AN ACT

April 13, 1934. [H.R. 6525.] [Public, No. 159.]

To amend the Act known as the "Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930", approved June 10, 1930.

Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act amendments. Vol. 46, p. 531. U.S.C., Supp. VII, p. 70.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Act known as the "Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930", approved June 10, 1930, be, and hereby is, amended as hereinafter set forth:

That subsection 6 of section 1 of the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 1930, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Terms defined.

"Dealer."

Exceptions.

"(6) The term 'dealer' means any person engaged in the business of buying or selling in carloads any perishable agricultural commodity in interstate or foreign commerce, except that (A) no producer shall be considered as a 'dealer' in respect of sales of any such commodity of his own raising; (B) no person buying any such commodity solely for sale at retail shall be considered as a 'dealer' in respect of any such commodity in any calendar year until his purchases of such commodity in carloads in such year are in excess of twenty; and (C) no person buying any such commodity for canning and/or processing within the State where grown shall be considered a 'dealer' whether or not the canned or processed product is to be shipped in interstate or foreign commerce. Any person not considered as a 'dealer' under clauses (A), (B), and (C) may elect to secure a license under the provisions of section 3, and in such case and while the license is in effect such person shall be considered as a 'dealer.' As used in this paragraph, the term 'in carloads' includes wholesale or jobbing quantities as defined for any such commodity by the Secretary;"

Canners or processors buying commodity within State where grown.

Licensing of persons within, exceptions.

"In carloads."
