No interest shall be assessed or collected on any amount of tax due upon any redetermination by the Commissioner, resulting from a refund to the taxpayer, for any period prior to the receipt of such refund, except to the extent interest was paid by the foreign country or possession of the United States on such refund for such period.”

(1) the election for such year may be made (in lieu of at the time of the filing of the return for such year) at any time within one year after the date of the enactment of this Act; but

(2) such election shall not be allowed unless the taxpayer, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary, consents in writing to the assessment (within such period as may be agreed upon) of any deficiency, to the extent resulting from such election, for any other taxable year of the taxpayer, even though on the date of the filing of such consent such assessment is otherwise prevented by the operation of any law or rule of law.

(a) Section 165 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to employees trusts) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

53 Stat. 67.
26 U. S. C. § 165.

“(d) CERTAIN EMPLOYEES’ ANNUITIES.—Notwithstanding subsection (c) or any other provision of this chapter, a contribution to a trust by an employer shall not be included in the income of the employee in the year in which the contribution is made if—

“(1) such contribution is to be applied by the trustee for the purchase of annuity contracts for the benefit of such employee;

“(2) such contribution is made to the trustee pursuant to a written agreement entered into prior to October 21, 1942, between the employer and the trustee, or between the employer and the employee; and

“(3) under the terms of the trust agreement the employee is not entitled during his lifetime, except with the consent of the trustee, to any payments under annuity contracts purchased by the trustee other than annuity payments.

The amount so contributed by the employer shall not constitute consideration paid by the employee for such annuity contract in determining the amount of annuity payments required to be included in his gross income under section 22 (b) (2); except that if the tax imposed by this chapter for any taxable year beginning before January 1, 1949, has been paid by the employee with respect to such contribution for such year, and not credited or refunded, the amount so contributed for such year shall constitute consideration paid by the employee for such annuity contract. This subsection shall have no application with respect to amounts contributed to a trust after June 1, 1949, if the trust on such date was exempt under subsection (a). For the purposes of this subsection, amounts paid by an employer for the purchase of annuity contracts which are transferred to the trustee shall be deemed to be contributions made to a trust or trustee and contributions applied by the trustee for the purchase of annuity contracts; the term ‘annuity contracts purchased by the trustee’ shall include annuity contracts so purchased by the employer and transferred to the trustee; and the term ‘employee’ shall include only a person who was in the employ of the employer, and was covered by the agreement referred to in paragraph (2), prior to October 21, 1942.”

“(g) CERTAIN RECIPROCAL TRUSTS.—In the case of property in a trust created prior to January 1, 1940, if and to the extent that such property may be deemed to have been transferred to such trust by a person other than the nominal grantor of such property (by reason of the fact that such person has made a reciprocal transfer of property in trust), then a relinquishment by such person on or before December 31, 1950, of any power over such property or over the income therefrom shall not be deemed a transfer of property for the purposes of this chapter. In the event of such relinquishment, the reciprocal transfer made by the person relinquishing such power shall be deemed, for the purposes of this chapter, to have been a completed gift at the time such reciprocal transfer was made. This subsection shall apply only if, at the time such person made the aforesaid reciprocal transfer of property, a law was in effect imposing a tax upon the transfer of property by gift and a gift tax was paid with respect to such reciprocal transfer, and not credited or refunded."

47 Stat. 245.
26 U. S. C. § 1000
note.

(b) Section 501 of the Revenue Act of 1932 (imposing a gift tax) is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

"(d) CERTAIN RECIPROCAL TRUSTS.—In the case of property transferred in trust prior to January 1, 1940, if and to the extent that such property may be deemed to have been so transferred by a person other than the nominal grantor of such property (by reason of the fact that such person has made a reciprocal transfer of property in trust), then a relinquishment by such person of any power over such property or over the income therefrom shall not be deemed a transfer of property for the purposes of this title. In the event of such relinquishment on or before December 31, 1950, the reciprocal transfer made by the person relinquishing such power shall be deemed, for the purposes of this title, to have been a completed gift at the time such reciprocal transfer was made. This subsection shall apply only if, at the time such person made the aforesaid reciprocal transfer of property, a law was in effect imposing a tax upon the transfer of property by gift and a gift tax was paid with respect to such reciprocal transfer, and not credited or refunded."

Ante, p. 893.

53 Stat. 121.
26 U. S. C. § 811 (d);
Supp. II, § 811 (d).

(c) In the case of a decedent who relinquished on or before December 31, 1950, a power described in section 1000 (g) of the Internal Revenue Code, such relinquishment shall, for the purposes of section 811 (d) of such code, be deemed not to have been made in contemplation of the death of such decedent if such relinquishment, by virtue of the enactment of this section, is not deemed a transfer of property for the purposes of the gift tax. The provisions of this subsection shall be applicable with respect to estates of decedents dying after February 10, 1939.

SEC. 7. TRANSFERS TAKING EFFECT AT DEATH.

53 Stat. 121.
26 U. S. C. § 811 (c).

(a) Section 811 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to transfers in contemplation of or taking effect at death) is hereby amended to read as follows:

"(c) TRANSFERS IN CONTEMPLATION OF, OR TAKING EFFECT AT, DEATH.—

"(1) GENERAL RULE.—To the extent of any interest therein of which the decedent has at any time made a transfer (except in case of a bona fide sale for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth), by trust or otherwise—

"(A) in contemplation of his death. Any transfer of a material part of his property in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, made by the decedent within two years prior to his death without such consideration, shall, unless shown to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this subchapter; or

"(B) under which he has retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which does not in fact end before his death (i) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (ii) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom; or “(C) intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death.

“(2) TRANSFERS TAKING EFFECT AT DEATH—TRANSFERS PRIOR TO OCTOBER 8, 1949.—An interest in property of which the decedent made a transfer, on or before October 7, 1949, intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after his death shall not be included in his gross estate under paragraph (1) (C) of this subsection unless the decedent has retained a reversionary interest in the property, arising by the express terms of the instrument of transfer and not by operation of law, and the value of such reversionary interest immediately before the death of the decedent exceeds 5 per centum of the value of such property. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term ‘reversionary interest’ includes a possibility that property transferred by the decedent (A) may return to him or his estate, or (B) may be subject to a power of disposition by him, but such term does not include a possibility that the income alone from such property may return to him or become subject to a power of disposition by him. The value of a reversionary interest immediately before the death of the decedent shall be determined (without regard to the fact of the decedent’s death) by usual methods of valuation, including the use of tables of mortality and actuarial principles, pursuant to regulations prescribed by the Commissioner with the approval of the Secretary. In determining the value of a possibility that property may be subject to a power of disposition by the decedent, such possibility shall be valued as if it were a possibility that such property may return to the decedent or his estate.

“(3) TRANSFERS TAKING EFFECT AT DEATH—TRANSFERS AFTER OCTOBER 7, 1949.—An interest in property transferred by the decedent after October 7, 1949, shall be included in his gross estate under paragraph (1) (C) of this subsection (whether or not the decedent retained any right or interest in the property transferred) if and only if—

“(A) possession or enjoyment of the property can, through ownership of such interest, be obtained only by surviving the decedent; or

“(B) under alternative contingencies provided by the terms of the transfer, possession or enjoyment of the property can, through ownership of such interest, be obtained only by surviving the earlier to occur of (i) the decedent’s death or (ii) some other event; and such other event did not in fact occur during the decedent’s life.

Notwithstanding the foregoing sentence, an interest so transferred shall not be included in the decedent’s gross estate under paragraph (1) (C) of this subsection if possession or enjoyment of the property could have been obtained by any beneficiary during the decedent’s life through the exercise of a power of appointment (as defined in section 811 (f) (2)) which in fact was exercisable immediately prior to the decedent’s death.”

(b) The amendment made by subsection (a) shall be applicable with respect to estates of decedents dying after February 10, 1939. The provisions of section 811 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended by subsection (a), shall (except as otherwise specifically provided in such section or in the following sentence) apply to transfers made on, before, or after February 26, 1926. The provisions of section 811 (c)

53 Stat. 122.
26 U. S. C. § 811 (f)

Ante, p. 894.

(1) (B) of such code shall not, in the case of a decedent dying prior to January 1, 1950, apply to—

(1) a transfer made prior to March 4, 1931; or

(2) a transfer made after March 3, 1931, and prior to June 7, 1932, unless the property transferred would have been includible in the decedent's gross estate by reason of the amendatory language of the joint resolution of March 3, 1931 (46 Stat. 1516).

No interest shall be allowed or paid on any overpayment resulting from the application of subsection (a) with respect to any payment made prior to the date of the enactment of this Act.

(c) If refund or credit of any overpayment resulting from the application of subsections (a) and (b) is prevented on the date of the enactment of this Act, or within one year from such date, by the operation of any law or rule of law (other than section 3760 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to closing agreements, and other than section 3761 of such code, relating to compromises), refund or credit of such overpayment may, nevertheless, be made or allowed if claim therefor is filed within one year from the date of the enactment of this Act. This subsection shall not apply with respect to a transfer of property in case the decedent retained for his life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to his death or for any period which did not in fact end before his death (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who should possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom.

53 Stat. 462.
26 U. S. C. § 3760.
53 Stat. 462.
26 U. S. C. § 3761.

SEC. 8. TAX FREE RELEASE OF CERTAIN LIFE ESTATES.

In the case of a transfer of property made prior to June 7, 1932, under which the grantor retained (1) the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to the income from, the property, or (2) the right, either alone or in conjunction with any person, to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom, then an assignment by the grantor of such possession, enjoyment, or right to income, or a relinquishment by him of such right of designation, shall, if made in 1949 or 1950, not be deemed a transfer of property for the purposes of chapter 4 of the Internal Revenue Code, and shall, if made prior to 1951, not be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of chapter 3 of such code. The foregoing provisions shall not apply—

26 U. S. C. §§ 800-938; Supp. II, § 811 et seq.
Ante, pp. 280, 894.

(A) if the transfer was made after March 3, 1931, and prior to June 7, 1932, and if the property transferred would have been includible in the grantor's gross estate upon his death by reason of the amendatory language of the joint resolution of March 3, 1931 (45 Stat. 1516); or

(B) if the property transferred would have been includible in the grantor's gross estate under section 811 (d) of the Internal Revenue Code had he died on October 7, 1949.

SEC. 10. EXEMPTION FROM THE ADDITIONAL ESTATE TAX FOR CERTAIN MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCES.

(a) Subchapter B of chapter 3 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to additional estate tax) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new section:

“(2) died as a result of wounds or other injuries, or of disease, suffered while in line of duty by reason of a hazard to which he was subjected as an incident of military or naval service.”

(b) If the refund of any overpayment resulting from the application of this section is prevented on the date of the enactment of this Act, or within one year from such date, by the operation of any law or rule of law (other than section 3761 of the Internal Revenue Code, relating to compromises), refund of such overpayment may, nevertheless, be made if claim therefor is filed within one year from the date of the enactment of this Act.
