Vol. 44, p. 1427; U.S.C., Supp. VII, p. 790.

Medical services. Suspension of payments, injured employee refusing treatment.

Compensation for disability.

Permanent partial disability.

Percentage of average weekly wages in addition to temporary total disability compensation.

Schedule.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That subdivision

(a) of section 7 of the Longshoremen's and Harbor Workers' Compensation Act, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new sentence: "If at any time during such period the employee unreasonably refuses to submit to medical or surgical treatment, the deputy commissioner may, by order, suspend the payment of further compensation during such time as such refusal continues, and no compensation shall be paid at any time during the period of such suspension, unless the circumstances justified the refusal."

SEC. 2. So much of subdivision (c) of section 8 of such Act, as amended, as precedes paragraph (13) thereof is amended to read as follows:

"(c) Permanent partial disability: In case of disability partial in character but permanent in quality, the compensation shall be 66 2/3 per centum of the average weekly wages, which shall be in addition to compensation for temporary total disability paid in accordance with subdivision (b) of this section, and shall be paid to the employee, as follows:

- "(1) Arm lost, two hundred and eighty weeks' compensation.
- "(2) Leg lost, two hundred and forty-eight weeks' compensation.
- "(3) Hand lost, two hundred and twelve weeks' compensation.
- "(4) Foot lost, one hundred and seventy-three weeks' compensation.
- "(5) Eye lost, one hundred and forty weeks' compensation.
- "(6) Thumb lost, fifty-one weeks' compensation.
- "(7) First finger lost, twenty-eight weeks' compensation.
- "(8) Great toe lost, twenty-six weeks' compensation.
- "(9) Second finger lost, eighteen weeks' compensation.
- "(10) Third finger lost, seventeen weeks' compensation.
- "(11) Toe other than great toe lost, eight weeks' compensation.
- "(12) Fourth finger lost, seven weeks' compensation."

SEC. 3. Paragraph (22) of subdivision (c) of section 8 of such Act, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

"(22) In any case in which there shall be a loss of, or loss of use of, more than one member or parts of more than one member set forth in paragraphs (1) to (19) of this subdivision, not amounting to permanent total disability, the award of compensation shall be for the loss of, or loss of use of, each such member or part thereof, which awards shall run consecutively."

Vol. 44, p. 1428.

Loss of more than one member, not amounting to permanent total disability.

Compensation.

SEC. 4. Subdivision (j) of section 14 of such Act, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

“(j) Whenever the deputy commissioner determines that it is in the interest of justice, the liability of the employer for compensation, or any part thereof as determined by the deputy commissioner with the approval of the Commission, may be discharged by the payment of a lump sum equal to the present value of future compensation payments commuted, computed at 4 per centum true discount compounded annually. The probability of the death of the injured employee or other person entitled to compensation before the expiration of the period during which he is entitled to compensation shall be determined in accordance with the American Experience Table of Mortality, and the probability of the remarriage of the surviving wife shall be determined in accordance with the remarriage tables of the Dutch Royal Insurance Institution. The probability of the happening of any other contingency affecting the amount or duration of the compensation shall be disregarded.”

SEC. 5. Section 22 of such Act, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

“MODIFICATION OF COMPENSATION CASES

“SEC. 22. Upon his own initiative, or upon the application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in conditions or because of a mistake in a determination of fact by the deputy commissioner, the deputy commissioner may, at any time prior to one year after the date of the last payment of compensation, whether or not a compensation order has been issued, review a compensation case in accordance with the procedure prescribed in respect of claims in section 19, and in accordance with such section issue a new compensation order which may terminate, continue, reinstate, increase, or decrease such compensation. Such new order shall not affect any compensation previously paid, except that an award increasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and if any part of the compensation due or to become due is unpaid, an award decreasing the compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and any payment made prior thereto in excess of such decreased rate shall be deducted from any unpaid compensation, in such manner and by such method as may be determined by the deputy commissioner with the approval of the commission.”

Approved, May 26, 1934.
