petition stating that such railroad corporation is insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature and that such creditors propose that it shall effect a reorganization; upon such filing of such a petition copies thereof shall be filed with the commission and served by the petitioning creditors forthwith upon the railroad corporation; the railroad corporation shall, within ten days after such service, answer such petition; if such answer shall admit the jurisdiction of the court, that the claims of the petitioning creditors constitute the amounts necessary to entitle them to file such petition under this section, and that the railroad corporation is either insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature, the court shall, upon the filing of the recommendations of the commission in writing, enter an order approving the petition as properly filed under this section if satisfied that it complies with this section and has been filed in good faith, or disapprove it if not so satisfied; and if so approved the proceedings thereon shall continue with like effect as if the railroad corporation had itself filed a petition under this section; if such answer shall deny either the jurisdiction of the court or that the claims of the petitioning creditors constitute such necessary amounts or that the railroad corporation is insolvent or unable to meet its debts as they mature, the court shall summarily try the issues, and if after the filing of the recommendations of the commission in writing it shall find that the petition complies with this section, and has been filed in good faith, the court shall enter an order approving the petition as properly filed under this section, and the proceedings thereon shall continue with like effect as if the railroad corporation had itself filed a petition under this section; otherwise the court shall dismiss the petition.

“(b) A plan of reorganization within the meaning of this section (1) shall include a proposal to modify or alter the rights of creditors generally, or of any class of them, secured or unsecured, either through the issuance of new securities of any character or otherwise; (2) may include, in addition, provisions modifying or altering the rights of stockholders generally, or of any class of them; (3) shall provide adequate means for the execution of the plan, which may, so far as may be consistent with the provisions of sections 1 and 5 of the Interstate Commerce Act as amended, include the transfer or conveyance of all or any part of the property of the debtor to another corporation or to other corporations or the consolidation of the properties of the debtor with those of another railroad corporation, or the merger of the debtor with any other railroad corporation and the issuance of securities of either the debtor or any such corporation or corporations, for cash, or in exchange for existing securities, or in satisfaction of claims or rights, or for other appropriate purposes; and (4) may deal with all or any part of the property of the debtor. The term ‘securities’ shall include evidences of indebtedness, either secured or unsecured, bonds, stocks, certificates of beneficial interest therein, and certificates of beneficial interest in property. The term ‘stockholders’ shall include the holders of voting trust certificates. The term ‘creditors’ shall, except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, include, for all purposes of this section and of the reorganization plan, its acceptance and confirmation, all holders of claims, interests, or securities of whatever character against the debtor or its property, including claim for future rent, whether or not such claims, interests, or securities would otherwise constitute provable claims under this Act.

“(c) Upon approving the petition as properly filed the judge (1) may temporarily appoint from a panel of standing trustees qualified for such service to be selected and designated in advance by the commission a trustee or trustees of the debtor’s estate, who shall have all the title and, subject to the control of the judge and consistently with the provisions of this section, shall exercise all the powers of a trustee appointed pursuant to section 44 or any other section of this Act, and, subject to the judge's control and the jurisdiction of the commission as provided by the Interstate Commerce Act as amended, shall have the power to operate the business of the railroad corporation; (2) shall fix the amount of the bond of such trustee or trustees and require the debtor, the trustee, or trustees to give such notice as the order may direct to creditors and stockholders and to cause publication thereof to be made at least once a week for two successive weeks of a hearing to be held within thirty days after such appointment, at which hearing or any adjournment thereof the judge may make permanent such appointment, or may terminate it and may, in the manner herein provided for the appointment of trustees, appoint a substitute trustee or substitute trustees, and in the same manner may appoint an additional trustee or additional trustees, and shall fix the amount of the bond of the substitute or additional trustee or trustees; the trustee or trustees and their counsel shall receive such compensation as the judge may allow within a maximum approved by the commission; (3) may for cause shown, and with the approval of the commission, in accordance with section 20 (a) of the Interstate Commerce Act as amended, authorize the trustee or trustees to issue certificates for cash, property, or other consideration approved by the judge, for such lawful purposes and upon such terms and conditions and with such security and such priority in payments over existing obligations, secured or unsecured, as might in an equity receivership be lawful; (4) shall require the debtor, at such time or times as the judge may direct and in lieu of the schedules required by section 7 of this Act, to file such schedules and submit such other information as may be necessary to disclose the conduct of the debtor's affairs and the fairness of any proposed plan; (5) shall determine a reasonable time within which the claims and interests of creditors and stockholders may be filed or evidenced and after which no such claim or interest may participate in any plan except on order for cause shown; the manner in which such claims and interests may be filed or evidenced and allowed, and, for the purposes of the plan and its acceptance, the division of creditors and stockholders into classes according to the nature of their respective claims and interests; (6) shall cause reasonable notice of such determination, or of the dismissal of the proceedings, or the allowance of fees or expenses, to be given creditors and stockholders by publication or otherwise; (7) if a plan of reorganization is not proposed or accepted, or, if proposed and accepted, is not confirmed, within such reasonable time as the judge may, upon cause shown and after considering any recommendation which has been filed by the commission, allow, may dismiss the proceeding; (8) may, within such maximum limits as are fixed by the commission, as elsewhere provided in subdivision (f) of this section, allow a reasonable compensation for the services rendered and reimbursement for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding and plan by officers, parties in interest, reorganization managers, and committees or other representatives of creditors or stockholders, and the attorneys or agents of any of the foregoing, and by such assistants as the commission with the approval of the judge may specially employ; and (9) may on his own motion or at the request of the commission refer any matters for consideration and report, either generally or upon specified issues, to one of several special masters who shall have been previously designated to act as special masters in any proceedings under this section by order of any Circuit Court of Appeals and may allow such master a reasonable compensation for his services. The Circuit Court of Appeals of each circuit shall designate three or more members of the bar as such special masters whom they deem qualified for such services, and shall from time to time revise such designations by changing the persons designated or reducing or adding to their number, as the public interest may require: Provided, however, That there shall always be three of such special masters qualified for appointment in each circuit who shall in their respective circuits hear any matter referred to them under this section by a judge of any District Court. For all purposes of this section claims against a railroad corporation which would have been entitled to priority over existing mortgages if a receiver in equity of the property of the debtor had been appointed by a Federal court at the date of the filing of the petition hereunder shall be entitled to such priority, and holders of such claims shall be treated as a separate class of creditors. If in any case in which the issues have not already been tried under the provisions of subdivision (a) of this section any of the debtor's creditors shall, prior to the hearing provided for in subdivision (c), clause (2), of this section, appear and controvert the facts alleged in the petition, the judge shall determine, as soon as may be, the issues presented by the pleadings, without the intervention of a jury, and unless the material allegations of the petition are sustained by the proofs shall dismiss the petition. Any creditor or stockholder shall be heard on the question of the permanent appointment of any trustee or trustees, the proposed recommendation, approval, or confirmation of any reorganization plan, and upon filing a petition for leave to intervene on such other questions arising in the proceeding as the judge shall determine. The debtor, or the trustees if appointed, shall within fifteen days or, upon cause shown, such other time as may be directed by the judge, prepare (1) a list of all known bondholders and creditors of, or claimants against, the debtor or its property, and the amounts and character of their debts, claims, and securities, and the last known post-office address or place of business of each creditor or claimant, and (2) a list of the stockholders of the debtor, with the last known post-office address or place of business of each. The contents of such lists shall not constitute admissions by the debtor or the trustees in a proceeding under this section or otherwise. Such lists shall be open to the inspection of any creditor or stockholder of, or claimant against, the debtor, during reasonable business hours, upon application to the debtor or trustees, as the case may be.

“(d) Before creditors and stockholders of the debtor are asked finally to accept any plan of reorganization, the Interstate Commerce Commission shall after due notice hold a public hearing at which the debtor shall present its plan of reorganization and at which, also, such a plan may be presented by the trustee or trustees, or by or on behalf of creditors of the debtor, being not less than 10 per centum in amount of any class of creditors. Following such hearing, the commission shall render a report in which it shall recommend a plan of reorganization (which may be different from any which has been proposed) that will, in its opinion be equitable, will not discriminate unfairly in favor of any class of creditors or stockholders, will be financially advisable, will meet with the requirements of subdivision (g) of this section, and will be compatible with the public interest. In such report the commission shall state fully the reasons for its conclusions, and it may thereafter, upon petition for good cause shown, and upon further hearing if the commission shall deem necessary, modify any of its recommendations and conclusions in a supplemental report stating the reasons for such modification. Acceptance in writing before final approval.

“(e) A plan of reorganization shall not be finally approved by the commission until it has been accepted in writing and such acceptance has been filed in the proceeding by or on behalf of creditors holding two-thirds in amount of the claims of each class whose claims or interests would be affected by the plan, and by or on behalf of stockholders of the debtor holding two-thirds of the stock of each class: Provided, however, That if adequate provision is made in the plan for the protection of the interests, claims, and liens of any class of creditors or stockholders in the manner provided in clauses (5) and (6) of subdivision (g), of this section, then the acceptance of the plan by such class of creditor or stockholders shall not be requisite to the approval of the plan: And provided further, That the acceptance of stockholders shall not be requisite to the confirmation of the plan if (1) the judge shall have determined (a) that the corporation is insolvent, or (b) that the interests of stockholders will not be adversely affected by the plan, or (c) that the debtor has pursuant to authorized corporate action accepted the plan, and its stockholders are bound by such acceptance. For the purposes of this section acceptance by a creditor or stockholder shall include acceptance in writing executed by him; or acceptance by his duly authorized attorney or committee acting under authority executed by him subsequent to the recommendation of the plan by the commission. Upon acceptance of the plan in accordance with the provisions of this subdivision (e) the commission may, without further proceedings, grant authority for the issue of any securities, assumption of obligations, transfer of any property, or consolidation or merger of properties, to the extent contemplated by the plan consistent with the purposes of the Interstate Commerce Act as amended. Certification to court.

“(f) If the plan recommended by the commission is accepted as provided in subdivision (e), the commission shall thereupon certify the plan to the court together with its approval thereof and that the same has been so accepted, together with a report of the proceedings before it and its conclusions thereon. If the plan accepted as provided in subdivision (e) differs from the plan recommended by the commission it shall, upon acceptance, be submitted to the commission, which shall hear all interested parties upon such notice and subject to such rules and regulations as it shall prescribe. If after such hearing the commission determines that the accepted plan in its opinion is equitable and will not discriminate unfairly in favor of any class of creditors or stockholders; will be financially advisable; will meet the requirements of subdivision (g) of this section; and will be compatible with the public interest; the commission shall thereupon certify the plan to the court, together with its approval thereof and that the same has been duly accepted, and together with a report of the proceedings before it and its findings and conclusions thereon. The commission shall also, after hearing if necessary, fix the maximum compensation and reimbursement which may be allowed by the court pursuant to clause (8) of subdivision (c) of this section:

Maximum compensation.

Provided, That unless good and sufficient reasons appear therefor no allowance for fees or compensation shall be made to officers of corporations who have acted as managers or in any capacity in connection with the reorganization when such corporation had an interest in the matter. No plan of reorganization shall be confirmed in any proceeding under this section except upon the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission certified to the court. If the commission shall decline to issue such a certificate it shall file in the proceeding its decision, specifying the particular grounds upon which it bases its disapproval of the plan.

proviso.
No fees to officers acting as managers.

Approval of plan by Interstate Commerce Commission.

“(g) Upon such approval by the commission, and after hearing such objections as may be made to the approved plan, the judge shall confirm the plan if satisfied that (1) the approved plan complies with the provisions of subdivision (b) of this section, is equitable and does not discriminate unfairly in favor of any class of creditors or stockholders; (2) all amounts to be paid by the debtor or by any corporation or corporations acquiring the debtor’s assets, for services or expenses incident to the reorganization and cost of financing, have been fully disclosed and are reasonable, or are to be subject to the approval of the judge; (3) the offer of the plan and its acceptance are in good faith and have not been made or procured by any means or promises forbidden by this Act; (4) the approved plan provides for the payment of all costs of administration and other allowances made by the court, except that compensation or reimbursement provided for in subdivision (c), clause (8), of this section may be paid in securities provided for in the plan if those entitled thereto will accept such payment and the court finds such compensation reasonable; (5) the approved plan provides, with respect to stockholders of any class the acceptance of which is requisite to the confirmation of the plan, and who would not become bound by the plan under the provision of subdivision (h) of this section, and of which more than one-third have not accepted the plan, adequate protection for the realization by them of the value of their equity, if any, in the property of the debtor dealt with by the plan either by a sale of the property at not less than a fair upset price, or by appraisal and payment in cash either of the value of their stock or, at the objecting stockholder’s election, of the value of the securities, if any, allotted to such stock under the plan; (6) the plan provides with respect to any class of creditors the acceptance of which is requisite to the confirmation of the plan, and who would not become bound by the plan under the provisions of subdivision (h) of this section, adequate protection for the realization by them of the value of their securities, liens, and claims, either (a) by the sale of such property subject to their liens, if any, or (b) by the sale free of such liens at not less than a fair upset price, and the transfer of such liens to the proceeds of such sale, or (c) by appraisal and payment in cash of either the value of such liens and claims or, at the objecting creditors’ election, the value of the securities allotted to such liens and claims under the plan. Section 57, clause (h), of this Act shall be applicable to the appraisal of securities under this section, and the value of the unpaid balance shall be appraised as an unsecured claim; and (7) the debtor, and every other corporation issuing securities or acquiring property under the plan, is authorized by its charter or by applicable State or Federal laws, upon confirmation of the plan, to carry out the plan. In the case of a sale or appraisal under clause (5) or (6) of this subdivision (g) the court shall refer to the commission for its consideration and determination the amount to be fixed as the upset price and the appraisal of any securities.

Property thereafter free of debtors' claims.

“(j) Upon the confirmation of the plan the property dealt with by the plan, when transferred and conveyed to the debtor or other corporation or corporations provided for by the plan, or if no trustee or trustees have been appointed when held by the debtor pursuant to the plan, shall, as the court may direct, be free and clear of all claims of the debtor, its stockholders and creditors, except such as may consistently with the provisions of the plan be reserved in the order confirming the plan or directing such transfer and conveyance, and the court may direct the trustee or trustees, or if there be no trustee or trustees the debtor, to make any such transfer and conveyance, and may direct the debtor to join in any such transfer or conveyance made by the trustee or trustees. Upon the termination of the proceeding a final decree shall be entered discharging the trustee or trustees, if any, making such provisions as may be equitable, and closing the case.

the dismissal under subdivision (c), clause (7), of a proceeding under this section, the judge may include in the order of dismissal appropriate provisions directing the trustee to transfer possession of the debtor's property within the territorial jurisdiction of such court to the receiver so appointed, upon such terms as the judge may deem equitable for the protection of obligations incurred by the trustee and for the payment of administrative expenses and allowances in the proceeding hereunder. For the purposes of this section the words 'Federal court' shall include the district courts of the United States and of the Territories and possessions to which this Act is or may hereafter be applicable, the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and the United States Court of Alaska.

Dismissal directing transfer.

"Federal court," construed.

"(l) In addition to the provisions of section 11 of this Act for the staying of pending suits against the debtor, such suits shall be further stayed until after final decree the judge may, upon notice and for cause shown, enjoin or stay the commencement or continuance of any judicial proceeding to enforce any lien upon the estate until after final decree.

Further stay of pending suits.
Vol. 30, p. 549.

"(m) A certified copy of an order confirming a plan of reorganization shall be evidence of the jurisdiction of the court, the regularity of the proceedings, and the fact that the order was made. A certified copy of an order directing the transfer and conveyance of the property dealt with by the plan as provided in subdivision (j) of this section shall be evidence of the transfer and conveyance of title accordingly, and if recorded shall impart the same notice that a deed if recorded would impart.

Certified copy of confirming order.

What evidence of.

"(n) In proceedings under this section and consistent with the provisions thereof, the jurisdiction and powers of the court, the duties of the debtor and the rights and liabilities of creditors, and of all persons with respect to the debtor and his property, shall be the same as if a voluntary petition for adjudication had been filed and a decree of adjudication had been entered on the day when the debtor's petition was filed.

Effect of proceedings hereunder.

"(o) No judge or trustee acting under this Act shall change the wages or working conditions of railroad employees, except in the manner prescribed in the Railroad Labor Act, or as set forth in the memorandum of agreement entered into in Chicago, Illinois, on January 31, 1932, between the executives of twenty-one standard labor organizations and the committee of nine authorized to represent Class 1 railroads.

Prohibitions. Changing railroad wages, etc.

"(p) No judge or trustee acting under this Act shall deny or in any way question the right of employees on the property under his jurisdiction to join the labor organization of their choice, and it shall be unlawful for any judge, trustee, or receiver to interfere in any way with the organizations of employees, or to use the funds of the railroad under his jurisdiction, in maintaining so-called company unions, or to influence or coerce employees in an effort to induce them to join or remain members of such company unions.

Denying right to affiliate with labor organization.

"(q) No judge, trustee, or receiver acting under this Act shall require any person seeking employment on the property under his jurisdiction to sign any contract or agreement promising to join or to refuse to join a labor organization; and if such contract has been enforced on the property prior to the property coming under the jurisdiction of said judge, trustee, or receiver, then the said judge, trustee, or receiver, as soon as the matter is called to his attention, shall notify the employees by an appropriate order that said contract has been discarded and is no longer binding on them in any way.

Requiring prospective employee to agree not to join, etc., labor organization.

"Railroad corporation," construed.

"(r) The term 'railroad corporation' as used in this Act means any common carrier by railroad engaged in the transportation of persons or property in interstate commerce, except a street, suburban, or interurban electric railway which is not operated as a part of a general railroad system of transportation or which does not derive more than 50 per centum of its operating revenues from the transportation of freight in standard steam railroad freight equipment.

Claims for personal injuries.

"(s) In proceedings under this section, claims for personal injuries to employees of a railroad corporation, and claims of personal representatives of deceased employees of a railroad corporation arising under State or Federal laws, shall be preferred claims against the assets of such railroad corporation in receivership or in reorganization as herein provided, such claims to be subordinate only to costs of administration of such receivership or reorganization."

Status of.

Effective date of Act.

SEC. 2. This Act shall take effect and be in force from and after the date of its approval, and shall apply as fully to debtors, their stockholders and creditors, whose interest or debts, whether secured or unsecured, have been acquired or incurred prior to such date, as to debtors, their stockholders and creditors, whose interest or debts have been acquired or incurred after such date. Proceedings under section 1 of this Act may be taken in proceedings in bankruptcy which are pending on the effective date of this Act.

Deposit of bankrupt funds.

SEC. 3. In all bankruptcy proceedings the officers and agents in charge of the bankrupt funds are authorized to deposit the same without limit as to amount in the postal savings depositories at the prescribed interest rate in all cases where local banks are unable or unwilling to give the required security. Such deposit or any portion thereof may be withdrawn as required in the bankruptcy proceedings.

[Public, No. 422.]

To regulate the business of executing bonds for compensation in criminal cases and to improve the administration of justice in the District of Columbia.

District of Columbia.
Bonds in criminal cases, etc.
Definitions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the words "bonding business" as used in this Act mean the business of becoming surety for compensation upon bonds in criminal cases in the District of Columbia, and the word "bondsman" means any person or corporation engaged either as principal or as agent, clerk, or representative of another in such business.

SEC. 2. That the business of becoming surety for compensation upon bonds in criminal cases in the District of Columbia is impressed with a public interest.

Surety business, etc., impressed with public interest.

SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person engaged, either as principal or as the clerk, agent, or representative of a corporation, or another person in the business of becoming surety upon bonds for compensation in the District of Columbia, either directly or indirectly, to give, donate, lend, contribute, or to promise to give, donate, loan or contribute any money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever to any attorney at law, police officer, deputy United States marshal, jailer, probation officer, clerk, or other attaché of a criminal court, or public official of any character, for procuring or assisting in procuring any person to employ said bondsman to execute as surety any bond for compensation in any criminal case in the District of Columbia; and it shall be unlawful for any attorney at law, police officer, deputy United States marshal, jailer, probation officer, clerk, bailiff, or other attaché of a criminal court, or public official of any character, to accept or receive from any such person engaged in the bonding business any money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever for procuring or assisting in procuring any person to employ any bondsman to execute as surety any bond for compensation in any criminal case in the District of Columbia.

SEC. 4. It shall be unlawful for any attorney at law, either directly or indirectly, to give, loan, donate, contribute, or to promise to give, loan, donate, or contribute any money, property, entertainment, or other thing of value whatsoever to, or to split or divide any fee or commission with, any bondsman, the agent, clerk, or representative of any bondsman, police officer, deputy United States marshal, probation officer, assistant probation officer, bailiff, clerk, or other attaché of any criminal court for causing or procuring or assisting in causing or procuring any person to employ such attorney to represent him in any criminal case in the District of Columbia.

Gift by attorney to bondsman, or public official, unlawful.

SEC. 5. It shall be lawful to charge for executing any bond in a criminal case in the District of Columbia, and it shall be unlawful for any person or corporation engaged in the bonding business, either as principal, or clerk, agent, or representative of another, either directly or indirectly, to charge, accept, or receive any sum of money, or other thing of value, other than the regular fee for bonding, from any person for whom he has executed bond, for any other service whatever performed in connection with any indictment, information, or charge upon which said person is bailed or held in the District of Columbia. It also shall be unlawful for any person or corporation engaged either as principal or as agent, clerk, or representative of another in the bonding business, to settle, or attempt to settle, or to procure or attempt to procure the dismissal of any indictment, information, or charge against any person in custody or held upon bond in the District of Columbia, with any court, or with the prosecuting attorney in any court in the District of Columbia.

detained, and one or more copies thereof kept on hand; and when any person who is detained in custody in any such place of detention shall request any person in charge thereof to furnish him the name of a bondsman, or to put him in communication with a bondsman, said list shall be furnished to the person so requesting, and it shall be the duty of the person in charge of said place of detention within a reasonable time to put the person so detained in communication with the bondsman so selected, and the person in charge of said place of detention shall contemporaneously with said transaction make in the blotter or book of record kept in any such place of detention, a record showing the name of the person requesting the bondsman, the offense with which the said person is charged, the time at which the request was made, the bondsman requested, and the person by whom the said bondsman was called, and preserve the same as a permanent record in the book or blotter in which entered.

SEC. 7. It shall be unlawful for any bondsman, agent, clerk, or representative of any bondsman to enter a police precinct, jail, prisoner's dock, house of detention, or other place where persons in the custody of the law are detained in the District of Columbia for the purpose of obtaining employment as a bondsman, without having been previously called by a person so detained, or by some relative or other authorized person acting for or on behalf of the person so detained, and whenever any person engaged in the bonding business as principal, or as clerk, agent, or representative of another, shall enter a police precinct, jail, prisoner's dock, house of detention, or other place where persons in the custody of the law are detained in the District of Columbia, he shall forthwith give to the person in charge thereof his mission there, the name of the person calling him, and requesting him to come to such place, and the same shall be recorded by the person in charge of the said place of detention and preserved as a public record, and the failure to give such information, or the failure of the person in charge of said place of detention to make and preserve such a record, shall constitute a violation of this Act.

SEC. 8. It shall be the duty of the police court, juvenile court, and the criminal divisions of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, each, to provide, under reasonable rules and regulations, the qualifications of persons and corporations applying for authority to engage in the bonding business in criminal cases in the District of Columbia, and the terms and conditions upon which such business shall be carried on, and no person or corporation shall, either as principal, or as agent, clerk, or representative of another, engage in the bonding business in any such court until he shall by order of the court be authorized to do so. Such courts, in making such rules and regulations, and in granting authority to persons to engage in the bonding business, shall take into consideration both the financial responsibility and the moral qualities of the person so applying, and no person shall be permitted to engage, either as principal or agent, in the business of becoming surety upon bonds for compensation in criminal cases, who has ever been convicted of any offense involving moral turpitude, or who is not known to be a person of good moral character. It shall be the duty of each of said courts to require every person qualifying to engage in the bonding business as principal to file with said court a list showing the name, age, and residence of each person employed by said bondsman as agent, clerk, or representative in the bonding business, and require an affidavit from each of said persons stating that said person will abide by the terms and provisions of this Act. Each of said courts shall require the authority of each of said persons to be renewed from time to time at such periods as the court may by rule provide, and before said authority shall be renewed the court shall require from each of said persons an affidavit that since his previous qualification to engage in the bonding business he has abided by the provisions of this Act, and any person swearing falsely in any of said affidavits shall be guilty of perjury.

SEC. 9. It shall be unlawful for any police officer or other public official, in advance of any raid by police or other peace officers or public officials or the execution of any search warrant or warrant of arrest, to give or furnish, either directly or indirectly, any information concerning such proposed raid or arrest to any person engaged in any manner in the bonding business, or to any attorney at law: Provided, however, That it shall not be unlawful for any police or other peace officer, in conducting any raid or in executing any search warrant or warrant of arrest, to communicate to any attorney at law or person engaged in the bonding business, any fact necessary to enable such officer to obtain from such attorney at law or person engaged in the bonding business information necessary to enable such officer to carry out said raid or execute such process.

SEC. 10. The judges of the police court of the District of Columbia shall have the authority to appoint some official of the Metropolitan police force of the District of Columbia to act as a clerk of the police court with authority to take bail or collateral from persons charged with offenses triable in the police court in criminal cases in the District of Columbia at all times when the police court is not open and its clerks accessible. The official so appointed shall have the same authority at said times with reference to taking bonds or collateral as the clerk of the police court now has; shall receive no compensation for said services other than his regular salary; shall be subject to the orders and rules of the police court in discharge of his said duties, and may be removed as such clerk at any time by the judges of the police court. The Supreme Court and the Juvenile Court of the District of Columbia each shall have power by order to authorize the official, appointed by the police court, to take bond of persons arrested upon writs and processes from those courts in criminal cases between four o'clock postmeridian and nine o'clock antemeridian and upon Sundays and holidays, and each of such courts shall have power at any time by order to revoke such authority granted by it.

SEC. 11. Any person violating any provision of this Act other than in the commission of perjury shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100, or by imprisonment of not less than ten or more than sixty days in jail, or both, where no other penalty is provided by this Act; and if the person so convicted be a police officer or other public official, he shall upon recommendation of the trial judge also be forthwith dismissed from office; if a bondsman, or the agent, clerk, or representative of a bondsman, he shall be disqualified from thereafter engaging in any manner in the bonding business for such a period of time as the trial judge shall order; and, if an attorney at law, shall be subject to suspension or disbarment as attorney at law.

SEC. 12. It shall be the duty of the police court, juvenile court, and of the criminal divisions of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to see that this Act is enforced, and upon the impaneling of each grand jury in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia it shall be the duty of the judge impaneling said jury to give it in charge to the jury to investigate the manner in which this Act is enforced and all violations thereof.

(1) Section 104 (a) is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting a semicolon and the following: "and (12) special delivery messengers in the Postal Service."; and section 105 (d) (2) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following: "special delivery messengers in the Postal Service, but in the case of such messengers, the sum of $400 shall not be included in the calculation of the rate of their compensation for the purposes of this title;"

(2) Section 106 is amended by striking out "except judges whose compensation may not, under the Constitution, be diminished during their continuance in office" and inserting in lieu thereof "except judges, whose compensation, prior to retirement or resignation, could not, under the Constitution, have been diminished".

(3) Section 216 is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a colon and the following: "Provided further, That no employee under the classified civil service shall be furloughed under the provisions of this section for a total of more than ninety days during the fiscal year 1934, except after full and complete compliance with all the provisions of the civil service laws and regulations relating to reductions in personnel."

(4) Section 317 is amended by striking out the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof a colon and the following: "Provided further, That no part of any appropriation for 'public works', nor any part of any allotment or portion available for 'public works' under any appropriation, shall be transferred pursuant to the authority of this section to any appropriation for expenditure for personnel unless such personnel is required upon or in connection with 'public works'. 'Public works' as used in this section shall comprise all projects falling in the general classes enumerated in Budget Statement Numbered 9, pages A177 to A182, inclusive, of the Budget for the fiscal year 1934, and shall also include the procurement of new airplanes and the construction of vessels under appropriations for 'Increase of the Navy.' The interpretation by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget, or by the President in the cases of the War Department and the Navy Department, of 'public works', as defined and designated herein, shall be conclusive."

(5) Section 104 (b) and section 106 are amended by striking out "(except enlisted)"; section 104 (b) is amended by striking out "does not include the active or retired pay of the enlisted personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard; and"; and section 105 (d) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

"(8) The enlisted personnel of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard."

(b) All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent or in conflict with the provisions of such sections, as amended, are hereby suspended during the period in which such sections, as amended, are in effect.

(c) No court of the United States shall have jurisdiction of any suit against the United States or (unless brought by the United States) against any officer, agency, or instrumentality of the United States arising out of the application, as provided in this section, of such sections 101, 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108, 109, or 112, as amended, unless such suit involves the Constitution of the United States.

(d) The appropriations or portions of appropriations unexpended by reason of the operation of the amendments made in subsection (a) of this section shall not be used for any purpose, but shall be impounded and returned to the Treasury.

Impounding of unexpended balances.

(e) Each permanent specific annual appropriation available during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1934, is hereby reduced for that fiscal year by such estimated amount as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget may determine will be equivalent to the savings that will be effected in such appropriation by reason of the application of this section and section 7.

Reduction of annual appropriations.

SEC. 5. Effective the first day of the month next following the passage of this Act, in the application of Title I of Part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, and section 4 of this Act, in any case where the annual rate of compensation of any position is in excess of $1,000, the provisions reducing compensation shall not operate to reduce the total amount paid for any month to any incumbent of any such position unless the total amount earned by such incumbent in such month exceeds $83.33: Provided, That any such reduction made in any case where the total amount earned by any such incumbent in any month exceeds $83.33 shall not operate to reduce the total amount to be paid to such incumbent for such month to less than $83.33.

Limitation on reduction of annual compensation.

Ante, p. 399.

SEC. 11. From and after the date of enactment of this Act, the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1931 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 5, sec. 26a), shall not apply to any employees of the Veterans' Administration Homes, Hospitals, or Combined Facilities where, in the discretion of the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, the public interest requires that such employees should be excepted from the provisions thereof. As to those employees excepted from the provisions of the Act of March 3, 1931, seven hours shall constitute a workday on Saturday and labor in excess of four hours on Saturdays shall not entitle such employees to an equal shortening of the workday on some other day or to additional compensation therefor.

Foreign assignments of Army, etc., officers.

SEC. 12. Assignments of officers of the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps to permanent duty in the Philippines, on the Asiatic Station, or in China, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, or the Panama Canal Zone shall be for not less than three years. No such officer shall be transferred to duty in the continental United States before the expiration of such period unless the health of such officer or the public interest requires such transfer, and the reason for the transfer shall be stated in the order directing such transfer.

Judgments recovered against United States.
Vol. 18, p. 481.
U. S. C., p. 990.

SEC. 13. The Act entitled "An Act to provide for deducting any debt due the United States from any judgment recovered against the United States by such debtor," approved March 3, 1875 (U. S. C., title 31, sec. 227), is hereby amended to read as follows:

Payment of.

"That when any final judgment recovered against the United States duly allowed by legal authority shall be presented to the Comptroller General of the United States for payment, and the plaintiff therein shall be indebted to the United States in any manner, whether as principal or surety, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller General of the United States to withhold payment of an amount of such judgment equal to the debt thus due to the United States; and if such plaintiff assents to such set-off, and discharges his judgment or an amount thereof equal to said debt, the Comptroller General of the United States shall execute a discharge of the debt due from the plaintiff to the United States. But if such plaintiff denies his indebtedness to the United States, or refuses to consent to the set-off, then the Comptroller General of the United States shall withhold payment of such further amount of such judgment, as in his opinion will be sufficient to cover all legal charges and costs in prosecuting the debt of the United States to final judgment. And if such debt is not already in suit, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller General

Set-off of debts due.

Discharge upon plaintiff's assent.
Payment withheld, when indebtedness denied.

Prosecution of United States claim.

of the United States to cause legal proceedings to be immediately commenced to enforce the same, and to cause the same to be prosecuted to final judgment with all reasonable dispatch. And if in such action judgment shall be rendered against the United States, or the amount recovered for debt and costs shall be less than the amount so withheld as before provided, the balance shall then be paid over to such plaintiff by such Comptroller General of the United States with 6 per centum interest thereon for the time it has been withheld from the plaintiff."

Payments on final determination.

SEC. 14. Section 319 of Part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, is repealed as of June 30, 1932; and the rate of interest to be allowed upon judgments against the United States and overpayments in respect of internal-revenue taxes shall be the rate applicable thereto prior to the enactment of section 319 of such Act.

Judgments and overpayments, interest rate. Ante, p. 412.

SEC. 15. Section 322 of Part II, of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, is amended by adding at the end of the section the following proviso: " : Provided further, That the provisions of this section as applicable to rentals, shall apply only where the rental to be paid shall exceed $2,000 per annum."

Proviso. Applicable to higher rentals.

SEC. 16. Title IV of Part II of the Legislative Appropriation Act, fiscal year 1933, is amended to read as follows:

Application.

" TITLE IV—REORGANIZATION OF EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS

Reorganization of Executive Departments.

" DECLARATION OF STANDARD

" SEC. 401. The Congress hereby declares that a serious emergency exists by reason of the general economic depression; that it is imperative to reduce drastically governmental expenditures; and that such reduction may be accomplished in great measure by proceeding immediately under the provisions of this title.

Declaration of standard.

" Accordingly, the President shall investigate the present organization of all executive and administrative agencies of the Government and shall determine what changes therein are necessary to accomplish the following purposes:

President to investigate organization. Ante, p. 413.

" (a) To reduce expenditures to the fullest extent consistent with the efficient operation of the Government;

Purposes.

" (b) To increase the efficiency of the operations of the Government to the fullest extent practicable within the revenues;

" (c) To group, coordinate, and consolidate executive and administrative agencies of the Government, as nearly as may be, according to major purposes;

" (d) To reduce the number of such agencies by consolidating those having similar functions under a single head, and by abolishing such agencies and/or such functions thereof as may not be necessary for the efficient conduct of the Government;

" (e) To eliminate overlapping and duplication of effort; and

" (f) To segregate regulatory agencies and functions from those of an administrative and executive character.

" DEFINITION OF EXECUTIVE AGENCY

" SEC. 402. When used in this title, the term ' executive agency ' means any commission, independent establishment, board, bureau, division, service, or office in the executive branch of the Government and, except as provided in section 403, includes the executive departments.

(c) The court is also authorized and directed to charge and collect for each certified copy of its findings of fact and opinion a fee of 25 cents for five pages or less, 35 cents for those over five and not more than ten pages, 45 cents for those over ten and not more than twenty pages, and 50 cents for those of more than twenty pages.

(d) The clerk of the Court of Claims shall account to the Attorney General for all such fees and shall deposit such fees to the credit of the Treasurer of the United States in the same manner as is provided in the case of collections by clerks of district courts as provided by section 9 of the Act entitled "An Act to fix the salaries of clerks of the United States district courts and to provide for their office expenses, and for other purposes," approved February 26, 1919, as amended (U. S. C., title 28, sec. 567).

TITLE III

Terms construed.

"United States."

SEC. 1. That when used in this title—

(a) The term "United States," when used in a geographical sense, includes the United States and any place subject to the jurisdiction thereof;

"Public use"; "public building"; "public work."

(b) The terms "public use," "public building," and "public work" shall mean use by, public building of, and public work of, the United States, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, the Philippine Islands, American Samoa, the Canal Zone, and the Virgin Islands.

Manufactured articles, etc., produced in United States acquired for public use.

SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, and unless the head of the department or independent establishment concerned shall determine it to be inconsistent with the public interest, or the cost to be unreasonable, only such unmanufactured articles, materials, and supplies as have been mined or produced in the United States, and only such manufactured articles, materials, and supplies as have been manufactured in the United States substantially all from articles, materials, or supplies mined, produced, or manufactured, as the case may be, in the United States, shall be acquired for public use. This section shall not apply with respect to articles, materials, or supplies for use outside the United States, or if articles, materials, or supplies of the class or kind to be used or the articles, materials, or supplies from which they are manufactured are not mined, produced, or manufactured, as the case may be, in the United States in sufficient and reasonably available commercial quantities and of a satisfactory quality.

Articles used outside United States.

Materials for construction, etc., public buildings.

SEC. 3. (a) Every contract for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building or public work in the United States growing out of an appropriation heretofore made or hereafter to be made shall contain a provision that in the performance of the work the contractor, subcontractors, material men, or suppliers, shall use only such unmanufactured articles, materials, and supplies as have been mined or produced in the United States, and only such manufactured articles, materials, and supplies as have been manufactured in the United States substantially all from articles, materials, or supplies mined, produced, or manufactured, as the case may be, in the United States except as provided in section 2: Provided, however, That if the head of the department or independent establishment making the contract shall find that in respect to some particular articles, materials, or supplies it is impracticable to make such requirement or that it would unreasonably increase the cost, an exception shall be noted in the specifications as to that particular article, material, or supply, and a public record made of the findings which justified the exception.

proviso.
Exception when cost increased.

(b) If the head of a department, bureau, agency, or independent establishment which has made any contract containing the provision required by subsection (a) finds that in the performance of such contract there has been a failure to comply with such provisions, he shall make public his findings, including therein the name of the contractor obligated under such contract, and no other contract for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public building or public work in the United States or elsewhere shall be awarded to such contractor, subcontractors, material men, or suppliers with which such contractor is associated or affiliated, within a period of three years after such finding is made public.

Contractors, etc., failing to comply.

SEC. 4. This title shall take effect on the date of its enactment, but shall not apply to any contract entered into prior to such effective date.

Effective date.

SEC. 5. If any provision of this Act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances, is held invalid, the remainder of the Act, and the application thereof to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Separability of provisions.

Approved, March 3, 1933.

AN ACT

To amend the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, to permit loans for additional purposes, to extend the powers of Federal land banks in the making of direct loans, to authorize upon certain terms the reamortization of loans by Federal and joint-stock land banks, and for other purposes.

March 4, 1933.
 [S. 5337.]
 [Public, No. 430.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 7 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, chap. 7, secs. 711-722), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Federal Farm Loan Act, amendments.
 Vol. 39, p. 367.
 U. S. C., p. 302.

"Whenever it shall appear to the Federal Farm Loan Board that national farm-loan associations have not been formed in any locality in the continental United States, or that the farmers residing in the territory covered by the charter of a national farm-loan association are unable to apply to the Federal land bank of the district for loans on account of the inability of such association to indorse such loans, the Federal Farm Loan Board may, in its discretion, authorize said bank, at any time within five years after this paragraph takes effect, to make direct loans to borrowers secured by first mortgages on farm lands situated within any such locality or territory. Except as herein otherwise specifically provided, all provisions of this Act applicable with respect to loans made through national farm-loan associations shall, in so far as practicable, apply with respect to such direct loans, and the Federal Farm Loan Board is authorized to make such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary with respect to such direct loans: Provided, That no such loan shall be made for more than $15,000. Each borrower who obtains a direct loan from a Federal land bank shall subscribe and pay for stock in such bank in the sum of $5 for each $100 or fraction thereof borrowed."

SEC. 3. Subparagraph (b) of paragraph "Fourth" of section 13 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 7, sec. 781), is amended by adding at the end thereof a new sentence to read as follows: "Every such bank may carry real estate as an asset, for a period of not exceeding five years, at its normal value but not to exceed the amount of the bank's investment therein at the time of acquirement of such real estate."

Limitation.

Loans on first mortgages.
Vol. 39, p. 372.
U. S. C., p. 305.

SEC. 4. Section 13 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, chap. 7, sec. 771), is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraphs:

Unpaid balances. Payment may be postponed.

"Eleventh. At any time within five years after the date this paragraph takes effect, any borrower who has obtained a loan from a Federal land bank may on application to such Federal land bank and upon approval of such application by the directors of the bank postpone the payment of any unpaid installment or installments in the manner herein provided in this section. Such postponed payment shall be made by paying at the time each succeeding annual installment is due, one-tenth of the amount of the postponed payment, and, in the case of semiannual installments, by paying at the time each succeeding semiannual installment is due, one-twentieth of the postponed payment, until the amount of such postponed payment has been paid. In any case in which the number of remaining installments due on the mortgage is less than ten, in the case of annual installments, or less than twenty, in the case of semiannual installments, the amount of the postponed payment shall be distributed proportionately over the remaining number of installment payments.

Terms and conditions.

Simple interest on extended payments stipulated.

"Twelfth. For the period of five years after the date this paragraph takes effect, every borrower shall pay simple interest on extended payments at the same rate of interest as stipulated in the mortgage securing the loan as to payments not in default and by express covenant in his mortgage deed shall undertake to pay when due all taxes, liens, judgments, or assessments which may be lawfully assessed against the land mortgaged. Taxes, liens, judgments, or assessments not paid when due, and paid by the mortgagee, shall become a part of the mortgage debt and shall bear interest at the rate provided in the mortgage.

Unpaid taxes, etc.

Reamortization of loans.

"Thirteenth. When in the judgment of the directors conditions justify it, and with the approval of the Federal Farm Loan Board, to reamortize, in whole or in part, the aggregate amount remaining unpaid under the terms of any mortgage, and to accept payment of such aggregate amount on an amortization plan by means of a fixed number of annual or semiannual installments sufficient to cover the interest payable on the mortgage, and in addition thereto such amounts to be applied upon the principal as will extinguish the debt within an agreed period of not more than forty years from the date of the reamortization; to deposit such mortgages with the farm loan registrar as collateral security for farm-loan bonds at an amount not exceeding the principal of the original loan remaining unpaid at the date of such amortization; and with the approval of the Federal Farm Loan Board to charge the borrower an amount not to exceed the actual cost incurred in connection with such reamortization."

Period not to exceed 40 years.

Use of, as collateral security.

SEC. 5. (a) Paragraph "Second" of section 14 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 7, sec. 791), is amended to read as follows:

Bank restrictions; exemptions. Vol. 39, p. 373. U. S. C., p. 307.

"Second. To loan on first mortgage except through national farm-loan associations as provided in section 7 and section 8 of this Act, or through agents as provided in section 15, or direct to borrowers as provided in section 7."

Loan direct to borrower, added.

(b) Section 14 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended, is further amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph:

Vol. 39, p. 373. New matter.

"Sixth. To accept as additional security for any loan to any borrower under this Act, or any installment on any such loan, any security other than Federal land-bank stock or mortgages on farm real estate; and the transfer to any Federal land bank of any security if it may not be accepted by the bank under this paragraph shall be void: Provided, That any bank may accept an assignment of the landlord's rent to the amount of any taxes paid on such land by the bank, or any interest due."

Additional security for loan, other than land-bank stock, etc.

Proviso. Assignment of landlord's rent to cover taxes.

SEC. 6. (a) The fourth paragraph of section 19 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 7, sec. 854), is amended to read as follows:

Farm-loan bonds. Vol. 39, p. 376. U. S. C., p. 309.

"No mortgage shall be accepted by a farm-loan registrar from a land bank as part of an offering to securing farm-loan bonds, either originally or by substitution, except first mortgages made subject to the conditions prescribed in sections 4, 7, 12, 15, and 16: Provided, That such registrar, when authorized and directed to do so by the Federal Farm Loan Board, shall accept or retain in his custody as collateral, if otherwise eligible under the provisions of such sections, any first mortgage in connection with which the land bank depositing the same has agreed to defer for a period of not more than ten years the collection of the principal portion of maturing installments and to accept payment of the aggregate amount of such principal on an amortization plan by means of a fixed number of annual or semi-annual installments sufficient to cover the interest payable thereon and in addition thereto such amounts to be applied on the principal after the expiration of the period of deferment as will extinguish the debt within an agreed period of not more than forty years from the date of such agreement."

Acceptability as collateral security.

Proviso. Custody where land bank defers collecting principal portion of maturing installments, etc.

SEC. 7. The eleventh paragraph of section 21 of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 7, sec. 881), is amended by substituting in lieu thereof the following:

"When any Federal land bank shall desire to participate in a consolidated issue of farm-loan bonds it shall make application to the Federal Farm Loan Board for the approval on its behalf of such issue and tender to the registrar approved farm mortgages, or obligations of the United States Government, as security therefor, and no banks shall participate in such consolidated issue until such application has been approved by the Federal Farm Loan Board. Such approved farm mortgages or obligations of the United States Government shall be held by each farm-loan registrar as collateral security for consolidated bonds, separate and apart from the mortgages and/or Government bonds held by him as collective security for the bonds previously issued or assumed individually by the Federal land bank of his district. Amortization and other payments on the principal of first mortgages held by a farm-loan registrar as collateral security for the issue of consolidated farm-loan bonds shall constitute a trust fund in the hands of the Federal land bank receiving the same and shall be applied or employed in the manner provided in section 22 with respect to payments on principal of first mortgages held as collateral for farm-loan bonds of individual banks.

"Every Federal land bank shall notify the farm-loan registrar of the disposition of all payments made on the principal of mortgages held as collateral security for the issue of consolidated farm-loan bonds, and said registrar is authorized, at his discretion to order any of such payments, or the proceeds thereof, wherever deposited or however invested, to be immediately transferred to his account as trustee aforesaid. Each bank shall maintain with the farm-loan registrar of its district collateral security for the issue of consolidated farm-loan bonds in an amount at least equal to the face amount of such bonds issued on its behalf.

"When any Federal land bank shall surrender to the farm-loan registrar of its district any consolidated Federal farm-loan bonds, canceled or uncanceled, said land bank shall be entitled to withdraw first mortgages and bonds previously pledged as collateral in connection with any issue of consolidated farm-loan bonds to an amount equal to the consolidated farm-loan bonds so surrendered and it shall be the duty of such registrar to permit and direct the delivery of such mortgages and bonds to such land bank.

"The Federal Farm Loan Board may at any time call upon any Federal land bank for additional security to protect the consolidated bonds issued under the provisions of this section. Each bank shall pay when due, without notice, all bonds and coupons issued on its behalf hereunder.

"Every Federal land bank shall have power to exchange consolidated farm-loan bonds for farm-loan bonds previously issued or assumed by it individually, with the approval of and under rules and regulations promulgated by the Federal Farm Loan Board."

SEC. 8. The balance of the $125,000,000 provided for the Federal land banks by the Act of January 23, 1932, not heretofore used for the extension of loans or the making of new loans shall be used by such banks for the extension of loans and the making of new loans as authorized by this Act and the Federal Farm Loan Act, as amended.

Approved, March 4, 1933.

(e) If such bridge shall be at any time be<sup>1</sup> taken over or acquired by the States or public agencies or political subdivisions thereof, or by either of them, as provided in section 4 of this Act, and if tolls are thereafter charged for the use thereof, the rates of toll shall be so adjusted as to provide a fund sufficient to pay for the reasonable cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the bridge and its approaches under economical management, and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to amortize the amount paid therefor, including reasonable interest and financing cost, as soon as possible under reasonable charges, but within a period of not to exceed twenty years from the date of acquiring the same. After a sinking fund sufficient for such amortization shall have been so provided, such bridge shall thereafter be maintained and operated free of tolls, or the rates of toll shall thereafter be so adjusted as to provide a fund of not to exceed the amount necessary for the proper maintenance, repair, and operation of the bridge and its approaches under economical management. An accurate record of the amount paid for acquiring the bridge and its approaches, the actual expenditures for maintaining, repairing, and operating the same and of the daily tolls collected, shall be kept and shall be available for the information of all persons interested.

(f) The Bushkill Bridge Company, its successors and assigns, shall within ninety days after the completion of such bridge file with the Secretary of War and with the Highway Departments of the States of Pennsylvania and New Jersey a sworn itemized statement showing the actual original cost of constructing the bridge and its approaches, the actual cost of acquiring any interest in real property necessary therefor, and the actual financing and promotion costs. The Secretary of War may, and upon request of the highway department of either of such States shall, at any time within three years after the completion of such bridge, investigate such costs and determine the accuracy and reasonableness of the costs alleged in the statement of costs so filed, and shall make a finding of the actual and reasonable costs of constructing, financing, and promoting such bridge; for the purpose of such investigation the said Bushkill Bridge Company, its successors and assigns, shall make available all of its records in connection with the construction, financing, and promotion thereof. The findings of the Secretary of War as to the reasonable costs of the construction, financing, and promotion of the bridge shall be conclusive for the purposes mentioned in section 4 of this Act, subject only to review in a court of equity for fraud or gross mistake.

(g) The right to sell, assign, transfer, and mortgage all the rights, powers, and privileges conferred by this Act is hereby granted to the Bushkill Bridge Company, its successors and assigns; and any corporation to which or any person to whom such rights, powers, and privileges may be sold, assigned, or transferred, or who shall acquire the same by mortgage foreclosure or otherwise, is hereby authorized and empowered to exercise the same as fully as though conferred herein directly upon such corporation or person.

"(d) Any solvent financial institution in the District of Columbia under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency may go into liquidation and discontinue business by the vote of its shareholders owning two-thirds of its stock. Whenever a vote is taken to go into liquidation it shall be the duty of the board of directors to cause notice of this fact to be certified, under the seal of the institution, by its president, secretary, or cashier, to the Comptroller of the Currency, and publication thereof to be made for a period of two weeks in a newspaper published in the District of Columbia, that the institution has discontinued business and is winding up its affairs, and notifying its creditors to present claims against the institution for payment. The shareholders shall at the time of going into liquidation elect a committee or liquidating agent who shall liquidate the institution. No institution which has gone into voluntary liquidation shall be permitted to resume business but until its liquidation is complete shall remain a legal corporation or association for the purpose of suing or being sued. The liquidating agent shall give satisfactory surety bond to the board of directors of the institution and shall annually, on request of the Comptroller of the Currency, render such reports to the Comptroller as he shall require. Any such institution in liquidation may be examined by the Comptroller of the Currency who if he finds such institution insolvent may appoint a receiver and wind up its affairs in the same manner as provided by law for national banking associations.

Liquidating agent, etc.

Resumption of business after liquidation forbidden.

SEC. 3. That section 714 of the Act of March 3, 1901, entitled "An Act to establish a Code of Law for the District of Columbia" (D. C. Code, title 5, sec. 299), as amended, be amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 714. (a) The Comptroller of the Currency, in addition to the powers now conferred upon him by law for the examination of national banks, is hereby further authorized, whenever he may deem it advisable, to cause examination to be made into the condition of any bank mentioned in the preceding section. The expense of such examination shall be paid in the manner provided by section 5240 of the Revised Statutes relating to the examination of national banks.

"(b) The provision of section 5200 of the Revised Statutes, as amended (12 U. S. C. 84), are hereby extended to apply to all banks and trust companies doing business in the District of Columbia.

"(c) Each bank and trust company doing business in the District of Columbia and not a member of the Federal reserve system shall within six months from the enactment of this section, establish and maintain reserves on the same basis and subject to the same conditions as may by law now or hereafter be prescribed for national banks located in the District of Columbia, except that such reserves shall be established and maintained at such agency or agencies which shall have the approval of the Comptroller of the Currency: Provided, however, (1) That the required reserves carried by such bank or trust company with an agency or agencies may, under the regulations and subject to such penalties as may be prescribed by the Comptroller of the Currency, be checked against and withdrawn by such bank or trust company for the purpose of meeting existing liabilities, and (2) that no such bank or trust company shall at any time make new loans or shall pay any dividends unless and until the total reserves required by law shall be fully restored."

SEC. 4. (a) The shareholders of every savings bank or savings company other than building associations now or hereafter organized under authority of any Act of Congress to do business in the District of Columbia and of every banking institution organized by virtue of the laws of any of the States of the Union to do or doing a banking business in the District of Columbia, who acquire in any manner the shares of any such savings bank or savings company or such banking institutions other than building associations after the enactment of this Act, shall be held individually responsible equally and ratably, and not one for another, for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such bank or company, to the extent of the amount of their stock so acquired therein, at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares.

(b) The shareholders, at the date of the enactment of this Act, of every savings bank or savings company other than building associations organized under authority of any Act of Congress to do business in the District of Columbia, and of every banking institution organized by virtue of the laws of any of the States of this Union to do or doing a banking business in the District of Columbia, shall be held individually responsible, equally and ratably, and not one for another for all contracts, debts, and engagements of such savings bank, savings company, or banking institution, entered into or incurred subsequent to the date of the enactment of this Act to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. The words "entered into or incurred" as used in this section, shall be held to include any extension or renewal of any contracts, debt, and engagement renewed or extended after the enactment of this Act.

(c) The provisions of section 5205 of the Revised Statutes of the United States as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 2, sec. 55); sections 5234, 5235, and 5236 of the Revised Statutes of the United States as amended (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 2, secs. 191, 65, and 197); and section 5210 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (U. S. C., title 12, ch. 2, sec. 62) are extended to apply to any bank, savings bank, or trust company organized, hereafter organized, or doing a banking business in the District of Columbia and to the shareholders of such institutions, except as limited by the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, however, That the provisions of section 713 of the Act of March 3, 1901, entitled "An Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia" (D. C. Code, title 5, sec. 298), as amended, shall not be construed to be repealed by this Act but shall have application to the banks, savings banks, savings companies, other than building associations, and trust companies embraced within this Act.

(d) That portion of section 24 of the Judicial Code, as amended, applying to suits against national-banking associations (U. S. C., title 28, ch. 2, sec. 41, par. 16) shall be extended and shall apply to all actions arising under the provisions of this Act.

SEC. 5. Section 747 of the Act of March 3, 1901, entitled "An Act to establish a code of law for the District of Columbia" (D. C. Code, title 5, sec. 374), as amended, is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 747. No corporation or company organized by virtue of the laws of any of the States of this Union shall carry on in the District of Columbia any of the kinds of business named in this subchapter without strict compliance in all particulars with the provisions of this subchapter for the government of such corporations formed under it, and each one of the officers of the corporation or company so offending shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court."

SEC. 6. No corporation, association, partnership, or individual shall carry on any business in the District of Columbia under any name or title containing the word "bank" or the words "trust company" unless (1) the business is being carried on under the name or title at the time of the approval of this Act, or (2) the business is carried on under the supervision of the Comptroller of the Currency and the name or title is approved by the Comptroller of the Currency. Any individual who, or corporation, association, or partnership which, violates any of the provisions of this section, and any officer of any such corporation or association and any officer or member of any such partnership, who assents to any such violation, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $5,000.
