Investigation of fire-resisting properties: For investigation of fire-resisting properties of building materials and conditions under which they may be most efficiently used, and for the standardization of types of appliances for fire prevention, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $25,000.

Fire-resisting building materials.

Investigation of public-utility standards: For investigation of the standards of practice and methods of measurements of public utilities, such as gas, electric light, electric power, water, telephone, central station heating, and electric-railway service, and the solution of the problems which arise in connection with standards in such service, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $90,000.

Public utility standards, etc., investigations.

Testing miscellaneous materials: For testing miscellaneous materials, such as varnish materials, soap materials, inks, and chemicals, including supplies for the Government departments and independent establishments, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, as authorized by law, $40,000.

Testing miscellaneous materials.

Radio research: For investigation and standardization of methods and instruments employed in radio communication, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $74,280;

Radio standardization.

Color standardization: To develop color standards and methods of manufacture and of color measurements, with special reference to their industrial use in standardization and specification of colorants, such as dyestuffs, inks, and pigments, and other products, paint, paper, and textiles, in which color is a pertinent property, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $12,000;

Industrial standardization. color

Investigation of clay products: To study methods of measurement and technical processes used in the manufacture of pottery, brick, tile, terra cotta, and other clay products, and the study of the properties of the materials used in that industry, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000;

Clay products processes.

Standardizing mechanical appliances: To develop methods of testing and standardizing machines, motors, tools, measuring instruments, and other apparatus and devices used in mechanical, hydraulic, and aeronautic engineering; for the comparative study of types of apparatus and methods of operation, and for the establishment of standards of performance; for the accurate determination of fundamental physical constants involved in the proper execution of this work; and for the scientific experiments and investigations needed in solving the problems which may arise in connection therewith, especially in response to the requirements of aeronautics and aviation for information of a purely scientific nature, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000;

Mechanical appliances.

Testing mechanical, hydraulic, and aeronautic devices, etc.

Investigation of optical and other types of glass: For the investigation of the problems involved in the production of optical and other types of glass, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $22,000;

Optical glass production problems.

Investigation of textiles: To investigate textiles, paper, leather, and rubber in order to develop standards of more durable quality and methods of measurement, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $50,000;

Textiles, paper, etc., standardization.

Sugar standardization.	Sugar standardization: For the standardization and design of sugar-testing apparatus; the development of technical specifications for the various grades of sugars, especially involving the standardization and manufacture of sugars; for the study of the technical problems incidental to the collection of the revenue on sugar and to determine the fundamental scientific constants of sugars and other substances; for the standardization and production of rare and unusual types of sugars required for the medical service of the Government departments; and for other technical and scientific purposes, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $75,000;
Rare and unusual types.
Gauges and screw threads. Cooperative standardization, etc.	Gauge standardization: To provide by cooperation of the Bureau of Standards, the War Department, and the Navy Department for the standardization and testing of the standard gages, screw threads, and standards required in manufacturing throughout the United States, and to calibrate and test such standard gages, screw threads, and standards, including necessary equipment and personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000;
Testing large scales, etc.	Testing railroad-track, mine, and other scales: For investigation and testing of railroad-track scales, elevator scales, and other scales used in weighing commodities for interstate shipments and to secure equipment and assistance for testing the scales used by the Government in its transactions with the public, such as post-office, navy-yard, and customhouse scales, and for the purpose of cooperating with the States in securing uniformity in the weights and measures laws and in the methods of inspection; for investigating the conditions and methods of use of scales and mine cars used for weighing and measuring coal dug by miners, for the purpose of determining wages due, and of conditions affecting the accuracy of the weighing or measuring of coal at the mines, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $50,000;
Mine scales and cars.
High temperature measurements.	High temperature investigations: For laboratory and field investigations of suitable methods of high temperature measurements and control in various industrial processes and to assist in making available directly to the industries the results of the bureau's investigations in this field, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $6,000;
Metallurgical research.	Metallurgical research: For metallurgical research, including alloy steels, foundry practice, and standards for metals and sands; casting, rolling, forging, and the properties of aluminum alloys; prevention of corrosion of metals and alloys; development of metal substitutes, as for platinum; behavior of bearing metals; preparation of metal specifications; investigation of new metallurgical processes and study of methods of conservation in metallurgical manufacture and products; investigation of materials used in the construction of rails, wheels, axles, and other railway equipment, and the cause of their failure, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $50,000;
Railway equipment.
Sound investigation.	Sound investigation: For the investigation of the principles of sound and their application to military and industrial purposes, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $8,000;
Industrial research. Cooperative investigations.	Industrial research: For technical investigations in cooperation with the industries upon fundamental problems involved in industrial development, with a view to assisting in the permanent establishment of new American industries, including personal services in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, $100,000;

Standardization of equipment: To enable the Bureau of Standards to cooperate with Government departments, engineers, and manufacturers in the establishment of standards, methods of testing, and inspection of instruments, equipment, tools, and electrical and mechanical devices used in the industries and by the Government, including the practical specifications for quality and performance of such devices, and the formulation of methods of inspection, laboratory, and service tests, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $150,000;

Cooperative standardization of industrial devices, etc.

Standard materials: For purchase, preparation, analysis, and distribution of standard materials to be used in checking chemical analyses in the testing of physical measuring apparatus, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $8,000;

Standards for checking chemical analyses.

Investigation of radioactive substances and X rays: For an investigation of radioactive substances and the methods of their measurements and testing; for investigations relative to the development of standard specifications for X-ray equipment and operation; for the investigation of the hazards of X-ray practice; for the testing and standardization of X-ray protective materials; for the standardization and design of X-ray testing equipment; for the determination of fundamental physical constants essential to X-ray diagnosis and therapy to X-ray analysis of materials and to other technical and scientific applications, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $20,000;

Radioactive substances and X-ray investigations.

Utilization of waste products from the land: For the survey of the possibilities of the industrial utilization of waste products from the land, including cooperation with colleges, other institutions, and manufacturers, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000: Provided, That the Bureau of Standards cooperates with the Bureau of Chemistry and Soils, Department of Agriculture, without duplication of work;

Utilizing waste products from the land.

Investigation of automotive engines: For the promotion of economy and efficiency in automotive transportation by land and by air through investigations of the basic principles underlying the design, performance, operation, and testing of automotive engines, their fuels, lubricants, accessories, and the power-transmitting system used in connection with them, also such elements as brakes and brake linings; to promote economy in the use of liquid fuels and safety in vehicular traffic, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000;

Proviso. Cooperation with Chemistry Bureau without duplicating work.

Automotive engines, investigations, etc.

Investigation of dental materials: To investigate the physical and chemical properties of dental materials, including the method of their application and the causes of deterioration of such materials in service, for the purpose of developing standards of quality and standard methods of test, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $5,000;

Dental materials investigations.

Hydraulic laboratory research: For the determination of fundamental data useful in hydraulic research and engineering, including laboratory research relating to the behavior and control of river and harbor waters, the study of hydraulic structures and water flow, and the development and testing of hydraulic instruments and accessories, including personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field, $40,000;

Hydraulic laboratory research.

During the fiscal year 1933 the head of any department or independent establishment of the Government having funds available for scientific investigations and requiring cooperative work by the Bureau of Standards on scientific investigations within the scope of the functions of that bureau, and which the Bureau of Standards is unable to perform within the limits of its appropriations, may,

Cooperative work with departments, etc., in scientific investigations, etc.

Transfer of funds to credit of bureau. with the approval of the Secretary of Commerce, transfer to the Bureau of Standards such sums as may be necessary to carry on such investigations. The Secretary of the Treasury shall transfer on the books of the Treasury Department any sums which may be authorized hereunder, and such amounts shall be placed to the credit of the Bureau of Standards for performance of work for the department or establishment from which the transfer is made, including, where necessary, compensation for personal services in the District of Columbia and in the field;

Attendance at meetings, etc. Appropriations herein made for the Bureau of Standards shall be available for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with standardization and research, or either, when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, and for the compensation and expenses of medical officers of the Public Health Service detailed to the Bureau of Standards for the purpose of maintaining a first-aid station and making clinical observations;

Services in the District. Total, Bureau of Standards, $2,137,280, of which amount not to exceed $1,800,664 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia.

Lighthouses Bureau.

BUREAU OF LIGHTHOUSES

Commissioner, and office personnel. Salaries: For the commissioner and other personal services in the District of Columbia, $110,000.

General expenses. Objects specified. General expenses: For supplies, including replacement of and necessary additions to existing equipment, repairs, maintenance, and incidental expenses of lighthouses and other lights, beacons, buoyage, fog signals, lighting of rivers heretofore authorized to be lighted, light vessels, other aids to navigation, and lighthouse tenders, including the establishment, repair, and improvement of beacons and day marks, and purchase of land for same; establishment of post lights, buoys, submarine signals, and fog signals; establishment of oil or carbide houses, not to exceed $10,000: Provided, That any oil or carbide house erected hereunder shall not exceed $1,000 in cost; construction of necessary outbuildings at a cost not exceeding $1,000 at any one light station in any fiscal year; improvement of grounds and buildings connected with light stations and depots; restoring light stations and depots and buildings connected therewith: Provided further, That such restoration shall be limited to the original purpose of the structures; wages of persons attending post lights; temporary employees and field force while engaged on works of general repair and maintenance, and laborers and mechanics at lighthouse depots; rations and provisions or commutation thereof for working parties in the field, officers and crews of light vessels and tenders, and officials and other authorized persons of the Lighthouse Service on duty on board of such tenders or vessels, and money accruing from commutation for rations and provisions for the above-named persons on board of tenders and light vessels or in working parties in the field may be paid on proper vouchers to the person having charge of the mess of such vessel or party; not exceeding $2,000 for packing, crating, and transporting personal household effects of employees when transferred from one official station to another for permanent duty; purchase of rubber boots, oilskins, rubber gloves, and coats, caps, and aprons for stewards' departments on vessels; reimbursement under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce of keepers of light stations and masters of light vessels and of lighthouse tenders for rations and provisions and clothing furnished ship-wrecked persons who may be temporarily provided for by them, not exceeding in all

$5,000 in any fiscal year; fuel, light, and rent of quarters where necessary for keepers of lighthouses; purchase of land sites for fog signals; rent of necessary ground for all such lights and beacons as are for temporary use or to mark changeable channels and which in consequence can not be made permanent; rent of offices, depots, and wharves; traveling expenses, including travel for the examinations authorized by the Act entitled "An Act to provide for retirement for disability in the Lighthouse Service," approved March 4, 1925 (U. S. C., title 33, sec. 765); mileage; library books for light stations and vessels, and technical books and periodicals not exceeding $1,000; traveling and subsistence expenses of teachers while actually employed by States or private persons to instruct the children of keepers of lighthouses; all other contingent expenses of district offices and depots, including the purchase of provisions for sale to lighthouse keepers at isolated stations, and the appropriation reimbursed, purchase not to exceed $3,600, exchange, maintenance, operation, and repair of motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles for official use in field work; payment of rewards for the apprehension and conviction, or for information helpful to the apprehension and conviction of persons found interfering with aids to navigation maintained by the Lighthouse Service, in violation of section 6 of the Act of May 14, 1908 (U. S. C., title 33, sec. 761), and not exceeding $8,500 for contingent expenses of the office of the Bureau of Lighthouses in the District of Columbia, $4,200,000.

Keepers of lighthouses: For salaries of not exceeding one thousand eight hundred lighthouse and fog-signal keepers and persons attending lights, exclusive of post lights, $2,105,280.

Lighthouse vessels: For salaries and wages of officers and crews of light vessels and lighthouse tenders, including temporary employment when necessary, $2,370,000.

Superintendents, clerks, and so forth: For salaries of eighteen superintendents of lighthouses, and of assistant superintendents, clerks, draftsmen, and other authorized permanent employees in the district offices and depots of the Lighthouse Service, exclusive of those regularly employed in the office of the Bureau of Lighthouses, District of Columbia, $600,000.

Retired pay: For retired pay of officers and employees engaged in the field service or on vessels of the Lighthouse Service, except persons continuously employed in district offices and shops, $414,000.

Public works: For establishing and improving aids to navigation and other works as may be specifically approved by the Secretary of Commerce, $50,000, to be immediately available.

COAST AND GEODETIC SURVEY

For every expenditure requisite for and incident to the work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, including maintenance, repair, exchange, and operation of motor-propelled or horse-drawn vehicles for official use in field work, purchase of motor cycles with side cars, including their exchange, not to exceed $1,000, surveying instruments, including their exchange, rubber boots, canvas and rubber gloves, goggles, and caps, coats, and aprons for stewards' departments on vessels, extra compensation at not to exceed $1 per day for each station to employees of the Lighthouse Service and the Weather Bureau while observing tides or currents, services of one tide observer in the District of Columbia at not to exceed $1 per day, and compensation, not otherwise appropriated for, of persons employed in the field work, and for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with the work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

All expenses.
Objects specified.

Distribution.	Coast and Geodetic Survey when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, to be expended in accordance with the regulations relating to the Coast and Geodetic Survey subscribed by the Secretary of Commerce, and under the following heads:
Field expenses. Atlantic coast.	Field expenses, Atlantic coast: For surveys and necessary resurveys of the Atlantic and Gulf coasts of the United States, including the coasts of outlying islands under the jurisdiction of the United States, $150,000: Provided , That not more than $35,000 of this amount shall be expended on the coasts of said outlying islands and the Atlantic entrance to the Panama Canal;
Proviso . Outlying islands.
Pacific coast.	Pacific coast: For surveys and necessary resurveys of coasts on the Pacific Ocean under the jurisdiction of the United States, $200,000.
Physical hydrography.	Tides, currents, and so forth: For continuing researches in physical hydrography, relating to harbors and bars, and for tidal and current observations on the coasts of the United States, or other coasts under the jurisdiction of the United States, $20,000;
Coast Pilot.	Coast Pilot: For compilation of the Coast Pilot, including the employment of such pilots and nautical experts, and stenographic help in the field and office as may be necessary for the same, $5,500.
Magnetic and seismological observations.	Magnetic work: For continuing magnetic and seismological observations and to establish meridian lines in connection therewith in all parts of the United States; making magnetic and seismological observations in other regions under the jurisdiction of the United States; purchase of additional magnetic and seismological instruments; lease of sites where necessary and the erection of temporary magnetic and seismological buildings; and including the employment in the field and office of such magnetic and seismological observers and stenographic services as may be necessary, $40,000.
Federal, State, etc., surveys. Determining lines of exact levels.	Federal, boundary, and State surveys: For continuing lines of exact levels between the Atlantic, Pacific, and Gulf coasts; determining geographic positions by triangulation and traverse for the control of Federal, State, boundary, county, city, and other surveys and engineering works in all parts of the United States; including special geodetic surveys of first-order triangulation and leveling in regions subject to earthquakes, not exceeding $10,000; determining field astronomic positions and the variation of latitude, including the maintenance and operation of the latitude observatories at Ukiah, California, and Gaithersburg, Maryland, not exceeding $2,500 each; establishing lines of exact levels, determining geographic positions by triangulation and traverse, and making astronomic observations in Alaska; and continuing gravity observations in the United States and for making such observations in regions under the jurisdiction of the United States and also on islands and coasts adjacent thereto, $150,000, of which amount not to exceed $25,000 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia, and not to exceed $1,500 may be expended to determine the difference in gravity between the international base station at Potsdam, Germany, and that of the United States;
Ukiah and Gaithersburg observatories.
Alaska observations.
Observation at Potsdam, Germany.
Miscellaneous.	For objects not hereinbefore named that may be deemed urgent, including the preparation or purchase of plans and specifications of vessels and the employment of such hull draftsmen in the field and office as may be necessary for the same; the reimbursement, under rules prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce, of officers of the Coast and Geodetic Survey for food, clothing, medicines, and other supplies furnished for the temporary relief of distressed persons in remote localities and to shipwrecked persons temporarily provided for by them, not to exceed a total of $550; actual necessary expenses of officers of the field force temporarily ordered to the office in the District of Columbia for consultation with the director, and Relieving shipwrecked persons, etc.

not exceeding $1,000 for the expenses of the attendance of representatives of the Coast and Geodetic<sup>1</sup> Survey who may be designated as delegates from the United States at the meetings of the International Hydrographic Bureau, and not exceeding $3,000 for special surveys that may be required by the Bureau of Lighthouses or other proper authority, $7,000.

International Hydrographic Bureau.
Special surveys.

In all, field expenses, $572,500.

Vessels: For repairs of vessels, including traveling expenses of persons inspecting the repairs, and exclusive of engineer's supplies and other ship chandlery, $60,000.

Vessels, repairs, etc.

For all necessary employees to man and equip the vessels, including professional seamen serving as mates on vessels of the survey, to execute the work of the survey herein provided for and authorized by law, $555,000.

Equipment employees.

Pay, commissioned officers: For pay and allowances prescribed by law for commissioned officers on sea duty and other duty, holding relative rank with officers of the Navy, including one director, with relative rank of captain, six hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of captain, ten hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of commander, seventeen hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant commander, forty-seven hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant, sixty-one junior hydrographic and geodetic engineers with relative rank of lieutenant (junior grade), twenty-nine aides with relative rank of ensign, and including officers retired in accordance with existing law, $662,313: Provided, That the Secretary of Commerce may designate one of the hydrographic and geodetic engineers to act as assistant director.

Pay, etc., commissioned officers.

Proviso.
Assistant director.

Office force: For personal services, $500,000.

Office force.

Office expenses: For purchase of new instruments (except surveying instruments), including their exchange, materials, equipment, and supplies required in the instrument shop, carpenter shop, and chart division; books, scientific and technical books, journals, books of reference, maps, charts, and subscriptions; copper plates, chart paper, printer's ink, copper, zinc, and chemicals for electrotyping and photographing; engraving, printing, photographing, rubber gloves, and electrotyping supplies; photolithographing and printing charts for immediate use; stationery for office and field parties; transportation of instruments and supplies when not charged to party expenses; telegrams; washing; office furniture, repairs; traveling expenses of officers and others employed in the office sent on special duty in the service of the office; miscellaneous expenses, contingencies of all kinds, not exceeding $90 for street-car fares, $50,000.

Office expenses.

Appropriations herein made for the Coast and Geodetic<sup>1</sup> Survey shall not be available for allowance to civilian or other officers for subsistence while on duty at Washington (except as hereinbefore provided for officers of the field force ordered to Washington for short periods for consultation with the director), except as now provided by law.

Subsistence restrictions.

BUREAU OF FISHERIES

Fisheries Bureau.

Commissioner's office: For the commissioner and other personal services in the District of Columbia, $175,000.

Commissioner, and office personnel.

Administration: For expenses of the office of the commissioner, including stationery, scientific and reference books, periodicals and newspapers for library, furniture and equipment, telegraph and telephone service, street-car fares not exceeding $150, compensation of temporary employees, and all other necessary expenses connected therewith, $3,500.

Propagation expenses.

Propagation of food fishes: For maintenance, repair, alteration, improvement, equipment, and operation of fish-cultural stations, general propagation of food fishes and their distribution, including movement, maintenance, and repairs of cars, purchase of equipment (including rubber boots and oilskins) and apparatus, contingent expenses, pay of permanent employees not to exceed $412,550, temporary labor, and not to exceed $10,000 for propagation and distribution of fresh-water mussels and the necessary expenses connected therewith, and not to exceed $10,000 for the purchase, collection, and transportation of specimens and other expenses incidental to the maintenance and operation of aquarium, of which not to exceed $5,000 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia, $886,730.

Vessels.
Maintenance.

Maintenance of vessels: For maintenance and operation of vessels and launches, including purchase and repair of boats, apparatus, machinery, and other facilities required for use with the same, hire of vessels, temporary employees, and all other necessary expenses in connection therewith, including not to exceed $1,000 for the purchase of plans and specifications for vessels or for contract personal services for the preparation thereof, and money accruing from commutation of rations and provisions on board vessels may be paid on proper vouchers to the persons having charge of the mess of such vessels, $200,000, of which not to exceed $32,600 may be expended for pay of officers and employees of vessels of the Atlantic coast and not to exceed $66,000 for pay of officers and crews of vessels for the Alaska Fisheries Service, and $10,000 shall be immediately available for the procurement of supplies and equipment required for shipment to the Pribilof Islands for the service of the fiscal year 1933.

Alaska service.
Shipment of supplies to Pribilof Islands.

Commutation of rations.

Commutation of rations (not to exceed $1 per day) may be paid to officers and crews of vessels of the Bureau of Fisheries during the fiscal year 1933 under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Commerce.

Food fishes inquiry.

Inquiry respecting food fishes: For inquiry into the cause of the decrease of food fishes in the waters of the United States, and for investigation and experiments in respect to the aquatic animals, plants, and waters, and screening of irrigation ditches in fishways, in the interests of fish culture and the fishery industries, including pay of permanent employees not to exceed $125,000, temporary employees, maintenance, repair, improvement, equipment, and operations of biological stations, expenses of travel and preparation of reports, $200,000.

Fishing industry.
Statistical, etc., inquiries.

Fishery industries: For collection and compilation of statistics of the fisheries and the study of their methods and relations, and the methods of preservation and utilization of fishery products, including pay of permanent employees not to exceed $36,200, compensation of temporary employees, travel and preparation of reports, including temporary employees in the District of Columbia not to exceed $1,800, and all other necessary expenses in connection therewith, including the purchase not to exceed $1,250, exchange, maintenance, repair, and operation of motor-propelled passenger-carrying vehicles for official use in the field work of the Bureau of Fisheries, $95,790.

Sponge fisheries.
Protecting.

Sponge fisheries: For protecting the sponge fisheries, including employment of inspectors, watchmen, and temporary assistants, hire of boats, rental of office and storage, care of seized sponges and other property, travel, and all other expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act of August 5, 1914 (U. S. C., title 16, secs. 781-785), to regulate the sponge fisheries, $3,000.

Alaska, general service: For protecting the seal fisheries of Alaska, including the furnishing of food, fuel, clothing, and other necessities of life to the natives of the Pribilof Islands, of Alaska; not exceeding $54,000 for construction, improvement, repair, and alteration of buildings and roads, transportation of supplies to and from the islands, expenses of travel of agents and other employees and subsistence while on said islands, hire and maintenance of vessels, purchase of sea otters, and for all expenses necessary to carry out the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to protect the seal fisheries of Alaska, and for other purposes," approved April 21, 1910 (U. S. C., title 16, secs. 631-658), and for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska, including pay of permanent employees not to exceed $87,940, contract stenographic reporting service, travel, subsistence (or per diem in lieu of subsistence) of employees while on duty in Alaska, hire of boats, employment of temporary labor, and all other necessary expenses connected therewith, $390,000, of which $100,000 shall be immediately available.

Mississippi Wild Life and Fish Refuge: For construction of buildings, boats, and ponds, for purchase of equipment, including boats, for maintenance, operation, repair, and improvements, including expenditures for personal services at the seat of government and elsewhere as may be necessary, as authorized in the Act approved June 7, 1924 (U. S. C., title 16, secs. 721-731), $7,000.

Construction of stations: The appropriations made under this head in the Second Deficiency Act, fiscal year 1930, and in the Act making appropriations for the Department of Commerce for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, are hereby continued and made available until June 30, 1933, and the appropriation contained in the last-mentioned Act for the purchase of the Mill Creek station in the State of California shall be available for repairs and improvements to said station.

Enforcement of black bass law: To enable the Secretary of Commerce to carry into effect the Act entitled "An Act to amend the Act entitled 'An Act to regulate interstate transportation<sup>1</sup> of black bass, and for other purposes,' approved May 20, 1926" (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 16, secs. 851-856), approved July 2, 1930 (46 Stat., pp. 845-847), $15,000, of which not to exceed $2,600 may be expended for personal services in the District of Columbia.

Not to exceed $1,000 of the appropriations herein made for the Bureau of Fisheries shall be available for expenses of attendance at meetings concerned with the work of said bureau when incurred on the written authority of the Secretary of Commerce, and not to exceed $1,500 shall be available for the rental of suitable quarters in the District of Columbia for laboratory and storage purposes.

PATENT OFFICE

The following sums are appropriated for the Patent Office for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, out of the revenues of such office in conformity with section 5 of the Act approved April 11, 1930 (46 Stat., p. 155), to the extent that such revenues are sufficient therefor and any remainder out of the general fund of the Treasury, namely:

For the Commissioner of Patents and other personal services in the District of Columbia, $3,465,000: Provided, That of the amount herein appropriated not to exceed $25,000 may be used for special and temporary services of typists certified by the Civil Service Com-

AN ACT

July 1, 1932.
[H. R. 11638.]
[Public, No. 237.]

To amend section 7 of an Act entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the government of the District of Columbia for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, and for other purposes," approved July 1, 1902, and for other purposes.

Requirement.

"SEC. 7. No person shall engage in or carry on any business, trade, profession, or calling in the District of Columbia for which a license fee or tax is imposed by the terms of this section without having first obtained a license so to do. Applications for licenses shall be made to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent in accordance with the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved March 3, 1917, and no license shall be granted until payment for the same shall have been made. Every license shall specify by name the person, firm, or corporation to which it shall be issued, the business, trade, profession, or calling for which it is granted, and the location at which such business, trade, profession, or calling is to be carried on. Licenses granted under the terms of this section may be assigned or transferred on application upon the conditions applicable to granting the original licenses, and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent shall issue a certificate of such assignment or transfer upon the payment to the District of Columbia of a fee of $1 therefor. All licenses and transfers issued or granted shall be signed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their designated agent and impressed with a seal to be adopted by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

"REGISTERS

"PAR. 42c. It shall be the duty of every licensee to keep a register, approved by the commissioners, in which shall be entered, in the English language, the date of the application for employment, the name and address of the applicant to whom employment is promised or offered, the amount of the fee received, and, whenever possible, the names and addresses of former employers or persons to whom such applicant is known. Such licensee shall also enter in a separate register, approved by the commissioners, in the English language, the name and address of every applicant accepted for help, the date of such application, kind of help requested, the names of the persons sent, with the designation of the one employed, and the amount of the fee received. The aforesaid registers of applicants for employment and help shall be open during office hours to inspection by the said commissioners. No such licensee shall make any false entry in such registers. It shall be the duty of every licensee, whenever possible, to communicate orally or in writing with at least one of the persons mentioned as references for every applicant for work in private families or employed in a fiduciary capacity, and the result of such investigation shall be kept on file in such agency: Provided, That if the applicant for help voluntarily waives in writing such investigation of references by the licensee, failure on the part of the licensee to make such investigation shall not be deemed a violation of this section.

"RECEIPTS

"PAR. 42d. It shall be the duty of such licensee to give to every applicant for employment from whom a fee shall be received a receipt in which shall be stated the name of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the purpose for which it was paid, and to every applicant for help a receipt stating the name and address of said applicant, the date and amount of the fee, and the kind of help to be provided. Every receipt given by such licensee shall bear the name and address of such licensee printed in large type thereon. Every receipt shall have printed on the back thereof a copy of paragraph 42h of the Act in the English language.

"PAR. 42e. No private employment agency licensed hereunder shall be located in rooms used for living purposes, or in rooms where boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served or persons sleep, or in any building or on premises wherein rooms are located and used for living purposes, or wherein boarders or lodgers are kept, or where meals are served, or persons sleep, or in any building wherein such rooms are located; nor shall any such private employment agency be located in any such building where the entrance thereto is not separate and apart from the entrance to the building proper, or where there is any entrance into the building proper from said private employment agency: Provided, That no one shall be precluded from keeping an employment agency in an office building by reason of there being a café or restaurant in another part of said building.

Licenses of other businesses.

"PAR. 45. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered, when in their discretion such is deemed advisable, to require a license of other businesses or callings not listed herein and which, in their judgment, require inspection, supervision, or regulation by any municipal agency or agencies and to fix the license fee therefor in such amount as, in their judgment, will be commensurate with the cost to the District of Columbia of such inspection, supervision, or regulation, and are further authorized and empowered in their discretion to modify any of the provisions of this section so far as eliminating therefrom any business or calling herein required to be licensed, or to raise or lower the amount of the license fee provided herein, as the cost of inspection, supervision, or regulation is raised or lowered.

“ PAR. 46. The commissioners are further authorized and empowered to make any regulations that may be necessary in furtherance of the purpose of this section and to revoke any license issued hereunder when, in their judgment, such is deemed desirable in the interest of public decency or the protection of lives, limbs, health, comfort, and quiet of the citizens of the District of Columbia, or for any other reason they may deem sufficient.

Regulations to revoke licenses.

“ PAR. 47. Prosecutions for violations of any of the provisions of this section, or of any paragraph added hereto from time to time by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or of any regulation made by the commissioners under authority of this section, shall be on information in the police court of the District of Columbia by the corporation counsel of the District of Columbia or any of his assistants.

Prosecutions for violations.

“ PAR. 48. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, or additions thereto made from time to time by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, where no specific penalty is fixed, or the violation of any regulation made by the commissioners under the authority of this section, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days. Any person failing to file any information required by this section, or by any regulation of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia made under the provisions hereof, or who in filing any such information makes any false or misleading statement, shall upon conviction be fined not more than $300 or imprisoned for not more than ninety days.

Penalties.

Failure to file information.

“ PAR. 49. Any violation of any provision of law or regulation issued hereunder which is repealed by this section and any liability arising under such provisions or regulations may, if the violation occurred or the liability arose prior to such repeal, be prosecuted to the same extent as if this section had not been enacted.

Liability under prior acts.

“ PAR. 50. If any provision of this section is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of the section and the applicability of such provision to other persons and circumstances shall not be affected thereby.

Separability of provisions.

“ PAR. 51. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to refund any license fee or tax, or portion thereof, erroneously paid or collected under this section.”

AN ACT

July 5, 1932.

[H. R. 7501.]

[Public, No. 250.]

To prevent, in the Canal Zone, fire-hunting at night and hunting by means of a spring or trap, and to repeal the Executive orders of September 8, 1909, and January 27, 1914.

Canal Zone. Fire hunting at night, etc., unlawful.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every person who shall hunt at night, between the hours of sunset and sunrise, with the aid or use of a lantern, torch, bonfire, or other artificial light, or who shall hunt by the use of a gun or other firearm intended to be discharged by any animal or bird, by means of a spring or trap, or other similar mechanical device, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalty.

The penalties imposed by this Act shall be in addition to the punishments authorized by the law against carrying arms without a permit.

Executive Orders Nos. 1124, 1884, repealed.

Sec. 2. That the Executive order of September 8, 1909, amending section 454 of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone, and the Executive order of January 27, 1914, numbered 1884, be, and they are hereby, repealed.

Approved, July 5, 1932.

AN ACT

To regulate the carrying and keeping of arms in the Canal Zone.

July 5, 1932.
[H. R. 7502.]
[Public, No. 251.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be unlawful for anyone to carry on or about his person any firearm or any dirk, dagger, or other knife, or other weapon, manufactured or sold for the purpose of offense or defense, or any slung shot, air gun, sword cane, blackjack, or any knuckles made of metal or other hard substance.

Canal Zone.
Carrying of dangerous weapons in, unlawful.

SEC. 2. That the preceding section shall not apply to a person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States, or as a peace officer or officer authorized to execute judicial process of the United States or the Canal Zone, or in carrying mail or in the collection or custody of funds of the United States or the Canal Zone, while such officers or persons are engaged in the performance of their respective duties; nor to a member of a gun or pistol club organized for the promotion of target practice, a certified copy of the constitution and by-laws of which have been approved by the Governor of the Panama Canal and filed with the chief of the police and fire division, when such member is going to or from a target range or is engaged in practice at the target range. A certificate of membership in the gun or pistol club shall be issued by the organization and approved by the chief of police and fire division, which shall entitle the holder to carry firearms as is provided in this section.

Exceptions.

Gun or pistol clubs.

Certificate of membership.

Neither shall the preceding section apply to any person authorized to have or carry arms by permit granted under the terms of this Act.

Permits by Governor.

SEC. 3. That the Governor of the Panama Canal may authorize the granting of permits to have and carry arms, as follows:

Hunting.

1. To hunt upon the public lands of the Canal Zone or upon lands occupied by private persons, when authorized by the latter.

Possession of arms in residences, etc.

2. To have arms in residences, offices, business places, and plantations and to watchmen or overseers of plantations, factories, warehouses, docks, or piers. Applications for such permits shall be made to the Governor of the Panama Canal, and shall contain the full name, residence, and occupation of the applicant; and if the applicant is a minor it shall not be granted without the consent of his parent or guardian; but no permit shall be granted to a minor under fifteen years of age.

Applications.

3. To carry arms in private aircraft for hunting or protection of crew or cargo.

Arms in private aircraft.

SEC. 4. That when an application is granted by the governor for a permit to hunt, he shall indorse his approval thereon and file the application, and he shall cause a permit to be issued to the applicant, upon his payment of a fee of $1.

Fee

Hunting permits issued by virtue of this Act will allow the holder thereof to have, carry, and use firearms in the area or areas prescribed by the Governor of the Panama Canal, and on the conditions imposed by him under such general or special rules and regulations as he may issue from time to time. And the governor is hereby empowered to designate the area or areas of the Canal Zone in which hunting is permitted, and the class of arms that may be used in hunting in such areas; and no hunting shall be allowed outside of the areas so designated by him. And the Governor of the Panama Canal may, in such general or special rules and regulations, impose such other conditions in respect to hunting as he may deem necessary in the interests of public order and to prevent injury to persons or property.

Hunting areas.

Designation by Governor.

Regulations.

Validity of permits.

A permit granted under this section shall run for the fiscal year in which it is issued, and it may be revoked at any time for cause by the Governor of the Panama Canal.

When issued prior hereto.

SEC. 5. That permits heretofore issued by authority of law, to have and use firearms, shall not be affected by this Act, but such permits shall continue in force until the expiration of the period for which they were issued.

Violations unlawful.

SEC. 6. That anyone not authorized by this Act, who carries on or about his person any of the prohibited arms mentioned in section 1 of this Act, or who hunts or engages in hunting without first obtaining the permit provided for in this Act, or who after obtaining such permit engages in hunting in violation of the provisions of this Act or any rule or regulation established by the governor hereunder, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Penalties.

SEC. 7. That penalties for the infringement of this Act shall be in addition to such punishment as may be imposed upon the offending person for any other offense that he may have committed in connection with the carrying or using of arms in violation of this Act.

Provisions repealed.

SEC. 8. That sections 449 to 460 of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone, and the Executive orders of December 1, 1909, November 3, 1911, November 7, 1913, and March 6, 1920, and all other laws in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.

Executive Orders Nos. 1857, 3243.

Approved, July 5, 1932.

AN ACT

To provide for the extradition of fugitives from the justice of the Republic of Panama who seek refuge in the Canal Zone.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all persons who have been condemned, prosecuted, or accused before the courts of the Republic of Panama as authors or accomplices of crimes, transgressions, or offenses against the laws of said Republic, who seek refuge in the Canal Zone, shall be, upon apprehension, taken into custody by the authorities of the Canal Zone and delivered to the authorities of the Republic of Panama, upon the demand of the Government of that Republic and compliance with the procedure hereinafter prescribed.

Canal Zone.
Extradition of fugitives from the Republic of Panama.

Citizens of the United States.

SEC. 2. The government of the Canal Zone is at liberty to decline compliance with a demand of the Government of the Republic of Panama for the arrest and delivery to the authorities of said Republic of a fugitive from the justice of the Republic of Panama when said fugitive is a citizen of the United States. The discretion hereby reserved shall be exercised by the Governor of the Panama Canal.

Prosecution of fugitive under laws of Canal Zone.

SEC. 3. If the person whose arrest and delivery is demanded should be accused of, or under sentence for, any crime, transgression, or offense committed in the Canal Zone, he shall not be delivered to the authorities of the Republic of Panama until he has been acquitted, pardoned, or undergone his sentence pursuant to the provisions of the laws of the Canal Zone.

When probable cause appears, after extradition, of guilt of graver offense.

SEC. 4. If, in the course of the proceedings in the courts of the Republic of Panama, in the case to which the arrest and delivery appertain, it should appear that probable cause exists for believing the delinquent guilty of another and graver offense against the laws of the Republic of Panama than that which gave rise to the request for his apprehension and delivery, the Government of that Republic may prosecute said fugitive for such other offense after notice to that effect to the government of the Canal Zone.

Notice.

SEC. 5. The demand for the arrest and delivery of a fugitive from the justice of the Republic of Panama, pursuant to the terms of this Act, will be complied with when made in writing and signed by the Secretary of Foreign Relations of the Republic of Panama, or by his direction, and presented to the Governor of the Panama Canal. If the demand is for a condemned and fugitive criminal, it must be accompanied by a duly certified copy of sentence pronounced by a court of competent jurisdiction, and, as far as possible, a description of the fugitive sought to be reclaimed.

Demand for arrest and delivery.

Condemned criminals.

SEC. 6. In case of urgency, where there are reasonable grounds for fearing that the fugitive may avoid apprehension, his detention may be asked for by telegraph. The arrest and detention shall be accomplished in the manner and by the officials prescribed by the laws of the Canal Zone, and detentions authorized by this Act shall not continue longer than fifteen days, during which the procedure for securing the delivery of said fugitive to the authorities of the Republic of Panama shall be completed.

Telegraphic requests for detention.

Restriction on period of detention.

SEC. 7. For the purpose of accomplishing the delivery of the fugitives apprehended and delivered in pursuance of this Act the Republic of Panama may send its agent or agents duly authorized to receive said fugitive into the territory of the Canal Zone, but said agent's action and authority shall be limited to receiving such fugitive at the point of departure for return to the Republic of Panama and, at the moment of departure and thenceforth, to exercising the necessary vigilance and restraint to prevent the escape of the person in custody.

Delivery to agent.

SEC. 8. It is hereby made the duty of the authorities of the Canal Zone on the line of transit to provide the person or persons charged with the conveyance of such fugitives so delivered with all the means necessary to prevent escape and to remove all unlawful obstacles that may hinder or delay the return of such fugitives to the territory of the Republic of Panama.

Guarding of fugitives in transit.

SEC. 9. All papers and other objects found in the possession of the fugitive at the time of his detention that refer to the crime, transgression, or offense of which the fugitive is accused or convicted shall be delivered to the Government of the Republic of Panama. These papers and objects must be restored after the conclusion of the case if there are third parties who assert a right to or over them. The authorities of the government of the Canal Zone may provisionally retain said objects and papers so long as they are required for use as evidence in some other case pending or contemplated in the courts of the Canal Zone, whether such case be related or not to the case wherein the demand for the apprehension and return of the fugitive originated.

Fugitive's papers, etc.

SEC. 10. The expense of capture, detention, and transportation of a fugitive from the justice of the Republic of Panama, shall be paid by that Republic; but such expenses shall not include compensation for the services of the judiciary, military, or police authorities of the government of the Canal Zone.

Expenses of capture, etc.

Approved, July 5, 1932.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Authorizing the distribution of Government-owned wheat and cotton to the American National Red Cross and other organizations for relief of distress.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Federal Farm Board is authorized and directed to take such action as may be necessary to deliver to the American National Red Cross, and any other organization designated by the American National Red Cross, on July 1, 1932, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, forty-five million bushels of wheat of the Grain Stabilization Corporation and five hundred thousand bales of cotton of the Cotton Stabilization Corporation, for use in providing food, cloth, and wearing apparel for the needy and distressed people, and in providing feed for livestock in the 1932 crop-failure areas, after the needs of human consumption have been taken care of, in the opinion of the director of the Red Cross, of the United States and Territories. Such wheat or cotton shall be delivered upon application therefor, but only upon the approval of the President of the United States, and in such amounts to each organization as the President may approve.

SEC. 2. No part of the expenses incident to the delivery, receipt, and distribution of such wheat or cotton shall be borne by the United States or the Federal Farm Board. In order to carry out the purposes of this resolution such wheat or the products thereof may be milled or processed into, or exchanged for, flour of any kind, bread, or food, provided, in making such exchange, preference shall be given whenever practicable to foods of which wheat products are a substantial ingredient, or cotton may be manufactured into or exchanged for cloth, or wearing apparel, or other articles of clothing, made of cotton; but such milling, processing, or manufacturing shall be without profit to any mill, organization, or other person.

SEC. 3. In so far as wheat or cotton is donated to relief agencies by the Grain Stabilization Corporation or the Cotton Stabilization Corporation under this resolution the Federal Farm Board is authorized to cancel such part of its loans to such corporation as equals the proportionate part of said loans represented by the wheat or cotton delivered hereunder, less the current market value of the wheat

To grant a right of way or easement over lands of the United States within the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge to the Savanna-Sabula Bridge Company, a corporation, for the construction, maintenance, and operation of a highway between Savanna, Illinois, and Sabula, Iowa.

Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge.

Savanna-Sabula Bridge Company granted right of way over lands within, for highway.
Vol. 46, p. 542.

Description.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to facilitate the construction, maintenance, and operation of a highway, connected with the bridge across the Mississippi River at Savanna, Illinois, authorized by section 2 of the Act of Congress of June 10, 1930 (Public Numbered 330, Seventy-first Congress), between Savanna, Illinois, and Sabula, Iowa, there is hereby granted to the Savanna-Sabula Bridge Company, a corporation, its successors and assigns, a right of way or easement for highway purposes not exceeding three hundred and twenty-five feet in width over lands of the United States in section 8, township 84 north, range 7 east, fifth principal meridian, in Jackson County, Iowa, reserved or acquired for the purposes of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge, said right of way or easement being located as shown on "Plan of bridge site and new roadway for Savanna-Sabula Bridge project, November 16, 1931," attached to and made a part of a certain agreement entered into on the 23d day of December, 1931, between the said Savanna-Sabula Bridge Company and E. C. Hotchkiss, acting superintendent, Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge, pursuant to a certain permit issued to the said Savanna-Sabula Bridge Company by the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Commerce November 30, 1931, to construct, maintain, and operate the aforesaid highway over the aforesaid lands of the United States in the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge: Provided, That there is reserved to the United States in perpetuity, control of all game, fur-bearing animals, wild birds, and other wild life on the right of way or easement herein granted, and such right of way or easement shall at all times be subject to regulations prescribed under authority of the Upper Mississippi River Wild Life and Fish Refuge Act of June 7, 1924 (U. S. C., title 16, ch. 8): Provided further, That in consideration of the granting of this right of way or easement no toll or other charge shall be exacted by the grantee, its successors or assigns, from any of the officers and employees of the United States, including their vehicles, for traversing the aforesaid bridge, or the highway or approach thereto or the right of way or easement hereby granted, while on official duty: And provided further, That said right of way or easement shall not be used, except by special permission of the Secretary of Agriculture, for any purpose other than the construction, maintenance, and operation of said highway, including the fencing of said right of way and diversion of the water in the adjacent stream: Provided further, That the grantee shall at all times permit officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture and the Department of Commerce, of the United States, when in discharge of their official duties in relation to said Upper Mississippi Wild Life and Fish Refuge, free and unobstructed access to, through, and over said highway.

missioners, declaring that said lands are thereby taken for use of the District of Columbia. Said declaration of taking shall contain or have annexed thereto—

(1) A statement of the authority under which and the public use for which the said lands are taken;

(2) A description of the lands taken sufficient for the identification thereof;

(3) A statement of the estate or interest in said lands taken for said public use;

(4) A plan showing the lands taken;

(5) A statement of the sum of money estimated by the commissioners to be just compensation for the land taken.

Title to vest upon filing declaration and deposit of estimated compensation in registry of court.

Vol. 45, p. 1438, amended.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 488, upon the filing of said declaration of taking and the deposit in the registry of the court, for the use of the persons entitled thereto, of the amount of the estimated compensation stated in the declaration, title to the said lands in fee simple absolute, or such less estate or interest therein as is specified in the declaration, shall vest in the District of Columbia, and the lands shall be deemed to be condemned and taken for the use of the District, and the right to just compensation for the same shall vest in the persons entitled thereto. Said compensation shall be ascertained and awarded in said proceedings and established by judgment therein, and the judgment shall include, as part of the just compensation awarded, interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum on the amount finally awarded as the value of the property as of the date of taking, from said date to the date of payment; but interest shall not be allowed on so much thereof as shall have been paid into the registry. No sum so paid into the registry shall be charged with commissions or poundage.

Compensation to be ascertained and awarded.

Money deposited in registry may, on application, be paid forthwith.

Judgment against District for deficiency, if award exceeds deposit.

Against recipient if less.

Recovery.

Provisions for surrendering possession.

Upon the application of the parties in interest, the court may order that the money deposited in the registry of the court, or any part thereof, be paid forthwith for or on account of the just compensation to be awarded in said proceeding. If the compensation finally awarded in respect of said lands, or any parcel thereof, shall exceed the amount of the money so received by any person entitled thereto, the court shall enter judgment against the District for the amount of the deficiency. If the compensation finally awarded in respect of said lands, or any parcel thereof, shall be less than the amount of the money so received the court shall have the power to enter judgment against the party or parties receiving the same for the amount representing the difference between the amount received and the amount awarded by the jury as fair compensation, and writs of execution may be issued thereon within the same time and have the same effect as liens, and shall be executed and returned in the same manner as if issued upon a common-law judgment.

Upon the filing of the declaration of taking, the court shall have power to fix the time within which and the terms upon which the parties in possession shall be required to surrender possession to the petitioners. The court shall have power to make such orders in respect of incumbrances, liens, rents, taxes, assessments, insurance, and other charges, if any, as shall be just and equitable.

Approved, July 8, 1932.

DEALERS TO BE LICENSED

Dealers to be licensed.

SEC. 9. No retail dealer shall within the District of Columbia sell or expose for sale or have in his possession with intent to sell, any pistol, machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, or blackjack without being licensed as hereinafter provided. No wholesale dealer shall, within the District of Columbia, sell, or have in his possession with intent to sell, to any person other than a licensed dealer, any pistol, machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, or blackjack.

DEALERS' LICENSES, BY WHOM GRANTED AND CONDITIONS THEREOF

Conditions, etc., for issuing dealers' licenses. Ante, p. 558.

SEC. 10. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia may, in their discretion, grant licenses and may prescribe the form thereof, effective for not more than one year from date of issue, permitting the licensee to sell pistols, machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, and blackjacks at retail within the District of Columbia subject to the following conditions in addition to those specified in section 9 hereof, for breach of any of which the license shall be subject to forfeiture and the licensee subject to punishment as provided in this Act.

1. The business shall be carried on only in the building designated in the license.

2. The license or a copy thereof, certified by the issuing authority, shall be displayed on the premises where it can be easily read.

4. A true record shall be made in a book kept for the purpose, the form of which may be prescribed by the Commissioners, of all pistols, machine guns, and sawed-off shotguns in the possession of the licensee, which said record shall contain the date of purchase, the caliber, make, model, and manufacturer's number of the weapon, to which shall be added, when sold, the date of sale.

5. A true record in duplicate shall be made of every pistol, machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, and blackjack sold, said record to be made in a book kept for the purpose, the form of which may be prescribed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia and shall be personally signed by the purchaser and by the person effecting the sale, each in the presence of the other and shall contain the date of sale, the name, address, occupation, color, and place of birth of the purchaser, and, so far as applicable, the caliber, make, model, and manufacturer's number of the weapon, and a statement signed by the purchaser that he has never been convicted in the District of Columbia or elsewhere of a crime of violence. One copy of said record shall, within seven days, be forwarded by mail to the superintendent of police of the District of Columbia and the other copy retained by the seller for six years.

6. No pistol or imitation thereof or placard advertising the sale thereof shall be displayed in any part of said premises where it can readily be seen from the outside. No license to sell at retail shall be granted to anyone except as provided in this section.

Records.

Display, etc., forbidden.

FALSE INFORMATION FORBIDDEN

SEC. 11. No person, shall, in purchasing a pistol or in applying for a license to carry the same, or in purchasing a machine gun, sawed-off shotgun, or blackjack within the District of Columbia, give false information or offer false evidence of his identity.

False information or evidence forbidden.

ALTERATION OF IDENTIFYING MARKS PROHIBITED

SEC. 12. No person shall within the District of Columbia change, alter, remove, or obliterate the name of the maker, model, manufacturer's number, or other mark or identification on any pistol, machine gun, or sawed-off shotgun. Possession of any pistol, machine gun, or sawed-off shotgun upon which any such mark shall have been changed, altered, removed, or obliterated shall be prima facie evidence that the possessor has changed, altered, removed, or obliterated the same within the District of Columbia: Provided, however, That nothing contained in this section shall apply to any officer or agent of any of the departments of the United States or the District of Columbia engaged in experimental work.

Alteration, etc., of identification marks, prohibited.

Proviso. Experimental work.

AN ACT

To amend an Act of Congress approved June 18, 1898, entitled "An Act to regulate plumbing and gas fitting in the District of Columbia."

July 14, 1932.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That sections 3 and 4 of the Act of Congress approved June 18, 1898, entitled "An Act to regulate plumbing and gas fitting in the District of Columbia," be, and the same are hereby, amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. That applicants for licenses as master plumbers and gas fitters or master gas fitters, who are citizens of the United States, must be twenty-one years of age, must make application in their own handwriting, and must accompany such application with a certificate as to good character signed by at least three reputable residents of the District of Columbia, two of whom shall certify that the applicants have had at least four years' experience in the plumbing and gas-fitting business.

"SEC. 4. That all renewals of existing licenses and all new licenses as a master plumber and gas fitter or master gas fitter shall be for a period of not more than one year and that the fee for such license shall be not less than $10 nor more than $25 per annum, to be fixed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, for a license year beginning January 1 and ending December 31. Such special license fee shall be separate from, or in addition to any contractors' or business license tax, hereafter fixed for this and similar occupations by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia according to law. Licenses issued at any time after the beginning of the year shall date from the first day of the month in which the license is issued and end on the last day of the license year, and payment shall be made of a proportional amount of the annual license fee. Any licensee may apply for and receive a license for or on behalf of any firm, copartnership, or corporation that he is a bona fide member of, or a substantial stockholder in, but all plumbing or gas fitting done pursuant to such license shall be done under the immediate personal supervision of the licensed man.

"The Commissioners of the District of Columbia or their duly authorized agent shall have the power to suspend or revoke any plumber's or gas fitter's license for a violation of the plumbing or gas-fitting regulations after a public hearing granted the licensee or after conviction in court for such violation or for conduct involving moral turpitude. This Act shall become effective on the 1st day of January following its enactment."

Approved, July 14, 1932.

Duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be established in the District of Columbia a Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole for the penal institutions for said District, to consist of three members, residents of said District, to be appointed by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, none of which members shall be officially connected with the prison administration in any other capacity; that of the three members first appointed after the passage of this Act, one shall be appointed for three years, one for five years, and one for seven years; thereafter all appointments, except such as may be made for the remainder of unexpired terms, shall be for the term of seven years. It shall be the duty of the Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole to examine into the physical, mental, and moral records of the prisoners committed to the penal institutions of the District; receive reports of wardens and other officials, including the psychiatrist; recommend the treatment which, in their opinion, is most conducive to the prisoners' reformation; and provide for a system of determining the proper time of release and the rehabilitation of the ex-prisoner in the community. The board shall adopt rules and regulations for its procedure, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of District of Columbia. The members of the board shall serve without compensation: Provided, That actual and necessary traveling expenses of the members of the board, incurred in the performance of duties under this Act, shall be allowed and paid as herein provided.

SEC. 2. The Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole shall, subject to the approval of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, appoint parole officers, in such number as shall be approved by Congress from time to time, for the penal institutions of said District, one of whom shall also act as the clerk of said Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole. It shall be the duty of such officers, subject to the discretion and control of said board, to perform such duties and exercise such authority as the said board may direct. Salaries and the actual and necessary traveling expenses of each such parole officer shall be paid out of the appropriation for the maintenance of the penal institution to which he is assigned and receive compensation in accordance with the rates established by the Personnel Classification Act of 1923. (All other necessary expenses incurred in the administration of this Act shall be paid out of the appropriations for the penal institutions from which prisoners are paroled, and such appropriations are hereby made available therefor.)

SEC. 3. That hereafter, in imposing sentence on a person convicted in the District of Columbia of a felony, the justice or judge of the court imposing such sentence shall sentence the person for a maximum period, not exceeding the maximum fixed by law, and for a minimum period not exceeding one-fifth of the maximum period fixed by law, and any person so convicted and sentenced may be released on parole as herein provided at any time after having served the minimum sentence: Provided, however, That this Act shall not abrogate the power of the justice or judge to sentence a convicted prisoner to the death penalty as now or hereafter may be provided by law: Provided further, That where a justice or a judge of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia has imposed a life sentence on the prisoner convicted in the District of Columbia, said prisoner serving such sentence shall be eligible to parole as herein provided at any time after having served fifteen years of his life's sentence.

SEC. 4. That whenever, within the limitations of section 3 of this Act, it shall appear to the Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole, from the reports of the prisoner's work and conduct which may be received in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed, and from the study and examination made by the board itself, that any prisoner serving an indeterminate sentence is fitted by his training for release, that there is a reasonable probability that such a prisoner will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and in the opinion of the board such release is not incompatible with the welfare of society, said Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole may, in its discretion, authorize the release of such prisoner on parole, and he shall be allowed to go on parole, outside of said prison, and in the discretion of the board to return to his home upon such terms and conditions, including personal reports from said paroled prisoner, as said Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole shall prescribe, and to remain, while on parole, in the legal custody and under the control of the superintendent of the institution from which the prisoner may have been paroled, until the expiration of the maximum of the term or terms specified in his sentence, less such good-time allowance as is, or may hereinafter be,

Violation of parole. Apprehension of prisoner.

SEC. 5. If said Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole, or any member thereof, shall have reliable information that a prisoner has violated his parole, said board, or any member thereof, at any time within the term or terms of the prisoner's sentence, may issue a warrant to any officer hereinafter authorized to execute the same for the retaking of such prisoner. Any officer of the penal institution from which such prisoner shall have been paroled or any Federal officer authorized to serve criminal process within the United States to whom such warrant shall be delivered is authorized and required to execute such warrant by taking such prisoner and returning him to said penal institution.

Hearings, etc., before board.

SEC. 6. At the next meeting of the Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole held after the issuing of a warrant for the retaking of any paroled prisoner, said board shall be notified thereof, and if such prisoner shall have been returned to the institution, he shall be given an opportunity to appear before said Board of Indeterminate Sentence and Parole, and the said board may then, or at any time in its discretion, revoke the order and terminate such parole or modify the terms and conditions thereof and if such order of parole be revoked and the parole so terminated the said prisoner shall serve the remainder of the sentence originally imposed, the unexpired term of imprisonment of any such prisoner to begin to run from the date he is returned to the institution, and time the prisoner was out on parole shall not be taken into account to diminish the time for which he was sentenced: Provided, That the parole board, at its discretion, may afterwards grant a new parole to said prisoner, in the event said board should deem it advisable.

Discretionary revocation or modification of parole order.

Original sentence imposed.

SEC. 7. That all Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent with the provisions of the Act are hereby repealed: Provided, however, That for any felony committed before this Act takes effect, the penalty, sentence, or forfeiture provided by law for such felony at the time such felony was committed shall remain in full force and effect and shall be imposed, notwithstanding this Act.

Proviso.

AN ACT

To relieve destitution, to broaden the lending powers of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and to create employment by providing for and expediting a public-works program.

July 21, 1932.
[H. R. 9642.]
[Public, No. 302.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932."

Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932.

Relief of destitution.

TITLE I—RELIEF OF DESTITUTION

SECTION 1. (a) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to make available out of the funds of the corporation the sum of $300,000,000, under the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, to the several States and Territories, to be used in furnishing relief and work relief to needy and distressed people and in relieving the hardship resulting from unemployment, but not more than 15 per centum of such sum shall be available to any one State or Territory. Such sum of $300,000,000 shall, until the expiration of two years after the date of enactment of this Act, be Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Sum authorized from funds of, for relief of destitute persons, etc. Ante, p. 5.

Limitation to any one State, etc.

Available for two years.
Payment to governors on approved application, etc.

Interest on payments.

Reimbursement, by deductions from future aid, under Federal Highway Act.

Computation.

Deduction subject to State, etc., agreements, except in default.

Means of recovery in default of agreement.

Terms imposed on loans to Puerto Rico and Alaska.

Certificate of necessity, etc., to accompany Governor's application.

Governor to administer funds.

Statements of disbursements to be filed with State auditor, etc.

Applications otherwise acceptable not denied by legal inhibitions.

available for payment to the governors of the several States and Territories for the purposes of this section, upon application therefor by them in accordance with subsection (c), and upon approval of such applications by the corporation.

(b) All amounts paid under this section shall bear interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, and, except in the case of Puerto Rico and the Territory of Alaska, shall be reimbursed to the corporation, with interest thereon at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, by making annual deductions, beginning with the fiscal year 1935, from regular apportionments made from future Federal authorizations in aid of the States and Territories for the construction of highways and rural post roads, of an amount equal to one-fifth of the share which such State or Territory would be entitled to receive under such apportionment, except for the provisions of this section, or of an amount equal to one-fifth of the amounts so paid to the governor of such State or Territory pursuant to this section and all accrued interest thereon to the date of such deduction, whichever is the lesser, until the sum of such deductions equals the total amounts paid under this section and all accrued interest thereon. Whenever any such deduction is made, the Secretary of the Treasury shall immediately pay to the corporation an amount equal to the amount so deducted. If any State or Territory shall, within two years after the date of enactment of this Act, enter into an agreement with the corporation for the repayment to the corporation of the amounts paid under this section to the governor of such State or Territory, with interest thereon as herein provided, in such installments and upon such terms as may be agreed upon, then the deduction under this subsection shall not be made unless such State or Territory shall be in default in the performance of the terms of such agreement. In the case of a default by the State or Territory in any such agreement, the agreement shall thereupon be terminated and reimbursement of the unpaid balance of the amount covered by such agreement shall be made by making annual deductions in the manner above provided (beginning with the fiscal year next following such default) from regular apportionments made to such State or Territory from future Federal authorizations in aid of the States and Territories for the construction of highways and rural post roads. Before any amount is paid under this section to the Governor of Puerto Rico or of the Territory of Alaska, Puerto Rico or the Territory of Alaska shall enter into an agreement with the corporation for the repayment of such amount with interest thereon as herein provided, in such installments and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

(c) The governor of any State or Territory may from time to time make application for funds under this section, and in each application so made shall certify the necessity for such funds and that the resources of the State or Territory, including moneys then available and which can be made available by the State or Territory, its political subdivisions, and private contributions, are inadequate to meet its relief needs. All amounts paid to the governor of a State or Territory under this section shall be administered by the governor, or under his direction, and upon his responsibility. The governor shall file with the corporation and with the auditor of the State or Territory (or, if there is no auditor, then with the official exercising comparable authority) a statement of the disbursements made by him under this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the corporation to deny an otherwise acceptable application under this section because of constitutional or other legal inhibitions or because the State or Territory has borrowed to the full extent authorized by law. Whenever an application under this section is approved by the corporation in whole or in part, the amount approved shall be immediately paid to the governor of the State or Territory upon delivery by him to the corporation of a receipt therefor stating that the payment is accepted subject to the terms of this section.

Immediate payment to governor, on approval.

(e) Any portion of the amount approved by the corporation for payment to the governor of a State or Territory shall, at his request, and with the approval of the corporation, be paid to any municipality or political subdivision of such State or Territory if (1) the governor makes as to such municipality or political subdivision a like certificate as provided in subsection (c) as to the State or Territory, and (2) such municipality or political subdivision enters into an agreement with the corporation for the repayment to the corporation of the amount so paid, with interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum, at such times, and upon such other terms and conditions, as may be agreed upon between the corporation and such municipality or political subdivision. The amount paid to any municipality or political subdivision under this subsection shall not be included in any amounts reimbursable to the corporation under subsection (b) of this section.

Payments to municipalities, etc., on like certificate.

Terms.

Separation of amounts.

(f) As used in this section the term "Territory" means Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

"Territory" defined.

TITLE II—LOANS BY RECONSTRUCTION FINANCE CORPORATION

Loans by Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

SEC. 201. (a) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered—

Powers enlarged. Ante, p. 6.

(1) to make loans to, or contracts with, States, municipalities, and political subdivisions of States, public agencies of States, of municipalities, and of political subdivisions of States, public corporations, boards and commissions, and public municipal instrumentalities of one or more States, to aid in financing projects authorized under Federal, State, or municipal law which are self-liquidating in character, such loans or contracts to be made through the purchase of their securities, or otherwise, and for such purpose the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized to bid for such securities: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, in carrying out the provisions of this paragraph, from purchasing securities having a maturity of more than ten years;

Financing construction of self-liquidating projects, through purchase of their securities.

(2) to make loans to corporations formed wholly for the purpose of providing housing for families of low income, or for reconstruction of slum areas, which are regulated by State or municipal law as to rents, charges, capital structure, rate of return, and areas and methods of operation, to aid in financing projects undertaken by such corporations which are self-liquidating in character;

Provided. Long-term securities.

(3) to make loans to private corporations to aid in carrying out the construction, replacement, or improvement of bridges, tunnels, docks, viaducts, waterworks, canals, and markets, devoted to public use and which are self-liquidating in character;

To aid corporations in providing housing, slum reconstruction, etc., under government regulation.

Aiding public works of self-liquidating character.

(4) to make loans to private limited dividend corporations to aid in financing projects for the protection and development of forests and other renewable natural resources, which are reg-

To limited dividend corporations in aid of reforestation, etc., under regulation.

Reimbursable loans for bridge construction.	ulated by a State or political subdivision of a State and are self-liquidating in character; and
Purchase of bonds.	(5) to make loans to aid in financing the construction of any publicly owned bridge to be used for railroad, railway, and highway uses, the construction cost of which will be returned in part by means of tolls, fees, rents, or other charges, and the remainder by means of taxes imposed pursuant to State law enacted before the date of enactment of the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932; and the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is further authorized and empowered to purchase bonds of any State, municipality, or other public body or agency issued for the purpose of financing the construction of any such bridge irrespective of the dates of maturity of such bonds.
Self-liquidating project defined.	For the purposes of this subsection a project shall be deemed to be self-liquidating if such project will be made self-supporting and financially solvent and if the construction cost thereof will be returned within a reasonable period by means of tolls, fees, rents, or other charges, or by such other means (other than by taxation) as may be prescribed by the statutes which provide for the project.
Restriction on use of convict labor.	All loans and contracts made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in respect of projects of the character specified in paragraphs (1) to (5) of this subsection shall be subject to the conditions that no convict labor shall be directly employed on any such project, and that (except in executive, administrative, and supervisory positions), so far as practicable, no individual directly employed on any such project shall be permitted to work more than thirty hours in any one week, and that in the employment of labor in connection with any such project preference shall be given, where they are qualified, to ex-service men with dependents.
Hours of employment.
Preference to ex-service men.
Provisions extended to projects in Puerto Rico and Territories.	The provisions of this subsection shall apply with respect to projects in Puerto Rico and the Territories to the same extent as in the case of projects in the several States, and as used in this subsection the term "States" includes Puerto Rico and the Territories.
Monthly reports to be submitted.	(b) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation shall submit monthly to the President and to the Senate and the House of Representatives (or the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House of Representatives, if those bodies are not in session) a report of its activities and expenditures under this section and under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, together with a statement showing the names of the borrowers to whom loans and advances were made, and the amount and rate of interest involved in each case.
Financing sales of agricultural products in foreign markets.	(c) In order that the surpluses of agricultural products may not have a depressing effect upon current prices of such products, the corporation is authorized and directed to make loans, in such amounts as may in its judgment be necessary, for the purpose of financing sales of such surpluses in the markets of foreign countries in which such sales can not be financed in the normal course of commerce; but no such sales shall be financed by the corporation if, in its judgment, such sales will affect adversely the world markets for such products: Provided, however, That no such loan shall be made to finance the sale in the markets of foreign countries of cotton owned by the Federal Farm Board or the Cotton Stabilization Corporation.
Restrictions.
Proviso. Cotton held by Farm Board, etc., excluded.
Aiding corporations in marketing agricultural commodities, etc.	(d) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to make loans to bona fide institutions, organized under the laws of any State or of the United States and having resources adequate for their undertakings, for the purpose of enabling them to finance the carrying and orderly marketing of agricultural commodities and livestock produced in the United States.

(e) The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is further authorized to create in any of the twelve Federal land-bank districts where it may deem the same to be desirable a regional agricultural credit corporation with a paid-up capital of not less than $3,000,000, to be subscribed for by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and paid for out of the unexpended balance of the amounts allocated and made available to the Secretary of Agriculture under section 2 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act. Such corporations shall be managed by officers and agents to be appointed by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under such rules and regulations as its board of directors may prescribe. Such corporations are hereby authorized and empowered to make loans or advances to farmers and stockmen, the proceeds of which are to be used for an agricultural purpose (including crop production), or for the raising, breeding, fattening, or marketing of livestock, to charge such rates of interest or discount thereon as in their judgment are fair and equitable, subject to the approval of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and to rediscount with the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and the various Federal reserve banks and Federal intermediate credit banks any paper that they acquire which is eligible for such purpose. All expenses incurred in connection with the operation of such corporations shall be supervised and paid by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation under such rules and regulations as its board of directors may prescribe.

(f) All loans made under this section, and all contracts of the character described in paragraph (1) of subsection (a), shall be fully and adequately secured. The corporation, under such conditions as it shall prescribe, may take over or provide for the administration and liquidation of any collateral accepted by it as security for such loans. Such loans shall be made on such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this Act, as the corporation may prescribe, and may be made directly upon promissory notes or by way of discount or rediscount of obligations tendered for the purpose, or otherwise in such form and in such amount and at such interest or discount rates as the corporation may approve: Provided, That no loans or advances (except loans under subsection (c)) shall be made upon foreign securities or foreign acceptances as collateral.

(g) Each such loan may be made for a period not exceeding three years, and the corporation may, from time to time, extend the time of payment of any such loan, through renewal, substitution of new obligations, or otherwise, but the time for such payment shall not be extended beyond five years from the date upon which such loan was made originally: Provided, That loans or contracts of the character described in subsection (a) may be made for a period not exceeding ten years: Provided further, That loans or contracts of the character described in paragraph (1) or (5) of subsection (a) may be made for a period exceeding ten years when it is the judgment of the board of directors of the corporation that it is necessary to purchase securities as provided in such paragraphs and that it is not practicable to require the reimbursement of the corporation, within ten years, through the repurchase or payment of such securities, or in any other manner.

(h) The corporation may make loans under this section at any time prior to January 23, 1934.

(i) No fee or commission shall be paid by any applicant for a loan under the provisions of this section in connection with any such application or any loan made or to be made under this section, and the agreement to pay or payment of any such fee or commission shall be unlawful.

SEC. 204. Section 8 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act is amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 8. In order to enable the corporation to carry out the provisions of this Act and the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932, the Treasury Department, the Federal Farm Loan Board, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board, the Federal reserve banks, and the Interstate Commerce Commission are hereby authorized, under such conditions as they may prescribe, to make available to the corporation, in confidence, such reports, records, or other information as they may have available relating to the condition of applicants with respect to whom the corporation has had or contemplates having transactions under either of such Acts, or relating to individuals, associations, partnerships, corporations, or other obligors whose obligations are offered to or held by the corporation as security for loans under either of such Acts, and to make, through their examiners or other employees for the confidential use of the corporation, examinations of applicants for loans. Every applicant for a loan under either of such Acts shall, as a condition precedent thereto, consent to such examination as the corporation may require for the purposes of either of such Acts and that reports of examinations by constituted authorities may be furnished by such authorities to the corporation upon request therefor."

SEC. 205. (a) The amount of notes, debentures, bonds, or other such obligations which the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered under section 9 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act to have outstanding at any one time is increased to an aggregate of six and three-fifths times its subscribed capital stock.

(b) The first proviso of section 2 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act is amended by inserting after " as set out in section 9 " the following: " (as in force prior to the enactment of the Emergency Relief and Construction Act of 1932), " but the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to continue making loans to farmers under the provisions of such section 2.

SEC. 206. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation is authorized and empowered to make loans under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act to financial institutions, corporations, railroads, and other classes of borrowers specified in section 5 of such Act, organized under the laws of the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico. As used in this title and in section 15 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act the term " State " includes the District of Columbia, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

SEC. 207. No loan or advance shall be approved under this section or under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, directly or indirectly, to any financial institution any officer or director of which is a member of the board of directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation or has been such a member within the twelve months preceding the approval of the loan or advance.

Restriction on loans to institution if officer is a director of corporation.

SEC. 208. (a) The first sentence of section 3 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act is amended, effective at the expiration of ten days after the date of enactment of this Act, to read as follows: "The management of the corporation shall be vested in a board of directors consisting of the Secretary of the Treasury (or, in his absence, the Under Secretary of the Treasury), who shall be a member ex officio, and six other persons appointed by the President of the United States by and with the advice and consent of the Senate."

Board of directors. Composition modified. Ante, p. 5, amended.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect in any manner the terms of office of the appointed members of the board of directors of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, nor to require their reappointment.

Terms of appointed members.

SEC. 209. Section 9 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

Corporation obligations. Ante, p. 9, amended.

"The Secretary of the Treasury, at the request of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, is authorized to market for the corporation its notes, debentures, bonds, and other such obligations, using therefor all the facilities of the Treasury Department now authorized by law for the marketing of obligations of the United States. The proceeds of the obligations of the corporation so marketed shall be deposited in the same manner as proceeds derived from the sale of obligations of the United States, and the amount thereof shall be credited to the corporation on the books of the Treasury."

Marketing, etc.

Proceeds credited to corporation.

SEC. 210. Section 13 of the Federal Reserve Act, as amended, is further amended by adding after the second paragraph thereof the following new paragraph:

Federal Reserve Act, amendment. Vol. 33, p. 264; Vol. 39, p. 752; Vol. 42, p. 1479. U. S. C., p. 281.

"In unusual and exigent circumstances, the Federal Reserve Board, by the affirmative vote of not less than five members, may authorize any Federal reserve bank, during such periods as the said board may determine, at rates established in accordance with the provisions of section 14, subdivision (d), of this Act, to discount for any individual, partnership, or corporation, notes, drafts, and bills of exchange of the kinds and maturities made eligible for discount for member banks under other provisions of this Act when such notes, drafts, and bills of exchange are indorsed and otherwise secured to the satisfaction of the Federal reserve bank: Provided, That before discounting any such note, draft, or bill of exchange for an individual or a partnership or corporation the Federal reserve bank shall obtain evidence that such individual, partnership, or corporation is unable to secure adequate credit accommodations from other banking institutions. All such discounts for individuals, partnerships, or corporations shall be subject to such limitations, restrictions, and regulations as the Federal Reserve Board may prescribe."

Discounting in emergency paper eligible for discount if satisfactorily secured.

Proviso. Permitted only if unable to secure accommodation.

Limitations imposed.

SEC. 211. The first paragraph of section 5 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 5. To aid in financing agriculture, commerce, and industry, including facilitating the exportation of agricultural and other products the corporation is authorized and empowered to make loans, upon such terms and conditions not inconsistent with this Act as it may determine, to any bank, savings bank, trust company, building and loan association, insurance company, mortgage loan com-

TITLE III—PUBLIC WORKS

Appropriation for emergency construction of.
Vol. 46, p. 1086.

SEC. 301. (a) For the purpose of providing for emergency construction of certain authorized public works with a view to increasing employment and carrying out the policy declared in the Employment Stabilization Act of 1931, there is hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $322,224,000, which shall be allocated as follows:

Allocations.

Federal highways.

(1) For expenditure in emergency construction on the Federal-aid highway system, $120,000,000. Such sum shall be apportioned by the Secretary of Agriculture to the several States by the method provided in section 21 of the Federal Highway Act, as amended and supplemented (U. S. C., title 23, sec. 21). The amounts apportioned to the States shall be available as a temporary advance of funds to meet the provisions of such Act as to State funds. The amount apportioned to any State under this paragraph may be used to match the regular annual Federal-aid apportionments made to such State (including the one for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933), and when so used such amount shall be available for expenditure in paying the share of such State in the cost of Federal-aid projects. No amounts apportioned under this paragraph shall be advanced except for work on the Federal-aid highway system performed before July 1, 1933: Provided, That the amounts so advanced shall be reimbursed to the Federal Government over a period of ten years, commencing with the fiscal year 1938, by making annual deductions from regular apportionments made from future authorizations for carrying out the provisions of such Act, as amended and supplemented: Provided further, That all contracts involving the expenditure of such amounts shall contain provisions establishing minimum rates of wages, to be predetermined by the State highway department, which contractors shall pay to skilled and unskilled labor, and such minimum rates shall be stated in the invitation for bids and shall be included in proposals or bids for the work: And provided further, That in the expenditure of such amounts, the limitations in the Federal Highway Act, as amended and supplemented, upon highway construction, reconstruction, and bridges within municipalities and upon payments per mile which may be made from Federal funds, shall not apply. As used in this paragraph, the term "State" includes the Territory of Hawaii. The term "highway," as defined in the Federal Highway Act, approved November 9, 1921, as amended and supplemented, for the purposes of this paragraph only, shall be deemed to include such main State parkways as may be designated by the State and approved by the Secretary of Agriculture as part of the Federal-aid highway system.

(2) For expenditure in emergency construction during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1933, $16,000,000, as follows: (A) For the construction and improvement of national-forest highways, $5,000,000; (B) for the construction and maintenance of roads, trails, bridges, fire lanes, and so forth, including the same objects specified in the paragraph commencing with the words "Improvement of the national forests" under the heading "National Forest Administration" in the Agricultural Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1932, approved February 23, 1931 (46 Stat. 1242), $5,000,000; (C) for the construction, reconstruction, and improvement of roads and trails, inclusive of necessary bridges, in the national parks and national monuments under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, including areas to be established as national parks authorized under the Act of May 22, 1926 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 16, secs. 403 to 403c), and under the Act of May 25, 1926 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 16, secs. 404 to 404c), and national park and monument approach roads authorized by the Act of January 31, 1931 (46 Stat. 1053), as amended, or any one section of such roads of not less than eight miles, which crosses lands wholly or to the extent of 90 per centum owned by the Government of the United States, $3,000,000; (D) for construction and improvement of Indian reservation roads under the provisions of the Act approved May 26, 1928 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 25, sec. 318a), $1,000,000; and (E) for the survey, construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of main roads through unappropriated or unreserved public lands, nontaxable Indian lands, or other Federal reservations other than the forest reservations, under the provisions of section 3 of the Federal Highway Act, as amended and supplemented (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 23, secs. 3 and 3a), $2,000,000. The Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of the Interior, respectively, are authorized to make rules and regulations for carrying out the foregoing provisions of this section with a view to providing the maximum employment of local labor consistent with reasonable economy of construction.

(3) For the prosecution of river and harbor projects heretofore authorized, $30,000,000.

(4) For the prosecution of flood-control projects heretofore authorized, $15,500,000.

(5) For the continuation of construction of the Hoover Dam and incidental works, as authorized by the Boulder Canyon Project Act, approved December 21, 1928 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 43, ch. 12A), $10,000,000.

(6) For expenditure by the Department of Commerce for air-navigation facilities, including equipment, $500,000.

(7) For constructing or purchasing and equipping lighthouse tenders and light vessels for the Lighthouse Service as may be specifically approved by the Secretary of Commerce, $950,000, and for establishing and improving aids to navigation and other works as may be specifically approved by the Secretary of Commerce, $2,860,000.

(8) For the engineering work of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, Department of Commerce, heretofore authorized, $1,250,000.

(9) For the construction of projects included in the report of the Federal Employment Stabilization Board, laid before the Senate January 25, 1932, which have heretofore been authorized or which do not require specific authorization, under the Bureau of Yards and Docks, Navy Department, $10,000,000, of which not to exceed $300,000 shall be available for the employment of classified personal services in the Bureau of Yards and Docks and in the field service

Federal Highway Act, amendment.
Vol. 42, p. 213.
U. S. C., p. 636.

SEC. 304. The last paragraph of section 6 of the Federal Highway Act, approved November 9, 1921, as amended and supplemented (U. S. C., title 23, sec. 6), is hereby amended to read as follows:

State permitted additional mileage construction, when requisite 90 per cent completed.

"Whenever provision has been made by any State for the completion and maintenance of 90 per centum of its system of primary or interstate and secondary or intercounty highways equal to 7 per centum of the total mileage of such State, as required by this Act, said State through its State highway department, by and with the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, is hereby authorized to increase the mileage of the primary or interstate and secondary or intercounty systems by additional mileage equal to not more than 1 per centum of said total mileage of such State, and thereafter to make like increases in the mileage of said systems whenever provision has been made for the completion and maintenance of 90 per centum of the mileage of said systems previously authorized in accordance herewith."

Acquisition of sites for emergency construction.

SEC. 305. After the date of the enactment of this Act, in the acquisition of any land or site for the purposes of section 301 (a) (10):

Period for proposals reduced.

(1) The period of solicitation of proposals by public advertisement shall be ten days in lieu of twenty days;

Not applicable in public domain.
R. S., sec. 355, p. 60.

(2) In any case in which such site or land is to be acquired by condemnation, the provisions of section 355 of the Revised Statutes, as amended, shall not apply; and Land, etc., for public use.

Vol. 46, p. 1421, amended.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1 of the Act entitled "An Act to expedite the construction of public buildings and works outside of the District of Columbia by enabling possession and title of sites to be taken in advance of final judgment in proceedings for the acquisition thereof under the power of eminent domain," approved February 26, 1931 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 40, sec. 258a), in any case in which any land or any interest therein is to be acquired by condemnation, the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Attorney General, may, prior to the institution of condemnation proceedings, file with the clerk of the district court of the district in which such land is located a declaration of taking, containing the matters required by such section to be included in a declaration of taking. The declaration of taking shall be accompanied by the deposit with such clerk, to the use of the parties who may be found to be entitled thereto, of the amount of the estimated compensation stated in the declaration. As soon as practicable after the filing of such declaration of taking, the Secretary of the Treasury shall cause to be posted in a prominent place upon the land a notice reciting (A) that the land or the interest therein is taken by the United States for public use, (B) that a declaration of taking in respect of such land or interest therein has been filed with the clerk of the court of the district, and (C) that there has been deposited with such clerk, to the use of the parties who may be found to be entitled thereto, the estimated just compensation for the land or interest therein taken. The Secretary of the Treasury shall give written notice similar to the posted notice, by personal service in the case of actual occupants of the premises or, if with reasonable diligence such personal service can not be made, he shall send such notice by registered mail directed to the premises, and he shall send notice by registered mail directed to their last known address in the case of all parties who the Secretary ascertains have or may have an interest in such land, and he may give such additional notice by newspaper publication or otherwise as he deems necessary. Upon posting notice on the land, title to the land or interest therein shall vest in the United States, and the right to just compensation therefor shall vest in the parties entitled thereto. The Secretary of the Treasury shall cause notice to be personally served upon, or if with reasonable diligence such service can not be made, to be sent by registered mail to actual occupants of the premises, setting a time (not earlier than twenty days after the service or sending of such notice) at which such parties shall surrender possession, and at the end of such time the right to possession shall vest in the United States. The Secretary of the Treasury may designate any person to serve any notice under the preceding provisions of this subsection and such person shall have power to enter upon such land for the purpose of posting notice or to make personal service of notice. If any such party fails or refuses so to surrender possession, upon summary petition for an order to surrender possession filed in such district court by or on behalf of the Secretary of the Treasury, the court may, by writ of assistance or other process, order the surrender of possession. A petition in condemnation shall be filed in such district court as soon after the filing of the declaration of taking as practicable. In any such condemnation proceeding, no further declaration of taking shall be required, and the provisions of section 1 of such Act of February 26, 1931, authorizing the court to fix the time when parties in possession shall be required to surrender possession, shall not apply. If such petition for condemnation is not filed within a reasonable time after the filing of such declaration of taking, any person entitled to just compensation in respect of the property so taken shall be entitled to sue the United States in the court in which such declaration of taking was filed. The procedure in such suit shall be the same as in suits against the United States founded upon contract, except that such suit may be heard even if the amount of the claim is greater than $10,000 and except that the procedure for the ascertainment of the amount of just compensation shall be the same as such procedure in condemnation proceedings. If the petition for condemnation is filed prior to the time the commissioners in condemnation, jurors, or other persons charged with the duty of valuing the property are empaneled, such suit shall be dismissed, except that such suit and the condemnation proceedings may, in the discretion of the court, and under rules prescribed by it, be consolidated to such extent as the court may deem practicable. In any suit authorized to be brought under this subsection or in any condemnation proceeding involving land acquired in accordance with this subsection, the court shall enter judgment against the United States in favor of the parties entitled for the sum or sums awarded as just compensation, respectively, for the land or interest therein taken for the use of the United States and such judgment shall be paid out of the sums deposited with the court and such additional sums as may be awarded shall be paid in the same manner as sums awarded in judgments in cases in which the United States has consented to be sued. The provisions of such Act of February 26, 1931, except as modified by this subsection, shall apply to all such suits or condemnation proceedings. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to be in substitution for, but shall be supplemental to, any method of acquiring land or interests therein provided in existing law.

AN ACT

Relating to loans to veterans on their adjusted-service certificates.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the first sentence of subdivision (b) of section 502 of the World War Adjusted Compensation Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 38, sec. 642(b)), is hereby amended to read as follows:

"(b) Any national bank, or any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of any State, Territory, possession, or the District of Columbia (hereinafter in this section called 'bank'), is authorized to loan to any veteran upon his promissory note secured by his adjusted-service certificate (with or without the consent of the beneficiary thereof) any amount not in excess of the loan basis (as defined in subdivision (g) of this section) of the certificate".

SEC. 2. (a) Subdivisions (c) and (d) of section 502 of such Act, as amended (U. S. C., title 38, secs. 642(c) and 642(d)), are hereby amended by striking out "6 per centum" wherever occurring in such subdivisions and inserting in lieu thereof " $3\frac{1}{2}$  per centum".

AN ACT

To create Federal Home Loan Banks, to provide for the supervision thereof, and for other purposes.

July 22, 1932.
[H. R. 12280.]
[Public, No. 304.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That this Act may be cited as the "Federal Home Loan Bank Act."

Federal Home Loan
Bank Act.

DEFINITIONS

Definitions.

SEC. 2. As used in this Act—

(1) The term "board" means the Federal Home Loan Bank Board.

"Board."

(2) The term "Federal Home Loan Bank" means a bank established by the board under authority of this Act.

"Federal Home Loan Bank."

(3) The term "State" includes the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands of the United States, and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

"State."

(4) The term "member" (except when used in reference to a member of the board) means any institution which has subscribed for the stock of a Federal Home Loan Bank.

"Member," exception.

(5) The term "home mortgage loan" means a loan made by a member or a nonmember borrower upon the security of a home mortgage.

"Home mortgage loan."

(6) The term "home mortgage" means a first mortgage upon real estate, in fee simple, or leasehold under a renewable lease for not less than ninety-nine years, upon which there is located a dwelling for not more than three families, and shall include, in addition to first mortgages, such classes of first liens as are commonly given to secure advances on real estate by institutions authorized under this Act to become members, under the laws of the State in which the real estate is located, together with the credit instruments, if any, secured thereby.

"Home mortgage."

"Unpaid principal."

(7) The term "unpaid principal," when used in respect of a loan secured by a home mortgage means the principal thereof less the sum of (1) payments made on such principal, and (2) in cases where shares or stock are pledged as security for the loan, the payments made on such shares or stock plus earnings or dividends apportioned or credited thereon.

"Amortized" or "installment" home mortgage loan.

(8) An "amortized" or "installment" home mortgage loan shall, for the purposes of this Act, be a home mortgage loan to be repaid or liquidated in not less than eight years by means of regular weekly, monthly, or quarterly payments made directly in reduction of the debt or upon stock or shares pledged as collateral for the repayment of such loan.

"Nonmember borrower."

(9) The term "nonmember borrower" includes an institution authorized to secure advances from a Federal Home Loan Bank under the provisions of section 6 (e).

Federal Home Loan Banks.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS

Designated number of bank districts with a bank in each district to be created.

SEC. 3. As soon as practicable the board shall divide the continental United States, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Territories of Alaska and Hawaii into not less than eight nor more than twelve districts. Such districts shall be apportioned with due regard to the convenience and customary course of business of the institutions eligible to and likely to subscribe for stock of a Federal Home Loan Bank to be formed under this Act, but no such district shall contain a fractional part of any State. The districts thus created may be readjusted and new districts may from time to time be created by the board, not to exceed twelve in all. Such districts shall be known as Federal Home Loan Bank districts and may be designated by number. As soon as practicable the board shall establish, in each district, a Federal Home Loan Bank at such city as may be designated by the board. Its title shall include the name of the city at which it is established.

Member and non-member borrowers.

ELIGIBILITY OF MEMBERS AND NONMEMBER BORROWERS

Eligible institutions.

SEC. 4. (a) Any building and loan association, savings and loan association, cooperative bank, homestead association, insurance company, or savings bank, shall be eligible to become a member of, or a nonmember borrower of, a Federal Home Loan Bank if such institution (1) is duly organized under the laws of any State or of the United States; (2) is subject to inspection and regulation under the banking laws, or under similar laws, of the State or of the United States; and (3) makes such home mortgage loans as, in the judgment of the board, are long-term loans (and in the case of a savings bank, if, in the judgment of the board, its time deposits, as defined in section 19 of the Federal Reserve Act, warrant its making such loans). No institution shall be eligible to become a member of, or a nonmember borrower of, a Federal Home Loan Bank if, in the judgment of the board, its financial condition is such that advances may not safely be made to such institution or the character of its management or its home-financing policy is inconsistent with sound and economical home financing, or with the purposes of this Act.

Conditions.

Disqualifications.

Membership and privilege restrictions.

(b) An institution eligible to become a member or a nonmember borrower under this section may become a member only of, or secure advances from, the Federal Home Loan Bank of the district in which is located the institution's principal place of business, or of the bank of a district adjoining such district, if demanded by convenience and then only with the approval of the board.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (2) of subsection (a) of this section requiring inspection and regulation under law as a condition with respect to eligibility for membership, any building and loan association which would be eligible to become a member of a Federal Home Loan Bank except for the fact that it is not subject to inspection and regulation under the banking laws or similar laws of the State in which such association is organized shall, upon subjecting itself to such inspection and regulation as the board shall prescribe, be eligible to become a member.

Building, etc., associations not under State regulation eligible if subjecting to prescribed inspection.

(d) Any home owner who comes within the limits of this Act and who is unable to obtain mortgage money from any other source may obtain same from any bank organized under this Act: Provided, That this subsection shall not be effective when the Federal Government has had its stock retired.

Home owners may obtain mortgage money if unable elsewhere. Proviso. Limitation.

SEC. 5. No institution shall be admitted to or retained in membership, or granted the privileges of nonmember borrowers, if the combined total of the amounts paid to it for interest, commission, bonus, discount, premium, and other similar charges, less a proper deduction for all dividends, refunds, and cash credits of all kinds, creates an actual net cost to the home owner in excess of the maximum legal rate of interest or, in case there is a lawful contract rate of interest applicable to such transactions, in excess of such rate (regardless of any exemption from usury laws), or, in case there is no legal rate of interest or lawful contract rate of interest applicable to such transactions, in excess of 8 per centum per annum in the State where such property is located. This section applies only to home mortgage loans made after the enactment of this Act.

Home mortgage loans. Institution disqualified if its charges to home owner exceed legal rate, etc.

Contract interest rate.

CAPITAL OF FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANKS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS THERETO

Federal Home Loan Banks.

SEC. 6. (a) As soon as practicable after the enactment of this Act, the board, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall determine the minimum capital of each Federal Home Loan Bank which shall be not less than $5,000,000. The board shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, open books in each district established under section 3 for subscription to the capital stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank of the district.

Minimum capital.

Subscriptions.

(b) The capital stock of each Federal Home Loan Bank shall be divided into shares of a par value of $100 each. The minimum capital stock shall be issued at par. Stock issued thereafter shall be issued at such price not less than par as may be fixed by the board.

Shares of stock.

(c) The original stock subscription for each institution eligible to become a member under section 4 shall be an amount equal to 1 per centum of the aggregate of the unpaid principal of the subscriber's home mortgage loans, but not less than $1,500. The board shall from time to time adjust the amount of stock held by each member so that, as nearly as possible, such member shall at all times have invested in the stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank at least an amount calculated in the manner provided in the preceding sentence (but not less than $1,500). If the board finds that the investment of any member in stock is greater than that required under this section, upon application of such member, the bank shall pay such member for each share of stock in excess of the amount so required an amount equal to the value of such stock, or, at the election of the bank, the whole or any part of the payments which would be so made shall be credited upon the indebtedness of the member to the bank. In either such event, stock equal in value to the amount of the payment or credit, or both, as the case may be, shall be surrendered and canceled. No share of stock shall be surrendered and canceled if the effect of such surrender and cancellation would be to violate the provisions of section 10 (c) requiring the amount of stock held by such member to equal at least one-twelfth of the outstanding advances to such member.

Cash payment for stock subscriptions.
Installment payments.

(d) Stock subscriptions other than by the United States shall be paid for in cash, and shall be paid for at the time of application therefor, or, at the election of the subscriber, in installments, but not less than one-fourth of the total amount payable shall be paid at the time of filing application, and a further sum of not less than one-fourth of such total shall have been paid at the end of each succeeding period of four months.

Institutions where State laws do not permit stock purchase.

Admitted to borrowing privileges on specified terms, etc.

(e) If the law of the State under which an institution described in section 4 operates does not permit such institution to subscribe for stock in the Federal Home Loan Bank but if such institution has the power to borrow money and give security therefor, the board may permit such institution to obtain advances on the same terms and conditions and subject to the same limitations as members (except that such institution shall not be required, during the period during which advances may be made under this subsection, to subscribe for stock in the Federal Home Loan Bank or to deposit such stock as collateral security as required in section 10), but such institution shall be required to keep on deposit such security, in addition to home mortgages, for such advances, as the board shall determine, which shall equal in value 1 per centum of the aggregate unpaid principal of such institution's home mortgage loans (but not less than $1,500). No advance to any such institution shall be made under authority of this subsection after the State in which the institution is organized enacts legislation authorizing such institution to subscribe for Federal Home Loan Bank stock or after the expiration of the next regular session of the legislature of such State begun after the enactment of this Act, whichever is earlier. If, at the end of such time, such institution is not authorized to subscribe for stock, the bank shall proceed to liquidate the indebtedness of such institution to the bank and to terminate its relations with such institution. No advance shall be made under authority of this subsection which matures more than one year after the advance is made, but the bank may renew any such advance for yearly periods, or less, thereafter. The maturity of no advance authorized under this subsection shall be later than the time of the enactment of legislation authorizing such institution to become a member or the expiration of such session of the legislature of the State, whichever is earlier.

Security required.

Permissive only pending State authorization.

Liquidation and termination if authority withheld.

Limitation on advances.

Unsubscribed portions of minimum capital to be taken over by Secretary of the Treasury.

Such subscriptions subject to call by board.

Receipts to issue; effect.

Sum for stock purchase limited.
Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, amendment.
Ante, p. 5.

Necessary funds for payment to be furnished by corporation.

(f) The Secretary of the Treasury shall subscribe, on behalf of the United States, for such part of the minimum capital of each Federal Home Loan Bank as is not subscribed for by members under subsection (c) of this section within thirty days after books have been opened for stock subscriptions as provided in subsection (a). Payments for stock subscriptions by the Secretary of the Treasury shall be subject to call in whole or in part by the board, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, at such time or times as may be deemed advisable. Each Federal Home Loan Bank receiving such payments shall issue receipts therefor to the Secretary of the Treasury, and such receipts shall be evidence of the stock ownership of the United States. The aggregate amount expended by the United States for the purchase of stock under this Act shall not exceed $125,000,000. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, approved January 22, 1932, is amended by adding at the end of section 2 thereof the following new paragraph:

"In order to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to make payments upon stock of Federal Home Loan Banks subscribed for by him in accordance with the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, the sum of $125,000,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary for such purpose, is hereby allocated and made available to the Secretary of the Treasury out of the capital of the corporation and/or the proceeds of notes, debentures, bonds, and other obligations issued by the corporation. For the purposes of this paragraph, the corporation shall issue such notes, bonds, debentures, and other obligations as may be necessary."

(g) After the amount of capital of a Federal Home Loan Bank paid in by members equals the amount paid in by the Secretary of the Treasury under subsection (f), such bank shall apply annually to the payment and retirement of the shares of the capital stock held by the United States, 50 per centum of all sums thereafter paid in as capital until all such capital stock held by the United States is retired at par. Stock held by the United States may at any time, in the discretion of the Federal Home Loan Bank, and with the approval of the board, be paid off at par and retired in whole or in part; and the board may at any time require such stock to be paid off at par and retired in whole or in part if in the opinion of the board the Federal Home Loan Bank has resources available therefor: Provided, That accumulated dividends, as provided in subsection (k), have been paid.

(h) Stock subscribed for otherwise than by the United States, and the right to the proceeds thereof, shall not be transferred or hypothecated except as hereinafter provided and the certificates therefor shall so state.

(i) Any member may withdraw from membership in a Federal Home Loan Bank six months after filing with the board written notice of intention so to do, and the board may, after hearing, remove any member from membership, or deprive any nonmember borrower of the privilege of obtaining further advances, if, in the opinion of the board, such member or nonmember borrower has failed to comply with any provision of this Act or the regulations of the board made pursuant thereto or if, in the opinion of the board, such member or nonmember borrower is insolvent. In any such case, the indebtedness of such member or nonmember borrower to the Federal Home Loan Bank shall be liquidated, and the capital stock in the Federal Home Loan Bank owned by such member shall be surrendered and canceled. Upon the liquidation of such indebtedness such member or nonmember borrower shall be entitled to the return of its collateral, and, upon surrender and cancellation of such capital stock, the member shall receive a sum equal to its cash paid subscriptions for the capital stock surrendered, except that if at any time the board finds that the paid-in capital of a Federal Home Loan Bank is or is likely to be impaired as a result of losses in or depreciation of the assets held, the Federal Home Loan Bank shall on the order of the board withhold from the amount to be paid in retirement of the stock a pro rata share of the amount of such impairment as determined by the board.

(j) A Federal Home Loan Bank may, with the approval of the board, permit the disposal of stock to another member, or to an institution eligible to become a member, but only to enable such an institution to become a member.

(k) All stock of any Federal Home Loan Bank shall share in dividend distributions without preference, except that stock subscribed for by the United States shall be entitled to dividends at a rate of 2 per centum per annum cumulative from the date of investment but in any case in which the rate of dividend is in excess Bonds, etc., to be issued.

MANAGEMENT OF BANKS

- Management of banks.
To be vested in board of directors.
Qualifications, etc.
- SEC. 7. (a) The management of each Federal Home Loan Bank shall be vested in a board of eleven directors, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States and bona fide residents of the district in which such bank is located.
- Appointment of two by board.
Terms.
- (b) Two of such directors shall be appointed by the board. The terms of such directors shall expire one year and two years, respectively, from the end of the calendar year 1932, and their successors shall be appointed by the board for terms of three years.
- Division of nine directors into three groups.
Appointment, etc.
Successors to be elected for three years.
- (c) Nine of such directors, three of whom shall be known as class A directors, three of whom shall be known as class B directors, and three of whom shall be known as class C directors, shall be first appointed by the board, and shall serve until the end of the calendar year 1932. Their successors shall be elected as provided in subsection (d), and of such successors first elected one of each such class shall serve for one, two, and three years, respectively. Thereafter all such directors shall serve for three years. Directors of classes A, B, and C, whether appointed or elected, shall be chosen from among persons connected with the home-financing business.
- Bank membership to be divided into three groups.
Designations.
- (d) The board shall divide all the members of each Federal Home Loan Bank into three groups which shall be designated as groups A, B, and C, which groups shall represent, respectively, and as fairly as may be, group A, the large, group B, the medium-sized, and group C, the small members, the size of such members to be determined according to the aggregate unpaid principal of the member's home mortgage loans. The board may revise the membership of such groups from time to time. Of the directors elected as hereinafter provided, each class A director shall be an officer or director of a member in group A, each class B director shall be an officer or director of a member in group B, and each class C director shall be an officer or director of a member in group C. Each member shall be entitled to nominate suitably qualified persons for election as directors of the class corresponding to the group to which such member belongs, and shall cast one vote for each director in its class. The directors of each class shall be nominated and elected in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board.
- Directors elected by each class.
- (e) Any director appointed or elected as provided in this section to fill a vacancy shall hold office only until the expiration of the term of his predecessor.
- Regulations governing nominations and elections.
- (f) The board shall designate one of the directors of each bank to be chairman, and one to be vice chairman, of the board of directors of such bank.
- Filling vacancies.
- (g) If at any time when nominations are required, members shall hold less than $1,000,000 of the capital stock of the Federal Home Loan Bank, the board shall appoint a director or directors to fill the place or places for which such nominations are required. A director so appointed shall serve until the expiration of the calendar year during which he takes office.
- Chairman and vice chairman to be designated.
- (h) Each bank may pay its directors reasonable compensation for the time required of them, and their necessary expenses, in the performance of their duties, in accordance with the resolutions adopted by such directors, subject to the approval of the board.
- Filling places where stock held is less than $1,000,000.
- Compensation and expenses.

(i) Such board of directors shall administer the affairs of the bank fairly and impartially and without discrimination in favor of or against any member or nonmember borrower, and shall, subject to the provisions hereof, extend to each institution authorized to secure advances such advances as may be made safely and reasonably with due regard for the claims and demands of other institutions, and with due regard to the maintenance of adequate credit standing for the Federal Home Loan Bank and its obligations.

Administration.

EXAMINATIONS AND STUDIES BY THE BOARD

SEC. 8. The board shall cause to be made from time to time examinations of the laws of the various States of the United States and the regulations and procedure thereunder governing conditions under which institutions of the kinds which may become members or nonmember borrowers under this Act are permitted to be formed or to do business, or relating to the conveying or recording of land titles, or to homestead and other rights, or to the enforcement of the rights of holders of mortgages on lands securing loans, or otherwise. If any such examination shall indicate, in the opinion of the board, that under the laws of any such State or the regulations or procedure thereunder there would be inadequate protection to a Federal Home Loan Bank in making or collecting advances under this Act, the board may withhold or limit the operation of any Federal Home Loan Bank in such State until satisfactory conditions of law, regulation, or procedure shall be established. In any State where State examination of members or nonmember borrowers is deemed inadequate for the purposes of the Federal Home Loan Banks, the board shall establish such examination, all or part of the cost of which may be considered as part of the cost of making advances in such State. The banks and/or the board may make studies of trends of home and other property values, methods of appraisals, and other subjects such as they may deem useful for the general guidance of their policies and operations and those of institutions authorized to secure advances.

Examination and studies by the board.

Operations restricted where conditions unsatisfactory.

Establishment of examination of borrowers where State law inadequate.

Trends of values to be studied.

ELIGIBILITY TO SECURE ADVANCES

SEC. 9. Any member or nonmember borrower of a Federal Home Loan Bank shall be entitled to apply in writing for advances. Such application shall be in such form as shall be required by the Federal Home Loan Bank with the approval of the board. Such Federal Home Loan Bank may at its discretion deny any such application, or, subject to the approval of the board, may grant it on such conditions as the Federal Home Loan Bank may prescribe.

Eligibility to secure advances.

Form of application, etc.

Discretionary action.

ADVANCES TO MEMBERS

SEC. 10. (a) Each Federal Home Loan Bank is authorized to make advances to members and nonmember borrowers, upon the security of home mortgages, such advances to be made subject to such regulations, restrictions, and limitations as the board may prescribe. Any such advance shall be subject to the following limitations as to amount:

Advances to members.

Authority to make, on security of home mortgages conferred.

Subject to specified limitations.

(1) If secured by a home mortgage given in respect of an amortized home mortgage loan which was for an original term of eight years or more, or in cases where shares of stock, which are pledged as security for such loan, mature in a period of eight years or more,

If secured by amortized installment mortgage.

Maximum amount.	the advance may be for an amount not in excess of 60 per centum of the unpaid principal of the home mortgage loan; in no case shall the amount of the advance exceed 40 per centum of the value of the real estate securing the home mortgage loan.
Secured by home mortgage given on any other mortgage loan.	(2) If secured by a home mortgage given in respect of any other home mortgage loan, the advance shall not be for an amount in excess of 50 per centum of the unpaid principal of the home mortgage loan; in no case shall the amount of such advance exceed 30 per centum of the value of the real estate securing the home mortgage loan.
Limitation.	(b) No home mortgage shall be accepted as collateral security for an advance by a Federal Home Loan Bank if, at the time such advance is made (1) the home mortgage loan secured by it has more than fifteen years to run to maturity, or (2) the value of the real estate with respect to which the home mortgage is given exceeds $20,000, or (3) is past due more than six months when presented.
Acceptance as collateral security forbidden in specified cases.	For the purposes of this subsection and subsection (a) the value of real estate shall be as of the time the advance is made and shall be established by such certification by the borrowing institution, or such other evidence, as the board may require. For the purposes of this section, each Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to make, or to cause or require to be made, such appraisals and other investigations as it may deem necessary. No home mortgage otherwise eligible to be accepted as collateral security for an advance by a Federal Home Loan Bank shall be accepted if any director, officer, employee, attorney, or agent of the Federal Home Loan Bank or of the borrowing institution is personally liable thereon, unless the board has specifically approved by formal resolution such acceptance.
Value of real estate considered as when loan made.	(c) Such advances shall be made upon the note or obligation of the member or nonmember borrower secured as provided in this section, bearing such rate of interest as the board may approve or determine, and the Federal Home Loan Bank shall have a lien upon and shall hold the stock of such member as further collateral security for all indebtedness of the member to the Federal Home Loan Bank.
Investigations.	At no time shall the aggregate outstanding advances made by any Federal Home Loan Bank to any member exceed twelve times the amounts paid in by such member for outstanding capital stock held by it, or made to a nonmember borrower exceed twelve times the value of the security required to be deposited under section 6 (e).
Restriction where agent is personally liable.	(d) The institution applying for an advance shall enter into a primary and unconditional obligation to pay off all advances, together with interest and any unpaid costs and expenses in connection therewith according to the terms under which they were made, in such form as shall meet the requirements of the bank and the approval of the board. The bank shall reserve the right to require at any time, when deemed necessary for its protection, deposits of additional collateral security or substitutions of security by the borrowing institution, and each borrowing institution shall assign additional or substituted security when and as so required. Subject to the approval of the board, any Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to sell to any other Federal Home Loan Bank, with or without recourse, any advance made under the provisions of this Act, or to allow to such bank a participation therein, and any other Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to purchase such advance or to accept a participation therein, together with an appropriate assignment of security therefor.
Advances made on properly secured notes.
Stock of borrower as further security.
Advances not to exceed twelve times amount of capital held, etc.
Applicants required to enter into obligation to pay, etc.
Right to require additional security reserved.
Sale, etc., of advances to other Home Loan Banks.

GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES OF BANKS

SEC. 11. (a) Each Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power, subject to the approval of the board, (1) to borrow money, to give security therefor, and to pay interest thereon, and (2) to issue bonds and debentures having such maturities as may be determined by the board, secured by the transfer of eligible obligations of borrowing institutions and by the deposit of home mortgages.

(b) The board shall prescribe rules and regulations governing the assignment, deposit, custody, substitution, and release of the obligations of borrowing institutions to the bank which are transferred and of the home mortgages securing such bonds and debentures, the forms and terms of such bonds and debentures, and the conditions under which they may be issued and retired, including any option with respect to payment and retirement thereof in advance of maturity, and such regulations shall provide for the deposit in trust, under such terms and conditions as it may deem advisable, of the home mortgages securing such bonds and debentures. For the purposes of this section the board is authorized to appoint, and fix the compensation and prescribe the duties of, a registrar in each district, who shall not be connected with or interested in any Federal Home Loan Bank, any member, any nonmember borrower, or any institution of a class eligible to become a member or a nonmember borrower under this Act, and to require of such registrar a bond, in such amount and with such sureties as the board may fix, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties required of him.

(c) Such deposits in trust shall be so maintained that the aggregate unpaid principal of the home mortgage loans secured by the home mortgages deposited as security for bonds or debentures shall, as nearly as possible, be at all times not less than an amount equal to 190 per centum of the total outstanding amount of such issue. Cash deposited under authority of subsection (d) shall be security for an amount of bonds and debentures equal to the amount of cash deposited. Direct obligations of the United States deposited under authority of subsection (d) shall be security for an amount of bonds and debentures equal to the par value of such obligations.

(d) The board may at any time require any Federal Home Loan Bank to deposit additional home mortgages or to make substitutions of home mortgages to secure such bonds and debentures, except that when in the opinion of the board home mortgages are not available for such purpose, it may permit, for such limited periods as it may deem advisable, the deposit of cash or direct obligations of the United States in lieu of the deposit of substitute or additional home loan mortgages.

(e) The board shall approve or determine the rates of interest to be paid by the Federal Home Loan Banks upon the notes, debentures, or bonds which they may issue except that no bond or debenture issued within seven years after the enactment of this Act shall bear a rate of interest in excess of  $5\frac{1}{2}$  per centum per annum, and no bond or debenture issued thereafter shall bear a rate of interest in excess of 5 per centum per annum, and shall provide such margins (not to exceed  $1\frac{1}{2}$  per centum) between interest rates received upon advances made to borrowing institutions and interest paid upon obligations which the Federal Home Loan Bank may issue as will cover expenses of operation and reserves and, under such regulations as may be provided by the board, some part of such reserve may be devoted to retirement of the stock subscribed by the United States.

Duties of banks.
To carry sum equal to capital subscriptions, etc., invested in Federal obligations.
Deposits in banks, etc.
Short-term loans.

Advances without mortgage security.

Investment of designated assets.

(f) The Federal Home Loan Banks shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment when due of all bonds and debentures, and of notes and other obligations issued by any Federal Home Loan Bank, and interest thereon, in accordance with their terms: Provided, That this shall not prevent any particular Federal Home Loan Bank, when specifically so authorized by the board, from borrowing funds temporarily under the terms of obligations which shall expressly state in substance in such manner as shall be approved by the board that the liability therefor is confined to the issuing bank. The Federal Home Loan Banks shall from time to time in accordance with rules, regulations, and orders of the board make adequate agreements and arrangements among themselves for meeting the payment of the bonds, debentures, notes, or other obligations on which they are jointly and severally liable, and the interest thereon, but such agreements and arrangements shall not restrict in any respect the joint and several liability herein established.

(g) Each Federal Home Loan Bank shall have power to accept only such deposits as are made by members and nonmember borrowers of such bank, or by other Federal Home Loan Banks. Such deposits shall not be subject to check, and no rate of interest in excess of 2 per centum per annum shall be paid thereon. "Deposits" as used in this section, does not include deposits made under section 6 (e). No Federal Home Loan Bank shall transact any banking or other business not expressly authorized by this Act.

(h) The board is authorized and empowered to permit, or, whenever in the judgment of at least four members of the board an emergency exists requiring such action, to require, Federal Home Loan Banks to rediscount the discounted notes of members or nonmember borrowers held by other Federal Home Loan Banks, or to purchase the bonds issued by any other Federal Home Loan Bank, or to make deposits with other Federal Home Loan Banks. In any case in which the board requires the purchase of bonds, the board shall fix the price therefor, or if the board requires the acceptance of a deposit, it shall fix the security therefor. The rediscount rates and the rates of interest to be paid upon deposits shall be fixed by the board.

(i) Each Federal Home Loan Bank shall at all times have an amount, equal to the sums paid in on outstanding capital subscriptions of its members, plus an amount, equal to the current deposits received from its members and from nonmember borrowers, invested in (1) obligations of the United States, (2) deposits in banks or trust companies, (3) advances with maturity not greater than one year made to members or nonmember borrowers, upon such terms and conditions as the board may prescribe, and (4) advances with maturity not greater than one year made to members or nonmember borrowers the amount of whose creditor liabilities (not including advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank) does not exceed 5 per centum of such member's or nonmember borrower's net assets, which advances may be made without the security of home mortgages or other security, upon such terms and conditions as the board may prescribe.

(j) Such part of the assets of each Federal Home Loan Bank (except reserves and except sums provided for in subsection (i)) as such bank may deem available therefor, and as are not required for advances to members or nonmember borrowers, may be invested, subject to such regulations, restrictions, and limitations as may be prescribed by the board, in direct obligations of the United States and in such securities as fiduciary and trust funds may be invested in under the laws of the State in which the Federal Home Loan Bank is located.

INCORPORATION OF BANKS, AND CORPORATE POWERS

SEC. 12. The directors of each Federal Home Loan Bank shall, in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe, make and file with the board at the earliest practicable date after the establishment of such bank, an organization certificate which shall contain such information as the board may require. Upon the making and filing of such organization certificate with the board, such bank shall become, as of the date of the execution of its organization certificate, a body corporate, and as such and in its name as designated by the board it shall have power to adopt, alter, and use a corporate seal; to make contracts; to purchase or lease and hold or dispose of such real estate as may be necessary or convenient for the transaction of its business, but no bank building shall be bought or erected to house any such bank, nor shall any such bank make any lease for such purpose which has a term of more than ten years; to sue and be sued, to complain, and to defend, in any court of competent jurisdiction, State or Federal; to select, employ, and fix the compensation of such officers, employees, attorneys, and agents as shall be necessary for the transaction of its business, subject to the approval of the board; to define their duties, require bonds of them and fix the penalties thereof, and to dismiss at pleasure such officers, employees, attorneys, and agents; and, by its board of directors, to prescribe, amend, and repeal by-laws, rules, and regulations governing the manner in which its affairs may be administered; and the powers granted to it by law may be exercised and enjoyed subject to the approval of the board. The president of a Federal Home Loan Bank may also be a member of the board of directors thereof, but no other officer, employee, attorney, or agent of such bank, who receives compensation, may be a member of the board of directors. Each such bank shall have all such incidental powers, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as are customary and usual in corporations generally.

No paid officer, etc., to be director.

EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION

SEC. 13. Any and all notes, debentures, bonds, or other such obligations issued by any bank shall be exempt both as to principal and interest from all taxation (except surtaxes, estate, inheritance, and gift taxes) now or hereafter imposed by the United States, by any Territory, dependency, or possession thereof, or by any State, county, municipality, or local taxing authority. The bank, including its franchise, its capital, reserves, and surplus, its advances, and its income shall be exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed by the United States, by any Territory, dependency, or possession thereof, or by any State, county, municipality, or local taxing authority; except that in any real property of the bank shall be subject to State, Territorial, county, municipal, or local taxation to the same extent according to its value as other real property is taxed. The notes, debentures, and bonds issued by any bank, with unearned coupons attached, shall be accepted at par by such bank in payment of or as a credit against the obligation of any home-owner debtor of such bank.

Bank obligations to be exempt from taxation.

Designated resources tax free. Advances included.

Exception.

Acceptance of notes, etc., at par, if unearned coupons attached.

Loan banks when so designated to be depositories of public money.
Exception.

To act as financial agents.

Obligations of Federal Home Loan Banks.

Acceptance of, as security, etc.

To plainly state not Federal obligations nor guaranteed by United States.

SEC. 14. When designated for that purpose by the Secretary of the Treasury, each Federal Home Loan Bank shall be a depository of public money, except receipts from customs, under such regulations as may be prescribed by said Secretary; and it may also be employed as a financial agent of the Government; and it shall perform all such reasonable duties as depository of public money and financial agent of the Government as may be required of it.

SEC. 15. Obligations of the Federal Home Loan Banks issued with the approval of the board under this Act shall be lawful investments, and may be accepted as security, for all fiduciary, trust, and public funds the investment or deposit of which shall be under the authority or control of the United States or any officer or officers thereof. The Federal reserve banks are authorized to act as depositories, custodians, and/or fiscal agents for Federal Home Loan Banks in the general performance of their powers under this Act. All obligations of Federal Home Loan Banks shall plainly state that such obligations are not obligations of the United States and are not guaranteed by the United States.

RESERVES AND DIVIDENDS

Bank reserve. Provisions for accumulating, and maintenance of.

SEC. 16. Each Federal Home Loan Bank shall carry to a reserve account semiannually 20 per centum of its net earnings until said reserve account shall show a credit balance equal to 100 per centum of the paid-in capital of such bank. After said reserve has reached 100 per centum of the paid-in capital of said bank, 5 per centum of its net earnings shall be added thereto semiannually. Whenever said reserve shall have been impaired below 100 per centum of the paid-in capital it shall be restored before any dividends are paid. Each Federal Home Loan Bank shall establish such additional reserves and/or make such charge-offs on account of depreciation or impairment of its assets as the board shall require from time to time. No dividends shall be paid except out of net earnings remaining after all reserves and charge-offs required under this Act have been provided for, and then only with the approval of the board. The reserves of each Federal Home Loan Bank shall be invested, subject to such regulations, restrictions, and limitations as may be prescribed by the board, in direct obligations of the United States and in such securities as fiduciary and trust funds may be invested in under the laws of the State in which the Federal Home Loan Bank is located.

Payment of dividends.

FEDERAL HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

Composition.

Appointment, oath, political affiliations, etc.

Terms of office.

Vacancies.

SEC. 17. For the purposes of this Act there shall be a board, to be known as the "Federal Home Loan Bank Board", which shall consist of five citizens of the United States appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate. Not more than three members of the board shall be members of the same political party. Each member shall devote his entire time to the business of the board. Before entering upon his duties each of the members shall take an oath faithfully to discharge the duties of his office. The President of the United States shall designate one of the members of the board to serve for a term of two years, one for three years, one for four years, one for five years, and one for six years from the date of the enactment hereof, and thereafter the term of each member shall be six years from the date of the expiration of the term for which his predecessor was appointed. Whenever a vacancy shall occur among the members the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term of the member whose place he is selected to fill. Each of the members of the board shall receive a salary at the rate of $10,000 per annum: Provided, That during the fiscal year 1933 the salary shall be $9,000 per annum. The President shall designate one of the members as chairman of the board. The chairman shall be the chief executive officer of the board and in his absence or disability the duties of his office shall be performed by some one of the other members to be designated as acting chairman by the chairman in such order as he may determine. The board shall supervise the Federal Home Loan Banks created by this Act, shall perform the other duties specifically prescribed by this Act, and shall have power to adopt, amend, and require the observance of such rules, regulations, and orders as shall be necessary from time to time for carrying out the purposes of the provisions of this Act. The board shall have power to suspend or remove any director, officer, employee, or agent of any Federal Home Loan Bank, the cause of such suspension or removal to be communicated in writing forthwith to such director, officer, employee, or agent and to such Federal Home Loan Bank.

ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

SEC. 18. (a) There is hereby authorized to be appropriated the sum of not to exceed $300,000 for salaries, travel and subsistence expenses, rents, printing and binding, furniture and equipment, law books, books of reference, periodicals, newspapers, maps, contract stenographic reporting services, telephone and telegraph services, and all other necessary expenses of the board, together with expenses preliminary to the organization and establishment of the banks created hereunder, until the end of the fiscal year 1933.

Administrative expenses.

Sum authorized for salaries and expenses.

(b) The board shall have power to levy semiannually upon the Federal Home Loan Banks, and they shall pay, on such equitable basis as the board shall determine, an assessment sufficient in its judgment to provide for the payment of its estimated expenses for the half year succeeding the levying of each such assessment, beginning with the second half of the calendar year 1933. All expenses of the board incurred in carrying out the provisions of this Act, as determined by it, beginning July 1, 1933, shall be paid from the proceeds of such assessments, and if any deficiency shall occur in such fund at any time between such semiannual assessments the board shall have power to make an immediate assessment against the banks to cover such deficiency on the same basis as the original assessment. If any surplus shall remain from any assessment after the expiration of the semiannual period for which it was levied, such surplus may be deducted from the next following assessment.

Semiannual assessments to be levied upon banks.

Available for payment of expenses.

Provision in event of deficiency or surplus.

SEC. 19. The board shall have power to select, employ, and fix the compensation of such officers, employees, attorneys, and agents as shall be necessary for the performance of its duties under this Act without regard to the provisions of other laws applicable to the employment or compensation of officers, employees, attorneys, and agents of the United States. No such officer, employee, attorney, or agent shall be paid compensation at a rate in excess of the rate provided in the case of members of the board. The board shall be entitled to the free use of the United States mails for its official business in the same manner as the executive departments of the Government; and shall determine its necessary expenditures under this Act and the manner in which they shall be incurred, allowed, and paid.

Personal services authorized.

Pay limitation.

Franking privilege.

EXAMINATIONS AND REPORTS

Examinations and reports.

Annual report to be submitted.

Examiners.

SEC. 20. The board shall from time to time, at least twice annually, require examinations and reports of condition of all Federal Home Loan Banks in such form as the board shall prescribe and shall furnish periodically statements based upon the reports of the banks to the board. The board shall annually make a full report of its operations to the Speaker of the House of Representatives, who shall cause the same to be printed for the information of the Congress. For the purposes of this Act, examiners appointed by the board shall be subject to the same requirements, responsibilities, and penalties as are applicable to examiners under the National Bank Act and the Federal Reserve Act, and shall have, in the exercise of functions under this Act, the same powers and privileges as are vested in such examiners by law.

Unlawful acts and penalties.

UNLAWFUL ACTS, AND PENALTIES

Willfully overvaluing security.

SEC. 21. (a) Whoever makes any statement, knowing it to be false, or whoever willfully overvalues any security, for the purpose of influencing in any way the action of a Federal Home Loan Bank or the board upon any application, advance, discount, purchase, or repurchase agreement, or loan, under this Act, or any extension thereof by renewal, deferment, or action or otherwise, or the acceptance, release, or substitution of security therefor, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $5,000, or by imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

Punishment for.

Counterfeiting, etc.

(b) Whoever (1) falsely makes, forges, or counterfeits any note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or coupon, in imitation of or purporting to be a note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or coupon, issued by a Federal Home Loan Bank; or (2) passes, utters, or publishes, or attempts to pass, utter, or publish, any false, forged, or counterfeited note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or coupon, purporting to have been issued by a Federal Home Loan Bank, knowing the same to be false, forged, or counterfeited; or (3) falsely alters any note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or coupon, issued or purporting to have been issued by a Federal Home Loan Bank; or (4) passes, utters, or publishes, or attempts to pass, utter, or publish, as true any falsely altered or spurious note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or coupon, issued or purporting to have been issued by a Federal Home Loan Bank, knowing the same to be falsely altered or spurious, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

Embezzlement, etc.

(c) Whoever, being connected in any capacity with the board or a Federal Home Loan Bank, (1) embezzles, abstracts, purloins, or willfully misapplies any moneys, funds, securities, or other things of value, whether belonging to it or pledged or otherwise intrusted to it; or (2) with intent to defraud the board or any Federal Home Loan Bank, or any other body politic or corporate, or any individual, or to deceive any officer, auditor, or examiners of the board or a Federal Home Loan Bank, makes any false entry in any book, report, or statement of or to the board or a Federal Home Loan Bank, or, without being duly authorized, draws any order or issues, puts forth, or assigns any note, debenture, bond, or other obligation, or draft, mortgage, judgment, or decree thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any individual, partnership, association, or corporation (1) which is not a Federal Home Loan Bank to use the words "Federal home loan bank," or a combination of the word "Federal" with any of such words, as a name or a part of a name under which he or it shall do business (except in the case of a name under which business is being done at the time of the enactment of this Act), or (2) which is not a Federal Home Loan Bank, to advertise or represent in any way that he or it is a Federal Home Loan Bank, or to publish or display any sign, symbol, or advertisement reasonably calculated to convey the impression that he or it is a Federal Home Loan Bank, or (3) which is not a member, to advertise or represent in any way that he or it is a member, or to publish or display any sign, symbol, or advertisement reasonably calculated to convey the impression that he or it is a member. Violations of this section shall be punishable by a fine of not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment of not exceeding one year, or both.

(e) The provisions of sections 112, 113, 114, 115, 116, and 117 of the Criminal Code of the United States (U. S. C., title 18, secs. 202 to 207, inclusive), in so far as applicable, are extended to apply to contracts or agreements of any Federal Home Loan Bank under this Act, which, for the purposes hereof, shall be held to include advances, loans, discounts, and purchase and repurchase agreements; extensions and renewals thereof; and acceptances, releases, and substitutions of security therefor.

MISCELLANEOUS

SEC. 22. (a) In order to enable the board to carry out the provisions of this Act, the Treasury Department, the Comptroller of the Currency, the Federal Reserve Board, and the Federal reserve banks are hereby authorized, under such conditions as they may prescribe, to make available to the board in confidence for its use and the use of any Federal Home Loan Bank such reports, records, or other information as may be available, relating to the condition of institutions with respect to which any such Federal Home Loan Bank has had or contemplates having transactions under this Act or relating to persons whose obligations are offered to or held by any Federal Home Loan Bank, and to make through their examiners or other employees, for the confidential use of the board or any Federal Home Loan Bank, examinations of such institutions.

(b) Every institution which shall apply for advances under this Act shall, as a condition precedent thereto, consent to such examination as the bank or the board may require for the purposes of this Act and/or that reports of examinations by constituted authorities may be furnished by such authorities to the bank or the board upon request therefor.

SEC. 23. In order that the Federal Home Loan Banks may be supplied with such forms of stock, debentures, and bonds as may be necessary under this Act, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to prepare such forms thereof as shall be suitable and approved by the board, which shall be held in the Treasury subject to delivery, upon order of the board. The engraved plates, dies, and bed pieces executed in connection therewith shall remain in the custody of the Secretary of the Treasury. The board shall reimburse the Secretary of the Treasury for any expense incurred in the preparation, custody, and delivery of such stock, debentures, and bonds.

AN ACT

To authorize the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to readjust and close streets, roads, highways, or alleys in the District of Columbia rendered useless or unnecessary, and for other purposes.

December 15, 1932.
[Public, No. 307.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Commissioners of the District of Columbia be, and they are hereby, authorized to close any street, road, highway, or alley, or any part of any street, road, highway, or alley, in the District of Columbia when, in the judgment of said commissioners, such street, road, highway, or alley, or such part of a street, road, highway, or alley, has been rendered useless or unnecessary, the title to the land embraced within the public space so closed to revert to the owners of the abutting property subject to such compensation therefor in money, land, or structures as the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, in their judgment, may find just and equitable, in view of all the circumstances of the case affecting near-by property of abutters and/or nonabutters: Provided, That if the title to such land be in the United States the property shall not revert to the owners of the abutting property but may be disposed of by the said commissioners to the best advantage of the locality and the properties therein and thereby affected, which properties thenceforth shall become assessable on the books of the tax assessor of the District of

District of Columbia Street Readjustment Act.

Commissioners authorized to close unnecessary streets, etc.

Title to abutting owners on payment.

Provided, Disposal, if United States property.

Conditional approval, etc., to be included.

Columbia in all respects as other private property in the District; or also said property be sold as provided in section 1608-a of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, unless the use of such land is requested by some other department, bureau, or commission of the Government of the United States for purposes not otherwise inconsistent with the proper development of the District of Columbia: Provided further, That the said closing by said commissioners is made expedient or advisable by reason of change in the highway plan or by reason of provision for access or better access to the abutting or near-by property and the convenience of the public by other street, road, highway, or alley facilities, or by reason of the acquisition by the District of Columbia or by the United States of America for school, park, playground, or other public purposes, of all the property abutting on the street, road, highway, or alley, or part of a street, road, highway, or alley, proposed to be closed or for other public reasons: And provided further, That the proposed closing of any street, road, highway, or alley, or any parts thereof, as provided for in this Act, shall be referred to the National Capital Park and Planning Commission for its recommendation.

SEC. 2. That whenever a street, road, highway, or alley, or a part of a street, road, highway, or alley, is proposed to be closed under the provisions of this Act, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall cause public notice of intention to be given by advertisement for not less than fourteen consecutive days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, in a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the District of Columbia, to the effect that a public hearing will be held at a time and place stated in the notice for the hearing of objections, if any, to such closing. The said commissioners shall, not later than fourteen days in advance of such hearing, serve notice of such hearing, in writing, by registered mail, on each owner of property abutting the street, road, highway, or alley, or part thereof, proposed to be closed, or if the owner can not be located the advertisement provided for above shall be deemed sufficient legal notice. At such hearing a map showing the proposed closing shall be exhibited, and the property owners or their representatives, and any other persons interested, shall be given an opportunity to be heard.

SEC. 3. After such public hearing the said commissioners, if they are satisfied that the proposed closing will be in the public interest, and that such closing will not be detrimental to the rights of the owners of the property abutting on the street, road, highway, or alley, or part of a street, road, highway, or alley, proposed to be closed, nor cause unreasonable inconvenience to or adverse effect upon the owner or owners of any property abutting on streets connected therewith, nor unreasonably infringe the rights of the public to use such street, road, highway, or alley, shall cause to be prepared a plat or plats showing the street, road, highway, or alley, or part thereof, proposed to be closed and the area to be apportioned to each owner of property abutting thereon: Provided, That if the approval of the proposed closing by the said commissioners shall be conditioned upon the dedication of any other areas for street, highway, or alley purposes, and/or the retention by the District of Columbia of specified rights of way for any public purpose, and/or any other reservations deemed expedient or advisable by said commissioners, such plat or plats shall also show the parcels of land so dedicated, and/or the reserved rights of way, and/or such additional area affected by said closing, with alternative openings occasioned thereby, and/or by certificate thereon any such reservations deemed expedient or advisable by the said Commissioners of the District of Columbia.

SEC. 4. If, after such hearing, the commissioners are of the opinion that any street, road, highway, or alley, or part thereof, should be closed, they shall prepare an order closing the same and shall cause public notice of such order to be given by advertisement for fourteen consecutive days, exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays, in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation printed and published in the District of Columbia, and shall serve a copy of such order on each property owner abutting the street, road, highway, or alley, or part thereof, proposed to be closed by such order, and copy of such order shall be served on the owners in person or by registered mail delivered at the last known residence of such owners, or if the owner can not be located the advertisement provided for above shall be deemed sufficient legal notice; or if he be a nonresident of the District of Columbia, by sending a copy thereof by registered mail to his last known place of address: Provided, That if no objection in writing be made to the commissioners by any party interested within thirty days after the service of such order, then the said order shall immediately become effective; and the said order and plat or plats as provided for herein shall be ordered by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia recorded in the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia.

Closing proceedings.

Notice of order.

Service.

Proviso.
Effective if no objection received in 30 days.

SEC. 5. When any such objection shall be filed with the commissioners as provided in the foregoing section, then the Commissioners of the District of Columbia shall institute a proceeding in rem in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for the closing of such street, road, highway, or alley, or part thereof, and its abandonment for street, highway, or alley purposes, and for the ascertainment of damages and the assessment of benefits resulting from such closing and abandonment. Such proceeding shall be conducted in like manner as proceedings for the condemnation of land for streets, under the provisions of chapter 15, subchapter 1, of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia, and such closing and abandonment shall be effective when the damages and benefits shall have been so ascertained and the verdict confirmed.

Proceedings, if objection.

Nature of.

Vol. 34, p. 151.

SEC. 6. Any damages awarded in any proceedings under section 5 of this Act, together with the costs of the proceedings, shall be payable from the indefinite annual appropriation for opening, extending, straightening, or widening of any street, avenue, road, or highway, in accordance with the plan of the permanent system of highways of the District of Columbia. Any benefits assessed against private property in any such proceedings shall be a lien upon such property and shall be collected in like manner as provided in section 491-j of the Code of Law for the District of Columbia.

Damage awards payable from permanent appropriation.

Collection of benefit assessments.

Vol. 34, p. 153.

SEC. 7. In any proceedings under section 5 or section 6 of this Act it shall be optional with the commissioners either to abide by the verdict and proceed with the proposed closing, or within a reasonable time to be fixed by the court in its order confirming the verdict, to abandon the proposed closing without being liable for damages therefor.

Discretionary powers of commissioners.

SEC. 8. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent the filing of petitions by abutting property owners, or other persons or groups of persons affected by said closing, praying the closing or discontinuance in the public interest of any street, road, highway, or alley, or parts or portions thereof within the District of Columbia; and all such petitions shall be definitely considered by the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and all action taken by the said commissioners thereon shall be in conformity and compliance with the provisions of this Act.

Filing petition by property owners, etc., for closing, etc., not denied.

Applicability of present laws.

SEC. 9. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to repeal the provisions of any existing law authorizing the Commissioners of the District of Columbia to close streets, roads, highways, or alleys, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, but all such laws shall remain in full force and effect; and in any case to which more than one of these laws is applicable, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may elect the one under which they will proceed.

Citation of Act.

SEC. 10. In all cases where necessary to refer to this Act, the same may be cited as "The Street Readjustment Act of the District of Columbia."

Approved, December 15, 1932.

AN ACT

Providing for the closing of barber shops one day in every seven in the District of Columbia.

December 19, 1932.
[Public, No. 309.]

District of Columbia, barber shops.
Preamble.

Whereas in the District of Columbia persons engaged in the occupation of barbering are required to work seven days a week in order to meet competition and conform to custom; and

Whereas the health of such persons is endangered and often impaired by the working conditions peculiar to their occupation; and

Whereas the protection of the health of such persons will tend to protect the health of the general public by guarding against the spread of infectious disease: Therefore Closing of, one day in seven, required.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter in the District of Columbia it shall be unlawful for a person to maintain seven days consecutively any establishment wherein the occupation or trade of barbering or hair dressing (including the cutting or singeing of hair, shaving, shampooing, massaging, or manicuring) is pursued. All such establishments shall be required to remain closed one day in every seven beginning at midnight or sunset. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not in excess of $20 or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or both. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized and empowered to make, modify, and enforce reasonable regulations to obtain compliance with the provisions of this Act, and such regulations shall have the force and effect of law within the District of Columbia.

Punishment for violation.

Enforcement.

Approved, December 19, 1932.

JOINT RESOLUTION

January 14, 1933.
[H. J. Res. 154.]
[Pub. Res., No. 47.]

To authorize the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes.

District of Columbia. Merger of street railway, etc., corporations authorized.
Vol. 43, p. 1265.

Whereas pursuant to the Act entitled "An Act to permit the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved March 4, 1925, a form of agreement to carry this into effect and providing for the formation of a new corporation to be known as the Capital Transit Company to acquire properties and/or stocks or securities, and to succeed to the powers and obligations of the Capital Traction Company and to succeed to the powers and obligations of the Washington Railway and Electric Company directly connected with or relating to the operation of street railway and bus transportation, has been approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia as follows:

UNIFICATION AGREEMENT

Unification agreement.

Statutory authorization.

Whereas the Act entitled "An Act to permit the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes," approved March 4, 1925, provides "that any or all of the street-railway companies operating in the District of Columbia be, and they are hereby, authorized and empowered to merge or consolidate, either by purchase or lease by one company of the properties, and/or stocks or securities of any of the others, or by the formation of a new corporation to acquire the properties and/or stocks or securities and to succeed to the powers and obligations of each or any of said companies under such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by vote of a majority in amount of the stock of the respective corporations, and as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided, That no merger of said companies shall be finally consummated until the same is approved by a joint resolution of Congress. Such new corporation shall be incorporated under the provisions of Subchapter IV, Chapter XVIII of the Code of Law of the District of Columbia as far as applicable, with issues of stock at a stated par value and/or of no par value, as may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission"; and Agreement by stockholders.

Proviso. Approval of Congress.

Requirements.
Vol. 31, p. 1234.

Parties in interest.

Whereas the Washington Railway and Electric Company (hereinafter referred to as the "Washington Company") and the Capital Traction Company (hereinafter referred to as the “Capital Company”), street railway companies now operating in the District of Columbia, are organized in accordance with special Acts of the Congress of the United States for the purpose of carrying on street railway and other business; and

Whereas it is deemed advisable, for the purpose of greater efficiency and economy of management and for the benefit and advantage of the public and of the stockholders of said companies, that their transit properties used in the business of street railway and bus transportation within the District of Columbia or between the District of Columbia and adjacent States, and such other property and assets, real and personal, tangible and intangible, as may be described in this agreement shall be placed under unified ownership and operation; and Unified ownership of transit properties, etc.

Whereas the premises, covenants, agreements, grants, terms, and conditions herein have been approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia:

Approval by Public Utilities Commission.

Now, therefore, if and when the said premises, covenants, grants, terms, and conditions herein contained are agreed upon by a vote of a majority in amount of the stock of the respective corporations, their respective properties as hereinafter described shall be transferred to and vested in the New Company and the mode of carrying the same into effect shall be as follows:

Terms and methods.

First: The name of the New Company shall be Capital Transit Company (hereinafter referred to as the “New Company”).

Name.

Second: The New Company shall be incorporated under the provisions of Subchapter IV of Chapter XVIII of the Code of Law of the District of Columbia and pursuant to an Act of Congress entitled “An Act to permit the merger of street-railway corporations operating in the District of Columbia, and for other purposes,” approved March 4, 1925, with power subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission to acquire, construct, own, and operate directly transit properties within the District of Columbia and in adjacent States, including the power to acquire, own, and either directly or through subsidiaries operate the properties to be conveyed to the New Company in accordance with this agreement, and to acquire and own the stock and/or bonds of said companies and of any other company or companies engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus in the District of Columbia and adjacent States with the power to mortgage its property, rights, and franchises, and to conduct such other activities as may be useful or necessary in connection with or incident to the foregoing purposes, including the power to buy, sell, hold, own, and convey real estate within and without the District of Columbia. Said New Company when incorporated shall become and remain subject in all respects to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia or its successors to the extent of the jurisdiction now or hereafter vested in it or them by law over corporations engaged in the transportation of passengers by street railway or bus within the District of Columbia: Provided, That before they are recorded, the articles of incorporation and/or any amendments thereto shall be approved by the Public Utilities Commission.

Incorporation.
Vol. 31, p. 1284.

Powers.

Post, p. 819.

Proviso.
Approval of articles.

Third. The board of directors of the New Company shall consist of fifteen persons. Of the fifteen original directors, seven shall be nominated by the Washington Company, seven by the Capital Company, and one, to hold office for two years, shall be agreed upon by the fourteen nominated as above. Of the directors so to be initially nominated by the Capital Company, five shall hold office for three years and two shall hold office for two years.

Directors.

Of the directors so to be initially nominated by the Washington Company, two shall hold office for two years and five shall hold office for one year.

The directors shall be stockholders and at least nine of them bona fide residents of the District of Columbia, and shall, except as hereinbefore provided, be elected annually by the stockholders at such time and place as shall be determined by the by-laws of the company. The officers of the New Company shall be selected by the board of directors.

Rules, regulations, and by-laws.

Fourth. The New Company shall have such rules, regulations, and by-laws as the directors shall adopt not contrary to its charter or to the laws in force in the District of Columbia. The duties and powers of the directors and the duties and powers of the officers of the company shall be such as are set forth in the by-laws.

Stock issues.
Approval of, by Public Utilities Commission.

Fifth. The authorized number and par value of the shares of stock of the New Company, the number of shares of stock to be issued originally for the purpose of the unification and in payment for the properties of the Capital Company and the Washington Company to be acquired hereunder, the bonded indebtedness of the New Company, the division of the stock issued by the New Company between the Washington Company and the Capital Company shall all be as approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia: Provided, That the original bonded indebtedness and stock liability of the New Company shall not be in excess of the total amount of the stocks, certificates of stock, bonds, or other evidences of indebtedness then outstanding against the Capital Company and the Washington Company.

Proviso.
Limit.

Additional issues.

Sixth. After the original issue of stock for the purposes of the unification, additional shares of stock and/or additional bonds or other evidences of indebtedness may, subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, be issued by the Directors from time to time for cash or in payment for bonds, or property, or to reimburse the treasury for capital expenditures.

Orders of Public Utilities Commission.

Seventh. Approval of this agreement by Joint Resolution or Act of Congress of the United States shall constitute and confer jurisdiction on the Public Utilities Commission to issue any order reasonably necessary to secure the operating and/or other economies contemplated by this merger, and to order reasonable extensions and/or reasonable abandonments of tracks and/or facilities. And said orders shall have the same legal effect and be enforceable in the same manner as other orders of said Commission.

Transactions upon organization of New Company.

Eighth. Upon the organization of the New Company, the following transactions shall be carried out substantially simultaneously:

Transfer and vesting of Capital Company
assets, etc.

A. The Capital Company shall vest in the New Company all of its current assets, all moneys or securities of every form owned by it, whether held as cash, securities, choses in action, or special funds of any nature, all of its estates, lands, rights, powers, privileges, licenses, franchises and properties, real and personal, tangible and intangible, of every kind (including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, two hundred and two shares of the par value of $50 per share of the capital stock of the Washington and Maryland Railroad Company out of a total of two hundred and two shares issued and outstanding, $66,000 principal amount of 6 per centum bonds of said Company, due January 15, 1947, and a demand note for the principal amount of $20,500 bearing interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum made by said company indorsed to the Capital Company), and shall transfer to the New Company all existing operating and other contracts and/or rights (subject to all conditions of said contracts) and shall execute all deeds, assignments, and/or other conveyances requisite for such purpose.

In consideration therefor the New Company shall—Consideration therefor.

Issue of capital stock.

(a) Issue to the Capital Company such shares of its capital stock and/or other securities as may be agreed upon by the Capital and Washington Companies and approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia.

Assumption of liabilities, etc.

(b) Assume and discharge as the same mature all of the liabilities of the Capital Company, such liabilities to be not exceeding $5,800,000 principal amount of Capital Traction first mortgage bonds bearing interest at the rate of 5 per centum per annum, due June 1, 1947 (in addition to $200,000 principal amount thereof now in the treasury of the Capital Company which shall be canceled on or before the date of closing hereunder), and current liabilities arising in normal conduct of the business.

Liquidation and dissolution of Capital Company.

It is understood and agreed that to carry out the intent thereof the Capital Company shall and will, as soon as may be possible after the date of closing as hereinafter defined, make distribution to its stockholders, liquidate and dissolve, and that to this end approval of this agreement by joint resolution or Act of the Congress of the United States shall constitute and confer all necessary authority to the Capital Company to liquidate its assets by distributing amongst its stockholders, in proportion to their several holdings of stock in said company, the shares of stock of the New Company which it shall have received as the consideration for the sale, transfer, and conveyance of its property to the said New Company as provided herein, and thereupon to liquidate its affairs and dissolve its corporate existence: Provided, That the existing liabilities of the said Capital Company and the rights of its creditors shall not be affected thereby, and that such creditors shall have, as to the New Company upon the transfer of property to it as aforesaid, all rights and remedies which they may then have as to the Capital Company: And provided further, That no action or proceedings to which the Capital Company is a party shall abate in consequence thereof, but the same may be continued in the name of the party by or against which the same was begun, unless the court in which said action or proceedings are pending shall order the New Company to be substituted in its place and stead: And provided further, That the fact of such dissolution in accordance with this provision shall be published once a week for two successive weeks thereafter in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia.

Proviso.

Actions, etc., not abated.

Publication of dissolution.

Date of closing.

The date of closing is hereby defined as the date of the transfer of the properties mentioned herein to the New Company and the delivery of New Company shares to the Capital and Washington Companies in accordance herewith.

B. The Washington Company will vest, or cause to be vested in the New Company all of its physical property, real and personal, Glen Echo Amusement Park (except devices not owned by the Washington Company or Glen Echo Park Company), tracks, lands, buildings, shops, structures, machinery, rolling stock, busses, easements, franchises, rights, operating and other contracts for the use of tracks, power, exchange of facilities, or otherwise, directly connected with, or relating to, and used in the ordinary operation and business of an electric railway, motor bus, public Rights, etc., not included.	transportation company and common carrier, situate in the District of Columbia and State of Maryland (subject to all conditions of said contracts), including without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the physical property, rights, and franchises of the Washington and Rockville Railway Company of Montgomery County, used in the operation of said transit business, with the understanding, however, that nothing herein shall be understood to include the transfer of the right of the Washington Company and the Washington and Rockville Railway Company of Montgomery County to exist as corporations or separate corporate entities, nor to include the stock of the Potomac Electric Power Company, the Braddock Light and Power Company, Incorporated, Great Falls Power Company, Potomac Electric Appliance Company, or other investments in stock, bonds, or personal property not connected with or used in the ordinary conduct of the business of said electric railways, nor any cash, bills receivable, credits, or choses in action, except as otherwise herein provided (and that approval of this agreement by joint resolution or Act of the Congress of the United States shall constitute and confer the necessary authority to the Washington Company to retain and hold the aforesaid stocks of the said companies). A general description of the property to be transferred hereunder shall be prepared and delivered to the Capital Company before the final execution of deeds, and the Washington Company shall execute all deeds, assignments, and/or other conveyances requisite for such purpose. It being understood, however, that the Washington Company will transfer to the New Company net current assets equal to the net current assets transferred to the New Company by the Capital Company, as hereinbefore provided, and no more.

Description of property.	The said property of the Washington Company shall be vested in the New Company, subject in so far but only in so far, as the same may by terms of such mortgages, respectively, attach to any part or parts of said property, to the following mortgages or deeds of trust:
Vesting of, subject to existing mortgages.	(1) First Mortgage of the City and Suburban Railway of Washington, dated September 1, 1898, made to the Baltimore Trust and Guaranty Company, as trustee. (2) First Mortgage of the Anacostia and Potomac River Railroad Company, dated April 1, 1899, made to the Baltimore Trust and Guaranty Company, as trustee. (3) Consolidated Mortgage of the Washington Railway and Electric Company, dated March 1, 1902, made to United States Mortgage and Trust Company, as trustee.
Consideration therefor. Issue of capital stock by New Company.	In consideration therefor the New Company shall issue to the Washington Company such shares of its capital stock and/or other securities as may be agreed upon by the Capital and Washington Companies and approved by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia, and shall assume such of the above-described bonds as may be approved by the Public Utilities <sup>1</sup> Commission, and in addition shall assume and discharge, as the same mature, liabilities of the Washington Company incident to the transit business to be transferred as aforesaid.
Assumption of liabilities, etc.	Out of the total net current assets received by the New Company there shall be set aside a reserve in an amount sufficient in the opinion of the Public Utilities Commission to liquidate all claims for injuries and damages against the Washington Company and the Capital Company on account of operations prior to the date of Reserve to liquidate claims.

closing: Provided, That any excess or deficit in such reserve remaining after the final liquidation of such claims for injuries and damages shall be credited or debited, respectively, to the surplus of the New Company.

Proviso.
Dispositions at final liquidation.

The New Company is authorized to acquire any or all of the outstanding stock of the Washington Rapid Transit Company (the Bus Company) at the fair value thereof and on such terms as may be accepted by the owners of said shares of stock and may be approved by the Public Utilities Commission; if and when a majority of the outstanding shares of the said Washington Rapid Transit Company is acquired by the New Company, the Washington Rapid Transit Company shall be merged or consolidated with the New Company when and if the Public Utilities Commission shall so require.

Acquisition and merger of Washington Rapid Transit Company.

Ninth. The foregoing is based on the present conditions and business of the participating companies and on the assumption that, in the interval before the consummation of the foregoing transactions, there will be no change in the transit businesses, other than as a result of normal operations or necessary to meet changed operating conditions, and that no distribution will be made to the stockholders of Capital Company, except the regular dividend payments, at not exceeding 7 per centum per annum, and that, subject to such exceptions, the assets and liabilities of the participating companies will be substantially as appears from their balance sheets, as of the 31st of December, 1931, subject to variations in the normal course of business.

Basis.

Tenth. The Washington Company shall cause the Potomac Electric Power Company to enter into a contract with the New Company, subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission, said power contract to become effective as of the date of consummation of this merger and run for the life of whichever of the last-mentioned companies expires first, and to provide that the Potomac Electric Power Company, or its successors, and/or assigns will at all times, on request, furnish an adequate supply of electric power for the maintenance and operation of the transit properties of the New Company, and at such reasonable rates as the Public Utilities Commission may from time to time fix. The Washington Company shall assign to the Potomac Electric Power Company all of its existing contracts for the sale of power to other railway companies.

Power contract.

Eleventh. The Washington Company shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission. Any sinking funds now held by it shall remain available for the discharge of securities for which it remains liable and which are secured directly or indirectly by any lien upon property turned over to the New Company.

Assignment of existing contract.

Jurisdiction of Public Utilities Commission.

Twelfth. Any and all rights with regard to valuations and/or rate bases now possessed by any of the parties to this agreement shall not be prejudiced hereby, and shall be enjoyed by the New Company until a valuation of the properties of the company shall be fixed as now or hereafter provided by law: Provided, That nothing contained herein shall deprive the New Company of any rights under the Constitution of the United States.

Rights to valuations and rate bases not prejudiced.

Proviso.
Rights of New Company.

Thirteenth. The New Company shall grant with each street-railway fare a free immediate transfer to any connecting portion of its street-railway lines within the District of Columbia, subject to reasonable rules and regulations to prevent abuse thereof. In addition, transfers between street cars and busses and between bus lines shall be granted under such reasonable terms and conditions as the Public Utilities Commission may prescribe: Provided, That this shall not be interpreted so as to prevent the Public Utilities Commission from establishing special fares lower than the basic rate without transfer privileges.

Street-railway transfers.

Proviso.
Special fares.

Conditions of agreement.

Fourteenth. This agreement is conditioned upon the New Company being relieved from the expense of policemen at street railway crossings and intersections, the laying of new pavement, the making of permanent improvements, renewals or repairs to the pavement of streets and public bridges; and the permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to public bridges over which the street-car lines operate; except that the New Company shall bear the entire cost of paving repairs or replacements incident to track repairs, replacements or changes made at a time when the street or bridge is not being paved, and shall bear one-half the cost of other paving, repaving, or maintenance of paving between its tracks and for two feet outside of the outer rails, and shall bear the excess cost of construction and maintenance of public bridges, due to the installation or existence of its tracks on such bridges, but nothing herein shall relieve the New Company from liability for street paving as owner of real estate apart from rights of way occupied by its tracks, as set out in the so-called Borland law, approved September 1, 1916, as amended to date, and/or in an Act to provide for special assessments for the paving of roadways and, the laying of curbs and gutters, approved February 20, 1931.

Competitive lines.

Fifteenth. Legislation obtained to effectuate this agreement shall contain a provision that no competitive street-railway or bus line, that is, bus or railway line for the transportation of passengers of the character which runs over a given route on a fixed schedule, shall be established without the prior issuance of a certificate by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia to the effect that the competitive line is necessary for the convenience of the public.

Expenses of unification.

Sixteenth. The New Company may defray any reasonable legal and other expenses of unification which may be necessarily incurred in connection therewith subject to the approval of the Public Utilities Commission; provided that these expenses shall be treated in the accounts of the New Company as ordered by the Public Utilities Commission.

Reserves, special ac-
charges.

Seventeenth. The New Company upon opening its books of account shall set up reserves, special accounts, and deferred charges equal to the combined reserves, depreciation funds, special accounts, and deferred charges of the Capital and Washington Companies in so far as they relate to depreciation of properties turned over to the New Company or to liabilities assumed by it, other than the reserve for injuries and damages as heretofore provided in paragraph eighth. Such reserves, or accounts, shall be set up in such manner that there shall be continuity of accounting between the books of the Capital and Washington Companies and the New Company: Provided, That the New Company shall not be required to maintain any depreciation fund if it sets up a reserve against depreciation at rates fixed therefor by the Public Utilities Commission but may use money and/or securities in any depreciation fund turned over to it in any manner approved by the Public Utilities Commission. Nothing herein provided shall be construed as changing or limiting the jurisdiction of said commission over depreciation accounts of any of said companies.

Proviso.
Depreciation fund.

Eighteenth. Approval of this agreement by the Public Utilities Commission or Congress shall not be taken as approval of the considerations mentioned herein for properties or stocks, nor as binding upon the Public Utilities Commission in any future determination of the fair value of the properties used and useful for the public convenience belonging to the Washington Company, the Capital Company, or to be acquired by the New Company, that may be made in accordance with this agreement.

Effect of approval by Congress or commission.

Nineteenth. The Public Utilities Commission shall fix the rate of fare at 3 cents for school children not over eighteen years of age, going to and from public, parochial, or like schools in the District of Columbia, and shall establish rules and regulations governing the use thereof: Provided, That upon the acceptance of this agreement by the parties and the completion of the unification, the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the transportation of school children in the District of Columbia at a reduced fare," approved February 27,<sup>1</sup> 1931, shall become inoperative.

Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That such unification in accordance with said agreement, and each and every one of the provisions therein, be, and the same are hereby, ratified and approved, and said Capital Transit Company, when organized under the provisions of subchapter 4, chapter 18, of the Code of Law of the District of Columbia, shall have all the powers, benefits, and obligations expressed in said unification agreement, approved as aforesaid; and the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia be, and is hereby, authorized to do all such acts and things as may be necessary or appropriate on its part to carry out the provisions of said agreement and of this resolution. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the present powers of the Public Utilities Commission.

SEC. 2. This agreement, hereinbefore set forth, shall be submitted to the stockholders of the Capital Traction Company and the Washington Railway and Electric Company for their action within six months after its approval by the Congress.

Action by stockholders.

SEC. 3. That all provisions of law making it incumbent upon any street railway company to bear the expense of policemen at street railway crossings and intersections, the laying of new pavement, the making of permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to the pavement of streets and public bridges, and the permanent improvements, renewals, or repairs to public bridges over which the street-car lines operate, are hereby repealed, such repeal to be effective on the date the unification herein authorized becomes operative: Provided, That the Capital Transit Company herein provided for shall bear the entire cost of paving, repairs, or replacements incident to track repairs, replacements, or changes made at a time when the street or bridge is not being paved, and shall bear one-half the cost of other paving, repaving, or maintenance of paving between its track and for two feet outside the outer rails, and shall bear the excess cost of construction and maintenance of public bridges due to the existence or installation of its tracks on such bridges: Provided further, That nothing herein contained shall relieve said Capital Transit Company from liability for street paving as owner of real estate apart from right of way occupied by its tracks as provided by section 8 of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act making appropriations to provide for the expenses of the government of the Dis-

Provisions for bearing certain expenses repealed.

Restriction on establishing competitive lines.

SEC. 4. No competitive street railway or bus line, that is, bus or railway line for the transportation of passengers of the character which runs over a given route on a fixed schedule, shall be established without the prior issuance of a certificate by the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia to the effect that the competitive line is necessary for the convenience of the public.

Capital Traction Company. Liquidation and distribution.

SEC. 5. That the Capital Traction Company is hereby authorized and empowered, upon the consummation of the aforesaid unification agreement, to dissolve and to liquidate its assets and make distribution among its stockholders in accordance with said agreement: Provided, That the existing liabilities of the said the Capital Traction Company and the rights of its creditors shall not be affected thereby, and that such creditors shall have, as to the said Capital Transit Company, upon the transfer of property to it as provided in said agreement, all rights and remedies which they may then have as to the Capital Traction Company: Provided further, That no action or proceedings to which the Capital Traction Company is a party, shall abate in consequence thereof, but the same may be continued in the name of the party by or against which the same was begun, unless the court in which said action or proceedings are pending shall order the Capital Transit Company to be substituted in its place and stead: And provided further, That the fact of such dissolution in accordance with this provision shall be published once a week for two successive weeks thereafter in at least two daily newspapers of general circulation published in the city of Washington, District of Columbia.

Washington Rapid Transit Company. Acquisition and merger.

SEC. 7. That in accordance with said unification agreement, the Capital Transit Company to be created as aforesaid is hereby authorized and empowered to purchase all or any part of the outstanding capital stock of the Washington Rapid Transit Company; and said company shall be merged or consolidated with the said Capital Transit Company when and if the Public Utilities Commission shall so require.

Supervision of Public Utilities Commission.

SEC. 8. That nothing contained in this resolution shall be taken as extending or limiting the powers and duties of the Public Utilities Commission except as provided in this resolution and by said unification agreement, and all powers granted by this resolution to the Capital Transit Company shall be exercised subject to the supervision of and regulation by the Public Utilities Commission as provided by law.

Effective date.

SEC. 9. The unification herein provided for shall become effective when but not until agreed upon by vote of more than a majority in amount of the stock of the respective companies and notices to that effect have been filed with the Public Utilities Commission of the District of Columbia within two years from and after the passage of this joint resolution.

Reasonable charges.

SEC. 10. Any and all charges to the Capital Transit Company made by any corporation or person holding a majority of the capital stock thereof for any services shall be proved to be fair and reasonable, and only such part of said charges as the Public Utilities Commission, subject to the right of appeal to the courts, may decide to be fair and reasonable shall be considered in the determination of rates.

SEC. 11. It is understood and agreed that nothing herein shall be construed as creating any new rights of franchise to use the streets in the District of Columbia for transportation purposes: Provided, That the Capital Transit Company shall exercise and succeed to all of the property, rights, and franchises of the Capital Traction and the Washington Railway and Electric Companies, which they are required herein to vest in the Capital Transit Company, subject, however, to the right of the Public Utilities Commission to order reasonable extension or reasonable abandonment of tracks and facilities.

No new franchise rights created.

Proviso.
Succession of rights, etc.

SEC. 12. The Washington Railway and Electric Company, if the unification herein provided for shall become effective, shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utilities Commission. Any sinking fund held by it shall remain available for the discharge of securities for which it remains liable and which are secured directly or indirectly, by any lien on property turned over to the Capital Transit Company.

Public Utilities Commission.
Jurisdiction over Washington Railway and Electric Company.

SEC. 13. That Congress reserves the right to alter, amend, or repeal this resolution, or any charter or certificate of incorporation made thereunder, and any and all rights of franchise created by this resolution shall terminate one year following its repeal.

Rights reserved.

SUBMISSION OF CONSTITUTION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

SEC. 3. Upon the drafting and approval of the constitution by the constitutional convention in the Philippine Islands, the constitution shall be submitted within two years after the enactment of this Act to the President of the United States, who shall determine whether or not it conforms with the provisions of this Act. If the President finds that the proposed constitution conforms substantially with the provisions of this Act he shall so certify to the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, who shall so advise the constitutional convention. If the President finds that the constitution does not conform with the provisions of this Act he shall so advise the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, stating wherein in his judgment the constitution does not so conform and submitting provisions which will in his judgment make the constitution so conform. The Governor General shall in turn submit such message to the constitutional convention for further action by them pursuant to the same procedure hereinbefore defined, until the President and the constitutional convention are in agreement.

Submission of constitution to the President of United States.

SUBMISSION OF CONSTITUTION TO FILIPINO PEOPLE

SEC. 4. After the President of the United States has certified that the constitution conforms with the provisions of this Act, it shall be submitted to the people of the Philippine Islands for their ratification or rejection at an election to be held within four months after the date of such certification, on a date to be fixed by the Philippine Legislature, at which election the qualified voters of the Philippine Islands shall have an opportunity to vote directly for or against the proposed constitution and ordinances appended thereto. Such election shall be held in such manner as may be prescribed by the Philippine Legislature, to which the return of the election shall be made. The Philippine Legislature shall by law provide for the canvassing of the return and shall certify the result to the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, together with a statement of the votes cast, and a copy of said constitution and ordinances. If a majority of the votes cast shall be for the constitution, such vote shall be deemed an expression of the will of the people of the Philippine Islands in favor of Philippine independence, and the Governor General shall, within thirty days after receipt of the certification from the Philippine Legislature, issue a proclamation for the election of officers of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands provided for in the constitution. The election shall take place not earlier than three months nor later than six months after the proclamation by the Governor General ordering such election. When the election of the officers provided for under the constitution has been held and the results determined, the Governor General of the Philippine Islands shall certify the results of the election to the President of the United States, who shall thereupon issue a proclamation announcing the results of the election, and upon the issuance of such proclamation by the President the existing Philippine government shall terminate and the new government shall enter upon its rights, privileges, powers, and duties, as provided under the constitution. The present government of the Philippine Islands shall provide for the orderly transfer of the functions of government.

If a majority of the votes cast are against the constitution, the existing government of the Philippine Islands shall continue without regard to the provisions of this Act.

TRANSFER OF PROPERTY AND RIGHTS TO PHILIPPINE COMMONWEALTH

Transfer of property and rights to Philippine Commonwealth. Post, p. 768.

SEC. 5. All the property and rights which may have been acquired in the Philippine Islands by the United States under the treaties mentioned in the first section of this Act, except such land or other property as has heretofore been designated by the President of the United States for military and other reservations of the Government of the United States, and except such land or other property or rights or interests therein as may have been sold or otherwise disposed of in accordance with law, are hereby granted to the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands when constituted.

Relations with the United States pending complete independence. Exceptions to existing trade relations.

RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES PENDING COMPLETE INDEPENDENCE

SEC. 6. After the date of the inauguration of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands trade relations between the United States and the Philippine Islands shall be as now provided by law, subject to the following exceptions:

Sugars.

(a) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all refined sugars in excess of fifty thousand long tons, and on unrefined sugars in excess of eight hundred thousand long tons, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.

Coconut oil.

(b) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all coconut oil coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year in excess of two hundred thousand long tons, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.

Hard fibers, etc.

(c) There shall be levied, collected, and paid on all yarn, twine, cord, cordage, rope and cable, tarred or untarred, wholly or in chief value of manila (abaca) or other hard fibers, coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands in any calendar year in excess of a collective total of three million pounds of all such articles hereinbefore enumerated, the same rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from foreign countries.

Duty-free export limitation. Export permits may issue for excess.

(d) In the event that in any year the limit in the case of any article which may be exported to the United States free of duty shall be reached by the Philippine Islands, the amount or quantity of such articles produced or manufactured in the Philippine Islands thereafter that may be so exported to the United States free of duty shall be allocated, under export permits issued by the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, to the producers or manufacturers of such articles proportionately on the basis of their exportation to the United States in the preceding year; except that in the case of unrefined sugar the amount thereof to be exported annually to the United States free of duty shall be allocated to the sugar-producing mills of the islands proportionately on the basis of their average annual production for the calendar years 1931, 1932, and 1933, and the amount of sugar from each mill which may be so exported shall be allocated in each year between the mill and the planters on the basis of the proportion of sugar to which the mill and the planters are respectively entitled. The government of the Philippine Islands is authorized to adopt the necessary laws and regulations for putting into effect the allocation hereinbefore provided.

Unrefined sugar.

(e) The government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall impose and collect an export tax on all articles that may be exported to the United States from the Philippine Islands free of duty under the provisions of existing law as modified by the foregoing provisions of this section, including the articles enumerated in subdivisions (a), (b), and (c), within the limitations therein specified, as follows:

Graduated export taxes.

(1) During the sixth year after the inauguration of the new government the export tax shall be 5 per centum of the rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid on like articles imported from foreign countries;

(2) During the seventh year after the inauguration of the new government the export tax shall be 10 per centum of the rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid on like articles imported from foreign countries;

(3) During the eighth year after the inauguration of the new government the export tax shall be 15 per centum of the rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid on like articles imported from foreign countries;

(4) During the ninth year after the inauguration of the new government the export tax shall be 20 per centum of the rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid on like articles imported from foreign countries;

(5) After the expiration of the ninth year after the inauguration of the new government the export tax shall be 25 per centum of the rates of duty which are required by the laws of the United States to be levied, collected, and paid on like articles imported from foreign countries.

The government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall place all funds received from such export taxes in a sinking fund, and such fund shall, in addition to other moneys available for that purpose, be applied solely to the payment of the principal and interest on the bonded indebtedness of the Philippine Islands, its Provinces, municipalities, and instrumentalities, until such indebtedness has been fully discharged.

Sinking fund created therefrom, for liquidating indebtedness.

When used in this section in a geographical sense, the term "United States" includes all Territories and possessions of the United States, except the Philippine Islands, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, and the island of Guam.

"United States", construed.

SEC. 7. Until the final and complete withdrawal of American sovereignty over the Philippine Islands—

Provisions pending final withdrawal of American sovereignty. Submission of constitutional amendments.

(1) Every duly adopted amendment to the constitution of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall be submitted to the President of the United States for approval. If the President approves the amendment or if the President fails to disapprove such amendment within six months from the time of its submission, the amendment shall take effect as a part of such constitution.

(2) The President of the United States shall have authority to suspend the taking effect of or the operation of any law, contract, or executive order of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, which in his judgment will result in a failure of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands to fulfill its contracts, or to meet its bonded indebtedness and interest thereon or to provide for its sinking funds, or which seems likely to impair the reserves for the protection of the currency of the Philippine Islands, or which in his judgment will violate international obligations of the United States.

Authority of the President.

Annual, etc., reports.

(3) The Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall make an annual report to the President and Congress of the United States of the proceedings and operations of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands and shall make such other reports as the President or Congress may request.

United States High Commissioner to the Philippine Islands. Appointment, authority, duties, etc.

(4) The President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a United States High Commissioner to the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands who shall hold office at the pleasure of the President and until his successor is appointed and qualified. He shall be known as the United States High Commissioner to the Philippine Islands. He shall be the representative of the President of the United States in the Philippine Islands and shall be recognized as such by the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, by the commanding officers of the military forces of the United States, and by all civil officials of the United States in the Philippine Islands. He shall have access to all records of the government or any subdivision thereof, and shall be furnished by the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands with such information as he shall request.

Report of, upon failure of government to meet bonded, etc., indebtedness.

If the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands fails to pay any of its bonded or other indebtedness or the interest thereon when due or to fulfill any of its contracts, the United States High Commissioner shall immediately report the facts to the President, who may thereupon direct the High Commissioner to take over the customs offices and administration of the same, administer the same, and apply such part of the revenue received therefrom as may be necessary for the payment of such overdue indebtedness or for the fulfillment of such contracts. The United States High Commissioner shall annually, and at such other times as the President may require, render an official report to the President and Congress of the United States. He shall perform such additional duties and functions as may be delegated to him from time to time by the President under the provisions of this Act.

Compensation.

The United States High Commissioner shall receive the same compensation as is now received by the Governor General of the Philippine Islands, and shall have such staff and assistants as the President may deem advisable and as may be appropriated for by Congress, including a financial expert, who shall receive for submission to the High Commissioner a duplicate copy of the reports of the insular auditor. Appeals from decisions of the insular auditor may be taken to the President of the United States. The salaries and expenses of the High Commissioner and his staff and assistants shall be paid by the United States.

Assistants, etc.

When to take office.

The first United States High Commissioner appointed under this Act shall take office upon the inauguration of the new government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands.

Resident Commissioner to the United States. Recognition, etc.

(5) The government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall provide for the selection of a Resident Commissioner to the United States, and shall fix his term of office. He shall be the representative of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands and shall be entitled to official recognition as such by all departments upon presentation to the President of credentials signed by the Chief Executive of said government. He shall have a seat in the House of Representatives of the United States, with the right of debate, but without the right of voting. His salary and expenses shall be fixed and paid by the government of the Philippine Islands. Until a Resident Commissioner is selected and qualified under this section, existing law governing the appointment of Resident Commissioners from the Philippine Islands shall continue in effect.

(6) Review by the Supreme Court of the United States of cases from the Philippine Islands shall be as now provided by law; and such review shall also extend to all cases involving the constitution of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands.

United States Supreme Court.
Review of cases.

SEC. 8. (a) Effective upon the acceptance of this Act by concurrent resolution of the Philippine Legislature or by a convention called for that purpose, as provided in section 17—

Immigration.

(1) For the purposes of the Immigration Act of 1917, the Immigration Act of 1924 (except section 13 (c)), this section, and all other laws of the United States relating to the immigration, exclusion, or expulsion of aliens, citizens of the Philippine Islands who are not citizens of the United States shall be considered as if they were aliens. For such purposes the Philippine Islands shall be considered as a separate country and shall have for each fiscal year a quota of fifty. This paragraph shall not apply to a person coming or seeking to come to the Territory of Hawaii who does not apply for and secure an immigration or passport visa, but such immigration shall be determined by the Department of the Interior on the basis of the needs of industries in the Territory of Hawaii.

Vol. 39, p. 874; Vol. 43, p. 153.

(2) Citizens of the Philippine Islands who are not citizens of the United States shall not be admitted to the continental United States from the Territory of Hawaii (whether entering such Territory before or after the effective date of this section) unless they belong to a class declared to be nonimmigrants by section 3 of the Immigration Act of 1924 or to a class declared to be nonquota immigrants under the provisions of section 4 of such Act other than subdivision (c) thereof, or unless they were admitted to such Territory under an immigration visa. The Secretary of Labor shall by regulations provide a method for such exclusion and for the admission of such excepted classes.

Admittance from Hawaii limited.

Nonimmigrants.
Vol. 43, p. 154.
Nonquota immigrants.

(3) Any Foreign Service officer may be assigned to duty in the Philippine Islands, under a commission as a consular officer, for such period as may be necessary and under such regulations as the Secretary of State may prescribe, during which assignment such officer shall be considered as stationed in a foreign country; but his powers and duties shall be confined to the performance of such of the official acts and notarial and other services, which such officer might properly perform in respect of the administration of the immigration laws if assigned to a foreign country as a consular officer, as may be authorized by the Secretary of State.

Regulations to be provided.

Assignment of Foreign Service officer.

(4) For the purposes of sections 18 and 20 of the Immigration Act of 1917, as amended, the Philippine Islands shall be considered to be a foreign country.

Application of Immigration Act of 1917.
Vol. 39, pp. 887, 890.

(b) The provisions of this section are in addition to the provisions of the immigration laws now in force, and shall be enforced as a part of such laws, and all the penal or other provisions of such laws, not inapplicable, shall apply to and be enforced in connection with the provisions of this section. An alien, although admissible under the provisions of this section, shall not be admitted to the United States if he is excluded by any provision of the immigration laws other than this section, and an alien, although admissible under the provisions of the immigration laws other than this section, shall not be admitted to the United States if he is excluded by any provision of this section.

Additional provisions.

(c) Terms defined in the Immigration Act of 1924 shall, when used in this section, have the meaning assigned to such terms in that Act.

Terms defined.
Vol. 43, p. 168.

Bonds and obligations.

SEC. 9. There shall be no obligation on the part of the United States to meet the interest or principal of bonds and other obligations of the government of the Philippine Islands or of the Provincial and municipal governments thereof, hereafter issued during the continuance of United States sovereignty in the Philippine Islands: Provided, That such bonds and obligations hereafter issued shall not be exempt from taxation in the United States or by authority of the United States.

Proviso.
Not exempt from taxation.

Recognition of independence, etc.

RECOGNITION OF PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE AND WITHDRAWAL OF AMERICAN SOVEREIGNTY

Effective date.

SEC. 10. On the 4th day of July, immediately following the expiration of a period of ten years from the date of the inauguration of the new government under the constitution provided for in this Act, the President of the United States shall by proclamation withdraw and surrender all right of possession, supervision, jurisdiction, control, or sovereignty then existing and exercised by the United States in and over the territory and people of the Philippine Islands, including all military and other reservations of the Government of the United States in the Philippines (except such land or property reserved under section 5 as may be redesignated by the President of the United States not later than two years after the date of such proclamation), and, on behalf of the United States, shall recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands as a separate and self-governing nation and acknowledge the authority and control over the same of the government instituted by the people thereof, under the constitution then in force: Provided, That the constitution has been previously amended to include the following provisions:

Withdrawal, etc., to be made by proclamation.

Reservations.
Anne, p. 764.

Proviso.
Conditions.

Property rights.

(1) That the property rights of the United States and the Philippine Islands shall be promptly adjusted and settled, and that all existing property rights of citizens or corporations of the United States shall be acknowledged, respected, and safeguarded to the same extent as property rights of citizens of the Philippine Islands.

Qualifications of officials.

(2) That the officials elected and serving under the constitution adopted pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be constitutional officers of the free and independent government of the Philippine Islands and qualified to function in all respects as if elected directly under such government, and shall serve their full terms of office as prescribed in the constitution.

Assumption of debts, etc.

(3) That the debts and liabilities of the Philippine Islands, its Provinces, cities, municipalities, and instrumentalities, which shall be valid and subsisting at the time of the final and complete withdrawal of the sovereignty of the United States, shall be assumed by the free and independent government of the Philippine Islands; and that where bonds have been issued under authority of an Act of Congress of the United States by the Philippine Islands, or any Province, city, or municipality therein, the Philippine government will make adequate provision for the necessary funds for the payment of interest and principal, and such obligations shall be a first lien on the taxes collected in the Philippine Islands.

Obligations assumed.

(4) That the government of the Philippine Islands, on becoming independent of the United States, will assume all continuing obligations assumed by the United States under the treaty of peace with Spain ceding said Philippine Islands to the United States.

Provisions to be embodied in a treaty.

(5) That by way of further assurance the government of the Philippine Islands will embody the foregoing provisions (except paragraph (2)) in a treaty with the United States.

NEUTRALIZATION OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

SEC. 11. The President is requested, at the earliest practicable date, to enter into negotiations with foreign powers with a view to the conclusion of a treaty for the perpetual neutralization of the Philippine Islands, if and when Philippine independence shall have been achieved.

Neutralization to be sought.

NOTIFICATION TO FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

SEC. 12. Upon the proclamation and recognition of the independence of the Philippine Islands, the President shall notify the governments with which the United States is in diplomatic correspondence thereof and invite said governments to recognize the independence of the Philippine Islands.

Recognition of independence invited.

TARIFF DUTIES AFTER INDEPENDENCE

SEC. 13. After the Philippine Islands have become a free and independent nation there shall be levied, collected, and paid upon all articles coming into the United States from the Philippine Islands the rates of duty which are required to be levied, collected, and paid upon like articles imported from other foreign countries: Provided, That at least one year prior to the date fixed in this Act for the independence of the Philippine Islands, there shall be held a conference of representatives of the Government of the United States and the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, such representatives to be appointed by the President of the United States and the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands, respectively, for the purpose of formulating recommendations as to future trade relations between the Government of the United States and the independent government of the Philippine Islands, the time, place, and manner of holding such conference to be determined by the President of the United States; but nothing in this proviso shall be construed to modify or affect in any way any provision of this Act relating to the procedure leading up to Philippine independence or the date upon which the Philippine Islands shall become independent.

Tariff duties after independence.

Proviso.
Conference on trade relations authorized.

IMMIGRATION AFTER INDEPENDENCE

SEC. 14. Upon the final and complete withdrawal of American sovereignty over the Philippine Islands the immigration laws of the United States (including all the provisions thereof relating to persons ineligible to citizenship) shall apply to persons who were born in the Philippine Islands to the same extent as in the case of other foreign countries.

Immigration after independence.

CERTAIN STATUTES CONTINUED IN FORCE

SEC. 15. Except as in this Act otherwise provided, the laws now or hereafter in force in the Philippine Islands shall continue in force in the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands until altered, amended, or repealed by the Legislature of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands or by the Congress of the United States, and all references in such laws to the Philippines or Philippine Islands shall be construed to mean the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands. The government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands shall be deemed successor to the present government of the Philippine Islands and of all the rights and obligations thereof. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, all laws or parts of laws relating to the present government of the Philippine Islands and its administration are hereby repealed as of the date of the inauguration of the government of the Commonwealth of the Philippine Islands.

Certain statutes continued in force.

Amendment.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the consent of Congress is hereby granted to the Board of County Commissioners of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania, to construct, maintain, and operate a toll bridge and approaches thereto across the Monongahela River, at a point suitable to the interest of navigation, between the city of Pittsburgh and the borough of Homestead, to replace what is known as the Brown Bridge, in accordance with the provisions of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate the construction of bridges over navigable waters," approved March 23, 1906, and subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this Act.

SEC. 2 If tolls are charged for the use of such bridge the rates of toll shall be so adjusted as to provide a fund sufficient to pay the reasonable cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the bridge and its approaches under economical management, and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to amortize the cost of the bridge and its approaches, including reasonable interest and financing cost, as soon as possible under reasonable charges, but within a period of not to exceed twenty years from the completion thereof. After a sinking fund sufficient for such amortization shall have been so provided, such bridge shall thereafter be maintained and operated free of tolls, or the rates of toll shall thereafter be so adjusted as to provide a fund of not to exceed the amount necessary for the proper maintenance, repair, and operation of the bridge and its approaches under economical management. An accurate record of the costs of the bridge and its approaches, the expenditures for maintaining, repairing, and operating the same, and of the daily tolls collected shall be kept and shall be available for the information of all persons interested.

JOINT RESOLUTION

January 30, 1933.
[S. J. Res. 240.]

[Pub. Res., No. 49.]

To provide for the quartering, in certain public buildings in the District of Columbia, of troops participating in the inaugural ceremonies.

Inaugural ceremonies, 1933.
Temporary quartering of troops in public buildings during, authorized.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital is authorized to allocate such space in any public building under his care and supervision as he deems necessary for the purposes of quartering troops participating in the inaugural ceremonies to be held on March 4, 1933, but such use shall not continue after March 6, 1933. Authority granted by this resolution may be exercised notwithstanding the provisions of the Legislative, Executive, and Judicial Appropriation Act for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1903, approved April 28, 1902, prohibiting the use of public buildings in connection with inaugural ceremonies.

JOINT RESOLUTION

Authorizing the granting of permits to the Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies on the occasion of the inauguration of the President elect in March, 1933, and for other purposes.

January 31, 1933.
[S. J. Res. 239.]
[Pub. Res., No. 50.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Director of Public Buildings and Public Parks of the National Capital, and such other officers of the District of Columbia and the United States as control any public lands in the District of Columbia, are hereby authorized to grant permits, under such restrictions as they may deem necessary, to the Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies for the use of any reservations or other public spaces in the city of Washington under their control on the occasion of the inauguration of the President elect in March, 1933: Provided, That in their opinion no serious or permanent injuries will be thereby inflicted upon such reservations or public spaces or statuary thereon; and the Commissioners of the District of Columbia may designate for such and other purposes on the occasion aforesaid such streets, avenues, and sidewalks in said city of Washington under their control as they may deem proper and necessary: Provided, however, That all stands or platforms that may be erected on the public space, as aforesaid, including such as may be erected in connection with the display of fireworks, shall be under the said supervision of the said inaugural committee, and no stand shall be built on the sidewalk, streets, parks, and public grounds of the District of Columbia, not including the area on the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue directly in front of the White House, except such as are approved by the inaugural committee and the building inspector of the District of Columbia, and no stands shall be built on the sidewalks or streets on the south side of Pennsylvania Avenue directly in front of the White House, except such as are approved by the inaugural committee, the building inspector of the District of Columbia, and the Director of Public Buildings and Parks: And provided further, That the reservations or public spaces occupied by the stands or other structures shall after the inauguration be promptly restored to their condition before such occupation, and that the inaugural committee shall indemnify the appropriate agency of the Government for any damages of any kind whatsoever upon such reservations or spaces by reason of such use.

SEC. 2. The Commissioners of the District of Columbia are hereby authorized to permit the committee on illumination, of the inaugural committee for said inaugural ceremonies, to stretch suitable overhead conductors, with sufficient supports wherever necessary, for the purpose of connecting with the present supply of light for the purpose of effecting the said illumination: Provided, That if it shall be necessary to erect wires for illuminating or other purposes over any park or reservation in the District of Columbia the work of erection and removal of said wires shall be under the supervision of the official in charge of said park or reservation: Provided further, That the said conductors shall not be used for conveying electrical currents after March 8, 1933, and shall, with their supports, be fully and entirely removed from the streets and avenues of the said city of Washington on or before March 15, 1933: And provided further, That the stretching and removing of the said wires shall be under the supervision of the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, or such other officials as may have jurisdiction in the premises, who shall see that the provisions of this resolution are enforced, that all needful precautions are taken for the protection of the public, and that the pavement of any street, avenue, or alley disturbed is replaced

February 14, 1933.
[H. R. 9385.]
[Public, No. 337.]

Authorizing Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, to construct, maintain, and operate a bridge across the Des Moines River at or near Saint Francisville, Missouri.

Des Moines River.
Roy H. Campbell, et al., may bridge, at Saint Francisville, Mo.

Construction.
Vol. 34, p. 84.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in order to facilitate interstate commerce, improve the Postal Service, and provide for military and other purposes, Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, be, and are hereby, authorized to construct, maintain, and operate a bridge and approaches thereto across the Des Moines River, at a point suitable to the interests of navigation, at or near Saint Francisville, Missouri, in accordance with the provisions of the Act entitled "An Act to regulate the construction of bridges over navigable waters," approved March 23, 1906, and subject to the conditions and limitations contained in this Act.

Right to acquire real estate, etc., for location, approaches, etc.

Sec. 2. There is hereby conferred upon Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, all such rights and powers to enter upon lands and to acquire, condemn, occupy, possess, and use real estate and other property needed for the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of such bridge and its approaches as are possessed by railroad corporations for railroad purposes or by bridge corporations for bridge purposes in the State in which such real estate or other property is situated, upon making just compensation therefor, to be ascertained and paid according to the laws of such State, and the proceedings therefor shall be the same as in the condemnation or expropriation of property for public purposes in such State.

Condemnation proceedings.

Tolls authorized.

Sec. 3. The said Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, are hereby authorized to fix and charge tolls for transit over such bridge, and the rates of toll so fixed shall be the legal rates until changed by the Secretary of War under the authority contained in the Act of March 23, 1906.

Vol. 34, p. 85.

Acquisition authorized, after completion by Missouri, Iowa, etc.

Sec. 4. After the completion of such bridge, as determined by the Secretary of War, either the State of Missouri, the State of Iowa, any public agency or political subdivision of either of such States, within or adjoining which any part of such bridge is located, or any two or more of them jointly, may at any time acquire and take over all right, title, and interest in such bridge and its approaches, and any interest in real property necessary therefor, by purchase or by condemnation or expropriation, in accordance with the laws of either of such States governing the acquisition of private property for public purposes by condemnation or expropriation. If at any time after the expiration of five years after the completion of such bridge the same is acquired by condemnation or expropriation, the amount of damages or compensation to be allowed shall not include good will, going value, or prospective revenues or profits, but shall be limited to the sum of (1) the actual cost of constructing such bridge and its approaches, less a reasonable deduction for actual depreciation in value; (2) the actual cost of acquiring such interests in real property; (3) actual financing and promotion costs, not to exceed 10 per centum of the sum of the cost of constructing the bridge and its approaches and acquiring such interests in real property; and (4) actual expenditures for necessary improvements.

Compensation, if acquired by condemnation, etc.

Limitation.

SEC. 5. If such bridge shall at any time be taken over or acquired by the States or public agencies or political subdivisions thereof, or by either of them, as provided in section 4 of this Act, and if tolls are thereafter charged for the use thereof, the rates of toll shall be so adjusted as to provide a fund sufficient to pay for the reasonable cost of maintaining, repairing, and operating the bridge and its approaches under economical management, and to provide a sinking fund sufficient to amortize the amount paid therefor, including reasonable interest and financing cost, as soon as possible under reasonable charges, but within a period of not to exceed twenty years from the date of acquiring the same. After a sinking fund sufficient for such amortization shall have been so provided, such bridge shall thereafter be maintained and operated free of tolls, or the rates of toll shall thereafter be so adjusted as to provide a fund of not to exceed the amount necessary for the proper maintenance, repair, and operation of the bridge and its approaches under economical management. An accurate record of the amount paid for acquiring the bridge and its approaches, the actual expenditures for maintaining, repairing, and operating the same and of the daily tolls collected, shall be kept and shall be available for the information of all persons interested.

Tolls under State, etc., operation.

Rates applied to operation, sinking fund, etc.

Maintenance as free bridge, etc., after amortizing costs.

Record of expenditures and receipts.

SEC. 6. The said Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, shall within ninety days after the completion of such bridge file with the Secretary of War and with the highway departments of the States of Missouri and Iowa, a sworn itemized statement showing the actual original cost of constructing the bridge and its approaches, the actual cost of acquiring any interest in real property necessary therefor, and the actual financing and promotion costs. The Secretary of War may, and upon request of the highway department of either of such States shall, at any time within three years after the completion of such bridge, investigate such costs and determine the accuracy and the reasonableness of the costs alleged in the statement of costs so filed, and shall make a finding of the actual and reasonable costs of constructing, financing, and promoting such bridge; for the purpose of such investigation the said Roy H. Campbell, Charles H. Brown, G. H. Wilsey, and Doctor H. O. Strosnider, their heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, shall make available all of its records in connection with the construction, financing, and promotion thereof. The findings of the Secretary of War as to the reasonable costs of the construction, financing, and promotion of the bridge shall be conclusive for the purposes men-

Sworn statement of construction costs, etc., to be filed after completion.

AN ACT

To provide for the inspection of vessels navigating Canal Zone waters.

February 16, 1933.
[H. R. 7508.]
[Public, No. 354.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all vessels navigating the waters of the Canal Zone, except public vessels of all nations, and private vessels merely transiting the canal, shall be subject to an annual inspection of hulls, boilers, machinery, equipment, and passenger accommodations; and the governor is hereby authorized to prescribe regulations concerning such inspection, provided that such regulations shall, as nearly as practicable, conform to the laws and regulations governing the Steamboat Inspection Service of the United States.

Canal Zone, navigation laws.
Inspection provisions.

To conform to United States laws, etc.

SEC. 2. A foreign vessel of a country which has inspection laws approximating those of the United States, having an unexpired certificate of inspection duly issued by the authorities of the said country, shall not be subjected to an inspection other than that necessary to determine if the vessel, boilers, and life-saving equipment are as stated in the certificate of inspection; but no such certificate of inspection shall be accepted as evidence of lawful inspection unless like privileges are granted to vessels of the United States under the laws of the country to which such vessel belongs.

Vessels of foreign countries having similar inspection laws.

Certificates of inspection.
Condition of acceptance.

SEC. 3. When the board of local inspectors of the Panama Canal approves a vessel and its equipment, a certificate of inspection, in triplicate, will be issued by the canal authorities, two copies of which shall be displayed in conspicuous places in the vessel where they are most likely to be observed by passengers and others, and there kept at all times framed under glass.

Issue of certificates by local authorities.

SEC. 4. Should the board of local inspectors not approve the vessel or its equipment, a certificate of inspection will be refused, and the board of local inspectors will make a statement in writing giving the reason for failure to approve, filing such statement in the records of the board, and giving a copy thereof to the owner, agent, or master of the vessel.

Refusal of certificates.

SEC. 5. Any vessel, other than those excepted in section 1 of this Act, that navigates the waters of the Canal Zone without having an unexpired certificate of inspection issued by the Canal authorities or by the Steamboat Inspection Service of the United States, or an unexpired certificate accepted by the Canal authorities under section 2 of this Act, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding $1,000; and whenever any passenger is received on board a vessel not having certified copies of the certificate of inspection placed and kept as required by section 3 of this Act, or whenever passengers are received on board a vessel in excess of the number authorized by said certificate of inspection, such vessel shall be liable to fine not exceeding $100 for each passenger so received. Fines shall be recovered in the district court of the Canal Zone, and the amount so recovered shall be a lien upon such vessel, and it may be seized and sold to satisfy same, as well as the costs of the court proceedings.

Penalty for navigating without proper certificate.

Overcrowding.

Recovery of fine.

SEC. 6. In case a vessel holding an unexpired certificate issued by the Canal authorities shall change its condition as to hull, boilers, machinery, equipment, or accommodations for passengers in such manner as not to conform to the regulations under which such certificate was issued, the board of local inspectors is authorized to make an inspection and to recommend revocation of the certificate of inspection, and upon approval of such recommendation by the marine superintendent, or such other officer of the Panama Canal as may be designated by the governor, a notice of revocation will Revocation provisions.

Penalty. be issued to the owner, agent, or master of the vessel; and after such notice of revocation the navigating of Canal Zone waters by such vessel shall subject it to the penalty prescribed by section 5 of this Act.

Small vessels. Machine propelled. SEC. 7. Other than public vessels of the United States or of the Republic of Panama, small vessels propelled in whole or in part by machinery shall be required to be registered, certificated, and numbered, and to display the numbers assigned in a conspicuous place in prescribed form. Such vessels shall not be operated except by an operator holding a license to operate, issue after examination by the board of local inspectors, and approval of such examination by the marine superintendent or such other officer of the Panama Canal as may be designated by the governor.

Not machine propelled. SEC. 8. Small vessels not propelled in whole or in part by machinery shall be registered and numbered, and when numbers have been assigned they shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in prescribed form.

Passenger carrying, for hire in local waters. SEC. 9. Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, before carrying passengers for hire in the Canal Zone waters, shall obtain a certificate from the Canal Zone authorities to engage in this business, and such certificate shall specify the number of passengers and life preservers and the fire-fighting apparatus which the vessel must carry. Such vessels shall be subject to annual inspection, and the certificate referred to will be granted for one year only. Small vessels carrying passengers without having first obtained a certificate from the canal authorities, or carrying passengers in excess of the number authorized by such certificate, shall be liable to a fine of not exceeding $100 for each passenger so carried.

Subject to annual inspection. Penalty for violation.

Approved, February 16, 1933.

AN ACT

In relation to the Canal Zone postal service.

February 16, 1933.
[H. R. 7514.]

[Public, No. 355.]

Canal Zone postal service. Rules, etc., of operation.

Post offices, personnel, postage stamps, etc.

Proviso. Expenses defrayed from postal revenues.

Deposit money orders. Issued in lieu of savings certificates.

Interest rate.

Use of accrued interest.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the postal service of the Canal Zone shall be governed by such of the laws, rules, and regulations of the Postal Service of the United States as are not inapplicable to the conditions existing in the Canal Zone, and the Governor of the Panama Canal is authorized to establish new post offices or discontinue those already established, to provide such rules and regulations as are necessary for the operation of the service, to appoint the personnel thereof, and to prescribe the postage stamps and other stamped paper which shall be used in such service: Provided, however, That the expenses of operating the Canal Zone postal service shall be defrayed, so far as possible, from the revenue derived therefrom, the use of which for that purpose is hereby authorized.

SEC. 2. That deposit money orders issued in the Canal Zone in lieu of postal savings certificates in accordance with rules and regulations heretofore established by the President, or that may hereafter be established by him, shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding 3 per centum per annum.

SEC. 3. That the interest received from the Canal Zone money-order funds deposited in banks under Canal Zone regulations shall be available to pay the interest on deposit money orders authorized by the preceding section. Such interest, which shall form a part of the postal revenues, shall also be available to pay the losses which are chargeable to the Canal Zone postal service.

SEC. 4. That all other laws for the operation of the Canal Zone postal service, excepting section 43a of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone, are hereby repealed.

Designated laws repealed.

Approved, February 16, 1933.

AN ACT

To provide for the establishment of a Customs Service in the Canal Zone, and other matters.

February 16, 1933.

[H. R. 7515.]

[Public, No. 356.]

Canal Zone, customs service. Establishment of, provided. Authority of Governor.

SEC. 2. That general powers of search, seizure, and arrest are hereby conferred upon customs officers in the Canal Zone, including deputy shipping commissioners and boarding officers when performing customs duties. In the exercise of these powers customs officers are authorized to enter any building, other than dwelling houses, to stop vessels and vehicles, and to search vessels, vehicles, and their contents; and to stop and search persons and any packages carried by them. Such right of entry, stopping, search, seizure, and arrest shall be exercised only when there are reasonable grounds for suspecting violations of the customs rules and regulations authorized hereunder or of the United States applicable in the Canal Zone.

Powers conferred upon customs officers, etc.

Right of entry, etc., restricted.

SEC. 3. That it shall be unlawful to enter or import, or attempt to enter or import, any articles or merchandise into the Canal Zone until the entry or importation of such articles or merchandise has been approved by the proper officers of the Canal Zone, and that it shall further be unlawful to pass, or attempt to pass, any false, forged, or fraudulent invoice or bill or other paper, for the purpose of securing the entry or importation into the Canal Zone of any articles or merchandise in violation of the rules and regulations to be promulgated in pursuance of the authority contained in the first section of this Act, and any article brought into or obtained in the Canal Zone in violation of such regulations may be seized and held, and, unless within a period of thirty days from the date of seizure such articles are entered in conformity to the rules and regulations to be promulgated by the governor, they may be confiscated and disposed of as provided in such rules and regulations. Any person violating the provisions of this section or any of the rules and regulations authorized hereunder, shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment in jail not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Unlawful entry of merchandise, etc.

Fraudulent invoices, etc.

Seizure.

Punishment.

SEC. 4. That if any vessel arriving at the Canal Zone from any port, other than a port in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama, is found to have on board merchandise not manifested, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty equal in amount to the value of the merchandise not manifested, and all such merchandise belonging to or consigned to or for the officers or crew of the vessel shall be forfeited: Provided, however, That such penalty shall not be imposed if it is made to appear to the customs officers, or to the court in which the trial is held, that no part of the cargo has been Foreign vessel with merchandise not manifested.

Penalty.

Proviso. Exemption.

Unloading permit restrictions.

Sea stores.

unloaded, except as accounted for in the master's report, and that the errors and omissions in the manifest were made without fraud or collusion; and in such case the master may be allowed to correct his manifest by means of a post entry. A permit shall not be granted to unload any such merchandise so omitted from the manifest before post entry or addition to report of manifest has been made.

SEC. 5. That if sea stores are found on board of a vessel from any port, other than a port in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama, which are not specified in the list furnished the boarding officer, or if a greater quantity of such articles is found than that specified in such list, or if any of such articles are landed without a permit being first obtained from the customs officer for that purpose, all of such articles omitted from the list or manifest, or so landed shall be seized and forfeited, and the master of the vessel shall be liable to a penalty treble the value of the articles so omitted or landed.

Approved, February 16, 1933.

AN ACT

To amend sections 7, 8, and 9 of the Panama Canal Act, as amended.

February 16, 1933.

[H. R. 7523.]

[Public, No. 357.]

Panama Canal Act amendments.
Vol. 37, p. 584; Vol. 42, p. 1004, amended.

Governor to have control of Canal Zone civil government.

Administration.

Towns and subdivisions authorized.

Magistrate's court jurisdiction.

Amounts increased.

Preliminary hearings in felony and misdemeanor charges.

Right of district attorney.

Magistrates, constables, etc.
Qualifications, etc.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That section 7 of the Panama Canal Act of August 24, 1912, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 7. That the Governor of the Panama Canal shall, in connection with the operation of such canal, have official control and jurisdiction over the Canal Zone and shall perform all duties in connection with the civil government of the Canal Zone, which is to be held, treated, and governed as an adjunct of such Panama Canal. Unless in this Act otherwise provided, all existing laws of the Canal Zone referring to the civil governor or the civil administration of the Canal Zone shall be applicable to the Governor of the Panama Canal, who shall perform all such executive and administrative duties required by existing law.

"The President is authorized to determine or cause to be determined what towns shall exist in the Canal Zone, and subdivide and from time to time resubdivide said Canal Zone into subdivisions, to be designated by name or number, so that there shall be situated one town in each subdivision, and the boundaries of each subdivision shall be clearly defined.

"In each town there shall be a magistrate's court with exclusive original jurisdiction coextensive with the subdivision in which it is situated of all civil cases in which the principal sum claimed does not exceed $500, and all criminal cases wherein the punishment that may be imposed shall not exceed a fine of $100, or imprisonment for thirty days, or both, and all actions involving the forcible entry and detainer of real estate.

"Such magistrates' courts shall also hold preliminary hearings in all charges of felony and in charges of misdemeanor in which the punishment that may be imposed is beyond the jurisdiction herein granted to the magistrates' courts, and commit or bail in bailable cases to the district court; but this provision shall not deprive the district attorney of the right to present an information to the district court after a defendant has been discharged by a magistrate court.

"A sufficient number of magistrates and constables, who must be citizens of the United States, and other employees necessary to conduct the business of such courts, shall be appointed by the President or by his authority for terms of four years and until their successors are appointed and qualified, and the compensation of such persons shall be fixed by the President, or by his authority.

Appointment, compensation.

"Before assuming office the magistrates and constables shall take and subscribe an oath of office before a notary public of the Canal Zone to the effect that they will faithfully and impartially discharge the duties of their respective offices.

Oath of office.

"The rules governing said courts and prescribing the duties of said magistrates and constables, oaths, and bonds, the times and places of holding such courts, the disposition of fines, costs, and forfeitures shall be established by order of the President.

Rules, etc., to be established.

"The Governor may grant pardons and reprieves and remit fines and forfeitures for offenses against the laws of the Canal Zone and reprieves for offenses against the laws of the United States until the decision of the President is made known thereon.

Pardoning, etc., power of Governor.

"The Governor of the Panama Canal shall appoint all notaries public, prescribe their powers and duties, their official seal, and the fees to be charged and collected by them.

Notaries public.

"Appeals from the judgments and rulings of the magistrates' courts to the district court are authorized in all civil and criminal cases."

Appeals to district court.

SEC. 2. That section 8 of the Panama Canal Act, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 8. There shall be in the Canal Zone one district court, to be known and designated as the United States District Court for the District of the Canal Zone. There shall be two divisions of said district court, one including Balboa and the other including Cristobal, and the boundaries of the divisions shall be determined by the President.

District court, divisions of.

"There shall be one district judge of the said district; provided that the President may appoint a special district judge to act, when necessary, during the absence of the district judge from the Canal Zone or during any period of disability or disqualification from sickness, or otherwise to discharge his duties, and such special district judge shall receive the same rate of compensation and the same mileage and per diem as is paid to the district judge. Terms of the district court shall be held in the Balboa and Cristobal divisions at such times as the judge may designate by order.

District judges.

"The rules of said district court shall be prescribed by the district judge.

Terms of district court.

Rules to be prescribed.

"The said district court shall have jurisdiction of:

Jurisdiction.

"All criminal cases wherein the punishment that may be imposed exceeds a fine of $100 or thirty days' imprisonment or both;

"All cases in equity;

"All cases in admiralty;

"All cases of divorce and annulment of marriage;

"All cases at law involving principal sums exceeding $500;

"All appeals from judgments rendered in the magistrates' courts;

"All cases and proceedings involving laws of the United States applicable to the Canal Zone;

"All other matters and proceedings wherein jurisdiction is conferred by the codes of law and procedure of the Canal Zone;

"In addition to the jurisdiction now specifically conferred on it by certain Acts of Congress, the said court shall have jurisdiction of offenses under the criminal laws of the United States when such offenses are committed upon the high seas beyond the territorial limits of the Canal Zone, on vessels belonging in whole or in part to the United States, or any citizen thereof or any corporation created by or under the laws of the United States or of any State, Territory, Offenses on high seas on American vessels, and offenders found in Canal Zone, etc.

Proviso. Jurisdiction of United States district courts not affected.	or District thereof, and the offenders are found in the Canal Zone or are brought into the Canal Zone after the commission of the offense: Provided, That this provision shall not be construed to deprive the district courts of the United States of any jurisdiction now provided by law. The procedure and practice in such cases shall be the same as in other criminal cases tried under the laws of the Canal Zone.
Jurisdiction in admiralty, etc.	“The jurisdiction in admiralty herein conferred upon the district judge and the district court shall be the same as is exercised by the United States district judges and the United States district courts, and the practice and procedure shall be the same as in the United States district courts.
Practice, etc.	“The judge of the district court shall provide for the selection, summoning, and serving of jurors from among the citizens of the United States subject to jury duty to serve in the division of the district in which such jurors reside, and a jury shall be had in any civil or criminal case originating in the said court on the demand of either party, subject to such limitations as may be contained in any codes which may hereafter be enacted for the Canal Zone.
Jury duty, etc.	Any citizen of the United States who is employed by the Panama Canal or the Panama Railroad Company within the Canal Zone, and who resides in a residence owned by the Panama Canal or Panama Railroad Company in territory contiguous to the Canal Zone shall, for the purpose of this subdivision, be deemed to reside in the division nearest his place of residence. Jurors who are employed by the Panama Canal or the Panama Railroad Company shall receive their full pay for time attending court and shall not receive any other compensation from the court for their attendance as jurors. Any juror who is not an employee of the Panama Canal or the Panama Railroad Company shall be allowed a jury fee of $5 per diem during the time of his attendance.
Vol. 44, p. 924.	“The said district judge shall receive the same salary as is allowed to United States district judges, and when holding court away from home shall be allowed the same mileage and per diem as is allowed to United States district judges.
Original civil or criminal cases.	“The district judge shall appoint the clerk of the district court and the President may authorize the appointment of such deputy clerk or deputy clerks and clerical assistants to the judge and the clerk as he shall deem necessary; and all of such officials and employees shall receive such compensation as the President shall prescribe.
Residence requirements.	“When no special judge has been appointed and the district judge is absent from the Canal Zone and is in the United States or any of the Territories or possessions thereof, he may make in the place where he is any order or orders which in his discretion may be necessary, and which could have been made in chambers on the Canal Zone, notwithstanding the fact that such order or orders were made by him outside of the jurisdiction of said court. Any such order so made shall have the same force and effect as though made in chambers on the Canal Zone.
Jurors, pay.	“Whenever any such order is made as provided in this section the judge shall forward the same to the clerk of the court by mail. He shall also communicate the substance of such order to the clerk of the court by radio or other means, and upon the receipt of such message the clerk of the court shall proceed to have the same carried into effect as fully as though such procedure were had on a written order made by the judge in chambers.
Pay, etc., of judge.	“The district judge shall appoint the clerk of the district court and the President may authorize the appointment of such deputy clerk or deputy clerks and clerical assistants to the judge and the clerk as he shall deem necessary; and all of such officials and employees shall receive such compensation as the President shall prescribe.
Clerk, etc.	“When no special judge has been appointed and the district judge is absent from the Canal Zone and is in the United States or any of the Territories or possessions thereof, he may make in the place where he is any order or orders which in his discretion may be necessary, and which could have been made in chambers on the Canal Zone, notwithstanding the fact that such order or orders were made by him outside of the jurisdiction of said court. Any such order so made shall have the same force and effect as though made in chambers on the Canal Zone.
Orders of judge when absent from Canal Zone.	“Whenever any such order is made as provided in this section the judge shall forward the same to the clerk of the court by mail. He shall also communicate the substance of such order to the clerk of the court by radio or other means, and upon the receipt of such message the clerk of the court shall proceed to have the same carried into effect as fully as though such procedure were had on a written order made by the judge in chambers.
Communication of, to clerk. By mail. By radio.	“Whenever any such order is made as provided in this section the judge shall forward the same to the clerk of the court by mail. "The judge shall make such rules respecting such radio procedure, including the fixing and the payment of the cost thereof, as may, in his discretion, be necessary.

Rules of radio procedure.

"There shall be a district attorney for the Canal Zone, whose compensation shall be fixed by the President.

District attorney.

"It shall be the duty of the district attorney to conduct all legal proceedings, civil and criminal, for the Government of the United States and for the government of the Canal Zone, and it shall also be his duty to advise the Governor of the Panama Canal, upon request of the latter, on matters pertaining to the office of the governor.

Pay, duties, etc.

"The district attorney shall be allowed such assistant district attorneys, clerks, and other employees as the President may authorize, and all of such officials and employees shall receive such compensation as the President shall prescribe.

Assistants, etc.

"There shall be a marshal of the said district whose compensation shall be fixed by the President. The said marshal shall be allowed such deputy marshals as the President may authorize, and such deputies shall receive such compensation as the President shall prescribe.

Marshal, etc.
Pay.

"It shall be the duty of said marshal to attend the district court when sitting and to execute throughout the district all lawful precepts directed to him and issued under the authority of the United States or of the government of the Canal Zone, except process returnable to the magistrates courts; and he shall have power to command all necessary assistance in the execution of his duty. He shall perform such other duties, not inconsistent with law, as may be prescribed from time to time by the President.

Duties.

"The district judge, the district attorney, and the marshal shall be appointed by the President, as heretofore, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for terms of four years each. They shall continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices, unless sooner removed by the President, until their successors shall be appointed and qualify in their stead. During their term of office they shall reside within the Canal Zone, and shall be allowed sixty days' leave of absence each year, with pay, under such regulations as the President may from time to time prescribe."

District judge, district attorney and marshal.

SEC. 8. That Title II of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein after section 23 a new section numbered 23a to read as follows:

Probation after conviction in trial court.

"SEC. 23a. Any trial court of the Canal Zone, in exercise of its jurisdiction of criminal actions, when it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court that the ends of justice and the best interests of the public, as well as the defendant, will be subserved thereby, shall have power, after conviction or after a plea of guilty for any crime or offense not punishable by death or life imprisonment, to suspend the imposition or execution of sentence and to place the defendant upon probation for such period and upon such terms and conditions as the court deems best; or the court may impose a fine and may also place the defendant upon probation in the manner aforesaid. The court may revoke or modify any condition of probation, or may change the period of probation. The period of probation, together with any extension thereof, shall not exceed five years in the district court, or one year in a magistrate court.

Discretionary revocation by court.

Period of probation.

Payments by defendant during probationary status.

Restitution for loss, etc.

"While on probation the defendant may be required to pay in one or several sums a fine imposed at the time of being placed on probation and may also be required to make restitution or reparation to the aggrieved party or parties for actual damages or loss caused by the offense for which conviction was had, and may also be required to provide for the support of any person or persons for whose support he is legally responsible."

SEC. 9. That section 26 of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

Confinement after sentence of imprisonment.

"SEC. 26. A sentence of imprisonment in jail, when imposed, may be executed by confinement in any jail of the Canal Zone."

SEC. 10. That section 29 of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

Determination of period.

"SEC. 29. Whenever any person is declared punishable for a crime by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than any specified number of years, and no limit of the duration of such imprisonment is declared, the court authorized to pronounce judgment upon such conviction may, in its discretion, sentence such offender to imprisonment for any number of years not less than that prescribed."

Persons liable to prosecution, etc.

SEC. 11. That subdivision 2 of section 34 of the Penal Code of the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"2. All who commit any offense without the Canal Zone which, if committed within the Canal Zone, would be larceny, robbery, or embezzlement under the laws of the Canal Zone, and bring the property stolen or embezzled, or any part of it, or are found with it, or any part of it, within the Canal Zone."

An information having been filed on the _____ day of _____ A. D. _____, in the _____ division of the district court of the Canal Zone, charging _____ with the crime of _____, you are (designating it generally)

therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above-named and bring him before the court (or if the information has been sent to the other division, that division must be named as the place to bring the defendant) to answer said information; or if the court be not in session, that you deliver him into the custody of the warden of said district.

Given under my hand, with the seal of the court affixed, this day of _____, A. D. _____.

By order of the Court.

[SEAL]

Clerk of the Court."

SEC. 46. That section 134 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 134. If the defendant appears for arraignment without counsel, he must be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned, and must be asked if he desires the aid of counsel. If he desires and is unable to employ counsel, the court may assign counsel to defend him."

Right of defendant appearing for arraignment to have counsel.

SEC. 47. That section 138 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone as amended by Executive order of August 16, 1910, is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 138. When the information is not subscribed by the district attorney, it must be set aside by the court in which the defendant is arraigned, upon his motion."

Motion to set aside information not subscribed.

SEC. 48. That section 140 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 140. The motion must be heard at the time it is made, unless, for cause, the court postpones the hearing to another time. If the motion is denied, the defendant must immediately answer the information either by demurring or pleading thereto. If the motion is granted, the court must order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom; or, if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated; or, if he has deposited money instead of bail, that the same be refunded to him, unless it directs that an information be filed by the district attorney."

Hearing of motion. When denied.

Granted.

SEC. 49. That section 150 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 150. An information may be amended by the district attorney without leave of court, at any time before the defendant pleads. Such amendment may be made at any time thereafter, in the discretion of the court, where it can be done without prejudice to the substantial rights of the defendant. If a demurrer is allowed, the judgment is final upon the information demurred to, and is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense, unless the court, being of the opinion that the objection on which the demurrer is sustained may be avoided in a new information, directs a new information to be filed."

Amendment of information.

Demurrer if allowed, bar to subsequent prosecution for same offense.

SEC. 50. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 163, a new section numbered 163a, to read as follows:

"SEC. 163a. When a defendant who is charged in the information with having suffered a previous conviction, pleads either guilty or not guilty of the offense for which he is informed against, he must be asked whether he has suffered such previous conviction. If he answers that he has, his answer must be entered by the clerk in the minutes of the court, and must, unless withdrawn by consent of the court, be conclusive of the fact of his having suffered such previous conviction in all subsequent proceedings. If he answers that he has not, his answer must be entered by the clerk in the minutes of the court, and the question whether or not he has suffered such previous conviction must be tried by the court or jury which tries the issue upon the plea of not guilty, or in case of a plea of guilty, by the court or a jury impaneled for that purpose. The refusal of the defendant to answer is equivalent to a denial that he has suffered such previous conviction. In case the defendant pleads not guilty, and answers that he has suffered the previous conviction, the charge of the previous conviction must not be read to the court or jury, nor alluded to on the trial."

SEC. 51. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 169, a new section numbered 169a, to read as follows:

"SEC. 169a. The court may also order the removal of the action from one division to the other upon the agreement of the parties."

SEC. 52. That section 170 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 170. An issue of fact arises:

"1. Upon a plea of not guilty.

"2. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense.

"3. Upon a plea of once in jeopardy."

SEC. 53. That section 171 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 171. Issues of fact in criminal cases within the original jurisdiction of the district court of the Canal Zone must be tried by jury, unless a trial by jury be waived."

SEC. 54. That section 175 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 175. After his plea the defendant is entitled to at least two days to prepare for trial."

SEC. 55. That chapter I of title VII of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, before section 177, new sections numbering 176a, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, i, j, k, l, m, n, o, oo, p, q, r, s, t, u, v, w, x, y, and z, reading as follows:

"SEC. 176a. A challenge is an objection made to the trial jurors, and is of two kinds:

"1. To the panel;

"2. To an individual juror."

"SEC. 176b. When several defendants are tried together they can not sever their challenges, but must join therein."

"SEC. 176c. The panel is a list of jurors to serve for a particular period or for the trial of a particular action."

"SEC. 176d. A challenge to the panel is an objection made to all the jurors returned, and may be taken by either party."

"SEC. 176e. A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed in respect to the drawing and return of the jury, or on the intentional omission of the marshal to summon one or more of the jurors drawn."

"SEC. 176f. A challenge to the panel must be taken before a juror is sworn and must be in writing or be noted by the reporter, and must plainly and distinctly state the facts constituting the ground of challenge."

"SEC. 176g. If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as ground of the challenge is denied, the adverse party may except to the challenge. The exception need not be in writing, but must be entered on the minutes of the court, or of the reporter, and thereupon the court must proceed to try the sufficiency of the challenge, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true."

"SEC. 176h. If on exception the court finds the challenge sufficient, it may, if justice requires it, permit the party excepting to withdraw his exception and to deny the facts alleged in the challenge. If

"SEC. 176i. If the challenge is denied, the denial may be oral, and must be entered on the minutes of the court, or of the reporter, and the court must proceed to try the question of fact; and upon such trial, the officers, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other persons, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the ground of the challenge."

"SEC. 176j. When the panel is formed from persons whose names are not drawn as jurors, a challenge may be taken to the panel on account of any bias of the officer who summoned them, which would be good ground of challenge to a juror. Such challenge must be made in the same form, and determined in the same manner, as if made to a juror."

"SEC. 176k. If, either upon an exception to the challenge or a denial of the facts, the challenge is allowed, the court must discharge the jury so far as the trial in question is concerned. If it is disallowed, the court must direct the jury to be impaneled."

"SEC. 176l. Before a juror is called, the defendant must be informed by the court, or under its direction, that if he intends to challenge an individual juror he must do so when the juror appears, and before he is sworn."

"SEC. 176m. A challenge to an individual juror is either—

- "1. Peremptory; or
- "2. For cause."

"SEC. 176n. It must be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn to try the cause; but the court may for cause permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed."

"SEC. 176o. A peremptory challenge can be taken by either party, and may be oral. It is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court must exclude him."

"SEC. 176oo. Upon a trial by jury, each side shall be entitled to six peremptory challenges. A waiver of a challenge by either party shall preclude such party, except by consent of court, from thereafter challenging peremptorily any juror then in the jury box, and the remaining challenges of such party shall be limited to jurors thereafter called."

"SEC. 176p. A challenge for cause may be taken by either party. It is an objection to a particular juror, and is either—

"1. General—that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case; or

"2. Particular—that he is disqualified from serving in the action on trial."

"SEC. 176q. General causes of challenge are:

- "1. A conviction for felony;
- "2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law to render a person a competent juror;
- "3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body as to render him incapable of performing the duties of a juror."

"SEC. 176r. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds:

"First. For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias.

"Second. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the case, or to either of the parties, which will prevent him from acting with entire impartiality and without prejudice to the substantial rights of either party, which is known in this code as actual bias."

"1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant.

"2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client, master and servant, or landlord and tenant, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or in his employment on wages.

"3. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution.

"4. Having served on a trial jury which has tried another person for the offense charged.

"5. Having been one of a jury formerly sworn to try the same charge, and whose verdict was set aside, or which was discharged without a verdict after the case was submitted to it.

"6. Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense.

"7. If the offense charged be punishable with death, the entertaining of such conscientious opinions as would preclude his finding the defendant guilty; in which case he must neither be permitted nor compelled to serve as a juror."

"SEC. 176u. In a challenge for implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in section 176s must be alleged. In a challenge for actual bias, the cause stated in the second subdivision of section 176r must be alleged; but no person shall be disqualified as a juror by reason of having formed or expressed an opinion upon the matter or cause to be submitted to such jury, founded upon public rumor, statements in public journals, or common notoriety; provided it appear to the court, upon his declaration, under oath or otherwise, that he can and will, notwithstanding such an opinion, act impartially and fairly upon the matters to be submitted to him. The challenge may be oral, but must be entered in the minutes of the court or of the reporter."

Exceptions to challenge and denial.

"SEC. 176v. The adverse party may except to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to the panel, and the same proceedings must be had thereon as are prescribed in section 176g, except that if the exception be allowed the juror must be excluded. The adverse party may also orally deny the facts alleged as the ground of challenge."

SEC. 62. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202b, a new section numbered 202c, to read as follows:

"SEC. 202c. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. It must present the conclusions of fact as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them, and these conclusions of fact must be so presented as that nothing remains to the court but to draw conclusions of law upon them."

"Special verdict" defined.

SEC. 63. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202c, a new section numbered 202d, to read as follows:

"SEC. 202d. The special verdict must be reduced to writing by the jury, or in their presence entered upon the minutes of the court, read to the jury and agreed to by them, before they are discharged."

Reduced to writing.

SEC. 64. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202d, a new section numbered 202e, to read as follows:

"SEC. 202e. The special verdict need not be in any particular form, but is sufficient if it present intelligibly the facts found by the jury."

Form.

SEC. 65. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202e, a new section numbered 202f, to read as follows:

Judgment upon.

“SEC. 202f. The court must give judgment upon the special verdict as follows:

“1. If the plea is not guilty, and the facts prove the defendant guilty of the offense charged in the information, or of any other offense of which he could be convicted under that information, judgment must be given accordingly. But if otherwise, judgment of acquittal must be given.

“2. If the plea is a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense, the court must give judgment of acquittal or conviction, as the facts prove or fail to prove the former conviction or acquittal.”

SEC. 66. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202f, a new section numbered 202g, to read as follows:

New trial to be ordered if defective.

“SEC. 202g. If the jury do not, in a special verdict, pronounce affirmatively or negatively on the facts necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or if they find the evidence of facts merely, and not the conclusions of fact, from the evidence, as established to their satisfaction, the court must order a new trial.”

SEC. 67. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202g, a new section numbered 202h, to read as follows:

Reconsideration by jury.

“SEC. 202h. When there is a verdict of conviction, in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion and direct the jury to reconsider their verdict, and if, after the reconsideration, they return the same verdict, it must be entered; but when there is a verdict of acquittal, the court can not require the jury to reconsider it. If the jury render a verdict which is neither general nor special, the court may direct them to reconsider it, and it can not be recorded until it is rendered in some form from which it can be clearly understood that the intent of the jury is either to render a general verdict or to find the facts specially and to leave the judgment to the court.”

SEC. 68. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202h, a new section numbered 202i, to read as follows:

Judgment on informal verdict.

“SEC. 202i. If the jury persist in finding an informal verdict, from which, however, it can be clearly understood that their intention is to find in favor of the defendant upon the issue, it must be entered in the terms in which it is found, and the court must give judgment of acquittal. But no judgment of conviction can be given unless the jury expressly find against the defendant upon the issue, or judgment is given against him on a special verdict.”

SEC. 69. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202i, a new section numbered 202j, to read as follows:

Polling of jury.

“SEC. 202j. When a verdict is rendered, and before it is recorded, the jury may be polled, at the request of either party, in which case they must be severally asked whether it is their verdict, and if anyone answer in the negative, the jury must be sent out for further deliberation.”

SEC. 70. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 202j, a new section numbered 202k, to read as follows:

Recording verdict.

“SEC. 202k. When the verdict given is such as the court may receive, the clerk must immediately record it in full upon the minutes, read it to the jury, and inquire of them whether it is their verdict. If any juror disagree, the fact must be entered upon the minutes and the jury again sent out; but if no disagreement is expressed, the verdict is complete, and the jury must be discharged from the case."

SEC. 71. That section 206 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 206. Whenever the fact of a previous conviction of another offense is charged in an information, the court or jury, if it finds a verdict of guilty of the offense with which he is charged, must also, unless the answer of the defendant admits the charge, find whether or not he has suffered such previous conviction. The verdict of the court or jury upon a charge of a previous conviction may be: 'The charge of previous conviction is true,' or 'The charge of previous conviction is not true.'"

Previous convictions.
Jury to find on, when charged in information and denied.

SEC. 72. That section 207 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 207. The court or jury may find the defendant guilty of any offense, the commission of which is necessarily included in that with which he is charged, or of an attempt to commit the offense."

Conviction for lesser offense, or attempt.

SEC. 73. That section 208 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 208. On an information against several, if the court or jury can not agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment must be entered accordingly, and the case as to the others may be retired."

Verdict as to some defendants.

Retirement as to others.

SEC. 74. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 209, a new section numbered 209a, to read as follows:

"SEC. 209a. The court may, without regard to the consent or objection of parties, direct the jury, in case they should agree, to sign the verdict, place it in an envelope, and return it into open court, or may direct the marshal to permit the jury, upon agreement, to sign and seal their verdict and return it into open court the following morning, or, upon the jury's coming into court to report agreement, counsel being absent, may instruct the jury to seal their verdict and return it into court on the following day."

Signing and sealing of verdict.

SEC. 75. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 209a, a new section numbered 209b, to read as follows:

"SEC. 209b. All criminal cases in the district court in which a jury is had, shall be tried by a jury of twelve, all of whom must concur to render a verdict."

Number of jurors. Criminal cases.

SEC. 76. That section 210 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 210. An exception is an objection upon a matter of law to a decision made by a court, tribunal, judge, or other judicial officer in an action or proceeding. Except as provided in section 212, the exception must be taken at the time the decision is made. Rulings of the court upon minor discretionary matters, such as adjournments, postponements of trials, and the like, shall not be subject to exception."

"Exception" defined.

When taken.

SEC. 78. That section 214 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

Bill of exceptions.
Preparation, delivery, etc.

"SEC. 214. Where a party desires to have the exceptions settled in a bill of exceptions, the draft of a bill must be prepared by him and presented, upon notice of at least two days to the adverse party, to the judge for settlement within ten days after the announcement of the verdict, unless further time is granted by the judge, or within that period the draft must be delivered to the clerk of the court for the judge. When received by the clerk, he must deliver it to the judge, or transmit it to him at the earliest period practicable. When settled, the bill must be signed by the judge and filed with the clerk of the court. If the judge in any case refuses to allow an exception in accordance with the facts, the party desiring the bill settled may apply by petition to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to prove the same. The application may be made in the mode and manner and under such regulations as that court may prescribe; and the bill, when proven, must be certified by the court as correct, and filed with the clerk of the court in which the action was tried, and when so filed, it has the same force and effect as if settled by the judge who tried the cause. If the judge who presided at the trial ceases to hold office before the bill is tendered or settled, he may nevertheless settle such bill, or the party may, as provided in this section, apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to prove the same."

SEC. 79. That section 215 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

Contents and form.

"SEC. 215. A bill of exceptions must contain only so much of the evidence as may be necessary to present clearly the questions of law involved in the rulings to which exceptions are reserved, and such evidence as is embraced therein shall be set forth in condensed and narrative form, save as a proper understanding of the questions presented may require that parts of it be set forth otherwise."

SEC. 80. That the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section 215, a new section numbered 215a, to read as follows:

Matter not to be included.

"SEC. 215a. No bill of exceptions shall be allowed which shall contain the charge of the court at large to the jury, upon any general exception to the whole of such charge. But the party excepting shall be required to state distinctly the several matters of law in such charge to which he excepts; and those matters of law, and those only, shall be inserted in the bill of exceptions and allowed by the court."

SEC. 81. That section 219 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

Motion for new trial.
When may be made.

"SEC. 219. A motion for a new trial shall be made only after verdict of the jury or decision by the court, and before judgment. Such motion shall be filed within five days after verdict of the jury or decision by the court, unless, for good cause shown, the court or judge, within such five-day period, extends such time. Such motion shall be in writing and must set out specifically the grounds upon which the same is made. When a ground of a motion is the insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict or decision, the motion must specify the particulars in which the evidence is alleged to be insufficient. If a ground of the motion be error in law occurring at the trial and excepted to by the moving party, the motion must specify the particular errors upon which the party will rely, and in the case of a question as to the admissibility of evidence the question, objection or motion, ruling, and exception thereto must be fully set out. Such motion shall be heard and determined as speedily as possible after the same is filed."

Writing, etc.

SEC. 82. That section 237 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

"SEC. 237. A judgment that the defendant pay a fine and costs may also direct that he be imprisoned until the fine and costs be satisfied. But the judgment must specify the extent of the imprisonment, which must not exceed one day for every dollar of the fine and costs, nor extend in any case beyond the term for which the defendant might be sentenced to imprisonment for the offense of which he has been convicted."

Imprisonment until fine paid.

SEC. 84. That subsection 1 of section 241 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for the Canal Zone is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 32. PROCEEDINGS TO BE IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE.—Every written proceeding in a court of justice in the Canal Zone shall be in the English language, and judicial proceedings shall be conducted and preserved in no other.

Means to carry jurisdiction into effect.

SEC. 33. MEANS TO CARRY JURISDICTION INTO EFFECT.—When jurisdiction is, by this code, or by any other statute, conferred on a court or judicial officer, all the means necessary to carry it into effect are also given; and in the exercise of this jurisdiction, if the course of proceeding be not specifically pointed out by this code or the statute, any suitable process or mode of proceeding may be adopted which may appear most conformable to the spirit of this code.

District court reports prima facie correct.

SEC. 34. REPORTS PRIMA FACIE CORRECT STATEMENTS.—The report of the official reporter, or official reporter pro tempore, of the district court, duly appointed and sworn, when transcribed and certified as being a correct transcript of the testimony and proceedings in the case, is prima facie evidence of such testimony and proceedings.

ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW.

CHAPTER 3.—ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

Admission to practice.

SEC. 35. ADMISSION TO PRACTICE.—1. Any person of good moral character who has been admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of the United States, or in the highest court of the District of Columbia, or in the highest court of any State or Territory, may be admitted, on motion in open court, to practice as an attorney of the district court.

Foreign attorneys.

2. Any person of good moral character who has been admitted to practice in the highest court of any foreign country may be admitted to practice as an attorney of the district court: Provided, however, That the requirements for practice in such foreign countries be a preliminary education, in addition to grade and high school education, of at least two years law course in an approved law school: Provided further, That such person shall have practiced law in the courts of his own or of a foreign country for a period of three years.

Prerequisites. Requirements.

Law practice.

3. Every applicant for admission shall file his application with the clerk, produce his license and satisfactory evidence that it has not been revoked, file with the clerk statements of at least three reputable persons, one of whom must be a member in good standing of the bar of the district court, attesting to the good moral character of the applicant; and, if admission is sought under subdivision 2 of this section, every applicant shall, in addition, furnish satisfactory evidence as to the requirements for practice in such foreign country and the applicant's practice for the requisite period. The motion for admission must be made in open court by a member in good standing of the bar of the district court. Such person shall upon the filing of his application pay to the clerk a fee of $15 which fee shall be accounted for by the clerk as miscellaneous receipts.

Application for admission.

Requirements.

4. Any person of good moral character who has attained the age of twenty-one years may be admitted to the practice of law in the courts of the Canal Zone by the judge of the United States district court thereof upon giving satisfactory evidence that he has a general education equivalent to graduation from a high school of the Canal Zone, has studied law under proper instruction for at least three years, and has passed an examination in the law to be prescribed and conducted by the judge of the district court or by a committee of the bar appointed by him for that purpose. The judge of the district court is empowered to make rules to establish the qualifications of the candidates.

SEC. 36. CERTIFICATE OF ADMISSION.—Upon admission of an applicant to the bar, the district court shall direct an order to be entered to that effect upon its records, and that a certificate of such admission be given to him by the clerk of the court, which certificate shall be his license. Certificate of admission.

SEC. 37. OATHS.—Before receiving a certificate the applicant shall take and subscribe in court the following oaths: Oaths.

1. "I, ——— recognize and accept the supreme authority of the United States of America, in the Canal Zone, and I do swear that I will obey the existing laws which rule in the Canal Zone, as well as the legal orders and decrees of the duly constituted authorities therein; that I impose upon myself this voluntary obligation without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion. So help me God.

2. "I do solemnly swear that I will do no falsehood, nor consent to the doing of any in court; I will not wittingly or willingly promote or sue any false, groundless or unlawful suit, nor give aid nor consent to the same; I will delay no man for money or malice, but will conduct myself in the office of a lawyer within the courts according to the best of my knowledge and discretion, with all good fidelity as well to the courts as to my clients. So help me God."

SEC. 38. ROLL OF ATTORNEYS.—The clerk of the district court shall keep a roll of attorneys admitted to practice, which roll must be signed by the person admitted before he receives his license. Roll of attorneys.

SEC. 39. ATTORNEYS ON BONDS.—Attorneys will not be accepted as sureties upon bonds or recognizances required to be filed in court. Attorneys on bonds.

SEC. 40. WHO MAY CONDUCT LITIGATION.—A person may conduct his litigation personally or by the aid of a lawyer, in either the district or magistrates' courts. Who may conduct litigation.

SEC. 41. DUTIES.—It is the duty of an attorney and counselor: Duties of attorneys.

1. To support the laws of the Canal Zone and the applicable laws of the United States;

2. To maintain the respect due to the courts of justice and judicial officers;

3. To counsel or maintain such actions, proceedings, or defenses only as appear to him legal or just, except the defense of a person charged with a public offense;

4. To employ, for the purpose of maintaining the causes confided to him, such means only as are consistent with truth, and never seek to mislead the judge or any judicial officer by an artifice or false statement of fact or law;

5. To maintain inviolate the confidence, and at every peril to himself, to preserve the secrets of his client;

6. To abstain from all offensive personality, and to advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which he is charged;

7. Not to encourage either the commencement or the continuance of an action or proceeding from any corrupt motive of passion or interest;

8. Never to reject, for any consideration personal to himself, the cause of the defenseless or the oppressed.

Authority.

SEC. 42. AUTHORITY.—An attorney shall have authority:

1. To bind his client in any of the steps of an action or proceeding by his agreement filed with the clerk, or entered upon the minutes of the court, and not otherwise;

2. To receive money claimed by his client in an action or proceeding during the pendency thereof, or after judgment, unless a revocation of his authority is filed, and upon the payment thereof, and not otherwise, to discharge the claim or acknowledge satisfaction of the judgment.

Change of attorney.

SEC. 43. CHANGE OF ATTORNEY.—The attorney in an action or special proceeding may be changed at any time before or after judgment or final determination, as follows:

1. Upon consent of both client and attorney, filed with the clerk, or entered upon the minutes;

2. Upon the order of the court, upon the application of either client or attorney, after notice from one to the other.

Notice of change.

SEC. 44. NOTICE OF CHANGE.—When an attorney is changed, as provided in section 43, written notice of the change and of the substitution of a new attorney, or of the appearance of the party in person, must be given to the adverse party. Until then he must recognize the former attorney.

Death or removal of attorney.

SEC. 45. DEATH OR REMOVAL OF ATTORNEY.—When an attorney dies, or is removed or suspended, or ceases to act as such, a party to an action, for whom he was acting as attorney, must, before any further proceedings are had against him, be required by the adverse party, by written notice, to appoint another attorney, or to appear in person.

Causes for removal, by court.

SEC. 46. CAUSES FOR WHICH COURT MAY REMOVE ATTORNEY.—An attorney may be removed or suspended by the district court, for any of the following causes, arising after his admission to practice:

1. His conviction of a felony or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, in which case the record of conviction shall be conclusive evidence;

2. Willful disobedience or violation of an order of the district court requiring him to do or forbear an act connected with, or in the course of his profession, which he ought in good faith to do or forbear, and any violation of the oath taken by him, or of his duties as such attorney and counselor;

3. Corruptly or willfully and without authority appearing as attorney for a party to an action or proceeding;

4. Lending his name to be used as attorney and counselor by another person who is not an attorney and counselor;

5. For the commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption, whether the same be committed in the course of his relations as an attorney or counselor at law, or otherwise, and whether the same shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor or not; and in the event that such act shall constitute a felony or misdemeanor, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disbarment or suspension from practice therefor.

Proceedings for removal or suspension.

SEC. 47. PROCEEDINGS FOR REMOVAL OR SUSPENSION.—The proceedings to remove or suspend an attorney and counselor, under the first subdivision of section 46, must be taken by the district court on the receipt of a certified copy of the record of conviction. The proceedings under any of the other subdivisions of that section may be taken by the court for the matters within its knowledge, or may be taken upon the information of another.

Accusation.

SEC. 48. ACCUSATION.—If the proceedings are upon the information of another, the accusation must be in writing.

SEC. 49. VERIFICATION OF ACCUSATION.—The accusation must state the matters charged, and be verified by the oath of some person, to the effect that the charges therein contained are true, which verification may be made upon information and belief when the accusation is presented by an organized bar association.

Verification of

SEC. 50. CITATION OF ACCUSED BY PUBLICATION.—Upon receiving the accusation, the district court shall make an order requiring the accused to appear and answer it at a specified time, and shall cause a copy of the order and of the accusation to be served upon the accused at least five days before the day appointed in the order. If it shall appear by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court or judge that the accused resides out of the Canal Zone; or has departed from the Canal Zone; or can not, after due diligence, be found within the Canal Zone; or conceals himself to avoid the service of the order to show cause, the court or judge may direct the service of a citation to the accused, requiring him to appear and answer the accusation, to be made by publication in a newspaper of general circulation, in the Canal Zone for thirty days. Such citation must be directed to the accused, recite the date of the filing of the accusation, the name of the accuser, and the general nature of the charges against him, and require him to appear and answer the accusation at a specified time. On proof of the publication of the citation as herein required the court shall have jurisdiction to proceed to hear the accusation and render judgment with like effect as if an order to show cause and a copy of the accusation had been personally served on the accused.

Citation of accused by publication.

SEC. 51. APPEARANCE.—The accused must appear at the time appointed in the order, and answer the accusation, unless, for sufficient cause, the court assign another day for that purpose. If he do not appear, the court may proceed and determine the accusation in his absence.

Appearance.

SEC. 52. OBJECTIONS TO ACCUSATION.—The accused may answer to the accusation either by objecting to its sufficiency or denying it.

Objections to accusation.

SEC. 53. DEMURRER.—If he object to the sufficiency of the accusation, the objection must be in writing, but need not be in any specific form, it being sufficient if it presents intelligibly the grounds of the objection. If he deny the accusation, the denial may be oral and without oath, and must be entered upon the minutes.

Demurrer.

SEC. 54. ANSWER.—If an objection to the sufficiency of the accusation be not sustained, the accused must answer within such time as may be designated by the court.

Answer.

SEC. 55. TRIAL.—If the accused plead guilty, or refuse to answer the accusation, the court shall proceed to judgment of removal or suspension. If he deny the matters charged, the court shall, at such time as it may appoint, proceed to try the accusation.

Trial.

SEC. 56. REFERENCE TO TAKE DEPOSITIONS.—The court may, in its discretion, order a reference to a committee to take depositions in the matter.

Committee to take depositions.

SEC. 57. JUDGMENT.—Upon the receipt of a certified copy of the record of conviction of an attorney of a crime involving moral turpitude, the district court must suspend the attorney until judgment in the case has become final. When a judgment of conviction in such case has become final the court shall order the attorney permanently disbarred. When the attorney has been found guilty of the charges made in proceedings not based upon a record of conviction, judgment shall be rendered disbaring the attorney either permanently or for a limited time, according to the gravity of the offense charged. During such suspension or disbarment the attorney shall be precluded from practicing as an attorney at law or as an attorney or agent of another in and before all courts, commissions, and tribunals in the Canal Zone, and from practicing as attorney or counselor at law in any manner and from holding himself out to the public as an attorney or counselor at law. When permanently disbarred his name shall be stricken from the roll of attorneys and counselors.

Judgment.

Disqualified attorney as plaintiff.

SEC. 58. DISQUALIFIED ATTORNEY AS PLAINTIFF.—No person who has been an attorney and counselor shall while a judgment of disbarment or suspension is in force, appear on his own behalf as plaintiff in the prosecution of any action where the subject of said action has been assigned to him subsequent to the entry of the judgment of disbarment or suspension.

Compensation; contract for services.

SEC. 59. COMPENSATION TO BE REASONABLE; CONTRACT FOR SERVICES.—An attorney shall be entitled to have and recover from his client no more than a reasonable compensation for the services rendered, having in view the importance of the subject matter of the controversy, the extent of the services rendered, and the professional standing of the attorney. But in such cases the court shall not be bound by the opinion of attorneys as expert witnesses as to the proper compensation, but may disregard such testimony and base its conclusion on its own professional knowledge. A written contract for services shall control the amount of recovery if found by the court not to be unconscionable or unreasonable.

FORM OF CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER 4.—FORM OF CIVIL ACTIONS

Single form.

SEC. 60. ONE FORM OF CIVIL ACTION ONLY.—There is in the Canal Zone but one form of civil actions for the enforcement or protection of private rights and the redress or prevention of private wrongs.

Parties to action.

SEC. 61. PARTIES TO ACTIONS, HOW DESIGNATED.—In such action the party complaining is known as the plaintiff, and the adverse party as the defendant.

Trial of special issues not made by pleadings.

SEC. 62. SPECIAL ISSUES NOT MADE BY PLEADINGS, HOW TRIED.—A question of fact not put in issue by the pleadings may be tried by the district court or a jury therein, upon an order for the trial, stating distinctly and plainly the question of fact to be tried; and such order is the only authority necessary for a trial.

TIME OF COMMENCING CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER 5.—TIME OF COMMENCING CIVIL ACTIONS

TIME OF COMMENCING ACTIONS IN GENERAL

Commencement of.

SEC. 63. COMMENCEMENT OF CIVIL ACTIONS.—Civil actions, without exception, can only be commenced within the periods prescribed in this chapter, after the cause of action shall have accrued, unless where, in special cases, a different limitation is prescribed by statute.

CROSS REFERENCE

Post, p. 920.

Action for wrongful death must be brought within one year, see section 96.

Periods of limitation prescribed.

SEC. 64. PERIODS OF LIMITATION PRESCRIBED.—The periods prescribed for the commencement of actions are as follows:

Five years.

SEC. 65. WITHIN FIVE YEARS.—Within five years:

- 1. An action upon a judgment or decree of any court of the United States or of any State within the United States.
- 2. An action for mesne profits of real property.

Four years.

SEC. 66. WITHIN FOUR YEARS.—Within four years:

- 1. An action upon any contract, obligation or liability founded upon an instrument in writing.
- 2. An action to recover (1) upon a book account whether consisting of one or more entries; (2) upon an account stated; (3) a balance due upon a mutual, open and current account: Provided, however, That where an account stated is based upon an account of one item, the time shall begin to run from the date of said item, and where an account stated is based upon an account of more than one item, the time shall begin to run from the date of the last item.

Proviso.
Accounts stated.

SEC. 67. WITHIN THREE YEARS.—Within three years:

Three years.

1. An action upon a liability created by statute, other than a penalty or forfeiture.

2. An action for trespass upon or injury to real property.

3. An action for taking, detaining, or injuring any goods or chattels, including actions for the specific recovery of personal property.

4. An action for relief on the ground of fraud or mistake. The cause of action in such case not to be deemed to have accrued until the discovery, by the aggrieved party, of the facts constituting the fraud or mistake.

SEC. 68. WITHIN TWO YEARS.—Within two years:

Two years.

1. An action upon a contract, obligation, or liability not founded upon an instrument of writing, other than that mentioned in subdivision two of section 66; or an action founded upon a contract, obligation, or liability, evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guaranty of title of real property, or by a policy of title insurance; provided, that the cause of action upon a contract, obligation, or liability, evidenced by a certificate, or abstract or guaranty of title of real property or policy of title insurance shall not be deemed to have accrued until the discovery of the loss or damage suffered by the aggrieved party thereunder.

2. An action against a marshal, coroner, or constable upon a liability incurred by the doing of an act in his official capacity and in virtue of his office, or by the omission of an official duty including the nonpayment of money collected upon an execution. But this subdivision does not apply to an action for an escape.

SEC. 69. WITHIN ONE YEAR.—Within one year:

One year.

1. An action upon a statute for a penalty or forfeiture, when the action is given to an individual, or to an individual and the Government, except when the statute imposing it prescribes a different limitation.

2. An action upon a statute, or upon an undertaking in a criminal action, for a forfeiture or penalty to the Government of the Canal Zone.

3. An action for libel, slander, assault, battery, false imprisonment, seduction, or for injury to or for the death of one caused by the wrongful act or neglect of another, or by a depositor against a bank for the payment of a forged or raised check.

4. An action against the marshal or other officer for the escape of a prisoner arrested or imprisoned on civil process.

SEC. 70. ACTIONS FOR RELIEF NOT HEREINBEFORE PROVIDED FOR.—

Actions for relief not hereinbefore provided for.

An action for relief not hereinbefore provided for must be commenced within four years after the cause of action shall have accrued.

SEC. 71. WHERE CAUSE OF ACTION ACCRUES ON MUTUAL ACCOUNT.—

Where cause of action accrues on mutual account.

In an action brought to recover a balance due upon a mutual, open, and current account, where there have been reciprocal demands between the parties, the cause of action is deemed to have accrued from the time of the last item proved in the account on either side.

SEC. 72. NO LIMITATION TO CERTAIN ACTIONS; NOT APPLICABLE TO

No limitation to certain actions.

BANKS, ETC.—To actions brought to recover money or other property deposited with any bank, banker, trust company, building and loan association, or savings and loan society there is no limitation.

Not applicable to insolvent banks, etc.

This section shall not apply to banks, bankers, trust companies, building and loan associations, and savings and loan societies which have become insolvent and are in process of liquidation and in such cases the statute of limitations shall be deemed to have commenced to run from the beginning of the process of liquidation; provided, however, nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to relieve any stockholder of any banking corporation or trust company from stockholder's liability as shall, at any time, be provided by law.

General provisions, commencing actions.

GENERAL PROVISIONS AS TO TIME OF COMMENCING ACTIONS

When commenced.

SEC. 73. WHEN AN ACTION IS COMMENCED.—An action is commenced, within the meaning of this chapter, when the complaint is filed.

Exceptions. Where defendant out of Zone.

SEC. 74. EXCEPTION, WHERE DEFENDANT IS OUT OF THE ZONE.—If, when the cause of action accrues against a person, he is out of the Canal Zone, the action may be commenced within the term herein limited, after his return to the Zone, and if, after the cause of action accrues, he departs from the Zone, the time of his absence is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Persons under disabilities. Ante, p. 916.

SEC. 75. EXCEPTION, AS TO PERSONS UNDER DISABILITIES.—If a person entitled to bring an action, mentioned in sections 63 to 72, be, at the time the cause of action accrued, either:

1. Under the age of majority; or,
2. Insane; or,

3. Imprisoned on a criminal charge, or in execution under the sentence of a criminal court for a term less than for life; or

4. A married woman, and her husband be a necessary party with her in commencing such action;

The time of such disability is not a part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Where person entitled dies before limitation expires.

SEC. 76. PROVISION WHERE PERSON ENTITLED DIES BEFORE LIMITATION EXPIRES.—If a person entitled to bring an action die before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof, and the cause of action survive, an action may be commenced by his representatives, after the expiration of that time, and within six months from his death. If a person against whom an action may be brought die before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof, and the cause of action survive, an action may be commenced against his representatives, after the expiration of that time, and within one year after the issuing of letters testamentary or of administration.

Suits by aliens, time of war deducted.

SEC. 77. IN SUITS BY ALIENS, TIME OF WAR TO BE DEDUCTED.—When a person is an alien subject, or citizen of a country at war with the United States, the time of the continuance of the war is not part of the period limited for the commencement of the action.

Where judgment reversed.

SEC. 78. PROVISION WHERE JUDGMENT HAS BEEN REVERSED.—If an action is commenced within the time prescribed therefor, and a judgment therein for the plaintiff be reversed on appeal, the plaintiff, or if he die and the cause of action survive, his representatives, may commence a new action within one year after the reversal.

Where action stayed by injunction.

SEC. 79. PROVISION WHERE ACTION IS STAYED BY INJUNCTION.—When the commencement of an action is stayed by injunction or statutory prohibition, the time of the continuance of the injunction or prohibition is not part of the time limited for the commencement of the action.

Disability must exist when right of action accrued.

SEC. 80. DISABILITY MUST EXIST WHEN RIGHT OF ACTION ACCRUED.—No person can avail himself of a disability, unless it existed when his right of action accrued.

SEC. 81. WHEN TWO OR MORE DISABILITIES EXIST, ETC.—When two or more disabilities coexist at the time the right of action accrues, the limitation does not attach until they are removed.

When two or more disabilities exist, etc.

SEC. 82. ACKNOWLEDGMENT OR NEW PROMISE MUST BE IN WRITING.—No acknowledgment or promise is sufficient evidence of a new or continuing contract, by which to take the case out of the operation of this chapter, unless the same is contained in some writing, signed by the party to be charged thereby.

Acknowledgments, etc., must be in writing.

SEC. 83. LIMITATION LAWS OF STATES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES, EFFECTS OF.—When a cause of action has arisen in a State of the United States, or in a foreign country, and by the laws thereof an action thereon can not there be maintained against a person by reason of the lapse of time, an action thereon shall not be maintained against him in the Canal Zone, except in favor of one who has been a resident of the Zone, and who has held the cause of action from the time it accrued.

Limitation laws of States or foreign countries, effect of.

SEC. 84. EXISTING CAUSES OF ACTION NOT AFFECTED.—This chapter does not extend to actions already commenced, nor to cases where the time prescribed in any existing statute for acquiring a right or barring a remedy has fully run, but the laws now in force are applicable to such actions and cases, and are repealed subject to the provisions of this section.

Existing causes of action not affected.

SEC. 85. "ACTION" INCLUDES A SPECIAL PROCEEDING.—The word "action" as used in this chapter is to be construed, whenever it is necessary so to do, as including a special proceeding of a civil nature.

"Action" includes a special proceeding.

CHAPTER 6.—PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS

PARTIES TO CIVIL ACTIONS.

SEC. 86. CIVIL ACTIONS OR SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS BETWEEN NONRESIDENTS.—No civil action or special proceeding shall be brought or proceeded with in the courts of the Canal Zone, in any case in which both of the parties, plaintiff and defendant, are alien nonresidents of the Canal Zone, and the cause of action is one which arose without the territorial limits of the Canal Zone, and the party proceeded against has no property within said territorial limits, subject to the jurisdiction of the Canal Zone courts.

Civil actions or special proceedings between nonresidents.

Neither shall any civil action or special proceeding be brought or proceeded with in the courts of the Canal Zone when both parties, plaintiff and defendant, though citizens of the United States, are found transiently within the limits of the Canal Zone, unless the cause of action is one arising within the said territorial limits, or the party proceeded against has property within the said limits, subject to the jurisdiction of the Canal Zone courts.

Transients.

This section shall not be construed to exclude from the jurisdiction of the Canal Zone courts cases between parties who have an official or business residence within the territorial limits of the Canal Zone Government, or who reside therein for the purpose of any occupation or employment, notwithstanding that they may not have acquired a permanent residence within said territorial limits.

Persons having business situs, etc.

SEC. 87. ACTION TO BE IN NAME OF PARTY IN INTEREST.—Every action must be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest.

Action in name of party in interest.

SEC. 88. ASSIGNMENT OF THING IN ACTION NOT TO PREJUDICE DEFENSE.—In the case of an assignment of a thing in action, the action by the assignee is without prejudice to any set off, or other defense existing at the time of, or before, notice of the assignment; but this section does not apply to a negotiable promissory note or bill of exchange, transferred in good faith, and upon good consideration, before maturity.

Assignment of a thing in action not to prejudice defense.

Executor, trustee, etc., may sue without joining beneficiary.

SEC. 89. EXECUTOR, TRUSTEE, AND SO FORTH, MAY SUE WITHOUT JOINING THE PERSONS BENEFICIALLY INTERESTED.—An executor or administrator, or trustee of an express trust, or a person expressly authorized by statute, may sue without joining with him the persons for whose benefit the action is prosecuted. A person with whom, or in whose name, a contract is made for the benefit of another, is a trustee of an express trust, within the meaning of this section.

Married women as parties.

SEC. 90. MARRIED WOMEN AS PARTIES TO ACTIONS.—A married woman may be sued without her husband being joined as a party, and may sue without her husband being joined as a party in all actions, including those for injury to her person, libel, slander, false imprisonment, or malicious prosecution, or for the recovery of her earnings.

When wife may defend.

SEC. 91. WIFE MAY DEFEND, WHEN.—If a husband and wife be sued together, the wife may defend for her own right, and if the husband neglect to defend, she may defend for his right also.

Appearance of infant, etc.

SEC. 92. APPEARANCE OF INFANT, AND SO FORTH, BY GUARDIAN; MAY COMPROMISE.—When an infant, or an insane or incompetent person is a party, he must appear either by his general guardian or by a guardian ad litem appointed by the court in which the action is pending, in each case. A guardian ad litem may be appointed in any case, when it is deemed by the court in which the action or proceeding is prosecuted, or by a judge thereof, expedient to represent the infant, insane, or incompetent person in the action or proceeding, notwithstanding he may have a general guardian and may have appeared by him. The general guardian or guardian ad litem so appearing for any infant, or insane or incompetent person in any suit shall have power to compromise the same and to agree to the judgment to be entered therein for or against his ward, subject to the approval of the court in which such suit is pending.

Power of guardian, etc., to compromise.

How guardian appointed.

SEC. 93. GUARDIAN, HOW APPOINTED.—When a guardian ad litem is appointed by the court, he must be appointed as follows:

1. When the infant is plaintiff, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years, or if under that age, upon the application of a relative or friend of the infant.

2. When the infant is defendant, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years, and apply within ten days after the service of the summons, or if under that age, or if he neglect so to apply, then upon the application of a relative or friend of the infant, or of any other party to the action.

3. When an insane or incompetent person is a party to an action or proceeding, upon the application of a relative or friend of such insane or incompetent person, or of any other party to the action or proceeding.

Suits by unmarried female for seduction.

SEC. 94. UNMARRIED FEMALE MAY SUE FOR HER OWN SEDUCTION.—An unmarried female may prosecute, as plaintiff, an action for her own seduction, and may recover therein such damages, pecuniary or exemplary, as are assessed in her favor.

Suit by father, etc.

SEC. 95. FATHERS, ETC., MAY SUE FOR SEDUCTION OF DAUGHTER, ETC.—A father, or, in case of his death or desertion of his family, the mother, may prosecute as plaintiff for seduction of the daughter, and the guardian for the seduction of the ward, though the daughter or ward be not living with or in the service of the plaintiff at the time of the seduction or afterwards, and there be no loss of service.

Actions for wrongful death.

SEC. 96. ACTIONS FOR WRONGFUL DEATH.—1. Whenever by any injury done or happening within the Canal Zone the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect, or default, and the act, neglect, or default is such as would, if death had not ensued, have entitled the party injured (or, in the case of a married woman, have entitled her or her husband, either individually or jointly) to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, the individual who or corporation, company, or association which would have been liable if death had not ensued shall be liable to an action for damages notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and even though the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to a felony.

2. Every action under this section shall be brought by and in the name of the personal representatives and within one year after the death of such deceased person.

3. No action shall be maintained under this section if the person suffering injury and death, or any person for him, has recovered damages on account of such injury.

4. In an action under this section the court or jury shall award such damages as it shall deem to be a fair and just compensation assessed with reference to the pecuniary injury, resulting from such death, to the surviving spouse and the children of the deceased, and if there is neither a surviving spouse nor child, then to the parents of the deceased, and if there is no parent, then to the brothers and sisters and other blood relatives dependent upon the deceased for support.

5. Damages recovered in an action under this section shall be for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse and other persons enumerated in subdivision 4, and shall be distributed to them, in the order named in such subdivision, according to the laws in force in the Canal Zone applicable to the distribution of estates.

6. In no case shall recovery under this section exceed the sum of $10,000.

7. This section shall not be construed as authorizing a suit against the United States nor as modifying or repealing any other law. (Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 7, 44 Stat. 927.)

SEC. 97. WHO MAY BE JOINED AS PLAINTIFFS.—All persons having an interest in the subject of the action, and in obtaining the relief demanded, may be joined as plaintiffs, except when otherwise provided in this chapter.

SEC. 98. WHO MAY BE JOINED AS DEFENDANTS.—Any person may be made a defendant who has or claims an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who is a necessary party to a complete determination or settlement of the question involved therein. And in an action to determine the title or right of possession to real property which, at the time of the commencement of the action, is in the possession of a tenant, the landlord may be joined as a party defendant.

SEC. 99. SAME.—All persons may be joined as defendants against whom the right to any relief is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative; and judgments may be given against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities.

SEC. 100. ORDER PREVENTING EMBARRASSMENT.—It shall not be necessary that each defendant shall be interested as to all relief prayed for, or as to every cause of action included in any proceeding against him; but the court may make such order as may appear just to prevent any defendant from being embarrassed or put to expense by being required to attend any proceedings in which he may have no interest.

SEC. 101. DOUBT AS TO DEFENDANT LIABLE.—Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to redress, he may join two or more defendants, with the intent that the question as to which, if any, of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined between the parties.

Actions to determine conflicting claims to real property.

SEC. 102. PARTIES DEFENDANT IN AN ACTION TO DETERMINE CONFLICTING CLAIMS TO REAL PROPERTY.—In an action brought by a person out of possession of real property, to determine an adverse claim of an interest or estate therein, the person making such adverse claim and persons in possession may be joined as defendants, and if the judgment be for the plaintiff, he may have a writ for the possession of the premises, as against the defendants in the action, against whom the judgment has passed.

When parties in interest joined.

SEC. 103. PARTIES IN INTEREST, WHEN TO BE JOINED; WHEN ONE OR MORE MAY SUE OR DEFEND FOR THE WHOLE.—Of the parties to the action, those who are united in interest must be joined as plaintiffs or defendants; but if the consent of any one who should have been joined as plaintiff can not be obtained, he may be made a defendant, the reason thereof being stated in the complaint; and when the question is one of a common or general interest, of many persons, or when the parties are numerous, and it is impracticable to bring them all before the court, one or more may sue or defend for the benefit of all.

When one or more may sue or defend for the whole.

Suits on commercial paper, etc.

SEC. 104. PLAINTIFF MAY SUE IN ONE ACTION THE DIFFERENT PARTIES TO COMMERCIAL PAPER OR INSURANCE POLICIES.—Persons severally liable upon the same obligation or instrument, including the parties to bills of exchange and promissory notes, and sureties on the same or separate instruments, may all or any of them be included in the same action, at the option of the plaintiff; and all or any of them join as plaintiffs in the same action, concerning or affecting the obligation or instrument upon which they are severally liable. Where the same person is insured by two or more insurers separately in respect to the same subject and interest, such person, or the payee under the policies, or the assignee of the cause of action, or other successor in interest of such assured or payee, may join all or any of such insurers in a single action for the recovery of a loss under the several policies, and in case of judgment a several judgment must be rendered against each of such insurers according as his liability shall appear.

By tenants in common, etc.

SEC. 105. TENANTS IN COMMON, AND SO FORTH, MAY SEVER IN BRINGING OR DEFENDING ACTIONS.—All persons holding as tenants in common, joint tenants, or coparceners, or any number less than all, may jointly or severally commence or defend any civil action or proceeding for the enforcement or protection of the rights of such party.

Action, when not abated.

SEC. 106. ACTION, WHEN NOT TO ABATE BY DEATH, MARRIAGE, OR OTHER DISABILITY; PROCEEDINGS IN SUCH CASE.—An action or proceeding does not abate by the death, or any disability of a party, or by the transfer of any interest therein, if the cause of action survive or continue. In case of the death or any disability of a party, the court, on motion, may allow the action or proceeding to be continued by or against his representative or successor in interest. In case of any other transfer of interest, the action or proceeding may be continued in the name of the original party, or the court may allow the person to whom the transfer is made to be substituted in the action or proceeding.

Substitution of defendant; conflicting claims, how made.

SEC. 107. ANOTHER PERSON MAY BE SUBSTITUTED FOR THE DEFENDANT; CONFLICTING CLAIMS, HOW MADE.—A defendant, against whom an action is pending upon a contract, or for specific personal property, may, at any time before answer, upon affidavit that a person not a party to the action makes against him, and without any collusion with him, a demand upon such contract, or for such property, upon notice to such person and the adverse party, apply to the court for an order to substitute such person in his place, and discharge him from liability to either party, on his depositing in court the amount claimed on the contract, or delivering the property or its value to such person as the court may direct; and the court may, in its discretion, make the order. And whenever conflicting claims are or may be made upon a person for or relating to personal property, or the performance of an obligation, or any portion thereof, such person may bring an action against the conflicting claimants to compel them to interplead and litigate their several claims among themselves. The order of substitution may be made and the action of interpleader may be maintained, and the applicant or plaintiff be discharged from liability to all or any of the conflicting claimants, although their titles or claims have not a common origin, or are not identical, but are adverse to and independent of one another.

SEC. 108. INTERVENTION, WHEN IT TAKES PLACE, AND HOW MADE.—At any time before trial, any person, who has an interest in the matter in litigation, or in the success of either of the parties, or an interest against both, may intervene in the action or proceeding. An intervention takes place when a third person is permitted to become a party to an action or proceeding between other persons, either by joining the plaintiff in claiming what is sought by the complaint, or by uniting with the defendant in resisting the claims of the plaintiff, or by demanding anything adversely to both the plaintiff and the defendant, and is made by complaint, setting forth the grounds upon which the intervention rests, filed by leave of the court and served upon the parties to the action or proceeding who have not appeared, and upon the attorneys of the parties who have appeared, who may answer or demur to it within ten days from the service thereof, if served within the Canal Zone, or within forty days if served elsewhere.

Intervention.

SEC. 109. ASSOCIATES MAY BE SUED BY NAME OF ASSOCIATION.—When two or more persons, associated in any business, transact such business under a common name, whether it comprises the names of such persons or not, the associates may be sued by such common name, the summons in such cases being served on one or more of the associates; and the judgment in the action shall bind the joint property of all the associates, and the individual property of the party or parties served with process, in the same manner as if all had been named defendants and had been sued upon their joint liability.

Suits against business associates.

SEC. 110. COURT, WHEN TO DECIDE CONTROVERSY OR TO ORDER OTHER PARTIES TO BE BROUGHT IN.—The court may determine any controversy between parties before it, when it can be done without prejudice to the rights of others, or by saving their rights; but when a complete determination of the controversy can not be had without the presence of other parties, the court must then order them to be brought in, and to that end may order amended and supplemental pleadings, or a cross-complaint to be filed, and summons thereon to be issued and served. And when, in an action for the recovery of real or personal property, or to determine conflicting claims thereto, a person, not a party to the action, but having an interest in the subject thereof, makes application to the court to be made a party, it may order him to be brought in, by the proper amendment.

Court, when to decide controversy or to order other parties to be brought in.

CHAPTER 7.—PLACE OF TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS

PLACE OF TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS.

SEC. 111. PLACE OF TRIAL OF CIVIL ACTIONS IN GENERAL.—All actions not hereinafter otherwise provided for may be brought in the division or subdivision where the defendant or necessary party defendant may reside or be found, or in the division or subdivision where the plaintiff or one of the plaintiffs resides, at the election of the plaintiff, except in cases where other special provision is made in this code. In case neither the plaintiff nor the defendant resides within the

In general.

Canal Zone, and the action is brought to seize or obtain title to property of the defendant within the Canal Zone, the action shall be brought in the division or subdivision where the property which the plaintiff seeks to seize or obtain title to is situated or is found.

Actions against executors, administrators, and guardians touching the performance of their official duties, and actions for account and settlement by them, and actions for the distribution of the estates of deceased persons among the heirs and distributees, and actions for the payment of legacies, shall be brought in the division in which the will was admitted to probate, or letters of administration were granted, or the guardian was appointed.

Actions to obtain possession of real property, or to recover damages for injuries to real property, or to establish any interest or right in or to real property, shall be brought in the division where such property, or some part thereof, is situated.

And in all cases process may issue from the division of the district court in which an action or special proceedings is pending, to be in force in either division, to bring in defendants and to enforce all orders and decrees of the court.

The failure of the defendant to object to the venue of the action at the time of entering his appearance in the action shall be deemed a waiver on his part of all objections thereto, except in the case of actions against executors, administrators, and guardians, and for the distribution of estates and payment of legacies.

Actions for divorce.

Vol. 42, p. 1008.

SEC. 112. ACTIONS FOR DIVORCE.—Complaints for divorce shall be filed in the division of the district court in which the plaintiff resides. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 13, 42 Stat. 1008.)

Change of venue.

SEC. 113. CHANGE OF VENUE.—The district judge may order a change of venue in any civil case or special proceeding from one division of said court to the other, whenever in his opinion, in the interest of justice, such action becomes necessary. Such change of venue may be ordered upon the motion of the judge, on the application of either party or by consent of parties.

Whenever a change of venue has been ordered by the court, the clerk shall immediately make out a true transcript of all the orders made in said cause, and certify thereto under his official seal, and transmit the same with the original papers in the case to the other division of the district, and the case shall be tried therein as if it had been instituted there originally.

Process may issue from one division of the district court to be in force in the other, see section 111.

Complaints.

SEC. 114. ACTIONS, HOW COMMENCED.—Civil actions in the district court of the Canal Zone are commenced by filing a complaint.

Indorsement; when summons may issue;
how waived.

SEC. 115. COMPLAINT, HOW INDORSED; WHEN SUMMONS MAY BE ISSUED, AND HOW WAIVED.—The clerk must indorse on the complaint the day, month, and year that it is filed, and at any time within one year thereafter, the plaintiff may have a summons issued, and if the action be brought against two or more defendants, who reside in different divisions, may have a summons issued for each of such divisions at the same time. But at any time within the year after the complaint is filed, the defendant may, in writing, or by appearing and answering or demurring, waive the issuing of summons; or, if the action be brought upon a joint contract of two or more defendants, and one of them has appeared within the year, the other or others may be served or appear after the year at any time before trial.

SEC. 116. SUMMONS, HOW ISSUED, DIRECTED, AND WHAT TO CONTAIN, IN GENERAL.—The summons must be directed to the defendant, signed by the clerk, and issued under the seal of the court, and must contain:

Summons, how issued, directed, contents.

1. The names of the parties to the action, the court in which it is brought, and the division in which the complaint is filed;

2. A direction that the defendant appear and answer the complaint within ten days, if the summons is served within the Canal Zone; within forty days, if served outside of the Canal Zone;

3. A notice that, unless the defendant so appears and answers, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or will apply to the court for any other relief demanded in the complaint.

SEC. 117. ALIAS SUMMONS.—If the summons is returned without being served on any or all of the defendants, or if it has been lost, the clerk, upon the demand of the plaintiff, may issue an alias summons in the same form as the original, and within such time as the original might have been served if it had not been lost or returned.

Alias summons.

SEC. 118. SUMMONS, HOW SERVED AND RETURNED, IN GENERAL.—The summons may be served by the marshal, or by any other person over the age of eighteen, not a party to the action. A copy of the complaint must be served, with the summons, upon each of the defendants. When the summons is served by the marshal, it must be returned, with his certificate of its service and of the service of any copy of the complaint, where such copy is served, to the office of the clerk from which it issued. When it is served by any other person, it must be returned to the same place, with an affidavit of such person of its service, and of the service of a copy of the complaint, where such copy is served.

Service, return of.

SEC. 119. SERVICE OF SUMMONS, IN GENERAL.—The summons must be served by delivering a copy thereof as follows:

Service of summons.

1. If suit is against a foreign corporation, or a nonresident joint stock company or association doing business within the Canal Zone: To a managing or business agent, cashier or secretary, if such there be within the Canal Zone; or to any agent authorized to accept service for it.

2. If against a minor, under the age of fourteen years, residing within the Canal Zone: To such minor, personally, and also to his father, mother, or guardian; or if there be none within the Canal Zone, then to any person having the care or control of such minor, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed.

3. If against a person residing within the Canal Zone who has been judicially declared to be of unsound mind, or incapable of conducting his own affairs, and for whom a guardian has been appointed: To such person, and also to his guardian.

4. In all cases where a corporation has forfeited its right to do business in the Canal Zone, by delivering a copy thereof to one of the persons who have become the trustees of the corporation and of its stockholders or members.

5. In all other cases to the defendant personally.

SEC. 120. PROCEEDINGS WHERE THERE ARE SEVERAL DEFENDANTS, AND PART ONLY ARE SERVED.—When the action is against two or more defendants jointly or severally liable on a contract, and the summons is served on one or more, but not on all of them, the plaintiff may proceed against the defendants served in the same manner as if they were the only defendants.

Service by publication, in general.

SEC. 121. CASES IN WHICH SERVICE OF SUMMONS MAY BE BY PUBLICATION, IN GENERAL.—Where the person on whom service is to be made resides out of the Canal Zone; or has departed from the Zone; or can not, after due diligence, be found within the Zone; or conceals himself to avoid the service of summons; or is a corporation having no officer or other person upon whom summons may be served, who, after due diligence, can be found within the Zone, and the fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the court, or the judge thereof; and it also appears by such affidavit, or by the verified complaint on file, that a cause of action exists against the defendant in respect to whom the service is to be made, or that he is a necessary or proper party to the action; or when it appears by such affidavit, or by the complaint on file, that it is an action which relates to or the subject of which is real or personal property in the Zone, in which such person defendant or corporation defendant has or claims a lien or interest, actual or contingent, therein, or in which the relief demanded consists wholly or in part in excluding such person or corporation from any interest therein, such court or judge may make an order that the service be made by the publication of the summons.

CROSS REFERENCE

Divorce actions, service by publication, see section 126.

Manner of publication.

SEC. 122. MANNER OF PUBLICATION IN GENERAL.—The order must direct the publication to be made in such newspaper or newspapers, to be designated by the judge, as is, or are most likely to give notice to the person to be served, and for such length of time as may be deemed reasonable, at least once a week for three consecutive weeks; but the last publication against a defendant residing out of the Zone, or absent therefrom, must not be less than forty days before the day on which the defendant is required to appear. In case of publication, where the residence of a nonresident or absent defendant is known, the judge must direct a copy of the summons and complaint to be forthwith deposited by the clerk in the postoffice, directed to the person to be served, at his place of residence. If the residence of the defendant is unknown, then to his last known place of residence with the request to forward if not called for in five days.

In any case where service by publication may be ordered, the court or judge, upon application of the plaintiff, shall authorize personal service upon the defendant outside of the Canal Zone. Such service shall be made by delivering to the defendant in person a true copy of the summons and the complaint, and may be made by any person not a party to or otherwise interested in the subject matter in controversy. Such service shall have only the effect of service of summons by publication. Return on such service shall be made under oath, with a notation of the time and place of service.

Proof of service, how made.

SEC. 123. PROOF OF SERVICE, HOW MADE, IN GENERAL.—Proof of the service of summons and complaint must be as follows:

1. If served by the marshal or deputy, his certificate thereof;
2. If by any other person, his affidavit thereof; or,
3. In case of publication, the certificate of the clerk of the court to which a copy of the publication shall be attached; and a certificate of the clerk showing the deposit of a copy of the summons in the post office, if the same has been deposited; or,
4. The written admission of the defendant.

In case of service otherwise than by publication, the certificate or affidavit must state the time and place of service.

SEC. 124. WHEN JURISDICTION OF ACTION IS ACQUIRED.—From the time of the service of the summons and of a copy of the complaint in a civil action, where service of a copy of the complaint is required, or of the completion of the publication when service by publication is ordered, the court is deemed to have acquired jurisdiction of the parties, and to have control of all the subsequent proceedings. In all cases where a corporation has forfeited its right to do business in the Canal Zone, the persons who become the trustees of the corporation and of its stockholders or members may be sued in the corporate name of such corporation in like manner as if no forfeiture had occurred and from the time of service of the summons and of a copy of the complaint in a civil action, upon one of said trustees, or of the completion of the publication when service by publication is ordered, the court is deemed to have acquired jurisdiction of all said trustees, and to have control of all the subsequent proceedings. The voluntary appearance of a defendant is equivalent to personal service of the summons and copy of the complaint upon him.

When jurisdiction of action is acquired.

PROCESS IN DIVORCE ACTIONS

Process in divorce actions.

SEC. 125. PROCESS IN DIVORCE ACTIONS IN GENERAL.—The process and practice under proceedings for divorce shall be the same as in other cases in chancery except as otherwise provided in sections 112, 126, 127, 147, and 1224 of this code or in chapter 5 of the Civil Code. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 16, 42 Stat. 1010; Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, C. 19, § 4, 44 Stat. 926.)

SEC. 126. SAME; PROCESS AND SERVICE, PERSONAL AND BY PUBLICATION.—(a) Upon the filing of a complaint for divorce and the affidavit required by subdivision (b), of section 91 of the Civil Code, the clerk of the district court shall issue a summons requiring the defendant to appear and answer. If the defendant can be found in the Canal Zone, such summons shall be served by delivering to the defendant in person a true copy thereof and a copy of the complaint for divorce. If the defendant can not be found in the Canal Zone, the summons shall be returned to such clerk with an indorsement thereon showing such fact.

Process and service, personal and by publication.
Post, p. 1135.

(b) Upon application of the plaintiff, accompanied by the affidavit required by subdivision (c), if the summons has not been served as provided in subdivision (a), the court, or the judge thereof, shall enter an order directing service of a summons by publication if it appears to the satisfaction of such court or judge—

(1) That the defendant can not be found in the Canal Zone; and
(2) That a proper cause for divorce is alleged in favor of the plaintiff; and

(3) Either (A) that the husband and wife have resided together in the Canal Zone and that the defendant has gone out of the Canal Zone and willfully refuses to return, so that process can not be personally served upon such defendant; or (B) that the marriage was celebrated in the Canal Zone and that the defendant has abandoned the plaintiff and gone out of the Canal Zone in disregard of his or her marital obligations.

(c) The plaintiff shall file, with the application for an order directing service of summons by publication, an affidavit stating the present address of the defendant, except that if such address is not known to the plaintiff such affidavit shall state the last known address of the defendant, and that, after the exercise of due diligence, the plaintiff has been unable to ascertain such present address. Such affidavit shall contain such other information as the court, or the judge thereof, may require.

(d) Upon entry of an order directing service of a summons by publication the clerk of the court shall cause such summons to be published at least once each week for three successive weeks in the newspaper designated in such order. The court, or the judge thereof, shall designate a newspaper printed and published in the Canal Zone and of general circulation therein, or a newspaper printed in English or having an English section or edition and published in the Republic of Panama and having a general circulation in the Canal Zone, which, in the opinion of the court or judge, will be most likely to give notice to the defendant. The clerk of the court shall mail a copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint, not later than ten days after the first publication of the summons, addressed to the defendant at his or her last known place of residence. The court is authorized to adopt rules prescribing the form of such summons.

(e) The clerk of the court, after the last publication of a summons, shall make certificate that the summons has been published and that a copy of the summons and complaint has been mailed as required in subdivision (d), and a copy of such summons as published shall be attached to such certificate. Such certificate and copy shall be evidence of such publication and mailing.

(f) In any case where service by publication may be ordered the court, or the judge thereof, upon application of the plaintiff, shall authorize personal service upon the defendant outside the Canal Zone. Such service shall be made by delivering to the defendant in person a true copy of the summons and a copy of the complaint for divorce, and may be made by any person not a party to or otherwise interested in the subject matter in controversy. Such service shall have only the effect of service of summons by publication. Return of such summons shall be made with a notation of the time and place of service and the fact that the defendant served is a nonresident of the Canal Zone. Such return shall be made under oath. The cost of making such service shall be borne by the party at whose instance the same was made, except that if made by any officer authorized to serve process, the actual cost of such service shall be included as a part of the cost of the case.

(g) All the facts relating to the service of summons, whether made personally or by publication, must be established to the satisfaction of the court, or the judge thereof, before any decree is entered pursuant to a complaint for divorce. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 15, 42 Stat. 1009; Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, C. 19, § 3, 44 Stat. 924.)

TIME FOR APPEARANCE AND ANSWER IN SUITS FOR DIVORCE.—In no divorce proceedings shall the cause stand for trial before the expiration of the time allowed for the defendant to appear and answer. A summons issued or published under section 126 shall require the defendant to appear and answer—

(1) Within ten days after personal service thereof if such service is had in the Canal Zone;

(2) Within thirty days after personal service thereof if such service is had in the Republic of Panama;

(3) Within ninety days after personal service if such service is had outside of the Canal Zone and the Republic of Panama;

(4) Within thirty days after the first publication of summons if the defendant resides in the Canal Zone or the Republic of Panama; and

(5) Within ninety days after the first publication of summons if the defendant resides outside the Canal Zone and the Republic of Panama. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 16, 42 Stat. 1010; Act Cong. Dec. 29, 1926, C. 19, § 4, 44 Stat. 926.)

CHAPTER 9.—PLEADINGS IN CIVIL ACTIONS

PLEADINGS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

PLEADINGS IN GENERAL

In general.

SEC. 128. DEFINITION OF PLEADINGS.—The pleadings are the formal allegations by the parties of their respective claims and defenses, for the judgment of the court.

“Pleadings,” defined.

SEC. 129. THIS CODE PRESCRIBES THE FORM AND RULES OF PLEADINGS.—The forms of pleading in civil actions, and the rules by which the sufficiency of the pleadings is to be determined, are those prescribed in this code.

Forms and rules.

SEC. 130. WHAT PLEADINGS ARE ALLOWED.—The only pleadings allowed on the part of the plaintiff are:

What pleadings allowed.

1. The complaint;
2. The demurrer to the answer;
3. The demurrer to the cross-complaint;
4. The answer to the cross-complaint.

And on the part of the defendant:

1. The demurrer to the complaint;
2. The answer;
3. The cross-complaint;
4. The demurrer to the answer to the cross-complaint.

COMPLAINT

Complaint.

SEC. 131. COMPLAINT, FIRST PLEADING.—The first pleading on the part of the plaintiff is the complaint.

First pleading.

SEC. 132. COMPLAINT, WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The complaint must contain:

Contents.

1. The title of the action, the name of the court and division in which the action is brought, and the names of the parties to the action;

2. A statement of the facts constituting the cause of action, in ordinary and concise language;

3. A demand of the relief which the plaintiff claims. If the recovery of money or damages be demanded, the amount thereof must be stated.

SEC. 133. STATEMENT OF FACTS IN DIVORCE COMPLAINT.—In the action for divorce the complaint must set forth, among other matters, as near as can be ascertained, the following facts:

Statement of facts in divorce complaint.

- (1) The State or country in which the parties were married.
- (2) The date of marriage.
- (3) The date of separation.
- (4) The number of years from marriage to separation.
- (5) The number of children of the marriage, if any, and if none, a statement of that fact.
- (6) The ages of the minor children.

Causes of action which may be united.

SEC. 134. CAUSES OF ACTION WHICH MAY BE UNITED; CAUSES UNITED MUST BELONG TO ONE CLASS.—The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, where they all arise out of:

1. Contracts, express or implied;
2. Claims to recover damages for the withholding of specific real property, or for waste committed thereon, and the rents and profits of the same;
3. Claims to recover specific personal property, with or without damages for the withholding thereof;
4. Claims against a trustee by virtue of a contract or by operation of law;
5. Injuries to character;
6. Injuries to person;
7. Injuries to property;
8. Claims arising out of the same transaction, or transactions connected with the same subject of action, and not included within one of the foregoing subdivisions of this section.

Must belong to one class.

The causes of action so united must all belong to one only of these classes, and must affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and must be separately stated; but an action for malicious arrest and prosecution, or either of them, may be united with an action for either an injury to character or to the person; provided, however, that in any action brought by the husband and wife, to recover damages caused by any injury to the wife, all consequential damages suffered or sustained by the husband alone, including loss of the services of his said wife, moneys expended and indebtedness incurred by reason of such injury to his said wife, may be alleged and recovered without separately stating such cause of action arising out of such consequential damages suffered or sustained by the husband; provided, further, that causes of action for injuries to person and injuries to property, growing out of the same tort, may be joined in the same complaint, and it is not required that they be stated separately.

Demurrer to complaint.

DEMURRER TO COMPLAINT

When defendant may demur.

SEC. 135. WHEN DEFENDANT MAY DEMUR.—The defendant may demur to the complaint within the time required in the summons to answer, when it appears upon the face thereof, either:

1. That the court has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant, or the subject of the action;
2. That the plaintiff has not legal capacity to sue;
3. That there is another action pending between the same parties for the same cause;
4. That there is a defect or misjoinder of parties plaintiff or defendant;
5. That several causes of action have been improperly united, or not separately stated;
6. That the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action;
7. That the complaint is ambiguous;
8. That the complaint is unintelligible; or,
9. That the complaint is uncertain.

Demurrer must specify grounds; may be taken in part; may answer and demur at same time.

SEC. 136. DEMURRER MUST SPECIFY GROUNDS; MAY BE TAKEN TO PART; MAY ANSWER AND DEMUR AT SAME TIME.—The demurrer must distinctly specify the grounds upon which any of the objections to the complaint are taken. Unless it does so, it may be disregarded. It may be taken to the whole complaint, or to any of the causes of action stated therein, and the defendant may demur and answer at the same time.

SEC. 137. WHAT PROCEEDINGS ARE TO BE HAD WHEN COMPLAINT IS AMENDED.—If the complaint is amended, a copy of the amendments must be filed, or the court may, in its discretion, require the complaint as amended to be filed, and a copy of the amendments or amended complaint must be served upon the defendants affected thereby. The defendant must answer the amendments, or the complaint as amended, within ten days after service thereof, or such other time as the court may direct, and judgment by default may be entered upon failure to answer, as in other cases.

Proceedings when complaint amended.

SEC. 138. OBJECTION NOT APPEARING ON COMPLAINT, MAY BE TAKEN BY ANSWER.—When any of the matters enumerated in section 135 do not appear upon the face of the complaint, the objection may be taken by answer.

Objection not appearing on complaint, may be taken by answer.
Ante, p. 930.

SEC. 139. OBJECTIONS, WHEN DEEMED WAIVED.—If no objection be taken, either by demurrer or answer, the defendant must be deemed to have waived the same, excepting only the objection to the jurisdiction of the court, and the objection that the complaint does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action.

When deemed waived.

ANSWER

Answer.

SEC. 140. ANSWER, WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The answer of the defendant shall contain:

Contents.

1. A general or specific denial of the material allegations of the complaint controverted by the defendant.

2. A statement of any new matter constituting a defense or counterclaim.

If the complaint be verified, the denial of each allegation controverted must be specific, and be made positively, or according to the information and belief of the defendant. If the defendant has no information or belief upon the subject sufficient to enable him to answer an allegation of the complaint, he may so state in his answer, and place his denial on that ground. If the complaint be not verified, a general denial is sufficient, but only puts in issue the material allegations of the complaint.

SEC. 141. ACTIONS TO RECOVER INSURANCE; WHAT DEFENDANT CLAIMING EXEMPTION MUST SET UP.—In an action to recover upon a contract of insurance wherein the defendant claims exemption from liability upon the ground that, although the proximate cause of the loss was a peril insured against, the loss was remotely caused by or would not have occurred but for a peril excepted in the contract of insurance, the defendant shall in his answer set forth and specify the peril which was the proximate cause of the loss, in what manner the peril excepted contributed to the loss or itself caused the peril insured against, and if he claim that the peril excepted caused the peril insured against, he shall in his answer set forth and specify upon what premises or at what place the peril excepted caused the peril insured against.

Actions to recover insurance; what defendant claiming exemption must plead.

SEC. 142. WHEN COUNTERCLAIM MAY BE SET UP.—The counterclaim mentioned in section 140 must be one existing in favor of a defendant and against a plaintiff, between whom a several judgment might be had in the action, and arising out of one of the following causes of action:

When counterclaim may be set up.

1. A cause of action arising out of the transaction set forth in the complaint as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, or connected with the subject of the action;

2. In an action arising upon contract; any other cause of action arising also upon contract and existing at the commencement of the action.

When defendant omits to plead.

SEC. 143. WHEN DEFENDANT OMITTS TO SET UP COUNTERCLAIM.—If the defendant omits to set up a counterclaim upon a cause arising out of the transaction set forth in the complaint as the foundation of the plaintiff's claim, neither he nor his assignee can afterwards maintain an action against the plaintiff therefor.

Counterclaim not barred by death or assignment.

SEC. 144. COUNTERCLAIM NOT BARRED BY DEATH OR ASSIGNMENT.—When cross demands have existed between persons under such circumstances that, if one had brought an action against the other, a counterclaim could have been set up, the two demands shall be deemed compensated, so far as they equal each other, and neither can be deprived of the benefit thereof by the assignment or death of the other.

Contents of answer, etc.

SEC. 145. ANSWER MAY CONTAIN SEVERAL GROUNDS OF DEFENSE; DEFENDANT MAY ANSWER PART AND DEMUR TO PART OF COMPLAINT.—The defendant may set forth by answer as many defenses and counterclaims as he may have. They must be separately stated, and the several defenses must refer to the causes of action which they are intended to answer, in a manner by which they may be intelligibly distinguished. The defendant may also answer one or more of the several causes of action stated in the complaint and demur to the residue.

Cross-complaint, in general.

SEC. 146. CROSS-COMPLAINT, IN GENERAL.—Whenever the defendant seeks affirmative relief against any party, relating to or depending upon the contract, transaction, matter, happening or accident upon which the action is brought, or affecting the property to which the action relates, he may, in addition to his answer, file at the same time, or by permission of the court subsequently, a cross-complaint. The cross-complaint must be served upon the parties affected thereby, and such parties may demur or answer thereto as to the original complaint. If any of the parties affected by the cross-complaint have not appeared in the action, a summons upon the cross-complaint must be issued and served upon them in the same manner as upon the commencement of an original action.

Divorce, etc., action.

SEC. 147. CROSS-COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON.—In addition to an answer, the defendant may file a cross-complaint for divorce; and when filed the court shall decree the divorce to the party legally entitled thereto. If the original complaint be dismissed after the filing of the cross-complaint, the defendant may proceed to the trial of the cross-complaint without further notice to the adverse party; and the case upon such cross-complaint shall in all things be governed by the same rules applicable to a case on an original complaint. (Act Cong. Sept. 21, 1922, C. 370, § 19, 42 Stat. 1010.)

Vol. 42, p. 1010.

Demurrer to answer.

DEMURRER TO ANSWER

By plaintiff.

SEC. 148. WHEN PLAINTIFF MAY DEMUR TO ANSWER.—The plaintiff may within ten days after the service of the answer demur thereto, or to one or more of the several defenses or counterclaims set up therein.

Grounds of.

SEC. 149. GROUNDS OF DEMURRER.—The demurrer may be taken upon one or more of the following grounds:

1. That several causes of counterclaim have been improperly joined, or not separately stated;
2. That the answer does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense or counterclaim;
3. That the answer is ambiguous;
4. That the answer is unintelligible; or
5. That the answer is uncertain.

VERIFICATION OF PLEADINGS

Pleadings.

Verification of.

SEC. 150. VERIFICATION OF PLEADINGS.—Every pleading must be subscribed by the party or his attorney; and when the complaint is verified, or when the Government, or any officer of the Government, in his official capacity, is plaintiff, the answer must be verified, unless the admission of the truth of the complaint might subject the party to a criminal prosecution, or, unless an officer of the Government, in his official capacity, is defendant. In all cases of a verification of a pleading, the affidavit of the party must state that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are therein stated on his information or belief, and as to those matters that he believes it to be true; and where a pleading is verified, it must be by the affidavit of a party, unless the parties are absent from the division where the attorney has his office, or from some cause unable to verify it, or the facts are within the knowledge of his attorney or other person verifying the same. When the pleading is verified by the attorney, or any other person except one of the parties, he must set forth in the affidavit the reasons why it is not made by one of the parties. When a corporation is a party, the verification may be made by any officer thereof. When the Government, or any officer of the Government in his official capacity, is plaintiff, the complaint need not be verified.

SEC. 151. COPY OF WRITTEN INSTRUMENT CONTAINED IN COMPLAINT ADMITTED, UNLESS ANSWER IS VERIFIED.—When an action is brought upon a written instrument, and the complaint contains a copy of such instrument, or a copy is annexed thereto, the genuineness and due execution of such instrument are deemed admitted, unless the answer denying the same be verified.

Admittance of copy of instrument in complaint, etc.

SEC. 152. WHEN DEFENSE IS FOUNDED ON WRITTEN INSTRUMENT SET OUT IN ANSWER, ITS EXECUTION ADMITTED, UNLESS DENIED BY PLAINTIFF UNDER OATH.—When the defense to an action is founded on a written instrument, and a copy thereof is contained in the answer, or is annexed thereto, the genuineness and due execution of such instrument are deemed admitted, unless the plaintiff file with the clerk, within ten days after receiving a copy of the answer, an affidavit denying the same, and serve a copy thereof on the defendant.

In defense.

SEC. 153. EXCEPTIONS TO RULES PRESCRIBED BY TWO PRECEDING SECTIONS.—But the execution of the instrument mentioned in sections 151 and 152, is not deemed admitted by a failure to deny the same under oath, if the party desiring to controvert the same is, upon demand, refused an inspection of the original. Such demand must be in writing, served by copy, upon the adverse party or his attorney, and filed with the papers in the case.

Exceptions.

GENERAL RULES OF PLEADING

SEC. 154. PLEADINGS TO BE LIBERALLY CONSTRUED.—In the construction of a pleading, for the purpose of determining its effect, its allegations must be liberally construed, with a view to substantial justice between the parties.

General rules of pleading.

To be liberally construed.

SEC. 155. SHAM AND IRRELEVANT ANSWERS, AND SO FORTH, MAY BE STRICKEN OUT.—Sham and irrelevant answers, and irrelevant and redundant matter inserted in a pleading, may be stricken out, upon such terms as the court may, in its discretion, impose.

Irrelevant answers, etc.

SEC. 156. HOW TO STATE AN ACCOUNT IN A PLEADING.—It is not necessary for a party to set forth in a pleading the items of an account therein alleged, but he must deliver to the adverse party, within five days after a demand thereof in writing, a copy of the Stating an account.

- account, or be precluded from giving evidence thereof. The court or judge may order a further account when the one delivered is too general, or is defective in any particular.
- DESCRIPTION OF REAL PROPERTY IN A PLEADING.—In an action for the recovery of real property, it must be described in the complaint with such certainty as to enable an officer, upon execution, to identify it.
- JUDGMENTS, HOW PLEADED.—In pleading a judgment or other determination of a court, officer, or board, it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction, but such judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. If such allegation be controverted, the party pleading must establish on the trial the facts conferring jurisdiction.
- CONDITIONS PRECEDENT, HOW TO BE PLEADED.—In pleading the performance of conditions precedent in a contract, it is not necessary to state the facts showing such performance, but it may be stated generally that the party duly performed all the conditions on his part, and if such allegation be controverted, the party pleading must establish, on the trial, the facts showing such performance.
- STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS, HOW PLEADED.—In pleading the statute of limitations it is not necessary to state the facts showing the defense, but it may be stated generally that the cause of action is barred by the provisions of section — (giving the number of the section and subdivision thereof, if it is so divided, relied upon) of the Code; and if such allegation be controverted, the party pleading must establish, on the trial, the facts showing that the cause of action is so barred.
- LIBEL AND SLANDER, HOW STATED IN COMPLAINT.—In an action for libel or slander it is not necessary to state in the complaint any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the plaintiff of the defamatory matter out of which the cause of action arose; but it is sufficient to state, generally, that the same was published or spoken concerning the plaintiff; and if such allegation be controverted, the plaintiff must establish on the trial that it was so published or spoken.
- ANSWER IN SUCH CASES.—In the actions mentioned in section 161 the defendant may, in his answer, allege both the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and any mitigating circumstances, to reduce the amount of damages; and whether he prove the justification or not, he may give in evidence the mitigating circumstances.
- ALLEGATIONS NOT DENIED, WHEN TO BE DEEMED TRUE; WHEN TO BE DEEMED CONTROVERTED.—Every material allegation of the complaint, not controverted by the answer, must, for the purposes of the action, be taken as true; the statement of any new matter in the answer in avoidance or constituting a defense or counterclaim, must, on the trial, be deemed controverted by the opposite party.
- A MATERIAL ALLEGATION DEFINED.—A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim or defense, and which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient.
- SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT AND ANSWER.—The plaintiff and defendant, respectively, may be allowed, on motion, to make a supplemental complaint or answer, alleging facts material to the case occurring after the former complaint or answer.
- PLEADINGS SUBSEQUENT TO COMPLAINT MUST BE FILED AND SERVED.—All pleadings subsequent to the complaint, must be filed with the clerk, and copies thereof served upon the adverse party or his attorney.
- DESCRIPTION OF REAL PROPERTY.
- JUDGMENTS, HOW PLEADED.
- CONDITIONS PRECEDENT.
- STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.
- LIBEL AND SLANDER, HOW STATED IN COMPLAINT.
- ANSWER IN SUCH CASES.
- ALLEGATIONS NOT DENIED, WHEN DEEMED TRUE; WHEN DEEMED CONTROVERTED.
- "MATERIAL ALLEGATION," DEFINED.
- SUPPLEMENTAL COMPLAINT AND ANSWER.
- PLEADINGS SUBSEQUENT TO COMPLAINT; FILING; SERVICE OF.

VARIANCE; MISTAKES IN PLEADING AND AMENDMENTS

SEC. 167. MATERIAL VARIANCE, HOW PROVIDED FOR.—No variance between the allegation in a pleading and the proof is to be deemed material, unless it has actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. Whenever it appears that a party has been so misled, the court may order the pleading to be amended, upon such terms as may be just.

Variance; mistakes in pleadings and amendments.

How provided for. When material.

SEC. 168. IMMATERIAL VARIANCE, HOW PROVIDED FOR.—Where the variance is not material, as provided in section 167, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, or may order an immediate amendment, without costs.

Immaterial.

SEC. 169. WHAT NOT TO BE DEEMED A VARIANCE.—Where, however, the allegation of the claim or defense to which the proof is directed, is unproved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its general scope and meaning, it is not to be deemed a case of variance, within sections 167 and 168, but a failure of proof.

What not to be deemed a variance.

SEC. 170. AMENDMENTS OF COURSE, AND EFFECT OF DEMURRER.—Any pleading may be amended once by the party of course, and without costs, at any time before answer or demurrer filed, or after demurrer and before the trial of the issue of law thereon, by filing the same as amended and serving a copy on the adverse party, who may have ten days thereafter in which to answer or demur to the amended pleading. A demurrer is not waived by filing an answer at the same time; and when the demurrer to a complaint is overruled and there is no answer filed, the court may, upon such terms as may be just, allow an answer to be filed. If a demurrer to the answer be overruled, the facts alleged in the answer must be considered as denied, to the extent mentioned in section 163.

Amendments of course, and effect of demurrer.

Ante, p. 934.

SEC. 171. PLEADING MAY BE AMENDED.—The court may in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, allow a party to amend any pleading or proceeding by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect; and may, upon like terms, enlarge the time for answer or demurrer. The court may likewise, in its discretion, after notice to the adverse party, allow, upon such terms as may be just, an amendment to any pleading or proceeding in other particulars; and may upon like terms allow an answer to be made after the time limited by this code.

Pleadings; amendment of.

RELIEF FROM JUDGMENT OR ORDER; TIME FOR APPLICATION; PROCEDURE.—And may, also, upon such terms as may be just, relieve a party or his legal representative from a judgment, order, or other proceeding taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect; provided, that application therefor be made within a reasonable time, but in no case exceeding six months after such judgment, order, or proceeding was taken (and provided, further, that said application must be accompanied with a copy of the answer, or other pleading proposed to be filed therein, otherwise said application shall not be granted). When from any cause the summons in an action has not been personally served on the defendant, the court may allow, on such terms as may be just, such defendant or his legal representative, at any time within one year after the rendition of any judgment in such action, to answer to the merits of the original action.

Relief from judgment or order.

Application; time for making. Procedure.

ACTION TO RECOVER PERSONAL PROPERTY.—When, in an action to recover the possession of personal property, the person making any affidavit did not truly state the value of the property, and the officer taking the property, or the sureties on any bond or undertaking is sued for taking the same, the officer or sureties may in their Personal property, recovery.

answer set up the true value of the property, and that the person in whose behalf said affidavit was made was entitled to the possession of the same when said affidavit was made, or that the value in the affidavit stated was inserted by mistake, the court shall disregard the value as stated in the affidavit, and give judgment according to the right of possession of said property at the time the affidavit was made.

Suing party by fictitious name.

SEC. 172. SUING A PARTY BY A FICTITIOUS NAME, WHEN ALLOWED.—When the plaintiff is ignorant of the name of a defendant, he must state that fact in the complaint, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name is discovered, the pleading or proceeding must be amended accordingly.

Immaterial errors, etc., disregarded.

SEC. 173. NO ERROR OR DEFECT TO BE REGARDED UNLESS IT AFFECTS SUBSTANTIAL RIGHTS.—The court must, in every stage of an action, disregard any error, improper ruling, instruction, or defect, in the pleadings or proceedings which, in the opinion of said court, does not affect the substantial rights of the parties. No judgment, decision, or decree shall be reversed or affected by reason of any error, ruling, instruction, or defect, unless it shall appear from the record that such error, ruling, instruction, or defect was prejudicial, and also that by reason of such error, ruling, instruction, or defect, the said party complaining or appealing sustained and suffered substantial injury, and that a different result would have been probable if such error, ruling, instruction, or defect had not occurred or existed. There shall be no presumption that error is prejudicial, or that injury was done if error is shown.

Time to amend or answer, running of.

SEC. 174. TIME TO AMEND OR ANSWER, RUNNING OF.—When a demurrer to any pleading is sustained or overruled, and time to amend or answer is given, the time so given runs from the service of notice of the decision or order.

PROVISIONAL REMEDIES IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER 10.—PROVISIONAL REMEDIES IN CIVIL ACTIONS

Arrest and bail.

ARREST AND BAIL

Arrest in civil actions.

SEC. 175. NO PERSON TO BE ARRESTED EXCEPT AS PRESCRIBED BY THIS CODE.—No person can be arrested in a civil action, except as prescribed in this code.

When.

SEC. 176. CASES IN WHICH DEFENDANT MAY BE ARRESTED.—The defendant may be arrested, as hereinafter prescribed, in the following cases:

1. In an action for the recovery of money or damages on a cause of action arising upon contract, express or implied, when the defendant is about to depart from the Canal Zone with intent to defraud his creditors.

2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use, by a public officer, or an officer of a corporation, or an attorney, factor, broker, agent, or clerk, in the course of his employment as such, or by any other person in a fiduciary capacity; or for misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment, or for a willful violation of duty.

3. In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, when the property, or any part thereof, has been concealed, removed, or disposed of, to prevent its being found or taken by the marshal.

4. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought; or in concealing or disposing of the property for the taking, detention, or conversion, of which the action is brought.

5. When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors.

SEC. 177. AFFIDAVIT TO OBTAIN ORDER, WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The order for the arrest of the defendant may be made whenever it appears to the judge, by the affidavit of the plaintiff, or some other person, that a sufficient cause of action exists, and that the case is one of those mentioned in section 176. The affidavit must be either positive or upon information and belief; and when upon information and belief, it must state the facts upon which the information and belief are founded. If an order of arrest be made, the affidavit must be filed with the clerk of the court.

Order for arrest; contents.

SEC. 178. SECURITY BY PLAINTIFF BEFORE ORDER OF ARREST.—Before making the order, the judge must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with sureties in an amount to be fixed by the judge, which must be at least $500, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay all costs which may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, if the same be wrongful, or without sufficient cause, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. The undertaking must be filed with the clerk of the court.

Security by plaintiff before order made.

SEC. 179. ORDER, WHEN MADE, AND ITS FORM.—The order may be made at the time of the issuing of the summons, or any time afterwards before judgment. It must require the marshal forthwith to arrest the defendant and hold him to bail in a specified sum, and to return the order at a time therein mentioned, to the clerk of the court.

Order, when made; form.

SEC. 180. AFFIDAVIT AND ORDER TO BE DELIVERED TO THE MARSHAL, AND COPY TO DEFENDANT.—The order of arrest, with a copy of the affidavit upon which it is made, must be delivered to the marshal, who, upon arresting the defendant, must deliver to him a copy of the affidavit, and also, if desired, a copy of the order of arrest.

Delivery of affidavit and order; copy to defendant.

SEC. 181. ARREST, HOW MADE.—The marshal must execute the order by arresting the defendant and keeping him in custody until discharged by law.

How arrest made.

SEC. 182. DEFENDANT TO BE DISCHARGED ON BAIL OR DEPOSIT.—The defendant, at any time before execution, must be discharged from the arrest, either upon giving bail or upon depositing the amount mentioned in the order of arrest.

Defendant to be discharged on bail or deposit.

SEC. 183. BAIL, HOW GIVEN.—The defendant may give bail by causing a written undertaking to be executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in the amount mentioned in the order of arrest, that the defendant will at all times render himself amenable to the process of the court, during the pendency of the action, and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment therein, or that they will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which may be recovered in the action.

Bail, how given.

SEC. 184. SURRENDER OF DEFENDANT.—At any time before judgment, or within ten days thereafter, the bail may surrender the defendant in their exoneration; or he may surrender himself to the marshal.

Surrender of defendant.

SEC. 185. SAME.—For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the bail, at any time or place before they are finally charged, may themselves arrest, or, by a written authority indorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower the marshal to do so. Upon the arrest of defendant by the marshal, or upon his delivery to the Arrest by bail, etc.

marshal by the bail, or upon his own surrender, the bail are exonerated, if such arrest, delivery, or surrender take place before the expiration of ten days after judgment; but if such arrest, delivery, or surrender be not made within ten days after judgment, the bail are finally charged on their undertaking, and bound to pay the amount of the judgment within ten days thereafter.

Procedure against bail.

SEC. 186. BAIL, HOW PROCEEDED AGAINST.—If the bail neglect or refuse to pay the judgment within ten days after they are finally charged, an action may be commenced against such bail for the amount of the original judgment.

How exonerated.

SEC. 187. BAIL, HOW EXONERATED.—The bail are exonerated by the death of the defendant or his imprisonment in jail or in the penitentiary, or by his legal discharge from the obligation to render himself amenable to the process.

Delivery of undertaking to plaintiff, acceptance or rejection.

SEC. 188. DELIVERY OF UNDERTAKING TO PLAINTIFF, AND ITS ACCEPTANCE OR REJECTION BY HIM.—Within the time limited for that purpose, the marshal must file the order of arrest in the office of the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, with his return indorsed thereon, together with a copy of the undertaking of the bail. The original undertaking he must retain in his possession until filed, as herein provided. The plaintiff, within ten days thereafter, may serve upon the marshal a notice that he does not accept the bail, or he is deemed to have accepted them, and the marshal is exonerated from liability. If no notice be served within ten days, the original undertaking must be filed with the clerk of the court.

Notice of justification; new undertaking, if other bail.

SEC. 189. NOTICE OF JUSTIFICATION; NEW UNDERTAKING, IF OTHER BAIL.—Within five days after the receipt of notice, the marshal or defendant may give to the plaintiff or his attorney notice of the justification of the same, or other bail (specifying the places of residence and occupations of the latter), before the judge or clerk of the court, at a specified time and place; the time to be not less than five nor more than ten days thereafter, except by consent of parties. In case other bail be given, there must be a new undertaking.

Qualifications of bail.

SEC. 190. QUALIFICATIONS OF BAIL.—The qualifications of bail are as follows:

1. Each of them must be a resident of the Canal Zone.

2. Each must be worth the amount specified in the order of the arrest, or the amount to which the order is reduced, as provided in this subchapter, over and above all his debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the judge or clerk, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify severally, in amounts less than that expressed in the order, if the whole justification be equivalent to that of two sufficient bail.

Justification of.

SEC. 191. JUSTIFICATION OF BAIL.—For the purpose of justification, each of the bail must attend before the judge or clerk, at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and may be examined on oath on the part of the plaintiff, touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the judge or clerk, in his discretion, may think proper. The examination must be reduced to writing, and subscribed by the bail, if required by the plaintiff.

Allowance of.

SEC. 192. ALLOWANCE OF BAIL.—If the judge or clerk find the bail sufficient, he must annex the examination to the undertaking, indorse his allowance thereon, and cause them to be filed, and the marshal is thereupon exonerated from liability.

Deposit of money with marshal.

SEC. 193. DEPOSIT OF MONEY WITH MARSHAL.—The defendant may, at the time of his arrest, instead of giving bail, deposit with the marshal the amount mentioned in the order. In case the amount of the bail be reduced, as provided in this subchapter, the defendant may deposit such amount instead of giving bail. In either case the marshal must give the defendant a certificate of the deposit made, and the defendant must be discharged from custody.

SEC. 194. PAYMENT OF MONEY INTO COURT BY MARSHAL.—The marshal must, immediately after the deposit, pay the same into court, and take from the clerk receiving the same two certificates of such payment, the one of which he shall deliver to the plaintiff's attorney, and the other to the defendant. For any default in making such payment, the same proceedings may be had on the official bond of the marshal, to collect the sum deposited, as in other cases of delinquency.

Payment of money into court by marshal.

SEC. 195. SUBSTITUTING BAIL FOR DEPOSIT.—If money is deposited, as provided in sections 193 and 194, bail may be given and may justify upon notice, at any time before judgment; and on the filing of the undertaking and justification with the clerk, the money deposited must be refunded to the defendant.

Substituting bail for deposit.

SEC. 196. MONEY DEPOSITED, HOW APPLIED OR DISPOSED OF.—Where money has been deposited, if it remain on deposit at the time of the recovery of a judgment in favor of the plaintiff, the clerk must, under the direction of the court, apply the same in satisfaction thereof; and after satisfying the judgment, refund the surplus, if any, to the defendant. If the judgment is in favor of the defendant, the clerk must, under like direction of the court, refund to him the whole sum deposited and remaining unapplied.

Money deposited, disposition of, after judgment.

SEC. 197. MARSHAL, WHEN LIABLE AS BAIL, AND HIS DISCHARGE FROM LIABILITY.—If, after being arrested, the defendant escape or is rescued, the marshal is liable as bail; but he may discharge himself from such liability by the giving of bail at any time before judgment.

Marshal, when liable as bail; discharge from liability.

SEC. 198. PROCEEDINGS ON JUDGMENT AGAINST MARSHAL.—If a judgment is recovered against the marshal upon his liability as bail, and an execution thereon is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, the same proceedings may be had on his official bond, for the recovery of the whole or any deficiency, as in other cases of delinquency.

Proceedings on judgment against marshal.

SEC. 199. MOTION TO VACATE ORDER OF ARREST OR REDUCE BAIL; AFFIDAVITS ON MOTION.—A defendant arrested may, at any time before the trial of the action, or if there be no trial, before the entry of judgment, apply to the court or judge, upon reasonable notice, to vacate the order of arrest or to reduce the amount of bail. If the application be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other proofs, in addition to those on which the order of arrest was made.

Motion to vacate order of arrest or reduce bail; affidavits on motion.

SEC. 200. WHEN THE ORDER VACATED OR BAIL REDUCED.—If, upon such application, it appears that there was not sufficient cause for the arrest, the order must be vacated; or if it appears that the bail was fixed too high, the amount must be reduced.

When order vacated or bail reduced.

CLAIM AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

Claim and delivery of personal property.

SEC. 201. DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY, WHEN IT MAY BE CLAIMED.—The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time before answer, claim the delivery of such property to him as provided in this subchapter.

When may be claimed.

SEC. 202. AFFIDAVIT AND ITS REQUISITES.—Where a delivery is claimed, an affidavit must be made by the plaintiff, or by some one in his behalf, showing:

Affidavit.

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed (particularly describing it), or is entitled to the possession thereof;
2. That the property is wrongfully detained by the defendant;

3. The alleged cause of the detention thereof, according to his best knowledge, information, and belief;

4. That it has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine, pursuant to a statute; or seized, under an execution or an attachment against the property of the plaintiff; or, if so seized, that it is by statute exempt from such seizure;

5. The actual value of the property.

Requisition to marshal.

SEC. 203. REQUISITION TO MARSHAL TO TAKE AND DELIVER THE PROPERTY.—The plaintiff or his attorney may, thereupon, by an indorsement in writing upon the affidavit, require the marshal to take the property from the defendant.

Security on part of plaintiff, and service of order.

SEC. 204. SECURITY ON THE PART OF THE PLAINTIFF, AND PROCEEDINGS IN SERVING THE ORDER.—Upon a receipt of the affidavit and notice, with a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the marshal, to the effect that they are bound to the defendant in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendants, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may from any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the marshal must forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He must, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, notice, and undertaking, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken; or, if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either, with some person of suitable age and discretion, or, if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the nearest post office, directed to the defendant.

Exception to sureties; proceedings.

SEC. 205. EXCEPTION TO SURETIES AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON, OR ON FAILURE TO EXCEPT.—The defendant may, within two days after the service of a copy of the affidavit and undertaking, give notice to the marshal that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties must justify on notice in like manner as upon bail on arrest; and the marshal is responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived or until they justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he can not reclaim the property as provided in section 206.

Redelivery, when defendant entitled to.

SEC. 206. DEFENDANT, WHEN ENTITLED TO REDELIVERY.—At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the marshal a written undertaking, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within five days after the taking and service of notice to the defendant, it must be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section 211.

Justification of defendant's sureties.

SEC. 207. JUSTIFICATION OF DEFENDANT'S SURETIES.—The defendant's sureties, upon notice to the plaintiff of not less than two or more than five days, must justify before the judge or clerk of the court, in the same manner as upon bail on arrest; and upon such justification the marshal must deliver the property to the defendant. The marshal is responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until the justification is completed or waived, and may retain the property until that time. If they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time and place appointed, he must deliver the property to the plaintiff.

SEC. 208. QUALIFICATION OF SURETIES.—The qualification of sureties must be such as are prescribed by this code, in respect to bail upon an order of arrest. Qualification of sureties.

SEC. 209. PROPERTY, HOW TAKEN WHEN CONCEALED IN BUILDING OR INCLOSURE.—If the property, or any part thereof, be concealed in a building or inclosure, the marshal must publicly demand its delivery. If it be not delivered, he must cause the building or inclosure to be broken open, and take the property into his possession. Concealed property, how taken.

SEC. 210. PROPERTY, HOW KEPT.—When the marshal has taken property, as in this subchapter provided, he must keep it in a secure place, and deliver it to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his fees for taking and his necessary expenses for keeping the same. How kept.

SEC. 211. CLAIM OF PROPERTY BY THIRD PERSON.—If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or right to the possession thereof, stating the grounds of such title or right, and serve the same upon the marshal, the marshal is not bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand of him or his agent, indemnify the marshal against such claim, by an undertaking by two sufficient sureties; and no claim to such property by any other person than the defendant or his agent is valid against the marshal unless so made. When claimed by third person.

SEC. 212. NOTICE AND AFFIDAVIT, WHEN AND WHERE TO BE FILED.—The marshal must file the notice, undertaking, and affidavit, with his proceedings thereon, with the clerk of the court, within twenty days after taking the property mentioned therein. Filing of notice and affidavit.

SEC. 213. PROTECTION OF PLAINTIFF IN POSSESSION OF PROPERTY.—After the property has been delivered to the plaintiff as in this subchapter provided, the court shall, by appropriate order, protect the plaintiff in possession of said property until the final determination of the action. Protection of plaintiff in possession.

INJUNCTION

SEC. 214. INJUNCTION, WHAT IS, AND WHO MAY GRANT IT.—An injunction is a writ or order requiring a person to refrain from a particular act. It may be granted by the district court, or the judge thereof, in any action brought in said court; and when granted by the judge, it may be enforced as an order of the court. Injunction.

SEC. 215. WHEN INJUNCTION MAY BE GRANTED OR MAY NOT.—An injunction may be granted in the following cases: Definition of; who may grant.

1. When it appears by the complaint that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded, and such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of the act complained of, either for a limited period or perpetually;

2. When it appears by the complaint or affidavits that the commission or continuance of some act during the litigation would produce waste, or great or irreparable injury, to a party to the action;

3. When it appears, during the litigation, that a party to the action is doing, or threatens, or is about to do, or is procuring or suffering to be done, some act in violation of the rights of another party to the action respecting the subject of the action, and tending to render the judgment ineffectual;

4. When pecuniary compensation would not afford adequate relief;

5. Where it would be extremely difficult to ascertain the amount of compensation which would afford adequate relief; When granted.

6. Where the restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of judicial proceedings;

7. Where the obligation arises from a trust.

When denied.

AN INJUNCTION CAN NOT BE GRANTED—

1. To stay a judicial proceeding pending at the commencement of the action in which the injunction is demanded, unless such restraint is necessary to prevent a multiplicity of such proceedings;

2. To prevent the execution of a public statute by officers of the law for the public benefit;

3. To prevent the breach of a contract, the performance of which would not be specifically enforced;

4. To prevent the exercise of a public or private office, in a lawful manner, by the person in possession.

Time of granting;
service of copy.

SEC. 216. INJUNCTION; TIME OF GRANTING; SERVICE OF COPY.—An injunction may be granted at any time before judgment upon a verified complaint, or upon affidavits if the complaint in the one case, or the affidavits in the other, show satisfactorily that sufficient grounds exist therefor. A copy of the complaint or of the affidavits, upon which the injunction was granted, must, if not previously served, be served therewith.

Notice.
Preliminary injunction;
temporary restraining order.

NOTICE.—No preliminary injunction shall be granted without notice to the opposite party; nor shall any temporary restraining order be granted without notice to the opposite party, unless it shall appear from facts shown by affidavit or by the verified complaint that great or irreparable injury would result to the applicant before the matter can be heard on notice. In case a temporary restraining order shall be granted without notice, in the contingency above specified, the matter shall be made returnable on an order requiring cause to be shown why the injunction should not be granted, on the earliest day that the business of the court will admit of, but not later than ten days from the date of such order.

Proceedings when hearing had.

PARTY OBTAINING ORDER MUST BE READY; SERVICE OF COMPLAINT, AFFIDAVITS AND POINTS AND AUTHORITIES.—When the matter first comes up for hearing the party who obtained the temporary restraining order must be ready to proceed and must have served upon the opposite party at least two days prior to such hearing, a copy of the complaint and of all affidavits to be used in such application and a copy of his points and authorities in support of such application; if he be not ready, or if he shall fail to serve a copy of his complaint, affidavits and points and authorities, as herein required, the court shall dissolve the temporary restraining order.

Defendant entitled to continuance.

DEPENDANT ENTITLED TO CONTINUANCE.—The defendant, however, shall be entitled, as of course, to one continuance for a reasonable period, if he desires it, to enable him to meet the application for the preliminary injunction.

Counter-affidavits.

COUNTER-AFFIDAVITS.—The defendant may, in response to such order to show cause, present affidavits relating to the granting of the preliminary injunction, and if such affidavits are served on the applicant at least two days prior to the hearing, the applicant shall not be entitled to any continuance on account thereof.

Precedence.

PRECEDENCE.—On the day upon which such order is made returnable, such hearing shall take precedence of all other matters on the calendar of said day, except older matter of the same character, and matters to which special precedence may be given by law. When the cause is at issue it shall be set for trial at the earliest possible date and shall take precedence of all other cases, except older matters of the same character, and matters to which special precedence may be given by law.

SEC. 217. INJUNCTION AFTER ANSWER.—An injunction can not be allowed after the defendant has answered, unless upon notice or upon an order to show cause; but in such case the defendant may be restrained until the decision of the court or judge granting or refusing the injunction. Injunction after answer.

SEC. 218. SECURITY UPON INJUNCTION.—On granting an injunction, the court or judge must require, except when it is granted on the application of the Government, or a wife against her husband, a written undertaking on the part of the applicant, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will pay to the party enjoined such damages, not exceeding an amount to be specified, as such party may sustain by reason of the injunction, if the court finally decides that the applicant was not entitled thereto. Within five days after the service of the injunction, the person enjoined may except to the sufficiency of the sureties, and unless within five days thereafter, upon notice of not less than two days to the person enjoined, such sureties, or others in their place, justify before the judge or clerk of the court at a time and place designated in such notice, the order granting the injunction must be dissolved. Security upon.

SEC. 219. MOTION TO VACATE OR MODIFY INJUNCTION; PROCEDURE.—If an injunction is granted without notice to the person enjoined, he may apply, upon reasonable notice to the district court or judge, to dissolve or modify the same. The application may be made upon the complaint or the affidavit on which the injunction was granted, or upon affidavit on the part of the person enjoined, with or without the answer. If the application is made upon affidavits on the part of the person enjoined, but not otherwise, the person against whom the application is made may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence in addition to that on which the injunction was granted. Motion to vacate or modify injunction; procedure.

ATTACHMENT

SEC. 220. ATTACHMENT, WHEN AND IN WHAT CASES MAY ISSUE.—The plaintiff, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterward, may have the property of the defendant attached, as security for the satisfaction of any judgment that may be recovered, unless the defendant give security to pay such judgment, as in this subchapter provided, in the following cases: When and in what cases may issue.

1. In an action upon a contract, express or implied, for the direct payment of money, where the contract is made or is payable in the Canal Zone, and is not secured by any mortgage or lien upon real or personal property, or any pledge of personal property, or, if originally so secured, such security has, without any act of the plaintiff, or the person to whom the security was given, become valueless.

2. In an action upon a contract, express or implied, against a defendant not residing in the Canal Zone.

3. In an action against a defendant, not residing in the Zone, to recover a sum of money as damages, arising from an injury to property in the Zone, in consequence of negligence, fraud, or other wrongful act.

SEC. 221. AFFIDAVIT FOR ATTACHMENT.—The clerk of the court must issue the writ of attachment upon receiving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff showing: Affidavit for.

1. The facts specified in section 220 which entitle him to the writ;
2. The amount of the indebtedness claimed, over and above all legal set-offs or counterclaims, or the amount claimed as damages; and
3. That the attachment is not sought, and the action is not prosecuted, to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the defendant.

Undertaking on.

SEC. 222. UNDERTAKING ON ATTACHMENT; EXCEPTIONS TO SURETIES.—Before issuing the writ, the clerk must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, in the sum not less than $200 and not exceeding the amount claimed by the plaintiff, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recovers judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking, and that if the attachment is discharged on the ground that the plaintiff was not entitled thereto under section 220, the plaintiff will pay all damages which the defendant may have sustained by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. At any time after the issuing of the attachment, but not later than five days after actual notice of the levy thereof, the defendant may except to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. When excepted to, the plaintiff's sureties, upon notice to the defendant of not less than two or more than five days, must justify before the judge or clerk of the court in the same manner as upon bail on arrest; and upon failure to justify, or if others in their place fail to justify, at the time and place appointed, the judge or clerk must issue an order vacating the writ of attachment.

Exceptions to sureties.

Writ, to whom directed; contents.

SEC. 223. WRIT, TO WHOM DIRECTED AND WHAT TO STATE.—The writ must be directed to the marshal, and must require him to attach and safely keep all the property of such defendant within the Canal Zone not exempt from execution, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand against such defendant, the amount of which must be stated in conformity with the complaint, unless such defendant give him security by the undertaking of at least two sufficient sureties in an amount sufficient to satisfy such demand against such defendant, besides costs, or in an amount equal to the value of the property of such defendant which has been or is about to be attached; in which case to take such undertaking.

If more than one defendant.

IF MORE THAN ONE DEFENDANT.—In the event that the action is against more than one defendant, any defendant whose property has been or is about to be attached in such action may give the marshal such undertaking, and the marshal shall take the same, and such undertaking shall not subject such defendant to or be answerable for any demand against any other defendant, nor shall the marshal thereby be prevented from attaching or be obliged to release from attachment, any property of any other defendant: Provided, however, That such defendant, at the time of giving such undertaking to the marshal, shall file with the marshal, a statement, duly verified under oath, wherein such defendant shall aver and declare that the other defendant or defendants in the action in which said undertaking was given has or have not any interest or claim of any nature whatsoever in or to said property. Such statement must further contain the character of such defendant's title and the manner in which he acquired title to such attached property: Provided further, That before said attachment shall be released, the undertaking required by this section must be approved by the judge or, in the absence or disability of the judge, by the clerk of the court.

Provisos. Sworn statement to be filed.

Interest in property.

Judicial approval.

Shares of stock, etc., attachment of.

SEC. 224. SHARES OF STOCK AND DEBTS DUE DEFENDANT, HOW ATTACHED AND DISPOSED OF.—The rights or shares which the defendant may have in the stock of any corporation or company, together with the interest and profit thereon, and all debts due such defendant, and all other property in the Canal Zone of such defendant not exempt from execution, may be attached, and if judgment be recovered, be sold to satisfy the judgment and execution.

SEC. 225. HOW REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY SHALL BE ATTACHED.—The marshal to whom the writ is directed and delivered, must execute the same without delay, and if the undertaking mentioned in section 223 be not given, as follows:

Attachment of real and personal property.

1. Real property must be attached, by filing with the registrar of property a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached, and a notice that it is attached; and by leaving a similar copy of the writ, description, and notice with an occupant of the property, if there is one; if not, then by posting the same in a conspicuous place on the property attached.

2. Real property, or an interest therein, belonging to the defendant, and held by any other person, must be attached, by filing with the registrar of property a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property, and a notice that such real property, and any interest of the defendant therein, held by or standing in the name of such other person (naming him), are attached; and by leaving with the occupant, if any, and with such other person, or his agent, if known and within the Canal Zone, or at the residence of either, if within the Canal Zone, a copy of the writ, with a similar description and notice. If there is no occupant of the property, a copy of the writ, together with such description and notice, must be posted in a conspicuous place upon the property. The registrar must index such attachment when filed, in the names, both of the defendant and of the person by whom the property is held.

3. Personal property, capable of manual delivery, must be attached by taking it into custody.

4. Stocks or shares, or interest in stocks or shares, of any corporation or company, must be attached by leaving with the president, or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier, or other managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached, in pursuance of such writ.

5. Debts and credits and other personal property, not capable of manual delivery, must be attached by leaving with the person owing such debts, or having in his possession, or under his control, such credits and other personal property, or with his agent, a copy of the writ, and a notice that the debts owing by him to the defendant, or the credits and other personal property in his possession, or under his control, belonging to the defendant, are attached in pursuance of such writ, except in the case of attachment of growing crops, a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached, and a notice that it is attached, shall be recorded the same as in the attachment of real property.

SEC. 226. ATTACHMENT LIEN ON REAL PROPERTY.—The lien of the attachment on real property attaches and becomes effective upon the filing of a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached and a notice that it is attached, with the registrar of property: Provided, however, That in event that the marshal does not complete the execution of said writ in the manner prescribed in section 225 of this code within a period of fifteen days next following said filing in the registrar's office then said lien shall cease at the expiration of said period of fifteen days.

Attachment lien on real property.

Provido.
When lien to cease.

EXPIRATION; EXTENSION.—The attachment whether heretofore levied or hereafter to be levied shall be a lien upon all real property attached for a period of three years after the date of levy unless sooner released or discharged as provided in this subchapter, by Expiration; extension.

dismissal of the action or by entry and docketing of judgment in the action. At the expiration of three years the lien shall cease and any proceeding or proceedings against the property under the attachment shall be barred: Provided, That upon motion of a party to the action, made not less than five nor more than sixty days before the expiration of said period of three years, the court in which the action is pending may extend the time of said lien for a period not exceeding two years from the date on which the original lien would expire, and the lien shall be extended for the period specified in the order upon the filing, before the expiration of the existing lien, of a certified copy of the order with the registrar of property. The lien may be extended from time to time in the manner herein prescribed.

Proriso.
Motion for extension.

Attorney to give written instructions to marshal what to attach.

SEC. 227. ATTORNEY TO GIVE WRITTEN INSTRUCTIONS TO MARSHAL WHAT TO ATTACH.—Upon receiving information in writing from the plaintiff or his attorney, that any person has in his possession, or under his control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or is owing any debt to the defendant, the marshal must serve upon such person a copy of the writ, and a notice that such credits, or other property or debts, as the case may be, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

Garnishment, when
plaintiff.

SEC. 228. GARNISHMENT, WHEN GARNISHEE LIABLE TO PLAINTIFF.—All persons having in their possession, or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or owing any debts to the defendant at the time of service upon them of a copy of the writ and notice, as provided in sections 226 and 227, shall be, unless such property be delivered up or transferred, or such debts be paid to the marshal, liable to the plaintiff for the amount of such credits, property, or debts, until the attachment be discharged, or any judgment recovered by him be satisfied.

Citation to garnishee to appear.

SEC. 229. CITATION TO GARNISHEE TO APPEAR BEFORE THE COURT OR JUDGE.—Any person owing debts to the defendant, or having in his possession or under his control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, may be required to attend before the court or judge, or in case of the absence or disability of the judge by the clerk of the court, and be examined on oath respecting the same. The defendant may also be required to attend for the purpose of giving information respecting his property, and may be examined on oath. The court or judge may, after such examination, order personal property, capable of manual delivery, to be delivered to the marshal on such terms as may be just, having reference to any liens thereon or claims against the same, and a memorandum to be given of all other personal property, containing the amount and description thereof.

Inventory, how made.

SEC. 230. INVENTORY, HOW MADE; PARTY REFUSING TO GIVE MEMORANDUM MAY BE COMPELLED TO PAY COSTS.—The marshal must make a full inventory of the property attached, and return the same with the writ. To enable him to make such return as to debts and credits attached, he must request, at the time of service, the party owing the debt or having the credit to give him a memorandum, stating the amount and description of each; and if such memorandum be refused, he must return the fact of refusal with the writ. The party refusing to give the memorandum may be required to pay the costs of any proceeding taken for the purpose of obtaining information respecting the amounts and description of such debt or credit.

Payment of costs by party refusing to give memorandum.

Perishable property,
how sold; disposition of proceeds.

SEC. 231. PERISHABLE PROPERTY, HOW SOLD; DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS; ACCOUNTS TO BE COLLECTED WITHOUT SUIT.—If any of the property attached be perishable, the marshal must sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. The proceeds, and other property attached by him, must be retained by him to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action, unless sooner subjected to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment. Debts and credits attached may be collected by him, if the same can be done without suit. The marshal's receipt is a sufficient discharge for the amount paid.

Collection of accounts.

SEC. 232. PROPERTY ATTACHED MAY BE SOLD AS UNDER EXECUTION, IF THE INTERESTS OF THE PARTIES REQUIRE.—Whenever property has been taken by an officer under a writ of attachment, and it is made to appear satisfactorily to the court or the judge thereof that the interest of the parties to the action will be subserved by a sale thereof, the court or judge may order such property to be sold in the same manner as property is sold under an execution, and the proceeds to be deposited in the court to abide the judgment in the action. Such order can be made only upon notice to the adverse party or his attorney, in case such party has been personally served with a summons in the action.

Sale of attached property.

SEC. 233. WHEN PROPERTY CLAIMED BY A THIRD PARTY, HOW TRIED.—If any personal property attached be claimed by a third person as his property, the same rules shall prevail as to the contents and making of said claim, and as to the holding of said property, as in case of a claim after levy upon execution, as provided for in section 357.

Claims of third party, how tried.

Post, p. 970.

SEC. 234. IF PLAINTIFF OBTAINS JUDGMENT, HOW SATISFIED.—If judgment be recovered by the plaintiff, the marshal must satisfy the same out of the property attached by him which has not been delivered to the defendant, or a claimant as hereinbefore provided, or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment, if it be sufficient for that purpose:

Satisfaction of judgment.

1. By paying to the plaintiff the proceeds of all sales of perishable property sold by him, or of any debts or credits collected by him, or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgment;

2. If any balance remain due, and an execution shall have been issued on the judgment, he must sell under the execution so much of the property, real or personal, as may be necessary to satisfy the balance, if enough for that purpose remain in his hands. Notices of the sales must be given, and the sales conducted as in other cases of sales on execution.

SEC. 235. WHEN THERE REMAINS A BALANCE DUE, HOW COLLECTED.—If, after selling all the property attached by him remaining in his hands, and applying the proceeds, together with the proceeds of any debts or credits collected by him, deducting his fees, to the payment of the judgment, any balance shall remain due, the marshal must proceed to collect such balance, as upon an execution in other cases. Whenever the judgment shall have been paid, the marshal, upon reasonable demand, must deliver over to the defendant the attached property remaining in his hands, and any proceeds of the property attached unapplied on the judgment.

Collection of balance due.

SEC. 236. WHEN SUITS MAY BE COMMENCED ON THE UNDERTAKING.—If the execution be returned, unsatisfied, in whole or in part, the plaintiff may prosecute any undertaking given pursuant to section 223 or section 239, or he may proceed, as in other cases, upon the return of an execution.

When suits may be commenced on the undertaking.

Ante, p. 944.

Post, p. 948.

SEC. 237. IF DEFENDANT RECOVERS JUDGMENT, WHAT THE MARSHAL IS TO DELIVER.—If the defendant recovers judgment against the plaintiff and no appeal is perfected and undertaking executed, any undertaking received in the action, all the proceeds of sales and money collected by the marshal, and all the property attached remaining in the marshal's hands, must be delivered to the defendant or his agent, the order of attachment be discharged, and the property released therefrom.

If defendant recovers judgment, what marshal to deliver.

Proceedings to release attachments.

SEC. 238. PROCEEDINGS TO RELEASE ATTACHMENTS.—Whenever any defendant has appeared in the action, such defendant may, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, apply to the district court, or to the judge thereof, for an order to discharge the attachment wholly or in part; and upon the execution of the undertaking mentioned in section 555, an order may be made releasing from the operation of the attachment, any or all of the property of such defendant attached; and all of the property so released and all of the proceeds of the sales thereof, must be delivered to such defendant upon the justification of the sureties on the undertaking, if required by the plaintiff. Such justification must take place within five days after the notice of the filing of such undertaking.

Requirements by court for release of attachment.

SEC. 239. REQUIREMENTS BY COURT FOR RELEASE OF ATTACHMENT.—Before making such order, the court or judge must require an undertaking on behalf of such defendant, by at least two sureties, to the effect that in case the plaintiff recovers judgment in the action against the defendant, by whom or in whose behalf such undertaking shall be given, such defendant will, on demand, redeliver the attached property so released to the proper officer, to be applied to the payment of any judgment in such action against said defendant, or in default thereof, that such defendant and sureties will, on demand, pay to the plaintiff the full value of the property released not exceeding the amount of such judgment against such defendant. The court or judge making such order may fix the sum for which the undertaking must be executed, and if necessary in fixing such sum to know the value of the property released, the same may be appraised by one or more disinterested persons, to be appointed for that purpose. The sureties may be required to justify before the court or judge and the property attached can not be released from the attachment without their justification if the same is required.

Motion to discharge attachment; grounds.

SEC. 240. WHEN A MOTION TO DISCHARGE ATTACHMENT MAY BE MADE, AND UPON WHAT GROUNDS.—The defendant may also at any time, either before or after the release of the attached property, or before any attachment shall have been actually levied, apply, on motion, upon reasonable notice to the plaintiff, to the court, or to the judge thereof, that the writ of attachment be discharged on the ground that the same was improperly or irregularly issued.

Motion made on affidavit.

SEC. 241. WHEN MOTION MADE ON AFFIDAVIT, IT MAY BE OPPOSED BY AFFIDAVIT.—If the motion be made upon affidavits on the part of the defendant, but not otherwise, the plaintiff may oppose the same by affidavits or other evidence, in addition to those on which the attachment was made.

When writ must be discharged.

SEC. 242. WHEN WRIT MUST BE DISCHARGED.—If upon such application, it satisfactorily appears that the writ of attachment was improperly or irregularly issued it must be discharged; provided that such attachment shall not be discharged if at or before the hearing of such application, the writ of attachment, or the affidavit, or undertaking upon which such attachment was based shall be amended and made to conform to the provisions of this subchapter.

When returned.

SEC. 243. WHEN WRIT TO BE RETURNED.—The marshal must return the writ of attachment with the summons, if issued at the same time; otherwise, within twenty days after its receipt, with a certificate of his proceedings indorsed thereon or attached thereto; and whenever an order has been made discharging or releasing an attachment upon real property, a certified copy of such order may be filed in the office of the registrar of property.

SEC. 244. RELEASE OF REAL PROPERTY FROM ATTACHMENT.—An attachment as to any real property may be released by a writing signed by the plaintiff, or his attorney, or the officer who levied the writ and acknowledged in the manner provided in chapter 22 of the Civil Code; and upon the filing of such release, it is the duty of the registrar of property to note the same on the record of the copy of the writ on file in his office. Such attachment may also be released by an entry in the margin of the record thereof, in the registrar's office, in the manner provided for the discharge of mortgages under section 1349 of the Civil Code.

Release of real property from attachment.

Post, p. 1164.

SEC. 245. ATTACHMENT OF INTEREST OF DEFENDANT IN ESTATE OF DECEDENT.—The interest of a defendant in personal property belonging to the estate of a decedent, whether as heir, legatee, or devisee, may be attached by serving the personal representative of the decedent with a copy of the writ and a notice that said interest is attached. Such attachment shall not impair the powers of the representative over the property for the purposes of administration. A copy of said writ of attachment and of said notice shall also be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in which said estate is being administered and the personal representative shall report such attachment to the court when any petition for distribution is filed, and in the decree made upon such petition distribution shall be ordered to such heir, legatee, or devisee, but delivery of such property shall be ordered to the officer making the levy subject to the claim of such heir, legatee, or devisee, or any person claiming under him. The property shall not be delivered to the officer making the levy until the decree distributing such interest has become final.

Attachment of defendant's interest in estate of decedent.

RECEIVERS

Receivers.

SEC. 246. APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVERS.—A receiver may be appointed by the district court in an action pending therein, or by the judge of said court.

Appointment of.

1. In an action by a vendor to vacate a fraudulent purchase of property, or by a creditor to subject any property or fund to his claim, or between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property or fund, on the application of the plaintiff, or of any party whose right to or interest in the property or fund, or the proceeds thereof, is probable, and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured;

2. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of his mortgage and sale of the mortgaged property, where it appears that the mortgaged property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured, or that the condition of the mortgage has not been performed, and that the property is probably insufficient to discharge the mortgage debt;

3. After judgment, to carry the judgment into effect;

4. After judgment, to dispose of the property according to the judgment, or to preserve it during the pendency of an appeal, or in proceedings in aid of execution, when an execution has been returned unsatisfied, or when the judgment debtor refuses to apply his property in satisfaction of the judgment;

5. In the cases when a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights;

6. In all other cases where receivers have heretofore been appointed by the usages of courts of equity.

Appointment, upon dissolution of corporation.

SEC. 247. APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVERS UPON DISSOLUTION OF CORPORATION.—Upon the dissolution of any corporation having its principal place of business in the Canal Zone, the district court, on application of any creditor of the corporation, or of any stockholder or member thereof, may appoint one or more persons to be receivers or trustees of the corporation, to take charge of the estate and effects thereof and to collect the debts and property due and belonging to the corporation, and to pay the outstanding debts thereof, and to divide the moneys and other property that shall remain over among the stockholders or members.

Restrictions; ex parte application, undertaking on.

SEC. 248. RECEIVER, RESTRICTIONS ON APPOINTMENT; EX PARTE APPLICATION, UNDERTAKING ON.—No party, or attorney of a party, or person interested in an action, or related to the judge of the court by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree, can be appointed receiver therein without the written consent of the parties, filed with the clerk. If a receiver is appointed upon an ex parte application, the court, before making the order, must require from the applicant an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to the effect that the applicant will pay to the defendant all damages he may sustain by reason of the appointment of such receiver and the entry by him upon his duties, in case the applicant shall have procured such appointment wrongfully, maliciously, or without sufficient cause; and the court may, in its discretion, at any time after said appointment, require an additional undertaking.

Oath and undertaking of receiver.

SEC. 249. OATH AND UNDERTAKING OF RECEIVER.—Before entering upon his duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and with two or more sureties, approved by the court or judge, execute an undertaking to the Government of the Canal Zone in such sum as the court or judge may direct, to the effect that he will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action and obey the orders of the court therein.

Powers.

SEC. 250. POWERS OF RECEIVERS.—The receiver has, under the control of the court, power to bring and defend actions in his own name, as receiver; to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect debts, to compound for and compromise the same, to make transfers, and generally to do such acts respecting the property as the court may authorize.

Investment of funds.

SEC. 251. INVESTMENT OF FUNDS.—Funds in the hands of a receiver may be invested upon interest, by order of the court; but no such order can be made, except upon the consent of all the parties to the action.

Notice of unclaimed funds in receiver's hands; disposition of.

SEC. 252. NOTICE OF UNCLAIMED FUNDS IN RECEIVER'S HANDS; DISPOSITION OF.—A receiver having any funds in his hands belonging to a person whose whereabouts are unknown to him, shall, before receiving his discharge as such receiver, publish a notice, in one or more newspapers of general circulation in the Canal Zone, at least once a week for four consecutive weeks, setting forth the name of the owner of any unclaimed funds, the last known place of residence or post office address of such owner and the amount of such unclaimed funds. Any funds remaining in his hands unclaimed for thirty days after the date of the last publication of such notice, shall be reported to the court, and upon order of the court, all such funds must be paid to the collector of the Panama Canal accompanied with a copy of the order, which must set forth the facts required in the notice herein provided. Such funds shall be paid out by the collector to the owner thereof or his order in such manner and upon such terms as the court may direct.

All costs and expenses connected with such advertising shall be paid out of the funds the whereabouts of whose owners are unknown.

DEPOSITS IN COURT; HANDLING OF FUNDS BY CLERK

SEC. 253. DEPOSIT IN COURT.—When it is admitted by the pleadings, or shown upon the examination of a party to the action, that he has in his possession, or under his control, any money or other thing capable of delivery, which, being the subject of litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same, upon motion, to be deposited in court or delivered to such party, upon such conditions as may be just, subject to the further direction of the court.

Deposits in court;
handling funds by clerk.
Court order.

SEC. 254. MANNER OF ENFORCING THE ORDER.—Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, a court has ordered the deposit or delivery of money, or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the court, beside punishing the disobedience, may make an order requiring the marshal to take the money, or thing, and deposit or deliver it in conformity with the direction of the court.

Enforcement.

SEC. 255. MONEY DEPOSITED DEEMED IN REGISTRY OF COURT.—Every sum of money deposited with a clerk of said court, by or for the use of any party, upon a judgment of the court or in a pending action or proceeding by virtue of the law or by direction of the court, as soon as deposited with the clerk, shall be deemed to be in the registry of the court.

Deemed in registry of court.

SEC. 256. CLERK TO DEPOSIT SUMS OVER $200 IN DEPOSITORY; DISBURSEMENT; RECORD OF RECEIPT AND DISBURSEMENT.—The clerk shall deposit in some depository designated by the judge of said court, in the name of the "District Court, Canal Zone," every sum of money deposited in the registry of the court which exceeds $200, as soon as the same is received; and such money may thereafter be paid out only on a check, voucher, or order of the court, or the judge thereof, countersigned by a clerk of the court. The clerk in each division of the district court shall make a record showing the date of receipt, the amount received, from whom received, and the case in which any such money is deposited in the registry of the court; and the date, amount, and to whom the same was paid out.

Sums over $200; disbursement; record of

SEC. 257. MAINTENANCE OF GENERAL DEPOSIT ACCOUNT; INTEREST; COMMISSION; DEPOSIT OF FUNDS OF $200 OR LESS.—The clerk shall maintain a general deposit account in a designated depository in which shall be deposited every cash fund exceeding $200 deposited in the registry of the court. Interest earned on such general account shall be retained by the clerk as his commission for receiving and caring therefor and shall be accounted for by him as fees of his office. No commission shall be charged by the clerk for handling any fund of $200 or less.

Maintenance of general deposit account;
interest; commission.

Deposit of funds of $200 or less.

In any case, however, where any such fund is likely to remain in the registry of the court for six months or more, and where the parties so stipulate or the court so directs, such fund shall be deposited in a designated bank in a savings account at interest. The clerk's commission for caring for such fund in such case shall be paid only out of interest earned thereon, to the amount of one-fourth of such interest. The remainder of such interest shall be deemed a part of such fund and shall be paid out on order or decree of the court according to the exigency of the case.

Deposit in bank.

SEC. 258. JUDGE TO DESIGNATE ONE OR MORE DEPOSITORIES.—The judge of the district court shall designate one or more depositories in which money deposited in the registry of the court shall be deposited by the clerks.

Designation of depositories.

“Clerk” to include assistant and acting clerks.

SEC. 259. “CLERK” DEFINED TO INCLUDE ASSISTANT AND ACTING CLERKS.—The word “clerk” as used in sections 255 to 258 shall include the clerk of the district court, the assistant clerks thereof, and any acting clerk when performing the duties of the clerk or assistant clerk when they or any of them are absent on account of illness or vacation, or are unable to act from any cause.

Disposition of unclaimed funds.

SEC. 260. DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED FUNDS BY CLERK.—All moneys, securities, or funds now in the hands or under the possession or control of the clerk of the district court where, for a period of four years or more, no order has been made, or no step or proceeding has been had or taken in the case, action, or proceeding in, by, or through which said moneys, securities, or funds may have been deposited or left with said clerk or his predecessors in office, and where no valid claim has been made upon or for any such moneys, securities, or funds for a period of four years or more, and where the owner or ownership of said moneys, securities, or funds is unknown or where such owner refuses to accept the same, shall be held by said clerk and his successor in office until one year after the enactment of this code, unless sooner demanded by and turned over to the legal owner or owners thereof.

One year after the enactment of this code, the clerk of the district court having in his possession any such moneys, securities, or funds shall turn the same over to the collector of the Panama Canal to be held and disposed of as hereinafter provided.

Whenever the clerk of the district court has in his hands for a period of two years or more any fund or moneys belonging to any person or persons, which funds or moneys he has been unable to disburse to such person or persons because of his inability to locate them, or because of their refusal to accept the same, the said clerk shall upon order of the court turn the same over to the collector of the Panama Canal to be held and disposed of as hereinafter provided.

Any person claiming to be entitled to any amount so deposited with the collector may, within five years after such deposit, petition the court or judge for an order directing payment to the said claimant. A copy of such petition shall be served on the collector and thereafter no such amount shall be covered into the Treasury of the United States, as hereinafter directed, until so ordered by the court.

If no one claims the amount, as herein provided, or if a claim be made and disallowed and the court so directs, such amount devolves to the United States and shall be covered into the Treasury by the collector as miscellaneous receipts.

TRIAL AND JUDGMENT IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER 11.—TRIAL AND JUDGMENT IN CIVIL ACTIONS

General.

JUDGMENT IN GENERAL

“Judgment,” defined.

SEC. 261. JUDGMENT DEFINED.—A judgment is the final determination of the rights of the parties in an action or proceeding.

May be for or against one of the parties.

SEC. 262. JUDGMENT MAY BE FOR OR AGAINST ONE OF THE PARTIES.—Judgment may be given for or against one or more of several plaintiffs, and for or against one or more of several defendants; and it may, when the justice of the case requires it, determine the ultimate rights of the parties on each side, as between themselves.

Against one party; action may proceed as to others.

SEC. 263. JUDGMENT MAY BE AGAINST ONE PARTY, AND ACTION PROCEED AS TO OTHERS.—In an action against several defendants, the court may, in its discretion, render judgment against one or more of them, leaving the action to proceed against the others, whenever a several judgment is proper.

SEC. 264. THE RELIEF TO BE AWARDED TO THE PLAINTIFF.—The relief granted to the plaintiff, if there be no answer, can not exceed that which he shall have demanded in his complaint; but in any other case, the court may grant him any relief consistent with the case made by the complaint and embraced within the issue. Relief granted plaintiff.

SEC. 265. DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS AND ENTRY OF NONSUIT.—An action may be dismissed, or a judgment of nonsuit entered, in the following cases: Dismissal of actions; entry of nonsuit.

1. By the plaintiff, by written request to the clerk, filed with the papers in the case, at any time before the trial, upon payment of his costs; provided, a counterclaim has not been set up, or affirmative relief sought by the cross-complaint or answer of the defendant. If a provisional remedy has been allowed, the undertaking must thereupon be delivered by the clerk to the defendant, who may have his action thereon;

2. By either party, upon the written consent of the other;

3. By the court, when either party fails to appear on the trial, and the other party appears and asks for the dismissal;

4. By the court, when upon the trial and before the final submission of the case, the plaintiff abandons it;

5. By the court, upon motion of the defendant, when upon the trial the plaintiff fails to prove a sufficient case.

But no dismissal mentioned in subdivisions 1 and 2 hereof shall be entered unless upon written consent of his attorney of record, or if said consent is not obtained, upon order of the court, after notice to the attorney.

The dismissals mentioned in said subdivisions 1 and 2 hereof, when written consent of the attorney of record of the party requesting the dismissals are filed, may be made by entry in the clerk's register.

The dismissals mentioned in subdivisions three, four, and five of this section must be made by orders of the court entered upon the minutes thereof, and are effective for all purposes when so entered; but the clerk of the court must note such orders in his register of actions in the case.

SEC. 266. DISMISSAL OF ACTION FOR FAILURE TO ISSUE SUMMONS, WHEN.—No action heretofore or hereafter commenced shall be further prosecuted, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all actions heretofore or hereafter commenced must be dismissed by the court in which the same shall have been commenced, on its own motion, or on motion of any party interested therein, whether named in the complaint as a party or not, unless summons shall have issued within one year, and all such actions must be in like manner dismissed, unless the summons shall be served and return thereon made within three years after the commencement of said action. But all such actions may be prosecuted, if appearance has been made by the defendant or defendants, within said three years in the same manner as if summons had been issued and served; provided, that, except in actions to partition or to recover possession of, or to enforce a lien upon, or to determine conflicting claims to, real or personal property, no dismissal shall be had under this section as to any defendant because of the failure to serve summons on him during his absence from the zone, or while he has secreted himself within the zone to prevent the service of summons on him. Failure to issue summons, when.

SEC. 267. ALL OTHER JUDGMENTS ARE ON THE MERITS.—In all cases other than those mentioned in sections 265, 266, and 268, judgment must be rendered on the merits. Judgments on merits.

SEC. 268. DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS.—The court may in its discretion dismiss any action for want of prosecution on its own motion or on motion of the defendant and after due notice to the plaintiff, when- Dismissal of actions.

ever plaintiff has failed for two years after answer filed to bring such action to trial.

Judgment upon failure to answer.

JUDGMENT UPON FAILURE TO ANSWER

If defendant fails.

SEC. 269. JUDGMENT IF DEFENDANT FAILS TO ANSWER.—Judgment may be had, if the defendant fails to answer the complaint, as follows:

2. In other actions, if the defendant has been personally served and no answer has been filed with the clerk of the court within the time specified in the summons, or such further time as may have been granted, the clerk must enter the default of the defendant; and thereafter the plaintiff may apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, is necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose. And where the action is for the recovery of damages, in whole or in part, the court may order the damages to be assessed by a jury; or if, to determine the amount of damages, the examination of a long account is involved, by a reference as above provided.

3. In all actions where the service of the summons was by publication, the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of the publication, and that no answer has been filed, apply for judgment; and the court must thereupon require proof to be made of the allegations of the complaint; and if the defendant is not a resident of the Zone, must require the plaintiff, or his agent, to be examined, on oath, respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to anyone for his use, on account of any demand mentioned in the complaint, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover; provided, that, in actions involving merely the possession of real property where the complaint is verified and shows by proper allegations that no party to the action claims title to the real property involved, either by accession, transfer, will, or succession but only the possession thereof, the court may render judgment upon proof of occupancy by plaintiff and ouster by defendant.

Issues; mode of trial and postponements.

ISSUES; MODE OF TRIAL AND POSTPONEMENTS

"Issue," defined.

SEC. 270. ISSUE DEFINED, AND THE DIFFERENT KINDS.—Issues arise upon the pleadings when a fact or a conclusion of law is maintained by the one party and is controverted by the other. They are of two kinds:

1. Of law; and,
2. Of fact.

How raised. Issue of law.

SEC. 271. ISSUE OF LAW, HOW RAISED.—An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to the complaint or answer, or to some part thereof.

Issue of fact.

SEC. 272. ISSUE OF FACT, HOW RAISED.—An issue of fact arises—

1. Upon a material allegation in the complaint controverted by the answer; and,

2. Upon new matters in the answer, except an issue of law is joined thereon.

SEC. 273. ISSUE OF LAW, HOW TRIED.—An issue of law must be tried by the court, unless it is referred upon consent.

How tried.
Issue of law.

SEC. 274. ISSUES OF FACT, HOW TRIED.—Issues of fact shall be tried by the court, except where a jury is demanded as provided in sections 279 and 280 or a reference is ordered as provided in this code.

Issue of fact.

SEC. 275. CLERK MUST ENTER CAUSES ON THE CALENDAR, TO REMAIN UNTIL DISPOSED OF; WHEN MAY BE RESTORED.—The clerk must enter causes upon the calendar of the court according to the date of issue. Causes once placed on the calendar must remain upon the calendar until finally disposed of; provided, that causes may be dropped from the calendar by consent of parties, and may be again restored upon notice.

Causes to be calendared, etc.

SEC. 276. PARTIES OR COURT MAY BRING ISSUE TO TRIAL.—Either party may bring an issue to trial or to a hearing, and, in the absence of the adverse party, unless the court, for good cause, otherwise direct, may proceed with his case, and take a dismissal of the action, or a verdict, or judgment, as the case may require; provided, however, if the issue to be tried is an issue of fact, proof must first be made to the satisfaction of the court that the adverse party has had five days' notice of such trial. The court or judge may on its own motion bring an issue to trial or to a hearing.

Parties or court may bring issue to trial.

SEC. 277. MOTION TO POSTPONE A TRIAL FOR ABSENCE OF EVIDENCE OR A MATERIAL WITNESS.—A motion to postpone a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence can only be made upon affidavit showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it. The court may require the moving party, where application is made on account of the absence of a material witness, to state upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party thereupon admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial must not be postponed.

Motion to postpone; when can be made.

SEC. 278. IN CASES OF ADJOURNMENT A PARTY MAY HAVE THE TESTIMONY OF ANY WITNESS TAKEN.—The party obtaining a postponement of a trial in the district court must, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party, who is in attendance, be then taken by deposition before the judge or clerk of the court, or before such notary public as the court may indicate, which must accordingly be done; and the testimony so taken may be read on the trial, with the same effect, and subject to the same objections, as if the witnesses were produced.

Depositions of witnesses in cases of adjournment.

TRIAL BY JURY

Trial by jury.

RIGHT TO JURY TRIAL

SEC. 279. RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.—A jury shall be had, on the demand of either party, in any civil case at law originating in the district court. (Acts Cong. Aug. 24, 1912, c. 390, § 8, 37 Stat. 565; Sept. 21, 1922, c. 370, § 2, 42 Stat. 1005; Dec. 29, 1926, c. 19, § 1, 44 Stat. 924.)

Right to.

Vol. 37, p. 565; Vol. 42, p. 1005; Vol. 44, p. 924.

SEC. 280. REQUEST FOR JURY.—In the trial of any civil cause where a jury trial may be demanded, if either party shall desire a jury, request therefor must be made at the time such cause is assigned for trial.

Request for.

Formation of.

FORMATION OF JURY

Peremptory challenges, civil cases.

SEC. 281. PEREMPTORY CHALLENGES, CIVIL CASES.—Either party may challenge the jurors, but where there are several parties on either side, they must join in the challenge before it can be made. The challenges are to individual jurors and are either peremptory or for cause. Each party is entitled to four peremptory challenges. If no peremptory challenges are taken until the panel is full, they must be taken by the parties alternately, commencing with the plaintiff, and each party shall be entitled to have the panel full before exercising any peremptory challenge.

Challenges for cause.

SEC. 282. CHALLENGES OF JURORS FOR CAUSE.—Challenges for cause may be taken on one or more of the following grounds:

1. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed to render a person competent as a juror.
2. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to any party, or to an officer of a corporation, which is a party;
3. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, master and servant, employer and clerk, or principal and agent, or debtor and creditor, to either party, or to an officer of a corporation which is a party, or being a member of the family of either party; or a partner in business with either party; or surety on any bond or obligation for either party, or being the holder of bonds or shares of the capital stock of a corporation which is a party.
4. Having served as a juror in a civil action or been a witness on a previous trial between the same parties, for the same cause of action; or having served as a juror within one year previously in any civil action or proceeding in which either party was plaintiff or defendant.
5. Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action.
6. Having an unqualified opinion or belief as to the merits of the action founded upon knowledge of its material facts or of some of them.
7. The existence of a state of mind in the juror evincing enmity against or bias to either party.
8. That he is a party to an action pending in the court for which he is drawn and which action is set for trial before the panel of which he is a member.

How tried.

SEC. 283. CHALLENGES, HOW TRIED.—Challenges for cause must be tried by the court. The juror challenged and any other person may be examined as a witness on the trial of the challenge.

Jury to be sworn.

SEC. 284. JURY TO BE SWORN.—As soon as the jury is completed, an oath must be administered to the jurors, in substance, that they and each of them will well and truly try the matter in issue between ———, the plaintiff, and ———, defendant, and a true verdict render according to the evidence.

Conduct of trial.

CONDUCT OF TRIAL

Order of proceedings on trial.

SEC. 285. ORDER OF PROCEEDING ON TRIAL.—When the jury has been sworn, the trial must proceed in the following order, unless the judge, for special reasons, otherwise directs:

1. The plaintiff, after stating the issue and his case, must produce the evidence on his part;
2. The defendant may then open his defense, and offer his evidence in support thereof;
3. The parties may then respectively offer rebutting evidence only, unless the court, for good reason, in furtherance of justice, permit them to offer evidence upon their original case;

4. When the evidence is concluded, unless the case is submitted to the jury on either side or on both sides without argument, the plaintiff must commence and may conclude the argument;

5. If several defendants, having separate defenses, appear by different counsel, the court must determine their relative order in the evidence and argument;

6. The court may then charge the jury.

SEC. 286. CHARGE TO THE JURY; COURT MUST FURNISH, IN WRITING, UPON REQUEST, THE POINTS OF LAW CONTAINED THEREIN.—In charging the jury the court may state to them all matters of law which it thinks necessary for their information in giving their verdict; and, if it state the testimony of the case, it must inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact. The court must furnish to either party, at the time, upon request, a statement in writing of the points of law contained in the charge, or sign, at the time, a statement of such points prepared and submitted by the counsel of either party.

Charge to the jury; writing required.

SEC. 287. SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS.—Where either party asks special instructions to be given to the jury, the court must either give such instruction, as requested, or refuse to do so, or give the instruction with a modification, in such manner that it may distinctly appear what instructions were given in whole or in part.

Special instructions.

SEC. 288. VIEW BY JURY OF THE PREMISES.—When, in the opinion of the court, it is proper for the jury to have a view of the property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order them to be conducted, in a body, under the charge of an officer, to the place, which shall be shown to them by some person appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent, no person, other than the person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

View of premises by jury.

SEC. 289. ADMONITION WHEN JURY PERMITTED TO SEPARATE.—If the jury are permitted to separate, either during the trial or after the case is submitted to them, they shall be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with, or suffer themselves to be addressed by any other person, on any subject of the trial, and that it is their duty not to form or express an opinion thereon until the case is finally submitted to them.

Admonition on separation of jury.

SEC. 290. JURY MAY TAKE WITH THEM CERTAIN PAPERS.—Upon retiring for deliberation the jury may take with them all papers which have been received as evidence in the cause, except depositions or copies of such papers as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession; and they may also take with them notes of the testimony or other proceedings on the trial, taken by themselves or any of them, but none taken by any other person.

Papers jury may take upon retiring.

SEC. 291. DELIBERATION OF JURY, HOW CONDUCTED.—When the case is finally submitted to the jury, they may decide in court or retire for deliberation; if they retire, they must be kept together in some convenient place, under charge of an officer, until at least three-fourths of them agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court. Unless by order of the court, the officer having them under his charge must not suffer any communication to be made to them, or make any himself, except to ask them if they or three-fourths of them are agreed upon a verdict, and he must not, before their verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed upon.

Deliberation of jury.

SEC. 292. MAY COME INTO COURT FOR FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS.—After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed of any point of law arising in the cause, they may require the officer to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court, the information required must be given in the presence of, or after notice to, the parties or counsel.

Proceedings if juror becomes sick.

SEC. 293. PROCEEDINGS IF JUROR BECOMES SICK.—If, after the impaneling of the jury, and before verdict, a juror becomes sick, so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case the trial may proceed with the other jurors with the consent of the parties, or another juror may be sworn and the trial begin anew or the jury may be discharged and a new jury then or afterwards impaneled.

When verdict prevented; cause again tried.

SEC. 294. WHEN PREVENTED FROM GIVING VERDICT, THE CAUSE MAY BE AGAIN TRIED.—In all cases where the jury are discharged, or prevented from giving a verdict, by reason of accident or other cause, during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the action may be again tried immediately, or at a future time, as the court may direct.

Adjournment during absence of jury; sealed verdict.

SEC. 295. WHILE JURY ARE ABSENT, COURT MAY ADJOURN FROM TIME TO TIME; SEALED VERDICT.—While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time, in respect to other business; but it is nevertheless open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury, until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. The court may direct the jury to bring in a sealed verdict, at the opening of the court, in case of an agreement during a recess or adjournment for the day.

Verdict, how declared; form.

SEC. 296. VERDICT, HOW DECLARED; FORM OF; POLLING THE JURY.—When the jury, or three-fourths of them, have agreed upon a verdict, they must be conducted into court, their names called by the clerk, and the verdict rendered by their foreman; the verdict must be in writing, signed by the foreman, and must be read by the clerk to the jury, and the inquiry made whether it is their verdict. Either party may require the jury to be polled, which is done by the court or clerk asking each juror if it is his verdict; if upon such inquiry or polling, more than one-fourth of the jurors disagree thereto, the jury must be sent out again, but if no such disagreement be expressed, the verdict is complete and the jury discharged from the case.

Polling jury.

Informal verdict; proceedings.

SEC. 297. PROCEEDINGS WHEN VERDICT IS INFORMAL.—When the verdict is announced, if it is informal or insufficient, in not covering the issue submitted, it may be corrected by the jury under the advice of the court, or the jury may be again sent out.

The verdict.

THE VERDICT

“General” and “special,” defined.

SEC. 298. GENERAL AND SPECIAL VERDICTS DEFINED.—The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which they pronounce generally upon all or any of the issues, either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant; a special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court. The special verdict must present the conclusions of fact as established by the evidence, and not the evidence to prove them; and those conclusions of fact must be so presented as that nothing shall remain to the court but to draw from them conclusions of law.

When may be rendered.

SEC. 299. WHEN A GENERAL OR SPECIAL VERDICT MAY BE RENDERED.—In an action for the recovery of money only, or specific real property, the jury, in their discretion, may render a general or special verdict. In all other cases the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing upon all, or any of the issues, and in all cases may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact, to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. The special verdict or finding must be filed with the clerk and entered upon the minutes. Where a special finding of facts is inconsistent with the general verdict, the former controls the latter, and the court must give judgment accordingly.

SEC. 300. VERDICT IN ACTIONS FOR RECOVERY OF MONEY OR ON ESTABLISHING COUNTERCLAIM.—When a verdict is found for the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of money, or for the defendant, when a counterclaim for the recovery of money is established, exceeding the amount of the plaintiff's claim as established, the jury must also find the amount of the recovery.

Actions for recovery of money or on establishing counterclaim.

SEC. 301. VERDICT IN ACTIONS FOR THE RECOVERY OF SPECIFIC PERSONAL PROPERTY.—In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff, or the defendant, by his answer, claim a return thereof, the jury, if their verdict be in favor of the plaintiff, or if being in favor of defendant, they also find that he is entitled to a return thereof, must find the value of the property, and, if so instructed, the value of specific portions thereof, and may at the same time assess the damages, if any are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the taking or detention of such property.

Actions for recovery of specific personal property.

SEC. 302. ENTRY OF VERDICT.—Upon receiving a verdict, an entry must be made by the clerk in the minutes of the court, specifying the time of trial, the names of the jurors and witnesses, and setting out the verdict at length; and where special verdict is found, either the judgment rendered thereon, or if the case be reserved for argument or further consideration, the order thus reserving it.

Entry of verdict.

SEC. 303. JUDGMENT NOTWITHSTANDING VERDICT.—When a motion for a directed verdict, which should have been granted, has been denied and a verdict rendered against the moving party, the court, at any time before the entry of judgment, either of its own motion or on motion of the aggrieved party, shall render judgment in favor of the aggrieved party notwithstanding the verdict.

Judgment notwithstanding verdict.

A motion for judgment notwithstanding such verdict may also be made in the alternative form, asking therefor and reserving, if that be denied, the right to apply for a new trial. If the motion for a directed verdict or for judgment notwithstanding the verdict be denied, the trial court on motion for new trial may order judgment to be so entered when it appears from the whole evidence that a verdict should have been so directed at the trial.

New trial.

TRIAL BY COURT

SEC. 304. UPON TRIAL BY COURT, DECISION TO BE IN WRITING AND FILED WITHIN THIRTY DAYS.—Upon the trial of a question of fact by the court, its decision must be given in writing and filed with the clerk within thirty days after the cause is submitted for decision.

Trial by court.

Decision; form; filing.

SEC. 305. FACTS FOUND AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW MUST BE SEPARATELY STATED; JUDGMENT ON.—In giving the decision, the facts found and the conclusions of law must be separately stated. Judgment upon the decision must be entered accordingly.

Statement of facts found and conclusions of law; judgment on.

SEC. 306. WAIVING FINDINGS OF FACT.—Findings of fact may be waived by several parties to an issue of fact:

Waiving findings of fact.

1. By failing to appear at the trial;
2. By consent in writing filed with the clerk;
3. By oral consent in open court, entered in the minutes.

In all cases where the court directs a party to prepare findings, a copy of said proposed findings shall be served upon all the parties to the action at least five days before findings shall be signed by the court, and the court shall not sign any findings therein prior to the expiration of such five days.

Proceedings after determining issue of law.

SEC. 307. PROCEEDINGS AFTER DETERMINATION OF ISSUE OF LAW.—On a judgment for the plaintiff upon an issue of law, he may proceed in the manner prescribed by the first two subdivisions of section 269, upon the failure of the defendant to answer. If judgment be for the defendant upon an issue of law, and the taking of an account, or the proof of any fact, be necessary to enable the court to complete the judgment, a reference may be ordered, as in that section provided.

References and trials by referees.

REFERENCES AND TRIALS BY REFEREES

Reference ordered upon agreement of parties, in what cases.

SEC. 308. REFERENCE ORDERED UPON AGREEMENT OF PARTIES, IN WHAT CASES.—A reference may be ordered upon the agreement of the parties filed with the clerk, or entered in the minutes:

1. To try any or all of the issues in an action or proceeding, whether of fact or of law, and to report a finding and judgment thereon;

2. To ascertain a fact necessary to enable the court to determine an action or proceeding.

Ordered on motion in what cases.

SEC. 309. REFERENCE ORDERED ON MOTION, IN WHAT CASES.—When the parties do not consent, the court may, upon the application of either, or of its own motion, direct a reference in the following cases:

1. When the trial of an issue of fact requires the examination of a long account on either side; in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or report upon any specific question of fact involved therein;

2. When the taking of an account is necessary for the information of the court before judgment, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect;

3. When a question of fact, other than upon the pleadings, arises upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action;

4. When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding.

Objection to appointment of referee. When may offer grounds of.

SEC. 310. A PARTY MAY OBJECT; GROUNDS OF OBJECTION.—A party may object to the appointment of any person as referee, on one or more of the following grounds:

1. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed to render a person competent as a juror;

3. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, master and servant, employer and clerk, or principal and agent, to either party; or being a member of the family of either party; or a partner in business with either party; or security on any bond or obligation for either party;

4. Having served as a juror or been a witness on any trial between the same parties for the same cause of action;

5. Interest on the part of such person in the event of the action, or in the main question involved in the action;

6. Having formed or expressed an unqualified opinion or belief as to the merits of the action;

7. The existence of a state of mind in such person evincing enmity against or bias to either party.

How disposed of.

SEC. 311. OBJECTIONS, HOW DISPOSED OF.—The objections taken to the appointment of any person as referee must be heard and disposed of by the court. Affidavits may be read and witnesses examined as to such objections.

SEC. 312. REFEREES TO REPORT WITHIN TWENTY DAYS.—The referees or commissioner must report their findings in writing to the court within twenty days after the testimony is closed and the facts found and conclusions of law must be separately stated therein.

Report of referees.

SEC. 313. EFFECT OF REFEREE'S FINDING.—The finding of the referee or commissioner upon the whole issue must stand as the finding of the court, and upon filing of the finding with the clerk of the court, judgment may be entered thereon in the same manner as if the action had been tried by the court.

Effect of referee's finding.

SEC. 314. HOW EXCEPTED TO, AND SO FORTH.—The findings of the referee or commissioner may be excepted to and reviewed in like manner as if made by the court. When the reference is to report the facts, the finding reported has the effect of a special verdict.

How excepted to, etc.

PROVISIONS RELATING TO TRIALS IN GENERAL
EXCEPTIONS

Provisions relating to trials in general.

SEC. 315. "EXCEPTION" DEFINED; WHEN TAKEN.—An exception is an objection upon a matter of law to a decision made, either before or after judgment, by a court, tribunal, judge, or other judicial officer, in an action or proceeding. The exception must be taken at the time the decision is made, except as provided in section 316.

"Exception" defined; when taken.

SEC. 316. VERDICT OR ORDER IN ABSENCE OF PARTY, DEEMED EXCEPTED TO.—The verdict of the jury, the final decision in an action or proceeding, an interlocutory order or decision, finally determining the rights of the parties, or some of them, an order or decision from which an appeal may be taken, an order sustaining or overruling a demurrer, allowing or refusing to allow an amendment to a pleading, striking out a pleading or a portion thereof, refusing a continuance, an order made upon ex parte application, giving an instruction, although no objection to such instruction was made, refusing to give an instruction, modifying an instruction requested, an order or decision made in the absence of the party or an order granting or denying a nonsuit or a motion to strike out evidence or testimony and a ruling sustaining or overruling an objection to evidence, are deemed to have been excepted to.

Verdict or order in absence of party, deemed excepted to.

SEC. 317. EXCEPTION, FORM OF.—No particular form of exception is required, but when the exception is to the verdict or decision, upon the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence to justify it, the objection must specify the particulars in which such evidence is alleged to be insufficient. The objection must be stated, with so much of the evidence or other matter as is necessary to explain it, and no more. Only the substance of the reporter's notes of the evidence shall be stated. Documents on file in the action or proceeding may be copied, or the substance thereof stated, or a reference thereto sufficient to identify them may be made.

Form of exception.

SEC. 318. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS, WHEN TO BE PRESENTED, ETC.—A bill containing the exception to any decision may be presented to the court or judge, for settlement at any time after the decision is made, but the same must be presented within ten days after written notice of making such decision, and after having been settled must be signed by the judge and filed with the clerk. When the decision excepted to is made by a tribunal other than a court, or by a judicial officer, the bill of exceptions must be presented to and settled and signed by such tribunal or officer.

Bill of exceptions, when to be presented, etc.

SEC. 319. BILL OF EXCEPTIONS, PREPARATION AND SETTLEMENT; TIME OF FILING.—When a party desires to have exceptions taken at a Preparation and settlement; time of filing.

trial settled in a bill of exceptions, he may, at any time thereafter, and within ten days after the entry of judgment, if the action was tried with a jury, or after receiving notice of the entry of judgment, if the action was tried without a jury, or if proceedings on motion for a new trial be pending, within ten days after notice of decision denying said motion, or other determination thereof, or such further time as the court in which the action is pending, or the judge thereof, may allow, prepare the draft of a bill, and serve the same, or a copy thereof, upon the adverse party.

Contents of draft.

CONTENTS OF DRAFT.—Such draft must contain all the exceptions and proceedings taken upon which the party relies, and may contain all matters reviewable on the same appeal whether occurring at the trial or on motion for a new trial. It may also contain a statement of any matters occurring upon the trial, in the presence of the court, showing any of the matters mentioned in subdivisions one and two of section 324.

Post, p. 963.

Adverse party may propose amendments.

ADVERSE PARTY MAY PROPOSE AMENDMENTS.—Within ten days after such service, the adverse party may propose amendments thereto, and serve the same or a copy thereof, upon the other party.

Delivery to judge.

DELIVERY TO THE JUDGE.—The proposed bill and amendments must, within ten days thereafter be presented by the party seeking the settlement of the bill, to the judge who tried or heard the case, upon five days' notice to the adverse party, or be delivered to the clerk of the court for the judge. When received by the clerk he must immediately deliver them to the judge, if he is in the Canal Zone; if he is absent from the Zone, and either party desires the paper to be forwarded to the judge, the clerk must, upon notice in writing of such party, immediately forward them by mail, or other safe channel; if not thus forwarded the clerk must deliver them to the judge immediately after his return to the Zone.

Judge to designate time of settling.

JUDGE TO DESIGNATE TIME OF SETTLING.—When received from the clerk, the judge must designate the time at which he will settle the bill, and the clerk must immediately notify the parties of such designation. At the time designated the judge must settle the bill. The bill must thereupon be engrossed and presented to the judge to be certified, by the party presenting it, within ten days.

Action tried before referee.

ACTION TRIED BEFORE REFEREE.—If the action was tried before a referee, the proposed bill, with the amendments, if any, must be presented to such referee for settlement within ten days after service of the amendments, upon notice of five days to the adverse party, and thereupon the referee must settle the bill. If no amendments are served or if served are allowed, the proposed bill may be presented, with the amendments, if any, to the judge or referee, for settlement without notice to the adverse party.

Judge to strike out useless matter.

JUDGE TO STRIKE OUT USELESS MATTER.—It is the duty of the judge or referee, in settling the bill, to strike out of it all redundant and useless matter, so that the exceptions and proceedings may be presented as briefly as possible. When settled, the bill must be signed by the judge or referee, with his certificate to the effect that the same is allowed, and must then be filed with the clerk.

Service when default entered.

NOT TO BE SERVED ON PARTY WHEN DEFAULT ENTERED.—No bill of exceptions, notice of appeal, or notice or paper, other than amendments to the pleadings or an amended pleading, need be served upon any party whose default has been duly entered, or who has not appeared in the action or proceeding.

Exceptions after judgment.

SEC. 320. EXCEPTIONS AFTER JUDGMENT.—Exceptions to any decision made after judgment may be presented to the judge at the time of such decision, and be settled or noted, as provided in section 318, or a bill thereof may be presented and settled afterward, as provided in section 319, and within like periods after written notice of entry of the order, upon appeal from which such decision is reviewable.

SEC. 321. PROCEEDINGS IF JUDGE REFUSE TO ALLOW BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.—If the judge in any case refuses to allow a bill of exceptions in accordance with the facts, the party desiring the bill settled may apply by petition to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit to prove the same; the application may be made in the mode and manner, and under such regulations as that court may prescribe; and the bill, when proven, must be certified by the court as correct, and filed with the clerk of the court in which the action was tried, and when so filed it has the same force and effect as if settled by the judge who tried the cause.

Proceedings if bill of exceptions refused.

SEC. 322. SETTLEMENT OF BILL OF EXCEPTIONS.—When the decision excepted to was made by any judicial officer, other than a judge, the bill of exceptions shall be presented to such judicial officer, and be settled and signed by him in the same manner as it is required to be presented to, settled, and signed by a court or judge. A judge or judicial officer may settle and sign a bill of exceptions after, as well as before, he ceases to be such judge or judicial officer. If such judge or judicial officer, before the bill of exceptions is settled, dies, is removed from office, becomes disqualified, is absent from the Canal Zone, or refuses to settle the bill of exceptions, or if no mode is provided by law for the settlement of the same, it shall be settled and certified in such manner as the circuit court of appeals may, by its order or rules, direct.

Settlement of bill of exceptions.

NEW TRIALS

New trials.

SEC. 323. NEW TRIAL DEFINED.—A new trial is a reexamination of an issue of fact in the same court after a trial and decision by a jury, court, or referee.

Defined.

SEC. 324. WHEN NEW TRIAL MAY BE GRANTED.—The former verdict or other decision may be vacated and a new trial granted, on the application of the party aggrieved, for any of the following causes, materially affecting the substantial rights of such party:

When granted.

1. Irregularity in the proceedings of the court, jury, or adverse party, or any order of the court or abuse of discretion by which either party was prevented from having a fair trial;

2. Misconduct of the jury; and whenever any one or more of the jurors have been induced to assent to any general or special verdict, or to a finding on any question submitted to them by the court, by a resort to the determination of chance, such misconduct may be proved by the affidavit of any one of the jurors;

3. Accident or surprise, which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against;

4. Newly discovered evidence, material for the party making the application, which he could not, with reasonable diligence, have discovered and produced at the trial;

5. Excessive damages, appearing to have been given under the influence of passion or prejudice;

6. Insufficiency of the evidence to justify the verdict or other decision, or that it is against law;

7. Error in law, occurring at the trial and excepted to by the party making the application.

When a new trial is granted upon the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the verdict, the order shall so specify; otherwise, on appeal from such order, it will be presumed that the order was not based upon that ground.

Application for.

SEC. 325. MANNER OF MAKING APPLICATION FOR NEW TRIAL.—When the application is made for a cause mentioned in the first, second, third, and fourth subdivisions of section 324, it must be made upon affidavits; otherwise it must be made on the minutes of the court.

Notice of motion,
upon whom served;
contents.

SEC. 326. NOTICE OF MOTION, UPON WHOM TO BE SERVED, AND WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The party intending to move for a new trial must, either before the entry of judgment or within ten days after receiving notice of the entry of the judgment, or within ten days after verdict, if the trial was by jury, file with the clerk and serve upon the adverse party a notice of his intention to move for a new trial, designating the grounds upon which the motion will be made and whether the same will be made upon affidavits or the minutes of the court or both. The time above specified shall not be extended by order or stipulation. If the motion is to be made upon affidavits, the moving party must, within ten days after serving the notice, or such further time as the court in which the action is pending, or the judge thereof, may allow (but not to exceed twenty days' additional time) file such affidavits with the clerk and serve a copy thereof upon the adverse party, who shall have ten days thereafter, or such further time as the court may allow (not exceeding twenty days' additional time) to file counter-affidavits and serve a copy thereof upon the moving party.

Time of hearing motion; reference to pleadings, orders and evidence at hearing.

SEC. 327. TIME OF HEARING MOTION; REFERENCE TO PLEADINGS, ORDERS AND EVIDENCE AT HEARING.—The motion for a new trial must be heard at the earliest practicable time after the filing of affidavits and counter-affidavits, in case the motion is made on affidavits, in other cases after the filing of the notice. On such hearing reference may be had in all cases to the pleadings and orders of the court on file, and when the motion is made on the minutes, reference may also be had to any depositions and documentary evidence offered at the trial and to the report of the proceedings on the trial taken by the reporter, or to any certified transcript, of such report, or if there be no such report or certified transcript, to such proceedings occurring at the trial as are within the recollection of the judge; when the proceedings at the trial have been reported, but the reporter's notes have not been transcribed, the reporter must, upon request of the court, or either party, attend the hearing of the motion, and shall read his notes, or such parts thereof as the court, or either party, may require.

New trial has precedence.

NEW TRIAL HEARING HAS PRECEDENCE.—The hearing and disposition of the motion for a new trial shall have precedence over all other matters except criminal cases, probate matters, and cases actually on trial, and it shall be the duty of the court to determine the same at the earliest possible moment.

To be passed on within two months.

MOTION TO BE PASSED ON WITHIN TWO MONTHS.—The power of the court to pass on motion for a new trial shall expire within two months after the verdict of the jury or service on the moving party of notice of the entry of the judgment. If such motion is not determined within said two months, the effect shall be a denial of the motion without further order of the court.

Vacation of judgment.

SEC. 328. VACATION OF JUDGMENT.—A judgment or decree of the district court, when based upon findings of fact made by the court, or the special verdict of a jury, may, upon motion of the party aggrieved, be set aside and vacated by the court, and another and different judgment entered, for either of the following causes, materially affecting the substantial rights of such party and entitling him to a different judgment:

1. Incorrect or erroneous conclusions of law not consistent with or not supported by the findings of fact; and in such case when the judgment is set aside, the conclusions of law shall be amended and corrected.

2. A judgment or decree not consistent with or not supported by the special verdict.

SEC. 329. NOTICE OF INTENTION TO MOVE TO VACATE JUDGMENT; TIME FOR MAKING MOTION.—The party intending to make the motion mentioned in section 328 must, within ten days after notice of the entry of judgment, serve upon the adverse party and file with the clerk of the court a notice of his intention, designating the grounds upon which, and the time at which the motion will be made, and specifying the particulars in which the conclusions of law are not consistent with the finding of facts, or in which the judgment or decree is not consistent with the special verdict. The time designated for the making of the motion must not be more than sixty days from the time of the service of the notice.

Notice of intention to move to vacate judgment.

MANNER OF GIVING AND ENTERING JUDGMENT

Manner of giving and entering judgment.

SEC. 330. JUDGMENT TO BE ENTERED IN TWENTY-FOUR HOURS, AND SO FORTH.—When trial by jury has been had, judgment must be entered by the clerk, in conformity to the verdict, within twenty-four hours after the rendition of the verdict, unless the court order the case to be reserved for argument or further consideration, or grant a stay of proceedings. If the trial has been had by the court, judgment must be entered by the clerk, in conformity to the decision of the court, immediately upon the filing of such decision. In no case is a judgment effectual for any purpose until so entered.

Entry within twenty-four hours, etc.

SEC. 331. CASE MAY BE BROUGHT BEFORE THE COURT FOR ARGUMENT.—When the case is reserved for argument or further consideration, as mentioned in section 330, it may be brought by either party before the court for argument.

Argument before court.

SEC. 332. WHEN COUNTERCLAIM ESTABLISHED EXCEEDS PLAINTIFF'S DEMAND.—If a counterclaim, established at the trial, exceed the plaintiff's demand, judgment for the defendant must be given for the excess; or if it appear that the defendant is entitled to any other affirmative relief, judgment must be given accordingly.

When established counterclaim exceeds plaintiff's demand.

SEC. 333. IN REPLEVIN, JUDGMENT TO BE IN THE ALTERNATIVE, AND WITH DAMAGES; GOLD COIN OR CURRENCY JUDGMENT.—In an action to recover the possession of personal property, judgment for the plaintiff may be for the possession or the value thereof, in case a delivery can not be had, and damages for the detention. If the property has been delivered to the plaintiff, and the defendant claim a return thereof, judgment for the defendant may be for a return of the property or the value thereof, in case a return can not be had, and damages for taking and withholding the same. In an action on a contract or obligation in writing, for the direct payment of money, made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, judgment for the plaintiff, whether it be by default or after verdict, may follow the contract or obligation, and be made payable in the kind of money or currency specified therein; and in all actions for the recovery of money, if the plaintiff allege in his complaint that the same was understood and agreed by the respective parties to be payable in a specified kind of money or currency, and this fact is admitted by the default of the defendant or established by evidence, the judgment for the plaintiff must be made payable in the kind of money or currency so alleged in the complaint; and in an action against any person for the recovery of money received by such person in a fiduciary capacity, or to the use of another, judgment for the plaintiff must be made payable in the kind of money or currency so received by such person.

In replevin, judgment to be in the alternative, and with damages; gold coin or currency judgment.

Clerk to enter abstract of judgment.

SEC. 334. CLERK TO ENTER ABSTRACT OF JUDGMENT.—The clerk must enter an abstract of the judgment in a column set aside for that purpose on the civil docket.

If a party die after verdict, judgment may be entered.

SEC. 335. IF A PARTY DIE AFTER VERDICT, JUDGMENT MAY BE ENTERED.—If a party die after a verdict or decision upon any issue of fact, and before judgment, the court may nevertheless render judgment thereon. Such judgment is payable in the course of administration on his estate.

What constitutes judgment roll.

SEC. 336. JUDGMENT ROLL, WHAT CONSTITUTES.—Immediately after entering the judgment, the clerk must attach together and file the following papers, which constitute the judgment roll:

1. In case the complaint is not answered by any defendant, the summons, with the affidavit or proof of service; the complaint with a memorandum indorsed thereon that the default of the defendant in not answering was entered, and a copy of the judgment; and in case the service so made is by publication, the affidavit for publication of summons, and the order directing the publication of summons.

2. In all other cases, the pleadings, all orders striking out any pleading in whole or in part, a copy of the verdict of the jury, or finding of the court or referee, and a copy of any order made on demurrer, or relating to a change of parties, and a copy of the judgment; if there are two or more defendants in the action, and any one of them has allowed judgment to pass against him by default, the summons, with proof of its service, on such defendant; and if the service on such defaulting defendant be by publication, then the affidavit for publication, and the order directing the publication of the summons.

Clerk to enter judgment.

SEC. 337. CLERK TO ENTER JUDGMENT.—Immediately after filing the judgment roll, the clerk must make the proper entries of the judgment under appropriate heads, in the civil docket kept by him.

Inspection of docket.

SEC. 338. DOCKET TO BE OPEN FOR INSPECTION WITHOUT CHARGE.—The docket kept by the clerk is open at all times, during office hours, for the inspection of the public, without charge. The clerk must arrange the several dockets kept by him in such a manner as to facilitate their inspection.

Satisfaction of judgment, how made.

SEC. 339. SATISFACTION OF A JUDGMENT, HOW MADE.—Satisfaction of a judgment may be entered in the clerk's docket upon an execution returned satisfied, or upon an acknowledgment of satisfaction filed with the clerk, made in the manner prescribed in chapter 22 of the Civil Code, by the judgment creditor, or by his indorsement on the face, or on the margin of the record of the judgment, or by the attorney, unless a revocation of his authority is filed. Whenever a judgment is satisfied in fact, otherwise than upon an execution, the party or attorney must give such acknowledgment, or make such indorsement, and, upon motion, the court may compel it, or may order the entry of satisfaction to be made without it.

Undertaking in actions to set aside transfer of property.

SEC. 340. UNDERTAKING IN ACTIONS TO SET ASIDE TRANSFER OF PROPERTY.—Where an action is commenced to set aside a transfer or conveyance of property on the grounds that such transfer or conveyance was made to hinder, delay, or defraud a creditor or creditors, the transferee or grantee to whom it is alleged the property was transferred or conveyed to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors or the successors or assigns of such transferee or grantee, may give an undertaking as herein provided, and when such undertaking is given as herein provided, the transferee or grantee to whom it is alleged the property was transferred or conveyed to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, or the successors and assigns of such transferee or grantee, may sell, encumber, transfer, convey, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise dispose of the property, or any part thereof, which is alleged to have been transferred or conveyed to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, so that the purchaser, encumbrancer, transferee, mortgagee, grantee, or pledgee of such property, will take, own, hold, and possess such property unaffected by such action and suit, or the judgment which may be rendered therein.

SEC. 341. CONDITIONS OF UNDERTAKING.—Such undertaking with two sureties shall be executed by the transferee or grantee to whom it is alleged the property was transferred or conveyed to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, or the successor or assign of such transferee or grantee, in double the estimated value of the property so alleged to have been transferred or conveyed; provided, in no case need such undertaking be for a greater sum than double the amount of the debt or liability alleged to be due and owing to the plaintiff in such action, commenced to set aside said transfer and conveyance; and where such estimated value of the property alleged so to have been conveyed is less than the sum alleged to be due and owing to the plaintiff in the action, such estimated value shall be stated in the undertaking, and said undertaking shall be conditioned that, if it be adjudged in said action that the transfer or conveyance was made to hinder, delay, or defraud a creditor or creditors, then that the transferee or grantee or the said successor or assigns of such transferee or grantee giving such undertaking, will pay to the plaintiff in said action a sum equal to the value, as the same is estimated in said undertaking, of said property alleged to have been transferred or conveyed to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, not exceeding the sum alleged to be due and owing to the plaintiff in the action.

Conditions of.

SEC. 342. FILING AND SERVING UNDERTAKING.—Said undertaking shall be filed in the action in which said execution issued and a copy thereof served upon the plaintiff or his attorney in said action.

Filing and serving.

SEC. 343. OBJECTIONS TO SURETIES.—Within ten days after service of the copy of undertaking the plaintiff may object to such undertaking on the ground of inability of the sureties, or either of them, to pay the sum for which they become bound in said undertaking, and upon the ground that the estimated value of the property therein is less than the market value of such property. Such objection to the undertaking shall be made in writing, specifying the ground or grounds of objection, and if the objection is made to the undertaking that the estimated value therein is less than the market value of the property, such objection shall specify the plaintiff's estimate of the market value of the property. Such written objection shall be served upon the said transferee or grantee, or the successor or assigns of such transferee or grantee giving such undertaking.

Objections to sureties.

SEC. 344. JUSTIFICATION OF SURETIES; APPROVAL AND DISAPPROVAL OF UNDERTAKING.—When the sureties or either of them, are objected to, the surety or sureties so objected to shall justify before the court in which the action is commenced, upon ten days' notice of the time when they will so justify being given to the plaintiff, or plaintiff's attorney. Upon the hearing and examination into the sufficiency of a surety, witnesses may be required to attend and evidence may be procured and introduced in the same manner as in trial of civil cases. Upon such hearing and examination the court shall make its order, in writing, approving or disapproving the sufficiency of the sureties or surety on such undertaking. In case the court disapproves of the surety or sureties on any undertaking, a new undertaking may be filed and served, and to any undertaking given Justification of sureties; approval and disapproval of undertaking.

under the provisions of this act the same objection to the sureties may be made and the same proceedings had as in case of the first undertaking filed and served.

Objection because estimated value in undertaking less than market value; new undertaking.

SEC. 345. OBJECTION BECAUSE ESTIMATED VALUE IN UNDERTAKING LESS THAN MARKET VALUE; NEW UNDERTAKING.—When objection is made to the undertaking upon the ground that the estimated value of the property, as stated in the undertaking, is less than the market value of the property, the transferee or grantee, or the successor or assigns of such transferee or grantee giving the undertaking may accept the estimated value stated by the plaintiff in said objection, and a new undertaking may at once be filed, with the plaintiff's estimate stated therein as the estimated value, and no objection shall thereafter be made upon that ground; if the plaintiff's estimate of the market value is not accepted, the transferee or grantee, or the successor or assigns of the grantee or transferee giving such undertaking, upon ten days' notice to the plaintiff, shall move the court in which the action is pending to estimate the market value of the property, and upon the hearing of such motion, witnesses may be required to attend and testify, and evidence may be produced in the same manner as in the trial of civil actions. Upon the hearing of the motion the court shall estimate the market value of the property, and if the estimated value of the property as made by the court exceeds the estimated value as stated in the undertaking, a new undertaking shall be filed and served with the market value determined by the stated value therein as the estimated value of the property.

Justification of sureties. Post, p. 1002.

SEC. 346. JUSTIFICATION OF SURETIES. The sureties shall justify upon the undertaking as required by section 533.

When undertaking effective.

SEC. 347. WHEN UNDERTAKING BECOMES EFFECTIVE.—The undertaking shall become effective for the purpose stated in section 340, ten days after service of copy thereof on the plaintiff, unless objection to such undertaking is made as provided in sections 343 or 345, and in case objection is so made to the undertaking filed and served, the same shall become effective for such purpose when an order is made by such court approving the sureties, when the surety or sureties are objected to, or affirming the estimate of the value of property when objection is made thereto, or in case any objection to the undertaking is sustained by the court when a new undertaking is filed and served as required by sections 344 or 345, to which no objection is made, or if made is not sustained by the court.

Judgment against sureties.

SEC. 348. JUDGMENT AGAINST SURETIES.—If judgment be rendered in said action that the alleged transfer or conveyance was made to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, then judgment shall be rendered in such action without further proceeding in favor of plaintiff and against the principal and sureties on said undertaking for the sum for which said undertaking was executed according to the conditions thereof.

EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

CHAPTER 12.—EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT IN CIVIL ACTIONS

EXECUTION

Time execution may issue.

SEC. 349. WITHIN WHAT TIME EXECUTION MAY ISSUE.—The party in whose favor judgment is given may, at any time within five years after the entry thereof, have a writ of execution issued for its enforcement. If, after the entry of the judgment, the issuing of execution thereon is stayed or enjoined by any judgment or order of court, or by operation of law, the time during which it is so stayed or enjoined must be excluded from the computation of the five years within which execution may issue.

SEC. 350. STAY OF EXECUTION.—The court or the judge thereof shall not have the power, without the consent of the adverse party, to stay, for a longer period than thirty days, the execution of any judgment or order the execution whereof would be stayed on appeal only by the execution of a stay bond.

Stay of.

SEC. 351. WHO MAY ISSUE THE EXECUTION, ITS FORM, TO WHOM DIRECTED, AND WHAT IT SHALL REQUIRE.—The writ of execution must be issued in the name of the government of the Canal Zone, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk, and be directed to the marshal, and it must intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the division where the judgment-roll is filed, and if it be for money, the amount thereof, and the amount actually due thereon, and if made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in section 333, the execution must also state the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is payable, and must require the marshal substantially as follows:

Who may issue, form, to whom directed, requirements.

Ante, p. 965.

1. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor, it must require the marshal to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the property of such debtor.

2. If it be against property in the hands of the personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants, or trustees, it must require the marshal to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property.

3. If it be against the person of the judgment debtor, it must require the marshal to arrest such debtor and commit him to jail until he pay the judgment, with interest, or be discharged according to law.

4. If it be issued on a judgment made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, as provided in section 333, it must also require the marshal to satisfy the same in the kind of money or currency in which the judgment is made payable, and the marshal must refuse payment in any other kind of money or currency; and in case of levy and sale of the property of the judgment debtor, he must refuse payment from any purchaser at such sale in any other kind of money or currency than that specified in the execution. The marshal collecting money or currency in the manner required by this subchapter, must pay to the plaintiff or party entitled to recover the same, the same kind of money or currency received by him, and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, he shall be liable on his official bond to the judgment creditor in three times the amount of the money so collected.

5. If it be for the delivery of the possession of property, it must require the marshal to deliver the possession of the same, describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may at the same time require the marshal to satisfy any costs, damages, rents, or profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the property of the person against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was rendered to be specified therein if a delivery thereof can not be had.

SEC. 352. WHEN MADE RETURNABLE.—The execution may be made returnable, at any time not less than ten nor more than sixty days after its receipt by the marshal, to the clerk with whom the judgment roll is filed. When the execution is returned the clerk must attach it to the judgment roll.

When made returnable.

SEC. 353. MONEY JUDGMENTS AND OTHERS, HOW ENFORCED.—When the judgment is for money, or the possession of property, the same may be enforced by a writ of execution; and if the judgment direct that the defendant be arrested, the execution may issue against the person of the judgment debtor, after the return of an execution against his property unsatisfied in whole or part; when the judgment requires the sale of property, the same may be enforced by a writ reciting such judgment, or the material parts thereof, and directing the proper officer to execute the judgment, by making the sale and applying the proceeds in conformity therewith; when the judgment requires the performance of any other act than as above designated, a certified copy of the judgment may be served upon the party against whom the same is rendered, or upon the person or officer required thereby or by law to obey the same, and obedience thereto may be enforced by the court.

Execution after five years.

SEC. 354.—EXECUTION AFTER FIVE YEARS.—In all cases the judgment may be enforced or carried into execution after the lapse of five years from the date of its entry, by leave of the court, upon motion, or by judgment for that purpose, founded upon supplemental pleadings; but nothing in this section shall be construed to revive a judgment for the recovery of money which shall have been barred by limitation at the time of the enactment of this code.

Execution on property of deceased party.

SEC. 355. WHEN EXECUTION MAY ISSUE AGAINST THE PROPERTY OF A PARTY AFTER HIS DEATH.—Notwithstanding the death of a party after the judgment, execution thereon may be issued, or it may be enforced, as follows:

1. In case of the death of the judgment creditor, upon the application of his executor or administrator, or successor in interest;
2. In case of the death of the judgment debtor, if the judgment be for the recovery of property, or the enforcement of a lien thereon.

Property liable to execution; not affected until levied on.

SEC. 356. PROPERTY LIABLE TO EXECUTION; NOT AFFECTED UNTIL LEVIED ON.—All goods, chattels, moneys, and other property, both real and personal, or any interest therein, of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, and all property and rights of property seized and held under attachment in the action, are liable to execution. Shares and interests in any corporation or company, and debts and credits, and all other property, both real and personal, or any interest in either real or personal property, and all other property not capable of manual delivery, may be levied upon or released from levy in like manner as like property may be attached or released from attachment. Until a levy, property is not affected by the execution; but no levy shall bind any property for a longer period than one year from the date of the issuance of the execution; provided, however, an alias execution may be issued on said judgment and levied on any property not exempt from execution.

Indemnity where property claimed by third party.

SEC. 357. INDEMNITY WHERE PROPERTY CLAIMED BY THIRD PARTY.—If the property levied on is claimed by a third person as his property by a written claim verified by his oath or that of his agent, setting out his right to the possession thereof, and served upon the marshal, the marshal is not bound to keep the property unless the plaintiff, or the person in whose favor the writ of execution runs, on demand, indemnifies the marshal against such claim by an undertaking by at least two good and sufficient sureties in a sum equal to double the value of the property levied on; and the marshal is not liable for damages for the taking or keeping of such property to any such third person, unless such a claim is made.

The marshal may demand and exact the undertaking herein provided for notwithstanding any defect, informality, or insufficiency of the verified claim served upon him.

What exempt from execution.

SEC. 358. WHAT EXEMPT FROM EXECUTION.—The following property is exempt from execution or attachment, except as herein otherwise specially provided:

1. Chairs, tables, desks, and books, to the value of $200 belonging to the judgment debtor; Exemptions.

2. Household furniture and utensils necessary for housekeeping and used for that purpose by the debtor, such as the debtor may select, of a value not exceeding $250; and all wearing apparel;

3. Tools and implements necessarily used by him in his trade or employment;

4. Two domestic animals such as the debtor may select, not exceeding $100 in value, and necessarily used by him in his ordinary occupation;

5. The professional libraries of lawyers, judges, clergymen, doctors, school teachers, and music teachers, not exceeding $250 in value;

6. One fishing boat and net, not exceeding the total value of $200, the property of any fisherman, by the lawful use of which he earns his livelihood;

7. The wages and earnings of all seamen and seagoing fishermen, not exceeding $300, regardless of where or when earned, and in addition to all other exemptions otherwise provided by any law;

8. The earnings of the judgment debtor for his personal services rendered at any time within thirty days next preceding the levy of execution or attachment, when it appears by the debtor's affidavit or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of his family, residing in the Canal Zone, supported in whole or in part by his labor; but where debts are incurred by any such person, or his wife or family for the common necessities of life, or have been incurred at a time when the debtor had no family residing in the Canal Zone, supported in whole or in part by his labor, the one-half of such earnings above mentioned is nevertheless subject to execution, garnishment, or attachment to satisfy debts so incurred;

9. All the nautical instruments and wearing apparel of any master, officer, or seaman of any steamer or other vessel;

10. All arms, uniforms, and accouterments required by law to be kept by any person, and also one gun, to be selected by the debtor;

11. Life insurance benefits. All moneys, benefits, privileges, or immunities accruing or in any manner growing out of any life insurance, if the annual premiums paid do not exceed $500, and if they exceed that sum a like exemption shall exist which shall bear the same proportion to the moneys, benefits, privileges, and immunities so accruing or growing out of such insurance that said $500 bears to the whole annual premiums paid;

12. Pensions. All money received by any person, a resident of the Canal Zone, as a pension from the United States Government, whether the same shall be in the actual possession of such pensioner or deposited, loaned, or invested by him.

NOT EXEMPT FROM JUDGMENT FOR PRICE.—No article, however, or species of property mentioned in this section is exempt from execution issued upon a judgment recovered for its price, or upon a judgment of foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien thereon. Not exempt from judgment for price.

SEC. 359. WRIT, HOW EXECUTED.—The marshal must execute the writ against the property of the judgment debtor, by levying on a sufficient amount of property, if there be sufficient; collecting or selling the things in action, and selling the other property, and paying to the plaintiff or his attorney so much of the proceeds as will satisfy the judgment. Any excess in the proceeds over the judgment and accruing costs must be returned to the judgment debtor, unless otherwise directed by the judgment or order of the court. When there is more property of the judgment debtor than is sufficient to satisfy the judgment and accruing costs within the view of the marshal, he must levy only on such part of the property as the How writ executed.

judgment debtor may indicate, if the property indicated be amply sufficient to satisfy the judgment and costs.

Notice of sale under execution, how given.

SEC. 360. NOTICE OF SALE UNDER EXECUTION, HOW GIVEN.—Before the sale of property on execution or under power contained in any deed of trust, notice thereof must be given as follows:

1. In case of perishable property: By posting written notice of the time and place of sale in three public places of the town where the sale is to take place, for such time as may be reasonable, considering the character and condition of the property.

2. In case of other personal property: By posting a similar notice in three public places in the town where the sale is to take place, for not less than five days nor more than ten days.

3. In case of real property: By posting a similar notice particularly describing the property for twenty days, in three public places of the town where the property is to be sold and publishing a copy thereof once a week for the same period, in some newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone. Provided that where real property is to be sold under the provision of any deed of trust the copy of said notice shall be posted in some conspicuous place on the property to be sold, at least twenty days before date of sale.

4. When the judgment under which the property is to be sold is made payable in a specified kind of money or currency, the several notices required by this section must state the kind of money or currency in which bids may be made at such sale, which must be the same as that specified in the judgment.

Selling without notice, penalty.

SEC. 361. SELLING WITHOUT NOTICE WHAT PENALTY ATTACHED.—An officer selling without the notice prescribed by the last section forfeits $500 to the aggrieved party, in addition to his actual damages; and a person willfully taking down or defacing the notice posted, if done before the sale or the satisfaction of the judgment (if the judgment be satisfied before sale), forfeits $500.

Sales, how conducted.

SEC. 362. SALES, HOW CONDUCTED; NEITHER THE OFFICER CONDUCTING IT NOR HIS DEPUTY TO BE A PURCHASER; REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY, HOW SOLD; JUDGMENT DEBTOR, IF PRESENT, MAY DIRECT ORDER OF SALE, AND THE OFFICER SHALL FOLLOW HIS DIRECTIONS.—All sales of property under execution must be made at auction, to the highest bidder, between the hours of nine in the morning and five in the afternoon. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more can be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution nor his deputy can become a purchaser or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property, capable of manual delivery, it must be within view of those who attend the sale, and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and when the sale is of real property, consisting of several known lots or parcels, they must be sold separately; or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person, and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion must be thus sold. The judgment debtor, if present at the sale, may also direct the order in which property, real or personal, shall be sold, when such property consists of several known lots or parcels, or of articles which can be sold to advantage separately, and the marshal must follow such directions.

Proceedings if purchaser refuses to pay purchase money.

SEC. 363. IF PURCHASER REFUSES TO PAY PURCHASE-MONEY, WHAT PROCEEDINGS.—If a purchaser refuse to pay the amount bid by him for property struck off to him at a sale under execution, the officer may again sell the property at any time to the highest bidder, and if any loss be occasioned thereby, the officer may recover the amount of such loss, with costs, from the bidder so refusing, in any court of competent jurisdiction.

SEC. 364. OFFICER MAY REFUSE SUCH PURCHASER'S SUBSEQUENT BID.—When a purchaser refuses to pay, the officer may, in his discretion, thereafter reject any subsequent bid of such person.

Refusal of purchaser's subsequent bid.

Liability of officer.

SEC. 365. THESE TWO SECTIONS NOT TO MAKE OFFICER LIABLE BEYOND A CERTAIN AMOUNT.—Sections 363 and 364 must not be construed to make the officer liable for any more than the amount bid by the second or subsequent purchaser, and the amount collected from the purchaser refusing to pay.

SEC. 366. PERSONAL PROPERTY CAPABLE OF MANUAL DELIVERY, HOW DELIVERED TO PURCHASER.—When the purchaser of any personal property capable of manual delivery pays the purchase-money, the officer making the sale must deliver to the purchaser the property, and, if desired, execute and deliver to him a certificate of the sale. Such certificate conveys to the purchaser all the right which the debtor had in such property on the day of <sup>1</sup> the execution or attachment was levied.

Delivery of personal property.

SEC. 367. PERSONAL PROPERTY NOT CAPABLE OF MANUAL DELIVERY, HOW SOLD AND DELIVERED.—When the purchaser of any personal property not capable of manual delivery pays the purchase-money, the officer making the sale must execute and deliver to the purchaser a certificate of sale. Such certificate conveys to the purchaser all the right which the debtor had in such property on the day the execution or attachment was levied.

When not capable of manual delivery.

SEC. 368. SALE OF REAL PROPERTY; WHAT PURCHASER IS SUBSTITUTED TO AND ACQUIRES.—Upon a sale of real property, the purchaser is substituted to and acquires all the right, title, interest, and claim of the judgment debtor thereto on the date of the levy of the execution thereon. And in case property, real or personal, has been attached in the action, the purchaser is substituted to and acquires all the right, title, interest, and claim of the judgment debtor on or at any time after the day the attachment was levied upon such property.

Sale of real property, status of purchaser.

SEC. 369. WHEN SALES ARE ABSOLUTE; WHAT CERTIFICATE MUST SHOW.—Sales of personal property, and of real property, when the estate therein is less than a leasehold of two years' unexpired term, are absolute. In all other cases the property is subject to redemption, as provided in this subchapter. The officer must give to the purchaser a certificate of sale, and file a duplicate thereof for record in the office of the registrar of property, which certificate must state the date of the judgment under which the sale was made and the names of the parties thereto, and contain:

When sales absolute; what certificate must show.

1. A particular description of the real property sold;
2. The price bid for each distinct lot or parcel;
3. The whole price paid;
4. If the property is subject to redemption, the certificate must so declare, and if the redemption can be effected only in a particular kind of money or currency, that fact must be stated.

SEC. 370. REAL PROPERTY SO SOLD, BY WHOM IT MAY BE REDEEMED.—Property sold subject to redemption, as provided in section 369, or any part sold separately, may be redeemed in the manner hereinafter provided, by the following persons, or their successors in interest:

Redemption of real property so sold.

1. The judgment debtor, or his successor in interest, in the whole or any part of the property;
2. A creditor having a lien or mortgage on the property sold, or on some share or part thereof, subsequent to that on which the property was sold. The persons mentioned in the second subdivision of this section are, in this subchapter, termed redemptioners.

SEC. 371. WHEN IT MAY BE REDEEMED, AND REDEMPTION MONEY.—The judgment debtor, or redemptioner, may redeem the property from the purchaser any time within twelve months after the sale on paying the purchaser the amount of his purchase, with 1 per cent per month thereon in addition, up to the time of redemption. And if the purchaser be also a creditor, having a prior lien to that of the redemptioner, other than the judgment under which said purchase was made, the amount of such lien with interest.

When may be redeemed; redemption money.

Another redemption-er may redeem.

SEC. 372. ANOTHER REDEMPTIONER MAY REDEEM.—If property be so redeemed by a redemptioner, another redemptioner may, within sixty days after the last redemption, again redeem it from the last redemptioner, on paying the sum paid on such last redemption, with 2 per cent thereon in addition, and, in addition, the amount of any liens held by said redemptioner prior to his own, with interest; but the judgment under which the property was sold need not be so paid as a lien.

Selling property again.

SELLING PROPERTY AGAIN.—The property may be again, and as often as a redemptioner is so disposed, redeemed from any previous redemptioner within sixty days after the last redemption, on paying the sum paid on the last previous redemption, with 2 per cent thereon in addition, and the amount of any liens, other than the judgment under which the property was sold, held by the last redemptioner previous to his own with interest.

Written notice to marshal; to be filed with registrar.

WRITTEN NOTICE TO MARSHAL; TO BE FILED WITH REGISTRAR.—Written notice of redemption must be given to the marshal and a duplicate filed with the registrar of property, and if the redemptioner has or acquires any lien other than that upon which the redemption was made, notice thereof must in like manner be given to the marshal and filed with the registrar; and if such notice be not filed, the property may be redeemed without paying such lien.

Marshal's deed.

MARSHAL'S DEED.—If no redemption be made within twelve months after the sale, the purchaser, or his assignee, is entitled to a conveyance; or if so redeemed, whenever sixty days have elapsed, and no other redemption has been made, and notice thereof given and the time for redemption has expired, the last redemptioner, or his assignee, is entitled to a marshal's deed; but, in all cases, the judgment debtor shall have the entire period of twelve months from the date of the sale to redeem the property.

Redemption by judgment debtor.

REDEMPTION BY JUDGMENT DEBTOR.—If the judgment debtor redeem, he must make the same payments as are required to effect a redemption by a redemptioner. If the debtor redeem, the effect of the sale is terminated and he is restored to his estate.

Certificate of redemption.

CERTIFICATE OF REDEMPTION.—Upon a redemption by the debtor, the person to whom the payment is made must execute and deliver to him a certificate of redemption, acknowledged or proved before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments. Such certificate must be filed and recorded in the office of the registrar of property, and the registrar must note the record thereof in the margin of the record of the certificate of sale.

Payments, in case of redemption.
Post, p. 1029.

SEC. 373. IN CASES OF REDEMPTION, TO WHOM THE PAYMENTS ARE TO BE MADE.—The payments mentioned in sections 702 and 703<sup>1</sup> may be made to the purchaser or redemptioner, or for him, to the officer who made the sale. When the judgment under which the sale has been made is payable in a specified kind of money or currency, payments must be made in the same kind of money or currency, and a tender of the money is equivalent to payment.

Redemptioner's duties to redeem.

SEC. 374. WHAT A REDEMPTIONER MUST DO IN ORDER TO REDEEM.—A redemptioner must produce to the officer or person from whom he seeks to redeem and serve with his notice to the marshal making the sale, or his successor in office:

1. A copy of the docket of the judgment under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the clerk of the court, where the judgment is docketed; or, if he redeem upon a mortgage or other lien, a note of the record thereof, certified by the registrar;

2. A copy of any assignment necessary to establish his claim, verified by the affidavit of himself, or of a subscribing witness thereto;

3. An affidavit by himself or his agent, showing the amount then actually due on the lien.

SEC. 375. UNTIL THE EXPIRATION OF REDEMPTION-TIME, COURT MAY RESTRAIN WASTE ON THE PROPERTY; WHAT CONSIDERED WASTE.—Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court may restrain the commission of waste on the property, by order granted with or without notice, on the application of the purchaser or the judgment creditor. But it is not waste for the person in possession of the property at the time of sale, or entitled to possession afterwards, during the period allowed for redemption, to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used; or to use in the ordinary course of husbandry; or to make the necessary repairs of buildings thereon; or to use wood or timber on the property therefor; or for the repair of fences; or for fuel in his family, while he occupies the property.

Restraint of property waste.

SEC. 376. RENTS AND PROFITS.—The purchaser from the time of the sale until a redemption, and a redemptioner, from the time of his redemption until another redemption, is entitled to receive, from the tenant in possession, the rents of the property sold, or the value of the use and occupation thereof. But when any rents or profits have been received by the judgment creditor or purchaser, or his or their assigns, from the property thus sold preceding such redemption, the amounts of such rents and profits shall be a credit upon the redemption money to be paid; and if the redemptioner or judgment debtor, before the expiration of the time allowed for such redemption, demands in writing of such purchaser or creditor, or his assigns, a written and verified statement of the amounts of such rents and profits thus received, the period for redemption is extended five days after such sworn statement is given by such purchaser or his assigns, to such redemptioner or debtor. If such purchaser or his assigns shall, for a period of one month from and after such demand, fail or refuse to give such statement, such redemptioner or debtor may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction, to compel an accounting and disclosure of such rents and profits, and until fifteen days from and after the final determination of such action, the right of redemption is extended to such redemptioner or debtor.

Rents and profits.

SEC. 377. IF PURCHASER OF REAL PROPERTY BE EVICTED FOR IRREGULARITIES IN SALE, WHAT HE MAY RECOVER, AND FROM WHOM; WHEN JUDGMENT TO BE REVIVED; PETITION FOR THE PURPOSE, HOW AND BY WHOM MADE.—If the purchaser of real property sold on execution, or his successor in interest, be evicted therefrom in consequence of irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale, or of the reversal or discharge of the judgment, he may recover the price paid, with interest, from the judgment creditor. If the purchaser of property at marshal's sale, or his successor in interest, fail to recover possession in consequence of irregularity in the proceedings concerning the sale, or because the property sold was not subject to execution and sale, the court having jurisdiction thereof must, after notice and on motion of such party in interest, or his attorney, revive the original judgment in the name of the petitioner, for the amount paid by such purchaser at the sale, with interest thereon from the time of payment at the same rate that the original judgment bore; and the judgment so revived has the same force and effect as would an original judgment of the date of the revival, and no more.

Contribution.
Who may compel.

SEC. 378. PARTY WHO PAYS MORE THAN HIS SHARE MAY COMPEL CONTRIBUTION.—When property, liable to an execution against several persons, is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is satisfied out of the proceeds of the sale of the property of one of them, or one of them pays, without a sale, more than his proportion, he may compel contribution from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation of one of them, as security for another, and the surety pays the amount, or any part thereof, either by sale of his property or before sale, he may compel repayment from the principal. In such case the person so paying or contributing is entitled to the benefit of the judgment, to enforce contribution or repayment, if, within ten days after his payment, he file with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered, notice of his payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon a filing of such notice, the clerk must make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket.

Claimant may give undertaking and release property.

SEC. 379. CLAIMANT OF PROPERTY MAY GIVE UNDERTAKING AND RELEASE PROPERTY.—Where property levied upon under execution to satisfy a judgment for the payment of money is claimed, in whole or in part, by a person, corporation, partnership or association, other than the judgment debtor, such claimant may give an undertaking as hereinafter provided, which undertaking shall release the property in the undertaking described from the lien and levy of such execution.

and condition of.

SEC. 380. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, AMOUNT AND CONDITIONS OF.—Such undertaking, with two sureties, shall be executed by the person, corporation, partnership or association, claiming in whole or in part, the property upon which execution is levied in double the estimated value of the property claimed by the person, corporation, partnership or association; provided, in no case need such undertaking be for a greater sum than double the amount for which the execution is levied; and where the estimated value of the property so claimed by the person, corporation, partnership or association is less than the sum for which such attachment is levied, such estimated value shall be stated in the undertaking, and said undertaking shall be conditioned that if the property claimed by the person, corporation, partnership or association is finally adjudged to be the property of the judgment debtor, said person, corporation, partnership or association will pay of said judgment upon which execution has issued a sum equal to the value, as estimated in said undertaking, of said property claimed by said person, corporation, partnership or association, and said property claimed shall be described in said undertaking.

Filing and serving undertaking.

SEC. 381. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, FILING, AND SERVING.—Said undertaking shall be filed in the action in which said execution issued, and a copy thereof served upon the judgment creditor or his attorney in said action.

Objections to.

SEC. 382. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, OBJECTIONS TO.—Within ten days after the service of the copy of undertaking, the judgment creditor may object to such undertaking on the ground of inability of the sureties, or either of them, to pay the sum for which they become bound in said undertaking, and upon the ground that the estimated value of property therein is less than the market value of the property claimed. Such objection to the undertaking shall be made in writing, specifying the ground or grounds of objection, and if the objection is made to the undertaking that the estimated value therein is less than the market value of the property claimed, such objection shall specify the judgment creditor's estimate of the market value of the property claimed. Such written objection shall be served upon the person, partnership, corporation, or association giving such undertaking and claiming the property therein described.

SEC. 383. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; JUSTIFICATION, APPROVAL, AND DISAPPROVAL.—When the sureties, or either of them, are objected to, the surety or sureties so objected to shall justify before the court out of which such execution issued, upon ten days' notice of the time when they will so justify being given to the judgment debtor or his attorney. Upon the hearing and examination into the sufficiency of a surety, witnesses may be required to attend and evidence may be procured and introduced in the same manner as in trial of civil cases. Upon such hearing and examination, the court shall make its order, in writing, approving or disapproving the sufficiency of the surety or sureties on such undertaking. In case the court disapproves of the surety or sureties on any undertaking, a new undertaking may be filed and served, and to any undertaking given under the provisions of sections 379 to 386, the same objection to the sureties may be made, and the same proceedings had as in case of the first undertaking filed and served.

Justification, approval, and disapproval.

SEC. 384. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, ESTIMATE OF VALUE, AND NEW UNDERTAKINGS.—When objection is made to the undertaking upon the ground that the estimated value of the property claimed, as stated in the undertaking, is less than the market value of the property claimed, the person, corporation, partnership, or association may accept the estimated value stated by the judgment creditor in said objection, and a new undertaking may be at once filed with the judgment creditor's estimate stated therein as the estimated value, and no objection shall thereafter be made upon that ground; if the judgment creditor's estimate of the market value is not accepted, the person, corporation, partnership, or association giving the undertaking shall move the court in which the execution issued, upon ten days' notice to the judgment creditor, to estimate the market value of the property claimed and described in the undertaking, and upon the hearing of such motion witnesses may be required to attend and testify, and evidence be produced in the same manner as in the trial of civil actions. Upon the hearing of such motion, the court shall estimate the market value of the property described in the undertaking, and if the estimated value made by the court exceeds the estimated value as stated in the undertaking, a new understanding<sup>1</sup> shall be filed and served, with the market value determined by the court stated therein as the estimated value.

Undertaking, estimate of value, and new undertakings.

SEC. 385. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, JUSTIFICATION OF SURETIES.—The sureties shall justify on the undertaking as required by section 533.

Undertaking, justification of sureties.

SEC. 386. CLAIM OF PROPERTY; UNDERTAKING, WHEN BECOMES EFFECTIVE.—The undertaking shall become effective for the purpose herein specified ten days after service of copy thereof on the judgment debtor, unless objection to such undertaking is made as herein provided, and in case objection is made to the undertaking filed and served, then the undertaking shall become effective for such purposes when an undertaking is given as herein provided.

When becomes effective.

PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTAL TO EXECUTION

Proceedings supplemental to execution.

SEC. 387. DEBTOR REQUIRED TO ANSWER CONCERNING HIS PROPERTY, WHEN.—When an execution against property of the judgment debtor, Debtor required to answer concerning his property, when.

or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, issued to the marshal, is returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, the judgment creditor, at any time after such return is made, is entitled to an order from the judge of the court, requiring such judgment debtor to appear and answer concerning his property before such judge, or a referee appointed by him, at a time and place specified in the order.

Proceedings to compel debtor to appear; when may be arrested; bail.

SEC. 388. PROCEEDINGS TO COMPEL DEBTOR TO APPEAR; IN WHAT CASES HE MAY BE ARRESTED; WHAT BAIL MAY BE GIVEN.—After the issuing of an execution against property, and upon proof, by affidavit of a party or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge of the court, that any judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply toward the satisfaction of the judgment, such judge may, by an order, require the judgment debtor to appear, at a specified time and place, before such judge, or a referee appointed by him, to answer concerning the same; and such proceedings may thereupon be had for the application of the property of the judgment debtor toward the satisfaction of the judgment as are provided upon the return of an execution. Instead of the order requiring the attendance of the judgment debtor, the judge may, upon affidavit of the judgment creditor, his agent or attorney, if it appear to him that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the marshal to arrest the debtor and bring him before such judge. Upon being brought before the judge, he may be ordered to enter into an undertaking, with sufficient surety, that he will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as may be directed during the pendency of proceedings and until the final termination thereof, and will not in the meantime dispose of any portion of his property not exempt from execution. In default of entering into such undertaking he may be committed to jail.

Any debtor of the judgment debtor may pay the latter's creditor.

SEC. 389. ANY DEBTOR OF THE JUDGMENT DEBTOR MAY PAY THE LATTER'S CREDITOR.—After the issuing of an execution against property, and before its return, any person indebted to the judgment debtor may pay to the marshal the amount of his debt, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the execution; and the marshal's receipt is a sufficient discharge for the amount so paid.

Examination of debtors of judgment debtor, etc.

SEC. 390. EXAMINATION OF DEBTORS OF JUDGMENT DEBTOR, OR OF THOSE HAVING PROPERTY BELONGING TO HIM.—After the issuing or return of an execution against property of the judgment debtor, or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, and upon proof by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge, that any person or corporation has property of such judgment debtor, or is indebted to him in an amount exceeding $50, the judge may, by an order, require such person or corporation, or any officer or member thereof, to appear at a specified time and place before him, or a referee appointed by him, and answer concerning the same.

Witnesses required to testify.

SEC. 391. WITNESSES REQUIRED TO TESTIFY.—Witnesses may be required to appear and testify before the judge or referee, upon any proceeding under this subchapter, in the same manner as upon the trial of an issue.

Judge may order property to be applied on execution.

SEC. 392. JUDGE MAY ORDER PROPERTY TO BE APPLIED ON EXECUTION.—The judge or referee may order any property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in the hands of such debtor, or any other person, or due to the judgment debtor, to be applied toward the satisfaction of the judgment; but no such order can be made as to money or property in the hands of any other person or claimed to be due from him to the judgment debtor, if such person claims an interest in the property adverse to the judgment debtor or denies the debt.

SEC. 393. PROCEEDINGS UPON CLAIM OF ANOTHER PARTY.—If it appears that a person or corporation, alleged to have property of the judgment debtor, or to be indebted to him, claims an interest in the property adverse to him, or denies the debt, the judgment creditor may maintain an action against such person or corporation for the recovery of such interest or debt; and the court or judge may, by order, forbid a transfer or other disposition of such interest or debt, until an action can be commenced and prosecuted to judgment. Such order may be modified or vacated by the judge granting the same, or the court in which the action is brought, at any time, upon such terms as may be just.

Proceedings upon claim of another party.

SEC. 394. DISOBEDIENCE OF ORDERS, HOW PUNISHED.—If any person, party, or witness disobey an order of the referee, properly made, in the proceedings before him under this subchapter, he may be punished by the court or judge ordering the reference, for a contempt.

Punishment for disobedience of orders.

CHAPTER 13.—ACTIONS IN PARTICULAR CASES

ACTIONS IN PARTICULAR CASES.

ACTIONS FOR FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGES

Foreclosure of mortgages.

Proceedings.

SEC. 395. PROCEEDINGS IN FORECLOSURE SUITS.—There can be but one action for the recovery of any debt, or the enforcement of any right secured by mortgage upon real or personal property, which action must be in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter. In such action the court may, by its judgment, direct the sale of the encumbered property (or so much thereof as may be necessary), and the application of the proceeds of the sale to the payment of the costs of court, and the expenses of the sale, and the amount due plaintiff, including, where the mortgage provides for the payment of attorney's fees, such sum for such fees as the court shall find reasonable, not exceeding the amount named in the mortgage.

The court may, by its judgment, or at any time after judgment, appoint a commissioner to sell the encumbered property. It must require of him an undertaking in an amount fixed by the court, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judge, to the effect that the commissioner will faithfully perform the duties of his office according to law. Before entering upon the discharge of his duties he must file such undertaking, so approved, together with his oath that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office.

If it appear from the marshal's return, or from the commissioner's report, that the proceeds are insufficient, and a balance still remains due, judgment must then be docketed by the clerk in the manner provided in this code for such balance against the defendant or defendants personally liable for the debt. No person holding a conveyance from or under the mortgager of the property mortgaged, or having a lien thereon, which conveyance or lien does not appear of record in the office of the registrar of property at the time of the commencement of the action, need be made a party to such action, and the judgment therein rendered, and the proceedings therein had, are as conclusive against the party holding such unrecorded conveyance or lien as if he had been a party to the action.

If the court appoint a commissioner for the sale of the property, he must sell it in the manner provided by law for the sale of like property by the marshal upon execution; and the provisions of sections 349 to 386 are hereby made applicable to sale made by such commissioner, and the powers therein given and the duties therein imposed on the marshal are extended to such commissioner.

mortgage, lien, or encumbrance, with costs, the court may cause the same to be paid to the person entitled to it, and in the meantime may direct it to be deposited in court.

When debt secured falls due at different times.

SEC. 397. PROCEEDINGS WHEN DEBT SECURED FALLS DUE AT DIFFERENT TIMES.—If the debt for which the mortgage, lien, or encumbrance is held is not all due, so soon as sufficient of the property has been sold to pay the amount due, with costs, the sale must cease, and afterwards, as often as more becomes due, for principal or interest, the court may, on motion, order more to be sold. But if the property can not be sold in portions, without injury to the parties, the whole may be ordered to be sold in the first instance, and the entire debt and costs paid, there being a rebate of interest where such rebate is proper.

Commissioner's oath, bond, report, and compensation.

SEC. 398. COMMISSIONER'S OATH, BOND, REPORT, AND COMPENSATION.—The commissioner, before entering upon his duties, must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and the court making the appointment shall require of him an undertaking, with sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court, in an amount to be fixed by the court, to the effect that he will faithfully perform the duties of commissioner, according to law. Within thirty days after such sale, the commissioner must file with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, a verified report and account of the sale, together with the proper affidavits, showing that the regular and required notice of the time and place of the sale was given, which report and account shall have the same force and effect as the marshal's return in sales under execution. In all cases of sales made by a commissioner, the court in which the proceedings are pending shall fix a reasonable compensation for the commissioner's services, but in no case to be less than the sum of $10.

Actions for nuisance and waste.

ACTIONS FOR NUISANCE AND WASTE

Nuisance defined; abatement, by whom actions instituted.

SEC. 399. NUISANCE DEFINED; ABATEMENT OF; ACTIONS INSTITUTED, BY WHOM.—An action may be brought by any person whose property is injuriously affected, or whose personal enjoyment is lessened by a nuisance, as the same is defined in section 1685 of the Civil Code, and by the judgment in such action the nuisance may be enjoined or abated as well as damages recovered therefor. A civil action may be brought in the name of the Government of the Canal Zone to abate a public nuisance, as the same is defined in section 1686 of the Civil Code, by the district attorney.

Actions for waste.

SEC. 400. WASTE, ACTIONS FOR.—If a guardian, tenant for life or years, joint tenant, or tenant in common of real property, commit waste thereon, any person aggrieved by the waste may bring an action against him therefor, in which action there may be judgment for treble damages.

Conflicting claims to property; real estate.

ACTIONS TO DETERMINE CONFLICTING CLAIMS TO PROPERTY, AND OTHER PROVISIONS RELATING TO ACTIONS CONCERNING REAL ESTATE

To quiet title.

SEC. 401. ACTION TO QUIET TITLE TO REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY.—An action may be brought by any person against another who claims an estate or interest in real or personal property adverse to him, for the purpose of determining such adverse claim; provided, however, that whenever in an action to quiet title to, or to determine adverse claims to, real or personal property, the validity or interpretation of any gift, devise, bequest, or trust, under any will or instrument purporting to be a will, whether admitted to probate or not, shall be

Construction of will.

Jury trials.

When plaintiff can not recover costs.

SEC. 402. WHEN PLAINTIFF CAN NOT RECOVER COSTS.—If the defendant in such action disclaim in his answer any interest or estate in the property, or suffer judgment to be taken against him without answer, the plaintiff can not recover costs.

SEC. 403. WHERE PLAINTIFF'S RIGHT TERMINATES PENDING SUIT, WHAT HE MAY RECOVER.—In an action for the recovery of property, where the plaintiff shows a right to recover at the time the action was commenced, but it appears that his right has terminated during the pendency of the action, the verdict and judgment must be according to the fact, and the plaintiff may recover damages for withholding the property.

Where plaintiff's right terminates pending suit, what he may recover.

SEC. 404. WHEN VALUE OF IMPROVEMENTS CAN BE ALLOWED AS A SET-OFF.—When damages are claimed for withholding the property recovered, upon which permanent improvements have been made by a defendant, or those under whom he claims, holding under color of title adversely to the claim of the plaintiff, in good faith, the value of such improvements must be allowed as a set-off against such damages.

When value of improvements can be allowed as set-off.

SEC. 405. AN ORDER MAY BE MADE TO ALLOW A PARTY TO SURVEY AND MEASURE THE LAND IN DISPUTE.—The court in which an action is pending for the recovery of real property, or for damages for an injury thereto, or the judge thereof may, on motion, upon notice by either party for good cause shown, grant an order allowing to such party the right to enter upon the property and make survey and measurement thereof, for the purpose of the action, even though entry for such purpose has to be made through other lands belonging to parties to the action.

Surveying, etc., land in dispute.

SEC. 406. ORDER, WHAT TO CONTAIN, AND HOW SERVED; IF UNNECESSARY INJURY DONE, THE PARTY SURVEYING TO BE LIABLE THEREFOR.—The order must describe the property, and a copy thereof must be served on the owner or occupant; and thereupon such party may enter upon the property, with necessary surveyors and assistants, and make such survey and measurements; but if any unnecessary injury be done to the property he is liable therefor.

Order, what to contain, service; liability for unnecessary injury.

SEC. 407. A MORTGAGE MUST NOT BE DEEMED A CONVEYANCE, WHATEVER ITS TERMS.—A mortgage of real property shall not be deemed a conveyance, whatever its terms, so as to enable the owner of the mortgage to recover possession of the real property without a foreclosure and sale.

Mortgage not a conveyance, whatever its terms.

SEC. 408. WHEN COURT MAY GRANT INJUNCTION DURING FORECLOSURE OR AFTER SALE ON EXECUTION, BEFORE CONVEYANCE.—The court may, by injunction, on good cause shown, restrain the party in possession from doing any act to the injury of real property during the foreclosure of a mortgage thereon; or, after a sale on execution, before a conveyance.

Injunction during foreclosure or after sale on execution, before conveyance.

Recovery of damages.

SEC. 409. DAMAGES MAY BE RECOVERED FOR INJURY TO THE POSSESSION AFTER SALE AND BEFORE DELIVERY OF POSSESSION.—When real property has been sold on execution, the purchaser thereof, or any person who may have succeeded to his interest, may, after his estate becomes absolute, recover damages for injury to the property by the tenant in possession after sale, and before possession is delivered under the conveyance.

Action not to be prejudiced by alienation pending suit.

SEC. 410. ACTION NOT TO BE PREJUDICED BY ALIENATION PENDING SUIT.—An action for the recovery of real property against a person in possession can not be prejudiced by any alienation made by such person, either before or after the commencement of the action.

PROCEEDINGS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS.

CHAPTER 14.—PROCEEDINGS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Place of trial.

PLACE OF TRIAL OF ACTIONS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Where actions must be commenced.

SEC. 411. ACTIONS, WHERE MUST BE COMMENCED.—Actions in magistrates' courts must be commenced, and, subject to the right to change the place of trial, as in this subchapter provided, must be tried:

1. In the subdivision in which the defendant resides;
2. When two or more persons are jointly, or jointly and severally, bound in any debt or contract, or otherwise jointly liable in the same action, and reside in different subdivisions—in either subdivision;
3. In cases of injury to the person or property—in the subdivision where the injury was committed, or where the defendant resides;
4. If for the recovery of personal property, or the value thereof, or damages for taking or detaining the same—in the subdivision in which the property may be found, or in which the property was taken, or in which the defendant resides;
5. When the defendant is a nonresident of the Canal Zone—in either subdivision;
6. When a person has contracted to perform an obligation at a particular place, and resides in the other subdivision—in the subdivision in which such obligation is to be performed, or in which he resides; and the subdivision in which the obligation is incurred is deemed to be the subdivision in which it is to be performed, unless there is a special contract in writing to the contrary;
7. When the parties voluntarily appear and plead without summons—in either subdivision;
8. In all other cases—in the subdivision in which the defendant resides.

Change of venue.

SEC. 412. PLACE OF TRIAL MAY BE CHANGED IN CERTAIN CASES.—The court may, at any time before the trial, on motion, change the place of trial in the following cases:

1. When it appears to the satisfaction of the magistrate before whom the action is pending, by affidavit of either party, that such magistrate is a material witness for either party;
2. When either party makes and files an affidavit that he believes that he can not have a fair and impartial trial before such magistrate, by reason of the interest, prejudice, or bias of the magistrate;
3. When, from any cause, the magistrate is disqualified from acting.

Proceedings thereafter.

SEC. 413. PROCEEDINGS AFTER ORDER CHANGING PLACE OF TRIAL.—After an order has been made, transferring the action for trial to another court, the following proceedings must be had:

1. The magistrate ordering the transfer must immediately transmit to the magistrate of the court to which it is transferred, on payment by the party applying of all the costs that have accrued, all the papers in the action, together with a certified transcript from his docket of the proceedings therein;

2. Upon the receipt by him of such papers, the magistrate to whom the case is transferred has thereafter the same jurisdiction over the action as though it had been commenced in his court.

MANNER OF COMMENCING ACTIONS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Actions in magistrates' courts.

SEC. 414. ACTIONS, HOW COMMENCED.—An action in a magistrate's court is commenced by filing a complaint.

Complaint.

SEC. 415. SUMMONS MAY ISSUE WITHIN A YEAR.—The court must indorse on the complaint the date upon which it was filed, and at any time within one year thereafter the plaintiff may have summons issued.

Summons.

SEC. 416. DEFENDANT MAY WAIVE SUMMONS.—At any time after the complaint is filed the defendant may, in writing, or by appearing and pleading, waive the issuing of summons.

Waiver of, by defendant.

SEC. 417. PARTIES MAY APPEAR IN PERSON OR BY ATTORNEY.—Parties in magistrates' courts may appear and act in person or by attorney.

Appearance.

SEC. 418. WHEN GUARDIAN NECESSARY, HOW APPOINTED.—When an infant, insane, or incompetent person is a party, he must appear either by his general guardian, if he have one, or by a guardian ad litem appointed by the magistrate. When a guardian ad litem is appointed by the magistrate, he must be appointed as follows:

Appointment of guardian.

1. If the infant, insane, or incompetent person, be plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years; if under that age, or if insane, or incompetent, upon the application of a relative or friend.

2. If the infant, insane, or incompetent person, be defendant, the appointment must be made at the time the summons is returned, or before the answer, upon the application of the infant, if he be of the age of fourteen years and apply at or before the summons is returned; if he be under the age of fourteen, or be insane or incompetent, or neglect so to apply, then upon the application of a relative or friend, or any other party to the action, or by the magistrate on his own motion.

SEC. 419. SUMMONS, HOW ISSUED, DIRECTED, AND WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The summons must be directed to the defendant, signed by the magistrate, and must contain:

Summons.

1. The title of the court, name of the subdivision in which the action is brought, and the names of the parties thereto;

2. A direction that the defendant appear and answer before the magistrate, as specified in section 420;

3. A notice that unless the defendant so appear and answer, the plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint, as arising upon contract, or will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the plaintiff appears by attorney, the name of the attorney must be indorsed upon the summons.

SEC. 420. TIME FOR APPEARANCE OF DEFENDANT.—The time specified in the summons for the appearance of the defendant must be as follows:

Time for appearance of defendant.

1. If an order of arrest is indorsed upon the summons, forthwith;

2. In all other cases, within five days, if the summons is served in the subdivision, in which the action is brought; within ten days, if served in the other subdivision.

Alias summons.

SEC. 421. ALIAS SUMMONS.—If the summons is returned without being served upon any or all of the defendants, or if it has been lost, the magistrate, upon the demand of the plaintiff, may issue an alias summons, in the same form as the original, except that he may fix the time for the appearance of the defendant at a period not to exceed ninety days from its date.

SEC. 422. SAME.—The magistrate may, within a year from the date of the filing of the complaint, issue as many alias summonses as may be demanded by the plaintiff.

Service of, outside of subdivision.

SEC. 423. SERVICE OF SUMMONS OUTSIDE OF SUBDIVISION.—The summons can not be served out of the subdivision wherein the action is brought, except in the following cases:

1. When the action is upon the joint contract or obligation of two or more persons, one of whom resides within the subdivision;

2. When the action is brought against a party who has contracted in writing to perform an obligation at a particular place, and resides in the other subdivision;

3. When the action is for injury to person or property, and the defendant resides in the other subdivision;

4. In all cases where the defendant was a resident of the subdivision when the action was brought, or when the obligation was incurred, and thereafter departed therefrom, in which event he may be served wherever he may be found;

5. In actions of forcible entry and detainer, or to enforce and foreclose liens on, or to recover possession of, personal property situated within the subdivision.

By whom and how served and returned.

SEC. 424. SUMMONS, BY WHOM AND HOW SERVED AND RETURNED.—The summons may be served by the constable of either of the Magistrates' Courts of the Canal Zone or by any other person of the age of eighteen years or over not a party to the action. When a summons issued by a magistrate is to be served out of the subdivision in which it is issued the summons must be served and returned as provided in chapter 8 of this code, or it may be served by publication and sections 121 and 122 so far as they relate to the publication of summons are made applicable to magistrates' courts, the word magistrate being substituted for the word judge wherever the latter word occurs.

Ante, p. 924.

Notice of hearing in magistrates' courts.

SEC. 425. NOTICE OF HEARING IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—When all the parties served with process shall have appeared, or some of them have appeared, and the remaining defendants have made default, the magistrate must fix the day for the trial of said cause, and give notice thereof to the parties to the action who have appeared, but in case any of the parties are represented by an attorney, then to such attorney: Provided, however, That where a party has appeared in person, such party shall leave with the magistrate or magistrate's clerk, and the same shall be entered upon the register in the action, an address where service of the notice of hearing of such matter may be made: Provided, further, That such notice shall be personally served on said person if he can be found at said address, but in case said person can not, after due diligence, be found at said address and such fact appears by affidavit to the satisfaction of the magistrate, then the service of such notice may be by registered mail and in the manner hereinafter provided for service of notice by mail. Such notice shall be in writing, signed by the magistrate, and substantially in the following form, filling blanks according to the facts:

Provisos.

Docket entries.

DOCKET ENTRIES.—The magistrate shall enter on his docket the date of trial or hearing; and when such notice shall have been served by mail the magistrate shall enter on his docket the date of mailing such notice of trial or hearing and such entry shall be prima facie evidence of the fact of such service. The parties are entitled to one hour in which to appear after the time fixed in said notice, but are not bound to remain longer than that time unless both parties have appeared and the magistrate being present is engaged in the trial of another cause.

PLEADINGS IN MAGISTRATES’ COURTS

Pleadings in magistrates’ courts.

SEC. 426. FORM OF PLEADINGS.—Pleadings in magistrates’ courts—

Form.

1. Are not required to be in any particular form, but must be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended;

2. May, except the complaint, be oral or in writing;

3. Need not be verified, unless otherwise provided in this chapter;

4. If in writing, must be filed with the magistrate;

5. If oral, an entry of their substance must be made in the docket.

SEC. 427. PLEADINGS IN MAGISTRATES’ COURTS.—The pleadings are:

1. The complaint by the plaintiff;

2. The demurrer to the complaint;

3. The answer by the defendant;

4. The demurrer to the answer.

SEC. 428. COMPLAINT DEFINED.—The complaint in magistrates’ courts is a concise statement, in writing, of the facts constituting the plaintiff’s cause of action; or a copy of the account, note, bill, bond, or instrument upon which the action is based.

“Complaint” defined.

Demurrer.

SEC. 429. WHEN DEMURRER TO COMPLAINT MAY BE PUT IN.—The defendant may, at any time before answering, demur to the complaint.

Answer.

SEC. 430. ANSWER, WHAT TO CONTAIN.—The answer may contain a denial of any or all of the material facts stated in the complaint, which the defendant believes to be untrue, and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any other facts constituting a defense or counterclaim, upon which an action might be brought by the defendant against the plaintiff, or his assignor, in a magistrate's court.

Counterclaim.

SEC. 431. IF THE DEFENDANT OMIT TO SET UP COUNTERCLAIM.—If the defendant omit to set up a counterclaim in the cases mentioned in section 430, neither he nor his assignee can afterwards maintain an action against the plaintiff therefor.

Demurrer to answer.

SEC. 432. WHEN PLAINTIFF MAY DEMUR TO ANSWER.—When the answer contains new matter in avoidance, or constituting a defense or a counterclaim, the plaintiff may, at any time before the trial, demur to the same for insufficiency, stating therein the grounds of such demurrer.

When affirmative judgment may be rendered.

SEC. 433. WHEN AFFIRMATIVE JUDGMENT MAY BE RENDERED FOR DEFENDANT.—Affirmative judgment may be rendered for the defendant on his cross-complaint (counterclaim) whenever the defendant proves that he is entitled to more than the plaintiff has proven or whenever the plaintiff fails to prove that he is entitled to any judgment.

Proceedings on demurrer.

SEC. 434. THE PROCEEDINGS ON DEMURRER.—The proceedings on demurrer are as follows:

1. If the demurrer to the complaint is sustained, the plaintiff may, within such time, not exceeding two days, as the court allows, amend his complaint;

2. If the demurrer to a complaint is overruled, the defendant may answer forthwith;

3. If the demurrer to an answer is sustained, the defendant may amend his answer within such time, not exceeding two days, as the court may allow;

4. If the demurrer to an answer is overruled, the action must proceed as if no demurrer had been interposed.

Amendment of pleadings.

SEC. 435. AMENDMENT OF PLEADINGS.—Either party may, at any time before the conclusion of the trial, amend any pleading; but if the amendment is made after the issue, and it appears to the satisfaction of the court, by oath, that an adjournment is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, an adjournment must be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, when an adjournment will by the amendment be rendered necessary, require as a condition to the allowance of such amendment, made after issue joined, the payment of costs to the adverse party.

Relief against judgment.

RELIEF AGAINST JUDGMENT.—The court may also, on such terms as may be just, and on payment of costs, relieve a party from a judgment by default taken against him by his mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, but the application for such relief must be made within ten days after notice of the entry of the judgment and upon an affidavit showing good cause therefor.

Answer or demurrer to amended pleadings.

SEC. 436. ANSWER OR DEMURRER TO AMENDED PLEADINGS.—When a pleading is amended, the adverse party may answer or demur to it within such time, as the court may allow, not exceeding five days after notice of the amendment.

PROVISIONAL REMEDIES IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS
ARREST AND BAIL

Provisional remedies
in magistrates' courts.
Arrest and bail.

Order of arrest;
arrest of defendant.

SEC. 437. ORDER OF ARREST, AND ARREST OF DEFENDANT.—An order to arrest the defendant may be indorsed on a summons issued by the magistrate, and the defendant may be arrested thereon by the constable, at the time of serving the summons, and brought before the magistrate, and there detained until duly discharged, in the following cases:

1. In an action for the recovery of money or damages on a cause of action arising upon contract, express, or implied, when the defendant is about to depart from the Canal Zone, with intent to defraud his creditors;

2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or for money or property embezzled or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use by one who received it in a fiduciary capacity;

3. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought;

4. When the defendant has removed, concealed, or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors.

SEC. 438. AFFIDAVIT AND UNDERTAKING FOR ORDER OF ARREST.—Before an order for an arrest can be made, the party applying must prove to the satisfaction of the magistrate by the affidavit of himself, or some other person, the facts upon which the application is founded. The plaintiff must also execute and deliver to the magistrate a written undertaking in the sum of $300, with sufficient sureties, to the effect that the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the arrest, if the same be wrongful, or without sufficient cause, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

Affidavit and undertaking for order of arrest.

SEC. 439. A DEFENDANT ARRESTED MUST BE TAKEN BEFORE THE MAGISTRATE IMMEDIATELY.—The defendant, immediately upon being arrested, must be taken before the magistrate who made the order, and if he is absent or unable to try the action, or if it appears to him by the affidavit of the defendant that he is a material witness in the action, the officer must immediately take the defendant before the magistrate of the other subdivision, who must take jurisdiction of the action and proceed thereon, as if the summons had been issued and the order of arrest made by him.

Appearance of defendant.

SEC. 440. THE OFFICER MUST GIVE NOTICE TO THE PLAINTIFF OF ARREST.—The officer making the arrest must immediately give notice thereof to the plaintiff, or his attorney or agent, and indorse on the summons, and subscribe a certificate, stating the time of serving the same, the time of the arrest, and of his giving notice to the plaintiff.

Notice to plaintiff of arrest.

SEC. 441. THE OFFICER MUST DETAIN THE DEFENDANT.—The officer making the arrest must keep the defendant in custody until he is discharged by order of the magistrate.

Detention of defendant.

Attachment.

Issue of writ.

SEC. 442. ISSUE OF WRIT OF ATTACHMENT.—A writ to attach the property of the defendant must be issued by the magistrate at the time of or after issuing summons in actions in which the sum claimed exclusive of interest exceeds $10, on receiving an affidavit by or on behalf of the plaintiff, showing the same facts as are required to be shown by the affidavit specified in section 221.

Undertaking on; exceptions to sureties.

SEC. 443. ATTACHMENT, UNDERTAKING ON; EXCEPTIONS TO SURETIES.—Before issuing the writ, the magistrate must require a written undertaking on the part of the plaintiff, with two or more sufficient sureties, in a sum not less than $50 nor more than $300, to the effect that if the defendant recovers judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking. At any time after the issuing of the attachment, but not later than five days after the notice of its levy, the defendant may except to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fails to do so, he is deemed to have waived all objections to them. When excepted to they must justify in the manner and within the time provided in section 222, otherwise the magistrate must order the writ of attachment vacated.

Ante, p. 944.

To whom writ directed; requirements.

SEC. 444. TO WHOM WRIT DIRECTED; WHAT TO REQUIRE.—The writ must be directed to the constable and must require him to attach and safely keep all of the property of the defendant within his subdivision not exempt from execution, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand against the defendant, the amount of which must be stated in conformity with the complaint, unless the defendant, whose property has been or is about to be attached, give him security by the undertaking of two sufficient sureties, in an amount sufficient to satisfy such demand against such defendant besides costs; in which case to take such undertaking.

In the event that the action is against more than one defendant, any defendant whose property has been or is about to be attached in such action may give the constable such undertaking, and the constable shall take the same, and such undertaking shall not subject such defendant to or be answerable for any demand against any other defendant, nor shall the constable thereby be prevented from attaching or be obliged to release from attachment, any property of any other defendant: Provided, however, That such defendant, at the time of giving such undertaking to the constable, shall file with the constable a statement duly verified under oath, wherein such defendant shall aver and declare that the other defendant or defendants in the action in which said undertaking was given has or have not any interest or claim of any nature whatsoever in or to said property. Such statement must further contain the character of such defendant's title and the manner in which he acquired title to such attached property.

Proviso.
Sworn statement to be filed.

Service out of subdivision.

SERVICE OUT OF SUBDIVISION.—A writ may be issued at the same time to the constable of the other subdivision.

Provisions applicable to all attachments in magistrates' courts.
Ante, pp. 926, 944.

SEC. 445. CERTAIN PROVISIONS APPLY TO ALL ATTACHMENTS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—Section 121 and sections 224 to 243, both inclusive, of this code are applicable to attachments issued in magistrates' courts, the word "constable" being substituted for the word "marshal," and the word "magistrate" being substituted for the word "judge."

Claim and delivery of personal property.

CLAIM AND DELIVERY OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

How enforced.

SEC. 446. HOW CLAIM AND DELIVERY ENFORCED.—In an action to recover possession of personal property, the plaintiff may, at the time of issuing summons or at any time thereafter before answer, claim the delivery of such property to him; and the sections of this code from section 202 to section 213, both inclusive, are applicable to such claim when made in magistrates' courts, the powers therein given and duties imposed on the marshal being extended to constables, and the word "magistrate" substituted for "judge."

Ante, p. 939.

JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Judgment by default.

Failure of defendant to appear.

SEC. 447. JUDGMENT WHEN DEFENDANT FAILS TO APPEAR.—If the defendant fails to appear and to answer or demur within the time specified in the summons, then, upon proof of service of summons, the following proceedings must be had:

1. If the action is based upon a contract, and is for the recovery of money, or damages only, the court must render judgment in favor of plaintiff for the sum specified in the summons.

2. In all other actions the court must hear the evidence offered by the plaintiff, and must render judgment in his favor for such sum (not exceeding the amount stated in the summons), as appears by such evidence to be just.

SEC. 448. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.—In the following cases the same proceedings must be had and judgment must be rendered in like manner as if the defendant had failed to appear and answer, or demur:

Other cases, when must be rendered.

1. If the complaint has been amended, and the defendant fails to answer it, as amended, within the time allowed by the court;

2. If the demurrer to the complaint is overruled, and the defendant fails to answer within the time allowed by the court, not to exceed five days;

3. If the demurrer to the answer is sustained and the defendant fails to amend the answer within the time allowed by the court.

TIME OF TRIAL AND POSTPONEMENTS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Time of trial and postponements.

Commencement.

SEC. 449. TIME WHEN TRIAL MUST BE COMMENCED.—Unless postponed, as provided in this subchapter, or unless transferred to the other subdivision, the trial of the action must commence at the expiration of one hour from the time specified in the notice mentioned in section 425, and the trial must be continued, without adjournment for more than twenty-four hours at any one time, until all the issues therein are disposed of.

SEC. 450. WHEN COURT MAY, OF ITS OWN MOTION, POSTPONE TRIAL.—The court may, of its own motion, postpone the trial—

Postponement.

1. For not exceeding one day, if, at the time fixed by law or by an order of the court for the trial, the court is engaged in the trial of another action;

2. For not exceeding two days, if, by an amendment of the pleadings, or the allowance of time to make such amendment or to plead, a postponement is rendered necessary.

SEC. 451. POSTPONEMENT BY CONSENT.—The court may, by consent of the parties, given in writing or in open court, postpone the trial to a time agreed upon by the parties.

By consent.

SEC. 452. POSTPONEMENT UPON APPLICATION OF A PARTY.—The trial may be postponed upon the application of either party, for a period not exceeding four months:

Upon application of a party.

1. The party making the application must prove, by his own oath or otherwise, that he can not, for want of material testimony, which he expects to procure, safely proceed to trial, and must show in what respect the testimony expected is material, and that he has used due diligence to procure it and has been unable to do so;

2. If the application is on the part of the plaintiff, and the defendant is under arrest, a postponement for more than three hours discharges the defendant from custody, but the action may proceed notwithstanding, and the defendant is subject to arrest on execution, in the same manner as if he had not been discharged;

3. If the application is on the part of a defendant under arrest, before it can be granted he must execute an undertaking, with two or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by, and in a sum to be fixed by, the justice, to the effect that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action, and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment therein; or that the sureties will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action, not exceeding the amount specified in the undertaking. On filing the undertaking specified in this subdivision, the magistrate must order the defendant to be discharged from custody.

4. The party making the application must, if required by the adverse party, consent that the testimony of any witness of such adverse party, who is in attendance, may be then taken by deposition before the magistrate, and that the testimony so taken may be read on the trial, with the same effect, and subject to the same objections, as if the witness was produced;

But the court may require the party making the application to state, upon affidavit, the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party thereupon admits that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial must not be postponed.

Limitation on continuance.

SEC. 453. NO CONTINUANCE FOR MORE THAN TEN DAYS TO BE GRANTED, UNLESS UPON FILING OF UNDERTAKING.—No adjournment must, unless by consent, be granted for a period longer than ten days, upon the application of either party, except upon condition that such party file an undertaking, in an amount fixed by the magistrate, with two sureties, to be approved by the magistrate, to the effect that they will pay to the opposite party the amount of any judgment which may be recovered against the party applying, not exceeding the sum specified in the undertaking.

Trials in magistrates' courts.

TRIALS IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

"Issue" defined.

SEC. 454. ISSUE DEFINED, AND THE DIFFERENT KINDS.—Issues arise upon the pleadings when a fact or conclusion of law is maintained by the one party and is controverted by the other. They are of two kinds:

Kinds.

1. Of law; and,
2. Of fact.

How raised. Issue of law.

SEC. 455. ISSUE OF LAW, HOW RAISED.—An issue of law arises upon a demurrer to the complaint or answer, or to some part thereof.

Of fact.

SEC. 456. ISSUE OF FACT, HOW RAISED.—An issue of fact arises—
 1. Upon a material allegation in the complaint controverted by the answer; and,
 2. Upon new matter in the answer, except an issue of law is joined thereon.

How tried.

SEC. 457. ISSUES, HOW TRIED.—Issues, both of law and of fact, must be tried by the court.

Failure of party to appear.

SEC. 458. EITHER PARTY FAILING TO APPEAR, TRIAL MAY PROCEED AT REQUEST OF OTHER PARTY.—If either party fails to appear at the time fixed for trial, the trial may proceed at the request of the adverse party.

Exhibition of original instrument.

SEC. 459. REQUIRING EXHIBITION OF ORIGINAL INSTRUMENT.—When the cause of action or counterclaim arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, the court, at any time before the trial, may, by an order under his hand, require the original to be exhibited to the inspection of, and a copy to be furnished to, the adverse party, at such time as may be fixed in the order; or, if such order is not obeyed, the account or instrument can not be given in evidence.

SEC. 460. COMPLAINT, WHEN ACCOMPANYING INSTRUMENT DEEMED GENUINE.—If the complaint of the plaintiff, or the answer of the defendant, contains a copy, or consists of the original of the written obligation upon which the action is brought or the defense founded, the genuineness and due execution of such instrument are deemed admitted, unless the answer denying the same is verified, or unless the plaintiff, within two days after the service on him of such answer, files with the magistrate an affidavit denying the same, and serves a copy thereof on the defendant.

Complaint, when accompanying instrument deemed genuine.

JUDGMENTS (OTHER THAN BY DEFAULT) IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Judgments (other than by default).
By confession.

SEC. 461. JUDGMENT BY CONFESSION.—Judgments upon confession may be entered up in either magistrate's court specified in the confession.

SEC. 462. JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL ENTERED IN CERTAIN CASES WITHOUT PREJUDICE.—Judgment that the action be dismissed, without prejudice to a new action, may be entered with costs, in the following cases:

Dismissal without prejudice.

1. When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted; or fails to prosecute the action to judgment with reasonable diligence; provided a counterclaim has not been made, or affirmative relief sought by the cross-complaint or answer of the defendant; if a provisional remedy has been allowed, the undertaking must thereupon be delivered by the magistrate to the defendant who may have his action thereon;

2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the summons, or at the time to which the action has been postponed, or within one hour thereafter;

3. When, after a demurrer to the complaint has been sustained, the plaintiff fails to amend it within the time allowed by the court;

4. When the action is brought in the wrong subdivision.

SEC. 463. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT OF DISMISSAL.—Judgment of dismissal must be entered whenever the plaintiff fails to bring the action to trial within two years after the case is brought to an issue of law or fact, except where the parties have stipulated in writing that the time may be extended.

Entry of.

SEC. 464. ENTRY OF JUDGMENT IN THIRTY DAYS.—Judgment must be entered within thirty days after the submission of the case to the court.

Entry within thirty days.

SEC. 465. FORM OF MAGISTRATE'S JUDGMENT; NOTICE.—The judgment of a magistrate must be entered substantially in the form required in section 333, and where the defendant is subject to arrest and imprisonment thereon the fact must be stated in the judgment. No judgment shall have effect for any purpose until so entered.

Form of magistrate's judgment.

Notice of the rendition of judgment must be given to the parties to the action in writing signed by the magistrate. Where any of the parties are represented by an attorney, notice shall be given to the attorney. Said notice shall be served by mail or personally, and shall be substantially in the form of the abstract of judgment required in section 469. When served by mail the magistrate shall deposit copies thereof in a sealed envelope in the post office not later than five days after the rendition of the judgment, addressed to each of the persons on whom notice is to be served at their places of residence, or place of business if on an attorney. When served personally said notice shall be served within five days after the rendition of the judgment. Entry of the date of mailing shall be made by the magistrate in his docket.

Notice.

Excess remitted if sum found due exceeds magistrate's jurisdiction.

SEC. 466. IF THE SUM FOUND DUE EXCEEDS THE JURISDICTION OF THE MAGISTRATE, THE EXCESS MAY BE REMITTED.—When the amount found due to either party exceeds the sum for which the magistrate is authorized to enter judgment, such party may remit the excess, and judgment may be rendered for the residue.

Offer to compromise before trial.

SEC. 467. OFFER TO COMPROMISE BEFORE TRIAL.—If the defendant, at any time before the trial, offers, in writing, to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with the costs then accrued; but if he does not accept such offer before the trial, and fails to recover in the action a sum in excess of the offer, he can not recover costs incurred after the offer, but costs must be adjudged against him, and, if he recovers, be deducted from his recovery. The offer and failure to accept it can not be given in evidence nor affect the recovery, otherwise than as to costs.

Costs included in judgment.

SEC. 468. COSTS MAY BE INCLUDED IN THE JUDGMENT.—The magistrate must tax and include in the judgment the costs allowed by law to the prevailing party.

Abstract of judgment.

SEC. 469. ABSTRACT OF JUDGMENT.—The magistrate, on the demand of a party in whose favor judgment is rendered, must give him an abstract of the judgment in substantially the following form (filling blanks according to the facts):

Form.

“Canal Zone, magistrate's court, subdivision of _____, _____, plaintiff, v. _____, defendant. Judgment entered for plaintiff (or defendant) for $_____, on the _____ day of _____.”

“I certify that the foregoing is a correct abstract of a judgment rendered in said action in this court.”

“_____, Magistrate.”

“Date of abstract _____.”

Correction of clerical mistakes.

SEC. 470. CORRECTION OF CLERICAL MISTAKES IN JUDGMENT.—The magistrate shall have power upon motion of the injured party and notice to the adverse party to correct any clerical mistakes in his judgment as entered, so as to conform to the judgment ordered. Said magistrate shall have power to set aside any void judgment upon motion of either party to the action after notice to the adverse party, and thereupon said action shall be treated as if no judgment had been entered.

Executions from magistrates' courts.

EXECUTIONS FROM MAGISTRATES' COURTS

May issue at any time within five years.

SEC. 471. EXECUTION MAY ISSUE AT ANY TIME WITHIN FIVE YEARS.—Execution for the enforcement of a judgment of a magistrate's court may be issued by the magistrate who entered the judgment, or his successor in office, on the application of the party entitled thereto, at any time within five years from the entry of judgment.

Stay of execution.

SEC. 472. STAY OF EXECUTION OF JUDGMENT.—The court, or the magistrate thereof, may stay the execution of any judgment, including any judgment in a case of forcible entry or unlawful detainer, for a period not exceeding ten days.

Contents of.

SEC. 473. CONTENTS OF EXECUTION.—The execution must be directed to the constable, and must be subscribed by the magistrate and bear date the day of its delivery to the officer. It must intelligibly refer to the judgment, by stating the names of the parties, and the name of the magistrate before whom, and of the subdivision where, and the time when it was rendered; the amount of judgment, if it be for money; and, if less than the whole is due, the true amount due thereon. It must contain, in like cases, similar directions to the constable, as are required by the provisions of chapter 12, of this code, in an execution to the marshal.

Ante, p. 969.

SEC. 474. RENEWAL OF EXECUTION.—An execution may, at the request of the judgment creditor, be renewed before the expiration of the time fixed for its return, by the word "renewed" written thereon, with the date thereof, and subscribed by the magistrate. Such renewal has the effect of an original issue, and may be repeated as often as necessary. If an execution is returned unsatisfied, another may be afterwards issued.

Renewal of.

SEC. 475. DUTY OF OFFICER RECEIVING EXECUTION.—The constable to whom the execution is directed must execute the same in the same manner as the marshal is required by the provisions of chapter 12 of this code, to proceed upon executions directed to him; and the constable, when the execution is directed to him, is vested for that purpose with all the powers of the marshal.

Duty of officer receiving.

Ante, p. 968.

SEC. 476. PROCEEDINGS SUPPLEMENTARY TO EXECUTION.—The sections of this code, from 387 to 394, both inclusive, are applicable to magistrates' courts, the word "constable" being substituted, to that end, for the word "marshal," and the word "magistrate" for "judge." If the judgment debtor does not reside in the subdivision wherein the judgment was entered, an abstract of the judgment, in the form prescribed by section 469, may be filed in the office of the magistrate of the subdivision wherein the defendant resides, and such magistrate may issue execution on such judgment, and may take and exercise such jurisdiction in proceedings supplemental to execution, as if such judgment were originally entered in his court.

Proceedings supplementary to.

DOCKETS OF MAGISTRATES

Dockets of magistrates.

SEC. 478. DOCKET, WHAT TO CONTAIN.—Each magistrate must keep a book, denominated a "docket," in which he must enter:

Contents.

1. The title of every action or proceeding.
2. The object of the action or proceeding; and if a sum of money be claimed, the amount thereof.
3. The date of the summons, and the time of its return; and if an order to arrest the defendant be made, or a writ of attachment be issued, a statement of the fact.
4. The time when the parties, or either of them, appear, or their nonappearance, if default be made; a minute of the pleadings and motions; if in writing, referring to them; if not in writing, a concise statement of the material parts of the pleading.
5. Every adjournment, stating on whose application and to what time.
6. The judgment of the court, specifying the costs included and the time when rendered.
7. The issuing of the execution, when issued and to whom; the renewals thereof, if any, and when made, and a statement of any money paid to the magistrate, when and by whom.
8. The receipt of a notice of appeal, if any be given, and of the appeal bond.

SEC. 479. ENTRIES THEREIN PRIMA FACIE EVIDENCE OF THE FACT.—The several particulars of the last section specified must be entered under the title of the action to which they relate, and (unless otherwise in this chapter provided) at the time when they occur. Such Entries, prima facie evidence of fact.

entries in a magistrate's docket, or a transcript thereof, certified by the magistrate, or his successor in office, are prima facie evidence of the facts so stated.

Index must be kept.

SEC. 480. AN INDEX TO THE DOCKET MUST BE KEPT.—A magistrate must keep an alphabetical index to his docket, in which must be entered the names of the parties to each judgment, with a reference to the page of entry. The names of the plaintiffs must be entered in the index, in the alphabetical order of the first letter of the family name.

Delivery to successor.

SEC. 481. DOCKETS MUST BE DELIVERED BY MAGISTRATE TO HIS SUCCESSOR.—Every magistrate, upon the expiration of his term of office, must deposit with his successor his official dockets and all papers filed in his office, as well his own as those of his predecessors, or any other which may be in his custody to be kept as public records.

General provisions relating to magistrates' courts.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Subpoenas; final process.

SEC. 482. MAGISTRATES MAY ISSUE SUBPŒNAS AND FINAL PROCESS TO ANY PART OF THE SUBDIVISION.—Magistrates may issue subpoenas in any action or proceeding in the courts held by them, and final process on any judgment recovered therein, to any part of the subdivision.

Filling in blanks.

SEC. 483. BLANKS MUST BE FILLED IN ALL PAPERS ISSUED BY A MAGISTRATE, EXCEPT SUBPŒNAS.—The summons, execution, and every other paper made or issued by a magistrate, except a subpoena, must be issued without a blank left to be filled by another, otherwise it is void.

Receipt and payment of moneys.

SEC. 484. MAGISTRATES TO RECEIVE ALL MONEYS COLLECTED AND PAY THE SAME TO PARTIES.—Magistrates must receive from the constables, all moneys collected on any process or order issued from their courts respectively, and must pay the same, and all moneys paid to them in their official capacity, over to the parties entitled or authorized to receive them, without delay.

Disability of magistrate; substitutions.

SEC. 485. IN CASE OF DISABILITY OF MAGISTRATE, OTHER MAGISTRATE MAY ATTEND ON HIS BEHALF.—In case of the sickness or other disability or necessary absence of a magistrate, the other magistrate may, at his request, attend in his behalf, and thereupon is vested with the power and may perform all the duties and issue all the papers or process of the absent magistrate. In case of a trial the proper entry of the proceedings before the attending magistrate, subscribed by him, must be made in the docket of the magistrate before whom the summons was returnable. If the case is adjourned, the magistrate before whom the summons was returnable may resume jurisdiction.

Security for costs.

SEC. 486. MAGISTRATES MAY REQUIRE SECURITY FOR COSTS.—Magistrates may in all cases require a deposit of money or an undertaking, as security for costs of court, before issuing a summons.

Deposit in lieu of undertaking.

SEC. 487. DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF UNDERTAKING.—In all civil cases arising in magistrates' courts, wherein an undertaking is required as prescribed in this code, the plaintiff or defendant may deposit with said magistrate a sum of money in United States currency equal to the amount required by the said undertaking, which said sum of money shall be taken as security in place of said undertaking.

Code provisions applicable to magistrates' courts.

SEC. 488. WHAT PROVISIONS OF CODE APPLICABLE TO MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—Magistrates' courts being courts of limited jurisdiction, only those provisions of this code which are, in their nature, applicable to the organization, powers, and course of proceedings in magistrates' courts, or which have been made applicable by special provisions in this chapter, are applicable to magistrates' courts and the proceedings therein.

CHAPTER 15.—APPEALS IN CIVIL ACTIONS

APPEALS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

REVIEW BY JUDGE OF ORDERS MADE OUT OF COURT

SEC. 489. ORDERS MADE OUT OF COURT, WITHOUT NOTICE, MAY BE REVIEWED BY THE JUDGE.—An order made out of court, without notice to the adverse party, may be vacated or modified, without notice, by the judge who made it; or may be vacated or modified on notice, in the manner in which other motions are made.

Review of orders made out of court.

APPEALS TO UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS

SEC. 490. APPEALS TO CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS, HOW GOVERNED.—Appeals from the district court to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit are governed by section 9 of the Panama Canal Act, as amended, and by § 1 of Act Apr. 11, 1928, C. 354, 45 Stat. 422.

APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT

SEC. 491. APPEALS TO DISTRICT COURT.—Any party dissatisfied with the judgment rendered in a civil action in a magistrate's court, may appeal therefrom to the district court, at any time within thirty days after notice of the rendition of the judgment. The appeal is taken by filing a notice of appeal with the magistrate, and serving a copy on the adverse party. The notice must state whether the appeal is taken from the whole or a part of the judgment, and if from a part, what part, and whether the appeal is taken on questions of law or fact or both.

Appeals to district court.

SEC. 492. APPEAL ON QUESTION OF LAW.—When a party appeals to the district court on a question of law alone, he must, within ten days after notice of the rendition of judgment, prepare a statement of the case and file the same with the magistrate. The statement must contain the grounds upon which the party intends to rely upon the appeal, and so much of the evidence, as may be necessary to explain the grounds, and no more. Within ten days after receiving notice that the statement is filed, the adverse party, if dissatisfied with the same, may file amendments. The proposed statement and amendments must be settled by the magistrate, and if no amendment be filed the original statements stand as adopted. The statement thus adopted or as settled by the magistrate, with a copy of the docket of the magistrate, and all motions filed with him by the parties, during the trial and the notice of appeal, may be used on the hearing of the appeal before the district court.

On question of law.

SEC. 493. APPEAL ON QUESTIONS OF FACT, OR LAW AND FACT.—When a party appeals to the district court on questions of fact, or on questions of both law and fact, no statement need be made, but the action must be tried anew in the district court.

On questions of fact, or law and fact.

SEC. 494. TRANSMISSION OF PAPERS TO DISTRICT COURT.—Upon receiving the notice of appeal, and on payment of the fees of the magistrate, payable on appeal and not included in the judgment, and filing an undertaking as required in the next section, and after settlement or adoption of statement, if any, the magistrate must, within five days, transmit to the clerk of the district court, if the appeal be on questions of law alone, a certified copy of his docket, the statement as admitted or as settled, the notice of appeal, and the undertaking filed; or, if the appeal be on questions of fact, or both law and fact, a certified copy of his docket, the pleadings, all notices, motions, and all other papers filed in the cause, the notice pers to district court.

of appeal, and the undertaking filed; and the magistrate may be compelled by the district court, by an order entered upon motion, to transmit such papers, and may be fined for neglect or refusal to transmit the same. A certified copy of such order may be served on the magistrate by the party or his attorney. In the district court, either party may have the benefit of all legal objections made in the magistrate's court.

Undertaking on appeal.

SEC. 495. UNDERTAKING ON APPEAL.—An appeal from a magistrate's court is not effectual for any purpose, unless an undertaking be filed with two or more sureties in the sum of $25 for the payment of the costs on the appeal, or, if a stay of proceedings be claimed, in the sum of $25 plus a sum equal to the amount of the judgment, including costs, when the judgment is for the payment of money; or plus twice the value of the property including costs, when the judgment is for the recovery of specific personal property; and must be conditioned, when the action is for the recovery of money, that the appellant will pay the amount of the judgment appealed from, and all costs, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or the amount of any judgment and all costs that may be recovered against him in the action in the district court.

When the action is for the recovery of or to enforce or foreclose a lien on specific personal property, the undertaking must be conditioned that the appellant will pay the judgment and costs appealed from, and obey the order of the court made therein, if the appeal be withdrawn or dismissed, or any judgment and costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the district court, and will obey any order made by the court therein.

When the judgment appealed from directs the delivery of possession of real property, the execution of the same can not be stayed unless a written undertaking be executed on the part of the appellant, with two or more sureties, to the effect that during the possession of such property by the appellant, he will not commit, or suffer to be committed any waste thereon, and that if the appeal be dismissed or withdrawn, or the judgment affirmed, or judgment be recovered against him in the action in the district court, he will pay the value of the use and occupation of the property from the time of the appeal until the delivery of possession thereof; or that he will pay any judgment and costs that may be recovered against him in said action in the district court, not exceeding a sum to be fixed by the magistrate of the court from which the appeal is taken, and which sum must be specified in the undertaking.

A deposit of the sum of $50 plus the amount of the judgment, including all cost appealed from, or plus the value of the property, including all costs, in actions for the recovery of specific personal property, with the magistrate, is equivalent to the filing of the undertaking, and in such cases the magistrate must transmit the money to the clerk of the district court to be by him paid out on the order of the court.

Filing of undertaking; exception to and justification of sureties.

SEC. 496. FILING OF UNDERTAKING; EXCEPTION TO AND JUSTIFICATION OF SURETIES.—The undertaking on appeal must be filed within five days after the filing of the notice of appeal, and notice of the filing of the undertaking must be given to the respondent. The adverse party may except to the sufficiency of the sureties within five days after the filing of the undertaking, and unless they or other sureties justify before the magistrate within five days thereafter, upon notice to the adverse party, to the amounts stated in their affidavits, the appeal must be regarded as if no such undertaking had been given.

SEC. 497. STAY OF PROCEEDINGS ON FILING UNDERTAKING.—If an execution be issued on the filing of the undertaking staying proceedings, the magistrate must, by order, direct the officer to stay all proceedings on the same. Such officer must, upon payment of his fees for services rendered on the execution, thereupon relinquish all property levied upon and deliver the same to the judgment debtor, together with all moneys collected from sales or otherwise. If his fees be not paid, the officer may retain so much of the property or proceeds thereof as may be necessary to pay the same.

Stay of proceedings.

SEC. 498. POWERS OF DISTRICT COURT ON APPEAL.—Upon an appeal heard upon a statement of the case, the district court may review all orders affecting the judgment appealed from, and may set aside, or confirm, or modify any or all of the proceedings subsequent to and dependent upon such judgment, and may, if necessary or proper, order a new trial. When the action is tried anew, on appeal, the trial must be conducted in all respects as other trials in the district court. The provisions of this code as to changing the place of trial, and all the provisions as to trials in the district court, are applicable to trials on appeal in the district court. For a failure to prosecute an appeal, or unnecessary delay in bringing it to a hearing, the district court, after notice, may order the appeal to be dismissed, with costs; and if it appear to such court that the appeal was made solely for delay, it may add to the costs such damages as may be just, not exceeding 25 per cent of the judgment appealed from. Judgments rendered in the district court on appeal shall have the same force and effect and may be enforced in the same manner as judgments in actions commenced in the district court.

Powers of district court on appeal.

SEC. 499. NO APPEAL EFFECTIVE UNLESS FEES FOR FILING ARE PAID.—No appeal taken from a judgment rendered in a magistrate's court in civil matters shall be effectual for any purpose whatever unless the appellant shall, at the time of filing the notice of appeal, pay to the magistrate, in addition to the fee payable to the magistrate on appeal, a docket fee of $5 for filing the appeal and for placing the action on the calendar in the district court. Upon transmitting the papers on appeal, the magistrate shall transmit to the clerk of the district court the sum thus deposited for filing the appeal in the district court and for placing the action on the calendar. No notice of appeal shall be filed unless the fees herein provided for are paid in accordance with the provisions of this section.

No appeal effective unless fees for filing paid.

SEC. 500. DISMISSAL OF APPEALS FROM MAGISTRATE'S COURT WHERE NOT BROUGHT TO TRIAL WITHIN ONE YEAR.—No action heretofore or hereafter appealed from the magistrate's court to the district court, shall be further prosecuted, and no further proceedings shall be had therein, and all such actions heretofore, or hereafter appealed, must be dismissed by the court to which the same shall have been appealed, on its own motion, or on the motion of any party interested therein, whether named in the complaint as a party or not, where the appealing party fails to bring such appeal to trial within one year from the date of filing such appeal in said district court, unless such time be otherwise extended by a written stipulation by the parties to the action filed with the clerk of the district court to which the appeal is taken.

Time limitation on appeal from magistrate's court.

SEC. 501. PAPERS RETURNED ON DISMISSAL OF APPEAL.—Upon dismissal of the appeal the clerk of the district court shall return all the papers to the court from which the appeal was taken, and the magistrate of said court shall have jurisdiction the same as if no appeal had been taken.

Papers returned on dismissal.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

CHAPTER 16.—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST JOINT DEBTORS

Proceedings against joint debtors.

Summons after judgment.

Ante, p. 925.

Contents.

Affidavit to accompany.

Answer; contents.

What constitute pleadings in the case.

Trial of issues; verdict.

Offer of defendant to compromise.

Proceedings on, after suit brought.

SEC. 502. PARTIES NOT SUMMONED IN ACTION ON JOINT CONTRACT MAY BE SUMMONED AFTER JUDGMENT.—When a judgment is recovered against one or more of several persons, jointly indebted upon an obligation, by proceeding as provided in section 120, those who were not originally served with the summons, and did not appear to the action, may be summoned to show cause why they should not be bound by the judgment, in the same manner as though they had been originally served with the summons.

SEC. 503. SUMMONS IN THAT CASE, WHAT TO CONTAIN, AND HOW SERVED.—The summons, as provided in the last section, must describe the judgment, and require the person summoned to show cause why he should not be bound by it, and must be served in the same manner, and returnable within the same time, as the original summons. It is not necessary to file a new complaint.

SEC. 504. AFFIDAVIT TO ACCOMPANY SUMMONS.—The summons must be accompanied by an affidavit of the plaintiff, his agent, representative, or attorney, that the judgment, or some part thereof, remains unsatisfied, and must specify the amount due thereon.

SEC. 505. ANSWER; WHAT IT MAY CONTAIN.—Upon such summons, the defendant may answer within the time specified therein, denying the judgment, or setting up any defense which may have arisen subsequently; or he may deny his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, by reason of any defense existing at the commencement of the action.

SEC. 506. WHAT CONSTITUTE THE PLEADINGS IN THE CASE.—If the defendant, in his answer, denies the judgment, or sets up any defense which may have arisen subsequently, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, constitute the written allegations in the case; if he denies his liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was recovered, a copy of the original complaint and judgment, the summons, with the affidavit annexed, and the answer, constitute such written allegations, subject to the right of the parties to amend their pleadings as in other cases.

SEC. 507. ISSUES, HOW TRIED; VERDICT, WHAT TO BE.—The issues formed may be tried as in other cases; but when the defendant denies, in his answer, any liability on the obligation upon which the judgment was rendered, if a verdict be found or a decision rendered against him, it must be for not exceeding the amount remaining unsatisfied on such original judgment, with interest thereon.

OFFER OF DEFENDANT TO COMPROMISE

SEC. 508. PROCEEDINGS ON OFFER OF THE DEFENDANT TO COMPROMISE AFTER SUIT BROUGHT.—The defendant may, at any time before the trial or judgment, serve upon the plaintiff an offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for the sum or property, or to the effect therein specified. If the plaintiff accept the offer, and give notice thereof within five days, he may file the offer, with proof of notice of acceptance, and the clerk must thereupon enter judgment accordingly. If the notice of acceptance be not given, the offer is to be deemed withdrawn, and can not be given in evidence upon the trial; and if the plaintiff fail to obtain a more favorable judgment, he can not recover costs, but must pay the defendant's costs from the time of the offer.

INSPECTION OF WRITINGS

Inspection of writings.

SEC. 509. A PARTY MAY DEMAND INSPECTION AND COPY OF A BOOK, PAPER, AND SO FORTH.—Any court in which an action is pending, or the judge thereof may, upon notice, order either party to give to the other, within a specified time, an inspection and copy, or permission to take a copy, of entries of accounts in any book, or of any document or paper in his possession, or under his control, containing evidence relating to the merits of the action, or the defense therein. If compliance with the order be refused, the court may exclude the entries of accounts of the book, or the document, or paper from being given in evidence, or if wanted as evidence by the party applying may presume them, or direct the jury to presume them, to be such as he alleges them to be; and the court may also punish the party refusing for a contempt. This section is not to be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce books, papers, or documents, when he is examined as a witness.

May be demanded, etc.

MOTIONS AND ORDERS

Motions and orders.

SEC. 510. ORDER AND MOTION DEFINED.—Every direction of a court or judge, made or entered in writing, and not included in a judgment, is denominated an order. An application for an order is a motion.

Defined.

SEC. 511. MOTIONS AND ORDERS, WHERE MADE.—Motions must be made in the division, in which the action is pending. Orders made out of court may be made by the judge of the court in either division.

Where made.

SEC. 512. NOTICE OF MOTION, WHEN TO BE GIVEN.—When a written notice of a motion is necessary, it must be given five days before the time appointed for the hearing.

Notice.

SEC. 513. ORDER FOR PAYMENT OF MONEY, HOW ENFORCED.—Whenever an order for the payment of a sum of money is made by a court pursuant to the provisions of this code, it may be enforced by execution in the same manner as if it were a judgment.

Order for payment of money.

NOTICES AND FILING AND SERVICE OF PAPERS

Notices, filing and service of papers.

SEC. 514. NOTICES AND PAPERS, HOW SERVED.—Notices must be in writing, and the notice of a motion, other than for a new trial, must state when, and the grounds upon which it will be made, and the papers, if any, upon which it is to be based. If any such paper has not previously been served upon the party to be notified and was not filed by him, a copy of such paper must accompany the notice. Notices and other papers may be served upon the party or attorney in the manner prescribed in this subchapter, when not otherwise provided by this code.

Form and contents.

SEC. 515. NOTICES AND PAPERS, WHEN AND HOW SERVED.—The service may be personal, by delivery to the party or attorney on whom the service is required to be made, or it may be as follows:

Service.

1. If upon an attorney, it may be made during his absence from his office, by leaving the notice or other papers with his clerk therein, or with a person having charge thereof; or when there is no person in the office, by leaving them between the hours of nine in the morning and five in the afternoon, in a conspicuous place in the office; or, if it is not open so as to admit of such service, then by leaving them at the attorney's residence, with some person of not less than eighteen years of age, if his residence is in the same division with his office; and if his residence is not known, or is not in the same division with his office, or being in the same division it is not open, or there is not found thereat any person of not less than eighteen years of age, then Manner of service.

On attorney.

by putting the same, inclosed in a sealed envelope, into the post office directed to such attorney at his office, if known; otherwise to his residence, if known; and if neither his office nor his residence is known, then by delivering the same to the clerk of the court for the attorney;

On party.

2. If upon a party, it may be made by leaving the notice or other paper at his residence, between the hours of eight in the morning and six in the evening, with some person of not less than eighteen years of age; if at the time of attempted service between the said hours no such person can be found at his residence, the same may be served by mail; and, if his residence is not known, then by delivering the same to the clerk of the court for such party.

Service by mail,
when.

SEC. 516. SERVICE BY MAIL, WHEN.—Service by mail may be made where the person making the service and the person on whom it is to be made reside or have their offices in different places between which there is a regular communication by mail.

How.

SEC. 517. SERVICE BY MAIL, HOW.—In case of service by mail, the notice or other paper must be deposited in the post office, in a sealed envelope addressed to the person on whom it is to be served, at his office or place of residence. The service is complete at the time of the deposit.

Appearance of defendant.

SEC. 518. APPEARANCE; NOTICES AFTER APPEARANCE.—A defendant appears in an action when he answers, demurs, or gives the plaintiff written notice of his appearance, or when an attorney gives notice of appearance for him. After appearance, a defendant or his attorney is entitled to notice of all subsequent proceedings of which notice is required to be given. But where a defendant has not appeared, service of notice or papers need not be made upon him unless he is imprisoned for want of bail.

Notice of subsequent proceedings.

Service on nonresi-
dents.

SEC. 519. SERVICE ON NONRESIDENTS.—When a plaintiff or a defendant, who has appeared, resides out of the Canal Zone, and has no attorney in the action or proceeding, the service may be made on the clerk for him. But in all cases where a party has an attorney in the action or proceeding, the service of papers, when required, must be upon the attorney instead of the party, except service of subpoenas, of writs, and other process issued in the suit, and of papers to bring him into contempt. If the sole attorney for a party is removed or suspended from practice, then the party has no attorney within the meaning of this section. If his sole attorney has no known office in the Canal Zone, notices and papers may be served by leaving a copy thereof with the clerk of the court, unless such attorney shall have filed in the cause an address of a place at which notices and papers may be served on him, in which event they may be served at such place.

Preceding provisions not to apply in contempt proceedings.

SEC. 520. PRECEDING PROVISIONS NOT TO APPLY TO PROCEEDING TO BRING PARTY INTO CONTEMPT.—The foregoing provisions of this subchapter do not apply to the service of a summons or other process, or of any paper to bring a party into contempt.

General provisions.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Lost papers, how supplied.

SEC. 521. LOST PAPERS, HOW SUPPLIED.—If an original pleading or paper be lost, the court may authorize a copy thereof to be filed and used instead of the original.

Title of action not necessary on papers.

SEC. 522. PAPERS WITHOUT THE TITLE OF THE ACTION, OR WITH DEFECTIVE TITLE, MAY BE VALID.—An affidavit, notice, or other paper, without the title of the action or proceeding in which it is made, or with a defective title, is as valid and effectual for any purpose as if duly entitled, if it intelligibly refer to such action or proceeding.

SEC. 523. SUCCESSIONE ACTIONS ON THE SAME CONTRACT, ETC.—Successive actions may be maintained upon the same contract or transaction, whenever, after the former action, a new cause of action arises therefrom.

Successive actions on same contract, etc.

SEC. 524. SEVERANCE AND CONSOLIDATION.—An action may be severed and actions may be consolidated, in the discretion of the court, whenever it can be done without prejudice to a substantial right.

Severance and consolidation of actions.

SEC. 525. ACTIONS, WHEN DEEMED PENDING.—An action is deemed to be pending from the time of its commencement until its final determination upon appeal, or until the time for appeal has passed, unless the judgment is sooner satisfied.

Action, when deemed pending.

SEC. 526. ACTIONS TO DETERMINE ADVERSE CLAIMS, AND BY SURETIES.—An action may be brought by one person against another for the purpose of determining an adverse claim, which the latter makes against the former for money or property upon an alleged obligation; and also against two or more persons, for the purpose of compelling one to satisfy a debt due to the other, for which plaintiff is bound as a surety.

Action by adverse claimant; surety.

SEC. 527. TESTIMONY; WHO MAY TAKE DOWN.—On the trial of an action in the district court, if there is no shorthand reporter of the court in attendance, the testimony may be taken down in writing by anyone agreed to by the parties.

Recording of testimony.

SEC. 528. THE CLERK SHALL KEEP MINUTE BOOKS.—The clerk shall in person or by assistant attend all sessions of the court and keep minute books, in which he shall record, under the direction of the judge, all the proceedings of the court.

Clerk to keep minutes.

SEC. 529. TWO OF THREE REFEREES, AND SO FORTH, MAY DO ANY ACT.—When there are three referees, all must meet, but two of them may do any act which might be done by all.

Authority of two of three referees to act.

SEC. 530. EXTENSION OF TIME WITHIN WHICH AN ACT IS TO BE DONE; NOT TO EXCEED THIRTY DAYS; EXCEPTION.—When an act to be done, as provided in this code, relates to the pleadings in the action, or the undertakings to be filed, or the justifications of sureties, or the preparation of bills of exceptions, or of amendments thereto, or to the service of notices other than of appeal, the time allowed by this code, unless otherwise expressly provided, may be extended, upon good cause shown, by the judge of the district court; but such extension shall not exceed thirty days, without the consent of the adverse party.

Extension of time for filing pleadings, etc.

SEC. 531. ACTION AGAINST OFFICER FOR OFFICIAL ACTS.—If an action is brought against any officer or person for an act for the doing of which he had theretofore received any valid bond or covenant of indemnity, and he gives seasonable notice thereof in writing to the persons who executed such bond or covenant, and permits them to conduct the defense of such action, the judgment recovered therein is conclusive evidence against the persons so notified; and the court may, on motion of the defendant, upon notice of five days, and upon proof of such bond or covenant, and of such notice and permission, enter judgment against them for the amount so recovered and costs.

Action against officer for official acts.

SEC. 532. CORPORATIONS MAY BECOME SURETIES ON UNDERTAKINGS AND BONDS.—In all cases where an undertaking or bond, with any number of sureties, is authorized or required by any provision of this code, or of any law of the Canal Zone, any corporation with a paid-up capital of not less than $100,000, incorporated under the laws of any State of the United States for the purpose of making, guaranteeing, or becoming a surety upon bonds or undertakings required or authorized by law, or which, by the laws of the State Corporations as sureties.

where it was incorporated has such power, and which shall have complied with all the requirements of the law of the Canal Zone regulating the admission of these corporations to transact such business in the Canal Zone, may become and shall be accepted as surety or as sole and sufficient surety upon such undertaking or bond, and such corporate surety shall be subject to all the liabilities and entitled to all the rights of natural persons' sureties.

Requisites of undertakings.

SEC. 533. UNDERTAKINGS MENTIONED IN THIS CODE, REQUISITES OF.—In any case where an undertaking or bond is authorized or required by any law of the Canal Zone, the officer taking the same must, except in the case of such a corporation as is mentioned in the next preceding section, require the sureties to accompany it with an affidavit that they are each residents of the Canal Zone, and are each worth the sum specified in the undertaking or bond, over and above all their just debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution; but when the amount specified in the undertaking or bond exceeds $3,000, and there are more than two sureties thereon, they may state in their affidavits that they are severally worth amounts less than the amount specified in the undertaking or bond, if the whole amount is equivalent to that of two sufficient sureties.

Any corporation such as is mentioned in the next preceding section may become sole surety on such bond.

New undertaking.

NEW UNDERTAKING.—Whenever an undertaking has been given and approved in any action or proceeding, and it is thereafter made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that any surety upon such undertaking has for any reason become insufficient, the court may, upon notice, order the giving of a new undertaking, with sufficient sureties, in lieu of such insufficient undertaking. In case such new undertaking so required shall not be given within the time required by such order, or in case the sureties thereon fail to justify thereon when required, all rights obtained by the filing of such original undertaking shall immediately cease.

Justification by corporate surety.

SEC. 534. JUSTIFICATION BY CORPORATE SECURITY ON BONDS.—Whenever the surety on a bond or undertaking authorized or required by any law of the Canal Zone is a foreign corporation, authorized to become surety on bonds or undertakings in the Canal Zone, and exception is taken to the sufficiency of such surety as required by law, such corporate surety may justify on such bond or undertaking as follows:

Procedure.

PROCEDURE.—Any agent, attorney in fact, or officer of such corporation shall submit to the court, judge, officer, board, or other person before whom the justification is to be made:

Production of power of attorney.

First. The original, or a certified copy of, the power of attorney, by-laws or other instrument showing the authority of the person or persons who executed the bond or undertaking to execute the same;

Certificate of authority.

Second. A certified copy of the certificate of authority, showing that the corporation is authorized to transact business;

Continuation of such authority.

Third. A certificate from the executive secretary showing that the said certificate of authority has not been surrendered, revoked, canceled, annulled, or suspended, or in the event that it has been, that renewed authority to act under such certificate has been granted;

Financial statement.

Fourth. A financial statement showing the assets and liabilities of such corporation at the end of the quarter calendar year prior to forty-five days next preceding the date of the execution of the bond or undertaking; such financial statement must be verified under oath by the president, or a vice president and attested by the secretary or an assistant secretary of such corporation.

JUSTIFICATION WHEN COMPLETE.—Upon complying with the foregoing provisions and it appearing that the bond or undertaking was duly executed, that the corporation is authorized to transact business in the Canal Zone, and that its assets exceed its liabilities in an amount equal to or in excess of the amount of the bond or undertaking, the justification of the surety shall be complete and it shall be accepted as the sole and sufficient surety on the bond or undertaking.

Justification, when complete.

SEC. 535. CLERK MAY ACCEPT CASH DEPOSIT IN LIEU OF BOND.—In all proceedings in which a bond is required the clerk of the district court may accept a cash deposit in the sum of the bond. Where a cash bond is given, such moneys or any part thereof may be withdrawn only upon order of the court.

Cash deposit in lieu of bond.

SEC. 536. CLERK TO COPY CERTAIN BONDS IN APPROPRIATE BOOK.—All bonds of every nature and description required in civil actions or proceedings, except bonds for arrest or appeal from inferior courts, shall be copied in full by the clerk in an appropriate book, and such copy, duly authenticated by him, shall have the force and effect of the original.

Bonds to be copied in appropriate book.

SEC. 536a. CLERK TO BE EX OFFICIO REGISTRAR OF PROPERTY.—The clerk of the district court is ex officio registrar of property of the Canal Zone, and the assistant clerks shall have and exercise like powers in the name of their principal. The clerk and his assistants shall have the duties of registrar so as to give constructive notice in all cases where provision is made for such notice by law. They shall keep proper books of record, which shall at all reasonable hours be open to the public.

Clerk ex officio registrar of property.

SEC. 537. GOVERNMENT NOT REQUIRED TO GIVE BONDS WHEN A PARTY.—In any civil action or proceeding wherein the Government is a party plaintiff, or any government officer, in his official capacity or on behalf of the Government, is a party plaintiff or defendant, no bond, written undertaking, or security can be required of the Government, or any officer thereof; but on complying with the other provisions of this code the Government, or any government officer acting in his official capacity, have the same rights, remedies, and benefits as if the bond, undertaking, or security were given and approved as required by this code.

Government not required to give bond.

SEC. 538. SURETY ON APPEAL SUBSTITUTED TO RIGHTS OF JUDGMENT CREDITOR.—Whenever any surety on an undertaking on appeal, executed to stay proceedings upon a money judgment, pays the judgment, either with or without action, after its affirmation by the appellate court, he is substituted to the rights of the judgment creditor, and is entitled to control, enforce, and satisfy such judgment, in all respects as if he had recovered the same.

Subrogation of surety on appeal bond.

DECLARATORY RELIEF

SEC. 539. DECLARATORY RELIEF.—Any person interested under a deed, will or other written instrument, or under a contract, or who desires a declaration of his rights or duties with respect to another or in respect to, in, over or upon property, may, in cases of actual controversy relating to the legal rights and duties of the respective parties, bring an action in the district court for a declaration of his rights and duties in the premises, including a determination of any question of construction or validity arising under such instrument or contract. He may ask for a declaration of rights or duties, either alone or with other relief; and the court may make a binding declaration of such rights or duties, whether or not further relief is or could be claimed at the time. The declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect, and such declaration shall have the force of a final judgment. Such declaration may be had before there has been any breach of the obligation in respect to which said declaration is sought.

Declaratory relief.

Powers not exercised, when.

SEC. 540. POWER NOT EXERCISED WHEN.—The court may refuse to exercise the power granted by this subchapter in any case where its declaration or determination is not necessary or proper at the time under all the circumstances.

Other remedies not affected.

SEC. 541. OTHER REMEDIES NOT AFFECTED.—The remedies provided by this sub-chapter are cumulative, and shall not be construed as restricting any remedy, provisional or otherwise, provided by law for the benefit of any party to such action, and no judgment under this sub-chapter shall preclude any party from obtaining additional relief based upon the same facts.

FEES, COSTS, ETC., DISTRICT AND MAGISTRATES' COURTS.

CHAPTER 17.—FEES; COSTS AND SECURITY FOR COSTS IN THE DISTRICT AND MAGISTRATES' COURTS

Fees in general.

FEES IN GENERAL

Specific fees only, to be demanded.

SEC. 542. LAWFUL TO DEMAND SPECIFIC FEES ONLY.—It shall be lawful for the clerk of the district court, referees, and commissioners appointed by the district court, the marshal, magistrates, constables, and other officers and persons hereinafter mentioned, together with their assistants and deputies, to demand, and receive, the hereinafter mentioned fees and no more; but all fees collected by officers drawing a regular salary or fixed compensation from the Government shall be paid over to the Collector of the Panama Canal.

Docket fees, etc., for services of clerk or magistrate.

SEC. 543. DOCKET FEES AND OTHER DEPOSITS FOR SERVICES OF CLERK OR MAGISTRATE.—The United States of America, the Government of the Canal Zone, and the Panama Canal, or any officer thereof who sues or is sued in his official capacity, shall not be required to pay any costs for the bringing or defending of an action. Every other plaintiff in a civil action commenced in the district court, except as hereinafter designated, shall deposit with the clerk or assistant clerk thereof a docket fee of $8 upon the filing of the complaint. An intervenor who is allowed to intervene therein shall deposit $5 upon the filing of the petition of intervention. A plaintiff in a habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, or prohibition proceeding, or any other special proceeding, except a probate or guardianship proceeding, shall deposit $3 upon the filing of the complaint. Such sum or sums so deposited shall be full compensation for the clerk or assistant clerk for all services performed in any such action or proceeding, except lawful copy fees for furnishing copies of any paper or record therein. Any other plaintiff in a civil action commenced in a magistrate's court at the time of commencing the action shall deposit a docket fee of $3. An intervenor who intervenes therein shall deposit a fee of $1 at the time of appearance. Such sum or sums so deposited shall be full compensation for all services of the magistrate in said action; except that lawful copy fees may be charged and collected for furnishing copies of any paper or record therein.

Jury fees.

SEC. 544. JURY FEE.—Any party to a civil case in the district court, who demands a trial by jury, shall accompany said demand with a deposit of $10 as a jury fee; and unless such deposit is made, the case shall be tried without the intervention of a jury.

Probate, etc., fees.

SEC. 545. FEES IN PROBATE AND GUARDIANSHIP MATTERS.—The fees for the services of the clerk or assistant clerk of the district court in probate and guardianship matters shall be as follows: Where the value of the estate does not exceed $1,000, $3; where the value of the estate exceeds $1,000, and does not exceed $5,000, $5; where the value of the estate exceeds $5,000, $8.

Such fees shall be in full of the services of the clerk or assistant clerk in such proceedings, except that they shall be entitled to charge lawful fees for furnishing copies of papers and records therein. The judge of the district court shall have the power, in his discretion, in any case where the estate is small and the circumstances warrant, to waive the payment of any fee to the clerk or assistant clerk for services to be performed in such proceedings.

SEC. 546. CLERK OF DISTRICT COURT; FEES FOR VARIOUS SERVICES; COPIES OF PAPERS AND RECORDS.—For certifying the official act of a magistrate or other certificate, with seal, 25 cents.

Clerk, district court, fees of.

For certified copies of any paper, record, decree, judgment, or entry, for each one hundred words or fraction thereof, 10 cents, and the further sum of 25 cents for each certification: Provided, however, That where copies are furnished by those desiring the same, the certification fee alone shall be collected.

Certifications, etc.

Provido.
When copies furnished by applicant.

For all copies of records, or bills of exception, or testimony, or of other documents for transmission to the circuit court of appeals, 10 cents for each one hundred words or fraction thereof, and the further sum of 25 cents for each certification thereof: Provided, however, That where copies are furnished by those desiring the same, the certification fee alone shall be collected.

Copies of records, etc., for transmission to circuit court of appeals.

Provido.
When copies furnished by applicant.

SEC. 547. MARSHAL, CONSTABLES, AND OTHER PERSONS SERVING PROCESS.—For executing process, preliminary and final judgments, and decrees of any court, for each mile of travel in the service of process going one way, reckoned from the place of service to the place to which the process is returnable, 10 cents; for serving an attachment against the property of the defendant, $1, together with a reasonable allowance to be made by the court for expenses, if any, necessarily incurred in caring for the property attached; for arresting each defendant, 50 cents; for serving summons and copy of complaint for each defendant, $1; but in special proceedings, testamentary or administrative, where several members of a family residing at the same place are defendants the fee for each defendant shall be 50 cents; for serving subpoenas, for each witness served, 25 cents besides travel fees; for each copy of any process necessarily deposited in the office of Registrar of Property, 10 cents for each one hundred words, but not less than 50 cents in each case; for taking bonds or other instruments of indemnity or security, for each, 25 cents; for executing a writ of process to put a person in possession of real estate, $1; for attending with prisoner on habeas corpus trial, each day, $1; for transporting each prisoner on habeas corpus or otherwise, when required, for every mile going and returning, 10 cents; for advertising sale, besides printer's charge, 50 cents; for taking inventory of goods levied upon, to be charged only when the inventory is necessary, a sum fixed by the court not exceeding the actual reasonable cost of the same to be shown by vouchers; for levying an execution on property, $1.

Fees for service of process.

For collection of money.

On the first $100 or less, 2 per centum.

On the second $100, 1½ per centum; on all sums between $200 and $1,000, 1 per centum; on all sums in excess of $1,000, ½ per centum.

SEC. 548. SAME; ATTEMPTS TO SERVE PROCESS.—The following fees shall be charged for return on and mileage in attempts to serve

For attempted service.

process, or any order, judgment, or decree of any court in civil cases:

(a) For each return, $1.

(b) For mileage going one way in attempting to serve or execute any process, order, judgment, or decree of any court, for each mile traveled one way, 10 cents.

(c) No such fees shall be charged against the United States or The Panama Canal or an officer thereof sued in his official capacity.

Magistrates' fees.

SEC. 549. MAGISTRATES.—For all services of a magistrate in a civil case, the fees prescribed in section 543; for administering oath upon any affidavit or other paper with certificate of oath, 20 cents; for an appeal, with proceedings taking bond, making and forwarding transcript of record, 75 cents; for each certificate not otherwise provided for, 15 cents; for writing and certifying deposition, including the administration of oath to the witness, 10 cents for each one hundred words in the deposition and certificate; for certified copies of any record of proceeding of which any person is entitled to receive a copy, 10 cents for each one hundred words.

Account of fees to be rendered.

A magistrate upon receiving payment of fees allowed to him by law, must render to the person or persons so paying an itemized account thereof.

Witness fees, district court.

SEC. 550. WITNESS FEES.—Witnesses in the district court, either in actions or special proceedings, shall be entitled to $1 per day and 10 cents for each mile going to the place of trial from their homes by the nearest route of usual travel; but mileage shall be charged but once in the action unless witness is compelled to attend more than one term of court, nor shall any allowance be made for mileage except that traveled within the Canal Zone.

Magistrates', etc., courts.

Witnesses before magistrates' courts and other inferior tribunals shall be allowed 50 cents per day and the travel fees above provided and no more.

Allowance of, on affidavit of witness.

Fees to which witness may be entitled in a civil action shall be allowed, on the affidavit of the witness, stating the number of days he has attended, the amount of mileage to which he is entitled, to be taken and preserved by the clerk of the court, magistrate, or other officer before whom the witness was called to testify, and a certificate of the allowance shall be given to the witness. But on final taxation of costs the truth of the affidavit may be contested and this allowance may be set aside in whole or in part as the facts require. A witness shall not be allowed compensation for his attendance in more than one case or on more than one side of the same case at the same time, but may elect in which of several cases or on which side of the case, when he is summoned by both sides, to claim his attendance; a person who is compelled to attend court on other business shall not be paid as a witness.

Referee's fees.

SEC. 551. REFEREE'S FEES.—The fees of referees are $5 to each for every day spent in the business of the reference; but the parties may agree, in writing, upon any other rate of compensation, and thereupon such rates shall be allowed.

Additional fees.

SEC. 552. OTHER FEES TO BE FIXED BY GENERAL RULES OF THE DISTRICT COURT.—If it shall appear that services are required of clerks of court, marshals or officers of the court, other than those for which specific fees have been provided in this subchapter, the district judge shall by general rules provide for a scale of fees for such other services, which scale shall be proportionate to the fees in this subchapter provided for similar services.

COSTS

Costs.

Responsibility for.

SEC. 553. EACH PARTY RESPONSIBLE FOR HIS COSTS; FEES FOR SERVICE OF PROCESS PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.—Each party to any civil suit instituted in the district court or any magistrate's court of the Canal Zone shall be responsible for the costs incurred by him in such suit, and the marshal, constable or other officer, authorized to execute any process in such cases, shall not execute the same unless the fees allowed by law for the service of such process, shall be paid in advance by the party seeking such process, unless such party to the suit is entitled to prosecute the same in forma pauperis, as provided in section 554.

SEC. 554. PROSECUTION OR DEFENSE OF SUITS IN FORMA PAUPERIS.—Any citizen of the United States, entitled to commence any suit or action in any court in the Canal Zone, may commence and prosecute or defend to conclusion any such suit or action, without being required to prepay fees or costs or give security therefor, before or after bringing such suit or action, upon filing in the said court a statement, under oath, in writing, that because of his poverty he is unable to pay the costs of said suit or action, or to give security for same, and that he believes that he is entitled to the redress he seeks by such suit or action, and setting forth the nature of the said cause of action.

Suits in forma pauperis.

The opposing party in the suit, the clerk of the district court, or his assistant, or the magistrate, as the case may be, may contest the inability of the party to pay costs or his inability to furnish security for same; and the contest shall be heard at such time as the court or magistrate may determine.

Right to contest inability to pay costs.

If no contest is made upon the affidavit, or if the same is admitted by the court or magistrate after the contest, it shall be the duty of the officers of the court thereafter to issue and serve all processes and perform all duties on behalf of such party as in other cases.

If no contest, court to issue, etc., process, etc.

SEC. 555. COSTS ORDINARILY ALLOWED TO PREVAILING PARTY.—Costs shall ordinarily be allowed to the prevailing party as a matter of course, but the court shall have power for special reasons to adjudge that either party shall pay the costs of an action, or that the same be divided as may be equitable.

Allowance of costs to prevailing party.

SEC. 556. BILL OF COSTS AND TAXING OF COSTS IN DISTRICT COURT.—The party in whose favor judgment is rendered in the district court and who claims his costs, must within five days after the verdict or notice of the decision of the court deliver to the clerk and to the adverse party, or his attorney, a memorandum of the items of his costs in the action or proceeding, which memorandum must be verified by the oath of the party, or his attorney or agent, or by the clerk of his attorney, stating that to the best of his knowledge and belief the items are correct and that the disbursements have been necessarily incurred in the action or proceeding. A party dissatisfied with the costs so claimed, may, within five days after notice of filing of the bill of costs, file a motion to have the same taxed by the court or the judge thereof in said action.

Bill of costs and taxing of.

SEC. 557. WHAT COSTS MAY BE RECOVERED IN DISTRICT COURT.—In an action pending in the district court, the prevailing party may recover the following costs and no others:

Costs recoverable in district court.

For each witness necessarily produced by him, for each day's necessary attendance of such witness at the trial, the witness' lawful fees.

For each deposition lawfully taken by him, and produced in evidence, $2.50.

For original documents, deeds, or papers of any kind produced by him, nothing.

For official copies of such documents, deeds, or papers, the lawful fees necessarily paid for obtaining such copies.

The lawful fees paid by him for the service of any process in the action, and all lawful clerk's fees paid by him.

Magistrate to tax costs in his court.

SEC. 558. MAGISTRATE TO TAX COSTS IN HIS COURT.—The costs in the magistrate's court shall be taxed by the magistrate without the filing and service of a memorandum of costs as provided in section 556, and upon such information as to magistrate and constable costs and other costs and fees and mileage of witnesses as the magistrate may require.

Costs recoverable in magistrates' courts.

SEC. 559. WHAT COSTS MAY BE RECOVERED IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—In an action pending before a magistrate, the plaintiff may recover the following costs, and no others:

For each witness produced by him, for each day's necessary attendance at the trial, the witness' lawful fees.

For each deposition lawfully taken by him and produced in evidence, $2.50.

For original documents, deeds, or papers of any kind produced by him, nothing.

For official copies of such documents, deeds, or papers, the lawful fees necessarily paid for obtaining such copies.

The lawful fees paid by him for service of the summons and other process in the action.

The lawful docket fee paid by him.

If the judgment is for the defendant, he may recover the following costs, and no others:

For each witness produced by him, for each day's necessary attendance at the trial, the witness' lawful fees.

For each deposition lawfully taken by him and produced in evidence, $2.50.

For original documents, deeds, or papers of any kind produced by him, nothing.

For official copies of such deeds or papers, the lawful fees necessarily paid for obtaining such copies.

The lawful fees paid by him for service of any process in the action.

Costs on continuance.

SEC. 560. CONTINUANCE, COSTS MAY BE IMPOSED AS CONDITION OF.—When an application is made to a court or referee to postpone a trial, the payment of costs occasioned by the postponement may be imposed, in the discretion of the court or referee, as a condition of granting the same.

When action dismissed for want of jurisdiction.

SEC. 561. WHEN ACTION DISMISSED FOR WANT OF JURISDICTION.—If an action is dismissed for want of jurisdiction, courts nevertheless shall have power to render judgment for costs as justice may require.

Security for costs.

SECURITY FOR COSTS

Plaintiff may be required to give.

SEC. 562. PLAINTIFF MAY BE REQUIRED TO GIVE.—The plaintiff in any civil suit or proceedings in the district court or in either of the magistrates' courts may be ruled to give security for the costs upon motion of the opposing party or of any officer of the court interested in the costs accruing in said suit; and it shall be the duty of the court to require the plaintiff to give such security for costs within a reasonable time thereafter and not later than ten days after the motion is presented to the court; and if the plaintiff shall fail to comply with the order of the court within the time prescribed by the court or judge thereof, the suit shall be dismissed.

SEC. 563. NEW OR ADDITIONAL UNDERTAKING BY PLAINTIFF; FORM OF SECURITY.—A new or additional undertaking may be ordered, within such time as the court or judge may prescribe, upon proof that the original undertaking is insufficient security, and failure on the part of the plaintiff to comply with the order of the court, or judge, within the time prescribed, shall cause the dismissal of the suit.

Additional undertakings by plaintiff.

The security for costs required by this subchapter may consist of a money deposit, bond of a surety company, or cost bond with two or more good and sufficient sureties; the form of such security to be determined by the judge or magistrate of the court before whom the proceedings are pending. If personal security is furnished, the sureties must be residents of the Canal Zone, and no officer of the court or attorney practicing before the court shall be accepted as surety.

Nature of.

SEC. 564. BONDS, WHAT TO AUTHORIZE.—All bonds given as security for costs shall authorize judgment against all of the obligors of the said bonds, jointly and severally, for such costs, to be entered in the final judgment of the case or special proceedings.

Bonds to authorize judgment for costs.

SEC. 565. SECURITY NOT REQUIRED FROM GOVERNMENT.—No security for costs shall be required of the United States, the Panama Canal, or any of its dependencies or from the public administrator of the Panama Canal.

Security not required from Government.

SEC. 566. SECURITY BY INTERVENOR OR COUNTERCLAIMANT.—The provisions of this subchapter, relating to security for costs, shall apply to an intervenor; and shall also apply to a defendant who seeks a judgment against the plaintiff on a counterclaim, after the defendant shall have discontinued his suit.

Of intervenor or counterclaimant.

SEC. 567. COSTS SECURED BY ATTACHMENT OR OTHER BOND.—When the costs are secured by the provisions of an attachment or other bond, filed by the party required to give satisfactory security for costs, no further security shall be required.

Security by attachment or other bond.

CHAPTER 18.—WRITS OF REVIEW, MANDATE, AND PROHIBITION

WRITS OF REVIEW, MANDATE, AND PROHIBITION.

WRIT OF REVIEW

SEC. 569. WRIT OF REVIEW DEFINED.—The writ of certiorari may be denominated the writ of review.

"Writ of review," defined.

SEC. 570. WHEN GRANTED BY DISTRICT COURT.—A writ of review may be granted by the district court, when an inferior tribunal, board, or officer, exercising judicial functions, has exceeded the jurisdiction of such tribunal, board, or officer, and there is no appeal, nor, in the judgment of the court, any plain, speedy, and adequate remedy.

When granted.

SEC. 571. APPLICATION FOR WRIT, HOW MADE.—The application must be made on the verified petition of the party beneficially interested, and the court may require a notice of the application to be given to the adverse party, or may grant an order to show cause why it should not be allowed, or may grant the writ without notice.

Application for.

SEC. 572. THE WRIT TO BE DIRECTED TO THE INFERIOR TRIBUNAL, ETC.—The writ may be directed to the inferior tribunal, board, or officer, or to any other person having the custody of the record or proceedings to be certified. When directed to a tribunal, the clerk, if there be one, must return the writ with the transcript required.

Direction of.

SEC. 573. CONTENTS OF THE WRIT.—The writ of review must command the party to whom it is directed to certify fully to the district court, at a specified time and place, a transcript of the record and proceedings (describing or referring to them with convenient certainty), that the same may be reviewed by the court; and requiring the party, in the meantime, to desist from further proceedings in the matter to be reviewed.

Stay of proceedings. SEC. 574. PROCEEDINGS IN INTERIOR COURT MAY BE STAYED, OR NOT.—If a stay of proceedings be not intended, the words requiring the stay must be omitted from the writ; these words may be inserted or omitted, in the sound discretion of the court, but if omitted, the power of the inferior court or officer is not suspended or the proceedings stayed.

Service. SEC. 575. SERVICE OF THE WRIT.—The writ must be served in the same manner as a summons in civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by the court.

Extent of review under. SEC. 576. THE REVIEW UNDER THE WRIT, EXTENT OF.—The review upon this writ can not be extended further than to determine whether the inferior tribunal, board, or officer has regularly pursued the authority of such tribunal, board, or officer.

Perfection of return of. SEC. 577. A DEFECTIVE RETURN OF THE WRIT MAY BE PERFECTED; HEARING AND JUDGMENT.—If the return of the writ be defective, the court may order a further return to be made. When a full return has been made, the court must hear the parties, or such of them as may attend for that purpose, and may thereupon give judgment, either affirming or annulling, or modifying the proceedings below.

Hearing and judgment. SEC. 578. COPY OF THE JUDGMENT MUST BE SENT TO THE INTERIOR TRIBUNAL.—A copy of the judgment, signed by the clerk, must be transmitted to the inferior tribunal, board, or officer having the custody of the record or proceeding certified up.

Copy of judgment to inferior court. SEC. 579. JUDGMENT-ROLLS.—A copy of the judgment, signed by the clerk, entered upon or attached to the writ and return, constitute the judgment-roll.

Writ of mandate.

WRIT OF MANDATE

Mandamus denominated as. SEC. 580. MANDATE DEFINED.—The writ of mandamus may be denominated the writ of mandate.

Purpose for which issued. SEC. 581. WHEN ISSUED BY DISTRICT COURT.—It may be issued by the district court, to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person, to compel the performance of an act which the law specially enjoins, as a duty resulting from an office, trust, or station; or to compel the admission of a party to the use and enjoyment of a right or office to which he is entitled, and from which he is unlawfully precluded by such inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person.

When to issue. SEC. 582. WRIT, WHEN AND UPON WHAT TO ISSUE.—The writ must be issued in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy, in the ordinary course of law. It must be issued upon the verified petition of the party beneficially interested.

Alternative or peremptory. SEC. 583. WRIT MAY BE EITHER ALTERNATIVE OR PEREMPTORY; SUBSTANCE.—The writ may be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must command the party to whom it is directed immediately after the receipt of the writ, or at some other specified time, to do the act required to be performed, or to show cause before the court at a specified time and place why he has not done so. The peremptory writ must be in a similar form, except that the words requiring the party to show cause why he has not done as commanded must be omitted and a return-day inserted.

Effect of notice. SEC. 584. IF THE APPLICATION BE WITHOUT NOTICE, THE ALTERNATIVE WRIT MAY ISSUE, OTHERWISE, THE PEREMPTORY; NOTICE AND DEFAULT.—When the application to the court is made without notice to the adverse party, and the writ is allowed, the alternative must be first issued; but if the application is upon due notice and the writ is allowed, the peremptory may be issued in the first instance. With the alternative writ and also with any notice of an intention to apply for the writ, there must be served on each person against whom the writ is sought a copy of the petition. The notice of the application, when given, must be at least ten days. The writ can not be granted by default. The case must be heard by the court, whether the adverse party appears or not.

SEC. 585. THE ADVERSE PARTY MAY ANSWER UNDER OATH.—On the return of the alternative, or the day on which the application for the writ is noticed, the party on whom the writ or notice has been served may answer the petition under oath, in the same manner as an answer to a complaint in a civil action.

SEC. 586. APPLICANT NOT PRECLUDED BY ANSWER FROM OBJECTION TO ITS SUFFICIENCY.—On the trial, the applicant is not precluded by the answer from any valid objection to its sufficiency, and may countervail it by proof either in direct denial or by way of avoidance.

SEC. 587. HEARINGS BY COURT.—If no answer be made, the case must be heard on the papers of the applicant.

SEC. 588. RECOVERY OF DAMAGES BY APPLICANT.—If judgment be given for the applicant, he may recover the damages which he has sustained as may be determined by the court or referee, upon a reference to be ordered, together with costs; and for such damages and costs an execution may issue; and a peremptory mandate must also be awarded without delay.

SEC. 589. SERVICE OF THE WRIT.—The writ must be served in the same manner as a summons in a civil action, except when otherwise expressly directed by order of the court. Service upon a majority of the members of any board or body, is service upon the board or body, whether at the time of the service the board or body was in session or not.

SEC. 590. PENALTY FOR DISOBEDIENCE TO THE WRIT.—When a peremptory mandate has been issued and directed to any inferior tribunal, corporation, board, or person, if it appear to the court that any member of such tribunal, corporation, or board, or such person upon whom the writ has been personally served, has, without just excuse, refused or neglected to obey the same, the court may, upon motion, impose a fine not exceeding $1,000. In case of persistence in a refusal of obedience, the court may order the party to be imprisoned until the writ is obeyed, and may make any orders necessary and proper for the complete enforcement of the writ.

WRIT OF PROHIBITION

SEC. 591. WRIT OF PROHIBITION DEFINED.—The writ of prohibition is the counterpart of the writ of mandate. It arrests the proceedings of any tribunal, corporation, board, or person exercising judicial functions, when such proceedings are without or in excess of the jurisdiction of such tribunal, corporation, board, or person.

SEC. 592. WHERE AND WHEN WRIT ISSUED.—It may be issued by the district court, to an inferior tribunal or to a corporation, board, or person, in all cases where there is not a plain, speedy, and adequate remedy in the ordinary course of law. It is issued upon the verified petition of the person beneficially interested.

SEC. 593. WRIT MUST BE EITHER ALTERNATIVE OR PEREMPTORY; FORM OF.—The writ must be either alternative or peremptory. The alternative writ must command the party to whom it is directed to desist or refrain from further proceedings in the action or matter specified therein, until the further order of the district court, and to show

SEC. 596. CERTAIN PRECEDING CHAPTERS APPLICABLE.—Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the provisions of chapters 4 to 16 of this code are applicable to and constitute the rules of practice in the proceedings mentioned in this chapter.

SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS.

CHAPTER 19.—SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS

Confession of judgment without action.

CONFESSION OF JUDGMENT WITHOUT ACTION

For debt due or contingent liability.

SEC. 597. JUDGMENT MAY BE CONFESSED FOR DEBT DUE OR CONTINGENT LIABILITY.—A judgment by confession may be entered without action, either for money due or to become due, or to secure any person against contingent liability on behalf of the defendant, or both, in the manner prescribed by this subchapter. Such judgment may be entered in any court having jurisdiction for like amounts.

Statement in writing required.

SEC. 598. STATEMENT IN WRITING, AND FORM THEREOF.—A statement in writing must be made, signed by the defendant and verified by his oath, to the following effect:

Contents.

1. It must authorize the entry of judgment for a specified sum;
2. If it be for money due, or to become due, it must state concisely the facts out of which it arose, and show that the sum confessed therefor is justly due, or to become due;
3. If it be for the purpose of securing the plaintiff against a contingent liability, it must state concisely the facts constituting the liability, and show that the sum confessed therefor does not exceed the same.

Filing of statement and entering judgment, district court.

SEC. 599. FILING STATEMENT AND ENTERING JUDGMENT.—The statement must be filed with the clerk of the district court if the judgment is to be entered in that court, who must indorse upon it, and enter of record, a judgment of such court for the amount confessed, with $10 costs. The statement and affidavit, with the judgment indorsed, thereupon becomes the judgment-roll.

Magistrate's court.

SEC. 600. HOW, IN MAGISTRATES' COURTS.—In a magistrate's court, where the court has authority to enter the judgment, the statement may be filed with the magistrate, who must thereupon enter in his docket a judgment of his court for the amount confessed, with $3 costs.

Submitting controversy without action.

SUBMITTING A CONTROVERSY WITHOUT ACTION

By parties to question.

SEC. 601. CONTROVERSY, HOW SUBMITTED WITHOUT ACTION.—Parties to a question in difference, which might be the subject of a civil action, may, without action, agree upon a case containing the facts upon which the controversy depends, and present a submission of the same to any court which would have jurisdiction if an action had been brought; but it must appear, by affidavit, that the controversy is real and the proceedings in good faith, to determine the rights of the parties. The court must thereupon hear and determine the case, and render judgment thereon, as if an action were depending.

Affidavit that controversy is real.

SEC. 602. JUDGMENT ON, AS IN OTHER CASES, BUT WITHOUT COSTS PRIOR TO NOTICE OF TRIAL.—Judgment must be entered as in other cases, but without costs for any proceeding prior to the trial. The case, the submission, and a copy of the judgment constitute the judgment roll.

Judgment on.

SEC. 603. JUDGMENT MAY BE ENFORCED OR APPEALED FROM AS IN AN ACTION.—The judgment may be enforced in the same manner as if it had been rendered in an action, and is in the same manner subject to appeal.

Enforcement of, and appeal from.

DISCHARGE OF PERSONS IMPRISONED ON CIVIL PROCESS

Persons imprisoned on civil process.

SEC. 604. PERSONS CONFINED MAY BE DISCHARGED.—Any person confined in jail, on an execution issued on a judgment rendered in a civil action, must be discharged therefrom upon the conditions in this subchapter specified.

Discharge of.

SEC. 605. NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR DISCHARGE FROM PRISON.—Such person must cause a notice in writing to be given to the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, that at a certain time and place he will apply to the judge of the district court for the purpose of obtaining a discharge from his imprisonment.

Notice of application for.

SEC. 606. SERVICE OF NOTICE.—Such notice must be served upon the plaintiff, his agent, or attorney, one day at least before the hearing of the application.

Service of.

SEC. 607. EXAMINATION BEFORE JUDGE.—At the time and place specified in the notice, such person must be taken before such judge, who must examine him under oath concerning his estate and property and effects, and the disposal thereof, and his ability to pay the judgment for which he is committed; and such judge may also hear any other legal and pertinent evidence that may be produced by the debtor or the creditor.

Examination before judge.

SEC. 608. INTERROGATORIES MAY BE IN WRITING.—The plaintiff in the action may, upon such examination, propose to the prisoner any interrogatories pertinent to the inquiry, and they must, if required by him, be proposed and answered in writing, and the answer must be signed and sworn to by the prisoner.

Interrogatories.

SEC. 609. OATH TO BE ADMINISTERED.—If, upon the examination, the judge is satisfied that the prisoner is entitled to his discharge, he must administer to him the following oath, to wit:

Oath.

“I, _____, do solemnly swear that I have not any estate, real or personal, to the amount of $50, except such as is by law exempted from being taken in execution; and that I have not any other estate now conveyed or concealed, or in any way disposed of, with design to secure the same to my use, or to hinder, delay, or defraud my creditors, so help me God.”

SEC. 610. ORDER OF DISCHARGE.—After administering the oath, the judge must issue an order that the prisoner be discharged from custody, and the officer, upon the service of such order, must discharge the prisoner forthwith, if he be imprisoned for no other cause.

Order of discharge.

SEC. 611. IF NOT DISCHARGED, PRISONER MAY AGAIN APPLY, WHEN.—If such judge does not discharge the prisoner, he may apply for his discharge at the end of every succeeding ten days, in the same manner as above provided, and the same proceedings must thereupon be had.

Additional applications for.

Discharge final.

SEC. 612. DISCHARGE FINAL.—The prisoner, after being so discharged, is forever exempted from arrest or imprisonment for the same debt, unless he be convicted of having willfully sworn falsely upon his examination before the judge, or in taking the oath before prescribed.

Judgment to remain in force.

SEC. 613. JUDGMENT REMAINS IN FORCE.—The judgment against any prisoner who is discharged remains in full force against any estate which may then or at any time afterward belong to him, and the plaintiff may take out a new execution against the goods and estate of the prisoner, in like manner as if he had never been committed.

Discharge ordered by plaintiff.

SEC. 614. PLAINTIFF MAY ORDER DISCHARGE OF PRISONER, WHO SHALL NOT THEREAFTER BE LIABLE TO IMPRISONMENT FOR THE SAME CAUSE OF ACTION.—The plaintiff in the action may at any time order the prisoner to be discharged, and he is not thereafter liable to imprisonment for the same cause of action.

Plaintiff to advance funds for support of prisoner.

SEC. 615. PLAINTIFF TO ADVANCE FUNDS FOR SUPPORT OF PRISONER.—Whenever a person is committed to jail on an execution issued on a judgment recovered in a civil action, the creditor, his agent, or attorney must advance to the jailer, on such commitment, sufficient money for the support of the prisoner for one week, and must make the like advance for every successive week of his imprisonment; and in case of failure to do so, the jailer must forthwith discharge such prisoner from custody, and such discharge has the same effect as if made by order of the creditor.

Magistrates' courts to have exclusive original jurisdiction of all actions for the forcible entry and detainer of real estate, see section 7 of the Panama Canal Act.

"Forcible entry," defined.

SEC. 616. FORCIBLE ENTRY DEFINED.—Every person is guilty of a forcible entry who either—

1. By breaking open doors, windows, or other parts of a house, or by any kind of violence or circumstance of terror enters upon or into any real property; or

2. Who, after entering peaceably upon real property, turns out by force, threats, or menacing conduct, the party in possession.

"Forcible detainer."

SEC. 617. FORCIBLE DETAINER DEFINED.—Every person is guilty of a forcible detainer who either—

1. By force, or by menaces and threats of violence, unlawfully holds and keeps the possession of any real property, whether the same was acquired peaceably or otherwise; or

2. Who, in the nighttime, or during the absence of the occupant of any lands, unlawfully enters upon real property, and who, after demand made for the surrender thereof, for the period of five days, refuses to surrender the same to such former occupant.

The occupant of real property, within the meaning of this subdivision, is one who, within five days preceding such unlawful entry, was in the peaceable and undisturbed possession of such lands.

"Unlawful detainer."

SEC. 618. UNLAWFUL DETAINER DEFINED.—A tenant of real property, for a term less than life, is guilty of unlawful detainer:

By holding after termination of lease.

1. When he continues in possession, in person or by subtenant, of the property, or any part thereof, after the expiration of the term for which it is let to him, without the permission of his landlord, or the successor in estate of his landlord, if any there be; but in case of a tenancy at will it must first be terminated by notice, as prescribed in the Civil Code.

2. When he continues in possession, in person or by subtenant, without the permission of his landlord, or the successor in estate of his landlord, if any there be, after default in the payment of rent, pursuant to the lease or agreement under which the property is held, and three days' notice, in writing, requiring its payment stating the amount which is due, or possession of the property, shall have been served upon him and if there is a subtenant in actual occupation of the premises, also upon such subtenant.

Such notice may be served at any time within one year after the rent becomes due.

3. When he continues in possession, in person or by subtenant, after a neglect or failure to perform other conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, including any covenant not to assign or sublet, than the one for the payment of rent, and three days' notice, in writing, requiring the performance of such conditions or covenants, or the possession of the property, shall have been served upon him, and if there is a subtenant in actual occupation of the premises, also, upon such subtenant. Within three days after the service of the notice, the tenant, or any subtenant in actual occupation of the premises, or any mortgagee of the term, or other person interested in its continuance, may perform the conditions or covenants of the lease or pay the stipulated rent, as the case may be, and thereby save the lease from forfeiture: Provided, That if the conditions and covenants of the lease, violated by the lessee, cannot afterward be performed, then no notice, as last prescribed herein, need be given to said lessee or his subtenant, demanding the performance of the violated conditions or covenants of the lease.

A tenant may take proceedings, similar to those prescribed in this subchapter, to obtain possession of the premises let to a subtenant, in case of his unlawful detention of the premises underlet to him.

4. Any tenant or subtenant assigning or subletting or committing waste upon the demised premises, contrary to the conditions or covenants of his lease, thereby terminates the lease, and the landlord, or his successor in estate, shall upon service of three days' notice to quit upon the person or persons in possession, be entitled to restitution of possession of such demised premises under the provisions of this subchapter.

SEC. 619. SERVICE OF NOTICE.—The notices required by the preceding section may be served, either:

1. By delivering a copy to the tenant personally; or
2. If he be absent from his place of residence, and from his usual place of business, by leaving a copy with some person of suitable age and discretion at either place, and sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at his place of residence; or
3. If such place of residence and business can not be ascertained, or a person of suitable age or discretion there can not be found, then by affixing a copy in a conspicuous place on the property, and also delivering a copy to a person there residing, if such person can be found; and also sending a copy through the mail addressed to the tenant at the place where the property is situated. Service upon a subtenant may be made in the same manner.

SEC. 620. PARTIES DEFENDANT.—No person other than the tenant of the premises and subtenant, if there be one, in the actual occupation of the premises when the complaint is filed, need be made parties defendant in the proceeding, nor shall any proceeding abate, nor the plaintiff be nonsuited for the nonjoinder of any person who might have been made party defendant, but when it appears that any of the parties served with process, or appearing in the proceeding, are guilty of the offense charged, judgment must be rendered against him. In case a defendant has become a subtenant of the premises in controversy after the service of the notice provided for by part two of section 618 upon the tenant of the premises, the fact that such notice was not served on each subtenant shall constitute no defense to the action.

Married woman.

In case a married woman be a tenant, or a subtenant, her coverture shall constitute no defense; but in case her husband be not joined, or unless she be doing business as a sole trader, an execution issued upon a personal judgment against her can only be enforced against property on the premises at the commencement of the action.

Persons entering under tenant.

All persons who enter the premises under the tenant, after the commencement of the suit, shall be bound by the judgment, the same as if he or they had been made party to the action.

Ante, pp. 919-923, to govern.

SEC. 621. PARTIES GENERALLY.—Except as provided in the preceding section, the provisions of sections 86 to 110, relating to parties to civil actions, are applicable to this proceeding.

Verification of complaint.

SEC. 622. COMPLAINT MUST BE VERIFIED.—The plaintiff in his complaint, which shall be verified, must set forth the facts on which he seeks to recover, and describe the premises with reasonable certainty, and may set forth therein any circumstances of fraud, force, or violence, which may have accompanied the alleged forcible entry or forcible or unlawful detainer, and claim damages therefor. In case the unlawful detainer charged is after default in the payment of rent, the complaint must state the amount of such rent. Upon filing the complaint, a summons must be issued thereon.

Summons, form and service.

SEC. 623. SUMMONS, FORM AND SERVICE OF.—The summons must require the defendant to appear and answer within three days after the service of the summons upon him, and must notify him that if he fails to so appear and answer, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint. In all other respects the summons, or any alias summons in such proceedings, must be issued and served and returned in the same manner as summons in a civil action.

Arrest.

SEC. 624. ARREST.—If the complaint presented establishes, to the satisfaction of the magistrate, fraud, force, or violence, in the entry or detainer, and that the possession held is unlawful, he may make an order for the arrest of the defendant.

Judgment by default.

SEC. 625. JUDGMENT BY DEFAULT.—If, at the time appointed, the defendant do not appear and defend, the court must enter his default and render judgment in favor of the plaintiff as prayed for in the complaint.

Appearance of defendant.

SEC. 626. DEFENDANT MAY APPEAR, AND SO FORTH.—On or before the day fixed for his appearance, the defendant may appear and answer or demur.

Proof of charge of forcible entry or detainer.

SEC. 627. SHOWING REQUIRED OF PLAINTIFF IN FORCIBLE ENTRY OR DETAINER; OF DEFENDANT.—On the trial of any proceeding for any forcible entry or forcible detainer, the plaintiff shall only be required to show, in addition to the forcible entry or forcible detainer complained of, that he was peaceably in the actual possession at the time of the forcible entry, or was entitled to the possession at the time of the forcible detainer. The defendant may show in his defense that he or his ancestors, or those whose interest in such premises he claims, have been in the quiet possession thereof for the space of one whole year together next before the commencement of the proceedings, and that his interest therein is not then ended or determined; and such showing is a bar to the proceedings.

Defense.

SEC. 628. COMPLAINT MUST BE AMENDED IN CERTAIN CASES; CONTINUANCE.—When, upon the trial of any proceeding under this subchapter, it appears from the evidence that the defendant has been guilty of either a forcible entry or a forcible or unlawful detainer, and other than the offense charged in the complaint, the magistrate must order that such complaint be forthwith amended to conform to such proofs; such amendment must be made without any imposition of terms. No continuance shall be permitted upon account of such amendment unless the defendant, by affidavit filed, shows to the satisfaction of the court good cause therefor.

Amendment of complaint; continuances.

SEC. 629. JUDGMENT, WHAT IT SHALL DECLARE.—If upon the trial the finding of the court be in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, judgment shall be entered for the restitution of the premises; and if the proceedings be for an unlawful detainer after neglect or failure to perform the conditions or covenants of the lease or agreement under which the property is held, or after default in the payment of rent, the judgment shall also declare the forfeiture of such lease or agreement.

Judgment, declaration of.

ASSESSMENT OF DAMAGES.—The court shall also assess the damages occasioned to the plaintiff by any forcible entry, or by any forcible or unlawful detainer, alleged in the complaint and proved on the trial, and find the amount of any rent due, if the alleged unlawful detainer be after default in the payment of rent. Judgment against the defendant guilty of the forcible entry, or forcible or unlawful detainer, may be entered in the discretion of the court either for the amount of the damages and rent found due, or for three times the amount so found.

Assessment of damages.

EXECUTION.—When the proceeding is for an unlawful detainer after default in the payment of rent, and the lease or agreement under which the rent is payable has not by its terms expired, execution upon the judgment shall not be issued until the expiration of five days after the entry of the judgment, within which time the tenant, or any subtenant, or any mortgagee of the term, or any other party interested in its continuance, may pay into court, for the landlord, the amount found due as rent, with interest thereon, and the amount of the damages found by the court for the unlawful detainer, and the costs of the proceedings, and thereupon the judgment shall be satisfied and the tenant be restored to his estate.

Execution.

SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT.—But if payment as here provided be not made within five days, the judgment may be enforced for its full amount, and for the possession of the premises. In all other cases the judgment may be enforced immediately.

Satisfaction of judgment.

SEC. 630. EFFECT OF AN APPEAL UPON THE JUDGMENT.—An appeal taken by the defendant shall not stay proceedings upon the judgment unless the magistrate before whom the same was rendered so directs.

Effect of appeal.

SEC. 631. RULES OF PRACTICE.—Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter the provisions of chapters 4 to 16 of this code are applicable to, and constitute the rules of practice in the proceedings mentioned in this subchapter.

Rules of practice. Anie, pp. 916-998, to govern.

SEC. 632. APPEALS, HOW TAKEN, AND SO FORTH.—The provisions of sections 491 to 501 of this code, relative to appeals, except in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this subchapter, apply to the proceedings mentioned in this subchapter.

Taking of appeal.

SEC. 633. RELIEF AGAINST FORFEITURE OF LEASE.—The court may relieve a tenant against a forfeiture of a lease, and restore him to his former estate, in case of hardship, where application for such Relief against forfeiture of lease.

relief is made within thirty days after the forfeiture is declared by the judgment of the court, as provided in section 629. The application may be made by a tenant or subtenant, or a mortgagee of the term, or any person interested in the continuance of the term. It must be made upon petition, setting forth the facts upon which the relief is sought, and be verified by the applicant. Notice of the application, with a copy of the petition, must be served on the plaintiff in the judgment, who may appear and contest the application. In no case shall the application be granted except on condition that full payment of rent due, or full performance of conditions or covenants stipulated, so far as the same is practicable, be made.

CONTEMPTS.

CHAPTER 20.—CONTEMPTS

Summary punishment in certain cases.

SEC. 634. WHAT CONTEMPT OF COURT MAY BE PUNISHED SUMMARILY.—A person guilty of misbehavior in the presence of or so near a court, judge, or magistrate as to obstruct the administration of justice, including the refusal of a person present in court to be sworn as a witness or to answer as a witness when lawfully required, shall be guilty of contempt, which the court may punish summarily, by imprisonment in jail not exceeding ten days, or by fine not exceeding $100, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Order adjudging guilt.

SEC. 635. ORDER ADJUDGING GUILT UNDER PRECEDING SECTION.—When a contempt under section 634 is committed, an order must be made, reciting the facts as occurring in such presence or proximity, adjudging that the person proceeded against is thereby guilty of a contempt, and that he be punished as therein prescribed.

Further contempts.

SEC. 636. WHAT OTHER ACTS ARE CONTEMPTS OF COURT.—A person guilty of any of the following acts may be punished as for contempt:

1. Disobedience of or resistance to a lawful writ, process, order, judgment, or command of the district or a magistrate's court, or injunction granted by the district court or judge;
2. Misbehavior of an officer of a court in the performance of his official duties, or in his official transactions;
3. A failure to obey a subpoena duly served;
4. The rescue, or attempted rescue, of a person or property in the custody of an officer by virtue of an order or process of a court held by him.

Affidavit of facts constituting.

SEC. 637. AFFIDAVIT OF FACTS CONSTITUTING CONTEMPT.—When a contempt under section 636 is committed, an affidavit shall be presented to the court, judge, or magistrate of the facts constituting the contempt.

Warrant of attachment may issue.

SEC. 638. A WARRANT OF ATTACHMENT MAY ISSUE, OR A NOTICE TO SHOW CAUSE.—When a contempt under section 636 is committed, a warrant of attachment may be issued to bring the person charged to answer, or, without a previous arrest, a warrant of commitment may, upon notice, or upon an order to show cause, be granted; and no warrant of commitment can be issued without such previous attachment to answer, or such notice or order to show cause.

Notice to show cause.

Bail, as matter of right.

SEC. 639. BAIL MAY BE GIVEN BY A PERSON ARRESTED UNDER SUCH WARRANT.—Whenever a warrant of attachment is issued, pursuant to this chapter, the court, judge, or magistrate must direct, by an indorsement on such warrant, that the person charged may be let to bail for his appearance, in an amount to be specified in such indorsement.

Arrest and detention by marshal, etc.

SEC. 640. MARSHAL OR CONSTABLE MUST, UPON EXECUTING THE WARRANT, ARREST AND DETAIN THE PERSON UNTIL DISCHARGED.—Upon executing the warrant of attachment, the marshal or constable must keep the person in custody, bring him before the court, judge, or magistrate and detain him until an order be made in the premises, unless the person arrested entitle himself to be discharged, as provided in section 641.

SEC. 641. BAIL BOND, FORM AND CONDITIONS OF.—When a direction to let the person arrested to bail is contained in the warrant of attachment, or indorsed thereon, he must be discharged from the arrest, upon executing and delivering to the officer, at any time before the return day of the warrant, a written undertaking, with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that the person arrested will appear on the return of the warrant and abide the order of the court, judge, or magistrate thereupon; or they will pay as may be directed, the sum specified in the warrant.

Bail bond.

SEC. 642. OFFICER MUST RETURN WARRANT AND UNDERTAKING, IF ANY.—The officer must return the warrant of arrest and undertaking, if any, received by him from the person arrested, by the return day specified therein.

Return by officer.

SEC. 643. HEARING.—When the person arrested has been brought up or appeared, the court, judge, or magistrate must proceed to investigate the charge, and must hear any answer which the person arrested may make to the same, and may examine witnesses for or against him, for which an adjournment may be had from time to time, if necessary.

Hearing.

SEC. 644. JUDGMENT AND PUNISHMENT, IF GUILTY.—The court shall determine whether the accused is guilty of contempt, and, if he be adjudged guilty, he may be fined not exceeding $100, or imprisoned not more than ten days, or both. If the contempt consists in the violation of an injunction, the person guilty of such contempt may also be ordered to make complete restitution to the party injured by such violation.

Judgment, punishment.

SEC. 645. IF THE CONTEMPT IS THE OMISSION TO PERFORM ANY ACT, THE PERSON MAY BE IMPRISONED UNTIL PERFORMANCE.—When the contempt consists in the omission to perform an act which is yet in the power of the person to perform, he may be imprisoned until he have<sup>1</sup> performed it, and in that case the act must be specified in the warrant of commitment.

Imprisonment to enforce performance of act.

SEC. 646. IF A PARTY FAIL TO APPEAR, PROCEEDINGS.—When the warrant of arrest has been returned served, if the person arrested do not appear on the return-day, the court, judge, or magistrate may issue another warrant of arrest, or may order the undertaking to be prosecuted, or both. If the undertaking be prosecuted, the measure of damages in the action is the extent of the loss or injury sustained by the aggrieved party by reason of the misconduct for which the warrant was issued, and the costs of the proceedings.

Failure of defendant to appear.

SEC. 647. ILLNESS SUFFICIENT CAUSE FOR NONAPPEARANCE OF PARTY ARRESTED; CONFINEMENT UNDER ARRESTS FOR CONTEMPT.—Whenever, by the provisions of this chapter, an officer is required to keep a person arrested on a warrant of attachment in custody, and to bring him before a court, judge, or magistrate, the inability, from illness or otherwise, of the person to attend, is a sufficient excuse for not bringing him up; and the officer must not confine a person arrested upon the warrant in jail, or otherwise restrain him of personal liberty, except so far as may be necessary to secure his personal attendance.

Illness sufficient excuse. Confinement under arrests for contempt.

CHAPTER 21.—ESCHEAT OF PROPERTY

ESCHEAT OF PROPERTY.

SEC. 648. WHAT PROPERTY ESCHEATS.—If an intestate decedent leaves no husband, wife, or kindred, and there are no heirs to take his estate or any portion thereof, under subdivision 8 of section 402

What property escheats.

Post, p. 1179.

<sup>1</sup> So in original.

of the Civil Code, or if any person dies leaving any property in his estate not disposed of by will, and there are no persons entitled to succeed thereto under the laws of the Canal Zone, the same shall escheat to the United States.

Action to determine right of United States to property.

SEC. 649. ACTION TO DETERMINE RIGHT OF UNITED STATES TO ESCHEATED PROPERTY.—Whenever the district attorney is informed that any estate has escheated or is about to escheat to the United States or that the property involved in any action or special proceeding has escheated or is about to escheat to the United States, he may commence an action on behalf of the United States to determine its rights to said property or may intervene on its behalf in any action or special proceeding affecting any such estate and contest the rights of any claimant or claimants thereto. Such action shall be commenced by filing a petition.

Description.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.—There shall be set forth in such petition a description of the property, the name of the person last possessed thereof, the name of the person, if any, claiming such property, or any portion thereof, and the facts and circumstances by virtue of which it is claimed the property has escheated.

Order requiring appearance of interested parties to issue.

ORDER REQUIRING INTERESTED PARTIES TO APPEAR.—Upon the filing of such petition, the court must make an order requiring all persons interested in the estate to appear and show cause, if any there be, within sixty days from the date of the order, why such estate should not vest in the United States. Notice of such order must be given by posting in three public places in the Canal Zone for four successive weeks prior to the date set for the hearing. Upon the giving of such notice the court shall have full and complete jurisdiction over the estate, the property, and the person of everyone having or claiming any interest in the said property, and shall have full and complete jurisdiction to hear and determine the issues therein, and render the appropriate judgment thereon.

Custody of property.

CUSTODY OF SUCH PROPERTY.—The property in such estates shall, in the discretion of the court, be sold in the manner provided in chapters 23 to 36 for the sale of property of a decedent's estate, and the proceeds deposited with the collector of the Panama Canal, to be held for a period of five years from the date of the judgment under section 650.

Joinder of parties and actions.

JOINDER OF PARTIES AND ACTIONS.—In any proceeding brought by the district attorney under this title any two or more causes of action may be joined in the same proceedings and in the same petition without being separately stated, and it shall be sufficient to allege in the petition that the decedent left no heirs to take the estate and the failure of the heirs to appear and set up their claims in any such proceeding, or in any proceeding for the administration of such estate, shall be sufficient proof upon which to base the judgment in any such proceeding or such decree of distribution.

Appearance, pleadings, and judgment.

SEC. 650. APPEARANCE, PLEADINGS, AND JUDGMENT.—All persons named in the petition may appear and answer, and traverse or deny the facts stated therein at any time before the time for answering expires, and any other person claiming an interest in such estate may appear and be made a defendant, by motion for that purpose in open court within the time allowed for answering, and if no such person appears and answers within the time, then judgment must be rendered that the United States is the owner of the property in such petition claimed;

Trial upon denial of title set up by United States.

But if any person appears and denies the title set up by the United States, or traverses any material fact set forth in the petition, the issue of fact must be tried as issues of fact are tried in civil actions.

If, after the issues are tried, it appears from the facts found or admitted that the United States has good title to the property in the petition mentioned, or any part thereof, judgment must be rendered that the United States is the owner and entitled to the possession thereof.

SEC. 651. CLAIM TO ESCHEATED PROPERTY.—Within five years after judgment in any proceeding had under this chapter, a person not a party or privy to such proceeding may file a petition in the district court, showing his claim or right to the property, or the proceeds thereof.

Claim to escheated property, by petition.

Said petition shall be verified, and, among other things, must state the full name and the place and date of birth of the decedent; whether or not such decedent was ever married, and if so, where, when, and to whom; how, when, and where such marriage, if any, was dissolved; whether or not said decedent was ever remarried, and, if so, where, when, and to whom; the full names and the dates of birth of lineal descendents and ascendants and of all other known heirs, and the names and places of residence of all who are then surviving; and such other information as may be required by the court. If for any reason the petitioner is unable to set forth any of the matters or things hereinabove required, he shall clearly state such reason in his petition.

Verification, contents, etc.

A copy of such petition must be served on the district attorney at least twenty days before the hearing of the petition, who must answer the same;

Service of.

And the court must thereupon try the issue as issues are tried in civil actions, and if it is determined that such person is entitled to the property, or the proceeds thereof, it must order the property, if it has not been sold, to be delivered to him, or if it has been sold and the proceeds paid to the Collector of the Panama Canal, then it must order the collector to pay the same.

Trial of issue.

All persons who fail to appear and file their petitions within the time limited are forever barred.

Limitation on action.

SEC. 652. PROCEEDS OF PROPERTY TO BE COVERED INTO TREASURY.—If no claim to the property or the proceeds thereof is filed within the time specified in the preceding section, the court may, on application of the district attorney, direct that the proceeds be covered into the Treasury of the United States as miscellaneous receipts.

Proceeds from escheated property covered into Treasury.

CHAPTER 22.—CHANGE OF NAMES

CHANGE OF NAMES.

SEC. 653. JURISDICTION.—Applications for change of names must be heard and determined by the district court.

Jurisdiction for.

SEC. 654. APPLICATION TO CHANGE NAME, MADE TO DISTRICT COURT.—All applications for change of names must be made to the division of the district court where the person whose name is proposed to be changed resides, by petition, signed by such person; and if such person is under twenty-one years of age, if a male, and under the age of eighteen years of age, if a female, by one of the parents, if living, or if both be dead, then by the guardian; and if there be no guardian, then by some near relative or friend.

Application.

Minor, through parent, etc.

The petition must specify the place of birth and residence of such person, his or her present name, the name proposed, and the reason for such change of name, and must, if the father of such person be not living, name, as far as known to the petitioner, the near relatives of such person, and their place of residence.

Contents of petition.

SEC. 655. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE; PUBLICATION OF ORDER; PROOF OF PUBLICATION.—Upon the filing of the said petition the court shall thereupon make an order reciting the filing of the application, the name of the person by whom it is filed and the name proposed, and

Order to show cause

Publication.

Proof thereof.

directing all persons interested in said matter to appear before the court, at a time and place specified, not less than four or more than eight weeks from the time of making such order, to show cause why the application for change of name should not be granted. A copy of the order to show cause shall be posted by the clerk of the court in three of the most public places in the division in which the court is held, for a period of four successive weeks. Proof must be made to the satisfaction of the court, of such posting, at the time of the hearing of the application.

ESTATES OF DECEDENTS.

CHAPTER 23.—JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT OVER ESTATES OF DECEDENTS

Jurisdiction of district court over.

SEC. 656. JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT OVER THE ESTATE, WHEN EXERCISED.—Wills must be proved, and letters testamentary or of administration granted—

1. In the division of the district court of which the decedent was a resident at the time of his death, in whatever place he may have died;

2. In the division in which the decedent may have died, leaving estate therein, he not being a resident of the Canal Zone;

3. In the division in which any part of the estate may be, the decedent having died out of the Canal Zone, and not resident thereof at the time of his death;

4. In the division in which any part of the estate may be, the decedent not being a resident of the Canal Zone, and not leaving estate in the division in which he died;

5. In all other cases, in the division where application for letters is first made:

Proviso. Probate matters handled by public administrator.

Provided, however, That all matters of probate handled by the public administrator may be conducted in the Balboa division, regardless of the residence of the decedent or the location of the estate.

Jurisdiction decided by application.

SEC. 657. WHEN JURISDICTION OF DISTRICT COURT OVER ESTATES DECIDED BY FIRST APPLICATION.—When the estate of the decedent is in more than one division, he having died out of the Canal Zone, and not having been a resident thereof at the time of his death, or being such nonresident, and dying within the Canal Zone, and not leaving estate in the division where he died, the division of the district court in which application is first made, for letters testamentary or of administration, has exclusive jurisdiction of the settlement of the estate.

PROBATE OF WILLS.

CHAPTER 24.—PROBATE OF WILLS

Petition, notice, and proof.

PETITION, NOTICE, AND PROOF

Custodian to deliver will to district court.

SEC. 658. CUSTODIAN OF WILL TO DELIVER SAME TO WHOM; PENALTY.—Every custodian of a will, within thirty days after receipt of information that the maker thereof is dead, must deliver the same to the division of the district court having jurisdiction of the estate, or to the executor named therein. A failure to comply with the provisions of this section makes the person failing responsible for all damages sustained by anyone injured thereby.

Penalty on failure.

Petition for probate.

SEC. 659. WHO MAY PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL.—Any executor, devisee, or legatee named in any will, or any other person interested in the estate, may, at any time after the death of the testator, petition the division of the court having jurisdiction to have the will proved, whether the same be in writing, in his possession or not, or is lost or destroyed, or beyond the jurisdiction of the Canal Zone, or a nuncupative will.

SEC. 660. WHAT PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILL MUST SHOW.— Contents.
A petition for the probate of a will must show:

1. The jurisdictional facts;
2. Whether the person named as executor consents to act, or renounces his right to letters testamentary;
3. The names, ages, and residences of the heirs, legatees, and devisees of the decedent, so far as known to the petitioner;
4. The probable value and character of the property of the estate;
5. The name of the person for whom letters testamentary are prayed.

No defect of form or in the statement of jurisdictional facts actually existing, shall make void the probate of a will.

SEC. 661. WHEN EXECUTOR FORFEITS RIGHT TO LETTERS.—If the person named in a will as executor, for thirty days after he has knowledge of the death of the testator, and that he is named as executor, fails to petition the proper division of the court for the probate of the will, and that letters testamentary be issued to him, he may be held to have renounced his right to letters, and the court may appoint any other competent person administrator, unless good cause for delay is shown. Forfeiture of right to letters by executor.

SEC. 662. POSSESSION OF WILL BY THIRD PERSON; PRODUCTION OF.— Possession of will by third party.
If it is alleged in any petition that any will is in the possession of a third person, and the court is satisfied that the allegation is correct, an order must be issued and served upon the person having possession of the will, requiring him to produce it at a time named in the order. If he has possession of the will and neglects or refuses to produce it in obedience to the order, he may by warrant from the court be committed to jail, and be kept in close confinement until he produces it. Order for production to issue.

SEC. 663. NOTICE OF PETITION FOR PROBATE OF WILLS, HOW GIVEN.— Notice of petition.
When the petition is filed, and the will produced, the clerk of the court must set the petition for hearing by the court upon some day not less than ten nor more than thirty days from the production of the will. Notice of the hearing shall be given by such clerk by publishing the same in a newspaper of general circulation in the Canal Zone. If the notice is published in a weekly newspaper, it must appear therein on at least three different days of publication; and if in a newspaper published oftener than once a week, it shall be so published that there must be at least ten days from the first to the last day of publication, both the first and the last day being included.

SEC. 664. NOTIFICATION OF TIME FOR PROBATE OF WILL.—Copies of the notice of the time appointed for the probate of the will must be addressed to the heirs of the testator and the devisees and legatees named in the will at their places of residence, if known to the petitioner, and deposited in the post office, at least ten days before the hearing. If their places of residence be not known, the copies of notice may be addressed to them, and deposited in the post office at the place where the proceedings are pending. A copy of the same notice must in like manner be mailed to the person named as executor, if he be not the petitioner; also, to any person named as coexecutor not petitioning, if their places of residence be known. Proof of mailing the copies of the notice must be made at the hearing. Personal service of copies of the notice at least ten days before the day of hearing is equivalent to mailing. Notice of time for probate.

Production of wills and attendance of witnesses.

SEC. 665. ORDER TO ENFORCE PRODUCTION OF WILLS OR ATTENDANCE OF WITNESSES.—The judge of the district court may at any time make and issue all necessary orders and writs to enforce the production of wills and the attendance of witnesses.

Hearing proof of will.

SEC. 666. HEARING PROOF OF WILL AFTER PROOF OF SERVICE OF NOTICE.—At the time appointed for the hearing, or the time to which the hearing may have been postponed, the court, unless the parties appear, must require proof that the notice has been given, which being made, the court must hear testimony in proof of the will.

Contest of will.

SEC. 667. WHO MAY APPEAR AND CONTEST THE WILL.—Any person interested may appear and contest the will. Devisees, legatees, or heirs of an estate may contest the will through their guardians, or attorneys appointed by themselves or by the court for that purpose; but a contest made by an attorney appointed by the court does not bar a contest after probate by the party so represented, if commenced within the time provided in section 682; nor does the nonappointment of an attorney by the court of itself invalidate the probate of a will.

Probate, when uncontested.

SEC. 668. PROBATE OF WILLS NOT CONTESTED.—If no person appears to contest the probate of a will, the court may admit it to probate on the testimony of one of the subscribing witnesses only, if he testifies that the will was executed in all particulars as required by law, and that the testator was of sound mind at the time of its execution. If it appears at the time fixed for the hearing that none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the Canal Zone, but that the deposition of one of them can be taken elsewhere, the court may direct it to be taken, and may authorize a photographic copy of the will to be made and to be presented to such witnesses on his examination, who may be asked the same questions with respect to it and the handwriting of himself, the testator, and the other witness, as would be pertinent and competent if the original will were present. If neither the attendance in court nor the deposition of any of the subscribing witnesses can be procured, the court may admit the will to probate upon the testimony of any other witness as provided in section 675.

Clerk's record.

SEC. 669. CLERK'S RECORD.—When the court admits a will to probate it must be recorded in the minutes by the clerk, with the notation: "Admitted to probate (giving date)."

Olographic wills, proof of.

SEC. 670. OLOGRAPHIC WILLS.—An olographic will may be proved in the same manner that other private writings are proved.

Probate of, detained outside Zone.

SEC. 671. PROBATE OF WILL DETAINED OUTSIDE ZONE.—If it is alleged in any petition that any will of any person who at the time of his death was a resident of the Canal Zone is detained beyond the jurisdiction of the zone, in a court of any State or foreign country, and that such will can not be produced for probate in the zone, and the court is satisfied that the allegations are true, a copy of the will duly authenticated may be proved, allowed, and admitted to probate in the zone in lieu of the original will, and have the same force and effect as the original will. The same proof shall be required in order to admit the will to probate in the zone as would be required under the provisions of this chapter if the original will were produced.

Authenticated copy admissible.

The court may authorize a photographic copy of the will to be presented to the subscribing witness upon his examination in court, or by deposition as provided in section 668, and such witness may be asked the same questions with respect to it, and the handwriting of himself, the testator, and the other witness, as would be pertinent and competent if the original will were present.

Subscribing witnesses may testify upon photographic copy.

CONTESTING PROBATE OF WILL

Contesting probate.

SEC. 672. CONTESTANTS TO FILE GROUNDS OF CONTEST, AND PETITIONER TO REPLY.—If anyone appears to contest the will, he must file written grounds of opposition to the probate thereof, and serve a copy on the petitioner and other residents of the Canal Zone interested in the estate, any one or more of whom may demur thereto, upon any of the grounds of demurrer provided for in sections 135 to 139. If the demurrer is sustained, the court must allow the contestant a reasonable time, not exceeding ten days, within which to amend his written opposition. If the demurrer is overruled, the petitioner and others interested may jointly or separately answer the contestant's grounds, traversing, or otherwise obviating or avoiding the objections. Any issues of fact thus raised, involving:

Grounds of, to be filed.

Demurrer thereto.

Answer.

Issues of fact involved.

1. The competency of the decedent to make a last will and testament;

2. The freedom of the decedent at the time of the execution of the will from duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence;

3. The due execution and attestation of the will by the decedent or subscribing witnesses; or,

4. Any other questions substantially affecting the validity of the will;

Must, on request of either party in writing (filed at least ten days prior to the day set for the hearing), be tried by a jury. If no jury is demanded, the court must try and determine the issues joined. On the trial, the contestant is plaintiff and the petitioner is defendant.

Right to trial by jury.

SEC. 673. HOW JURY OBTAINED AND TRIAL HAD.—When a jury is demanded, the district court must impanel a jury to try the case, in the manner provided for impaneling trial juries in said court, and the trial must be conducted in accordance with the provisions of sections 279 to 303. A trial by the court must be conducted as provided in sections 304 to 307.

Impanelling, etc., of jury.

SEC. 674. VERDICT OF THE JURY; JUDGMENT.—The jury, after hearing the case, must return a special verdict upon the issues submitted to them by the court, upon which the judgment of the court must be rendered, either admitting the will to probate or rejecting it. In either case, the proofs of the subscribing witnesses must be reduced to writing. If the will is admitted to probate, the judgment, will, and proofs must be recorded.

Verdict and judgment thereon.

SEC. 675. WITNESSES, WHO AND HOW MANY TO BE EXAMINED; PROOF OF HANDWRITING ADMITTED, WHEN.—If the will is contested, all the subscribing witnesses who are present in the Canal Zone, and who are of sound mind, must be produced and examined; and the death, absence, or insanity of any of them must be satisfactorily shown to the court. If none of the subscribing witnesses reside in the Canal Zone at the time appointed for proving the will, the court may admit the testimony of other witnesses to prove the sanity of the testator and the execution of the will; and, as evidence of the execution, it may admit proof of the handwriting of the testator and of the subscribing witnesses, or any of them.

Witnesses, examination of, etc.

Proof of handwriting

SEC. 676. TESTIMONY REDUCED TO WRITING FOR FUTURE EVIDENCE.—The testimony of each witness, reduced to writing and signed by him, shall be good evidence in any subsequent contests concerning the validity of the will, or the sufficiency of the proof thereof, if the witness be dead, or has permanently removed from the Canal Zone.

Testimony reduced to writing as evidence.

SEC. 677. IF PROVED, CERTIFICATE TO BE ATTACHED.—If the court is satisfied, upon the proof taken, or from the facts found by the jury, that the will was duly executed, and that the testator at the Certificate to be attached to will, if proved.

time of its execution was of sound and disposing mind, and not acting under duress, menace, fraud, or undue influence, a certificate of the proof and the facts found, signed by the judge and attested by the seal of the court, must be attached to the will.

Filing and recording.

SEC. 678. WILL AND PROOF TO BE FILED AND RECORDED.—The will, and a certificate of the proof thereof, must be filed and recorded by the clerk, and the same, when so filed and recorded, shall constitute part of the record in the cause or proceeding. All testimony shall be filed by the clerk.

Foreign wills.

PROBATE OF FOREIGN WILLS

Probated in any State or foreign country to be allowed and recorded.

SEC. 679. WILLS PROVED IN STATES OR FOREIGN COUNTRIES.—All wills duly proved and allowed in any State of the United States, or in any foreign country or State, may be allowed and recorded in the division of the district court in which the testator shall have left any estate, or shall have been a resident, at the time of his death.

Probate of.

SEC. 680. PROBATE OF FOREIGN WILL.—When a copy of the will, and the order or decree admitting same to probate, duly authenticated, shall be produced by the executor, or by any other person interested in the will, with a petition for letters, the same must be filed, and the clerk of the court must appoint a time for the hearing; notice whereof must be given as hereinbefore provided for an original petition for the probate of a will.

Hearing proofs of.

SEC. 681. HEARING PROOFS OF PROBATE OF FOREIGN WILL.—If, on the hearing, it appears upon the face of the record that the will has been proved, allowed, and admitted to probate in any State of the United States, or in any foreign country, and that it was executed according to the law of the place in which the same was made, or in which the testator was at the time domiciled, or in conformity with the laws of the Canal Zone, it must be admitted to probate, and have the same force and effect as a will first admitted to probate in the zone, and letters testamentary or of administration issued thereon.
